"As the Drama Unfolds in the Middle-East, we feel strongly the need to alert and inform the intercessors of our discernment. The aggressive amassing of armies in the region are but a reflection of the intensifying spiritual conflict in the heavenlies.

Isaiah 24 and Hebrews 12 both tell us that, in these last days, all the world systems shall be shaken and removed. The voice of the Lord is already thundering in the heavenlies as we see communism shaken and falling to the earth, liberating millions from bondage. Next is Islam.

As a demonic principality and a world religion, Islam controls one-fifth of the global population and is fanatically anti-christ. Islam's stated goal is world domination by means of territorial conquest and the utter submission of all souls to the "Great Allah," a demon prince! This violent religion is woven together with unrestrained nationalistic fervor to unite the Arab world into one nation. These very days it looms over the Middle East more lethal than ever. Yet, God's purpose is to dismantle this principality and it's deceptions and bring a great harvest from the Arab Nations! Therefore, we are called to pray and war against this principality. The Lord's admonition is: "The greater the victory and gains in the heavenly battleground, the less blood will be shed on the earthly battleground!"`

He also compares, as many others do, the Fall of Communism to the coming fall (or anticipated coming fall) of Islam. In the Spirit of God's Kingdom Vol 5 nr 1. Jan 1991 Reuven Doron wrote on this topic once again in a section titled: Middle East Prayer Alert

"By the time these words reach you, the war will be nearly three weeks old and probably much uglier than it is today. As we have exhorted earlier, our primary burden still is: "The greater the victory the church gains in the heavenly battlefields, the less blood will be shed in the earthly ones."

"The spiritual battle over the Middle East is to serve the Lord's purpose, which is to dismantle the stronghold of Islam, the principality over Babylon, as well as to topple the religious bondage over the region. By the time the war is over the whole Middle East, we believe, will be opened to the gospel as never before! God will bring a great harvest of souls out of the Arab World!"

So Reuven Doron gave us the second prophecy of the Fall of Islam. The third was not long in coming.

A powerful resurgence of united prayer began in our local church about one month before the fighting began. Shortly after the beginning of the War, I recall a particular prayer meeting at which one of the intercessors mentioned that they had received word to bind the "Prince of Persia". We followed that word at many of our meetings, not stopping to consider that Persia (Iran) was, strictly speaking, not even involved in the war. Of course we also bound the principality of Islam in prayer during those meetings as well. This made the next confirmation of prophecy even more exciting.

In The Morning Star Prophetic Journal Vol. 1 nr. 1, Rick Joyner had the next prophecy. In an article titled "1991 and Beyond" he wrote:

"...Several Western Nations previously considered "Christian" will have their status changed to "heathen." To the astonishment of the church, several other Western Christian nations will have their status changed to "Islamic." Islam will replace communism as the greatest threat to the West. Islam's potential for destroying the West will soon be greater than the nuclear arsenals of the Soviets. There are many Islamic extremists who are simply full of hate or jealousy over the power of the West. But most who consider the West Satanic do so because Westerners claim to trust in God and yet fill the world with pornography, immorality, homosexuality and a profound lack of regard for truth and honor. Just as the Lord used the heathen neighbors of Israel to discipline her for apostasy and idolatry, He is allowing the rise in Islam to discipline the nations and awaken the church. The hoards from the East will not hurt the "wine and the oil", those who have the true Spirit and the true anointing. Their own Koran commands them to respect true Christians and they are respectful of those who are true to their religions. But they abhor hypocrites because the Lord will use them to discipline hypocrites. The only way the rise in Islam can be slowed is by Christians becoming true to their faith.

The spirit of Islam is the biblical "Prince of Persia". The power of this spirit cannot be broken until the church, like the prophet Daniel begins to humble herself and pray for the purpose of God in restoring His Holy city Jerusalem."

He identifies Islam with the Prince of Persia! And like Steve Lightle he gives us the example of the prophet Daniel.

Rick Joyner's next article on the subject was titled: "The Spiritual Meaning of the Persian Gulf War". This appeared in the Morning Star Prophetic Bulletin February 15, 1991. He wrote the following.

"Significant events which take place in the natural often reflect what is happening in the spiritual realm...."

"The Persian Gulf War is a parallel of what is about to happen in the spirit. The Persian Gulf War is a righteous war; it is one that we had to fight. If we did not fight it now it would have been far more costly later. Even so, we should not be as concerned about the war that is going on in the natural as the one that is going on in the spirit of which this natural war is only a reflection.

This particular war is against the Biblical "Prince of Persia" whose contemporary name is "Allah." This is the same principality that resisted the prophet Daniel. Its primary strategy is the subjection and then destruction of all who call upon the true God, just as we see is its schemes to destroy Daniel when he prayed to the Lord. This is not the only battle that the church is in but it is the major one that is raging at this time.

Our warfare is for the destruction of strongholds so that the people can be saved. It is time to pray for the destruction of the stronghold of Islam and the salvation of the Arab people. Before we can effectively launch a spiritual offensive against this stronghold, its grip on us must be removed. Strongholds are deceptions, or misconceptions. A part of the strategy of the stronghold of Islam has been to erect misconceptions about Arabs in the minds of Christians as well as the reverse. Presently this stronghold has a grip on Christians through fear, intimidation and misunderstanding. We must respond to the fears and intimidation with courage and boldness and cast off the misunderstandings we have about the Arab people. We tend to perceive them in the light of the more extreme elements in their religion, just as they tend to perceive Christians by the extremists in our midst (who have historically been just as cruel, intolerant and even murderous as any Moslem fundamentalists have.) Generally, Moslems are kind, generous, hospitable and have the highest standards of honor and integrity. Our offensive against the stronghold of Islam is not an attack upon the Arab people. We are commanded to "honor all men" (I Peter 2:17). We must honor the Arabs for that which is honorable, respect them for that which is worthy of respect and above all, love them because God loves them and gave His Son for them."

Let me emphasize one of the things Bro. Joyner said. "The Persian Gulf war is a parallel of what is about to happen in the spirit." Considering the course and dramatic finish of the Persian Gulf war, what might we conclude happened in the heavenlies? Is it out of line to figure that God has accomplished his purpose in the spiritual realm. Is the stronghold of Islam now broken? Are the spoils ready for the taking? Are there captives ready to be set free? Is the Lord of the Harvest about to thrust forth laborers into the whitened fields of the Middle East?

Bro. Rick Joyner, in his book "The Harvest", had earlier given some long term prophecies regarding the Harvest in Islamic countries. These also clearly indicate a powerful move of God coming in the middle east.

From The Harvest page 103-104 by Rick Joyner. "As the harvest begins to affect Islamic countries some will vehemently resist it, but in general the harvest will reap many from among Islam. Egypt will be almost entirely won to the Lord; her devotion and willingness to sacrifice for His purposes will be so great she will actually be called "the altar of the Lord." Great apostles and prophets will come out of Islamic countries. These will rejoice greatly in the truth that sets them free, preaching the gospel with a commitment and abandon which will inspire the entire body of Christ."

from page 110 "As a legacy to Anwar Sadat, who ...recognized Israel against great opposition, the entire nation of Egypt will call on the name of Jesus and water the deserts of the earth with the gospel."

I received yet another confirmation came in the form of a second hand report from Rev. Dennis Blackwell, a pastor from Grand Isle, LA.

He related to me a word of Prophecy that came out in a Benny Hinn meeting, It is roughly as follows: "The Christians in America should not be praying against the war or to stop the war. God intends to use this war to break the back of Islam." (My first reaction to this was 'I knew that!' only later did I see that it was another confirmation.

Still another word came to us in the following manner.

Bro. Loren Cunningham of Youth with a Mission had visited Kuwait a few years before the war and given an interesting prophecy to a Church meeting there. This was related to us at Reserve Church by a brother from Kuwait who met with a group of us during the conflict.

Here is a paraphrase of that prophecy:

'The Gulf Area will undergo severe financial and military pressure. This will be in order to re arrange all the systems and to prepare the land and people for the Gospel. Kuwait will be a starting point as an entrance for all this area, and a base to reach all the countries in the Gulf area.'

Our brother from Kuwait, whom we will refer to as 'Abdul Rahman' since he wishes to remain anonymous, also mentioned the openness and cosmopolitan aspects of Kuwait. There are workers there from all around the world. 122 nations are represented there. And in marked contrast to neighboring Saudi Arabia, Christianity is openly practiced there. The National Evangelical Church had 27 separate congregations before the Iraqi invasion.

A move of God beginning there could raise up and train converts to return home and reach practically every Muslim nation in the eastern hemisphere!

Derek Prince writes in a similar vein regarding Islam and anticipating its fall. Here is an excerpt from "Mideast Prayer Strategy" by Derek Prince from April 1991, Charisma.

The basis of the spiritual power of Islam in all the Middle East and North Africa can be summed up on one word: proclamation. Every mosque proclaims five times a day certain statements about their god Allah and their prophet Mohammed. I believe the tremendous dominating spiritual power of Islam is due to ceaseless proclamation of the spiritual force that Muslims want to establish.

...the answer to proclamation is counter proclamation. We in the church have sadly failed to appreciate the power and the value of persistent proclamation.

...When you contemplate the situation in the middle east. .respond with proclamations - in prayer, in intercession, in singing....

...Islam. Pray that the present conflict in the Middle East will open the way for the apparently impregnable fortress of Islam to be breached.

I have a deep concern and compassion for the Muslim people. Having lived in Muslim nations myself, I know the awful darkness, misery and slavery that Islam imposes on men and women. My heart's desire is that God will so intervene that the fortress holding them captive will be broken open and a way will be made for their release.

Most of us would never have believed that the collapse of communism in Eastern Europe could happen so dramatically and quickly. This should encourage us that Islam will also yield to our prayers and our proclamations.

Jesus said: "When a strong man, fully armed, guards his own palace, his goods are in peace. But when a stronger than he comes upon him and overcomes him, he takes from him all his armor in which he trusted, and divides his spoils" (Luke 11:21-22). We can invoke the One who is stronger than Islam - that is, Jesus - to move into that situation, open up the fortress, deliver the captives and enable us to take the spoil."

In that same issue of Charisma, the cover story was on the subject of Islam. The article was titled " The Threat of a New Islamic Alliance" By George Otis Jr.

The following is an excerpt from this article.

"Despite the sobering possibilities emerging from the new Islamic revival, Christians have reason for excitement over what God is doing in the Muslim world. Right in the midst of so much spiritual darkness, the church is witnessing the power of God through the efforts of an unprecedented mobilization of missionary plans and personnel, as well as God's own direct intervention. The result has been a number of remarkable reports of miracles and mass conversions.

The evidence is building that satanic agents are not the only supernatural forces at work in the Muslim world today. In fact, recent months have evidenced a dramatic rise in divine power encounters, particularly within the boundaries of Islam. While such events were noticeable throughout the entire decade of the 1980's from around 1987 onward many observers have detected a significant surge in both their frequency and scope.

In Algeria, for example, an Arab missions leader reported that 300 Muslims were converted recently after the Holy Spirit sovereignly descended upon their village during a remarkable night of divinely orchestrated dreams, visions and angelic visitations. In subsequent months, hundreds of other Algerian Berbers have found Christ through equally miraculous circumstances. Similar reports of Muslims encountering the gospel through dreams have surfaced in Turkey, Pakistan and Thailand.

Underground church leaders in Afghanistan have experienced Book of Acts style deliverances from radical Muslim tormentors and continue to win many to Christ. In the Islamic Republic of Iran, more Muslims have come to Christ since 1980 than in the previous 1,000 years combined. Further accounts, some of which cannot yet be disclosed, come from such far flung places as Soviet Central Asia, Iraq and Tunisia, further confirming that God is moving in a new way among Truth seeking Muslims."

Interest and activity in Muslim Missions has picked up still more. For example the Spring issue of Mission Frontiers has no less than 6 articles on Muslim topics. These include discussion of the Messianic Muslims and an emphasis on "tentmaking" opportunities.

Operation Desert Harvest: The Call

> "Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Then said I, Here am I; send me. (Isaiah 6:8)

My first inkling of a call to Arabia, was upon hearing a news report, during the war, that ARAMCO (Arabian-American Oil Company) was sending American families back to the states to avoid the SCUD missiles. This prompted a realization that there were jobs for Americans available there.

Some days later, the Lord spoke to me about getting a job over there. And that if I were willing to go, it would be possible for me to get out from a debt burden that was hindering me.

By now I already had the vision of what God was going to do in the Muslim countries. This plus the prospect of getting out of debt made me excited about going and being involved.

Then the Lord placed a call upon our local Church.

Pastor Rod Aguillard announced in a church meeting shortly after the end of the Kuwait War, that "the Holy Spirit challenged us to be an outreach to the Muslim world. He is encouraging me to send our best to this new field that is going to be ripe for harvest. We have accepted the challenge and are preparing the people for this grand offense."

I began to study and prepare myself to work and minister in Arab lands. The Holy Spirit has clearly led me, times too numerous to mention. The most exciting revelation came from a study of Kuwait itself.

One of the first things I was led to do after accepting the call to Arabia (Kuwait or any Gulf area nation) was to go out and get a book titled "The Rape of Kuwait" by Jean Sasoon. As I read up on the history of Kuwait, the Lord revealed something very interesting and exciting.

First of all Kuwait's origins only go back to the early 1700's when nomadic tribesmen settled in the area and established a seaport in a natural harbor. Kuwaitis have been an outward looking people, open to the world by way of the sea. Their Saudi cousins tended to be closed off from the world by looking to the desert.

In 1961 Kuwait became fully independent from Britain. From that time forward Kuwait became the most open society in the Gulf. The homeless Palestinians were welcome. Many Asian and third world workers found opportunities there.

The peaceful days ended in 1979 with the ascension of Khomeini in Iran. The Ayatollah attempted to export his Islamic revolution through all the Arab world. He attempted to overthrow the Kuwaiti government among others. (Clearly Satan did not like the way things were run in Kuwait.)

A respite came during the Iran-Iraq war. Kuwait backed Iraq as did other moderate Gulf states. The war ended in august 1988 with no clear victor. Two years later they were invaded by their "friend" Iraq.

At this point the Lord showed me the "real" reason for the attacks upon Kuwait. First Khomeini's then Hussein's. In view of the prophecies mentioned earlier. A. There is a coming move of God in the Gulf. B. Kuwait will play a major part in it. Therefore: The attacks were an attempt by the enemy to stop the Move of God before it could begin. But, according to what the prophets cited above are saying, God was using the war itself as a means to "dismantle the Power of Islam". So what Satan meant for evil, God once again turns around for good. The enemy is fallen himself in the very pit he dug for another.

The enemy used Iraq to try and stop the move of God. This was just as he used Pharaoh to try and stop God from delivering the Israelites by killing the babies. The plan resulted in Moses being raised up in Pharaohs own palace!

To my mind this realization both revealed God at work in a typical fashion. And it provided further confirmation that He is indeed going to Move Mightily in the Middle East!

Then I got an opportunity to study Islam in depth through Operation Desert Grace! Operation Desert Grace was a 12 hour course of study sponsored by GSMA. Our Christian Arab brother "Abdul Rahman" led us in a detailed study of Muslim History and Doctrine, during the summer of 91.

Muslims, we learned live in fear. Under a yoke of constant fear. Any Muslim who converts to Christianity is cut off from the community, the family and all financial inheritance. In the more radical areas he would be killed. So that typical Muslim evangelism involves working intensely with one candidate for 6 months or longer, gradually leading him to make the step of committing to Christ and breaking with everything else. So it is a very slow process.

Islam will fall rapidly and dramatically, believe the prophets. So the Holy Spirit will clearly use faster methods. One obvious solution to this problem is the conversion of whole families and tribes at once! I believe the Holy Spirit will do this in a dramatic outpouring of his power. (Even as he has already begun to do, according to the report from George Otis quoted earlier.) I also believe that, in line with the word given Steve Lightle, there will come a great "DAY OF PENTECOST" in Mecca. A day when Muslim Pilgrims from all over the world are gathered together. Just as Jews from all over were in Jerusalem on pentecost when Peter preached. 3000 were saved. So 300,000 Muslims will hear the gospel preached in Mecca and be converted. And then they will take the good news back to their home countries and spread the revival! Glory to God!

Another hopeful development is the emergence of "Messianic Muslims". Congregations of Muslim believers, who, are in the pattern of Messianic Jews. (That is Jews who accept the Messiahship of Jesus without ceasing to be Jews or abandoning Jewish forms and traditions.) These Messianic Muslims acknowledge the lordship of Jesus, while retaining Muslim forms of prayer. Praying 5 times a day and still using the name of Allah for God, only now praying to the true ALLAH! (If one can put a thousand to flight and two can put ten thousand to flight, five times a day!....)

So great things are happening and even greater things are at the door. I'm sure there are many others like myself whom the Lord is preparing to use in the end time harvest which is just beginning. It will be a glorious work, just as he is a glorious God.

So that's what I know about what God is doing. I have my passport. My resume is ready. I'm walking by faith that God will soon open the door of opportunity. Operation Desert Harvest is just beginning.

Afterword. Since this was originally written, it has become apparent that the political fallout of the Gulf War is what lead to the current Oslo accords and the 'peace process' in the Middle East today.

Looking Ahead: Isaiah 60:6-7 speaks of many Arabic peoples coming to salvation. The context indicates the timing of this. It will come about when the Church begins to move in the end time harvesting anointing. This is the Lord's doing and it is marvelous in our eyes!

John 16:1, “These things have I spoken unto you that ye should not be offended.”
This verse in the RV says: “… that you should not be made to stumble.”
The NLT says, “I have told you these things so that you won’t fall away.”

(While this is not part of the prophetic word I sent out in the last mailing, I do believe it to be Holy Spirit inspired. This is what I saw as I continued to read the Scriptures after receiving the prophecy.)

The verse in the RV seems to say that we are more likely to stumble and fall when offense comes. The NLT seems to say that we are likely to fall away because of offense. And Jesus knew that if we take offense often enough we are in danger of falling away. So I looked back to see what He had spoken previously that was to keep us from offense. I read chapters 13-15 to get all that seemed to be connected before He had spoken before he said, in Chapter 16:1, “I have spoken these things…”

What I found is that even though Jesus was fully aware of His authority in Heaven and earth, although He was The Anointed One, The Word of God Incarnate, He chose to take the role of servant. He washed the feet of the disciples (Ch. 13). He chose to lay down His power and authority to become a servant of mankind. He chose to live and die to reconcile man to God. He chose to lay down His live for us in order to demonstrate God’s great love for us.

Jesus asked the disciples if they understood what He was doing. And He instructed them to follow His example. (v. 12 Ch 15) Then in verse 34 he gave them a new commandment, “Love each other just as I have loved you, you should love each other. Your love for one another will prove to the world that you are MY disciples.” NLT

Earlier, in v. 21 Jesus said that He knew one of them would betray Him. He already knew He was doing to die. He knew how He would die. And He knew who would betray Him and who would deny Him. Yet He sat down at the table and ate with the one would betray Him and the one who would deny Him, and those who had not been willing or able to wait and pray with Him in the garden. They were all there at the table with Him. He knew all their faults and failures, He was aware of all their shortcomings.

They had disappointed Him at various times in different circumstances. Yet He continued to love, to lead, to teach. He did not reveal their identities or their sins to the others. He knew them well. He knew their hearts, their intents. He knew Peter would deny Him and Judas would betray Him. Yet He washed their feet and broke bread and shared a cup of wine with them. And He told them all to follow His example in love and service.

In chapter 14 Jesus told the disciples not to worry, but to trust God in everything. In v. 10 He told them that the words He spoke were the Father's words. Then He said we are to do all He did and more. And in v. 13 He said we can ask for anything in His name. So we are to do even greater works of service, even greater acts of love, laying down our lives to love and to serve those God places in our lives. And we can ask Him to fill us with His love expecting to receive His love and be empowered by love and serve as He did. He promised us that Holy Spirit would come to guide us. In v.23 He said, "If you love Me you will do what I say." And in v.27 He says for us to not be troubled or afraid.

In chapter 15 He teaches that He is the vine and we are the branches and we must draw from Him by staying connected to Him. In verse 12 of chapter 15 He repeats His command for us to love each other the same way He loves us. Then He tells us how to measure that love, "The greatest love is shown when people lay down their lives for their friends."

So I asked the Lord, the question, "How do we lay down our lives?" This is what I see. First we lay down our 'rights'. We lay down our selfish desires, our desires for recognition, our desire for justice and fair play, and our right to be respected, or admired, or treated in a certain way. We lay down our right to be right, our desire to be right, our right to speak our opinion, our desire for praise of men, to have our egos built up. We lay down our right to sit in the best seat (or the one we are used to, the one we prefer). We lay down our desire to have others do or say only what we like. We give up our desire to have only the music we like, or to want only certain people to sing or play instruments, to only listen to the teachers we like, to only receive a word from the people we approve and accept.

We lay down our opinions in order to hear another's opinion. We lay down doing things our way to allow another to express their creativity and gifting. We do it all in love for the sake of others. We look for what God has placed in people and try to help bring it out, help them develop the treasure God has placed within their earthen vessel. We become willing to sometimes not exercise our own gift in order to make room for another to do so.

We walk in love, live in love, respond in love to everyone and pray for everyone the way we want to be prayed for.

Our God And Father

Carol McCarthy

June 25, 2005

Rejoice oh, favored ones - lift up your voice of vibrant praise and love that reaches the ear of the glorious, eternally present One, who is our God and our Father.

Let our songs of love to Him resound everywhere we are - day and night, in crowded places and rooms of solitude. May our lips praise Him on all our sunny days as well as in the nights of storms.

May our words speak often of the countless ways He demonstrates His extravagance toward us. He tenderly caresses us with all the beauty of His creation that our eyes can see. All the waters of the earth; the rippling streams, the crashing waves of the oceans, the morning dew upon the budding flower; and the majestic mountains along with the deep valleys were all sculptured by His powerful hand. Even the beautiful, open meadows where the deers run, the eagles fly, the spider weaves her web, and the bees make their honey caused Him to smile at what He had done. The bright shining sun and the moon with the stars that bring light to the darkness of night was His thought and desire, and in the changing of seasons; spring, summer, fall and winter His signature of existence remains.

The most amazing thing for any of us to behold is that our Creator God..sought to have relationship with "man", who was His highest act of creation, being made in God's own image. Gloriously, God's story (HIStory) doesn't end with the " sin-fall" of man, but instead, it begins there. God is the One who initiated His plan of redemption; restoring mankind to his rightful place of fellowship with Himself by sending, in His perfect timing, His son, Jesus the Christ, the holy anointed One. He was and is the only acceptable sacrifice for sin that could reconcile mankind back to the Creator and to our Father.

Hallelujah, we have been redeemed from sin, and reconciled to God, we are highly favored, sons and daughters of the Most High God, being continually transformed into the very image of Jesus Christ, His Son and our elder brother. Our Father God, has surely done all things well. That's why we can shout, we can sing, we can dance, we can praise, we can glory in His Presence. He, alone, is worthy of every breath we breathe, every song we sing, every word we speak...He is the Giver of life, filling our lives with abundant mercies, never abandoning nor forgetting us, and always bringing us closer to Himself.

His love and gaze is ever upon us, His beloved ones. We are His Bride, for whom He longingly anticipates that soon coming Wedding Day which will be the consummation of this present age and becoming His Kingdom age, ruling and reigning with us at His side forevermore!!

Open Your Hearts And Pour Out
Sam Buick

I Have Come And Filled The Empty Jars With Water, The Water Of My Spirit! Open Your Hearts And Pour

BIBLE: Josh. 21, Josh. 22, Acts 20, Psalm 110

I Have Come And Filled The Empty Jars With Water, The Water Of My Spirit! Open Your Hearts And Pour Out What I Have Poured In You, And See The New Wine Flow Out! Come And Drink And Be Satisfied!

“Beloved Bride, come to the feast! Come and gather for the feast! Every time that you gather in My Name, I come to your table! I come and I prepare a feast for you! I have come and I have poured out the living waters into you, and out of you will come new wine! Out of you will come the new wine that will bring in the harvest!

“Beloved ones, come and gather as I pour out the living waters! The rains, the fresh rains are pouring out upon you! The fountains are breaking forth from the deep wells in the earth! The waters above and the waters below are coming forth! Floods of waves upon waves of grace are pouring out and overwhelming all those that are in its path! You shall be overrun by the Rivers of Living Waters that burst forth!

“As you gather in My Name and call out and wait upon Me, I shall not disappoint you! All who wait shall be rewarded! My fresh waters are coming upon you! As vessels, as jars of clay, you shall be filled! You shall be filled to overflowing with the cleansing and healing waters! These waters will renew and refresh and strengthen you! These waters will prepare you for the feast!

“Beloved ones, I am sending you out! I am sending you out for a greater feast is being prepared! I send you out as jars of clay filled with waters that have turned to wine! New wine, the best wine has been saved up ‘til now! The new wine of My Spirit is being poured out through your lives as you go and give away all that I have given you! Freely you have received, freely give, and all that is poured out of you in My Name, I shall more than re-supply! Give in abundance and you shall reap likewise in abundance! As you are filled, even you who are jars that are cracked and leaking, the very leaks coming forth from you, from your wounds and hurts, these shall turn to new wine for all that are touched by your lives!

“Beloved as you move out and begin to pour out what I have poured into you, the new wine will flow and bring new life and healing to many. Beloved let the new wine pour out from your lives, and the anointing will break every yoke as you trust and obey the voice of the Lord! Let the River flow! Let the new wine come forth! There shall be a harvest of souls who shall come in the harvest! There shall be signs and wonders and miracles as the New Wine pours out and touches all who are wounded and hurting and in need! They shall be filled and satisfied, and the Lord will look upon you and declare, “Well done, My good and faithful servant!””

Our Immortal Bodies

Eva Faye Marsee

Dream of being on earth 40 days in our immortal bodies

I had this dream sometime probably in the early 80's. It is still very vivid today. I dreamed my family was driving around in a rural area just enjoying the day. We were driving by a small cemetery in a neighborhood when all at once I saw an elderly man climb up out of a grave. I shouted to Dana my husband and said," Look Dana the dead in Christ are rising. Pull over to this house and I will call Mom and Dad and tell them what is happening because It probably won't be on the news for a while". I was in this house talking to the people and they said I could use their phone. I picked up the receiver and started to dial when I heard Dad on the phone saying hello. I said, "What are you doing on the phone I haven't dialed yet"? Then the Holy Spirit spoke to me and said, " Now you will have whatever your heart desires, not what your thoughts are but what is your deep heart desire".

Then I turned to the people there and told them "This thing that is happening is really great, you guys need to get saved". They said to me "It's to late." And I said "No it's not, it's never to late". Then they said "Yes it is, it's to late." So I said "We can ask God for anything and He will do it now." So I set up a chalkboard and a piece of chalk and I said, "Holy Spirit tell us. Is it to late?" And all at once it was written on the chalkboard "Yes".

The next thing I knew Dana and I were walking down a back ally and all this screaming was going on. Terrible screams. We looked over and some people were using a guillotine to cut off Christian's heads. We didn't feel sad because we knew that it was suppose to be and we weren't afraid because we knew that they couldn't touch us because we had our immortal bodies and no one could harm us. We also knew that those people that weren't Christians hated us because they could not harm us.

We were starting to walk through this ally onto the main street and in my spirit I could see someone waiting to attack us around the corner of this building. They had an ax ready to swing holding it back over his head. I wasn't afraid. I was just curious how the Holy Spirit was going to take care of it. When we stepped in front of this man he was frozen and couldn't move and I could see that it was making him very angry.

The next thing I knew I was walking by myself down main street and I started missing Dana. So I said, "Holy Spirit take me to be with Dana." The next thing I knew I was floating in a standing position at a walking speed down the street. I said, "Holy Spirit let's go as fast as lightning." Instantly I was zooming down the road to a house where I could see Dana. Dana was in a glass house in a small neighborhood. He was down on one knee reading the Bible. Then I was standing next to him. Then I said, "Holy Spirit I would like for the kids to be here with us". All at once I saw the children flying in the air next to each other coming to us.

Then all my family, (at that time, my children, my husband and I) were walking down a street late in the day in a neighborhood just enjoying the peace and I had this great desire to be with Jesus. All at once I was being pulled by the Holy Spirit into the sky. My joy was great. Then I realized that the Holy Spirit had said that we could have our hearts deep desire. As I was floating to heaven I looked back to my family and said that's it! That's it! The rapture will happen when you get the deep desire to be with Jesus.

After I awoke, the Holy Spirit told me we were going to be on Earth for 40 days after the dead in Christ arose, but we would have our immortal bodies, like Jesus did when He rose from the dead and walked the earth with His immortal body for 40 days. The reason we were still on earth was to help those Christians that were not ready and did not have oil in their lamps like the ten virgins in Matthew 25. We were to encourage them not to take the mark of the beast.

In the late fall of 2002 I came across a website. It has a collection of prophesies and dreams that different people received through the years. When I read that there were other people who had the same dream as I did, I just about fell over. Their names are Armin A. Wolf and Patricia. [http://www.etpv.org/2003/apdr.html]

In September God anointed me with the anointing of fire and restitution. He said He was getting His bride ready for the great resurrection. Amen come quickly Lord Jesus.

O Ishmael, Where Art Thou?

Don Walker

[It is with a certain amount of trepidation that I approach the subject of this edition. Recognizing that I am calling into question something that has been standard Biblical interpretation for generations. In doing so, I am not taking a dogmatic stance but simply pointing out what I have encountered in my study that challenges what I was taught on this matter. I present this for your consideration.]

Most Bible commentators generally accept that the Arab peoples are the descendents of Ishmael. I have found that to be the standard interpretation in a wide range of commentaries whether they are reformed or dispensational, liberal or conservative. I would appear that there is virtually universal agreement upon this issue. But that is not necessarily the case. Take note of what is found in the widely respected Cyclopedia of Biblical, Theological, and Ecclesiastical Literature by John McClintock and James Strong:

"There is a prevalent notion that the Arabs, both of the south and north, are descended from Ishmael; and the passage in Gen. xvi:12 . . . is often cited as if it were a prediction of that national independence which, upon the whole, the Arabs have maintained more than any other people. But this supposition (in so far as the true meaning of the text quoted is concerned) is founded on a misconception of the original Hebrew . . . These prophecies found there accomplishment in the fact of the sons of Ishmael being located, generally speaking, to the east of the other descendents of Abraham whether by Sara or Keturah. But the idea of the southern Arabs being of the posterity of Ishmael is entirely without foundation, and seems to have originated in the tradition invented by Arab vanity that they, as well as the Jews, are of the seed of Abraham – a vanity which, besides disfiguring and falsifying the whole history of the patriarch and his son Ishmael, has transferred the scene of it from Palestine to Mecca . . . The vast tracts of country known to us under the name of Arabia gradually became peopled by a variety of tribes of different lineage" (Vol. 1, pg. 339).

In addition to this, most standard reference works on Islam reject the Arab claim of Abrahamic descent. For example, the prestigious Encyclopedia of Islam traces the Arabs to non-Abrahamic origins (Vol. 1, pp. 543-47). One will also find the Dictionary of Islam questioning the whole idea that the Arabs are descended from Ishmael:

"The pure Arabs are those who claim to be descended from Joktan or Qahtan, whom the present Arabs regard as their principle founder… The 'Arabu 'l-Musta'ribah, the mixed Arabs, claim to be descended from Ishmael, they boast as much as the Jews of being reckoned the children of Abraham. This circumstance will account for the preference with which they uniformly regard this branch of their pedigree, and for the many romantic legends they have grafted upon it… The Arabs, in their version of Ishmael's history, have mixed a great deal of romance with the narrative of Scripture" (pp. 18-19).

Are the Arabs the descendents of Ishmael? Could it be that Islam has influenced our interpretation of the Bible on this point?

According to the Qur'an, written by Muhammad, Abraham and Ishmael did not dwell in tents in Israel but in the city of Mecca in Arabia. Together they built the Kabah and placed the black stone in the wall. It was Abraham who started the tradition of the annual pilgrimage to Mecca, throwing stones at the devil, etc. Abraham took Ishmael (not Issac) to nearby Mount Mina to offer as a sacrifice to God (Sura 2:119-121). This is clearly in contradiction to the teachings of Scripture. In addition, there is no historical or archeological evidence that Ishmael went south to Mecca and became the "Father" of the Arab people. Some modern Arab scholars admit that before Muhammad, Qahtan was said to be the "Father" of the Arabs, not Ishmael. The evidence seems to point to Muhammad as the originator of the idea that the Arab people are the descendents of Ishmael.

What do we know about Ishmael? Ishmael's twelve sons were named Nebaioth, Kedar, Adbeel, Mibsam, Dumah, Massa, Hadad, Tema, Jetur, Naphish, and Kedemah (Gen. 12:11-16). They intermarried with the local population in North Arabia and produced several nomadic tribes known as the "Ishmaelites." It was prophesied that Ishmael and his family would "live to the East of all his brothers" (Gen. 16:12). "And they settled from Havilah to Shur which is east of Egypt as one goes toward Assyria (Gen. 25:18). This broad area is the desert section east of Egypt in Northern Arabia toward the kingdom of the Assyrians. The Ishmaelites are mentioned as a distinct tribe in the Assyrian records. They later intermarried with, and were absorbed, by the Midianites and other local tribes. In Gen. 37:25-28, the Ishmaelites are called Midianites. In Judges 8:22-24 the Midianites are identified as Ishmaelites. No other tribe, or people, are identified as Ishmaelites in the Scriptures.

Arabia was already populated by the descendents of Cush and Shem long before Abraham or Ishmael were born (Gen. 10:7). Their cities have been well documented by archeologists. If all the Arab people descended from Ishmael, as claimed by Muhammad, where did all the original Arabs go? What happened to them? Who did Ishmael marry if the Arabs did not already exist? If Arabia was unpopulated, who built Mecca? Since he lived there, it evidently existed before he was born. The facts speak for themselves. The Arabs were around long before Ishmael started roaming North Arabia.

Is it possible that some of the Arabs are Ishmaelites/Midianites? Certainly, but to assert that all Arabs are such is a real stretch, as I see it. More importantly, are we being good Bereans when we teach that the Arabs are descendents of Ishmael. Muhammad taught that, but where is it clearly found in the Bible?

Right Doctrine, But Wrong Attitude
Don Walker

> "It is the sad tendency of modern man to either do the right thing in the wrong way or to do the wrong thing in the right way. We either hold to the truth obnoxiously or we hold to a lie graciously. We are either a rude angel or a polite devil. Often what poses as a cruel orthodoxy is defeated by what poses as a kind heresy." George Grant

I don't know about you, but I find myself convicted by the above statement. Too often than I care to recount, I have found myself in my zeal for the truth manifesting a wrong attitude. I trust we all know that we can be doctrinally correct, but attitudinally wrong. Let me propose that right theology approached with a wrong attitude becomes, in the heart, a wrong "doctrine." We see this revealed in the Gospels through the Pharisees, who in many instances believed the right things, but had an attitude of self-righteousness to others, incurring the rebuke of Jesus. I am afraid that I have many times been more like the Pharisees than like Jesus. In fact, I have told people "I'm a Pharisee in recovery."

I don't think I'm alone in this. I have seen others exhibit a little bit of "Pharisee-ism." (I am quite gifted at seeing the flaws in others.) In fact, I have even encouraged at times others to join with me in my wrong attitude. Who wants to be a "lone" Pharisee? Like misery, religion loves company.

Let us remember that the Pharisees did not start out as a "bad" group. They came about as a "back to the Bible" movement that emerged in the time of the Maccabees, seeking to bring the Israelites back to the Mosaic Law. But by the time Jesus came on the scene, their attitude was such that they were in conflict with their Messiah. Jesus told his disciples concerning the Pharisees, "do as they say, but not as they do" (Matt. 23:3).

It is my observation that to a large extent the evangelical Church in American has an "us against them" mentality as it relates to the world. Its "us" against the homosexuals, the pro-choicers, the liberals, the New Agers, the Muslims, and all other reprobates and degenerates who are headed to eternal damnation in the Lake of Fire. Of course, we drive around with those bumperstickers that say "God loves you and I love you." For some reason I don't think the "earth people" are getting the message. (Undoubtedly, they are getting "a" message.) It just doesn't seem to me that Jesus had an "us against them" approach to ministry.

I am not by any means advocating that we compromise with the truth. Nor does this mean that we should not oppose evil and injustice in society. We must hold unwaveringly to the truth of God's Word, which does teach us that there is only one way to God the Father (John 14:6), that there is absolute truth (John 17:17), and that there is a final judgment for those who reject Christ (Rev. 21:11-15). Scripture says, "Mercy and truth have met together, righteousness and peace have kissed each other" (Ps. 85:10). Jesus never compromised the truth, yet He was "a friend of sinners" (Matt. 11:19; Luke 7:34)). To faithfully represent our Lord we must hold to the truth and "love our neighbor" (Matt.22:39), who may be living contrary to God's ways. Paul said we are to "speak the truth in love" (Ephes. 4:15). Sometimes we can be so "loving" we are not truthful, other times we can "beat people with the truth" in a most unloving way. I believe for instance in the reality of hell, but I have heard people preach about it in such a way that they seem delighted that some people are going there. This seems to be much different than the attitude of Jesus, who was grieved over Jerusalem and its impending judgment (Matt. 23:37).

When the Scripture says, "Friendship with the world is hostility toward God" (James 4:4), it cannot be instructing us to avoid being friends to sinners. Because if that is the case Jesus violated this principle Himself (Luke 7:34). This is not a statement about people, but about the way we are to relate to the world system. Jesus said we are to love our enemies (Matt.5:44), which calls us into relating to them, rather than avoiding them.

The challenge for us, as believers, is to love those who are not easy to love. This does not mean we are to "love for love's sake," which ignores truth, but to "love for Christ's sake," which is based on the person and work of Christ. Love for love's sake only brings death and destruction. It cannot bring a solution because it denies the existence of a problem. Love for Christ's sake brings life, because it tells the truth with compassion.

May we as God's people not only learn to carry the truth, but may we learn to carry it God's way.

Inspirations, Impressions, And Observations On 2005
The Word of the Lord

2005 My Church ALIVE!

To do the impossible
To see the incredible
To do the undoable
To take hold of the unattainable To know the unknowable To believe the unbelievable To reach the unreachable stars

Yes, it is the fullness of the GREAT GRACE which began in 2003.

Where sin abounds much more does My grace abound. Therefore, it is a sealing of righteous judgment to remain dead in sin!

There is a theme running through 2005 that is repeated over and over. Key words are the Son of God, sons of God, Light and darkness, Dividing, Grace, and Revelation. While I looked at the individual numbers of 2005, I have only given light attention to the sum of these, which is 7. I felt the Lord would have much to say about that number in 2007.

However, I feel that there will be many beginnings (conceptions) in 2005 that will come to their fullness or completion (birth) in 2007. 7 is spiritual perfection, or completion. I'm being prompted by Holy Spirit that the gestation period of an elephant is the longest in the animal kingdom, and is around 22 months. The things being conceived this year are much bigger than we perceive them to be. Do not despise the days of small beginnings - or slow starts! The camel has the second longest gestation!

•Zechariah 4:10, Who [with reason] despises the day of small things? For these seven (7) shall rejoice when they see the plummet in the hand of Zerubbabel. [These seven] are the eyes of the Lord which run to and fro throughout the whole earth.

I believe the greater measure of grace that is being released is for us to give away. We are representatives of His Throne. The Spirit of Sonship and Adoption will accompany the release of Grace, for it is by GRACE that we are saved. We have an opportune time to take this saving GRACE to the world. There is a world of people who do not have the access to the Throne of Grace that we have. When needs come before us, we have the responsibility to go to the Throne of Grace to obtain mercy on their behalf, and to FIND GRACE to help - in good time and for every need. Ephesians 2:5 (2-00-5), Even when we were dead (slain) by [our own] shortcomings and trespasses, He made us alive together in fellowship and in union with Christ; [He gave us the very life of Christ Himself, the same new life with which He quickened Him, for] it is by GRACE (His favor and mercy which you did not deserve) that you are saved (delivered from judgment and made partakers of Christ's salvation).

Because this verse is so foundational to 2005, I believe there will come forth a great revealing of the Spirit of Life, and therefore a great overcoming of both the fear of death and death. Miracles, signs and wonders will flow by the workings of the Spirit of GRACE and by the Spirit of Life. However, the greatest miracle remains new Life in Christ. • Romans 8:2, For the law of the Spirit of Life [which is] in Christ Jesus [the law of our new being] has freed me from the law of sin and death.

An analogy of this would be the law of lift and thrust overcoming the law of gravity and allowing an airplane to break free and become airborne.

Hebrews 4:16, The Throne of Grace

- Let us fearlessly and confidently and boldly draw near to the throne of grace (the throne of God's unmerited favor to us sinners), that we may receive mercy [for our failures] and find grace to help in good time for every need [appropriate help and well-timed help, coming just when we need it].

We see from a closer look at this verse that Grace must be found, and it involves a process. We are to grow in Grace for it is by Grace that we come into maturity. Hebrews 4:16 is the address - Go get it!

Have You Put On the Full Armor of God?

There is a link to the Spirit of Grace that I want to establish, and that is the Spirit of Supplication. They are linked in the following verse where we see the effects of such a joining together and outpouring. • Zechariah 12:10, And I will pour out upon the house of David and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem the Spirit of grace or unmerited favor and supplication. And they shall look upon Me Whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for Him as one mourns for his only son, and shall be in bitterness for Him as one who is in bitterness for his firstborn. • Ephesians 6:18, through all prayer and supplication praying at all times in the Spirit, and in regard to this same, watching in all perseverance and supplication for all the saints -

The Amplified reads, Pray at all times (on every occasion, in every season) in the Spirit. This is the most overlooked part of putting on the armor of God. It is what we are to do after we take up the sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God. It is WHY we are to take up the sword.

There is an anointing on watching and praying released in this year of Greater Grace.

Five is Grace, Giants, and the Kings of the Promised Land

- Joshua10:5, Then the five kings of the Amorites - the kings of Jerusalem, Hebron, Jarmuth, Lachish, and Eglone - gathered their forces and went up with all their armies and encamped before Gibeon to fight against it. • 2 Samuel 21:22, These four were descended from the giant in Gath, and they fell by the hands of David and his servants.

In 2003 the Lord released a Great Grace which has continued to grow and expand during the past two years. We are now in the third year of that release. Three represents fullness. 5 is the number of Grace, and we are in the 5th year of the millenium.

These observations have led me to speak of the Grace upon 2005 as the Greater Grace. We have yet to know the Greatest Grace. I believe that is reserved for eternity in the same way that the Good Shepherd became the Great Shepherd and we will know Him as the Chief Shepherd in eternity.

In 2002 we became aware of the giants in the land and God's dealing with them.

In March of 2004 I began to hear, "in the spring when kings go to war". The five kings of Joshua 10:5 represent unbelief; self-righteousness and works righteousness; pride, rebellion, and an independent spirit; appropriating God's glory; and being an accuser of the brethren. I would say that the war of the kings is still raging, but it is an internal battleground. Self-surrender will gain the victory as the King of kings is seated on the throne of your life.

What remains then is Grace and the Promised Land.

Hebrew Aleph bet and Numbers ה

ה is the hey, the fifth letter of the Hebrew aleph bet. It has the numerical value of five. Each of the three sections forming the hey has meaning. In a sense the hey corresponds to the "aha" moment of understanding, "the shedding of light" on a subject. This level of meaning relates to the fact that the fifth sentence of Genesis is "God called the light Day, and the darkness God called Night. And there was evening and there was morning, a first day." In other words, the hey of self-expression and the hey of awareness are similar to the moment in creation when light was created.

The dawning of awareness within our physical reality corresponds with cognition of breadth, height, and depth. Each of these dimensions corresponds with one of the lines of the hey. The horizontal vav with breadth, the vertical vav with height, and the unattached foot with depth. The essence of the hey is self-expression. The hey symbolically represents the physical universe in which we strive to connect our thoughts, speech, and action. The challenge to link these forms of self-expression is manifest in the fact that the symbol for action is the unattached foot. This reveals the truth that there is often a gap between our intentions and our actions.

It is worth noting that when God cut covenant with Abram, it was made with 5 sacrifices. It is stamped with grace. Afterwards, when God changed Abram's name to AbraHam it was done simply, but significantly, by inserting the hey in the middle. All that is the AbraHamic covenant was of GRACE and is it is stamped with this significance.

Edwin Louis Cole said true communication requires agreement in our thoughts, words, and deeds. Otherwise, it is a mis-communication.

I believe a heart truly submitted to God will result in these three aligning themselves to His will and a bringing forth of true communication - a clear trumpet sound. Luke 6:45 says the mouth speaks from the overflow of the heart. May we all have a truly submitted heart and a true "Hey-day" in 2005!

A friend sent a prophetic word about 2005. It said the church will THRIVE and not STRIVE in 2005.

I believe the Greater Grace of 2005 will allow us to thrive in our communication efforts thus allowing us to be more effective in self expression.

I hear in the spirit - "clarion call". The gap will increase between the true prophets and false prophets. The clear trumpet sound or the noisy gong.

Five Senses

This "clarion call" will result from the Greater Grace over our 5 spiritual senses. Even as we have 5 natural senses, so we have 5 spiritual senses. In this year of Greater Grace, of atonement, of light, of the cross - we can expect increased anointing for the functioning of these senses, whether natural of spiritual. If you have not, it is because you ask not. Ask! If you need healing in any one of these natural senses, now is the time to appropriate it, as healing is part of the atonement of the cross. Both are stamped with the number 5.

Watch and Pray

Because of the heightened anointing on the senses, the watchman will become extremely accurate in his perceptions. This will result in the prayers of the intercessor being fervent and effectual and availing much.

Leviticus 26:8 was quickened in my spirit. • Five of you shall chase a hundred, and a hundred of you shall put 10,000 to flight; your enemies shall fall before you by the sword.

It is an anointed season for the prayer of agreement and for corporate prayer. The sword the enemy will fall by is the sword of the Spirit, the Word of God.

- Hebrews 4:12, For the Word that God speaks is alive and full of power [making it active, operative, energizing, and effective]; it is sharper than any two-edged sword.

- Isaiah 55:11, So shall my Word be that goes forth out of My mouth: it shall not return to Me void [without producing any effect, useless], but it shall accomplish that which I please and purpose, and it shall prosper in the thing for which I sent it.

• John 1:14, And the Word (Christ) became flesh (human, incarnate) and tabernacled (fixed his tent of flesh, lived awhile) among us;

The Word did not return to God void, but accomplished what He sent it to do! He said, "It is finished." 2 Corinthians 15:46, the natural first then the spiritual. Neither shall the spoken Word of God return to Him void.

Looking at the numbers in 2005, I see the 00 of the double door in 2004. In the same way that the Hebrew 4, daleth, means door, the Hebrew 5, hey, means window. The double door of last year has now turned to a window.

However, I believe that many of the double doors that were opened in 2005 will remain open for two more years as three represents fullness.

In the double door becoming a window, I sense it represents a decrease in time. • John 9:4, We must work the works of Him Who sent Me and be busy with His business while it is daylight; night is coming on, when no man can work.

Because the same letter that means window is the number attached to grace, we have a great "window of opportunity" to redeem the waning hours of daylight.

We have looked at these numbers as the Jewish people would - from right to left.

Bill Burns says that Psalm 25 is the Psalm for 2005. I understand that. The Lord often reminds me that the language that He gave to His chosen people is written and read from right to left, in which case I must consider the number 52 as significant to 2005.

Because I have a prophetic bent, and because we are looking to the year that lies ahead, I chose to read Isaiah 52. Isaiah is, to me, the prophet of prophets.

A great witness arose in my spirit when I read the words of Isaiah 52. An expectation was stirred in my heart that the time of Isaiah 61 is come for God to redeem and reveal His people.

Two represents division. It is not unique to 2005, but is significant to all the years of this millenium. This is what I see as pertinent to this year, 2005.

In the 5th sentence of the Word of God we see an important division. • Genesis 1:5, And God called the light Day, and the darkness He called Night. And there was evening and there was morning, one day.

It is in verse 4 that God separated the light from the darkness. It is in verse 5 that He gives them names, Day and Night. He also establishes the two as one day. I was impressed while reading this verse that the Lord will make clear distinctions between who belongs to the Day and who belongs to the Night. He named each of these, as soon as He divided them. Look for the naming of names to accompany the dividing of light and darkness.

Jesus Christ, the Son of God, is the 2nd person of the Godhead. It was He Who did the dividing of light and darkness in Genesis 1:4. • Colossians 1:16, For it was in Him that all things were created, in heaven and on earth, things seen and unseen, whether thrones or dominions, rulers, or authorities; all things were created and exist through Him and in Him and for Him.

Jesus came with a sword!

• Matthew 10:34, Do not think I have come to bring peace upon the earth; I have not come to bring peace, but a sword.

He is still dividing light and darkness. The things that are not through Him, in Him and for Him in this hour will fall. Dividing and separating unto is seen throughout the following observations.

Another View of the Two (00)

I see the 00 of 2005 as Bl00d Type 00. The significance of this is that anyone can receive this Blood Type. It is compatible with every other type.

I believe that the Greater Grace of 2005 is available, along with a window of opportunity, to bring people into salvation, deliverance and redemption through the power of the Blood of the Lamb. There awaits a Passover for many in 2005. Many will come out of Egypt and enter the Promised Land. This IS the Joshua generation.

By GRACE You Are Saved

Psalm 105 is significant to this year. • Psalm 105:37, He brought Israel forth also with silver and gold, and there was not one feeble person among their tribes.

This is amazing when you think that these people had been slaves for over 400 years. There were millions of people in their number, ranging from babies to the elderly. Yet there was none sick or feeble among them. How can that be? The night before they left Egypt, they had eaten the first Passover meal! They had experienced sanctification, deliverance and redemption in the type of the Lamb. How much more should we experience the same in the fulfillment of Passover?

There are four cups in the Passover meal. Three are turned upwards and represent Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. The fourth is turned downward and represents the Messiah. The four cups are sanctification, deliverance, redemption and PRAISE.

Reflecting on Psalm 105 and on Passover. • I believe in this year of Greater Grace that there is open a great and effectual door to the natural seed of Abraham, those with Jewish roots, to HEAR the Good News, to SEE that Jesus is their awaited Messiah and to turn over the 4th cup of Praise. It is time when the Lord will be made a praise in all the earth. • Leviticus 26:42, Then will I [earnestly] remember My covenant with Jacob, My covenant with Isaac, and My covenant with Abraham, and [earnestly] remember the land. (Notice He begins the remembering with the last generation) • Because 3 of the Passover cups represent Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, I believe the Greater Grace is available for household salvation. 3 represents fullness. God has always dealt with 3 generations. Type 00 Bl00d - compatible with every body - no gender, age, or racial bias.

When the Lord spoke the opening words of these observations, I heard - to reach the unreachable stars - as a song. The full lyrics are the last page of this document.

As I began to connect the Greater Grace to the natural seed of Abraham, to reach the unreachable stars took on a deeper significance. I "saw" the yellow star that the Jews had been made to wear during the Holocaust. There came a great emphasis in the spirit that there truly is a great and effectual door open at this time for reaching the Jewish people and bringing them the fourth cup of the Passover, the Messiah.

Is it the turning up of this 4th cup of Praise that will cause His name to be a praise in the earth? • Hebrews 11:15, For if their rejection and exclusion from the benefits of salvation were [overruled] for the reconciliation of the world to God, what will their acceptance and admission (full reinstatement) mean? [It will be nothing short of] life from the dead!

Exodus 12:1-3, The Lord said to Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt, This month shall be to you the beginning of months, the first month of the year to you. Tell all the congregation of Israel, On the tenth day of this month they shall take every man a lamb or kid, according to [the size of] the family of which he is the father, a lamb or kid for each house.

The Lamb was slain for "household salvation"! The Lord has never changed His mind that the Good News was first to the Jew, then to the Gentile. With the Greater Grace to reach the Jewish people, there is a Greater Grace to reach all people. We need to lay hold of the Grace and release faith for our households to come into salvation. • Genesis 7:1, And the Lord said to Noah, Come with all your household into the ark, for I have seen you to be righteous before Me in this generation.

The Comm-into-union Table
• Psalm 25:14, The secret [of the sweet, satisfying companionship] of the Lord have they who fear (revere and worship) Him, and He will show them His covenant and reveal to them its [deep, inner] meaning.

The communion table is the covenant table. It is the table that He prepares before us in the presence of our enemies. It is the place where we honor His command to, "Remember Me". It is where we know He Who was and He Who is. In doing that, we are acknowledging He Who is to Come. • 1 Corinthians 11:26, For every time you eat this bread and drink this cup, you are representing and signifying and proclaiming the fact of the Lord's death until He comes [again].

It is clear from the following passage that the way to the Holy of Holies is now through His flesh, with full freedom to enter in through His blood. Hebrews 10:19,20, Therefore, brethren, since we have full freedom and confidence to enter into the [Holy] of Holies [by the power and virtue] in the blood of Jesus, by this fresh lnew) and living way which He initiated and dedicated and opened for us through the separating curtain (veil of the Holy of Holies), that is, through His flesh.

At this table is found the secret place, the bread of Presence. Here we know the sweet, satisfying companionship of the Lord. Here He will show us His covenant and reveal its deep, inner meanings.

Ruth and the Barley Harvest

In the book of Ruth we see that our time spent with the Lord is much more profitable than our time spent working for Him. We have entered fully into the season of being, rather than doing. Ruth is a type of the church and Boaz is a type of the Lord.

When Ruth spent her day gleaning the fields, she gained one ephah of barley. When she spent the night at the feet of Boaz, He gave her six measures of barley! Strong's Concordance #374 says a measure is an ephah! Six is the number stamped on all that is connected with human labor. It took Ruth one day's work to accumulate an ephah of barley. In one night of resting at the feet of Boaz, she was given the equivalent of six day's work.

The Lord is saying that man's labor is ended, now enter into My rest.

It is also worth mentioning here that the number six is connected to time-spaces which measure man's labor and rest - the day, consisting of 24 hours (4x6), divided into the day and night of 12 hours. The months are 12; the minutes is 60 seconds; the hour is sixty minutes - all being multiples of 6.

Four-Eyes

2001 was the first year I noticed that the 00s look like eyeglasses. 2005 has also been given a pair of eyeglasses. Perhaps this has to do with the Greater Grace and anointing that is over the five senses in 2005.

We are all familiar with the 3D glasses used for viewing certain films designed to project a 3D effect.

I feel that the glasses of 2005 are both natural and spiritual. 4D glasses!

Fourth Dimension

About this same time last year I began hearing, fourth dimension. In early December of 2004 I began to hear it again. Webster's Dictionary defines fourth dimension as: 1. a dimension in addition to three rectangular coordinates esp. when interpreted as the time coordinate in a space time continuum. 2. something outside the range of ordinary experience.

From that we know the fourth dimension has to do with time, and extra-ordinary experience.

I believe the gap between heaven and earth, between natural and supernatural, is closing as the age winds down. As heaven begins to move closer to our dimension, we are sure to have extraordinary experiences as worlds collide!

Time is Running Out

The Lord has been and continues to change both our chronos time and our seasons. On December 30th I was walking and enjoying spring-like weather - in central Minnesota! - when the Lord said, "I change the times and seasons." He certainly did that day. 2 Corinthians 15:46 says it is the natural first then the spiritual. It is the kairos time that is disrupting our familiar chronological measurements and comfort zones.

From these two verses in Daniel, I believe that we will see changes in governments along with the changing times and seasons. Verse 22 is in agreement with the significance of the Hebrew hey : as the "aha" moment of understanding or the "shedding of light" on a subject.

• Daniel 2:21, He changes the times and the seasons; He removes kings and sets up kings. He gives wisdom to the wise and knowledge to those who have understanding. • Daniel 2:22, He reveals the deep and secret things; He knows what is in the darkness, and the light dwells with Him.

Joshua 10:12-14 is a demonstration of the Lord changing the times. It is the account of the sun and moon standing still for a whole day! Truly a kairos experience.

Kairos time usually involves a period of disruption to the normal flow of things. The old rules, methods, traditions, habits, ways of thinking and doing business do not seem to work any more. It is a bit chaotic. The ground seems to be shifting. The rules of the game are changing. Another description of this would be "a paradigm shift."

Kairos time is the moment, of undetermined length, in which the eternal (God) breaks into the temporal (the universe), shattering and transforming it, and prepares the temporal to receive the eternal.

About five years ago I was reading at 10 o'clock in the morning. The windows were open. Suddenly, I became aware that the birds around our home were singing the dawn song. If you are an early-riser, you become familiar with this song. This is a chorus of all the birds and is only ever sung at dawn. It was a kairos experience. I said, "Lord, Why are the birds singing the dawn song now?" He said, "I moved the dawn and Satan cannot find it."

It was my first experience of kairos time disrupting chronos time. That day the birds got to sleep in! I don't know if Satan ever did find the dawn. Why was he looking for it?

It was during that season when I became aware that there was a spiritual contention for the dawn of the day. It is a spiritually sought after position whose victor sets the course for the rest of that day. If I have a choice, I choose the fourth watch from 3 to 6 a.m.

Psalm 5:2 (as in 52)
• In the morning You hear my voice, O Lord; in the morning I prepare [a prayer, a sacrifice] for You and watch and wait [for You to speak to my heart].

There is an extra measure of grace on the morning, as well as upon the spiritual senses that are watching and waiting to hear what the Lord will speak in the morning.

Time is Running Out

• Revelation 10:5-7, And the angel which I saw stand upon the sea and upon the earth lifted up his hand to heaven, and sware by him that liveth for ever and ever, who created heaven, and the things that therein are, and the earth, and the things that therein are, and the sea, and the things which are therein, that there should be time no longer: But in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he shall begin to sound, the mystery of God should be finished, as he hath declared to his servants the prophets. • Revelation 6:14, The sky too passed away, as if a scroll were being rolled up, and every mountain and island was removed from its place. • Revelation 21:1, Then I saw a new sky (heaven) and a new earth, for the former sky and the former earth had passed away (vanished), and there no longer existed any sea.

Window of Opportunity

I see the window of 2005, combined with the Greater Grace, as a double window OR as the great and effectual door of 1 Corinthians 16:9. I keep hearing, "window of opportunity", being whispered in the spirit. Because it is being whispered, I believe that we must ask for ears to hear as well as eyes to see. We must be alert, engaging all of our 5 spiritual senses. • For a wide door of opportunity for effectual [service] has opened to me -

There's a familiar saying around Christendom, "When the Lord closes a door, He opens a window." In this case, make it two doors and two windows.

I believe that the "window" represents the rapid shrinking of chronos time as the end of the ages is upon us. The "opportunity" represents the kairos times we must be alert and watchful for. What was a door has become a window and we must do according to • Ephesians 5:16, Making the most of the time [buying up each opportunity], because the days are evil.

Time is spiritual currency and our bank accounts are dwindling quickly. How are you "spending" your time?

• Isaiah 55:1, 2, "Come, everyone who thirsts, to the waters, and he who has no money; come, buy, and eat; yes, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. 2, Why do you spend money for that which is not bread? And your labor for that which doesn't satisfy? Listen diligently to me, and eat what is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness [the profuseness of spiritual joy].

Sins of Omission

Because of the double door/window combined with the Greater Grace, we have a greater accountability before the Lord to walk through that door when opportunity is presented. Indeed, we must ask daily for such a door to be open before us. We must pray for freedom of utterance (Ephesians 6:19) to boldly proclaim the mystery of the Good News. To neglect such a time as this is nothing less than a sin of omission.

As I wrote the word omission, I saw it as 00-mission. Truly many will be sent on Godly missions - big and small. I believe we will be compelled to go! 2 Corinthians 5:14, For the love of Christ compels us - • Luke 14:23, Then the master said to the servant, Go out into the highways and hedges and urge and constrain [them] to yield and come in, so that my house may be filled.

I see the familiar depiction of Jesus standing at the d00r and knocking. I'm reminded that the door before Him has no external knob or handle. In this I see both a clarification and a cautioning: • I believe the Lord will cause doors of utterance to be opened to us. We must be alert when such a window of opportunity opens. • When a window opens, the love of Christ should be what compels us to go, and what constrains (compels) them to come.

Two (2) is also the number of witness, as in two 00s. There was an anointing released in 2002 for being sent two-by-two. This anointing, like the Great Grace released in 2003, has also increased. When the Lord releases a thing it does not have an expiration date. It may have a destination, but not an expiration. The now greatly increased two-by-two anointing will find a profitable companion in the Greater Grace of 2005.

Increased Measure in May

I believe that the month of May (5-05) will have an increased measure of the Greater Grace. I hear the Lord answering an unheard question with, "Yes, you MAY." It has the tone of a Father speaking to a child. Therefore, I believe that this Greater Grace in May will be activated by child-like faith that is not afraid to ask Daddy for anything, believing that it is yours!

The Tabernacle had 5 for its all-pervading number; nearly every measurement was a multiple of five. Worship itself is all of grace (no man comes to the Father lest He draw Him)! Our walk with the Lord is progressive, we are expected to mature into the bride. This is seen in the progressiveness of the Feasts of the Lord: Passover representing the outer court experience of salvation; Pentecost representing the inner court and being Spirit-filled; and Tabernacles representing the Most Holy Place and the Man-child.

For this reason, I believe that the, "Yes, you May" superabounding grace in the month of May, is exclusive to those who are in the intimate place of Tabernacles with the Lord. It is this place of intimacy that affords the faith in our Father to reach for the unreachable stars. (see attached song lyrics)

Hands and Fingers, Knees and Toes

I hear the fingerplay song, Head and Shoulders, Knees and Toes but the words Hands and Fingers are being substituted for the Head and Shoulders.

In this, I believe the Lord will deal with the fivefold minstries, represented in Hands and Fingers. He will establish His headship (head) and His government (shoulders).

Knees (2) represent reverence and humility. Toes (5) balance and facilitate the foot in walking. The foot represents lowliness and humility. If the knees of the fivefold ministries have not bowed in humility to God's governmental order, they will not walk into what He has ordained for them. I see those who have not bowed in humility as having one foot nailed to the floor, their only option is walking in circles.

The left hand represents judgment and cursing, the right hand blessing. Those in the body of Christ who are called to the ministries of apostle, prophet, evangelist, pastor or teacher who have not tended the sheep in the lowliness and humility of a servant have a WINDOW of time along with the Greater Grace to repent. Failure to do so will find these ministries operating from the left hand, bringing judgment and cursing to themselves. A curse is the absence of blessing, as darkness is the absence of light.

On the other hand - the hand of blessing - those who have been the servants of the Lord [those in whom the ideal Servant of the Lord is reproduced] shall have a rich heritage according to • Isaiah 54:17. No weapon that is formed against you shall prosper, and every tongue that shall rise against you in judgment you shall show to be in the wrong. This [peace, righteousness, security, triumph over opposition] is the heritage of the servants of the Lord [those in whom the ideal Servant of the Lord is reproduced]; this is the vindication which they obtain from Me [this is that which I impart to them as their justification], says the Lord.

Dignified by Indignity

The division between light and darkness will continue to increase in 2005. The gap between what is of God and what is not of God will continue to increase, becoming more and more apparent by where His favor rests. One of the meanings of Grace is favor. Where grace abounds, expect that persecution will abound. This is apparent in Acts 5. Our response must be the same - counting it all joy. • Acts 5:41, So they went out from the presence of the council (Sanhedrin), rejoicing that they were being counted worthy [dignified by indignity] to suffer shame and be exposed to disgrace for [for the sake of] His name.

In 2004 we saw the number four is the Hebrew letter daleth which means door. The daleth is a bent posture (ד), meaning the door to God's house is humility.

Feet (2005/2 feet with 5 toes on each) on earth, or sea, represent formal possession, treading. The Greater Grace is available for taking ground that the enemy is in possession of. Before we attempt to re-possess ground from the enemy, it is in our best interest to first be sure that the enemy possesses no ground in us.

Those ministries, established in God's headship and government, will have the increased anointing that accompanies being SENT. • Isaiah 52:7 (all of our numbers in one place!), How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him who brings good tidings, who publishes peace, who brings good tidings of good, who publishes salvation, who says to Zion, Your God reigns!

Sevens (2005/ 2+5=7)

• Matthew 24:37, As it was in the days of Noah, so it will be at the coming of the Son of Man. • Genesis 6:8, But Noah found GRACE in the eyes of the Lord.

God placed the rainbow in the sky as a covenant between mankind and Himself. It consists of seven colors. As Noah did, we have the opportunity to partner with God to accomplish His will in the earth.

The Seven Spirits still look for a person that will apply for the privilege of serving God in unfathomable dimension.

We find the Seven Spirits in:
• Zechariah 4:10, [These seven] are the eyes of the Lord, which run to and fro throughout the whole earth. • Revelation 1:4, GRACE and peace to you from him who is, and who was, and who is to come, and from the seven spirits before His throne. (This is the 5th sentence of the Book of Revelation) • Revelation 5:6, Then I saw a Lamb, looking as if it had been slain, standing in the center of the throne, encircled by the four living creatures and the elders. He had seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven spirits of God sent out into all the earth.

Whether it is AbraHam, or Noah, or the church of these last days, God wants to reveal His mysteries to a people who will believe in Him and partner with Him.

5th Book - 5th Chapters

Deuteronomy is the 5th Book of the Old Testament. Acts is the 5th Book of the New Testament. Both contain insights for the year 2005.

Deuteronomy magnifies the GRACE of God, and takes special pains to emphasize the fact that not for the sake of the people, but for God's own Name's sake had He called, and chosen and blessed them.

The Book of the Acts of the Apostles - Will such a book be written of our day? Take time to read the blueprint that was laid for the church.

Reading through every 5th chapter in the books of the Bible gives a clear picture of the hour we are in.

The Impossible Dream

To dream, the impossible dream, To fight, the unbeatable foe, To bear, with unbearable sorrow, To run, where the brave dare not go. To right, the unrightable wrong, To love, pure and chaste, from afar, To try, when your arms are too weary, To reach, the unreachable star. This is my quest, To follow that star, No matter how hopeless, No matter how far.

To fight for the right,
Without question or pause,

To be willing to march into hell, For a Heavenly cause. And I know if I'll only be true, To this glorious quest, That my heart will lie peaceful and calm, When I'm laid to my rest. And the world, Will be better for this, That One man, Scorned and covered with scars, Still strove with his last ounce of courage, To reach the unreachable stars.

Origin:

DOB 8-20-1945 Wyandotte Michigan. Hometown is Southgate MI. Ancestry is Irish, Hungarian, English and/or German.

Education

8 years of Catholic elementary education
4 years High School, graduated in college prep program, then
3 and 1/4 years at Michigan State. Philosophy major, then
4 years in United States Navy, during Vietnam. Back to Civilian life at the end of 1970
Also several courses at University of Michigan and University of Phoenix

Family

One of 6 siblings. Married at ripe old age of 33. My dear wife, Marylee, had 7 children from her first marriage of 19 years. It was instant family! She is 6 1/2 years older than I. [One problem with marrying any woman older than you is they think they don't have to listen to you.] All the children are grown and living on their own. Some are even producing grandchildren.

Likes: Good food, drink, music, and video's. Getting things for free!

Dislikes: television, especially the news and the commercials. I only watch it if there is a war, national emergency or I'm at someone else's home. Other dislikes: having to fix my car and shopping.

Work History

Electronic Technician in the two way radio area. 14 years in Michigan and 14 years in New Orleans LA.
Computer Technician for 2 1/2 years in Mansfield Ohio, 1 year Computer Help Desk in Columbus Ohio.

Current Status

Currently retired on $1200 per month social security benefits.

Computer experience

My first computer was an Atari 800 with a whopping 48k of memory. I've done a lot of hardware repair and software support, full and part time for about a decade.

Philosophy

I was raised a catholic, and became an atheist in high school. In college I flirted with eastern mysticism. [It was the 60's after all.] In the 70's till the mid 80's I maintained an interest in New Age topics but not much of a commitment there. My big involvement was in the War Games hobby. I was VP of Metro Detroit Gamers for about 10 years and helped put on some big conventions. We relocated to Louisiana in 84 and almost a year later my wife and I became 'born again' Christians. This is where we are at today, though we are now part of the new phenomenon of 'out of church' Christians. That is we're committed Christians but only visit churches on rare occasions.

Interests

Military topics, Jazz, Bluegrass and other instrumental music, cooking.

Hobbies

Playing music on guitar or flute, computers.

Activities

I'm a writer, editor and publisher on the internet. The Web Site is called End Time Prophetic Vision.

www.etpv.org.

Each week I publish 25 to 30 articles on the site, including my own writings at times. I have about 90+ articles posted there that I have written myself. I began this in 1996.

It's like doing a weekly magazine without having to deal with a printer.

The content consists of essays, articles, prophecies, and accounts of dreams or visions. All of these are supposed to be relevant to the belief that we are living in what's called the End Times, just before the Second Coming of Jesus.

On Foundations

There is a difference between the Christian church of today and the Body of Christ. The first has become an organization and the latter is an organism. The church of today has been built on doctrines and methods instead of the life of Christ. Although doctrines and their related experiences are valuable, they cannot precede the Person as the reason for church. Jesus has to be the foundation of the church, His Body. His fullness is the life of the church. The call for leaders, especially apostles and prophets is to restore the foundation. No other foundation can be laid than Christ, 1Cor.3: 11.

The apostles and prophets of two centuries ago knew this and Paul stated it so clearly in Eph. 2:20-23, Jesus being the chief cornerstone, of a holy temple in the Lord, built as a holy habitation of God through the Spirit. What ever else we can be, we must be first and foremost be this.

This temple is synonymously called His Body. As a body we function in a living capacity expressing Jesus. As His temple, we are His residence. The members are His Body parts, 1Cor 12. We have used members of the Body of Christ to mean membership in an organization called church which may even be part of a larger organization called denomination or even a particular stream of worship or other experience or emphasized truth. Each one of these identifications separates from the whole instead of integrating it.

I am not against diversity and distinctions that add to the overall life of the body. It is when these work to segregate that I oppose them on that basis. The body parts have unique expressions that must find their value in the body and cannot live alone anymore than the eye can say it has no need of the ear. These things we know when it comes to gifts of the Spirit, but the larger truth is that it is true also from congregation to congregation. We cannot say we have no need of the congregation across town anymore than we can say we have no use for a sister or brother.

Clearly church is made up of individuals, who come together supposedly under the direction of the Holy Spirit, 1Cor.12: 18 and then form a living entity called His Body. For them to be effective body parts they must all come to the same awareness and revelation of what they truly are. This is the task of today's leaders. It is a primary and formidable task, but one that has God's stamp of approval upon it. It is what He is doing if anyone wants to know what the present move of God is.

So we begin with the individual who must know above all else that the Holy Spirit has been sent to him or her to download Christ into them and for them to be absolutely and forever changed into Christ image and likeness. The first doctrine to be taught then is the Mystery Doctrine of Christ in us, the hope of glory, Col. 1:27. This is the crowning truth upon which all other doctrines of the church have their significance. The end goal of God was to replace Jesus on the earth with a body that would encompass the globe and not just Israel. To do this He has to download His Son into the believer by the Holy Ghost. Jesus, you see, became the last Adam and recovered what was lost by the first Adam. We can now fulfill the original plan of God to live in co regency with Him just as was intended in the original plans of God for Adam.

Think on this. We are not Christians just because we believe in Christ. We are Christians because what made Christ the Christ is making us Christians. This is none other than the Spirit of Christ or the Holy Spirit. We will look at this more in the future. In the meantime, let's ask God to help us understand more clearly so we can reveal more clearly and so reestablish the foundation.

Power To Become

I have been studying the book of Ephesians for more years than I can remember. I think we are in an "Ephesians Season". The Holy Spirit has been releasing revelation upon revelation to us all concerning the incredible truths contained in this letter. Just recently, after leading the church in the apostolic prayers of this letter I began seeing how often the reference to power came up. While there is the traditional understanding of power as a miraculous and creative source, it is to a new and present truth understanding of power as revealed in Paul's writings.

This new power is directed in two ways. The first is power to bring knowledge. The second is the power to be whatever that knowledge declares. Both of these powers are in the person of the Holy Spirit. He is the source of revelation knowledge and the power to live in those revelations. Most of the time we associate power with doing something miraculous. In no way do I suggest we don't need that kind of power. We need it more than ever. But before that power returns in the dimension we would like, we are going to experience the power to be more like Christ than ever before. With that transformation will come the power to do as Christ. "ye shall receive power after the Holy Ghost is come upon you", Acts 1:8. There is so much to receive by the power of God.

In particular, we need to know the love of God for us. It is a love that comes from the Father from whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named; "...the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named." Eph. 3:14-15. This means both the Jew and the Gentile who having become one, now make up this family. Enmity is now gone and the dividing partitions are taken down. How will we experience this love that connects Jew and Gentile? How will we walk in the kind of love the Father bestowed on us when He gave us power to be the sons of God? "But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name." John 1:12 When will we walk in love towards one another? When will the envy, jealousy, strife, selfish ambition, competition and rivalry cease? When we know this love of the Father, that's when.

This prayer to the Father in Eph. 3:14-19, has a core element that I see like this:
that we would be strengthened in our inner person/being, with power, through His Spirit, so that Christ would dwell in our hearts (inner person, being) through faith, that we would be rooted and grounded in love so that we would have power together with all the saints to grasp how wide and long and high and deep is the love of Christ and to know this love that surpasses knowledge so that we might be filled with all the fullness of God. (My paraphrase).

This prayer has three directions. First is to realize the presence of Christ through the empowering presence of the Holy Spirit within our inner man. Second is to know what can't be known by human deduction, namely this love of Christ. We are told here that we are to have a "power to grasp" the extent of this love. Third, is that we would be filled with the fullness of God. All three have the final goal of bringing glory to God in the church through Christ, vs. 21. This glory is again the result of a "power" so great that it is considered immeasurable, vs.20. It is a power that can do more than we can ask or think. And the goal of this power is to release a love of God in the presence of Christ within the body.

As I have written before, the apostolic secret to receiving this power is prayer. Revelation without prayer for activation is frustration. We cannot go along telling one another what we know without experiencing it. I myself have been frustrated over the years, because I thought my preaching was enough. That would be unthinkable to the early apostles. Information must result in transformation. Prayer is the means.

Paul experienced what he wrote before he wrote it. He was conveying to the churches what he was living. My dilemma came when my revelations were not turning into manifestations. I felt hypocritical. Then I discovered the thread of prayer in all the letters of Paul. It has become the connection between revealed truth and behaved truth.

Without prayer, this power, first to have and then to experience revelation, will never be activated. We cannot assume we receive just because we read. It is not automatic. Prayer is the conduit through which the Holy Spirit flows into our inner man bringing in His power to experience the revelations He gives.

I cannot shake this off of me. The Holy Spirit is imploring us to pray for His release in us. Yes by faith we understand this all to be true. And by prayer we will experience it. Who among us can do anything without prayer? Prayers of faith bring about lives of faith.

We are at confrontation stage in the church. Our enemies want to face us down. Before we will be as courageous as Elijah when he presented himself to Ahab, or Moses when he stood before Pharaohs magicians, we need this new power in the inner man complete with the knowledge of our Father's love for us. Without it we practice rhetorical gymnastics and cower in the presence of our enemies.

My admonition to all who are weary and tired of hearing truth but not experiencing it, is to begin to pray these truths. Do not ignore the fresh revelations you are hearing thinking they are beyond your ability to experience. We must have them. We need the new voices that are speaking what the Spirit is bringing to our attention. Then we must pray so the Holy Spirit within will enable us to live out these revelations.

On Universalism

Bill Somers

Mount Gilead Ohio USA

www.etpv.org
March 21, 2009

In response to stirrings of the Spirit, we are going to share a few thoughts on the teaching of universalism, also known as ultimate reconciliation, also known as ultimate rec. also known as ultimate wreck.

This is the idea that Hell is not forever. There are quite a few writers these days trying to push this idea. [This includes some who formerly posted on ETPV.]

Some of these will bring up multitudes of bible verses that are claimed to prove their point. This is mixed with a great deal of other persuasive language in support of the idea. Almost all of them sooner or later have to somehow convince you that when the bible says forever and ever, that it does not mean for ever and ever. The way this is done is to question the translation from the original bible languages into English. And this usually centers on the Greek word eon that is used in scripture.

Keep in mind that regardless of how many other arguments or bible verses are used, this is the key. If they can't convince you on this point, everything else they say is only a distraction.

What they have to say boils down to this. The bible translators took the Greek word eon and translated it as ever or forever. And this is wrong because the word eon means age. So when the bible says for ever and ever it really means from age to age. Therefore the punishment of hell only lasts for an age. [How long that is does not matter, just so you get the idea that sooner or later it comes to an end.]

All this is done to sound very convincing, but it does not stand up to an honest examination. It's just an example of human wisdom.

There are several ways to show what's wrong with this kind of thinking. And we will keep this short.

> They are > to show that it's is false conclusion.
> to show the correct conclusion.
> to illustrate the correct conclusion.
> and to show that the false conclusion leads to a contradiction or impossible situation, and thereby has to be false.

First to look at the meaning of age to age. It means from one age to another, this is not the same as saying just one age. This itself should be pretty plain.

Second, to say from age to age, is a short way of saying from age to age to age to age and so on and so on and so on. Do you get the idea? It's ad infinitum, Latin for to infinity [which also means forever.]

Third as an illustration, you could try to imagine a straight line that goes on into outer space and just keeps on going. But another way is to look at a circle. The signs of the zodiac in astronomy form a circle. Currently we are passing from the 'age of Pisces' to the 'age of Aquarius' and after that we will enter the 'age of Capricorn' and on around till we come back to Pisces and start the whole thing over. It just goes from 'age to age' and keeps on a-goin'.

And finally, let's point out that the Greek word eon is used to describe the Kingdom of God in exactly the same way as it describes the eternal judgment of Hell. Eon is translated as ever in all the following verses.

> Revelation 14:11 And the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name.
> Revelation 20:10 And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever.
> Revelation 7:12 Saying, Amen: Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might, be unto our God for ever and ever. Amen.
> Revelation 11:15 And the seventh angel sounded; and there were great voices in heaven, saying, The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ; and he shall reign for ever and ever.

So if hell is not forever does that mean that heaven is not forever as well? Go figure.

Summary:

> Matthew 24:4 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Take heed that no man deceive you.

Helicopter Dream

Bill Somers

Mount Gilead Ohio USA

March 18, 2009

In this dream I experienced a struggle with a long series of documents that spoke of or advertised worthy causes or events. I had to devote lots of time and energy to processing each one. It was making me very tired; I was loosing my peace.

Then still in the dream, the Lord showed me that these are just a lot of time wasters, and distractions. They are snares of the devil to get you to focus on the good, instead of the best i.e. God’s will for your life.

Next I found my self in the cargo bay of a military helicopter that was very cluttered. Suddenly a voice came over the loudspeaker system.

Take out the trash, and stow away the loose gear. Find your seats and buckle in.

The ‘Boss’ was getting into the pilot’s seat, and warming up the engines for takeoff. Remember a helicopter does not need a runway, it just goes straight up.

Interpretation

A Military Helicopter speaks of warfare.
A Combat Mission is in the works.
Trash speaks of the distractions in our lives, if we don’t need it get rid of it.
Loose gear is the important things that need to be put in order.
Your seat is your place of ministry.
Buckle in is to make your calling and election sure.
The Boss is Jesus, captain of the Host.
Getting into the Pilot’s Seat speaks of taking His place as head of the Body.
Engines starting speaks of the whirlwind.
Takeoff is ascending to heavenly places with Christ.

File under Rapture of the Manchild.

Out Of Church Christians

Andrew Strom

I am writing on a rather unusual topic today. I was invited onto a Christian Radio show in New Zealand to discuss the growing numbers of "Out-of- church" Christians in the West - people who have left the churches for various reasons but still claim a strong Christian faith. It was a very interesting night, and the phones ran hot.

This "Out-of-church" phenomenon has now grown so large that books are being written about it. In fact, several years ago I heard an estimate that there are TENS OF THOUSANDS of such Christians just in our largest city (-Auckland) alone. And I believe it is the same right across the Western nations. I have personally come into contact with literally hundreds of such people. The surprising thing is that they are often the most committed kind of Christians - praying, insightful, deep- thinking. Yet they have grown tired of "playing the game" inside our church system and have opted out. Often their involvement goes back many years. In fact, they had commonly been leaders of various kinds.

But now they have left. Why? The church obviously finds this a very difficult thing to explain or deal with. The usual accusations are often trotted out: "So-and-so has been hurt and has a root of bitterness". Or they are in "rebellion". Or they are "not a team player". Or they are "backsliding".

But if you talk to these people you will often find that they have been sitting in church for years and years, and they simply cannot stand to sit and watch the same old game being played any more. The LACK OF GOD is what gets to them - even in our most "Spirit-filled" churches. WHERE IS GOD IN ALL OF OUR ACTIVITY? Surely this is not the way it is supposed to be?

New fads and programs come and go, but the mediocrity and LACK OF GOD just seem to go on forever. And so quietly, sometimes without anyone even noticing, they slowly slip out the doors - never to return. Some have even told me that they felt God "calling them out". Others simply felt they couldn't stay there anymore. The state of the church weighed upon them more than words could say.

Very often they did the rounds of other churches, hoping against hope that they would find a place that felt "right" in any way. (-Though most of them are not "church-hoppers" by nature). But the places they visited never seemed any more "right" than the place they had left. And after a while it just seemed easier to stay at home with God.

As I said earlier, most of these people have not given up on Christianity at all. It is today's church system that they have given up on. And we are talking about large numbers here. Thousands are already opting out. And many feel like they are "waiting" for something.

Some of these people have started up home-fellowships. Or they meet with other couples on a casual basis. But many meet with nobody at all, and they consider themselves in a 'Wilderness' place - alone with God. (-Very common).

I was asked several weeks ago by a pastor whether I agreed that what is happening could be a 'move of God'. That is a pretty radical thought. Many leaders would think the opposite. Because anything that leads people out of "their church" can't be of God, can it?

Hmmmm. All I know is this: The concept of going through a 'Wilderness' just before entering the 'Promised Land' is totally Scriptural. In fact, it is right through the Bible. Even Jesus went through such a wilderness time.

But it is not possible to stay "alone" forever. Some day, if these people are going to be part of a new move of God's Spirit, they are going to have to come out of their wilderness and become part of the "BODY" that Jesus brings together - the 'new wineskin' that will come with this new move of God. Otherwise they could miss out. That is the great danger.

I'm sure there are many on this List with comments or testimonies relating to this topic. I would love to hear from you. It really is becoming a significant issue in the church. prophetic@revivalschool.com

God bless you, my friends.
Kindest regards in Christ,
Andrew Strom.

Ocean of Fire
Jeannette Rodgers

September 1, 2005

Through a vision, I see a flood, not of water but a flood of Fire...fire being spread wildly and quickly. It is raging like something I have never seen before. This fire is unlike any other. This fire is inextinguishable and it is amazingly burning ON TOP of a large mass of water which appears like an ocean. It is moving rapidly and it has come unexpectedly.

Then I hear in the Spirit from the Lord:

I say unto you ...move quickly to the North.
This will require you to move quickly to the north.
Selah.....
I will come for you, those who wait upon Me, and I will bring you back to the place of abundance where there will be no lack or any need.
I will bring you back to the place of abundance.

Psalm 66:12-You made men ride over our heads; We went through fire and water; Yet you brought us out into a place of abundance.

God’s Promise Is Not Slack
[1] Beloved, I now write to you this second epistle (in both of which I stir up your pure minds by way of reminder), [2] that you may be mindful of the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, and of the commandment of us,the apostles of the Lord and Savior, [3] knowing this first: that scoffers will come in the last days, walking according to their own lusts, [4] and saying, “Where is the promise of His coming? For since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of creation.” [5] For this they willfully forget: that by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth standing out of water and in the water, [6] by which the world that then existed perished, being flooded with water. [7] But the heavens and the earth which are now preserved by the same word, are reserved for fire until the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men.
[8] But, beloved, do not forget this one thing, that with the Lord one day is as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day. [9] The Lord is not slack concerning His promise, as some count slackness, but is longsuffering toward us, not willing that any should perish but that all should come to repentance.
The Day of the Lord
[10] But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night, in which the heavens will pass away with a great noise, and the elements will melt with fervent heat; both the earth and the works that are in it will be burned up [11] Therefore, since all these things will be dissolved, what manner of persons ought you to be in holy conduct and godliness, [12] looking for and hastening the coming of the day of God, because of which the heavens will be dissolved, being on fire, and the elements will melt with fervent heat? [13] Nevertheless we, according to His promise, look for new heavens and a new earth in which righteousness dwells.
Be Steadfast
[14] Therefore, beloved, looking forward to these things, be diligent to be found by Him in peace, without spot and blameless; [15] and consider that the longsuffering of our Lord is salvation—as also our beloved brother Paul, according to the wisdom given to him, has written to you, [16] as also in all his epistles, speaking in them of these things, in which are some things hard to understand, which untaught and unstable people twist to their own destruction, as they do also the rest of the Scriptures.
[17] You therefore, beloved, since you know this beforehand, beware lest you also fall from your own steadfastness, being led away with the error of the wicked; [18] but grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.
To Him be the glory both now and forever. Amen.

Out Of The Mouth Of My Babes

Susan Cummings

Out of the mouth of My babes
Comes forth My Flaming Word
Reserved for the lowly and the meek
Who have scoured the earth to seek

Chosen and ordained from the beginning
Having my brand upon their hearts
My Word will go forth and be seen
Dividing and shaking the hardened hearts

Out of the mouth of My babes comes My Glory
Weak, shaken, and persecuted they may be Hidden ones in whom I have quietly birthed
While the church slept under the world's roof

Clocks tick on and prophetic schedules come and go
But men still are running to and fro
Nothing has changed, but the hour itself
And still they run, yet, without their souls

Out of the mouth of My babes
Wisdom will be unlocked and greatly released
Taken from behind the Door of The Final Hour
Opened with Humility's golden keys

Men mock and scorn my Word and My Truth
And turn it into their own good news
Taking to hell entire multitudes
While mine stand and await the call to run

Out of the mouth of My babes
Comes the Living Word of Truth
Fountains of Living Waters to quench the thirst
Hidden and broken open in this hour of birth

Men do not see My Treasures
Nor perceive My Amazing Grace
But the lowly ones come unto Me
And feed and drink by My Goodness

Out of the mouth Of My babes
Comes the Holy purifying waves
As set forth from My Just Gaze
As the scales and the bowl does release the coals

Taken and given by My Hand
Unto the babes does Justice now go fanned
My written Word will be received
By all that walk, and run, and breathe

Out of the mouth of My babes
Have gone forth My Clarion Calls

Not always understood, but mostly ignored
But the righteous heard and stand in My Halls

Time has now changed and few have prepared
Men continue to play their games
Playing the harlots in My Holy Name
But they will receive none but shame

Out of the mouth of My babes
Will come the beginning and the end
For My Word will be completed
And men will bow and reverence Me again

Chains and fetters fall at their feet
As My Fire and My Glory burns out the tares
Nothing will stand before My Word in them
For I am visiting the sins of men

The cup is full and the sand has run out
The glass stands empty and awaits its turning
But first comes the Lightning and the flaming waves
Announcing My Justice upon the ungodly gates

Nothing will escape My Holy Gaze

Psalm 8 AMP
1O LORD, our Lord, how excellent (majestic and glorious) is Your name in all the earth! You have set Your glory on [or above] the heavens.
2Out of the mouths of babes and unweaned infants You have established strength because of Your foes, that You might silence the enemy and the avenger.

Matthew 21:15 AMP
15But when the chief priests and the scribes saw the wonderful things that He did and the boys and the girls and the youths and the maidens crying out in the porches and courts of the temple, Hosanna (O be propitious, graciously inclined) to the Son of David! they were indignant.
16And they said to Him, Do You hear what these are saying? And Jesus replied to them, Yes; have you never read, Out of the mouths of babes and unweaned infants You have made (provided) perfect praise?
1 Corinthians 1 AMP
1PAUL, SUMMONED by the will and purpose of God to be an apostle (special messenger) of Christ Jesus, and our brother Sosthenes,
2To the church (assembly) of God which is in Corinth, to those consecrated and purified and made holy in Christ Jesus, [who are] selected and called to be saints (God's people), together with all those who in any place call upon and give honor to the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, both their Lord and ours:
3Grace (favor and spiritual blessing) be to you and [heart] peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
4I thank my God at all times for you because of the grace (the favor and spiritual blessing) of God which was bestowed on you in Christ Jesus,
5[So] that in Him in every respect you were enriched, in full power and readiness of speech [to speak of your faith] and complete knowledge and illumination [to give you full insight into its meaning].

6In this way [our] witnessing concerning Christ (the Messiah) was so confirmed and established and made sure in you 7That you are not [consciously] falling behind or lacking in any special spiritual endowment or Christian grace the reception of which is due to the power of divine grace [operating in your souls by the Holy Spirit], while you wait and watch [constantly living in hope] for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and [His] being made visible to all.
8And He will establish you to the end [keep you steadfast, give you strength, and guarantee your vindication; He will be your warrant against all accusation or indictment so that you will be] guiltless and irreproachable in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ (the Messiah).
9God is faithful (reliable, trustworthy, and therefore ever true to His promise, and He can be depended on); by Him you were called into companionship and participation with His Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.
17For Christ (the Messiah) sent me out not to baptize but [to evangelize by] preaching the glad tidings (the Gospel), and that not with verbal eloquence, lest the cross of Christ should be deprived of force and emptied of its power and rendered vain (fruitless, void of value, and of no effect).
18For the story and message of the cross is sheer absurdity and folly to those who are perishing and on their way to perdition, but to us who are being saved it is the [manifestation of] the power of God.
19For it is written, I will baffle and render useless and destroy the learning of the learned and the philosophy of the philosophers and the cleverness of the clever and the discernment of the discerning; I will frustrate and nullify [them] and bring [them] to nothing.
20Where is the wise man (the philosopher)? Where is the scribe (the scholar)? Where is the investigator (the logician, the debater) of this present time and age? Has not God shown up the nonsense and the folly of this world's wisdom?
21For when the world with all its earthly wisdom failed to perceive and recognize and know God by means of its own philosophy, God in His wisdom was pleased through the foolishness of preaching [salvation, procured by Christ and to be had through Him], to save those who believed (who clung to and trusted in and relied on Him).
22For while Jews [demandingly] ask for signs and miracles and Greeks pursue philosophy and wisdom, 23We preach Christ (the Messiah) crucified, [preaching which] to the Jews is a scandal and an offensive stumbling block [that springs a snare or trap], and to the Gentiles it is absurd and utterly unphilosophical nonsense.
24But to those who are called, whether Jew or Greek (Gentile), Christ [is] the Power of God and the Wisdom of God.
25[This is] because the foolish thing [that has its source in] God is wiser than men, and the weak thing [that springs] from God is stronger than men.
26For [simply] consider your own call, brethren; not many [of you were considered to be] wise according to human estimates and standards, not many influential and powerful, not many of high and noble birth.
27[No] for God selected (deliberately chose) what in the world is foolish to put the wise to shame, and what the world calls weak to put the strong to shame.
28And God also selected (deliberately chose) what in the world is lowborn and insignificant and branded and treated with contempt, even the things that are nothing, that He might depose and bring to nothing the things that are,

Out Of The Wilderness

10-18-05

The LORD has had His prophets in the wilderness preparing them for the end time ministry. He has now brought them out of the wilderness and brought them together to bring confirmation to the teaches of the wilderness. Now the LORD says that He has placed them in the starting gates, a place where we are to be still and wait on Him to loose them to their places of spiritual war. Ever war will be won. The prophets are waiting for the gate to open because they know the LORD has empowered them for victory. The LORD is wanting us to focus on the mark set before us. With dreams and visions He is setting our sights on the calling we are called to for this hour. The LORD spoke to me last night and said that the next few days were going to be all about me (Eva). He said that I have been praying for all my loved ones and friends but in the next few days He was going to have me work on me by praying through the Holy Spirit to empower me for the things soon to come. Like the book everyone was reading about Jabez . 1Chron 4:9 Jabez was more honorable than his brothers. His mother had named him Jabez, saying, "I gave birth to him in pain." 10Jabez cried out to the God of Israel, "Oh, that you would bless me and enlarge my territory! Let your hand be with me, and keep me from harm so that I will be free from pain." And God granted his request.
We are in a holding place with vision, much vision.
Habakkuk 2:
I will stand upon my watch, and set me upon the tower, and will watch to see what he will say unto me, and what I shall answer when I am reproved.
2 And the Lord answered me, and said, Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it.
3 For the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry.

Be patient. The time is very soon.

On Salvation And Liberty

Becky McLendon

It came to me so clearly: we cannot DO enough to "be saved." So we do not trust in our "doing," but in Christ alone! Well, we all need a "re-teach" from time to time!

The Lord showed me several years ago something about His "perfect law of liberty". That when we are truly IN CHRIST, we are FREE from the law of sin and death and having to TRY to follow 633 commandments to the exact “jot and tittle”. Christ has FULFILLED the demands of the LAW, and in Him we enter the “perfect law of liberty.” We are FREE to obey Him. Those who are NOT in Christ cannot possibly obey Him, no matter how hard they try. They are still “in sin” which means MISSING THE MARK. Those in Christ will stumble, but the righteousness of God in Christ imputed to them keeps them from MISSING THE MARK. They are driven, compelled to press on toward the mark of the high calling in Christ Jesus! Therefore they are placed in His perfect law of liberty, NOT to commit sin after sin and simply do what their flesh wants. They are in His perfect law of liberty to be what He is! What a great salvation we have!

Things That Make Us Go "Hmmmmmmm."

For thus saith the high and lofty One that inhabiteth eternity, whose name is Holy; I dwell in the high and holy place, with him also that is of a contrite and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of the contrite ones. Is. 57:15

So what about the hearts of those who are NOT humble and contrite? Is He with THEM? Many who say they are Christians, but aren't, actually assume God is with them. Is this what is meant by "living a lie?" Hmmmmmm.

It is not a question of whether God is willing to sanctify me; the question is, is it my will? Many want the Name of Jesus but do not want the sanctification made in them BY Jesus. Is this failure to let Jesus BE our sanctification taking His name (His very nature, His essence of being) in vain? Hmmmmmm. Maybe we need to read the Handbook and re-write the curriculum

1 Corintians 1:30: But of him are ye in Christ Jesus who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness and sanctification and redemption

What God has made, we cannot add to it, or take away from it or stop it. These things are true and established in us. Amen and Amen.

When people decide to take GOD out of the equation, what we have left is a society of STUPID PEOPLE, no matter how HIGH their IQ is, Stupid people cannot be FIXED by other stupid people who go around preaching "I'M OK; YOU'RE OK." All the king's horses and all the king's men cannot put together that giant egg who fell of a wall. And no one has sense enough to ask the King. OH I forgot! They had taken Him out of the equation! It makes you go "hmmmmmmmmmm."

Personal Savior

Becky McLendon

"Those who dwell under His shadow shall return. They shall be revived like grain and grow like the vine. And their scent shall be like the wine of Lebanon." Hosea 14:7.

A people of revival dwell under the God's shadow and return to Him daily. They have "taken Jesus as their personal savior." And all of God's people said AMEN, and went home. NOT!!

There is so much more to "taking Jesus as our personal savior" than simply nodding "Yes" with our heads, walking an aisle and writing a date in our Bibles. When we take Him as our personal Savior, it means we take everything about Him PERSONALLY: His sayings, His nature, His Kingdom and His anointing. To take Jesus as our personal savior is to put on Christ. It is to be baptized in Him; to be overshadowed by Him and come alongside Him and walk with Him through thick and thin. It is "going on to be with Jesus" and being "caught up in the Lord" while still walking on this earth. It is being "seated with Him in heavenly places," while going about our day in and day out routines.

Taking Jesus as our personal Savior makes us realize that ONLY in Jesus are we saved, though not of ourselves, lest we should boast. Only in Jesus are we kept from sin unto death, though not of ourselves, lest we should boast. So we take his destruction of sin personally. Only in Jesus are we made whole, both Spiritually and Physically, lest we should boast in that. So we take his wholeness personally. It is only in Jesus...not that we live but Christ lives in us. That is what it means to "take Jesus as our personal Savior."

When we take Jesus as our personal Savior in this complete sense, we have revival. We are clothed in the same Jesus, not a Jesus of our own fashion. Revival does not come to make our old carnal self feel good and have a happy experience in "Jesus." Revival comes to get to the very ROOT of our carnality and KILL IT so that Jesus can dwell in us fully. Revival does not come to bring "LIFE" to dead works and a dead religious form. It comes to destroy it. It comes to destroy everything in our personal comfort zone, It is not big or extravagant or elaborate. It doesn't crowd the church houses. Revival means LIVE AGAIN, and it comes so that Jesus can LIVE AGAIN in us and through us.

The main thing we ask of ourselves if we truly want revival is this: Have I really taken Jesus as my PERSONAL SAVIOR? May we all take this personally!!!

Oil Shocks In The USA?

Andrew Strom.

On Monday I returned from a third-world country named Southern Mississippi. -At least, that is how it felt down there - like a 3rd world country had come to America. It gave a chilling preview of what life here could be like if just a few of the luxuries we take for granted were disrupted. -The primary one of course being OIL or GASOLINE. The United States is terribly vulnerable to any kind of severe Oil Shock. And I want to describe to you what happens when even a rich state loses its access to basics like electricity, transport and gas.

I believe that these two hurricanes have played out before our eyes the fragility of a system that is so utterly reliant on oil. Those semi-trucks that we see roaring down the highways everyday - they are like a lifeline to this country. If they stop delivering supplies to the stores and supermarkets for even a few days or a week, then the whole system will fall over. It is the same with the electrical grid. It too is heavily reliant on oil for power generation. And all of our communications, computers, lights, businesses, appliances, TVs, radios, etc - all need electricity to run. It gives me the chills to see how easily America could be shut down. A civilized nation at the height of her powers - utterly reliant on a black liquid, mostly imported from the volatile Middle East. -Unbelievable.

What happens when the gas stations run dry? -We saw this in Texas. People are trapped. They get stuck on the highways, unable to get out. And when basic transportation fails, then business fails also. Without regular supplies by truck, most businesses would fall apart within a week. All it took was ONE emergency, and the system could not cope. What happens if there are MANY emergencies all over the nation?

When I first got to Southern Mississippi in the wake of Hurricane Katrina, it did not take me long to realize what a basic issue this was down there. I remember talking to a lady who was working gutting out ruined homes. She told me that she was UNABLE to leave the area - even though she wanted to. Her car had filled with water during the storm - and would never run again. Her bank (if she had any money in it) was closed - in fact, no businesses were open at all in the entire area. All the gas stations were either wrecked or shut down. She was working so she could save up some money to get out. -And there were MANY people in this kind of situation. A neighbor up the road from our base lost THREE CARS that are now parked useless across the street - they had been submerged and would not run. And thus, people get TRAPPED.

When people lose "civilized" transport, they have only one option. -They turn to "Third World" transportation. You see them walking everywhere on foot, or riding bicycles. And this is exactly what happened.

It is the same with electrical appliances. Our home base in Mississippi had been flooded with water 5 feet deep. There is still a 5-foot water-mark in all the rooms. The place was full of mud when we arrived. There was water sloshing around in the oven. The washing machine made funny "sparking" noises - full of water. The electricity was off and the generator was little help. So what do you do? -You return to "Third World" ways. You wash your clothes by hand in the tub or in a bucket. You cook with a portable gas stove. You sit around at night talking in the dark - or with some kind of lantern. There are no televisions, no DVD's or stereos (blessed peace!) There is no hot water, no air conditioning, nothing. It is just like being in a 3rd world country. There is little of "modern civilization" left.

In fact, like a lot of people we even slept outdoors for awhile. Many people slept in tents because their house was unliveable. We slept in a park across the street - joining some others that we had met there. The mosquitoes were terrible, but it was OK.

So let me summarize this "Third World" American scenario for you. Without gasoline, electricity or transportation, you lose just about everything. I can tell you this for a fact, because I have seen it. You return to the status of a peasant with a bicycle. None of your modern conveniences will work. Nothing at all. If the gasoline is gone, you cannot even charge your cellphone in the car. And notice that all it takes to make this scenario happen is LOSING THE OIL. Every one of our modern conveniences is ultimately reliant on that one commodity. Makes you think, does it not?

So are you ready for your REAL "Oil Shock", America?

I am convinced that God was bringing a wake-up call to this nation through the recent hurricanes. You will notice that BOTH hurricanes targeted three basic things. Sin and hedonism had everything to do with it. In both hurricanes, the CASINOS and also "SIN CITY" itself - New Orleans - took a major hit. (Katrina wiped out the Casinos on one side and Rita wiped out those on the other). Surely this cannot be mere coincidence? And both hurricanes filled New Orleans with water. It really was staggering. Surely God was saying something through this?

But the third thing we have to take note of is that both hurricanes targeted the OIL - and showed up the terrible fragility that the United States has in this area. It does not bode well for the future if America fails to heed these wake-up calls. She is terribly vulnerable in this area - far more fragile than we have seen in the past. And God is looking for this nation to REPENT of her hedonism, her materialism and her "worship of pleasures" before much worse comes upon her. This was clearly the message of the hurricanes, to my mind. God was showing how easily America can be "taken out". Do you think this message will be heeded?

God bless you all.

Opening The Book of Romans

Bill Somers

> 1 Thessalonians 5:19-21
> 19 Quench not the Spirit.
> 20 Despise not prophesyings.
> 21 Prove all things; hold fast that which is good.

In a recent article [Word and Witness] we were looking at the question of when a scripture is fulfilled and saw that the tense of the writing was not a conclusive factor. That is to say something written in present or past tense may still await a future fulfillment, something written in future tense may already have happened etc. One of our examples was a discussion of being under the law using quotes from Romans and Galatians. Here is what we wrote.

> Another good example is those who say we are not under the law, we're under grace. What does the bible say?
>> Romans 6:14
>> 14 For sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but under grace.

A lot of people want to take this verse, Romans 6:14 and run with it. Just as there are many who want to claim other promises but ignore the conditions for those promises; like 'resist the Devil and he will run from you'. The scripture actually mentions a condition you must meet first. It says:

> James 4:7 Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

Now if you check out what it says in Galatians 5, you will see that there is a similar condition, being led by the Spirit.

>> Galatians 5:18
>> 18 But if ye be led of the Spirit, ye are not under the law.

So are we under the Law or not? Today's church claims to be under grace, but it sure doesn't act like it. Something is wrong with this picture. Maybe we have misapplied the word. If you take into account the condition listed in Galatians 5:18 then, Romans 6 apparently has not been fulfilled yet! Even so we use these verses and other verses from Romans as though they were already fulfilled.

What's important here is that Galatians spells out a condition for not being under the Law while Romans does not. So why is that?

Lets compare the opening passages of these two letters and see what clues there may be.

In Galatians 1 we can see that it is addressed to those who are being troubled by a perverted gospel and removed from their call to Grace in Christ.

> Galatians 1:6-7
> 6 I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel:
> 7 Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.

The opening passages of Romans seem to be addressed to a people that do not have that problem.

> Romans 1:1-8
> 1 Paul, a servant of Jesus Christ, called to be an apostle, separated unto the gospel of God,
> 2 (Which he had promised afore by his prophets in the holy scriptures,)
> 3 Concerning his Son Jesus Christ our Lord, which was made of the seed of David according to the flesh;
> 4 And declared to be the Son of God with power, according to the spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead:
> 5 By whom we have received grace and apostleship, for obedience to the faith among all nations, for his name:
> 6 Among whom are ye also the called of Jesus Christ:
> 7 To all that be in Rome, beloved of God, called to be saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.
> 8 First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, that your faith is spoken of throughout the whole world.

Note that the gospel is mentioned in verse one and that verse two tells us that the gospel is part of the promise to the fathers. We can see this spelled out in Galatians 3.

> Galatians 3:8 And the scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all nations be blessed.

Then in verse 5 it mentions obedience. That is obedience to the faith among all nations, which include, according to verse 6 those whom this letter is addressed to, the called of Jesus Christ. Verse 7 says they are beloved by God and called to be saints. In verse 8 we see that their faith is spoke of through all the world. So we are looking at a people from the nations who are obedient to the faith and have a world wide reputation for that faith. Could this be the Gentile church as it will be in the end time revival?

This does not sound like the same bunch that the book of Galatians speaks to. The people addressed here as ‘Romans’ are walking the walk and not just talking the talk. So they already meet the condition of being led by the Spirit. Galatians has to spell out this condition but Romans assumes this condition from the beginning. For the Galatians, being led by the Spirit has not yet happened; but it has for the Romans. Once you notice this, it makes quite a difference. Try comparing the Corinthian church as described in First Corinthians with the same church as described in Second Corinthians.

So who are the 'Romans'? In other words who does this description given in Romans fit. Is it the early church, today's church or the end time church? If you answer the early church, that is only because they are a type of the end time church. Today's church seems to fit the description of the Galatians. If you answer the end time church, you are starting to catch on. It is speaking to the end time Gentile Church. Certain passages of Romans only make sense when applied to the end time church. This means that they are still to be fulfilled in the end times. Then the Book of Romans will be open to those who are led by the Spirit. This is what we mean by opening the Book of Romans.

The church of today, which claims to be under grace and thereby allowed to ignore the old testament scriptures, is gravely mistaken. The conclusion you have to see is that while there may be some individuals under grace, the vast majority of us are still under the law, and won't admit it! We are reading a sealed book and misapplying the word. The Spirit we need to be under grace is the same Holy Spirit we need to understand this book! And He is that Spirit we need to be obedient to the Gospel.

If you still think you are under grace, ask yourself if sin has any hold on you.

> Romans 6:14
> 14 For sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but under grace.

When you can honestly answer that sin has no hold on you, they you can also say with Jesus, the prince of this world cometh, and hath nothing in me. [John 14:30].
And you are then conformed to his image! Selah!

Olympic Torch In London

Debra Green

At Easter during my time at Spring Harvest I received a vision, which I now feel, I should share more widely. The second part of this came this weekend when I was at the Transmission 24-7 prayer missions conference in Harpenden.

Firstly, I saw a vision of Jesus carrying the cross to Golgotha and Simon from Cyrene being called out to carry the cross for part of the journey. In my vision I felt as though I was there watching him carry his cross and instead of Simon being called to carry the cross, I was quite amazed to see that it was our nation. The Holy Spirit said “it is time to step out and carry the cross of Jesus for all to see. To not be ashamed to make him known, to speak of him, to own his name and to carry the cross into the nations of this world.”

This vision shook me to the core. I could not ignore it’s strength or impact.

On Thursday July 7th I traveled down to just north of London to the Transmission conference. All the motorway signs flashed up “avoid London” and I was listening to the news on the radio. During the evening I saw a vision of the Olympic torch being carried around the stadium in 2012. I heard the Holy Spirit say “the setting is London but the call is to every believer in this land to awake and arise, to put on your running shoes and carry my torch. The nations are watching and they will see the light.”

There is now a season of seven years to prepare and pray leading up to 2012. I saw that there would be an increase in the size and impact of our individual lights; the lights would become flaming torches over this seven-year period. The torches would be visible and not hidden in our churches. There would also be an increase in the corporate anointing on our nation to recover it’s destiny and responsibility.

Scriptures: Matthew 27 v 32, Isaiah 52 v 1, Isaiah 60 v 1, Hebrews 12 v 1.

One Thing Is Needed

Chip Brogden

www.watchman.net

"And Jesus answered and said unto her, Martha, Martha, thou art careful and troubled about many things: But one thing is needful: and Mary hath chosen that good part, which shall not be taken away from her (Luke 10:41,42)."

We often sacrifice God's one thing in favor of many things. There is something more significant to be seen in Mary who sits at the feet of Jesus versus Martha who is "much serving". Jesus is not contrasting service and worship and saying that worship is better. No, Jesus is contrasting "many things" with "one thing". We are consumed, absorbed, worried and vexed with many things - serving, witnessing, preaching, giving, writing, singing, attending meetings, reading, studying, building churches, fellowshipping - when Jesus says only one thing is needed, and Mary has discovered it, and it will not be denied her. What is the one thing?

In order to grasp God's purpose for all things let us look at several Scriptures.

"Having made known unto us the mystery of His will, according to His good pleasure which He hath purposed in Himself: That in the dispensation of the fulness of times He might gather together in one all things in Christ, both which are in heaven, and which are on earth; even in Him: In whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose of Him who worketh all things after the counsel of His own will" (Ephesians 1:9-11)."

What does this passage tell us? First, that there is a Will, and it has been revealed to us. Second, that God's Will is "all things in Christ". Third, that everything is working according to this purpose. Let us look at these three points more particularly.

THE REVEALED WILL OF GOD

There is a Will, a purpose, a reason, a goal towards which God is moving. Something is intended. A result is sought after. God is not floating us along aimlessly towards everything in general and nothing in particular, but He is moving us towards something. Since He exists outside of time, the End is already accomplished from God's perspective. To us, who are still bound by time, things do move forward. We have a past, a present, and future, while God is all of these at once. Knowing that there is a Will and that the Lord is bringing us towards something is clearly for our benefit. God wants us to know His Will that we may enter into it and work in harmony with Him, cooperating together. Why does He not just do what He wants? Why bother to reveal it to us at all? Because we are part of the Will.

Most of the world's philosophy is based on man's attempt to answer these questions: who am I, where did I come from, why am I here, and where am I going? These questions can only be answered when we consider them in the light of God's ultimate Will. There is a purpose, a reason for being, a reason for creating, a reason for living, a purpose which is larger than us, but includes us.

I ate breakfast in a diner once that had a sign on the wall that read, "If there is a will, I want to be in it." I'm not sure what the intended message was, but it immediately resonated with me. I want to be in the Will of God! And I believe every Christian wants the same thing.

ALL THINGS IN CHRIST

What is the Will of God? "That... He might gather together in one all things in Christ." God only has one need, one desire, one thing He wants to accomplish, and once we see this we will find everything else is peripheral to this one thing. What does God wish to accomplish? God's ultimate will and desire is to sum up everything into Christ, so that Christ is All in All.

From henceforth when I talk about God's Will I am speaking of His eternal purpose and plan of summing up everything into Christ and putting everything under His feet. I am not talking about God's will for you personally, or God's will for your ministry or business. These may be terribly important to you, but what we are considering now is something which transcends these matters and touches upon the ultimate Will of God for all generations, all people, all nations, the whole of creation - the one thing He is after.

Now we understand why Mary is said to have discovered that one thing that God wants, that one thing that He is after, and why she has forevermore taken her place at the feet of Jesus. Food, fun, fellowship, friendship, all is forgotten. She exists to wash His feet with tears, anoint His feet, and hear Him there at His feet. "Kiss the Son," Psalms 2 says. In this matter it is not a kiss of greeting on the cheek, or even the kisses of His mouth which speak of the love between the Bride and the Bridegroom (Song of Solomon). It is kissing the feet in subjection to the One Whom God has appointed as the Heir of All Things. The kissing of the feet of the Son and the sitting at His feet is the acknowledgment of all that the Father has vested into the Son and the recognition that everything has been placed below His feet, beginning with US.

EVERYTHING RELATES TO THIS WILL

Thus far we have seen that there is a Will, and that God's Will is for Christ to fill all things. There is a third thing to be seen: "[God]... worketh all things after the counsel of His own will." Everything which is spoken, revealed, or done by the Lord is connected in some way to the one thing. We might call it the Cosmic Will, or the Universal Will, or the Mind of the Spirit, or the Prime Directive, or simply the One Thing. However we choose to describe it, that is what God is after. It is His Will, His Desire, His Purpose, His Need, His Heart.

If we read and apply ourselves to the Scriptures - the books of Moses, the Law, the Prophets, the Gospels, the Acts, the Epistles, and the Revelation - we will eventually see one thing taking shape and coming into being. It is this one, continuous, unbroken thread of His Will which weaves its way throughout all of God's dealings with man for the past six thousand years, having its beginning in eternity past and reaching its conclusion in eternity future towards one thing.

But more importantly, we see that everything is moving in relationship towards God's End. It is the why which explains God's reason for creating the world, heaven, hell, the devil, and man himself. It is the motive for sending the Word to be flesh and live as a Man, to die on a cross, to be raised to life, and to be exalted to God's right hand. It is the impetus which caused God to pour out His Spirit on all flesh and establish the Church. It is His purpose in judging the world and creating a new heavens and earth.

In his letter to the Romans, Paul describes it as the Mind of the Spirit:

"And He that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit, because He maketh intercession for the saints according to the will of God. And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to His purpose. For whom He did foreknow, He also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that He might be the firstborn among many brethren (Romans 8:27-29)."

Einstein wanted to know the Mind of God. Here, we have it. If we change the order of the first verse it may help us to see it more clearly without changing the meaning. "He makes intercession for the saints according to the Will of God BECAUSE He knows the Mind of the Spirit." We know from the Book of Hebrews that "He that searcheth the hearts" is Christ, and "He that maketh intercession for the saints" is Christ (Hebrews 4:12; 7:25).

Because Christ knows the Mind of the Spirit and He is making intercession for us according to the Will of God, "we know that all things are working together... according to His purpose." And to leave no doubt as to the purpose, we are told that the purpose is "to be conformed to the image of His Son." Christ as All in All.

We frequently quote these verses and interpret them to mean that no matter what happens, good or bad, God is going to make it all work out for our good, and it will all turn out right in the end. That is not what Paul is saying at all. What he is telling us is that all things are moving in relation to God's purpose of summing up everything into Christ. God's End is Christ as All in All. Everything in heaven and on earth is moving in relation to this.

So in Romans we are told that God is "working all things together... according to His Purpose" and in Ephesians we are told that God is "working all things after the counsel of His own will." The key phrase here is "all things". How do we judge if a thing is of God or not? We need only determine its relationship to the one thing. Either it is in harmony with the one thing or it is one of the "many things" which may be good, spiritual, or moral, but does nothing to move us towards God's eternal purpose.

GOD'S GOAL: THE PREEMINENCE OF CHRIST

Of course, there are other Scriptures which refer to God's Will in Christ:

"And [Christ] is the head of the body, the church: Who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead; that in all things He might have the preeminence (Colossians 1:18)."

Does Christ have the preeminence in this world? In the Church? In our family? In our heart of hearts? No, and no, and no, and no. Sinners rule the world, "saints" rule the church, we rule our own families (which accounts for our failed marriages and broken homes), and we govern our own hearts, doing as we see fit. Yet the Will of God is clear: that Christ would have the preeminence in all things. Obviously we are not there yet:

"For now we see not yet all things put under Him, but we see Jesus... for Whom are all things and by Whom are all things (Hebrews 2:8)."

Do we see it yet? Not in its fulness, no. We have a little here, and a little there. Where this has already happened, where we actually see and experience Christ having the preeminence, it is called the Kingdom of God. It is not a visible thing, but an invisible thing, for Jesus said the Kingdom is not seen, but is within you. Eventually the Kingdom of God will swallow up the entire Creation and Christ will have the preeminence in all things. Why? Because all things are for Him, and all things were by Him. That is what this verse is saying.

For now, when we abide in Him we are full of His Life individually, and this is a beginning, but it is largely invisible. He fills us and to some extent He is seen in us once we are conformed to His Image. But filling the Church is not the end, but the beginning. The end must include "all things", not just the Church:

"Wherefore God also hath highly exalted [Christ], and given Him a name which is above every name: That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth; And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father (Philippians 2:9)."

The key words in the verses we have discussed thus far are "every" and "all". In these Scriptures our eyes are opened and our vision is enlarged to understand that God's ultimate purpose is that Christ would have the preeminence in ALL things, that He would fill ALL in ALL, and that ALL creation would reflect His glory.

May the Lord continually open our eyes to give Him the One Thing He desires. Amen.

On The Isle Of Patmos

Becky McLendon

On the Isle of Patmos, John said, “I was in the spirit on the Lord's day. “ he was saying, ”I was in Jesus on the Lord's Day.” The Lord’s Day is his world, his time frame. It is his time of choosing to reveal. As we live in the spirit we live in Jesus every day is the Lord’s Day we may be by ourselves, but they are the Lord's days. Revelation puts us in Jesus; puts us in the Lord’s Day. Being in Jesus gives us revelation, so we want every part to be in Jesus.
There is more than being close to Jesus. It is being in the same place where he is, there we are. We cannot receive the revelation of Jesus unless we are "in the spirit on the lord's day." to the world we remain pretty much on the isle of Patmos. The Jesus in us is reaching perfection even the full stature of the father. So what belongs to the Jesus in us belongs to the ashes too. It is the ashes that go to the nations. Jesus through the ashes says come.

It is amazing that we are in "this" world yet talking in "another world"...God's world. In true fellowship of the lord every one of our conversations is a translation. In Malachi 3:16 the Lord says:

Then they that feared the LORD spake often one to another: and the LORD hearkened, and heard it, and a book of remembrance was written before him for them that feared the LORD, and that thought upon his name.

Jesus is on the isle of Patmos, and so are we. From now on where he is, we will be also. Could it be that we could consider Patmos the “place of the revelation of jesus Christ?” Yes I believe so. John could have said, “I was in the spirit.” He also could have said, “I was on the isle of Patmos.” So when we say “come,” we are saying, “come to Patmos where Jesus is. Come to Jesus. Come to the Lord’s Day. Step out of “this world” and come to “his” world”.
From this point forward we are "in this world" but not of it. To the world we are has-beens. We have "gone on to be with the Lord." They might as well publish our obituary. Flesh and blood cannot understand this. They have to come to Patmos in order to understand.

Patmos is the “place of choosing.” It is where God chooses us and we choose Him. Song of Solomon 2:16 says this: “I am my beloved’s, and He is mine.” So Patmos is the land of MARRIAGE.
Amen and Amen

Conversion

Becky McLendon

In this salvation process, we are changing houses, going from death to life. The Lord has been showing the deeper meaning of “salvation.” It is the same as what we call conversion. The dictionary defines “conversion” as “changing from one belief system to another, changing over to suit another purpose.” The Lord is showing us that conversion is the essence of translation, or transformation and it takes revelation of His word and His Person by His spirit to do it. Revelation is conversion-taking place. The whole book of Revelation is this: to the believer it’s a conversion or a confirmation, but to the unbeliever, it is a confounding and a condemnation to death and destruction. It could be called the book of conversion, or the book of the confirmation of Jesus Christ into the very being of the believer and the Kingdom of God. We can know him only by being converted in this way. No amount of studying “about Him” or religiously staring at the printed page of His word can convert. It takes a converted mind, born out of a converted spirit to know Him. We are being converted into His whole creative life. We are being converted to minister, and instead of this ministry running on money; it is being switched over to running supernaturally. God will provide all that is needed for a “converted ministry.” There will be no begging or sales of books, tapes or trinkets.

We are being converted daily. We present our bodies daily a living sacrifice and are thereby converted. Even the changed is being changed. We are like jig saw puzzles. We have to be converted before we can fit in God’s plan. We are being converted from a bastard to being a son: from manpower, to God power. This manpower has not been able to get through. Of this manpower we can do nothing. Manpower is what runs Babylon. But this church will be fully operating on God power; she will have come out of Babylon. The church will be separate from the state.

Bread and fishes had to be converted going from the little boy’s hands, to Jesus’ hands. He says to us: “When thou art converted to the God power. Go to the nations; raise the dead, heal the sick and cast out devils. These are the signs that follow those who are converted.” Conversion means to be completely turned around, with your back to what you had been, and to where you had been going, and to what you had been saying. Conversion is repentance. Conversion submits to being totally consumed by God.

A converted red heifer is consumed in God and becomes nothing more than ashes for the converting of the nations. Once converted always converted, the ashes can never become a heifer again. Olives have to be crushed to be converted. Grapes have to be pressed to make the best wine. Water has to be turned to wine before it can serve the wedding guests. It is not once "saved" as in go down an aisle and pray with the preacher and join the church and attend all the functions and be “always saved.” It is once converted (hearing the word and becoming that word revealed; Jesus revealed) always converted. Dogs return to their own vomit.... Converted believers don’t. This is the answer to why “revivals” fail more than succeed…conversion has not taken place. People have an “experience but are not converted and soon return to their own vomit.

The only preaching that truly converts the soul of man is preaching that comes from the conversion of Christ. For every miracle there was a conversion to make it fit God's plans. So why should we be any different? Think of the first miracle of Jesus. He converted the water to wine.... he told them what to do...they did it and the anointing converted it.

Remember? Jesus said to his mother,” My time is not come.” The criteria for the conversion is not complete"...first there had to be a word given, then a word heard...then a word acted on and then the conversion.

So what does Mary do? She tells the men, “Whatever He says do, do it.” She gave the word that opened their ears...then He spoke and they heard. They acted, and then the conversion took place. Jesus taking your place is the conversion. He tells you to do some thing, and then He does it.

Conversion is repentance. Conversion believes I see the crumbs from my hands can become loaves in yours. We say, as peter said: “such as I have I give to you”. Peter had to be converted to say that to that lame man, and we can only say it in the conversion.

Pray more, trust more, believe more…be converted. Praying brings on more revelation, which brings on more conversion. Revelation comes, then persecution, and then ashes. Then more revelation comes, more persecution and more ashes. The plumb line is a certain conversion needed to bring deliverance that takes us to further conversion. The pure in heart, is the converted shall see God. As we read the Bible, by revelation we are seeing God.

To the “comer outers” who have exited the organized church the Lord asks: but have you believed…been converted in your “coming out?” It’s the conversion that brings us out or else we say we are out, while still there. If there is no fire the heifer is still a heifer.

The heifer has no choices left, after becoming ashes.

To do what is "right or best" in our own eyes or in man's eyes is "expedient" but it is not what is right or best in God's eyes. Conversion does what is right in God's eyes, no matter what man thinks. We are workers together in oneness with God. Only the converted can do this.

We must want and have, what God himself calls holiness. More than ever I believe in separation of church and state. The true church of god cannot remain in the "state" system and be the church. The word state covers a lot, when we think what he has separated us from we belong to jesus only to be separate from state, separates us from a people. We go where they cannot go. The "state" cannot have a place in Jesus. He alone is the government and kingdom we belong to. We cannot have part of that religious system that speaks well of men. We are wrong when all men speak well of us. Unconverted men cannot speak well of the converted. We need to repent of compromise with men. We can never be "unified" with the "state."

His holiness has joined us as His body. His holiness has kept us. In His holiness we grow every day we go with His holiness, we follow it so holiness directs our paths orders our steps. He has brought us out of what we thought we wanted.

There is a way that seems to be right. But it is vanity of vanities before i do any thing i must ask, “will it help me spiritually?” Living in the spirit, is being approved of god in every thing we say or do.” That is the question for all of it. “Will it help me spiritually and will it make me more spiritual?” Conversion makes us spiritual. This conversion is a table in the presence of our enemies.

There is an unconverted people who fight the things of God. From such withhold. They don't walk in all seven spirits of God, which I believe is what we mean by “walking in the Spirit.” The Spirit of the LORD is not with them...they won't let Him be with them. Not only do we withdraw from some, we also withhold. We can only share with what the Lord lets us be a part of. It’s not us sharing any way; it’s His holiness in us sharing. Holiness speaks to holiness and produces more holiness. Holiness converts. A stove cannot give off heat. It’s the fire in the stove, so we are like the stove. It’s not for us in ourselves, to try to do any thing it’s His power working in us. It’s not I, the stove; it’s the fire of Jesus living in me. It’s the treasure in this earthen vessel. The vessel is only the vessel...not the treasure...The treasure is definitely not man's will; he doesn’t want the treasure and looks to the vessel. As long as the will of man is in me; as long as the “what will people think?” is in me, I am of no use to God. It’s got to be a completely empty stove for His fire. “What will people think" is green wood that won't burn, just makes stinky smoke. God cannot use "what will people think,” and as long as you are walking AS A MAN, FOR MAN, and BY MAN’S WAYS you will never walk in the FULL anointing

In this conversion, we have a vision, and nothing can be added to it nor can anything be taken from it. Parts will be called false by unconverted religionists, but they still remain. They accuse us saying that we are too heavenly-minded to be any earthly good. However, when people separate themselves from God, they separate themselves from the body, no matter how often they say they have "fellowship." We are more and more coming into the contradiction of man and religion. Conversion separates the church from man’s state. God’s people must become what the Lord is saying now and be converted.

2 Tim. 1:12 says, “For the which cause I also suffer these things: nevertheless I am not ashamed: for I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day.

He is saying to us that all that has been CONVERTED will remain. No devil in hell will be able to snatch what has been converted out of God’s hand. Once CONVERTED always CONVERTED. Let us desire God's complete CONVERSION of us, for He has promised that what He has begun in us He will perfect in the end. That is signed by the Author and Finisher of our faith.

Amen and Amen.

Be not Exalted
Becky McLendon

Be not Exalted: It is HIS Ministry After All

A house is a covering; the man-child is that house. He tells us what to do, and then covers it. When people ask, "Who's your covering" we say the house of God...the man-child ...the anointing! In generations gone by, people didn't have the man-child so they used chapters and verses, but we have the man-child. The anointing takes the place of "my ministry." The carnal nature has no place for him to lay his head. What God joins is spiritual to spiritual. The carnal is busy, and their time is short. The Lord has time, and we have time. The Lord is saying it's not by your ministry, but, by my spirit, I will accomplish anything of any worth. We don't have to fret and fume and try to push things through. As Jesus works, we work. Of ourselves we don't even know how to pray. Jesus joined us together for the nations and the coming of His kingdom. What generations have hated and despised, we will take to the nations. So we can say there is no "my ministry" in perfection. There is no might or power to be found.

1 Timothy 6:10 for the love of money is the root of all evil: which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

Instead of sharing the Lord with the election, the same love that loves money is giving up everything for numbers. Even honest sinners know there is nothing there. .

Zechariah 4:6 then he answered and spake unto me, saying, this is the word of the lord unto Zerubbabel, saying, not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the lord of hosts.

Exodus 6:1 then the Lord said unto Moses, now shalt thou see what I will do to pharaoh: for with a strong hand shall he let them go, and with a strong hand shall he drive them out of his land.

Jesus knows what he is going to do, so we wait. The kingdom of God is the Lord's perfect plan in the earth. We are what remains. To be alive and remain, we cannot exalt our selves. We must remain where the lord puts us; no matter the criticism and accusations we reap. To exalt ourselves is not remaining.

Galatians 6:7 be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.

Matthew 22:11-13: and when the king came in to see the guests, he saw there a man which had not on a wedding garment: and he saith unto him, friend, how camest thou in hither not having a wedding garment? And he was speechless. Then said the king to the servants, bind him hand and foot, and take him away, and cast him into outer darkness; there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

When people exalt themselves, as thieves and robbers, they are trying to hold a place that doesn't belong to them. God's holiness keeps us in what belongs to us.

Corinthians 9:27 but I keep under my body, and bring it into subjection: lest that by any means, when I have preached to others, I myself should be a castaway.

We cannot exalt ourselves, yet we keep ourselves under. Every part of our body must be brought under and in his kingdom. The carnal cannot do this. We cannot trust the carnal, to what is right or what is wrong. There has to be an anointing in us showing us and bringing us into submission to him in every way. We acknowledge the lord in all our ways, and he does direct our paths, from then on, if we live in the spirit. Whole denominations and whole generations and whole nations have become castaways. Preachers that used to impress me do not impress me anymore. As I have learned how exalted they were, it’s either yes from God, or I don't go along with them. The love of God does not exalt itself. So many are weighed in this balance and found wanting. So let’s be only what we are. We can say to the world and religion, “your time is short so exalt yourself.”

So many thieves and robbers show up before the Jesus ministry. A baby chicken that doesn't wait for its time to hatch dies. Those that exalt themselves are in darkness. However, if we try hard to be big, our balloon will break. Look up some of the big name preachers and you won’t believe the degrees, and how they love being called “an anointed man of God,” or “prophet” or “healer.” These are the ones who Jesus says parade themselves around proudly in fancy robes. Some have even dressed like superman. They do not care about God's people they just want a crowd. By revelation, it seems the only crowd we get is the Lord's crowd. He shares his crowd with us. We do not toil and spin to go out and try to get a crowd and then preach the message that will keep the crowd coming. We are only concerned that His words go to the hearers of those words, thus producing His generation. Whether there is "recognition" or not. If we have not preached JESUS, or even more so if JESUS has not preached, then all is in vain.

Amen and Amen

On The London Attacks

Chuck Pierce

Dear Friends:

I was awakened this morning at 4:30 am, unable to breathe. Around 5 am, the Lord told me to turn on the television and watch the news. I had been praying about our trip to England that I leave on this afternoon. When I turned on the news, Tony Blair was making the statement that London has been attacked by terrorists. The underground transportation network and bus network in central London had been suspended due to several bombings. Actually, the bus that was shown on the news that had been attacked was very close to the hotel we are scheduled to stay in.

TODAY IS THE 40TH DAY

Here is the word I gave 40 days ago concerning London and Great Britain: http://www.elijahlist.com/words/display_word.html?ID=3119. If you remember, when we returned from Nigeria in late May, the Lord had us stop in London overnight and I spoke at a County Tour meeting in London County. I gave a very detailed word that within 40 days the nation would change. You can read the details from this report here: http://www.elijahlist.com/words/display_word.html?ID=3119. TODAY IS THE 40th DAY!

When I was in England in May 2004, I gave a word about an 18 month window for the realignment of that nation. This realignment would set the course to determine the next seven years of spiritual activity. In that word, the Lord said, "Do not resist in this season of war. Raise your shield of faith high. Do not become complacent and sympathetic with the enemy that is in your land. If you do, your land will be overtaken . . . Governmental and social banquets should be watched carefully." I believe the G8 Gathering that is going on in Scotland is very strategic to change a course of world finance. This bombing occurred at the beginning of that gathering.

WIN THROUGH VIOLENT PRAISE

We are returning to England because a gathering has been scheduled to begin today in London. This meeting is called AWAKEN. The purpose is to change the course of their nation. This meeting is hosted by Rod and Julie Anderson, and runs from tonight through the 10th. They share, "In an environment where for a few days we can all gather to pray and seek God, with no agenda, and no concrete schedule, we believe the synergy that takes place could birth much insight if we will have ears to hear. To create this atmosphere we need to pray and depend on God to awaken people's hearts to the 'Now Move' of the Spirit of God. God's word is all truth, but then there is the 'present truth' that the Lord wants us established in (2 Peter 1:12)." Other speakers include Dutch Sheets, and Tom & Jane Hamon. The team traveling with me consists of Dutch Sheets, Marty Cassady, Ginny Marks, Robert & Linda Heidler, Joe & Vonnie Askins, and Brian Kooiman. Then on Sunday night (July 10), I will be ministering at a citywide gathering in Belfast, Northern Ireland. In light of the upcoming marches (Protestant versus Catholic) that are scheduled to begin there next week, this is a key time to see the Body of Christ arise in a new way in Northern Ireland.

In a separate email I will be sending out the clear word that came forth in the most recent Tuesday morning prayer meeting that I lead. This is probably one of the most incredible words that I have received from heaven to direct us for this season. So be watching for this word. The Lord began by saying,

> "Many people are trying to use old methods of warfare to win the war they are in. The only way you will win the war from this point forth is through violent praise. You cannot win any other way ... If you do not shift now, you will not be able to see the nations shift. I am sending you back to the root of this nation. Shift the root through violent praise... This is the time to open up the window of your future. Do not go backward. For in the next 10 days if you retreat then you will see the window of your future close, you will find yourself on the wrong side of Jordan, and your promise will not be able to be maintained."

On The Move To New Jobs
Sandy Warner

Mar 21, 2005
ON THE MOVE TO NEW JOBS
I have job offers and job descriptions, - many jobs waiting in new destinations. I have enlisted My people and they are moving quickly out of their comfort zones into a unified direction. When you find your place you may feel a lack of confidence, but I assure you that I shall be your confidence, for even though you will feel uneasy in new territory, I AM the Constant One and I AM Unchanging. In your past, I have allowed pride to fall so that you will be humble in this position, for it carries much authority. Head north towards your destination, and find peace in your heart that I have prepared you for your new assignment.

James 1:17 NLT
Whatever is good and perfect comes to us from God above, who created all heaven's lights. Unlike them, he never changes or casts shifting shadows.

Ps 102:25-28 NLT
In ages past you laid the foundation of the earth, and the heavens are the work of your hands. Even they will perish, but you remain forever; they will wear out like old clothing. You will change them like a garment, and they will fade away. But you are always the same; your years never end. The children of your people will live in security. Their children's children will thrive in your presence."

Overcoming Abandonment
Sandy Warner

Mar 25, 2005
Rejection and abandonment are two of the foundational wounds for demonic doors. I have given every human being the basic need and right to receive love. When you open yourselves up to receive love, you actually prepare yourselves to receive Me. It is the devil's goal to bring rejection and abandonment into your lives so that you will no longer be able to remain vulnerable to receive love.

The truth is that every adult has a wounded child and a disabled but functioning adult within. All have handicaps in need of healing, deliverance and obedience to be able to grow past the wounds and into freedom. Come, dear ones, overcome your fears of rejection and abandonment. I AM with you always,

Jeremiah 31:3 NKJV
The LORD has appeared of old to me, saying: "Yes, I have loved you with an everlasting love; Therefore with loving kindness I have drawn you.

1 John 4:19 NKJV
We love Him because He first loved us

Seeing And Hearing Your Life

SEEING AND HEARING YOUR LIFE

Dear one, there are seasons where you are not able to hear My voice clearly, nor are you able to see past your nose. Do not fear. When these times come, I have a purpose for them. I AM establishing your life to be a living example of hearing My voice through your own circumstances. There are Words in your life that you have been unable to swallow, so I have made you dry and thirsty like a dried up sponge. Once I begin pouring water onto what you are doing, I will open your ears to hear My Word through what you are doing. Then you will finally absorb My objective and receive and assimilate the moisture of My Words to you through the work of your own hands.

Luke 12:42-44 NLT

And the Lord replied, "I'm talking to any faithful, sensible servant to whom the master gives the responsibility of managing his household and feeding his family. If the master returns and finds that the servant has done a good job, there will be a reward. I assure you, the master will put that servant in charge of all he owns.

To Partner With Him In Prayer
Sandy Warner

Mar 27, 2005

TO PARTNER WITH HIM IN PRAYER

From the passion of Your bosom, I feel the heartbeats of Your love.
How you continue to incubate, I know not how or of.
But Your Words just keep on flowing with understanding and knowing.
They pour out upon the earth - Your giant womb yet to give birth.

The times and seasons are in Your great hands.
It's not in the agenda or hands of man.
In the fullness of time, ripe, they burst forth.
Carried forth by angels on wings that soar.

Each Word is nurtured and coddled with care,
With men and angels united so rare.
Spanning Your bridge as from heaven to earth,
Each Word is a jewel, destined with worth.

Let Your will be done on earth as in heaven,
Your grace is sufficient to take out leaven.
To guard and to keep what is absolute Thine
Kept pure and holy even as it's refined.

Please impart us this day our daily bread
Let Your manna fall that we may be fed.
We sup at Your table drinking Your cup,
We lean into You to hear what is up.

Grant us ears to hear and grant eyes to see
That we may partner, uniting with Thee.
As we labor to enter with trust and belief
Grant understanding, providing relief.

We desire to please You with our effort,
God forbid that what we carry might abort.
We are weak at most and ignorant at best
To know how to nurture and guard our own nest.

We wait upon You to train us to defend.

Our backs are together looking out and in.
To protect from marauder's attempt to fear.
And to see the young incubating so near.

Yes birds of a feather do flock together,
Waiting for loved ones whose feet are still tethered.
Given tasks to perform while we are waiting,
While the demonic floods are still abating.

The earth is drying from our time in Your ark,
With anticipation we're waiting to embark.
Not in, but out, Your door of eminent hope,
Promised to the prophets, as seen through their scope.

We'll come out Your door with families intact
Prepared to gather anything we lack.
The slates wiped clean with pure new beginnings,
>From disciplined lives, repentant from sinning.

Jesus' blood and grace is more than enough
To keep us from stumbling from rocks too rough.
We hold the hands of the weak and feeble,
Bringing them along making sure they're able.

Bravely taking the journey to our new land,
United, moving on, and making our stand.
What a joy to witness our promised new place
Prosperous and healthy, poured from Your grace.

So as we wait by our nest in Your vast love,
We will rest in Your hope and plan from above.
That our loved ones are incubating, safe and sound
As we declare Your great Words, that they may abound.

Hos 2:14-16 NLT
"But then I will win her back once again. I will lead her out into the desert and speak tenderly to her there. I will return her vineyards to her and transform the Valley of Trouble into a gateway of hope. She will give herself to me there, as she did long ago when she was young, when I freed her from her captivity in Egypt. "In that coming day," says the LORD, "you will call me 'my husband' instead of 'my master.'

Vision On The Recent G8 Summit

Kato Mivule

July 8, 2005

First and foremost I wish to extend my deepest sympathy and prayers to the families of the victims of the London attacks. I include in my prayers all those injured and suffering as a result of the attacks, that Jesus Christ will be their comfort and healer.

I also wish to make note at this point to all who are still blinded by the Left and Right Politics that I am none of that and I categorically reject such partisan nonsense, and nothing of what I write today is in support to such.

After the London attacks on July 7, 2005, I sensed heaviness in my heart but at the same time I was not surprised by the attacks. So, I went to The Lord in prayer and asked for His thought on this situation before I slept… The Lord then gave me a scripture in Isaiah…

Isaiah 40:15-17
[15] Behold, the nations are as a drop of a bucket, and are counted as the small dust of the balance: behold, he taketh up the isles as a very little thing. [16] And Lebanon is not sufficient to burn, nor the beasts thereof sufficient for a burnt offering. [17] All nations before him are as nothing; and they are counted to him less than nothing, and vanity.

I was then woken up at 1.00 am that would be July 8, 2005. This was after I had a dream concerning the welfare of my family. I knew that The Lord wanted to speak to me because He will always interrupt my sleep when He has something to say to me. I thought I would begin by prayer and intercession but The Lord stopped me and compelled me to get a paper and pen and just wait on Him.

The Inverted Pyramid…

The first vision I saw was a pyramid on the One US Dollar bill. It was brought before me and the eye in the pyramid was alive and staring at me when suddenly a man dressed in a white robe came and inverted and turned it upside down. The base was on top and the top on bottom and the base pressed upon the inverted top with great pressure crashing the pyramid. The Base became so heavy that the top, which was on the bottom, could not handle the pressure of the base and also pressure exerted on it by the hand of the man dressed in a white robe. The eye that was looking at me was taken by the sudden move and caught unaware and horrified… The Man who I later realized He was The Lord told me, “I am going to overthrow the pyramid, there is going to be a revolt “. The vision ended, so I wrote it down…

The G8 Summit Forgot About God and Gog…

After this, I had the second vision. I was with the same Man who later again I realized He was The Lord. He told me “you have been writing an article about the G8 summit” (I was writing a short piece about my own opinion on the G8 Summit and the London attacks on the evening on July 7, 2005). In the vision I said “ yes”. Then The Lord told me, “The G8 have been caught with their pants down”. I knew He was referring to the London Attacks. In the vision I was carried over Europe, like I could see Europe from space but very close. It was like someone was taking me on a tour of Europe. The Lord proceeded to say, “ I will expose their nakedness for all to see, and the blood of the innocent is placed at their feet”. Then I was shown the President of Russia, he was very sad, and like he was being forced to stand with the other leaders in a photo up at the G8 Summit but all did not have trousers on but boxers (underwear) on and no shoes on (half naked). The Russian President was skinny but grew fat because of the anger and bitterness he stored as the British Prime minister read out the solidarity statement against the London attackers. The Russian President seemed to come to the microphone to say something but could not; he was held back and in the photo up stood alone at a distance from the other leaders who did not even notice. The Lord then said, “ They forgot about God and Gog, Gog will revolt”.

The Lord’s tone towards the G8 was not a favorable one, I instantly knew that the G8 are His enemies and The Lord spoke to them as a people who were given to judgment. I knew The Lord is very angry with them and they would not escape His Judgments. I was made to feel the Holy Anger of The Lord against the G8. However, The Lord's anger towards the G8 seemed to be a kind of Protection for His people. He was angry with the G8 because He loved His people.

Word For London…

I was then taken over London and I saw the people get angry and begin a revolt against the rulers; they discovered on the radio that their rulers including the US orchestrated the attacks. (Disclaimer: Please don't attack me, this was just a vision and dream, I am only sharing a vision and dream…will you kill a dreamer?). However, they seemed to join the revolt against the Pyramid on the US Dollar Bill.

After this The Lord said to me " Let the people in London prepare places of Refuge". I knew he was referring to the Christians. So, I saw Christians in London Prepare hidden shelters secretly. So I thought well, will they have another attack? The Lord said, " they will have refugees from America, they will see the America burn" I was then told to read Psalms 28"…

Psalms 28

[1] Unto thee will I cry, O LORD my rock; be not silent to me: lest, if thou be silent to me, I become like them that go down into the pit. [2] Hear the voice of my supplications, when I cry unto thee, when I lift up my hands toward thy holy oracle. [3] Draw me not away with the wicked, and with the workers of iniquity, which speak peace to their neighbours, but mischief is in their hearts. [4] Give them according to their deeds, and according to the wickedness of their endeavours: give them after the work of their hands; render to them their desert. [5] Because they regard not the works of the LORD, nor the operation of his hands, he shall destroy them, and not build them up. [6] Blessed be the LORD, because he hath heard the voice of my supplications. [7] The LORD is my strength and my shield; my heart trusted in him, and I am helped: therefore my heart greatly rejoiceth; and with my song will I praise him. [8] The LORD is their strength, and he is the saving strength of his anointed. [9] Save thy people, and bless thine inheritance: feed them also, and lift them up for ever.

Technology Center Shifts From US to London…

The Lord showed me a shift of technology from the USA to London. It was like a huge database was now stationed in London. The US Technology diminished until America was burned with fire. However, not all technology was under the control of the British Government. Those who revolted against the Pyramid used part of the technology based in London in their revolts.

American Refugees in Africa…

After this, The Lord showed me Africa, with the wasteland turning to springs and wells and people rejoicing. American Refugees were fleeing to Africa and some people were also fleeing France to hide in Africa. They were kept there and welcomed by the locals. The Lord said to me " I was in Africa as a refugee until Herod died, I will hide some of my people from America and France in Africa until their Herod dies". I knew He spoke about Joseph and Mary escaping to Egypt with Jesus and protected there till Herod died. (Disclaimer: I am not saying that every one should run to Africa…seek the face of God concerning these matters, don't simply run to Mexico, Canada, Israel, because your friends are doing so…Seek God's will as to where He want you to be personally). This is the second vision The Lord has shown me of American Refugees in Africa, however in both my visions, the locals welcomed them.

France and Chirac and the Eiffel Tower…

After this, I was taken over France. The First place was at the Eiffel Tower. Then The Lord said to me in a commanding voice, "son of man, pull that Tower down!" I was like well how do I do it, He said " I said pull that Tower down!" So, I simply prayed against the Tower in the Name of Jesus Christ saying, " I pull you down in the Name of Jesus Christ". After I saw saints in France under ground in prayer, the prayers were so fervent that I then suddenly saw the foundations of the tower crumble, Then suddenly a naked Chirac carried the huge tower over his head and begun running towards the French people, the people run away from Chirac and there was another revolt. The people were angry at Chirac, they were betrayed by him so they run away from the burden of the Tower, Chirac grow darker and darker till his body became black as coal, no one helped him with the burden of the Tower…they all laughed at Chirac while he run to and fro, naked with the heavy Tower on his head… Then The Lord said, " Chirac is not Person for the peoples" …

Civil unrest in France…
Then The Lord said to me, “ There is going to be civil unrest in France, they rejected God and laughed at my church and offended God. Chirac, to whom will you turn to with the burden of the Tower? I hate their Towers; they are an abomination before me.
Paris will be overthrown. There are God’s faithful in France and God will protect them. The French decided to build a Tower instead of fountains of water, the land is now dry and there is no water”.

Demonic Beings Land in Paris…
The Lord then proceeded to say to me, “ I gave France 1978 to 2008”. Then I was shown Beings landing over France that looked like demonic beings. The demonic beings communicated to each other saying, “Landing in Paris 2008”. Then I heard the words “ Darkness comes over Paris 2008”. I don’t know anything about the dates and meanings here, the timings and seasons belong to God. All I am humbly narrating was a vision The Lord gave me…surely demonic darkness and gloom are headed towards France in the near future…

University of Paris…
After this I was taken over to the University of Paris…then The Lord said to me “The University of Paris is an Abomination, it will be overthrown. They have poisoned many of my children in America with their doctrines. The French will surely be overthrown”. Then I saw Gog ready to attack... The enemy of France came from the North… I don’t know if the attack will come from Gog or not but for sure God has set His judgment on France… I pray if any one knows any intercessor and prayer warriors from France, they can forward these visions and they can begin to pray for God’s remnant in France… The Lord is very serious about France…

Back to the Pyramid…”Strike at the Pyramid”…
After this I had another vision, I was taken back to the Pyramid with the revolt going on and the pressure was now turned towards the top of the Pyramid which was now upside down. The Lord said to me “ son of man, get the hammer and strike at the eye on the pyramid”. So, I got the hammer, which I knew was God’s True Holy Word, and hit at the wicked eye in the pyramid that was staring at me.

So, the visions ended and that was at 3.00am. I pray that God will bless you all as we draw close to Him daily. Silver and Gold don’t save; only Jesus Christ can save you. The Storms have already begun gathering, the G8 meeting was an abomination before God, the saints and angels in Heaven denounce the Beast and His System…they rejoice over God’s judgment on the Beast and His System…The blood of all those who have been killed in the orchestrated “terror” attacks lies at the feet of the New World Order who have declared war against God and His anointed one, Jesus Christ… Our only place of safety is Jesus Christ. So together we can sing Psalm 91 with all who truly love Jesus Christ.

July 9, 2005 Encouragement…
I was praying in the morning because of the visions I had against the G8 (The G8 are very diabolic), The Lord gave me a scripture and an encouragement to all who are receiving word from God concerning these last days…

Daniel 2:20-28
[20] Daniel answered and said, Blessed be the name of God for ever and ever: for wisdom and might are his: [21] And he changeth the times and the seasons: he removeth kings, and setteth up kings: he giveth wisdom unto the wise, and knowledge to them that know understanding: [22] He revealeth the deep and secret things: he knoweth what is in the darkness, and the light dwelleth with him. [23] I thank thee, and praise thee, O thou God of my fathers, who hast given me wisdom and might, and hast made known unto me now what we desired of thee: for thou hast now made known unto us the king's matter…
…[28] But there is a God in heaven that revealeth secrets, and maketh known to the king Nebuchadnezzar what shall be in the latter days. Thy dream, and the visions of thy head upon thy bed, are these;

Race War And Genocide In America Dream
Kato Mivule

July 15, 2005
http://www.yesumulungi.com/ProphDreams/Dream33.htm

Disclaimer: I am NOT a Moslem Terror Sympathizer Neither am I a Moslem Murderer...

On July 1, 2005 The Lord gave me a dream about a Post Terrorist Attack Genocide in America. However, because of the heaviness of the dream and its message, I prayed to God as to when He would allow me to release this dream. The Genocide Spirit is from Hell, and has been released from the bottomless pit to Babylon America, so that is why I was hesitant to release the dream but waited for The Lord’s timing. With the attacks I got from releasing the G8 Visions, I now know it takes the Lord’s Leading in releasing some of these dreams…Satan Hates Being Exposed…He hates light because then he flees, where the light shines darkness flees.

However, The Lord placed a very heavy burden on me today, even as I was at work to release this dream today. I had decided to rest from the attacks I received from the release of the G8 Visions but The Lord encouraged me that this is a war and I had better get back to work.

For we wrestle not against flesh and blood but principalities, powers and rulers in the high and dark evil places. The Evil Spirits behind the G8 and the Evil Spirits behind the Coming American Genocide hate True Christians who truly love Jesus Christ from a pure heart.

In my dream, I saw the USA had just undergone major terrorist attack in a major city that brought about an economic crash in the nation. Millions of people were no longer working. I was out of work too and living on the few foods I stored. Everyone was told to stay in their houses and there was a semi curfew in America.

Then something begun to happen, neighborhoods were separated and demarcations done. The white people were placed alone, and the black people alone, Mexicans alone etc, and the other group were the Moslems; they were separated and placed in their own quarters. This was happening across American Cities and Towns.

The most disturbing pictures in the dream, was that the people who carried out the separation were Christians who worked as secret service agents for the Government. They accused the American Moslems of carrying out the deadly terrorist attacks and then begun slowly and calmly taking ALL Moslems to concentration camps. I saw the American Moslem men who I work with at my job, being lead on buses to concentration camps and told that they were being taken for safety. However, a group of White worship leaders from the churches begun to object and then people realized it was a lie, the American Moslems were being taken to be killed without trial, people realized that they did not carryout the attacks. In the Dream, the Christian Secret service Agents convinced Christians in churches that they had to fight back for their nation against Moslems who were said to be responsible for the Terrorist attacks...

Then a resistance among the American Moslems Citizens begun but they were overpowered, rounded up and taken handcuffed to concentration camps. Now, the Christian Secret Service Agents begun doing it openly with no fear, they had guns, they supplied food to the unemployed and they had power. All American Moslems who resisted were shot and killed even before they were bused to the camps. In the dream, Christians from churches were participating in the murders and street killing of their Moslem neighbours whom they saw as terrorists; they saw this as patriotic but were deceived by the Genocide Spirit. Now at the same time when the Moslems were being rounded up, riots were going on between White and Black, Black and Mexican, Mexican and Whites and all races, each accusing the other of collaborating with terrorists.

However, the Christian Secret Service Agents got backing sadly from the UN. In the dream I saw them come to churches with Secret Service Badges and UN Badges and they begun to arrest all White Worship Leaders who had refused to engage in the arrest of the Moslem “Terrorists”. These were beaten and some killed. They were taken and accused of collaborating with “terrorists”. The White Church Worship leaders had arranged joint worship services between blacks, whites and other races… all who engaged in this were rounded up by their fellow church members who served in the Secret Agent Army…these were beaten severely and some killed. The Churches were allowed to worship but not mix with any other race. The worst, was the Whites that begun killing fellow Whites, accusing them of treason.

In the dream we were defiant with a group of Christians, so we went on praying in this free abandoned church with all other races but knowing anytime the Christian Secret Service Agents would arrest us. They did come and broke into the church meeting and begun the beatings and torture but the most severely beaten and tortured people were White church worship leaders who were seen as traitors. (I don’t know why The Lord chose to use the Worship Leaders and not Pastors in the dream).

The spirit of genocide was allover the place with people killing each other, accusing each other of supporting the Moslem “Terrorists”. However, in my dream, the Moslems who were arrested and murdered, were innocent, everyone seemed to know they were not responsible for the terrorist attacks (Please don’t get mad at me, this was only a dream, I am not a Moslem supporter nor a supporter of murder and genocide, I hate all evil).

The Lord showed me that the Evil Spirit of Genocide has been released from Hell and is about deceiving people to a race war to kill each other. Some Christians will be deceived that killing Moslems and Christians who refuse to engage in the race wars is serving God and being patriotic. The Lord gave a warning that those who are Christians should not participate in that spirit of the world, the spirit of Hate and Genocide; we are called to be separate from such unto The Lord in Holiness and Righteousness. The Lord revealed to me that the “Christian” Secret Service Agents were already at work in the churches.

The Lord also showed me the economic crash. I saw in the vision two Switches, one for the NASDAQ and the other for the Dow Jones. The one for the NASDAQ was the first to be turned off by someone who I recognized was an angel. The chaos begun but not until the Dow Jones was turned off too that people went into riots and begun to blame the terrorists and engage in hunting for the Moslem Terrorists…

The Lord gave me a stern warning to all who call themselves Christians NOT TO Engage in any riots and race wars, and murder of Moslems, if you do His protection will not be on you. for He does not delight in the shedding of innocent blood (Please, Jesus Christ knows Moslems are not Christians and knows they can only be saved through Him, so don’t send me hate e-mails, this genocide is orchestrated by the New World Order, if you participate in it you will be guilty of murder and you will be heading for HELL). Those who live by the sword will surely DIE by the Sword…

In the dream I was compelled to tell the Moslems to leave. Those who left the US survived but ALL who stayed were killed during the riots. The Angel who turned off the NASDAQ switch showed me a number, 06, 06 2006; Please again I refrain from going into dates…let the times and seasons belong to God, whatever that date means, let all who Love Jesus Christ discern.

Word of Caution and History (It is said History Repeats…)

During the Rwanda Genocide in 1994, I was still living in Uganda at the time, which is just North East of Rwanda, I knew many Rwandese refugees in Uganda at that time. However, The Lord begun to show people dreams and visions of the coming genocide and told the Christians to pray. Many Christians in Rwanda did not take it seriously, others heeded and left Rwanda. In Uganda preachers would tell us how the Lord showed them an evil spirit from hell attacking Rwanda and many people dying, others ignored them until bodies begun to float on Lake Victoria from Rwanda to the Shores of Uganda.

Christians begun to pray that the same evil spirit from hell would not attack Uganda. In Rwanda the Pastors who survived the genocide told stories of Jesus Christ visiting some of them to warn them but they ignored and enjoyed the elite lifestyle of a typical rich African. Many were warned but few received the warnings. In Uganda we could feel in our spirits something was wrong, all intercessors and prayer warriors knew that evil was set in our neighboring country and we prayed.

I feel the same way today, that should one of those NASDAQ and or Dow Jones Switches be turned off with combined terrorist attacks, the Genocide Spirit will take over the streets of America. Those who can warn your friends, do so; Don't engage in the New World Order bias, segregation, racism, tribalism, prejudice, and race war spirits; they are not from The Father, these spirits have been released from HELL. (Please don't send me e-mails with an idiot mentality thinking I support Moslem terrorists or condone their acts, the picture here is bigger than that, what we are seeing is a Genocide Spirit that was thrown back in the pit in Rwanda in 1994 and being released in America, it knows no religion and race, only those in Jesus Christ can be safe from this Evil Spirit of Hate).

Sadly in Rwanda, Christians engaged in killing each other, The Hutu Christians, both Catholic and Protestants engaged in the murder and slaughter of their fellow Christians who run to churches for help but were turned over to state agents for slaughter. Catholic Priests turned over hundreds of innocent Tutsi Christians who run to them for protection to be murdered by Hutus. The West, including America stood by and watched…
This has happened before and is scheduled to happen again, this time in America.

In 1994 after the Rwanda Genocide, the churches in Uganda rushed to go minister in Rwanda. So, I went with my pastor then and a team from our Church in Entebbe and with a mission to preach forgiveness, reconciliation and minister to the survivors. However, we found forgiveness was a very hard topic to speak about. We interviewed some people who were involved in the murders and also the victims who had survived. Those who had engaged in the murders spoke of how some demonic evil beings took over their minds and found themselves killing mercilessly their neighbours and best friends for no apparent reason. The Demonic Spirit from Hell had taken over. These were some of the most religious people but did not escape the Genocide Spirit.

This Warning Goes Out To All Christians in America...
This warning goes out to all Christians in America. I know Pathetic and Drunk American Pastors will reject this warning but only those who Love Jesus Christ and Love His True Word will be protected from the coming Genocide on the American Streets. Please don't engage in any type of Hate…truly like the bible says Hate is murder and it will happen soon in Babylon America…these will be some of her first pains to her death, for she will be burned with fire in one hour…

I know this is a very tough word and I pray peace and protection for all who will release this word or forward and e-mail it. I pray that you are covered in Jesus Christ. Proclaim Psalms 91…I love Psalms 91 because it is for us Christians who love Jesus Christ in these end times…fear not The Lord is with us and will never leave us alone. I also ask for your prayers, some of the words I get are very direct at time. Sometimes the Lord will reveal the evil secrets of world leaders and I will listen to all the evil plans they say in dreams and visions, I know many have had similar experiences but Jesus Christ is with us and will Protect us. I see the dark clouds of Genocide on American soil as I witnessed in 1994 as those same winds blew towards Rwanda… Watch and pray that you will escape all these things… the times are hastened…

A new Prophetic anointing has been released… God will continue to reveal secrets hidden in dark places, the New World Order and Babylonian Secrets will not go unrevealed to the Righteous and The Wise, they shall know… also many more revelations will be released to many people including none Christians concerning our times, God will warn all, for what is coming on America is also a chastising of All nations that have committed whoredoms and fornications with America…the warnings will increase as Babylon approaches her death.

In the ancient times they depended on Joseph with his dreams and interpretation to save Egypt from Famine, Daniel in Babylon to help the Kings understand their future and judgments…they will come for you because the hearts of men will fail, their science and engineering will fail, they will rush to those who are filled with the Holy Spirit and Love Jesus Christ and have experienced the wilderness of The Lord. They will rush to you to give them answers when all what we have been saying begins to comes to pass. Don't think they are not following these dreams and visions; they are recording them in their databases. But wisdom will fail and God's Children will arise, don't be afraid when that time comes; arise and be a witness for Jesus Christ...

Daniel 2:19-30
[19] Then was the secret revealed unto Daniel in a night vision. Then Daniel blessed the God of heaven. [20] Daniel answered and said, Blessed be the name of God for ever and ever: for wisdom and might are his: [21] And he changeth the times and the seasons: he removeth kings, and setteth up kings: he giveth wisdom unto the wise, and knowledge to them that know understanding: [22] He revealeth the deep and secret things: he knoweth what is in the darkness, and the light dwelleth with him. [23] I thank thee, and praise thee, O thou God of my fathers, who hast given me wisdom and might, and hast made known unto me now what we desired of thee: for thou hast now made known unto us the king's matter…

…[27] Daniel answered in the presence of the king, and said, The secret which the king hath demanded cannot the wise men, the astrologers, the magicians, the soothsayers, shew unto the king; [28] But there is a God in heaven that revealeth secrets, and maketh known to the king Nebuchadnezzar what shall be in the latter days. Thy dream, and the visions of thy head upon thy bed, are these; [29] As for thee, O king, thy thoughts came into thy mind upon thy bed, what should come to pass hereafter: and he that revealeth secrets maketh known to thee what shall come to pass. [30] But as for me, this secret is not revealed to me for any wisdom that I have more than any living, but for their sakes that shall make known the interpretation to the king, and that thou mightest know the thoughts of thy heart.

Oh America, I hope you hear America, the Genocide Clouds and Bloodshed are gathering and moving towards you. The World will look with horror and marvel that such a thing could happen even in America, the envy of nations. America, you will be shown naked, all will watch and see your nakedness because you have forsaken The Lord your God. This is because of your sins you have committed around the world, you have sown the wind in nations with your wars, greed, sorcery, and war crimes now you will reap the whirlwind. The Sword of The Lord is stretched out against Babylon America. Her Judgments have begun even though not being noticed by fools but only by the wise. The time to seriously pray and consider is Now! Ask Jesus Christ, where He wants you to be and what to do there. However, for some you still have a mission here; pray that God will direct your steps. These are matters of life and death.

I ask for all your prayers for God’s protection even after I have released this word.

The Wormwood Star Vision
Kato Mivule

June 27, 2005

Greetings in the Name of Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior whom we long for His glorious appearing…

All along I have heard and read about the Wormwood star in Revelation…

Revelation 8: 10-11
[10] And the third angel sounded, and there fell a great star from heaven, burning as it were a lamp, and it fell upon the third part of the rivers, and upon the fountains of waters; [11] And the name of the star is called Wormwood: and the third part of the waters became wormwood; and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter.

May 2005 Wormwood Vision…
However, as I was seeking the Lord through prayer and fasting through this past May 2005, The Lord showed me a powerful vision. I was taken to the heavens above the earth and I could see the earth in a distance not so far but clearly. Suddenly I heard a very loud sound and vibration with a very heavy zoom sound coming my way, hundred times louder than that of a Boeing 747 Jet.

I then saw a very huge rock almost the size of the moon zooming past me at a very high speed with a large tail of fire besides and behind it. In The vision I was made to feel the waves of vibrations and the heat it generated that hit me but I was protected. It was like someone was holding me by my collar and snatched me out of its way to a safe distance. I then could see other splintering rocks falling of this huge burning object and catching fire themselves.

I looked where it was headed, I knew it was headed for planet earth and thought well, I hope it lands in the ocean, not many people will die. However, it seemed targeted to the ocean and the United States. I was like, no Lord no! However, it kept its course targeting the ocean and the United States, it seemed as though someone was controlling its path unhindered and sure to hit its target. The vision ended. I shared the vision with a Prayer Warrior Sister who then told me I had a vision of Rev 8:10-11.

June 27, 2005 Wormwood Vision…
However, I simply wrote the vision down and well, like we do to many visions, I kept this one and did not give much attention to it until this morning. This time I had a series of visions early in the morning as I got up to pray and all related…

Shown the Calendar…
First, I saw someone dressed in a white robe holding a calendar and said to me,
“The date has been set back for Wormwood” which I understood as forward…he then showed me the calendar with September/October written on it and the number 7. I did not see the year but I instantly knew it was the Fall Season. I don’t know if the number 7 represents 2007, I don’t know the meaning but I know it is not that far.

Then I was shown the second vision. People were having their usual life, for some reason I saw people going to get movies at blockbuster and did not seem to care about what was coming. People were busy watching movies. No one was warning anyone, life was going on as normal.

At Chiefs Football Stadium…
Then in the same vision I was taken to the Chiefs Football Arrowhead Stadium, here in Kansas City. I knew it was fall and the beginning of the Football Season. In the Vision it looked like evening and the stadium was parked to capacity with everyone putting on their red Chiefs outfits, the stadium was all red as it is normally here with Chiefs games in Kansas City.

The game was going on as usual and suddenly there was a very huge loud bang in the sky…and then a huge object I had seen previously in my May vision lit the sky with red fire and zoomed passed across the sky…with very power vibrations that threw everyone off their sits and shook the stadium…

Everyone in the stadium begun to scream and go hysterical, and run too and fro but could not leave the stadium. The huge ball of fire flew from the east across to the west. I knew it was Wormwood. The Stadium officials seemed to have had a clue about the coming disaster but did not warn anyone and also they locked the stadium doors and no one could go out.

I then saw something amazing, people begun to fall on their knees and pray to God, they knew they were going to die anytime soon. I even saw young toddlers who had come to the game with their parents praying too.

I was then taken back to the blockbuster place and people saw the object and heard the band and vibrations but seemed not to care about it, some said, “ I will die watching a movie”…

Saints Protected, Rise of Fierce End-time Preachers of The Word…
After this, I saw another vision, I was taken to a place where I saw believers gathered and protected, I don’t know where but I knew they were Christians because I was given a bible and I was preaching to them and encouraging them with God’s Word. Many other people were encouraging the saints too.

However, these who were preaching did so in such powerful authority than I have ever seen or heard before…they were men and women of authority…it is like Jesus Christ had given them His authority.

All who were preaching were dressed in white robes with a bible in their hands. These preachers were powerful and fierce in the face of the devils and they hated all types of evil…they had authority that they commanded judgments on all who stood in their way.

People are always offended at real bible truth preaching preachers and some times calling them “harsh”, unkind or unloving…in this vision these guys were no joke guys, they were very tough and fierce, they meant what they said…a powerful Elijah Anointing was upon them. They had authority so powerful it shook world leaders and presidents that they dared not to answer these preachers back… These preachers had such love and passion for the saints and Christ… They seemed to do everything in care for the saints.

They spoke with such authority to world leaders and presidents that they never begged them but just commanded what they wanted done and none of the presidents dared get into their way for fear of judgments. The preachers seemed to be perfectly in sync with Jesus Christ…they could hear His Commands and do like wise…the believers had been protected in a secret place and I know they did survive Wormwood…

Debris more destructive than 2004 Dec Tsunami…

After this, I was shown the debris and damage floating all the way on the Atlantic ocean like the force of the moving star caused the debris of destroyed buildings to float all the way from Europe and dumped it at the east coast of America with more excessive damage…I remembered the Tsunami, it looked like very small compared to the Wormwood damage…

Angels High Tech Room…

I was then taken to a room were I saw men around some very high tech gadgets with screens that looked more like flat screen computer panels…but this was very high tech, technology I have never seen before…I knew the men here angels, they were all dressed in white robes and they turned on one flat screen panel and showed me the trajectory of the Wormwood star, then I was shocked to look and behind Wormwood was another star following the same trajectory, just few distance behind Warm Wood and again headed for the Ocean and the United States…they all seemed to have the United States in their path…

Uganda/Africa…

After this I was then taken to Africa, in Uganda where I come from. I was shown people, very sad looking to the destruction in the West. In Uganda, the staple food is Bananas (Matoke in Luganda, a Ugandan Language); people grow different types of Bananas and Plantains. However, the Path of Wormwood dried up all the banana plantations. There was already a drought before Wormwood and now the little food was gone. People cried because the West that provided them food was in destruction…fiercer hunger loomed on the horizon… However, I saw the saints gathered for Jesus Christ too in numbers…I was encouraging the saints there… I did not see much destruction from Wormwood in Africa as I saw in the West in the Visions, apart from a fierce hunger and famine across the continent…

Encouragement…

I pray that everyone will get deeper into loving Christ Jesus; He loves His saints and will fight for them. No one knows really what great things He has prepared for those who love Him. Jesus Christ will protect and provide for His own, even in the midst of judgments…even if we die, we go home to be with Him forever…

There is nothing to hold back from loving The Lord…there is NO HOPE in the things of this world…the silver and gold will be cast to the streets as useless…it is time to reconsider ALL your priorities and what is of value to you…I speak this to American Christians, DON'T waste your time on money, silver, gold and the riches of this world…GO SELL WHAT YOU HAVE AND GIVE TO THE POOR and come follow Jesus Christ…store and invest in heaven now…the days of your riches, America are numbered…I say this with sorrow and sadness, don’t be foolish and build your house on sinking sand…build your house on the rock, Jesus Christ…the storm is surely coming, not very far away but very soon to test and beat against both houses and only those who have built on the Rock, Jesus Christ, will withstand the coming days…

However, our faith in Jesus Christ is more precious the Gold though tested will endure and we shall be with Christ Jesus forever… I cannot wait for those times to come to pass. My spirit is excited, Wormwood is not for our destruction but we should learn to rejoice in God’s Judgments upon the wicked…the saints in heaven sing hallelujah at the unleashing of God’s Judgments upon the earth, lets get in synch with them and sing along as Jesus Christ exalts His Holy Name and brings vengeance on all who hate God and practice evil. The Saints of The Lord can freely claim Psalms 91 with no fear…this is not a time to fear but walk by faith in God…

God Bless You All

OUTSIDE THE SAFETY ZONE
Overstepping safe boundaries
Forgive me these my quandaries.
Abba, I know not how to walk.
Father, I know not how to talk.

I run to You stripping off all shame.
From not measuring up, and self blame.
I lay down pride and confess my errors.
That I be kept from fear and terror.

You have set before me safety
That I not chose death hastily.
Life and death are daily choices.
I chose life that I may rejoice.

So help me now align myself.
Please take me off this drying shelf.
Strip the veils of shame I suffer.
Let me see Your face at supper.

I repent of going astray.
Realigning this very day.
I want Your Word to flame my heart
And from this flesh I must depart.

Thank You for Your mercy and grace.
That I not suffer the disgrace
That I deserve from wandering
Where my flesh is meandering.

Your gaze upon me with eyes of love,
Covers my shame with wings of the Dove.
Welcoming and open are Your arms.
Sheltering with safety from all harm.

Your love melts my heart every time
I see Your face accepting mine.
You look inside and see my worth.
Supporting me as I walk this earth.

Ps 36:7-12 NLKV
How precious is Your lovingkindness , O God! Therefore the children of men put their trust under the shadow of Your wings. They are abundantly satisfied with the fullness of Your house, and You give them drink from the river of Your pleasures. For with You is the fountain of life; In Your light we see light. Oh, continue Your lovingkindness to those who know You, and Your righteousness to the upright in heart. Let not the foot of pride come against me, and let not the hand of the wicked drive me away. There the workers of iniquity have fallen; they have been cast down and are not able to rise.

Follow My Prompting

FOLLOW MY PROMPTING
Do not be afraid to share. They need what you have to give. Do not be afraid, I will be with you and shall establish you. I will give you a mouth and wisdom to dispel what hides in the darkness. Put aside your worries and let Me graft you in. I saw this place a long, long time ago, dear one. I prepared you long before you became aware of where you are now. Stay humble and merely follow My promptings. It is that simple.

Luke 21:13-15 AMP
This will be a time (an opportunity) for you to bear testimony. Resolve and settle it in your minds not to meditate and prepare beforehand how you are to make your defense and how you will answer. For I [Myself] will give you a mouth and such utterance and wisdom that all of your foes combined will be unable to stand against or refute.

REST AS YOU SERVE
How lovely are your feet of service! How far they have taken you as you have poured out like a living sacrifice. I simply love your feet, how very precious they are to Me! I know how tired and sore they have been and how much you long to rest from such a long journey.

May I teach you a new position in which to minister? Sit down, My love! Yes, as you learn to rule in kingdom authority, I will teach you a new position. You have stood for so long. Receive your crown, sit in your throne and find out how to rest as you dispense My Word.

Col 3:1-2 AMP
IF THEN you have been raised with Christ [to a new life, thus sharing His resurrection from the dead], aim at and seek the [rich, eternal treasures] that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. [Ps 110:1.] And set your minds and keep them set on what is above (the higher things), not on the things that are on the earth.

To Build You Up
Sandy Warner

Sep 5, 2005

TO BUILD YOU UP
You have swallowed enemy lies to think that I would refrain from building you up in My love language to you. He accuses you of false pride to hear such things from My lips that build you up into your calling, and into your full inheritance as My sons and daughters. Yes, you have gone through a long season of stripping. And I do lower the mountains and make the crooked places straight. But I also raise up the valleys in your life. You have been over corrected for a very long time, and this has caused a wound. I AM trying to reach you through the many layers of false guilt and condemnation enshrouded and embedded into your heart.

The truth is that you have been so browbeaten with your own failings and the demonic accusations, that to add any rebuke from Me is totally unnecessary. My heart is to build you up, edify you, comfort you, strengthen you, establish you. I want you to intimately know and receive My greatest favor upon your life, that you will walk into your full measure of inheritance in Me, being given birthrights as My children. You are Mine! Would I not treat you as the jewel that you are to Me? Listen again as I affirm you and surround you in My language of love.

Song of Solomon 2:4-6
He brought me to the banqueting house, And his banner over me was love. Sustain me with cakes of raisins, Refresh me with apples, For I am lovesick. His left hand is under my head, And his right hand embraces me.

Overcome
Ephraim Frank

Shalom Fellow Israelite
March 11, 2005
A few weeks ago Rimona was looking through a songbook that we received from Yahweh's Assembly in Messiah Congregation and found the following:

Yah hath remembered Israel Whom He foreknew of old;
His promises are firm and sure, to make of them one fold.
Ten tribes once rent from David's fold, a prodigal to roam;
But David's root and offspring now, invites the wand'rer home.

Two tribes thru' sin their kingdom lost, served others in despair;
To them Yah sent His promised One Who died their sins to bear.
The tomb could not retain its prey; triumphant o'er death's law,
At Yah's right hand He sits today to mediate our cause.

Twelve tribes, divided ten and two, both stumbled at the stone;
The ten reject His covenant, the two His Name disown.
May Judah join with Israel, and hail their coming King.
May then tribes learn at Judah's feet, as to His coat they cling.

O King of Kings, Eternal One, O bright and shining Star,
Let all the earth rejoice in Thee, Whose fold and sheep we are;
O Shepherd King, Thy fold make one; we wait on Thee today.
Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, teach us, O Yah, to pray.

We do not know the melody attached to these wonderful words, or the name of the lyricist.

At the end of letter 257 I left you with one word - "overcome". Each of the seven congregations of believers in the cities mentioned in Revelation chapter 2 and 3, were exhorted to "overcome" in order to receive a reward. After becoming a believer and receiving the Spirit of Holiness, I was under the impression that because I was in Messiah I had already received everything. I was a child of grace and the rewards were given freely. My life style, so I thought, was of no consequence, as long as I was trying to better my life and was behaving in a way that was "acceptable" in the eyes of those with whom I was fellowshipping. Communion, for example, could deal with sin, at least until the next time. Thus, Communion provided me with a safeguard to heaven, as I would always be a sinner until I died or was raptured.

One day some friends came by and shared some "good news". They said that according to Scripture I had already died to sin, in and through the death of Yeshua. They told me that I was now a new creation being and that the life of that new creation man was the same as Yeshua's and the heavenly Father's. The only stipulation to becoming aware of this fact was that I had to believe the Word (gospel). They pointed out that Paul the apostle had this understanding about himself, but at the same time still had a problem with the power of sin that was working in him. However, through Yeshua his Messiah he had the victory over these powers, for which he was very grateful to his Elohim. It took the obedience of faith to come into victory, and Paul learned that he could cleanse himself from all filthiness of flesh and spirit, because he had received the promise of the power of the Spirit of Holiness. He knew that he now was the temple of YHVH Elohim, in fulfillment of the word of the prophets:

> "I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their Elohim, and they shall be my people. Wherefore come out from among them, and be separate, says YHVH Elohim, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you, and will be a Father unto you, and you shall be my sons and daughters, says YHVH Elohim the Almighty" (2 Cor. 6:16-18).

A great promise, yes, but with stipulation. We too must come out and be separated from all unclean things, both in flesh and spirit. What are the things that we are to overcome or come out of? What are the unclean things and how can we know what they are? Well, obviously the scriptures are replete with the answers, and it would be redundant to repeat all the ones that YHVH has laid out for us.

If Yeshua came to fulfill all the Torah and the Prophets, it would stand to reason that YHVH's word would be our instruction for this process of overcoming; not only for spiritual things but also for all that pertains to our life style. Yeshua was faithful in all things regarding the will of His Father. Are we exempt from these acts of obedience? Yeshua said to seek first YHVH's kingdom and His righteousness. But if YHVH's kingdom is already righteous - why the addition "His righteousness"? Because man can develop his own brand of righteousness based on his own "good" works through religious exercises that originate from the Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil. Thus, we who have been redeemed by the blood of the Lamb do not have a righteousness of our own. Through faith we have received the righteousness of our Heavenly Father, but we must learn to walk out in every day life His path of righteousness in order to overcome. That pathway is paved with tests that the Almighty creates for us in order to have the opportunities to be faithful to Him and to His Word. He is our Shepherd King and has given to us everything pertaining to life and godliness in order to "overcome". We must therefore become familiar with Him in the most intimate ways in all areas of our life, spirit, soul and body.
Shabbat Shalom
Ephraim

A Goy
Ephraim Frank

March 18, 2005
In the covenant with Abraham, YHWH swore to make him a "goy "(nation). The Hebrew word "goy" (gimmel, vav, yod) does not mean, as the popular usage of it will lead you to believe, "gentile," or "heathen". If that were the case, we could read Genesis 12:2, and all the other times YHWH repeats the original covenant: "I will make you into a great heathen." This certainly isn't what the Almighty had in mind when He spoke these words to Abraham.

A good example of the usage of the term is seen in the case of Rebecca's pregnancy. As it was stated, in her womb there were "two goyim". Thus, Jacob was actually born as a nation (goy). Goy "is used especially to refer to specifically defined political, ethnic or territorial groups of people without intending to ascribe a specific religious or moral connotation" (Theological Wordbook of the Old Testament). Thus, as a "political" entity a "goy" has a government, and in the case of the Abrahamic family the original form of government was in fact "YHVH's Kingdom". Territory, as aforesaid, also defines a nation. And so YHWH added that into the equation: "And you shall live on the land that I gave to Jacob my servant" (Ezek. 37:25).

Zionism was (and still is in some circles) the movement that sought to restore nationhood, in the full sense of the word, to the People of Judah (the Jews).

As you know from a previous letter, a tour group of (mostly) Ephraimites was just here in the land in order to experience the Zionist zeal (ideal) and history of the settlers (all the way from the turn of the 20th century to our day), as well as to proclaim the prophetic word of their own return. Deep spoke to deep as they connected to the ancient covenant made with their forefathers. It is hard to put into words what one senses, feels and thinks in those moments when YHVH touches one's heart's reality. These were the very same stirrings and aspirations that were also realized by a people who fought to keep their Israelite/Jewish identity and national objectives, through returning and settling the Land of Promise. For this end they were willing to give up their lives.

Today, many in the Gaza settlements are in great turmoil, as the government of Israel, along with the nations ("goyim"), is set on uprooting and bringing them into "Israel proper". The propaganda through the news media and hearsay makes claims that the evacuees will be receiving huge sums of money in reparations, while in reality things are still pretty much in the fog and the settlements being deliberated are hardly enough to pay off mortgages to those who have to establish themselves anew. Yet, there are those who still have the Zionist zeal burning in their hearts and are prepared to stand strong, believing the Word of the Most High and trust Him to deliver them, even when evacuation and transfer loom large.

I pray that there will be a remnant out of the found ‘lost tribes’ that will have the same intensity of vision, while also being sensitive to YHWH’s timing in this process. David knew that Saul’s government had an allotted time, and did not touch YHWH’s anointed until He altered things through creating the circumstances that would bring about the change.

YHWH is giving us an opportunity to live again under His rule through Messiah Yeshua, a fact which constitutes us as a “goy”, but will only be fully realized when we are settled in our own land – ALL “the Land of Zion and Jerusalem,” as the Israeli national anthem, Hatikva (The Hope), states.

Let us press on in obedience to the statutes, ordinances and commandments that govern YHWH’s Kingdom. Without making them a point of strife and contention, let each of us bear witness in his own being to the reality of this power that is resident in us through the Ruach HaKodesh (Spirit of Holiness), just as Yeshua told His disciples: “When you receive power from the Ruach HaKodesh you will become my witnesses…” (Acts 1:8). What were those words hinting at? Being a witness to the kingdom that is within you, which is “righteousness, peace and joy in the Ruach HaKodesh” (Rom. 14:17) and its restoration to all Israel, so that we might be again that one Goy promised to our forefather Abraham in the Land promised to the same forefather.

We are the Abrahamic goy - nation - by the mere fact that we have one governmental head, Yeshua. We have been transferred out of the kingdom of darkness, that is the kingdom of this world, and are now, by virtue of His Spirit within us, subject-servants in Yeshua’s Kingdom. "YHVH Elohim has delivered us from the power of darkness, and has translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son” (Col 1:13).

Let me close with short excerpt from the opening verse of a poem written years ago by one of Israel’s much acclaimed poets, the late Yehuda Amichai:

Pit’om kam adam ba’boker	Suddenly a man gets up one morning,
Umargish sheh-hu am	And feeling that he is a nation
Umat’chil la’lechet…	Starts a-walking…

Or to put in Rav Shaul’s (Paul) words: “It is high time to awake out of sleep” (Rom. 13:11)… For truly how good and how pleasant it is for brothers to walk together, under the governmental headship of Yeshua, and in the Land of our unity for “I YHWH will make them one in the land, on the mountains of Israel” (Ezekiel 37:22).

Overcoming The Adversary

Bill Somers

Mount Gilead Ohio USA

April 22, 2007

> And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death. Revelation 12:11

I had a dream this week which illustrated overcoming the adversary. Here is the background.

I have been attending a Messianic congregation for the last month or so, and enjoying the fellowship, the worship and the moving of the spirit there. For the past couple weeks the Rabbi has been preaching on the phrase Fear Not. I found that this exact phrase appears in the King James translation some 63 times! It's not surprising to me that we should be on this topic, as I expect there will shortly come to pass a great deal of fearful events.

In Hebrew, the word used is Strongs H3372 ארי yaw-ray'.
Strongs definition is this: A primitive root; to fear; morally to revere; causatively to frighten: - affright, be (make) afraid, dread (-ful), (put in) fear (-ful, -fully, -ing). (be had in) reverence (-end), X see, terrible (act, -ness, thing).

The Hebrew spelling of the word is Yod, Resh, Aleph. These have to do with the hand, the head and great strength or the number one. The hand and the head speak of physical sensations. Combine that with great strength and you have fear as great physical sensations, or powerful perceptions. Then to say fear not, would mean do not yield or give in to powerful perceptions that come through the senses. Or do not allow sensory perception to be number one in your thinking. Paraphrasing this again, it can mean do not walk in the flesh!

> For they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit the things of the Spirit. For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace. Because the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be. So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God. Romans 8:5-8

So we are not to fear what ever may be happening around us in this world!

Then came the news of the 32 people murdered at Virginia Tech. And that led to the dream.

The Dream

In the dream I somehow found myself in the same type situation as had occurred at Virginia Tech. I was in a group of people who were going to be shot, one at a time. I was struck very forcefully with the realization that there was no way out and this was the end. I was shortly going to die. [I really had other plans.] I recall thinking that there were many things that I was never going to get to do. But these were not so important anymore. So I just composed my self, and prayed to Jesus, Lord, I'm coming to be with you. Then I felt a peace settle in my heart, and everything was ok. There was no fear!

That's all I remember of the dream. [This all came back to my memory about an hour after waking Thursday morning and that's how I am able to share it with you.]

Rev 12:11 given in several translations.

> (ALT) "And they defeated him because of the blood of the Lamb and because of the word of their testimony, and they did not love their life to the point of death.

My Precious and beautiful children, I love each of you so much, with a love that you cannot fathom or understand. I as the Lord your God am so excited to be in relationship with you. I love being in relationship with My children, and I am calling each of you deeper and deeper in Me.

I am calling each of you to a place of deeper listening. A place where you are not being distracted by the things around you, but being completely focused and your eyes set completely upon Me. Many of you are allowing distractions and worries of this world distract you from all that I have for you, and that saddens Me.

My Precious Church, I want you to know My heart in greater ways and you cannot know My heart in greater ways if you are not listening to Me. Many of you are crying out to Me for answers but are not spending the time with Me, to hear the answer.

Many of you are wallowing in your insecurity and unbelief that I do not speak to you. This is not of Me. This does not come from My Kingdom. My Word says that My sheep hear My voice.

My children, the Church is not desperate enough to hear My voice. Are you in a place of wanting fresh Manna everyday from Me, and living on every word that comes from My mouth?

My precious followers, I have great things for each of you, but the basis of everything I have for you is My love, and the relationship you have with Me. Without knowing Me intimately and hearing My voice, nothing stands, nothing stands without the continued perseverance and discipline of listening to Me.

Many of you are listening to voices around you and are being led by those voices. Do not do that. For I am the One and only true voice that will bring each of you victory, authority and freedom.

I am doing a new thing. I am pouring out My Spirit in great ways, but I am waiting for many of you to come into place. Come into the place I have called you to, to sit at My feet. Do not procrastinate any longer.

Die to your flesh, die to this world, and die to your own desires. Sacrifice for Me. Bring your sacrifice of time, and effort to Me, and let me honour this and bring you great blessing.

For I speak to you today My church, that unless you obey and come into the place of surrender and quietness before Me, sitting at My feet, you will not move forward. You will not move into all I have for you. You will miss out if you do not continue to press into Me, and listen to what I am speaking.

My heart is for all of you My children to walk in the fullness of who you are in Me, and to receive all I have for you, but if you continue to procrastinate you will not receive all I have for you, and will not move forward.

Come My church. Examine your hearts, and choose today what your heart desires. Come to Me, sit at My feet regularly and allow Me to speak to you and guide you and lead you. Do not allow past hurts, and fears keep you from My presence.

Let My voice lead you, and My Spirit take you where you need to go, for I will not send out an army of warriors who do not know their Master's voice. So come, let Me continue to train you My children to hear My voice, for soon, I shall blow My trumpet, and My armies will be moving out in greater ways. Come, be part of what you were created for.

Preparing to Take the Land

Briefly reviewing what we have covered earlier in this study, after Paul recited the experiences of Israel in the wilderness, we read: "Now these things happened to them as an example, and they were written for our instruction, upon whom the ends of the ages have come" (I Corinthians 10:11). This makes clear that everything which happened to Israel was a biblical model of what would happen to the congregation of God at the end of the age. The church has indeed closely followed the same pattern. Now, after centuries of wandering in the wilderness, the church is poised to cross the Jordan and begin taking its Promised Land just as Israel did. Israel's successes will be models for ours, and their mistakes can keep us from making similar ones.

After crossing the river, all who had not been circumcised in the wilderness had to have this done before they could go on to possess their inheritance (see Joshua 5). This represents the cutting away of the flesh or carnal nature, which is why we parked there for a time to study the works of the flesh listed in Galatians 5, and how these must likewise be removed from our lives if we are to "inherit the kingdom of God."

In Gilgal, in the valley of Jericho, Israel was humbled and made weak in the sight of her enemies. This is what the church has been going through in many ways. The spiritual circumcision of the church has been exposed to the world, and the church has been made to look weak. Through the failures of some highly visible ministries, and such things as the sex scandals of the Catholic Church, the church may look like a real mess, but it is about to arise as a mighty, conquering army.

Some have wondered if the exposure of these sins was really the Lord's judgment on His household because it came mostly from a very secular news media. One of the basic principles taught in the Old Testament is that the Lord often used the heathen nations around Israel to discipline His people. He has not changed and we can expect Him to still do this. However, just as the Lord would then judge the heathen nations for being presumptuous enough to touch His people, it is a sobering study to see what happens to those who presumptuously touch His people today.

This brings up another good question: Why does the Lord judge the heathen for touching His people when they are in fact doing it for His purposes? First, the Lord uses the circumstances of this world and even the devil to accomplish His purposes. The devil's evil intent to destroy Jesus worked right into the plans of God, but the devil is still going to suffer his judgment, and so will those who have touched His people. The heathen are intent on finding fault with Christians because it helps them feel justified in their own rebellion and sin. The Lord will at times use such people to help bring correction to His people, but He will not leave them unpunished either.

Many Christians became discouraged by the public revelations of misbehavior in the church, especially when it came through leaders of the church. I still often meet people who began to backslide when this happened. However, the mature and discerning were not discouraged by these revelations. This does not mean it was right to rejoice at the exposure and humiliation of brothers or sisters in Christ or the problems that they caused the whole church. But it should be the scariest thing in the world for us if we are sinning and getting away with it. As it is made clear in Hebrews 12, the Lord disciplines His children, and if we are without discipline then we are not His children. Such discipline coming upon the church was evidence of God 's love for us, including those who were publicly exposed, not His rejection.

If we are so hardened in our sin that the Lord has to make it public to get our attention, then we should still be thankful that He loves us enough to not let us keep getting away with it. Even so, after the pain of Gilgal we should have the resolve to never want to go through that again!

".Those who practice such things will not inherit the kingdom of God" (Galatians 5:21), and we want to go on to the conquest of our inheritance, which is His kingdom.

Right after the circumcision, Israel celebrated the Passover and the Feast of Unleavened Bread which is connected to the Passover. They were commanded to celebrate these each year to remind them of the Source of their freedom, the Lamb. After the severe pain of our spiritual circumcision and the cutting away of the carnal nature, we, too, will be prone to be self-centered, focusing on ourselves and our shortcomings, and we will likewise need to quickly turn our attention back to the Lord, "Christ our Passover."

As you may have heard me say or write often, a great return is coming to the cross in Christianity. True Christianity is a life of sacrifice, taking up our crosses daily. However, if we become more focused on our cross than the cross of Christ, we will not only open the door for a demonic religious spirit, but we are set up for ultimate defeat.

When the Lord is cutting away our flesh, we need to focus on that work and let godly sorrow for our sinful ways have its intended result. However, we need to get over it quickly and get our attention off of ourselves and back on to Him. The very deliverance from our sinful ways does not just come from seeing our own evil ways; we must then behold His glory and be changed into His image from glory to glory (see II Corinthians 3:18).

Once we have truly beheld the glory of the Lord, all human glory will seem insignificant. Our works and accomplishments will always be pale in the light of what He did. When we have truly beheld the cross of Christ, we will not be prone to glory in our own sacrifices, but we will see any sacrifice required of us as small and a great honor to do for His name's sake.

Many of the self-improvement teachings and movements in the church have accomplished good things for people, helping some become more fruitful in their lives. Ministries that are devoted to inner healing have also helped some. However, the way some of these teachings are promoted and practiced are not really healing anyone, but rather leading Christians to a black hole of self-centeredness from which few ever escape. Just because something claims to be Christ-centered does not mean it is.

I recently asked a surgeon his opinion on how much modern medical science really understood the human body. His response was that the greatest experts in their fields have about a 35 percent understanding at best. We can thank the Lord we now understand even this much and for how much modern medicine helps people, but we also need to know its present limitations, and they are considerable. We would be very foolish to allow an amateur to just go digging around in our bodies trying to fix things.

In relation to how our minds work, even a smaller percentage than this is understood by the greatest professionals. It also seems that the mind of man is even more fragile and easily damaged than the body. Yet, there are movements and teachers which seek to release multitudes of amateur counselors on the body of Christ to do surgery on the minds and souls of Christians. They often do this by digging around in a person's soul like an amateur surgeon trying to fix things he only has a tiny understanding of. The result of this has been a catastrophe for many, damaging them far worse than they were to begin with.

This does not mean we do not need counseling, as this should be a special domain of the church and fundamental to a true pastoral ministry. In my thirty-five years as a Christian, I have yet to meet someone who I felt was truly helped by amateur counselors or "inner healing." I have met many who felt they did seem to do better for a short term, but then seemed inevitably to regress into an even worse state of self-centeredness and constantly trying to fix themselves.

However, I do believe in inner healing, and I have witnessed many strongholds broken by prophetic revelation, but I have never seen the real thing take more than a couple of hours at best. People can get addicted to counseling very fast because it assuages their self-centeredness. It is foolishness to try to resurrect the "old man" and get him healed. The old self must be crucified and buried, and we must move on. Trying to heal the old man is like punching the tar baby. Our spiritual circumcision is essential; the carnal nature must be cut away, but then we need to get healed fast by turning back to the Lord and His cross and moving forward to possess our promises.

We must learn to guard ourselves against any teaching or ministry that has us more focused on our own selves than on Christ. Many of these teachings which can be a major distraction do have a lot of truth in them, and I have never met anyone promoting them that was not genuinely interested in trying to help people. However, we need to seriously examine the fruit of even the most professional counseling ministries and even more so the amateur ones. They can be devastating in distracting believers from the true path of life-the knowledge of the Lord Himself.

Most of us still have a few hundred things wrong with us. It is the devil's strategy to get us focused on all of them at once, spreading ourselves so thin that we are wearied and easily defeated. This is one part of the devil' s strategy for "wearing out the saints." It is a web that few can ever get free from once they become entangled in such "self improvement." We do not need self-improvement-we need to be transformed by the Holy Spirit. We cannot fix ourselves, but we must rely on the Holy Spirit to do this. The way He almost always works is to focus on one or maybe two things at a time. When we get a victory in just one thing, it tends to spill over into victory in all of the other areas as well.

Our victory over our flesh will not come from taking up our own crosses. We are commanded to take up our crosses for the purpose of laying down our lives for the sake of others, not ourselves. The deliverance we will receive from our sins will only come from the cross of Jesus. He is the One we must look to for our atonement and our deliverance from sin. The path to true deliverance does not come by focusing on what is wrong with us, but on the glory of the Lord that will transform us. We must see what is wrong with us so we will have the godly sorrow for sin that is the evidence of true repentance. But then we must turn our attention to the only remedy for sin, the cross of Christ, and the only deliverance from sin, which is to behold His glory and be changed by it.

After doing the study on the works of the flesh, I have had many tell me how convicted they have been, just as I also was by writing about them. Conviction is a work of the Holy Spirit and is evidence that He is working in us. However, for conviction to have its proper results, we must go on to provision. This is what we are going to study next.

When Israel crossed the Jordan, immediately the manna stopped and they started living off of the fruit of the land. We will therefore take a bit of time to also study the fruit of the Spirit. In many ways, the resurrection of Jesus Christ is the firstfruits of the Promised Land, and walking in His resurrection power is evidenced not just by the power gifts of the Spirit, but also by the fruit of the Spirit in our lives.

Pray For Discernment In Times Of Darkness

Sherie Trahan

November 16, 2005

For the Lord your God would say unto you, the days are where darkness is all around, lawlessness abounds, and people’s hearts have grown cold. But My eye is on My bride. My love never changes toward My Church. I say that if you dwell in My presence you shall not know the darkness, for in Me there is no darkness.

Pray, I say pray for discernment for the truth. There will be those that will rise up in these days that will claim to be my prophets and speak their own visions and say they are of Me. They will say they have the answers for the darkness and how to bring about the light and save the world. They will be very cunning and convincing. This is very serious. I say to you now, they are NOT of Me. Pray to know the truth that will set you free and not hold you in bondage. Pray to know the prophets that I send to speak My word. Satan is a clever and a worthy opponent, but he has been stripped of all his power at Calvary’s Cross. No weapon formed against you shall prosper and all those that rise up against you shall fall unto those who believe. Only believe, do not be shaken or motivated by fancy words that sound good and brings a feeling of relief.

There are those that are called as intercessors, pray to travail. Pray to learn to intercede, to learn to worship, to learn to praise Me. For in this is safety in these times. This is where Satan cannot touch you. In My presence is safety, rest and peace that the world cannot know. This is reserved for My beloved. My beloved that obey My words and commands. This is where you will learn to battle and the time is now to know how.

Satan has come against some of you in many ways. Pray, again I say pray and seek My face. Learn of Me and My ways. Abandon your own understanding and lean unto Me and I will show you the power of My love and the price My son paid for such a time as this.

Times will surely become darker, but in Me there is no darkness for I am the true light that shineth forth as the noon day. Pray for the light in your hearts that will strengthen you in your weaknesses, grace to empower you to clearly know the schemes of Satan and to turn from all forms of ungodliness. I tell you now, he is defeated and I know his ways. You must press into Me and focus on Calvary. Lay aside everything that besets you. I will help you and show you how. Trust in Me alone and none other, for now is the time.

Pray for healing among my people in their body, soul, and spirit. Satan has wounded my people from long past and is keeping them from going forward. There are broken hearts, unforgiveness, bitterness and resentment. Let go, confess them before Me and know that old things are past away and all things have become new to those who believe. Don’t look back and run forward for today is today.

Do not be deceived, pray that complacency and lethargy evaporate. For these shall not see the light and know the joy of suffering through endurance. Some have laughed and turned their heads from my people that are suffering and are among you. You will need My wisdom, you will need My understanding. Let go of yours and I will pour My Spirit upon you and you shall see revival, you shall see miracles, you shall experience freedom as you’ve never known, and you shall see lives change. Abandon yourself into Me this very day, and I will show you great and mighty things that your heart desires and you will be My bride and I will be your God.

I am among you even now. I know and I see all things. Nothing is hidden from me and I surely know your needs and am so able and Willing to bring you unto Myself that you may experience the true love of a Father that knows how to care for his children. You have not known this in it’s purity, but it is My heart’s desire to show you. Won’t you let Me show you the hidden treasures of My heart and My kingdom. There is more, oh so much more than you can conceive. Come unto Me today with abandoned trust and just as you are. I will wash you and be the one to clean you up that you may be My glorious bride this day.

The Lord has spoken, hear My voice and don’t turn from it. For I bring you life today.

Predestined For Good Things

Predestined for Good Things - Gifts, Intimacy & Destiny

21 July 2005 We, the believers of Jesus Christ, His church, are becoming the 'bride' to this groom.

In the past, we have been married to other wineskins, to other expressions of what we believed was 'His plan and purpose and therefore His kingdom' but what we really sought and what we were really building was 'our own house' .

It is the Lord alone 'who builds the house'. And He is building now. (Psalm 127:1) He is making us face issues we have avoided; He is touching & moving our face to engage His; He is challenging us to seek the 'gifts' but to align them with 'Christlikeness'. There will be those in the church who will find wearing the bridal gear very difficult, if they rely alone on their gifts. They need to allow the Holy Spirit to engage their characters and transform them totally into Christ's ways and Christ's words and Christ's thinking to flow into the house where He is Lord.

The vision is of a home, furnished by the Lord. This room is full of 'gifts' - the 'gifts' room - many different sizes and colours, and all individually packaged. It is a room where the believer can come and receive his gift especially packaged and dressed for him. As he undoes his special gift, he is delighted and engages his heart to his Jesus - this has been burning in his heart for a long time. It is part of who he is and has always been - predestined for this gifting. But there is more.

He ventures down the hallway to yet another room, and the door is opened to him. Here is a place of testing and trail. The 'truth' room'. Uncomfortable and unattractive initially, the believer knows inwardly that this room is engaging him to enter in. He does so at his own choice, and here he experiences much truth. The key to his freedom is in this room, a place where the years of woundedness and pain are being undone. His very soul, deep in pain is exposed and he weeps. But from the intensity of this truth, he is healed. He leaves, somewhat amazed but healed and ready for the next encounter in the house.

Into the hallway again with his gift secured and his soul deeply healed, he moves on to the next room. It is rather small and only allows room for one person at a time. He moves into place and is overwhelmed by the presence of the Lord. The tears flow, but not through pain now but in deep friendship and fellowship. He experiences being His 'friend', the glorious One who has wooed him into this room - the 'intimacy' room. He spends much time here, sharing his heart with His God, listening and waiting and speaking to Him.

Reluctantly he moves out of the room, as this place has met much need in him, but he is called to come out to engage the Lord at yet another place. Another door opens to him, and he enters in. There are plans here laid out on the floor, with maps, directions and warnings. He recognises some people he has already met, and looks upon the faces of those yet to come into his life. It is the place he will move to, taking with him some of the engagements and relationships of the past, but pursuing in a different way, the believer discovers what his heart has been yearning for - the 'destiny' room.

There are more rooms in the house, more places to find with Him but the name of the house sits above the mantle as the believer steps in - 'Predestined Destiny - a Place for My Bride'.

And the key to this house is 'truth'. Only 'truth' in revelation will unlock this journey.

Pray For My Church!

Linda Patterson

June 1, 2005

I was awakened at 2:00 a.m. and deep within my spirit I heard the Lord crying out….

Pray for My church! Pray for My church! Deception is rampant within My church. My people run around saying, God told me this and God told me that when in reality I have not spoken. Truly, there is a famine of hearing My voice, of knowing My heart.
Satan has set a trap to lead My own astray. This trap is baited with supposed treasures of this world. Glitz and glamour are a mere mirage, an apparition - false glory.

My holy apostles and prophets are scorned and laughed at when they speak My truths. But I tell you that I will not be mocked. Sow deception, lies and fallacies of the heart and reap a harvest of despair and heart ache. Let righteousness prevail! Don’t think for a moment that I wink at your fables and “white” lies. Come unto Me all you are weary and heavy laden and I will give you true rest and peace of mind. Repent of your foolish pride of trying to impress others with a “thus saith the Lord” I am calling for a pure church, a holy church, a church that would fear Me and walk the narrow pathway of love, truth and grace.

The hour is late! Hear the voice of your bridegroom calling. Be still before Me. Let earthly passions die and allow Me to arise afresh within you as a pure spring, a fountain that is crystal clear. My words are truth and life and lead the way into life everlasting.

Matthew 7:13
Enter by the narrow gate; for wide is the gate and broad is the way that leads to destruction, and there are many who go in by it. Because narrow is the gate and difficult is the way which leads to life, and there are few who find it.

Psalm 46:10
Be still and know that I am God; I will be exalted amount the nations, I will be exalted in the earth.

A Leap of Faith

Doug Patterson

June 1, 2005

This is the time to catch the wind and take a leap of faith into My provision.
New heights await you as the call to move forward has echoed from My Throne Room. This season is one of watching and waiting for the glorious presence and power of your God to cover the earth.
As you fly in the spirit a new perspective of vision will be seen, leading to a deeper revelation of My plans and purposes. Arise with renewed faith and be active for the King, for a sudden wind of My Spirit is fast approaching.

Hebrews 11:1
Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.

Praying for Our Judges

Alice Patterson

Justice at the Gate

The month of March began with the murder of Judge Joan Letkow's husband and mother in Chicago and continued less than two weeks later with the triple slaying of Superior Court Judge Rowland Barnes, his court reporter, and a sergeant from Fulton County Sheriff's Department in Atlanta. The onslaught has gone from covertly chipping away at our freedoms through little-known judicial decisions to the IN YOUR FACE rage of the enemy against justice and righteousness.

Psalm 11:3 "If the foundations are destroyed, what can the righteous do?" (NKJV)

Psalm 89:14 "Righteousness and justice are the foundation of Your throne. Mercy and truth go before Your face." (NKJV)

During the last presidential election the nation focused on judicial appointments to the courts. For many years the foundation of faith in God, religious freedom, and protection of the innocent has been quietly and secretly eroding by decisions made by judges.

The Lord called this nation to pray for judges through Cindy Jacobs, Chuck Pierce, Lou Engle, Dutch Sheets, and others. Many of you heard the call and have prayed for individual judges and for those leading the battle in the courts such as Allan Parker, Kelly Shackelford, David Barton, and Jay Sekulow.

NOW the enemy himself is overtly assaulting the courts. Isaiah 28:5-6 promises that the Lord will be a "spirit of justice for those who sit in judgment" and a "strength to those who repel the onslaught at the gate." Will you answer the call to turn back the battle at the gate of our judicial system?

Prayer Focus For Our Judges

Now is the time to:

- Stand in the Lord's strength and war in His armor with the Word of God for those in seats of justice and for the foundation of our judicial system. Ephesians 6:10-18
- Lift up the shield of faith around our judges, their families, and our courthouses. Ephesians 6:16
- Release power, love, and a sound mind to defend the judges from the spirit of fear and intimidation that has risen against them. II Timothy 2:7 Declare that those now in place and those in line for appointments will courageously stand their ground and will not vacate their place.

- Declare that judges in authority over us will "lead a quiet and peaceful life in all godliness and reverence." I Timothy 2:2
- Be sure that every judge in your city is covered. Pray for them by name in your corporate gatherings from your own congregation to citywide intercession. Build a hedge of prayer around them.
- Write your judge a note and tell him or her that you are praying for him, his family, and his staff. Encourage and appreciate your judge with a card, a call, or a visit to his courtroom to pray quietly in the back of the room.
- Declare that the covenant with death will be annulled. Isaiah 28:17b
- Pray for the families of those slain: Judge Barnes' wife Claudia, two daughters, and four step-children; court reporter Julie Brandau's 18-year-old daughter; and Sgt. Hoyt Teasley's two children.
- Pray for critically wounded Deputy Cynthia Hall.
- Now is the time to take up the mantle of leadership and see that every judge in your city and state is covered with intercession. It's not necessary to align with Justice at the Gate. You may use our materials or not -- communicate with us or not. Just pray and take the initiative to stand in the gap and build up a wall around every judge.

Isaiah 59:14-16a "Justice is turned back, and righteousness stands afar off for truth is fallen in the street and equity cannot enter. So truth falls, and he who departs from evil makes himself a prey. Then the Lord saw it and it displeased Him that there was no justice. He saw that there was no man and wondered that there was no intercessor . . . " (NKJV)

Prepare For The Move Of God

Donna Barnwell

The Signpost Ministries, Moravian Falls
(thesignpost@wilkes.net)

The greatest move of God on humankind is about to begin. It is nearing you even now. The timing has been accelerating for the past several years.

Each move of God is like a wind that blows through the trees. It rustles the leaves just a little at first, and then it picks up velocity. (2 Samuel 5:23-25) Healing flows with the wind. Here and there at first, and then a sudden burst of power. That sudden burst is about to break forth over My people.

They will see a great need and their hearts will be moved with compassion. (John 6) But, nothing will heal or restore without Me. Therefore, be ready. Be ready to move when I say move, be ready to hear when I speak, be ready to do what I say do.

Prepare now, My people, for the coming onslaught. Learn to seek My face like never before. Sit before Me and allow Me to give you supernatural power. That power comes with healing it its wings, it comes with restoration, it comes with deliverance, renewal, grace. Learn all you can at My feet now, My people, so you are prepared.

The multitudes are out there. They need to be fed. They need to be shletered. They need to be healed, housed, raised up. It is more than one person can do alone. You must work together. You must each see the need. You must each seek the remedy and your part in it, but the only true answer is to work in unity.

You must hear Me for your own part and believe that when I call, I equip. Then you will function like a tightly fit organism, one that has been trained to function, designed by My hand. Know your place in My Body. Without you in proper position there will be gaps and where there are gaps there will be lack.

You were not designed to fill gaps only. You were designed to be a functioning, valuable gift to others. Someone else will not have the expertise that you can bring to the table. I challenge you all to come forward now, that you might be outfitted properly. Without you the Body lacks, without proper training, you lack. Come. Come now, it is imperative, My people. Seek My face and I will give you all you need.

John 6 says that Jesus was moved with compassion and that sparked the miracle of the fishes and the loaves.

2 Samuel 5 relates the story of David and mulberry trees. "David inquired of the Lord." He got the method of when and how to fight the Philistines directly from God.

Acts 11:11-29 The disciples in Antioch were told that there was to be famine in Jerusalem and they "each according to his ability, determined to send relief to the brethren..."

Preparing For War

Ephraim Frank

Shalom Fellow Israelite, Aug 19, 2005

I'm sure most of you have been watching the media reports on the so-called disengagement. But probably what you are not hearing about are the Fourth of July style celebrations that are being held in the Palestinian towns. In Kalkilya, a large city next to us here in Samaria, they were shooting off red and green colored fireworks for hours (as you know these are two of the colors of their flag). Interviews with Arab leaders about this disengagement have been as expected; they are seeing this as only a very small step in the total evacuation of all settlements. The negotiations and agreements that Bush and Sharon are instigating are an anathema to the Palestinians. They are actually seeing this unilateral withdrawal as a slap in their faces, as it reinforces in their eyes Israel's and the United States' "big bully" policies. Their natural inclination therefore will be to pursue armed resistance and aggression, using whatever means that is effective and we know what that means. They have been educating every generation to view Israel and the Jews as their number one enemy and the main reason for their oppressive living conditions. Thus, in order to live as a free people they must at all cost get rid of the occupier and oppressor.

Shimon Peres ranks chief among other politicians who believe that there is a political solution to this deep-rooted hatred. Peres made a declaration that we must give the Palestinians their land and their state. However, the Palestinians do not want us "to give" them anything. Their pride will not allow such an option. Their intellectuals talk about the future economic success of the Palestinian state, but they pin such a success, or lack of it, upon Israel. That is only to say that there is a prospective scapegoat and an excuse for future failures, "proving" to the nations that this region of the world cannot tolerate such an arrogant and self- righteous people which continues to oppress the underdog, keeping it from attaining achievements.

What about Israel? Does it stand to gain economically by the pullout? Is the sudden up swing in the Tel Aviv stock market in the last few days a reward of some kind? Mmmmm..

However, we, of the redeemed communities of Ephraim, must begin to discern things on the spiritual level and see what is truly behind today's history lesson. Islam is a religious spirit and is an expression of the Principality of Persia. In the Book of Daniel it was one of the two that resisted Michael when it came time for the return of the Jews to Jerusalem. A few years ago, shortly before the Intifada broke out, I mentioned a dream that I had then.

Excerpt below is from Letter 76 of Aug 2000:

"It actually occurred three times during that night. I saw what looked like a bridge on which two armies were fighting in hand-to-hand combat. It seemed that the fighting might have been going on for a while, as the combatants were standing and fighting on stacks of dead comrades. I could not make out who was who, because it was taking place in the early morning hours, or in late evening. Each time I awoke I heard the words, "battle of the firstborn". During the following week I was taken ill with a virus. For several nights I dreamt of pending troubles. Each of those dreams was characterized by huge thunderstorms; at times three were going on simultaneously at different points on the horizon. I could only see them at a distance, as none of them were close to me.

Most of you who know us are aware of what we have been saying for years, and that is that we are headed for what we used to call the "battle with the surrounding nations" (Joel 3). This, of course, is not something new and unusual for the House of Judah, as they have been battling for their national survival with these surrounding nations for the past 100 years.

What made this dream about this bridge and the armies warring on it different?

The bridge stands for the two portions that constitute the "West Bank", Judea and Samaria. These are the lands of the two leading tribes of the house of Jacob - Ephraim and Judah. Both have firstborn status in the family. However, the battle I saw was not between the two of them, but between the Arabs (surrounding nations) and Judah.

Who are the Arabs and more specifically the Palestinians? I believe they are made up of firstborn people groups, as listed in Psalm 83: Esau, Amalek, Ishmael, Moab and Amman. They are fighting Judah on this land bridge called Judea and Samaria. Why in this particular location? Because these are the mountains of Israel (see Ezekiel 36). The winner who will gain this as an inheritance, along with Jerusalem, will also have the dominion in the earth. This is the battle of the firstborn, it is the same battle that raged in the womb of Rebecca. My question to Ephraim is: will he join Judah as YHVH's mighty man for this hour, or will he turn back as he did in the days of old? "The sons of Ephraim were archers equipped with bows, yet they turned back in the day of battle, they did not keep the covenant of God and refused to walk in His Torah" (Psalm 78:9-10).

We believe the Ephraimites have been called out of darkness into YHVH's marvelous light for such a time as this, as a witness/ensign that is to be seen. We know that YHVH always works with a remnant. Judah is looking for his brothers, the lost tribes; will they find a true son of the covenant returning from the nations with an obedient heart toward Torah, an arrow straight and true, prepared for the bow? Ephraim and Judah are destined to be a mighty weapon in His hand, walking together in the land of their fathers as an army, with the Lord of the Armies at their head.

Reality is about to dawn and we need the watchmen on the Hills of Ephraim to be alert and ready. The cost to redeem this land may be a heavy one. Ephraim, you have been given the blessing of the double portion, the means to redeem that which has been lost. As a firstborn you do not belong to yourself, you belong to YHVH!" (end of letter 76).

Obviously we are much closer to this great battle today than we were 5 years ago. But according to Ezekiel 35 and 36 the enemy must say, "Ah ah, this land, [specifically the mountains of Israel - Judea and Samaria] belong to us." Watch as this unfolds. I know that it is extremely difficult to see the settlements being dismantled, but it must come to pass while the Palestinians in the refugee camps, especially in Lebanon, are waiting with their armaments to return to these evacuated areas. The end result will be their destruction along with all the others mentioned above that are listed in the prophecies.

Prophetic Alarms And Promises

fathersheartinternational@yahoo.com Oct 24, 2005

I hear the Spirit of the Lord saying: "There shall come a great outpouring of my Spirit upon the church especially in cities that have been plagued and bombarded by disasters. Do not lose hope and let go of the promise, but contend for what I have put into your heart.

Many of you have become traumatized by the assaults of the enemy. It is time to refocus and to prepare because I have positioned you as ready responders in this hour. I am the God who restores, and I shall cause my dreams to come to pass in the days which are ahead."

"Difficult days shall precede a new move and outpouring of the Holy Spirit. Be ready in season and out of season. The church has to get ready to mobilize for calamity and terror is about to strike this nation.

Do not be slothful or complacent. Even the things that have been reported as hoaxes were actually my hand of protection upon this nation. The enemy has been testing the responses and reactions of this nation. There are many who have tried to underplay the threat so as not to alarm the people, however today I am sounding the alarm.

Be watchful and pray. Come into formation and take your positions for the church shall become the defense force of the nation. Your spiritual weaponry shall disarm the enemy if you will come into alignment says the Lord."

"Even as the word has gone out in the past, you must secure your borders and give your ear to the Spirit of God. These are perilous days, and my people must be prepared and ready to respond.

The enemy has plotted three major attacks in major cities across the U.S. that will shake the nation, but it will not go as the enemy has planned if the church will arise and come to front lines in the defense of the nation in prayer and intercession.

Casualties and destruction can be limited if the church will pray. Plans and schemes will be exposed in advance and thwarted if my people will heed my voice and pray."

"After these days of trial pass there shall come an unprecedented outpouring of my Spirit and a revival in my church that shall shake the nation and the nations. The next four years are already marked as times of revival and reformation for my church" says the Spirit of the Lord.

Joel 2:28-32
28'And afterward, I will pour out my Spirit on all people. Your sons and daughters will prophesy, your old men will dream dreams, your young men will see visions. 29 Even on my servants, both men and women, I will pour out my Spirit in those days. 30 I will show wonders in the heavens and on the earth, blood and fire and billows of smoke. 31 The sun will be turned to darkness and the moon to blood before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD. 32 And everyone who calls on the name of the LORD will be saved; for on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem there will be deliverance, as the LORD has said, among the survivors whom the LORD calls.

Priests and Censers Kings and Scepters

David Weber

All of us are probably very familiar with the prayer, "Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven" and yet, most of us haven't much of a clue as to how God plans to do just that. Many of us pray that prayer all the time, but very few actually have a vision for it!

Well beloved, the Father wants us to have a VISION for this! He wants us to know not only His will in this, but He also wants us to know the WAY in which He is going to do it. "What way is that?" you say.

That way beloved is ... The Melchizedek Priesthood.

Many of you probably know from reading the Scriptures that believers in the Lord Jesus are called to be a "Royal Priesthood"... kings and priests unto God. But what exactly does that mean? What exactly do king/priests do? Many can see that Jesus was the Pattern for these king/priests, and some can even see that David was a type of them, when as a king, he offered up a sacrifice that was only lawful for a priest to offer. But again, what do king/priests after the order of Melchizedek actually do, and what does that have to do with the Kingdom of God coming to earth as it is in heaven?

Well friends, to try to keep this as short and simple as possible, I'll put it this way:

Priests use "censers" and kings wield "scepters." In other words, priests primarily offer up prayers and supplications to God, and kings, by their God given authority, decree God's will in the earth.

What that means folks is that the priesthood ministry is one of drawing close to the Father through worship, priestly intercession, and prayer, and in so doing one can discern the heart and mind of God. In doing that, one can then, by means of kingly decree, speak forth the will of the Father into a situation in the earth as a prophetic proclamation, and by doing that ... heaven comes to earth!

Please understand that these king/priest ministries are not independent of one another, in that the kingship ministry does not operate apart from priestly intercession. Loved ones, this is why we are called to be kings AND priests unto God and not kings OR priests. We must be able to discern heaven's will before we can decree that will through holy prophetic proclamation, but when the two come together ... BAM!!! The Kingdom of God is made manifest on earth as it is in heaven!!! Oh glory.

I hear many folks today talking about "ruling and reigning with Christ now," or "ruling with Christ in the coming age," but I tell you now beloved, there is no "reigning now" nor will there be any "reigning" for you even in the age to come if you are not in a relationship with the Father whereby you can see Him, and hear Him, and discern His ways. God will have a people through whom He can speak forth His very Word into the earth by manner of kingly decree, and in that way He will see His will performed through that Word, but the people who will be able to speak that Word must be priestly intercessors who can see into heavenly places and discern the perfect will of the Father first.

Beloved, Jesus said in the gospels, "I of mine own self can do nothing. I only do that which I see my Father in heaven do, and I only speak forth that which He speaks through me."

Those are the words of a King/Priest folks!

Have you ever noticed that Jesus didn't pray for the sick? No, He didn't. As far as I know, He never entreated the Father to heal anyone, but rather, His prayers were short decrees of things that He already knew to be the Father's will. In other words, Jesus proclaimed that which He knew was already done in heaven, and therefore He brought heaven to earth by manner of Kingly decree. To a crippled man Jesus would say, "Arise and walk" or "Be healed." To a blind man Jesus would just say, "See," or to a deaf mute He would say "Be opened!" Even to a dead man Jesus just said, "Come forth!"

Think about that a little bit.

Beloved, God has a plan to see His Kingdom come on earth as it is in heaven ... that we know, but did you ever realize before that YOU are the way through whom He desires to bring that Kingdom to the earth? You're it folks! There is no other plan!

Just think about that for a little while...

Pressures and Demands
Susan Cummings

Do not allow the pressures and the demands of people, and events draw you from Me. But guard yourself and take care how you walk, for it is late and the path only narrows from here. There is no room for maneuvering or turning, but you must remain straight forwards and not looking around to see those things that vie for your attention. Leave the distractions to Me, and press on.

Pressure is only pressure if you take your eyes off of Me and begin to labor in your minds and hearts. I have a place of rest for you to abide in, as you walk with Me. You no longer have to strive, but you must remain yoked with Me. The cares of this life, the world, and the flesh will only draw you further away from me if you do not take a course adjustment, and make the necessary adjustments now.

Listen to My Voice and make nothing else your source as the world does. For the answers that you seek are IN Me. I know what I am doing, and where we are going. Walk on in confidence In Me, and make no provision for the flesh or your mind. But yield fully to Me and allow Me to bring you into the full position. It comes through yielded ness. It comes through being teachable and pliable to Me.

The demands grow as you listen to the other voices, and not Mine. I speak to you and teach you the way to walk in. I will not bring you by another way, but I AM the Way. Follow Me and take My Hand. Care not for the things of this world, as they are passing away. Trust fully In Me, and not in your understanding, for not all that you see is temporal and failing. I AM your sustenance and foundation. It is time that you trust Me to bring you through.

Take no thought for the days ahead. Place your full care and heart into My Hands and watch as I bring forth your place and take you further as you stand with Me. Fear will paralyze many. Fear brings forth much pressure, doubt, and it will isolate you and separate you from Me. Fear not. Move from where you are, and come to Me. I will surely guide you into all Truth and show you Myself.

Give Me your heart, and wait upon Me. I have much to show you, and for you to do. It will cost you everything to follow Me and to remain by My side, but I Am with you. I Am in you. Stand firmly now, and remain focused, and glean from MY fields, as I lead you through.

Rise Up From Your Place Of Rest And Trust In Me
Susan Cummings

Rise up from your place of rest and trust in Me. It is time for you to begin to act on what I have told you that I would do. Just because you don’t see it happening, doesn’t negate My Word to you. I am waiting upon you to move. When you exercise your faith and trust in Me, and do what I told you to do, then I will move.

It is time for you to move on. You have rested here long enough. You must go and be My Vessel or I will find another who will. I will not always strive with you, nor wait for you to obey, but I will only ask you to choose. Things are moving forward by My command and if you don’t move, you will find yourself behind and left alone without My Hand to guide you, for I am moving forth. Break up your camp and follow Me.

Today is the day of moving forth. There will be no other, in My Timing for you, for it is now that I am breaking the way for My People to enter in and move out. It is now that the doors are open, and the paths made ready. It is now that Mine will rise up.

It is the Day of Visitation. I am inhabiting My People, and then I am coming forth out of them. I am no longer waiting, but am moving now. I will dwell in My earthen vessels who have made themselves ready, and who long to be released.

This is the Hour of Release.
What will you do, in the Day of Visitation?

Gaining A Heavenly Perspective
Susan Cummings

Child, you gain a heavenly perspective when you stand in My place and see what I see. You cannot expect to see from where you are, unless you come higher. You must choose from which place you will stand, and from who's perspective that you will walk in.

There is nothing that can stop you from entering in, but yourself. I have made all provision for you, and the way is set before you. But you must walk forth into it. It is your choice whether you obtain a word for My People from My side or from your position where you stand from now.

The greater Truths are hidden in Me. I reveal them to those who earnestly seek Me, and come to Me. I will give nothing to those who care not for My Word or who care not for those who are bound in darkness. My Word is Truth, and Light, and will be given to those who treasure it as precious and as Holy. Reach forth, child, and obtain the better promise.

Take nothing that does not come from My Hands unto you. Do not feed where I haven't told you to, and listen to My Voice, and you will know the way to walk in the days ahead. Quiet yourself and get before Me.

Those who stand in My Counsel will be clearly apparent in the days ahead from those who do not. For My Counsel will preserve those who embrace it and trust in Me. I have a plan and it will be given forth, but those who refuse Me will have none. For I will not be mocked and will not allow My Word to be trampled by those who do not love it.

Come up here, child, and stand with Me. It is time to obtain My Word and to see what I will now do in the earth. It is time to begin to go forth, and prepare Mine, who await your coming. For Mine will know what I will do, and they will stand as one man, and will burn with My Light, as I now move in greater ways in the earth.

For My Word will be seen.

The Shaking And Breaking Forth
Susan Cummings

The Shaking and the breaking forth have accelerated and have begun to ascend to the surface. What I have done in secret has now begun to be revealed and will now be realized as I come forth all around you now. I have laid the foundation and have arranged all the pieces, and am now completing the works, and you will see them and do them.

What you have labored over has now given birth, and that birthing has now been given over to function and operation. No longer will you be given over to every wind of doctrine and every voice that speaks, but you will be firmly established in Me. For you have completed the training and have come to the time of release but not only that, as I have shown you, but of the operation of the greater works. It is time to begin to expect My Operations as I speak to you, and tell you to do certain things.

Things will now accelerate and become as I have shown you. It is time for My Word to be completed and to be established as I have decreed. For all things will be brought forth and completed. Even concerning you. For I have caused you to stand in this hour and to see My moving within the Body. I have called you to be one of My Jewels that I will shine through. I have called you to be one of My Vessels that I will live through. It is time for the full release and outflow of My Spirit amongst My Own.

This will also usher in the full release throughout the natural earth as well. For the foundations will break forth, and the fountains of the deep will give birth, and the heavens will pour out, and the creation will break forth at the birthing and the acceleration. All things will be fulfilled in this set course, as you stand faithfully in Me.

The Hour has come that I will be glorified in My people and in the earth.

Passover And National Unity

Ephraim Frank

April 22, 2005

For those of you who are celebrating Passover with our brother, the People of Judah, I would like to share again the following letter. I think it quite significant that it was at this time that YHVH declared Israel to be His firstborn nation; the only nation that would ever have this status before Him. Actually very little mention is made of the importance of the death of Egypt's firstborn and the fact that YHVH established Israel as His. Israel's birth as a nation came as a result of the death of a lamb and its blood having been smeared on a doorpost of the homes, but also at the expense of another nation losing its firstborn sons. I hope this year we will consider the importance of our unity as YHVH's firstborn nation and what it means to be called an "Israelite".

It was over 3,800 years ago when the Elohim of Jacob sent His family down into Egypt to make them into a single nation. Speaking to His servant Jacob, He said: "I am YHVH, the Elohim of your father; do not fear to go down to Egypt, for I will make of you a great nation [goy] there'" (Genesis 46:3). One of the Hebrew words for "nation" is "goy". It is first used in the Tanach in the Covenant that YHVH made with our forefather Abraham, "I will make you a great nation [goy]; I will bless you, and make your name great; and you shall be a blessing" (Genesis 12:2). One man, one God, one Covenant, one national identity; this was at the heart of YHVH's plan for the redemption of the creation. The Elohim of Abraham set apart a man, and swore by His own name that his seed/sperm would become a great and holy (set-apart) nation.

When Jacob and his band of seventy souls arrived in Egypt, he found another family member already down there - Joseph. As we can see from the story recorded in Genesis, Joseph and his progeny had lost their identity and connection with their family of origin, and thus in a sense were a prophetic type of the second family (the so called Gentiles, the company of nations) of the house of Jacob. Perhaps this is why Jacob had to adopt Joseph's sons (ref. Gen 48:5), even though they were of the same bloodline. The adoption was significant for the restoration of the governmental order and unity of the clan. If they were to become a nation, they had to have their own land, and so since Joseph was in a position to do so, he gave them the land of Goshen, where they multiplied profusely. The Creator blessed them with fruitfulness, as they dwelt in one of the most fertile areas of the land of Ham.

However, eventually Jacob's family became slaves to their Egyptian overlords. And while in that state, they lost their vision of being a nation, a family and a people with a purpose and a Divine call. This is portrayed quite vividly in the scene of the two Hebrew slaves who (much like today's 'two houses') were fighting one another much to their own demise. The seed of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob was now characterized by individualism. This was only natural, since they were living under extreme conditions where self-preservation became their means of survival. So where was this great nation that was promised to Abraham? His seed, now turned slaves, were cursing the day they were born on. They had become nothing more than dead dry bones in the desert sands of Egypt. So helpless were they that they could not even respond to Moses, when he came to them preaching the good news of their deliverance (ref. Exodus 6:9)!

The Passover story is replete with pestilence, famine and one disaster following another. But when gross darkness covered the land, there was still light in the tents of the Hebrews (ref. Ex.10:23), as the anointing of YHVH's covenant word (which "is a light", ref. Ps. 119:105) was still upon them to become a great nation. How was this going to be made possible? It certainly was not going to happen by the nation's own strength. This was going to take a miracle, a Divine intervention. YHVH, therefore, dispatched a man with a message: "Let My people go". Moses was faithful to bring that word to the ruler of the slaves, but YHVH hardened the heart of Pharaoh, just to make sure that His people would know that their deliverance was not going to come by the way or the authority of man. Had Pharaoh given his permission, these Hebrews would have been forever indebted to their slave owner. They would have never been free and could never have taken up their divinely ordained position as the head of all the nations. In this manner, they would have been legally bound to Egypt and to Egypt's firstborn.

YHVH had another plan to restore these slaves to freedom and to their national identity. He told His servant Moses to have each family take a lamb: "Speak to all the congregation of Israel, saying: `On the tenth day of this month every man shall take for himself a lamb, according to the house of his father, a lamb for a household. And if the household is too small for the lamb, let him and his neighbor next to his house take it according to the number of the persons; according to each man's need you shall make your count for the lamb. Your lamb shall be without blemish, a male of the first year. You may take it from the sheep or from the goats…. Pick out and take lambs for yourselves according to your families, and kill the Passover lamb….then you shall take a bunch of hyssop, dip it in the blood that is in the basin, and strike the lintel and the two doorposts with the blood that is in the basin. And none of you shall go out of the door of his house until morning…. Now the blood shall be a sign for you on the houses where you are. And when I see the blood, I will pass over you; and the plague shall not be on you to destroy you when I strike the land of Egypt " (Exodus 12:3-5; 21-22; 13).

The moment the elders applied the blood and struck the lintels and the doorposts of the Hebrews' homes with it, the latter were all sealed into their deliverance, freedom and destiny, but even beyond that - their individualism had just ceased to exist. They were now united behind the one sacrifice, totally dependent upon the powerful right arm of the Almighty to bring them out. "Let My people go!" YHVH had already announced to all the rulers of Egypt who these people belonged to. These were a people who did not belong to themselves, they were and still are today "My people, ["ami" -singular] says YHVH". But now, through the blood of the lamb they were set apart to enter into the next phase of His plan. "'And you shall be to Me a kingdom of priests and a holy nation. These are the words which you shall speak to the children of Israel" (Exodus 19:6).

As we, Ephraim and Judah, YHVH's two families, the two nations, gather together to honor Him during this year's Passover, let us leave our individualism and lift the cup of unity. Remember that we were all once slaves to sin and death and bound to the principalities and powers of this world's (kosmos) dominion. It behooves us to, "purge out therefore the old leaven, that you may be a new lump, as you are unleavened. For even Messiah our Passover is sacrificed for us. Therefore let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth" (1 Cor. 5:7-8). May we walk together through the Door that is splattered with the blood of the Lamb, out of the houses of our bondage and into the liberty of the new corporate life of the "One New Man", the Royal Priesthood and Holy Nation Israel, YHVH's firstborn!

May you all be blessed during this Passover and Feast of Matzot (unleavened bread) with a sense of national unity! May the eyes of our hearts be opened anew to the fact that we are "My people Israel" in this generation.

Shabbat Shalom and Hag Same'ach

"Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity!
It is like the precious oil upon the head, running down on the beard, the beard of Aaron, running down on the edge of his garments. It is like the dew of Hermon, descending upon the mountains of Zion; for there YHVH commanded the blessing--Life forevermore" (Ps. 133).

Pardon

PARDON
I have pardoned as you've said
Not added to their account from whence you bled.

Your love covers all the sin
From hearts that kick against the shin.

When they have done it unto you.
They have done it to Me too.
When you pardon in My Name.
I likewise do the same.

Favor and grace drips from your heart
Your love draws them to a fresh start.
As you go forth carrying My torch.
You heal the way from what was scorched.

Thank you dear one for all that you do.
Staying faithful, remaining true.
My love, My friend, who stays by My side.
We are one as you abide.

Learning Contentment

Sandy Warner

Dec 12, 2005

LEARNING CONTENTMENT
Contentment is a tranquility within your heart where you not only appreciate your portion, but also thoroughly utilize it. When you have your focus upon another's portion, or when you are longing for your own promised portion yet to come, it keeps you from thoroughly enjoying what you do have. This is like the horse that eats the grass on the other side of the fence. It seems greener and sweeter, yet to continually reach through the fence causes dissatisfied longings.

Turn around and look at what I have given you. I have supplied a whole field of green pasture for your needs. When you have enjoyed and utilized what I have given you, I will give you more.

Setting, Oiling And Moving Your Hinges
Sandy Warner

Dec 16, 2005

SETTING, OILING AND MOVING YOUR HINGES
I train and equip with every kind of circumstance to prepare all for their destiny. During those preparation years, I have a certain purpose in mind to use some like a hinge to open or close a door. These doors are so vital and so important that all of history will be affected by their opening. I take every circumstance and weave it into the perfect training of the hinges, so when the day comes and I insert each hinge into place, they will be oiled to smoothly move doors open or shut.

These hinges on doors are like corner pieces to a puzzle which are important connecting pieces in turning corners. One's entire life may be honed and sharpened and prepared to only say ONE sentence to the right person, and that one sentence is the arrow into the heart turning the other person in the right direction. That other person is a key person, holding opportunity in their hands. Because of his one turn, choices are made that affect all of history. Consider this, all of history turning and rotating from that one sentence.

There are many, like Esther who have been finely honed to be hinges in the doors of history. Much training and preparation has been completed, so that at the right time and in the right season, the right Word will be spoken to change the heart of one key person, who in turn will change history. In your placement before great men, pray that the Words from your mouth will be My plan. All of your life has been finely honed for such a time as this.

Est 4:14 NKJV

> For if you remain completely silent at this time, relief and deliverance will arise for the Jews from another place, but you and your father's house will perish. Yet who knows whether you have come to the kingdom for such a time as this?

The Passover Pattern

Bill Somers

Introduction

In 1991 Destiny Image published a book by Lou Berthleson titled Holiness for these Awesome Days; and a book by Dan Juster titled Revelation, The Passover Key. The first work outlined a fascinating series of parallels between the first Passover at the time of the Exodus and the Passover of Jesus death and resurrection. Dan Juster in his book examines parallels between the Passover at the exodus and the Book of Revelation especially the Second Coming. What I hope to do in this article is to combine these insights and expand on them sharing what the Lord has shown me. And basically it is this. There are common elements between Exodus and the Gospels, common elements between the Exodus and Revelation, and common elements between the gospels and the Second coming. Once you lay these all out it becomes clear that there is a prophetic pattern in all three. I call this the passover pattern.

Lou Berthleson found that Jesus' death and resurrection at the Passover season followed patterns set in place by Moses' actions at the first Passover.

He goes into great detail and lays out some very interesting correspondences. Then he follows on to examine the feast of Pentecost, and it’s fulfillment in the Book of Acts. He also presents a fascinating discussion of Tabernacles and the typology used in the bible and Jewish traditions.

Dan Juster’s book is a look at Revelation which sees the events therein as foreshadowed by the events and patterns of the Passover-Exodus. He sees the situation of the Church of the Last Days as parallel to Israel in Egypt before the Exodus, and also parallel to the Church under Roman Empire in the first and second centuries.

Juster outlines four main approached to interpreting Revelation. These are as follows.

> The Symbolic Approach:
> This approach looks to the book primarily to gain insight into the nature of spiritual opposition and struggle at all times and for all believers. Through this method, all believers undergoing persecution or duress may be encouraged toward the ultimate victory of Jesus and His Kingdom. Those of this school shun historical, or prophetic past or future identifications for the symbols and content of the book.
> The Preterist Approach:
> This approach views the book as presenting the spiritual struggle of the first century believers with the Roman Empire and Jewish opposition. It is believed that the prophetic content of the book is fully past, excepting the literal return of Jesus the Messiah.
> The Historical Approach:
> This approach sees the book as representing the progress of history from the time of the Ascension of Jesus the Messiah until His second coming and the establishment of the New Jerusalem. Days and calculations in the book are seen as symbolic of years.
> The Futurist Approach:
> This approach sees the book, especially after chapter four, as representing the last great tribulation before the return of Jesus.
> These approaches to Revelation are used by people of widely differing theological persuasions. However, most Futurists are Pre-Millennialists, believing that a literal 1000-year Millennial Age of peace on earth (Revelation 20) precedes the full establishment of the new heavens and earth. There are, however, many who use the historical approach who believe in a literal Millennium. Most of those who believe that there is no literal Millennium, but that the Millennium of chapter 20 is symbolic of this Church Age, are not Futurists, but hold to one or a combination of the first three views.

There is of course some truth in all these views. The least popular or unfortunately most neglected approach is the symbolic or allegorical one.

But in the present article we are like Juster and Berthleson dealing in the futurist vein.

Exodus to Revelation

I'm going to note the points Mr. Juster makes in his comparison and then add a few of my own before getting back to Berthelson's work

The Exodus Passover seen as a type of the End Times as described in Revelation [and elsewhere.]

A. As Egypt is a type of the World the Exodus Passover deals with the Children of Israel in Egypt while Revelation deals with God's people throughout the world.

B. God uses two prophets, Moses and Aaron to announce and pronounce his plagues on Egypt. In Revelation, He uses his two witnesses in the same role.

C. One of the plagues in Egypt is darkness over all the land. At the Return of the Lord, the sun will be turned to dark. [Also we are told, the kingdom of the beast was filled with darkness.]

D. In Exodus, God's people are protected from the plagues by living in the Land of Goshen which was untouched. In Revelation, Gods people are sealed in their foreheads by the angel for their protection.

E. The Children of Israel are protected from the final plague by having the blood of the Passover Lamb on their door posts. In Revelation, God's people overcome by the Blood of the Lamb, the word of their testimony and their willingness to die for Jesus.

F. The Pharaoh of Exodus is a picture of the Beast [anti-Christ] of Revelation.

G. Pharaoh and his armies pursue Israel to the shore of the Red Sea in Exodus. In the last days, The Beast and his armies invade Israel.

H. In Exodus, Pharaoh's armies are held up by the Lord. The Lord fights against the Beast at Armageddon.

I. Pharaoh and his armies are destroyed in the sea. The beast and his armies are destroyed in the last battle.

To these points I would add the following:

1. Israel lived in Egypt but they were not assimilated into their culture. So also God's people are called to be 'in the world but not of the world'.

2. Israel lives in a separate area called the Land of Goshen. God's people in these end times are instructed to 'come out of her' and to be holy [separate] so they will not be hurt by her [Babylon's] judgments.

3. Pharaoh, the horse and rider, were cast into the sea, and the beast and false prophet will be cast into the lake of fire.

4. When the Lord slew all the firstborn of Egypt in the 10th plague, he also judged the 'gods of Egypt' When the Lord returns to fight the final battle, he first carries out judgment on the heavenly powers.

Dan Juster also makes the following points comparing Roman times with End times.

A. During Roman times, there was opposition to the Gospel all throughout the empire. The End Times will exhibit similar opposition all through the world.

B. During Roman times the Gospel was also opposed by Judaism, Today this is still the case.

C. In Roman Times Caesar was worshipped. In the End times, the Beast is worshipped.

D. In Roman times the church was in great warfare and many were killed in the persecution. The End Times will see great persecution and martyrdom of the church [the saints].

Completions

One other area Juster deals with that I wish to mention is the area or idea of completion. There are multiple completions that will take place. I'm going to list these in the order I believe they will take place.

The mystery of God must be completed, which he states is the maturity of the bride, the church. [Rev. 10:7 and Eph. 5:27,32]

That there must be a completion of the Global witness, preaching of the Gospel and resulting harvest [Mt. 24:12-14].

The revelation of Evil will also be completed with the beast getting power to make war and overcome the saints. [Re 13:7]

He mentions that The Return of the Lord, [and therefore the time of vengeance] does not come till The Number Of Martyrs is complete. This is the fullness of the gentiles. [Re 6:9-11]

And The Redemption Of Natural Israel must be complete so they are able to call upon the Lord for deliverance. See [Matt. 23:39 and Rom. 11:15.]

Meaning of The Scroll.

Moses had a commission to tell the Israelites that God had sent him. 'Tell them I am that I am'. That I AM had sent him. He also had authority to pronounce judgments.

Jesus had the same commission to reveal the Nature of God to the people of God. And he had the authority to pronounce judgments.

In the End Times it will be God's people in this role.

In Revelation 5, The Lamb who is worthy takes the scroll. Juster states that the scroll represents the decrees of God concerning the acts of judgment and redemption to occur in the last days. The seven seals represent the judgments and they are opened by Jesus, the Lamb, because he has the authority to initiate all the judgments to follow.

Other writers have claimed that the scroll is the 'title deed to planet earth' or a catalog of woe and sorrow.

I prefer to think of the scroll as representing the bible itself. And the reasons I will offer here are scriptural and provide a marvelous glimpse of the sheer genius of God in the construction of his word.

1. The Scroll is said to be written with in and without or on the front and back side. Rev. 5:1

2. The stone tables of the Law given to Moses are said to be written on the front and back sides.

> Ex 32:15 ¶ And Moses turned, and went down from the mount, and the two tables of the testimony were in his hand: the tables were written on both their sides; on the one side and on the other were they written.

This identifies the scroll with the law, hence with the bible, and ultimately with the Word of God, Jesus.

3. Since part is on the back side, then clearly it's not all readily apparent. Some meaning is hidden. The sealed scroll clearly has only a part of the writing visible.

4. There are several references to books being sealed in the O T. [Isa 8:16, 29:11-12, and Dan 12:4] Daniel says they are sealed till the end. Here opening the scroll is the unsealing of the books.

5. Opening the seals means revealing hidden meaning in the Word. So opening the scroll is one of many illustrations of the key concept summarized in the opening verse of Revelation. The Revelation of Jesus Christ.

6. Jesus is the only one who can open the scroll. No man is worthy. This shows that God reveals himself. Man cannot learn of these things on his own.

7. Each seal that is opened produces a judgment, and this also speaks of the Revelation of Jesus Christ since as Ps 9:16 says "The LORD is known by the judgment which he executeth: …."

So the Lamb that was slain is Jesus Christ. The Scroll is Jesus Christ. Opening the Scroll is the Revelation of Jesus Christ. The Judgments that come forth are the Revelation of Jesus Christ. And the book is the Revelation of Jesus Christ. It's all about the Revelation of Jesus Christ. In other words, knowing God.

Dan Juster writes

Our concern with the Book of Revelation should be less for speculation and more for our own preparation and understanding of present warfare. P35

And

The key preparations for the last days are therefore holiness of heart, humility, a burning love for the Lord and a faith preparation through the Word that will enable us to find God's guidance and strength to withstand the onslaught of the enemy. P 37

I heartily agree and would only add that it's about the Revelation of Jesus Christ in His People. Or as it is said: Christ in you, the Hope of Glory.

Dan Juster writes:

> God's holy people can be martyred only when He calls upon them to lay down their lives. P37
> The martyrdom of the prophets leads to an even greater outpouring of God's power. This is the result of true martyrdom - power is released in the spiritual realm! Thus the martyrdom of the Chinese saints under Communism led to the greatest church growth since the Church Age began. Martyrdom is similar to the sacrifice of intercessory prayer leading to the victory of the people of God. P 39

We can conclude that there are patterns established in Moses' Passover that are prophetic of Jesus' Passover, and in addition there will be a further fulfillment of these prophetic patterns in the end times. I find that in the scriptures describing Jesus' Passover, death and resurrection there are additional elements added that are also prophetic of the end times and of the Second Coming of Christ.

In general I would say that each feast as established by the Lord in Moses' time is prophetic and has multiple fulfillments. That is to say, that each one has been partly fulfilled in the past and awaits further and complete fulfillment in the end times.

Exodus to the Gospels

Before we get into the meat of Lou Berthelson's work, I want to present a quote from his first chapter about the prophetic nature of the Feasts of the Lord.

> Our study of patterns will begin with the feasts of the Lord as set forth in Leviticus 23. The Jews saw these as appointments with the Lord Jehovah. They called the festivals Miqra', or rehearsals.
> In First Thessalonians 5:1-5 Paul addresses mature Jews about the "appointed" time of Jesus' return. He referred to the festivals, Sabbaths and new moons that were the focus of the Jews' religious calendar.
> The word "times" in First Thessalonians 5:1-5 is Mowed, which is translated, "a specific appointment in time, a particular time or appointed season." The seven feasts of the Lord were given as appointments or rehearsals. They were designed by the Lord to foretell the events that would surround the coming of His Son and ever point to the proper attitudes requited of believers.

Berthelson goes on to show in fascinating detail just how these feasts foretell later events. [As you study the feasts even more, you find that the dates of the feasts are also dates when important things happen in the history of Israel. For example the recent 7 year peace treaty known as the Oslo Accords took effect in Israel at the time of the fall feast of Trumpets. It was broken 7 years later at about the same time when the current Palestinian uprising began.]

In chapter one of his book, Lou Berthelson concentrates his focus on the Passover. There are several elements that are relevant here.

1. The instructions of the Lord for celebrating the feast of Passover.

2. The account of events in Exodus at the first Passover.

3. The Jewish traditions in effect in Jesus' time, and

4. The account of events in the gospels at Jesus' death and resurrection.

Passover Basics.

The Lord's instructions for the Feasts are found in Leviticus 23. In vs. 4-14 are the spring feasts: Passover, Unleavened Bread and First Fruits. In vs. 15-21 are the ordinances for Pentecost, also called Feast of Weeks, and Shavuot in Hebrew.

It all boils down to this. Aviv also known as Nisan became the first month of the religious calendar. [Tishri, usually overlapping September is the first month of the civil calendar. The first day of Tishri is Rosh Hoshanna, also known as Jewish New Years Day.]

On the 10th of Nisan they take a lamb from the flock. It's inspected for 4 days. The Lamb had to be perfect, without flaw or blemish.

On the 14th the lamb is killed and roasted, from 3 - 6pm. At 6pm the day changes to the 15th. [The day begins at 6pm in the Jewish calendar.]

Then the lamb is eaten. Also on the 15th begins the first day of The Feast Of Unleavened Bread. It runs for 7 days with a feast on the last day, the 21st. On the 16th is the feast of First Fruits. It includes waving a sheaf of the first fruits of the Harvest before the Lord and animal sacrifices. The 16 is also the first day of the Counting of the Omer. This is where 50 days are counted off till Pentecost.

So the 14th is called 'The preparation of the Passover'.

The 15th is called Passover and the beginning of Unleavened Bread.

The 16th is called First Fruits or day 1 of the Omer.

Pentecost and First fruits are linked in two ways. First being that on first fruits the 50 day count down begins. The second is more symbolic. In Leviticus 23 we see the phrase 'first fruits' again in connection with the offerings for the day of Pentecost.

> Le 23:17 Ye shall bring out of your habitations two wave loaves of two tenth deals: they shall be of fine flour; they shall be baken with leaven; they are the firstfruits unto the LORD.

Events Of Exodus.

In Exodus 12:1-14 the Lord gives Moses the instructions for sacrificing the Passover lamb. Then in verses 15-20 he lays out the feast of unleavened bread. Verses 21-28 show Moses repeating the Lords instructions to the people.

In Vs 29-30 the Lord strikes the Egyptians with the tenth plague, the death of the first born.

In Vs 31-42 Pharaoh releases the people and they journey by night to Succoth where they bake unleavened bread. The rest of the chapter vs. 43-51 contain further regulations on observing Passover.

Exodus 13:1-2 tell of the consecration of the firstborn. This is the act that First Fruits commemorates.

In Exodus 13:19-20, they leave Succoth and travel to Etham, taking the bones of Joseph with them.

In Exodus 14:2 they make camp at Pihahiroth. Then Pharaoh decides to come after them.

The rest of chapter 14 describes how Pharaoh caught up with Israel at Pihahiroth. Then the Angel of the Lord, the pillar of cloud stood between Israel and Egypt, while the Lord parted the sea during the night. Then in the morning, as Pharaoh entered the sea in pursuit, the Lord fought against them, taking off their chariot wheels. Then he caused the waters to come back on the Egyptians while Israel emerged from the sea on the far shore.

Jewish Traditions During the time of Jesus

On the 10th of Aviv [or Nisan]

> The Temple practices had evolved to the point that on the tenth of Aviv the priests would select a lamb without spot or blemish. They would place the lamb on a special cart atop the Mt. of Olives.
> They paraded the lamb down to the city and into the Temple court. There it would be displayed until it was slain at the Passover. [Lou Berthleson page 10-11]

On the 14th at exactly 9am The Temple lamb was tied to the altar.

At 3pm the Temple Lamb was killed, prepared and roasted.

At 6pm the Day changed to the 15th when the Temple Lamb was eaten.

Of course other lambs were killed as well for all the people who came to the feast. The Passover could be eaten on either evening of the fourteenth or the evening of the fifteenth. This was changed to accommodate the multitude of Jews coming to the city.

Events In The Gospels

On the 10th Jesus entered Jerusalem and went to the Temple to be examined by the priests. Berthelson explains that he probably followed right behind the procession of the Temple Lamb. Therefore there were crowds of people already on the scene. Once they knew he was coming they rejoiced and blessed him. In effect they were choosing him to be their spiritual Passover.

On the 14th Jesus kept the Passover.

How could Jesus eat the Passover with his disciples [Mt. 26] on the day before Passover? He kept the Passover on the 14th.

> Jesus had to take the Passover meal, as did Moses, but He also had to be the Lamb. The only way He could accomplish both was to eat the Passover the first evening of the fourteenth. [Lou Berthleson page 14]

On the 14 at 9am Jesus was nailed to the cross.

At 3pm Jesus died. There is darkness over the land, and an earthquake. The saints come out of their graves and the veil of the temple is torn. [Matt. 27:50-53]

He was buried at about 6pm as the day changed to the 15th.

What happens after Jesus' death?

He becomes the redeemed first born/first fruits.

He descends into hell and takes the keys to death, hell and the grave.

He leads captivity free. Satan is defeated.

Jesus rises after three days and three nights, around 6pm on the beginning of the18th.

His grave is found empty at about 6am the following morning.

We noted that some of these events happen at precise times which correspond to the times of corresponding events in Exodus. Berthelson tells us exactly what day of the week these things happened. He further claims that the resurrection happened on exactly the same day of the month, and day of the week and time of the day as Moses leading Israel out onto the far shore of the sea.

Only he has this happening at 6am on the 17th. I do not feel this is correct. If it were then Jesus would not have been dead for exactly 3 days and 3 nights. But neither do I have the resources or the brilliance to present an exactly correct time table.

The solution to this quandary is to fudge things. [I'm serious here.]

First of all the bible is often vague on many important matters. Secondly it really doesn't matter if the timing is exact or not. Prophetic typology is not an exact science. Types and shadows are often incomplete and fuzzy. You do not get an exact picture. Thirdly typology may at times scramble the order of events.

Most importantly, [while we're on the subject] there can often be more than one correct interpretation of scripture. Just as a word can have more that one definition, a shadow can be cast by more than one object. Sometimes prophetic scriptures have more than one fulfillment. Sometimes one correct interpretation can be 'more correct' than another because of the depth of insight or detail involved.

And since we're talking about Passover, here is a perfect example of a pattern in scripture where the order of events is scrambled. Yet they are all still part of the pattern.

Jesus' trip to Jerusalem at age 12 is an interesting pattern for his later trip there to be crucified. [Luke 2:41 and following.]

In the earlier trip he travels with his family, in the latter with his disciples. In the earlier he is found in the temple having discussions with the learned men. In the latter trip, he is four days in the temple being challenged and questioned by the learned men again. After Passover in the first trip, he is missing for 3 days. After the latter Passover, he is buried and rises again after 3 days!

The difference is that in the second event the questioning in the temple happens before the three days not during those days. Nevertheless, the trip at age 12 is prophetic typology [or a rehearsal] for the latter trip.

Moses' Passover Compared To Jesus'.

Here are the parallels between Exodus, tradition, and the Gospels as Berthleson summarizes them.

1. The lamb is chosen on the 10 of the month; Jesus enters the temple on the 10th.
2. The lamb is examined for flaws for 4 days; Jesus is questioned and tested for 4 days.
3. The temple lamb is tied to the altar at 9am on the 14th; Jesus is nailed to the cross at 9am. [Mark 15:25]
4. The lamb is killed at 3pm; Jesus dies at 3pm.
5. The lamb is eaten at 6pm; Jesus is buried at 6pm.
6. At midnight the first born of Egypt are slain, and Pharaoh frees Israel. Moses takes the bones of Joseph, so Joseph's grave is left empty. When Jesus died and the saints came forth, Joseph's grave was left empty again!
7. Israel camps over night and dedicates the first born to the Lord; Jesus becomes the dedicated first born.
8. Israel travels to the sea and Pharaoh catches them there. Then the waters are parted and Israel descends into the sea and goes over on dry ground; Jesus descends into hell and takes the keys. [Eph. 4:8-9]
9. Moses leads the people through the sea to safety. Jesus leads the captivity out of hell. [Eph. 4:8-9]
10. Pharaoh and his army is destroyed in the sea, the people reach the far shore and rejoice; Jesus defeats Satan and rises from the dead.

The Gospels to The Second Coming

Now I want to look at some parallels between the gospel accounts of Jesus' Passover and the second coming of Christ.

These elements are:

a. The Darkness
b. The earthquake

c. It is finished
d. The Shout
e. The resurrection
f. The veil torn

Here are passages of scripture where these are found.

> Mt 27:50 ¶ Jesus, when he had cried again with a loud voice, yielded up the ghost.
> 51 And, behold, the veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom; and the earth did quake, and the rocks rent;
> 52 And the graves were opened; and many bodies of the saints which slept arose,
> 53 And came out of the graves after his resurrection, and went into the holy city, and appeared unto many.
> Lu 23:44 ¶ And it was about the sixth hour, and there was a darkness over all the earth until the ninth hour.
> 45 And the sun was darkened, and the veil of the temple was rent in the midst.
> 46 And when Jesus had cried with a loud voice, he said, Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit: and having said thus, he gave up the ghost.
> Joh 19:30 When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, It is finished: and he bowed his head, and gave up the ghost.

In the bible the phrase 'Day of the Lord' has several meanings.

a. The 7th day, also known as the 3rd day or the Millennium. A thousand year period.
b. The End Times. A period of judgment and harvest leading to the Second Coming.
c. The actual Second Coming.

When it is used to speak of the actual second coming, many other equivalent sayings may be substituted. These include, the day of judgment, the day of wrath, 'in that day', the day of Christ, the day of vengeance etc.

With that in mind, let's look at these elements.

Darkness.

In Luke 23:44 above it mentions darkness from the 6th to the 9th hour. In the Jewish calendar, this means the 6th to the 9th hour of daylight, which is approximately from 6am to 6pm. In the spring and fall the hours of light and dark are the most equal of the year. So the 6th hour of daylight translates to 12 noon. Now look at this verse from Amos.

> Am 8:9 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Lord GOD, that I will cause the sun to go down at noon, and I will darken the earth in the clear day:

Also see Isa. 13:9, Isa 24:21, 23, Ez 32:7, Joel 2:31 and Mt. 24:29.

The darkness that took place at the crucifixion clearly points ahead to another darkness to come at the Second Coming.

Earthquake.

> Re 6:12 And I beheld when he had opened the sixth seal, and, lo, there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood;
> Re 11:11 And after three days and an half the Spirit of life from God entered into them, and they stood upon their feet; and great fear fell upon them which saw them.
> 12 And they heard a great voice from heaven saying unto them, Come up hither. And they ascended up to heaven in a cloud; and their enemies beheld them.
> 13 And the same hour was there a great earthquake, and the tenth part of the city fell, and in the earthquake were slain of men seven thousand: and the remnant were affrighted, and gave glory to the God of heaven.

So the earthquake at the crucifixion is prophetic of the one at the Second Coming.

It Is Finished.

Here when Jesus says, It is Finished, the phrase points ahead to the time when the number of the martyrs will be completed. This is one of the completions Dan Juster mentions above.

> Re 6:9 ¶ And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of them that were slain for the word of God, and for the testimony which they held:
> 10 And they cried with a loud voice, saying, How long, O Lord, holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?
> 11 And white robes were given unto every one of them; and it was said unto them, that they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellowservants also and their brethren, that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled.

The Shout.

And once the numbering of the martyrs is finished, God gives a great shout. The time of vengeance begins. When He says, I will repay, it's not just a warning, it's a promise.

> Ro 12:19 Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord.

Here the shout is mentioned.

> Ps 47:5 ¶ God is gone up with a shout, the LORD with the sound of a trumpet.

> 1 Th 4:16 For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first:

Now the reason for the shout should be obvious. But once again we see that the shout at Jesus death foretells the shout at His Second Coming.

The Resurrection.

> Mt 24:29 Immediately after the tribulation of those days shall the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken:
> 30 And then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven: and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory.
> 31 And he shall send his angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

This should tell us that the resurrection occurs at this same time.

The Veil.

When the veil was torn, the holy of holies became visible. This is prophetic of a time to come when another veil will be removed and Jesus will be visible.

We mentioned earlier about the completion of the number of martyrs. When God rises up with a shout, it's because that process is completed. This is what's meant by the fullness of the gentiles. [We're talking about martyrs of the gentile church.] That still leaves Israel. And we know from Romans 11:25 that blindness in part is happened to Israel, until the fulness of the Gentiles be come in.

Who is Israel?

1. National Israel is the nation state of Israel.
2. Natural Israel is the descendants of Jacob, world wide Jewry.
3. Spiritual Israel is the mass of people who are 'circumcised in the heart', the redeemed

[the church].
4. Jesus Himself, the suffering servant, the First Born
5. All of the Above

Here we're concerned with the first two. Replacement Theology would ignore natural Israel. Parallel Restoration Theology argues that the prophetic scriptures that speak of Israel in the end times apply to both natural and spiritual Israel. Every development in the history of natural Israel in the 20th century has a parallel development in the history of the church.

The redemption of natural Israel is something to occur very rapidly. We read in Is. 66:8 about a nation being born in a day. Spiritual Israel is the redeemed, but natural Israel are the ones spoken of in John 10.

> John 10:16 And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd.

And Romans 11 tells us:

> Ro 11:28 As concerning the gospel, they are enemies for your sakes: but as touching the election, they are beloved for the fathers' sakes.

Romans 9:3 says:

> Ro 9:3 For I could wish that myself were accursed from Christ for my brethren, my kinsmen according to the flesh:

Here Paul speaks as a type of Jesus and describes exactly what Jesus did when He became a curse, taking on the sin of the world.

We said that after the fullness of the gentiles, the completion of the number of martyrs, that still leaves the redemption of Israel.

Romans tells us about something that will happen as a consequence. That is all Israel shall be saved.

> Ro 11:25 For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, lest ye should be wise in your own conceits; that blindness in part is happened to Israel, until the fulness of the Gentiles be come in.
> 26 And so all Israel shall be saved: as it is written, There shall come out of Sion the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob:

Removing the Veil.

That blindness on the part of Israel is symbolized by a veil. Here we find it mentioned in second Corinthians.

> 2 Co 3:13 And not as Moses, which put a vail over his face, that the children of Israel could not stedfastly look to the end of that which is abolished:
> 14 But their minds were blinded: for until this day remaineth the same vail untaken away in the reading of the old testament; which vail is done away in Christ.
> 15 But even unto this day, when Moses is read, the vail is upon their heart.
> 16 Nevertheless when it shall turn to the Lord, the vail shall be taken away.

In the Gospels Jesus weeps over Jerusalem, knowing they will miss the time of their visitation. Then he states a condition they must meet before he will come to them again. And in the same breath, he prophesies that they will meet that condition at a set time. The condition is that they must call upon him, saying: Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord. The time comes, as we read in Romans 11 above, the fullness of the gentiles comes in. Then follows the completion of the redemption of natural Israel.

> Lu 13:34 O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, which killest the prophets, and stonest them that are sent unto thee; how often would I have gathered thy children together, as a hen doth gather her brood under her wings, and ye would not!
> 35 Behold, your house is left unto you desolate: and verily I say unto you, Ye shall not > see me, until the time come when ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.

This is described another way in Zechariah 12:

> Zec 12:10 And I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplications: and they shall look upon me whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for him, as one mourneth for his only son, and shall be in bitterness for him, as one that is in bitterness for his firstborn.

Revelation 1 alludes to the same scripture.

> Re 1:7 Behold, he cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him, and they also which pierced him: and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him. Even so, Amen.

Here are a few more references that link the redemption of Israel with the second coming.

> In those days, and in that time, saith the LORD, the children of Israel shall come, they and the children of Judah together, going and weeping: they shall go, and seek the LORD their God. Jeremiah 50:4

> In those days, and in that time, saith the LORD, the iniquity of Israel shall be sought for, and there shall be none; and the sins of Judah, and they shall not be found: for I will pardon them whom I reserve. Jeremiah 50:20

> Therefore thus will I do unto thee, O Israel: and because I will do this unto thee, prepare to meet thy God, O Israel
> For, lo, he that formeth the mountains, and createth the wind, and declareth unto man what is his thought, that maketh the morning darkness, and treadeth upon the high places of the earth, The LORD, The God of hosts, is his name. (Amos 4:12-13 KJV)

Judgment of the gods.

Notice how the gods of Egypt are mentioned in the following passage.

> Ex 12:12 For I will pass through the land of Egypt this night, and will smite all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both man and beast; and against all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgment: I am the LORD.

This is the only time the gods are mentioned as part of that judgment. It serves to give us a clue to the spiritual meaning of the First Born of Egypt. And it points ahead to the second coming identifying the first born who are to be slain at that time. These are the powers of heaven, the gods of Egypt, the gods of this world, principalities, powers and rulers of wickedness in high places. [1 Cor. 2:6-8; Eph. 6-12; Rom. 8:38-39; Col. 2:14-15; Ps 82]

Here are a couple representative verses that show us the judgment of the gods.

> Isa 24:21 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the LORD shall punish the host of the high ones that are on high, and the kings of the earth upon the earth.

> Mt 24:29 Immediately after the tribulation of those days shall the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken:

Also see these verses: Isaiah 19:1; Isaiah 34:4-5; Micah 1:3;. Mark 13:25; Luke 21:26.

The gods and The Veil

The fall of the powers of heaven is linked to the removing of the veil. Let's look at this in more detail.

In first John we are told the whole world is under their influence.

> 1Jo 5:19 And we know that we are of God, and the whole world lieth in wickedness.

Here in second Corinthians we see that they cause blindness.

> 2Co 4:4 In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them.

Revelation tells us that they deceive the whole world.

> Re 12:9 And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world ….

Here is Isaiah it is described as a veil, and we are told that the Lord will destroy the veil.

> Isa 25:6 ¶ And in this mountain shall the LORD of hosts make unto all people a feast of fat things, a feast of wines on the lees, of fat things full of marrow, of wines on the lees well refined.
> 7 And he will destroy in this mountain the face of the covering cast over all people, and the vail that is spread over all nations.
> 8 He will swallow up death in victory; and the Lord GOD will wipe away tears from off all faces; and the rebuke of his people shall he take away from off all the earth: for the LORD hath spoken it.
> 9 ¶ And it shall be said in that day, Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, and he will save us: this is the LORD; we have waited for him, we will be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

The mountain speaks of the Kingdom of God, where his people dwell. [Israel] "In that day" speaks of course of the second coming.

Since we see that the 'powers of heaven' are the ones who bring blindness, clearly their removal, at the second coming means the blindness is removed.

Redemption of the First Born.

In the first Passover judgment fell on one group [Egypt] and another group was spared [Israel]. Also one group of first born were slain and another was redeemed.

In Jesus Passover the judgment of death and hell fell upon Jesus. This was not just physical death, but the second death as well for he experienced separation from the Father. By tasting death for us, He made a way for us to be saved as we abide in him.

Also in Jesus' Passover he was the first born slain, but he was also the first born redeemed. Judgment fell on Satan.

There is a passage in Zechariah that depicts the spiritual side of what happened then. Recall that the name Joshua is the same as Jesus and that he is our High Priest.

> Zec 3:1 And he shewed me Joshua the high priest standing before the angel of the LORD, and Satan standing at his right hand to resist him.
> 2 And the LORD said unto Satan, The LORD rebuke thee, O Satan; even the LORD that hath chosen Jerusalem rebuke thee: is not this a brand plucked out of the fire?
> 3 Now Joshua was clothed with filthy garments, and stood before the angel.
> 4 And he answered and spake unto those that stood before him, saying, Take away the filthy garments from him. And unto him he said, Behold, I have caused thine iniquity to pass from thee, and I will clothe thee with change of raiment.
> 5 And I said, Let them set a fair mitre upon his head. So they set a fair mitre upon his head, and clothed him with garments. And the angel of the LORD stood by.

What this passage is showing us it the judgment of Jesus after his death. The filthy garments speak of his becoming a sin offering and taking on the sin of the world. Describing him as a brand plucked out of the fire tells us that he is being redeemed from the fire of hell. As the words "The Lord rebuke thee, O Satan" are spoken, Satan is being judged. Jesus is given proper garments and the sin is removed. He is given a crown to indicate his power. Later he would tell his followers that all authority is given to him.

So who is the first born to be redeemed? Well we have already spoken above about the blindness removed from Israel when the fullness of the gentiles comes in. In Exodus 4 God spells it out for us.

> Ex 4:22 And thou shalt say unto Pharaoh, Thus saith the LORD, Israel is my son, even my firstborn:

He refers to this again in Hosea 11.

> Ho 11:1 ¶ When Israel was a child, then I loved him, and called my son out of Egypt.

And Matthew alludes to Hosea in chapter 2, speaking of Jesus.

> Mt 2:15 And was there until the death of Herod: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying, Out of Egypt have I called my son.

This identifies Israel with Jesus, the suffering servant. As Jesus is his firstborn. And you may conclude that those who are in Him are also his sons.

The Meaning of Passover.

So what exactly is the meaning of Passover?

Passover is a sacrifice which if taken advantage of, [appropriated], yields protection from judgments, and deliverance from bondage or blindness. And that results or causes judgments on the enemy, and final victory over him.

The Meaning Of First Fruits.

First Fruits is the celebration of the redemption of the First Born that comes with Passover. So First Fruits celebrates the Victory that Passover produces.

Now I'm going to sketch out some parallels of the Passover Pattern.

The Other Feasts.

Pentecost relates to covenant [or betrothal of the bride] The old covenant is the Law, it was given to Moses on the first Pentecost. The New covenant is the Spirit, it was given to us in Acts. 2. This points ahead to a future fulfillment, perhaps the marriage supper.

Tabernacles relates God visiting his people, The Revelation of Jesus Christ and the building of God's dwelling place. The dwelling place has been represented by that tabernacle, and the temple. Ultimately it's in the hearts of his people.

The Passover Pattern

Here is our comparison of three Passovers.

A. Passover of Exodus

I. Before the plagues of Egypt, Israel comes under Moses' leadership;

    a. The two prophets are Moses and Aaron
    b. There was darkness over the land of Egypt.

I. Sacrifice of the Lamb is followed by these events: [given in exact order]

    a. God's people under the blood are protected
    b. The destroying angel is released [this is the final plague]
    c. Firstborn of Egypt are slain
    d. There was a great cry in Egypt. [Ex. 12:30]
    e. Pharaoh lets Israel go
    f. Israel leaves Egypt
    g. Israel brings Joseph's bones out of the grave

   h. Firstborn of God's people are redeemed
   i. Final pursuit by Pharaoh
   j. Israel passes through the sea
   k. Final Victory, Pharaoh destroyed, horse and rider in the sea.

B. Jesus, our Passover

I. Jesus begins his ministry by proclaiming the Kingdom is at hand.

   a. The two prophets are John and Jesus.

   b. Mt 4:16 The people which sat in darkness saw great light; and to them which sat in the region and shadow of death light is sprung up.

II. The Sacrifice of Jesus is followed by these events. [given in approximate order]

   a. Jesus cries out loudly.
   b. God's people are saved from the second death by the Blood [the first death is only 'the shadow of death', a shadow of the second death.
   c. Jesus is judged and tastes death for us.
   d. Satan is judged and rebuked
   e. Veil of temple is torn
   f. Holy of Holies visible
   g. Saints come out of their graves
   h. Jesus is redeemed and given all power.
   i. Jesus enters Hell
   j. Jesus released the captives in Hell
   k. Jesus rises in victory over death, hell and the grave.

C. Second Coming of Christ

I. Before the end time judgments fall, Jesus establishes His kingdom by taking the scroll. [Rev 5:7] This is acknowledged in Rev 11:17 and Rev 12:10.

   a. The two prophets are the two witnesses.

   b. Isa 60:2 For, behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the people: but the LORD shall arise upon thee, and his glory shall be seen upon thee.

II. The completion of the Martyrs [fullness of the gentiles] is followed by these events: [given in approximate order]

   a. God is gone up with a shout!
   b. Resurrection of the saints [church], typified by the two witnesses.
   c. Day of Judgment. The wrath of God is released. [Rom. 12:19]
   d. Heavenly powers fall
   e. Veil of blindness removed
   f. Israel looks on the one whom they pierced
   g. Israel repents calling on the name of the Lord
   h. Israel saved
   i. Israel invaded
   j. Armageddon
   k. Final Victory, Beast and Co. destroyed. Death and Hell destroyed.

The Pattern of the Tasks.

Tasks and Commissions

Now in closing let's make some comparisons on another level. These will be partly derived from an earlier article "Moses' Commission".

Moses tasks included:

1. Reveal to God's people, Israel, that God had sent him.

2. Proclaim God's Kingdom and pronounce His Judgments.
3. Symbolically demonstrate power over Satan, this was the sign of the rod and serpent
4. Symbolically demonstrate victory over sin and death by resurrection. This was the sign of the leprous hand.
5. Symbolically demonstrate the work of the Spirit by pouring water from the river out on the land.
6. Carryout the Passover sacrifice that led to their deliverance and victory

Jesus' tasks included:

1. Reveal the Father to God's people.
2. Proclaim God's Kingdom and pronounce His Judgments.
3. Demonstrate power over Satan, heal the sick, raise the dead, cast out devils.
4. Demonstrate victory over sin and death through his own resurrection.
5. Send the Holy Spirit to his disciples on Pentecost
6. Become the Passover sacrifice that resulted in our salvation.

The End Time Saints tasks include.

1. Reveal Jesus Christ to the lost world.
2. Proclaim God's Kingdom and pronounce His Judgments.
3. Over come Satan through the Word, their testimony and martyrdom.
4. Follow the lamb by going through the same death and resurrection.
5. Become empowered to do the greater works when the Spirit is poured out on all flesh. [Joel 2, Acts 2]
6. Offer themselves a living sacrifice [Rom 12:1-2] in a new fulfillment of Passover

All this requires and End Time Church that is far different than what we have now. In Matthew 16, Jesus spoke these words about his end time church:

> Mt 16:18 And I say also unto thee, That thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it.

Psalm 48 gives us a description of that church from another point of view.

> Ps 48:8 As we have heard, so have we seen in the city of the LORD of hosts, in the city of our God: God will establish it for ever. Selah.
> 9 We have thought of thy lovingkindness, O God, in the midst of thy temple.
> 10 According to thy name, O God, so is thy praise unto the ends of the earth: thy right hand is full of righteousness.
> 11 Let mount Zion rejoice, let the daughters of Judah be glad, because of thy judgments.
> 12 Walk about Zion, and go round about her: tell the towers thereof.
> 13 Mark ye well her bulwarks, consider her palaces; that ye may tell it to the generation following.
> 14 For this God is our God for ever and ever: he will be our guide even unto death.

Perfect, Being Perfected, and Perfectionism
Don Walker

basileia@sbcglobal.net

The New Testament teaches that the believer is both perfect, and in the process of being perfected, simultaneously (Phil 1:6, 3:12,15; Heb. 10:1, 11:40, 12:23, James 1:4). As we have seen the believer is declared by God to be both sanctified and in the process of being sanctified. This is not a contradiction, it is a recognition of God's method of operation. Isaiah 46:10 tells us God "declares the end from the beginning." God "calls those things which are not, as though they were" (Rom. 4:17). The believer is declared by God to be perfect, holy, and sanctified, then God goes to work bringing it into actuality.

At this point, allow me to deal with the word "perfect". The Greek word translated as "perfect" in the NASB (in the KJV it is translated "holy" or "perfect"), is teleios which conveys the concept of "having come to a full end." This same word is also translated as "mature" or "complete." In several instances in the NASB, I believe it would have better to translate it as "mature" rather than "perfect" (example: Phil.3:12,15). This would be less confusing to most people. Paul's whole claim in Philippians 3:15 is that the one who is teleios (mature) does not lay claim to perfection.

It is out of a misunderstanding of this word "perfect" that a concept which has come to be known as, "Christian perfectionism" or "sinless perfection" was born. The term "entire sanctification" is sometimes used by those adhering to this position. It is the belief that a Christian can, and should, attain a level of holiness where there is a "total eradication of the sin nature." This view is found, to varying degrees, within the Wesleyan/Holiness tradition. Some within this tradition would say "I have been sanctified," referring not to the initial break with sin as a reult of conversion, but to a subsequent experience in which they begin to know freedom from conscious sin in their lives.

Does the Bible teach this concept of "perfectionism"? Is it possible, and is it expected, that the believer live above sin to such a degree that they be "sinless"?

Those advocating this view refer to such scriptures as:

"Therefore you are to be perfect, as your Heavenly Father is perfect" (Matt. 5:48).

"Let us cleanse ourselves from every defilement of body and spirit, and make holiness perfect in the fear of God" (II Cor. 7:1).

"No one who abides in Him sins" (I John 3:6).

In responding to these verses we must examine more closely what the Bible teaches, regarding sin in the life of the believer. Is sin viewed as something that will be "totally eradicated" in the believer or something that must continually be resisted?

Jesus commanded His disciples to pray, "Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our sins . . ." (Matt. 6:11-12). In this model prayer Jesus implies that just as one is to pray for "daily bread," he is also to pray for the forgiveness of his sins on a daily basis. John tells us, "If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us" (I John 1:8).

Wayne Grudem, in his book, Systematic Theology states: "John's statement that 'No one who abides in him sins' (I John 3:6) does not teach that some of us attain perfection, because the present tense Greek verbs are better translated as indicating continual or habitual activity: 'No one who lives in Him keeps on sinning. No one who continues to sin has either seen Him or known Him' (I John 3:6 NIV). This is similar to John's statement a few verses later, 'No one who is born of God will continue to sin, because God's seed remains in him; he cannot go on sinning, because he has been born of God' (I John 3:9 NIV). If these verses were taken to prove sinless perfection, they would have to prove it for all Christians, because they talk about what is true of everyone born of God, and everyone who has seen Christ and known Him."

F. F. Bruce, in his commentary on the epistles of John, makes this observation: "The new birth involves a radical change of human nature; for those who have not experienced it, sin is natural, whereas for those who have experienced it, sin is unnatural." It is quite clear that John is not teaching that a believer never sins, only that it is not natural for him because he has a new nature. But when he does sin, he has an advocate, Jesus Christ (I John 2:1).

Some have taken Paul's statement in Philippians 3:12, "Not that I have already obtained it, or have already become perfect, but I press on in order that I may lay hold of that for which also I was laid hold of by Christ Jesus," to say that perfection is an attainable goal. Ralph P. Martin, commenting on this passage, has said: "The apostle denies any sense of final perfection as a present experience, he makes it clear that the work of sanctifying grace is progressive, and the summum bonum of Chrisian experience will be only reached at the consummation."

I believe the Bible teaches us that the more we mature in Christ, the more we are aware of our own imperfection. Isaiah, finding himself in the presence of the Lord, cried out "Woe is me! For I am lost; for I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell midst a people of unclean lips; for my eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts!" (Isa. 6:5). Job, a man whose righteousness was commended, could only say in the presence of God: "I have heard of you by the hearing of the ear, but now my eye sees you; therefore I despise myself, and repent in dust and ashes" (Job 42:5-6).

John Murray, in Redemption Accomplished and Applied, concludes: "Indeed, the more sanctified the person is, the more conformed he is to the image of his Savior, the more he must recoil against every lack of conformity to the holiness of God. The deeper his apprehension of the majesty of God, the greater the intensity of his love to God, the more persistent his yearning for the attainment of the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus, the more conscious will he be of the gravity of the sin that remains and the more poignant will be his detestation of it....Was this not the effect in all the people of God as they came into closer proximity to the revelation of God's holiness."

Potentiation By The Holy Spirit

Paul N. Ekemezie

Nosike_ekemezie@yahoo.com

Potentiation - to make potent or powerful.

1 Cor 3:16—Don't you know that you yourselves are God's temple and that God's Spirit lives in you?

A web page on the Internet (http://www.raptureready.com/resource/murray/ae8.html) that is attributed to the work of Andrew Murray contains the following:

Faith puts us in possession of all that the death of Christ and His resurrection have procured for us, and it is not only in our spirit and our soul that the life of the risen Jesus manifests its presence here below; it is in the body also that it would act according to the measure of our faith.

Let us begin by asking, what has the death or blood of Christ procured for us?

Rom 4:25—He was delivered over to death for our sins and was raised to life for our justification.

Eph 2:13—But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far away have been brought near through the blood of Christ.

Heb 10:19—Therefore, brothers, since we have confidence to enter the Most Holy Place by the blood of Jesus,

Heb 13:12—And so Jesus also suffered outside the city gate to make the people holy through his own blood

The death of Jesus Christ brought us near to God (Holy Spirit) by reason of the shed blood. The blood of Jesus has qualified us to experience the presence of God (Holy Spirit). The blood of Jesus made us holy by washing away our sins. All these were done for all of humanity and not for Christians alone. That is why in this end time, those who understand this fact will go round the world noising the good news.

The death of Jesus has procured for us all the blessings of heaven (Eph 1:3). But how many human beings do we see on earth today actually enjoying the heavenly blessings? What is the problem? This is where faith comes in. This is where justification comes in. It is only those who have faith in Christ that are justified. They are the people who can experience the blessings of heaven. However, it remains to understand what it means to have faith in Christ.

John 14:12-14—I tell you the truth, anyone who has faith in me will do what I have been doing. He will do even greater things than these, because I am going to the Father. [13]And I will do whatever you ask in my name, so that the Son may bring glory to the Father. [14]You may ask me for anything in my name, and I will do it.

Truly having faith in Christ unleashes the divine power of God inside a person. We read in Acts 10:38, how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and power, and how he went around doing good and healing all who were under the power of the devil, because God was with him. Many after reading that verse begin to wish that they could be anointed like Jesus. However, the good news that will soon begin to be noised all over the world is that we have exactly the same anointing that Jesus had (the anointing of the Holy One—1 John 5:20). What then is the difference between us and our Lord Jesus Christ? It is faith! Jesus believed that God was in Him and that the presence of God in His human body is for the purpose of potentiating Him. He aligned His psyche and hence utterances and prayers with this belief; that was His faith.

John 1:5—The light shines in the darkness, but the darkness has not understood it.

The light (or Spirit or Christ) of God has been shining on and dwelling in mankind, but most of mankind have not understood it. That is why mankind is still dominated by sin, disease, poverty, etc. Yet, God released His light to us to drive away all these works of the devil, as He did on the second day of creation (Gen 1:2-3).

How can we operate the type of faith that Jesus Christ operated?

Rom 10:8-11—But what does it say? “The word is near you; it is in your mouth and in your heart,” that is, the word of faith we are proclaiming: [9]That if you confess with your mouth, “Jesus is Lord,” and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. [10]For it is with your heart that you believe and are justified, and it is with your mouth that you confess and are saved. [11]As the Scripture says, “Anyone who trusts in him will never be put to shame.”

Let us put our trust in the Holy Spirit that dwells in us. Let us begin to praise God for putting His Spirit in us and thanking Him for the great potentials that has given us. Let us praise Him for our victory over sin, disease, misfortunes, poverty, and so on. Even if we are currently experiencing the symptoms of any of these works of Satan, let us call the things that are not as though they are.

Rom 4:17-24—As it is written: “I have made you a father of many nations.” He is our father in the sight of God, in whom he believed–the God who gives life to the dead and calls things that are not as though they were.
[18]Against all hope, Abraham in hope believed and so became the father of many nations, just as it had been said to him, “So shall your offspring be.” [19]Without weakening in his faith, he faced the fact that his body was as good as dead–since he was about a hundred years old–and that Sarah's womb was also dead. [20]Yet he did not waver through unbelief regarding the promise of God, but was strengthened in his faith and gave glory to God, [21]being fully persuaded that God had power to do what he had promised. [22]This is why “it was credited to him as righteousness.” [23]The words “it was credited to him” were written not for him alone, [24]but also for us, to whom God will credit righteousness–for us who believe in him who raised Jesus our Lord from the dead.

2 Corinthians 4:16-18—We do not lose heart. Though outwardly we are wasting away, yet inwardly we are being renewed day by day. [17]For our light and momentary troubles are achieving for us an eternal glory that far outweighs them all. [18]So we fix our eyes not on what is seen, but on what is unseen. For what is seen is temporary, but what is unseen is eternal.

Are you convinced that God has power to do what He has promised? If you do, no matter the weight of your current problems, thank Him for His potentiating Spirit that is in you. Proclaim to Him your belief that He is right now solving your problem by His Spirit that is in you. All things are possible if you begin to live this pattern of life; a life that trusts not in the ability of man but in the power of the Spirit within.

2 Pet 1:3-4—His divine power has given us everything we need for life and godliness through our knowledge of him who called us by his own glory and goodness. [4]Through these he has given us his very great and precious promises, so that through them you may participate in the divine nature and escape the corruption in the world caused by evil desires.

God has given us His divine power by His Spirit that dwells in us. Let us begin to praise Him for His great and precious promises. As we praise Him, let us speak as though we are sure that he is right now fulfilling those promises by his Spirit that is in us. That is the real meaning of faith. With this kind of faith, sin can never be found in us; sickness can never be found in us; no power of the devil can overcome us.

I must confess that I was greatly inspired by this article on the web:

Prophetic Correspondence for the USA
Mike Tucker

Greetings Brothers and Sisters,

My spirit agrees with this 'The Decision Has Been Made' word submitted by Stephen Hanson. This may seem strange to some since the Lord clearly showed me in early February that time till judgment had been bought. It was bought through the prayers of intercessors and for the sake of the Body. Some time was won, but it is only brief. The Lord has spoken to me that there will be no more delays again (in the ‘Time Bought’ dream/word the clock did not stop ticking, it was only moved back a bit). Also, I am personally not to intercede anymore for the US, nor cry my guts out for this nation again, nor carry any further burden, lament, grief, sorrow nor plea over her.

2-15-05 Dream: I was riding quickly on a red horse along a country trail wearing a white prophetic robe. The trail was like one I remembered from a Paul Revere ride scene. I came to a resting post, got off the horse and rested some, but the rest was shorter than the ride. When I got back on the red horse, I was wearing a thick silvery suit and began to ride again. Then I woke up.

Meaning: The ride on the red horse represents the prophetic call of warning to the US that I have undertaken again over the last couple of years. The rest from riding and warning has just begun for me. The rest in the dream was shorter than the ride itself. When I am called out of rest again to get back on the red horse its because judgment has begun. When I asked the Lord about the shiny suit He said, 'Fire protection' (fire represents judgment, red horse is for war). There is more to this new suit (mantle) to be revealed to me later.

2-17-05 Dream*: I saw myself standing in a doorway clothed with an Olympic type USA sweat suit (red, white and blue).*

2-18-05 Dream: I was in my car and a messenger came, opened the door and sat next to me in the car. I handed the messenger that USA sweat suit and the messenger left.

Meaning: These two dreams mean I will not run or 'sweat' for the US anymore. The mantle for the USA has been returned from whence it came.

Your Brother in Lord Jesus Christ,

Mike Tucker

P.S. 2-12-05 I had been pondering about the 'Time Bought' words given a few days earlier and was contemplating somewhat as to the nature of judgment now. I had a dream and I saw a map of the Western US coastline. California and Oregon were gone. Washington state was still mostly there, except there was a crack between it and the mainland.

Meaning: Time was graciously and mercifully put backwards, but the Judgment has not been mitigated.

Prophetic Directives For 2005

Pat King

1. 2005 Is To Be Proclaimed As A Year Of The Lord's Favor (Isaiah 61:2)

This is a year when God's people can contend for greater levels of manifest favor and grace over their lives. Study and pray through Psalm 5:12; Ephesians 2:8; Luke 2:28; Acts 4:33,34; 2 Peter 1:2-4.

2. A Year Of Recompense, Reward, And Exponential Increase

The number 5 in scripture often is used to symbolize recompense, reward, and increase (see Exodus 22:1 -- Thieves must repay 5 times the value of the oxen they steal; Numbers 3:47 -- the Israelites were to reclaim their firstborn with a payment of 5 shekels each; Genesis 43:34; 45:22 -- Benjamin was honored by Joseph with 5 times more food than his brothers and 5 sets of clothing; Matthew 14:17-21 -- Jesus multiplies 5 fish to feed 5,000).
This year, many believers will be surprised with God's supernatural return on their lives for what looked like disasters in the past. Many who were "robbed" by the enemy (in 2004 and previous years) from the promised blessings of God will find a multiplied return this year if they contend for the blessing by faith. God will reward those who stand in faith, love, forgiveness, and purity.

Many Christians and ministries will enter into a season of multiplied and miraculous increase.

3. A Year Of Political Tensions And Upheavals -- Much Prayer Will Be Needed (1 Timothy 2:1-3)

2005 will require Christians to pray much for their government leaders. The enemy will continue to push his unrighteous agendas and attempt to change civic, regional, national, and even global laws to support his purposes. God will raise up many apostolic, intercessory and prophetic leaders to "stand in the gap" and encourage the Body of Christ to pray.

Prayer for government leaders will be of utmost importance in 2005. Christians must be careful not to verbally curse or judge them in their hearts, but to cry out in their prayer closet for God's righteousness and wisdom to fill government leaders.

4. Lawlessness Will Increase (Matthew 24:12-14)

We will see lawlessness increase again in 2005. Law enforcement institutions and policy makers will become overwhelmed at the intensity of crime. The church must pray for a revival of moral righteousness.

The practice of sin will also increase within the church. Intercessors must pray for the true conviction of the Spirit of God and for God to raise up a standard that will protect believers from the deceptions of the enemy.

Many, even in the church, will be calling "good evil" and "evil good." This increase of lawlessness will be a sign concerning the season of the end days. Believers must stand alert and move forward with aggressive action to preach the gospel.

A revival of the fear of the Lord and conviction of sin will begin in the house of God for those who contend for it. In these environments the presence of God will bring many to repentance.

5. A Fresh Thrust Of Evangelism And Mercy Ministry (Isaiah 61:1-3)

In 2004 there was a fresh call to the Body to go out to the harvest fields of the world. Many have responded already. In 2005, we will see floods of Christians receiving a true passion for reaching the lost. There will be an increase of training, equipping, and mobilizing.

Many believers will receive a true burden for the lost and perishing, and many in 2005 will GO! Many are going to have fresh compassion for the poor, the afflicted, and the broken. They will reach out to love, support, bless, and strengthen the weak of soul and body.

Great provision will be raised for the poor of the earth and a new missions thrust will enter the church.

6. Change For The Church (Matthew 9:17)

For a number of years, the Lord has been releasing a prophetic call concerning a new wine skin for the western church. In 2005, you will see drastic changes.

For those who have been praying and seeking the Lord regarding the transformation of the church, they will find "new blueprints" from the Spirit that will fit the call God has for their ministries and service. For those who have not prepared, they will most likely find a drastic diminishing of attendance in services, lack of commitment to programs, and a depletion of financial support.

There will not be one particular model raised up for others to follow, but the Spirit of God will direct leaders according to the will of God for their sphere of influence. Spending personal time in the presence of the Lord is the key to discerning the transition. The direction will not come from the mind of man but will be given out of friendship with the Lord as believers and leaders sit at His feet and receive counsel in His presence.

7. Kingdom Mindedness

A true perspective and understanding of the Kingdom of God is going to increase in the church in 2005. Many believers will become more "heavenly minded" in 2005 and will receive increased revelation in areas of the prophetic, heavenly experiences, and divine and angelic encounters. Colossians 3:1-3 will be a key verse for many.

8. Change In The Prophetic Movement

I have had a recurring vision of a sharp, two-edged sword over the last number of months. The Spirit revealed that this vision was in regards to the prophetic gift and movement. One side of the sword is called truth and the other side is called grace. John 1:17 came to mind:

"For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth were realized through Jesus Christ."

In the eighties and nineties, as the prophetic movement was maturing, the Lord laid a foundation of grace through the prophets. There was a beckoning through the prophetic word for believers to abide in the love, intimate presence, and precious promises of God. There was definitely a call to righteousness, but it was packaged in a wrapping of "the kindness of God leads a man to repentance."

This holy and sure foundation will continue to stand and be ministered to the Body through 2005, but there will also be the entrance of the "weighty words" that the Lord will bring to the church. There will be strong calls to repentance and righteousness. There will be words of exposure such as what Ananias and Sapphira encountered. This transition can be very dangerous if it is not properly discerned and managed.

Many disgruntled believers who were frustrated with the "lack of strong word" in this last season could possibly leap into this new season with a wrong motivation. The scripture clearly teaches that "the anger of man does not achieve the righteousness of God."

At the same time, when the weightier words come, those that were called to bring strong prophetic words of mercy, pardon, invitation to intimacy, etc. in the last season might take up offense at the strength of the call to morality, repentance, exposure, and righteousness that is about to unfold.

We must pray for peace and discernment.

In Luke 9:55,56 we find James and John wanting to call down fire from heaven on the Samaritans who wouldn't believe. Jesus rebuked them saying, "You do not know what kind of spirit you are of, for the Son of Man did not come to destroy men's lives but to save them." In the book of Revelation, we find John, who is now known as the "apostle of love," being entrusted with the weighty words to the church.

The weighty words are coming, but woe to those who attempt to achieve the righteousness of God through the anger and judgment of man. God is looking for apostles and prophets of "love" who He can trust in this season.

9. Christians Must Learn To Live In Kingdom Provision (Philippians 4:19)

Economic upheavals will visit the earth in 2005, and global financial institutions will be strategizing to build global economy. It is very important for Christians to learn to live by faith in the area of their needs. There is no shortage of provision in the Kingdom. There is bounty!

The Lord is calling the church to lay hold of supernatural provision and to keep our eyes fixed on Jesus, our Provider. God will remind the church this year that He is El Shaddai, the God of Plenty. Many who move into securing provision by faith will experience tremendous breakthroughs.

The Spirit will lead us into a new realm of securing provision as we follow Him. Keys will be given as we seek His face and the "Breaker Anointing" will operate in the area of provision. God is going to raise up faith-filled people as a standard. Blessings will come upon believers and overtake them as they stand in radical, tenacious, and persevering faith. GREAT REWARD awaits those who believe.

10. A New Generation Of Children (Isaiah 8:18)

The Lord is creating a generation of children (including those who are born in 2005) who will be extremely, spiritually sensitive; and many will carry unusual leadership abilities. We must invest time, prayer, and provision into this generation. The enemy will continue to inspire individuals to "market" the spirituality of these young people. Pray for the Lord to give insight, wisdom and counsel to His people on how to groom and disciple this coming generation.

The church MUST grow in spiritual awareness, focus, and creativity in order to reach this generation.

11. God's Media Army Emerges

The Lord is raising up a powerful company of believers who are making claim on the airwaves for the glory of the name of Jesus. This army will continue to surface and grow in 2005.

Many prophetic and apostolic ministers will be expanding their outreach to television, radio, web, and other forms of media. Many young people in their late teens through the 30's will be feeling strong calls from the Lord to get trained in media expressions.

The airwaves belong to the King of Glory (Psalm 24).

12. Miracles, Signs, And Wonders

A very strong move of miracles, signs, and wonders will become evident in 2005. Apostolic scriptures such as Matthew 10:1-8; Matthew 28:18-20; Mark 16:15-20; and Acts 1:8 will carry a fresh revelation to believers. The younger generation, in particular, will be moving powerfully in the preaching of the gospel of the Kingdom with accompanying miracles.

The healing ministry, including the ministry of creative miracles and the raising of the dead, will increase in 2005. God is calling all His people to move in these signs.

You will also begin to see women emerge (especially those born between 1960 and 1990) who are moved upon by the Spirit to move in ways such as Maria Woodworth Etter, Aimee Semple McPherson, and Kathryn Kuhlman.

May 2005 be a blessed and fruitful year for you and yours!

A Prophetic Dream

by Bill Somers

This is a dream I had during the summer of 1996.

This dream involves a warfare situation.

We, perhaps America, had been the subject of a foreign invasion. (I am familiar with prophecies that speak of America being invaded at some point so that was my impression.)

Somehow I found myself a part of the army involved in the battle. Everyone was involved since this threat was so great that all citizens automatically became soldiers. I seem to remember everyone wearing camo fatigues and carrying small arms.

As a result of the invasion we were forced to retreat in confusion. We found ourselves in unfamiliar territory, at night, and skirmishes were taking place all around. We had no idea where we were where the enemy was or what was going on.

As the day dawned we could see that we were all on the same side and a cease fire went into effect at once.

I don't know if I was an advisor or what, but I had an urgent need to get a hold of my commanding officer and pass along some critical advice. Based on my view of the situation there were three fundamental things that had to be done as soon as possible. They are:

1. establish communications.

2. unify the command.

3. take the city.

At this point, I felt I had discharged my obligation. It was now up to the commanding officer to act on these suggestions.

Afterward, the Lord showed me the interpretation. The War in question is the coming civil war in the Church.

The dawning of the day, with its cease fire marks the end of the judgment and the beginning of the blessing. It is The Revelation of Jesus Christ, much like when the Lord opened Baalam's eyes. Then he understood the situation and the danger he was in. Then he fell on his face and worshipped. Then he repented and became obedient to his Lord.

This is when we see that while we were fighting each other, we were really all on the same side. Now we would begin to fight the real enemy!

The personal part I play was in a prophetic role, helping to lead to unity in the Church.

Stringing Pearls on the Cross

by Bill Somers

Matthew 7:6 Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast ye your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rend you.

Matthew 13:45-46 Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a merchant man, seeking goodly pearls. Who, when he had found one pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had, and bought it.

Revelation 21:21 And the twelve gates [were] twelve pearls; every several gate was of one pearl: and the street of the city [was] pure gold, as it were transparent glass.

I first heard the phrase 'stringing pearls' in a teaching of Zola Levitt. It was used in the time of Jesus to describe a common method of expounding upon the scriptures practiced in the Jewish Synagogues in Galilee and Judea. A speaker would hold forth on a theme of his choice and cite verses from different parts of the Law, the Prophets and the Psalms as part of his teaching. The scriptures are compared to pearls and the train of thought that connects them is a string joining the pearls. So pearls were understood to symbolize verses of Holy Scripture.

This helps us understand Matthew 7:6 quoted above. "Neither cast ye your pearls before swine...." Here dogs and swine (unclean beasts) stand for unclean, unholy perhaps reprobate people. The intent of the verse is a warning against carelessly sharing the Word of God in dangerous circumstances. (This of course in not the same as boldly proclaiming the Gospel. The difference is in discerning, by the Holy Spirit, what to say, when to say it and who to say it to! That is to say, we cannot judge by outward appearance whether the persons we are dealing with are 'swine' or 'lost sheep'.)

Now of course to proclaim the Gospel is to share Jesus. As the pearls are the written Word of God, Jesus in the Living Word. And the merchant seeking pearls in Matthew 13:45 is willing to sell out for the Pearl of Great Price, Jesus himself!

Since we have just cited two references to pearls, we have strung two pearls! A third one is found in Revelation 21:21, the gates of pearl in the Heavenly city. In John 10.7 "...said Jesus unto them ...I am the door of the sheep". And in John 14.6 "Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me." So if Jesus is the door and Jesus is the way and if Jesus is the Pearl of Great Price, then clearly the entrance to heaven is by a gate of Pearl as seen in Rev. 21:21!

And that's what we mean by stringing pearls. Let's take another example of stringing pearls, as it relates to the word of God.

"Blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross; ...." Col 2:14

Here we have the mention of how Jesus took the handwriting of ordinances which was against us and nailed it to his cross. It's certainly not clear exactly what that means but some comparisons may help us. The ideas here include the word of God and the cross. Lets add some pearls: We preach Christ and him crucified. (1st Cor. 2:2) His name is called the Word of God. (Rev. 19:13) The word was with God and the Word was God. (John 1:1) Keep in mind that Jesus is identified with the Word of God; that he is God; that He is the Word of God; that the Word of God is God. If Jesus nailed the handwritten ordinances (the Law or the Word) to his cross it is a reference to Jesus being nailed to the cross, by Jesus. This is the paradox of God offering himself as the perfect sacrifice. ("And Abraham said, My son, God will provide himself a lamb for a burnt offering ...." Gen. 22:8) When Jesus spoke of laying down his life he said: "No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. This commandment have I received of my Father." John 10:18

Now consider the passage in John where Pilate has an inscription written: "And Pilate wrote a title, and put [it] on the cross. And the writing was, JESUS OF NAZARETH THE KING OF THE JEWS." John 19:19 Verse 20 tells us that it was written in Hebrew and Greek and Latin. Now take that and filter out the Latin (types don't have to be exact) and you have reference to a writing in Greek and Hebrew. The original texts of the Bible are in Greek and Hebrew. To say "Jesus of Nazareth, King of the Jews" is to give a short, seven word, summation of the Bible! Now note that Pilate is the author. In this context, Pilate is acting and speaking as a type of God the Father. It is he who judges Jesus, and who says "I find no fault in this man. And still it is he who requires, and gives the order for Jesus death. Next, this writing is nailed to the cross. And finally when Jesus enemies challenge Pilate on what he had done, "Pilate answered, What I have written I have written." John 19:22 Which is a reference to the immutability of the Word of God. In John 10:35 we read "... unto whom the word of God came, and the scripture cannot be broken; ...." So here is another expression of the Word and the Cross. The Word is on the Cross!

Now in another place (Matt. 22:37-40) we find Jesus being asked about the two great commandments in the Law (the Word). These are: "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with thy whole heart and soul and mind and ...." and "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself." To add these pearls to our string we must include Jesus summation. "On these two hang the whole of the Law and the Prophets." (verse 40) The first principle, to love God, forms the basis of our relationship with Him. If we are in a right relationship with the Father, we can stand upright before God. This is known as a vertical relationship. The second principle, to love our neighbor, forms the basis of our attitude toward our fellow man. If we have that attitude right, we are reaching out to our fellow man. This is the proper horizontal relationship. When you stand upright and reach out to both sides, your body takes the shape of a cross. On this cross, the right vertical and horizontal relationships, everything else depends. You can easily make a case that you need both relationships working. If one fails the other will also. There is another paradox here, not only is the Word on the cross, the word is the cross!

Now notice Jesus used the word 'hang'. "On these two 'hang' the whole of the Law and the Prophets." The Law and the Prophets are the rest of the scriptures, the pearls. The reference to the Cross here is only implied, but the use of the word 'hang' confirms this conclusion. On this cross hangs the Son of God who is the Word of God, the Pearl of Great price. And without that cross we would not be able to stand upright before God nor reach out to our lost brothers.

Prayer Harvest

Donna Chappell

Beloved Warriors:

The following prophetic word came to me on January 23. At the time, I was in a service at my home church, Bethel Assembly of God in Tampa. I thought that the word was for that church alone, and submitted it to my pastors. There was a sense of urgency about it, and I have continued to pray over it.

This was the word:

The enemy has resources tied up that are illegally held. This situation has been protracted, and some resources have been illegally held for generations. There are untold millions of dollars, as well as inheritances, buildings and land, concepts and ideas, key relationships, businesses, etc., that are included.

The next ninety days are key to releasing these things.

For the next ninety days, violent prayer must go forth in the heavenlies, calling for release. The hands of the givers have been robbed, and these resources are needed NOW for what is just ahead. The givers have a heart to give, but their hands have become empty.

It is crucial during this time that leaders stand in the gap on behalf of those who are under their stewardship. The authority of the leaders must be combined with the prayers of the givers to see the release of the resources.

The kind of prayer that must go forth is different. It can't be the spineless "If it be thy will...." prayer. It must be strong, it must be Word-based, it must be corporate, as the enemy will not willingly let go of his grip on these things. Corporate fasting will play a role in this, as the corporate anointing is needed to bring the release.

Where there have been weaknesses or missteps that have contributed to the situation, these should be repented of. HOWEVER, it is important to not dwell in regret and wallow in "if only I had not...." Move quickly beyond that, following repentance. For many, it was not iniquity that led to the seizure, but spiritual ambushments were involved. An unguarded moment, a character weakness, a false sense of security, etc., all have played a role in bringing this state about.

NOW IS THE TIME to prevail in the heavenlies. Plans are being formulated that will be fully in operation at the end of the ninety days. The window of opportunity is NOW for these things to be contended for in the heavenly realms. At the end of the ninety days, things will already be in motion.

NOW IS THE TIME FOR VIOLENT PRAYER THAT SHAKES THE HEAVENLIES AND BRINGS THE RELEASE.

Please note that there was no condemnation at all in the spirit of this word. The Lord was not chiding His people for the events that led to this.

He was saying, "Assess the situation. Ask Me for a rhema word to declare. Seek My Word for solid rock to stand on. Declare and do not stop declaring My Word over the matter. Get it done in prayer. Seize it by prayer. Fast and focus on prayer. Set aside all distractions and pray. These things must be released, but there must be strong, aggressive, authoritative prayer for their release."

All of that is pretty heavy-duty stuff. I submitted that to Berdine Vaughan, with the encouragement for the executive leadership of the church to bear down on this issue corporately.

Then I left the country.

While I was in Scotland, the Lord revealed that the word is for the entire Body of Christ, and not for Bethel only. In Scotland, a word was released that paralleled what the Lord had given to me. A seasoned English intercessor there shared that the Lord had said the following:

Now is the time to wrestle the keys to Kingdom Wealth out of the hands of the enemy.

She shared that there was a sense of growing urgency that came with that revelation. She had kept the word close, bathing it in prayer. The Lord prompted the release of the word, which, as you can see, summarizes the one I received on January 23.

There were other confirmations, too...many of them.

As my plane landed in Amsterdam from Aberdeen, Scotland, I was rushing to make my connecting flight. A beautiful airport employee was handing out pink-tinted newspapers to business travelers in the airport. She was standing in one location, offering the papers to passersby. I had no time to go out of my way to see what she was giving out, even if I was interested. I also was loaded down with luggage, coats, tickets and passports, etc. The last thing I needed was something else to carry.

The airport is huge, my next gate was very far away, and my plane was leaving in moments. The beautiful lady spotted me in the crowd of travelers, left her post, matched her steps with mine, and put the newspaper in my hands. She did not do that for anyone else. Once on the plane, I finally saw what the paper was: The International Financial Times.

After the plane took off, the gentleman on my left struck up a conversation. He looked like a magazine cover for the affluent descendants of the Vikings or something. Long story short: he is part of an elite European team that works for an international financial and real estate corporation. He handles the financial side of the European transactions for this corporation.

Is there an echo on the planet?

Hours later, the very gregarious Middle Eastern man on my right turned and began talking to me. He works for the same company, except he works in the real estate side. He franchises real estate operations for the same corporation as the gentleman on my left. He has opened multiple franchises in over 35 countries in Europe, North America and the Middle East. His father was the only non-Muslim military general in his nation of origin. His mother is Mediterranean. He was born in Canada. They have business interests all over the world.

They are ridiculously wealthy. He began offering me unsolicited financial advice. I was listening from head-to-toe. There are tons of people who would have paid big money to hear what this man had to say. He was offering it to me because the Lord had pushed his "ON" switch, that released the overflow of his kind heart.

The two men were on their way to the same conference in Orlando. They did not know one another. I was seated between them by the Lord, Who wanted me to hear His echo in stereo for almost nine hours.

The European man is very, very lost spiritually. He knows it. He told me. Science and psychology are the gods he serves. He was elegant, articulate, fluent in several languages, accomplished, and successful. And lost. We got into a lively discussion of the role of faith in the manifestation of spiritual healing. Of course, his spirituality and mine were worlds apart.

The Middle Eastern man is a Coptic/Orthodox Christian. How confusing is that He showed me this gold amulet he wears...the thing is big enough to choke a horse. It had the ankh ("It is the ancient 'key of life' symbol that has been used for centuries!")

Yep. And it's also a well-recognized occult symbol, my friend.

"And this symbol is the ancient memorial to deceased loved ones, well known throughout the ages."

...And that would be an obelisk where I come from, home boy. I did not engage him in a deep theological discussion of the occult implications of the various symbols on the amulet. The Lord was showing me what I needed to see -- that this incredibly wealthy man had some heavy deception going on. My job is to watch and pray. And I could feel the activation of my anointing to shut up, while I watch and pray. Someone will uncover the true meanings behind the areas of deception for this precious man. But that was not my job, and that was not my day. The Lord was showing me key things that related to the word He had entrusted to me on January 23.

Ninety days from January 23 will bring us to April 16. Hmmm....that would bring us to the day after federal income tax day, April 15, here in the United States. Hmmm....

What is the Lord doing?

I believe He is underscoring, italicizing, asterisking, and highlighting the urgency of the moment we are in spiritually. This is not something to trifle with, but to go after with great intensity.

I am praying not only for my family, but for those associated with Prayer Harvest. And for those associated with the Days of Refreshing. And for those who will be stepping up to the plate, carrying the re-captured spoils from the enemy. That will be strategic in advancing the Kingdom.

These resources are Kingdom resources. They are not meant to only increase our comfort and luxury. They are necessary for the harvest ingathering. We don't have the luxury of NOT apprehending what belongs to us for the task at hand. We WILL apprehend these things. We WILL prevail. The same Lord Who has issued this urgent call has guaranteed by His shed blood that we war from a position of accomplished victory.

Please be sure to send in your victory reports, Fearless Servants. And when you have apprehended what is assigned to you, don't stop contending. War for those who are still in the process. Where we're going, we're going together. And that's the fun part of the journey....

For His harvest,

Two Trumpets

In a vision I see two shofars. The first one has Ezekiel 37 written on it and as it sounds, it is calling the Lord's army to awaken from their slumber. From North, South, East and West he is gathering his army of men, women, boys and girls, and calling them to awaken. He is drawing them from the four corners of this country to be united together to receive a strategy to overcome the enemy from the Chief Strategist, Jesus himself.

A second shofar is then blown and its high pitched piercing sound is calling his people to war. And I hear the Lord saying fear not. As I said to My servant Joshua, so I say unto you, be strong and courageous. Do not fear the war that is before you, for I have anointed your hands for war and your fingers for battle. (Psa 144:1)

A Call To War

There is a war going on in the heavenlies between the armies of heaven and the armies of darkness. God is calling his people to violent praise and intercessory prayers. God is calling his people to begin to pray unusual prayers of faith. Decree that every stronghold is broken. God is calling us to violent praise. This means to praise him even when we feel that there is so much opposition, for that will be a sign that you are nearing breakthrough. The Word of the Lord to his people in this land is Don't give up. Continue to prophesy and decree the downfall of every unrighteous foundation and structure in the land and call down by faith the anointing that breaks the yoke (Isa 10:27).

There will be an unusual sign in the heavens of rain falling at unusual times, even during the summer months. As we pray for this nation and its leadership, it will be a sign of breakthrough and the Lord bringing the former and latter rain in its fullness (Jer 5:24). God is sounding his trumpets to awaken his people and calling his people to earnest prayer for the nation.

This is a time of grace and a time when he is releasing an open heaven over his saints so that they will receive direction on how to pray. I believe the Lord wants us to be bold with our prayers, as the word says that the Kingdom of God suffers violence, and it is the violent that take it by force (Matt 11:12). Let us boldly come come before the throne of grace and ask him for this nation.

Harvest for Souls

There is a turning of the tide and I believe there is a great harvest of souls in this land waiting to hear the message of Christ. I believe there is a mindset of self-consciousness that the Lord would want to break over his people. The Lord wants us to be radical for him, and by that I don't mean to just get out of control, but a boldness to share Jesus message of salvation freely knowing that some might reject this message. The Lord will give us wisdom in leading us to those who we are to minister to, because there are some who are not ready to hear the message of Christ's death and resurrection, and so we are admonished to be careful not to "cast your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet" (Matt 7:6)

Prayer Covering against Terrorism

The Lord is calling his people his people to pray for a covering of the blood of Jesus over the borders of the nation, because there is a big wave of terrorism planned and meant for this nation, yet I hear him saying If only My people would prayer. Prayer will change the course of events and all plans and operations of terrorism will be averted if we continue to pray.

Harvest for Muslims

There is also coming a great harvest for Muslims into the Kingdom of God that is going to happen here in the UK. There is a special grace for Muslims and so I hear the Lord say don't be surprised to see Muslims unusual open to hear the Gospel. At this time it is very easy to judge muslims and to label the word 'terrorist' on them, yet the war we are up against is not against flesh and blood, but "against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this age, against spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly places" (Eph 6:12), which in this case is the spirit of Islam behind it. I prophesy the fall of the spirit of Islam in this nation says the Lord.

Marketplace anointing being released

There is a marketplace anointing on this land. I hear the Lord say I am going to move out of the four walls of the church and into the businesses and offices, into the supermarkets and into the retail outlets. I am calling My people, those that are willing, to be vessels of light in these areas. I am breaking the confines that people have placed Me under and reaching those that were previously unreachable.

A Garment of Praise

There is a garment of praise that is being placed over this nation. I believe the Lord is releasing new sounds in the heavenlies that will shake this nation to the core. I hear the Lord saying My people do not realise the value and strength of their praise, but as they open their mouths I will fill it with My praises says the Lord. It was praise that brought the walls of Jericho down. Praise sends the armies of darkness into confusion, and so as we praise, the enemy shall be sent into confusion.

Know who your true enemy is

I believe this is a warning from the Lord against seeds of division that are being sown by the enemy, satan, in order to distract us and throw us off course. The Lord is calling us to unity in our walk with him (Amos 3:3). Why is he sowing division? "Though one may be overpowered by another, two can withstand him. And a threefold cord is not quickly broken." (Eccl 4:12) He knows that as we stand in unity, we are a much stronger force against him and together in our prayers and our praise there isn't much that he can do. Let us stand together as one Body in Christ. A new day is dawning for the U.K. From the four corners of this nation the Lord is drawing us together to seek him and worship him in spirit and in truth. A day in which his promises for us shall come to pass, for they are indeed yes, and in Him amen (2 Cor 1:20)

Blessings,

England:

Replacing Religion with Relationship

I heard the Lord say I will replace religion with relationship. No longer shall My English people worship a God that seems afar off but one whom they have come to know intimately.

I believe the Lord is releasing this country as a whole from traditions of the past and going through the rituals of the past and that he is releasing a new form of intimacy. A new river of healing shall flow through the hearts of My people says the Lord that shall break the ice over the hearts of men. Out of this shall burst forth a new revelation about what true intimacy with God is really like.

There is a level of intimacy that Adam and Eve experienced in the garden of eden that has been for the most part lost to mankind, but I feel the Lord will revive that in England. I hear the Lord saying England shall return to her first love (Rev 2:4-5). The Lord also showed me that he is releasing a special anointing of intimacy especially with the men. Ladies you are not exempt from this, but men on the whole are lot more resistant to intimacy with Christ than women are.

To you men who have been resistant to My intimacy the Lord says too late. I say too late because the river of My presence shall hit you in such a way that your hearts shall give in to a new and deeper depth of a relationship with your God.

Abandoned Churches becoming places of revival.

Around England you will find a lot of pre 1st World War built churches, some dating back centuries before. Most of them either have very little attendance while some have been abandoned altogether or turned into museums. I sense that the Lord will once again use these places as centers of revival where miracle and repentance meetings will be held once again as in the times of the old revivals.

I hear the Lord say, Lazarus shall be woken up. Those churches that you see empty or abandoned shall once again facilitate an ushering of My presence and My Glory.

Vision of the Olive Tree

I saw an olive tree standing in the midst of an olive grove. Among the branches were olives which started letting out oil that seeped through the branches and onto the tree trunk. Before this the tree looked old, almost withered and without life. I sensed in my spirit that the Lord is pouring out his oil upon the church in England. This oil (anointing) has been stifled and held back for a long time, and this in many ways has prevented the Body from experiencing times of refreshing in many places.
A fresh anointing is coming says the Lord. My people have prayed and the barriers have been broken, and now My Spirit shall flow in full measure.

Psalm 1: A Call to Holiness and Godly counsel

The Lord is speaking Psalm 1 over this nation in a call to righteous living. Although this applies to the nation as a whole, I feel he is speaking particularly to walk in holiness before the Lord. If we as a church are not walking in his ways, then how else will the nation be turned to God?
The Lord says people will no longer see hypocrites in My people but transparent people burning with My fire and the uncompromising word of God. I will have a people after My own heart.

A New Sound of Praise

I heard the Lord say I will anoint the music industry. Even now I am sending musicians who will bring forth a new sound from heaven that will captivate even the secular media. God is going to move with music in such a way that some Christian songs released will go to number one in the secular charts. God is looking for those who will say yes, those who will open their mouths and allow Him to fill them with his praises.
I am going to take the music industry by storm, says the Lord.

Scotland: A Nation of Bravehearts

God is going to anoint Scotland for prayer. The Lord is releasing a strong mantle of prophetic intercession in Scotland. He is going to raise up prayer groups that are going to be radical with prayer. Faith will arise to believe God for the impossible. Scotland is going to come to a revelation of what true Spiritual warfare is.

Truly the prayers of a righteous people shall avail much in this land says the Lord. For I am raising up a band of faith warriors whose prayers shall release My will into the heavenlies and into the atmosphere. There is a new sound coming out of Scotland says the Lord. It is a sound of war, but indeed My people in Scotland shall be victorious as they continue to put their faith and trust in Me.

Wales: My Fire shall move quickly

During the industrial revolution here in the UK and into the mid 20th century, Wales thrived in the coal industry (coal mining and coal being used to power the then steam machinery). But this industry has since seen decline mainly because better more efficient substitutes have emerged and the fact that there isn't that much coal left as before.

In a vision the Lord showed me Wales covered with coal that was glowing red. A fire then swept through the coal igniting more fires until Wales was literally ON FIRE. I heard the Lord say I am blowing My winds over Wales. My fire shall sweep across Wales again as it did in the earlier revival period. Nothing and noe one shall be able to stand against this fire. Because I am consuming Wales once again with My Glory.

Coals on Lips

The Lord showed me that he was visiting many of His Welsh people and touching their lips with the coals of heaven as it was in Isaiah 6: 6-7. This is symbolic for a strong spirit of prophecy that shall come upon the Welsh people.
The Lord says I will anoint your lips to speak My Word boldly. I am giving Wales a new authority of tearing down strongholds and building up the Kingdom of God. Speak forth that it is indeed a time of release. The chains shall fall off, the scales shall fall from My peoples as they see My anointing and Christ in you.

Liquid Gold

I saw the Lord pour liquid gold over Wales that spread to her neighbours and to the nations of the earth. He is pouring out a great measure of glory upon Wales such that this fire shall spread to the nations of the earth.

Northern Ireland: Your walls are coming down

The Lord says Northern Ireland your walls are coming down. Not only are the walls that you have erected against Me going to fall, but the walls you have erected against each other too shall fall. The Lord showed me a stone wall that stood between the Pentecostal and Roman Catholic communities that brought the separation which in the natural we see as the conflict between both groups. I saw the Lords hand bring the wall down and both groups come to a reconciliation. They came to a place of seeing Christ through the same eyes.
Great reformation is coming to Northern Ireland.

ITEMS FOR PRAYER

The Lord brought to my spirit two issues that I have felt the need for a lot of prayer. When I asked the Lord about them, he simply said "Pray". Maybe the Lord has revealed other bits and specifics to more people. It would be encouraging as we all only see in part.
The first was the stock market. I feel in my spirit that a shaking is coming to it. The Lord just placed a strong urge to pray concerning this area.
The second was the upcoming elections. They are already tense with Tony Blair being seemingly unpopular at the moment because of his involvement with George Bush over the Iraq war and other issues like that.
As I said, they are just urgings that the Holy Spirit brought to pray for. May God give us revelation and open our eyes further to what he is doing so that we can pray,

Many blessing abundant in Christ,

People In Bondage

Vera Csada

Hi, I was thinking about a recent sermon that was preached about how sin causes suffering. The preacher prayed for those that wanted prayer afterwards. I was very upset as he never even hinted that suffering isn't always caused by sin! That was over a month ago now, and I couldn't stop thinking about it.

Now, I realize that this is the kind of sermon is used by the enemy to keep people who are suffering in bondage. It will keep people from getting victory in their spiritual lives because they will always think that they are not good enough. It keeps them bound to 'the church' and I think that this is a scheme from our adversary the devil that preachers use and think that it is alright.

I also believe that there are many other sermons leaders preach that only give half truths in order to keep the people in subjection to themselves and the church, and to keep them downtrodden, and trusting in men rather than trusting in the Lord.

Can you see what confusion this simple little omission can cause with people who are suffering, and how it can heap more suffering upon those that are already suffering? Also it will cause those that are not suffering to have disdain for anyone who is suffering! No wonder we don't see any compassion in the church! No wonder the leadership can get away with taking all of the ministry unto themselves as if they are the only great heroes that can do it!

Then they will brag about it.. they tell how they are going to be serving the Lord in ministry until they get taken home. This has caused some that know that God has called them into ministry to be bound and suffering at the hands of those that are in ministry. Too many times I have seen how no one else can do anything spiritual in ministry around these who are the ones in leadership. Have you ever heard of someone saying that if they can't do anything for the Lord they may as well just die? There have been many ways of the church that have kept people in bondage, while leadership manifests themselves as the "saviors" of the people!

The leadership proclaims to be the covering of all of the people, and without this 'covering' they have no right of passage to minister! Do you think that God may not be very well pleased with these leaders? How do you think that these leaders would react to Jesus coming and overturning some tables!?

I believe that they many would react the same way the chief priests did in that day! They asked Jesus, 'by what authority do you do these things?'

Priscilla Van Sutphin

May 7th, 2005

"Justice and mercy are the foundation of My throne! Righteousness and TRUTH have kissed each other. I am releasing and I am increasing.

I am preserving TRUTH in the inner parts of men and women who have paid the cost and been willing in their hearts, if not in their flesh to die to self.

There is no other path but the narrow path to walk on, if you want eternal life. The gate is wide that leads to destruction. There is only one Way that leads to life. The soul that seeks to save his life will lose it.

Matt 7:13-14 AMP

13 Enter through the narrow gate; for wide is the gate and spacious and broad is the way that leads away to destruction, and many are those who are entering through it. 14 But the gate is narrow (contracted by pressure) and the way is straitened and compressed that leads away to life, and few are those who find it. [Deut 30:19; Jer 21:8.]

Matt 16:25-27 NKJV For whoever desires to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake will find it. 26 For what profit is it to a man if he gains the whole world, and loses his own soul? Or what will a man give in exchange for his soul?

The fruits of righteousness are sown in peace by those who make peace.

They are not sown by those who hold grudges, by those who hold bitterness and suspicion in their hearts. You cannot be a peacemaker and hold grudges.

You cannot be a peacemaker and have vengeance in your heart. Your heart must be FREE of all unforgiveness. Forgive one another as I HAVE FORGIVEN YOU and granted you mercy and grace! Is there anything I have not forgiven you? Then why do you hold ought against your brother and sister? Forgiveness is a process, but it starts with obedience to forgive. I will help the heart that is willing to change. But the heart that seeks it's own way will be given over to delusion that person insists to go in rebellion away from Me and My ways.

James 3:17-18 NKJV But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, willing to yield, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality and without hypocrisy. 18 Now the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace by those who make peace.

The hour is nigh when the times will test men's souls and will test what kind of soldier you have become. My heart is bent on harvest and I will soon come and deliver you from the bondages and sins that have easily beset you or that you have been unable to overcome though your heart has desired it. I will always bless the heart that is set on pilgrimage – the one who is desirous for more of ME. I long for you to have all that I have for you. But if I were to give it without your being prepared, it would be spoiled and pride would contaminate that gift. I am not willing that you should perish in being overtaken by the evil one. I desire you to come to the fullness of the knowledge of My love so that you can be filled to the brim with the very fullness of My presence! Those who desire their OWN WAY but have been hindered by the enemy will even be turned around. But those whose desire is soley for wickedness and self preservation will be given over to delusion and deception."

Rom 1:25-31 AMP Because they exchanged the truth of God for a lie and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator, Who is blessed forever! Amen (so be it). [Jer 2:11.] 26 For this reason God gave them over and abandoned them to vile affections and degrading passions. For their women exchanged their natural function for an unnatural and abnormal one, 27 And the men also turned from natural relations with women and were set ablaze (burning out, consumed) with lust for one another--men committing shameful acts with men and suffering in their own bodies and personalities the inevitable consequences and penalty of their wrong-doing and going astray, which was [their] fitting retribution.

28 And so, since they did not see fit to acknowledge God or approve of Him or consider Him worth the knowing, God gave them over to a base and condemned mind to do things not proper or decent but loathsome,

29 Until they were filled (permeated and saturated) with every kind of unrighteousness, iniquity, grasping and covetous greed, and malice. [They were] full of envy and jealousy, murder, strife, deceit and treachery, ill will and cruel ways. [They were] secret backbiters and gossipers,

30 Slanderers, hateful to and hating God, full of insolence, arrogance, [and] boasting; inventors of new forms of evil, disobedient and undutiful to parents. 31 [They were] without understanding, conscienceless and faithless, heartless and loveless [and] merciless.

"For even now lawlessness arises, as men have become lovers of themselves instead of lovers of GOD. Rebellion has risen to unbelievable heights in men desiring to clone human beings, despising My laws , and hateful towards My ordinances. They have taken upon themselves to do whatever they want, and their minds have become corrupt as in the times of Noah. They purpose to build a Babel of their own making, and to usurp the power that belongs to the ALMIGHTY alone!"

2 Tim 3:1-5 AMP BUT UNDERSTAND this, that in the last days will come (set in) perilous times of great stress and trouble [hard to deal with and hard to bear]. 2 For people will be lovers of self and [utterly] self-centered, lovers of money and aroused by an inordinate [greedy] desire for wealth, proud and arrogant and contemptuous boasters. They will be abusive (blasphemous, scoffing), disobedient to parents, ungrateful, unholy and profane.

3 [They will be] without natural [human] affection (callous and inhuman), relentless (admitting of no truce or appeasement); [they will be] slanderers (false accusers, troublemakers), intemperate and loose in morals and conduct, uncontrolled and fierce, haters of good.

4 [They will be] treacherous [betrayers], rash, [and] inflated with self-conceit. [They will be] lovers of sensual pleasures and vain amusements more than and rather than lovers of God.

5 For [although] they hold a form of piety (true religion), they deny and reject and are strangers to the power of it [their conduct belies the genuineness of their profession]. Avoid [all] such people [turn away from them].

"Because of this and My love for you, My beloveds, I will do a great and mighty thing on your behalf! I will prepare you for the times ahead and I have been preparing you in many ways. Wisdom will be the treasure of these times. Understanding will be poured out as never before. TRUTH will be your shield and buckler. LOVE will be poured into you that is pure and holy.

My love and MY glory will be poured out as never before. YOU will not be as you have been. I AM DOING A NEW THING! Eye has not seen, nor ear heard what God has prepared for those who love Him. Believe me, though evil men wax stronger and more plentiful, I have preserved a remnant that will do MY WILL ALONE! You will march together without breaking ranks!

You will work together and love one another as I have loved you. Those who prefer the darkness will not comprehend it. I have chosen you before the foundations of the earth to do what I have desired. I knew who would say yes and who would in their hearts be willing. And in fact I have put that desire to the test in many ways. You will soon experience what your hearts have longed for and you will be set on a new course."

Dan 12:4 AMP But you, O Daniel, shut up the words and seal the Book until the time of the end. [Then] many shall run to and fro and search anxiously [through the Book], and knowledge [of God's purposes as revealed by His prophets] shall be increased and become great. [Amos 8:12.]

Isa 60:1-5 AMP ARISE [from the depression and prostration in which circumstances have kept you--rise to a new life]! Shine (be radiant with the glory of the Lord), for your light has come, and the glory of the Lord has risen upon you! [Zech 8:23.]

2 For behold, darkness shall cover the earth, and dense darkness [all] peoples, but the Lord shall arise upon you [O Jerusalem], and His glory shall be seen on you. [Isa 60:19-22; Mal 4:2; Rev 21:2,3.]

3 And nations shall come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your rising. [Isa 2:2,3; Jer 3:17.]

4 Lift up your eyes round about you and see! They all gather themselves together, they come to you. Your sons shall come from afar, and your daughters shall be carried and nursed in the arms.

5 Then you shall see and be radiant, and your heart shall thrill and tremble with joy [at the glorious deliverance] and be enlarged; because the abundant wealth of the [Dead] Sea shall be turned to you, unto you shall the nations come with their treasures. [Ps 119:32.]

" Those who are partners in crime and wicked in their hearts will be exposed! Those who are wolves in sheeps clothing will be seen for who they are! You will trample the wicked in this hour. The enemy will become your footstool as I catapult you into greater vision, understanding and authority! The Son will arise with healing in HIS WINGS!"

Mal 4:1-3 AMP FOR BEHOLD, the day comes that shall burn like an oven, and all the proud and arrogant, yes, and all that do wickedly and are lawless, shall be stubble; the day that comes shall burn them up, says the Lord of hosts, so that it will leave them neither root nor branch. [Isa 5:21-25; Matt 3:12.]

2 But unto you who revere and worshipfully fear My name shall the Sun of Righteousness arise with healing in His wings and His beams, and you shall go forth and gambol like calves [released] from the stall and leap for joy.

3 And you shall tread down the lawless and wicked, for they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet in the day that I shall do this, says the Lord of hosts.

A Mother’s Love
Priscilla Van Sutphin

May 7th, 2005

“I am a good Father Who gives good gifts to His children. I nurture and I admonish. I give and I take away. I love and give affection and I chastise to let you know when you have transgressed. I am a GOOD FATHER. I AM a good mother as well. I am EL SHADDAI, the mother-father God, and I am not absent of emotions for those I love. I feel the pain and hurts you endure. I feel the rejection and persecution you endure. My heart LONGS to heal you more than you want to be healed.

I am building confidence in My BRIDE in your ability to understand My love and grace for you! I am not a harsh and abusive father. I am LOVE. My love NEVER FAILS! I love My children and nothing in this world or in the heavens, nor under the earth can separate you from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus! NOTHING! NOTHING! NOTHING can separate you from ME!

There is so much defensive pride in the body of Christ. It is there because you don’t understand the glorious power of My love nor the fullness of the power of the CROSS. You don’t understand My GRACE to the extent you need to know it! But I am REVEALING! I am RELEASING UNDERSTANDING, and WISDOM, and KNOWLEDGE and REVELATION of My love and grace to you! I am releasing you from the blockages that have kept you in bondage to lies of the enemy! I am restoring My church , My bride. But this will bring great division between who is truly MINE, and who follows after self and the enemy.

I will utterly destroy all selfishness and self will in the days ahead with the power of My love and grace. I will TRANSFORM the CHURCH and I will change completely the heart attitudes of many peoples. At the same time there will continue a harlot church that will compromise and lay down to the gods of the world. Do not think it strange My children, for I have told you beforehand all these things. As I ARISE to change things, there will be a falling away of those who retreat in FEAR of what I do now. But those who love me will arise with healing in their hearts, and the power of the CROSS to endure all hardship that will eventually come. Keep YOUR EYES ON ME!
Know that I AM WITH YOU TILL THE END OF ALL TIME! That time is growing shorter and shorter. ESCALATION has begun and your hearts will hurt to see all that I must do to restore the ancient foundations of GRACE and MERCY and HOLINESS. I AM PURIFYING and I AM RESTORING.

I am releasing suddenlies. I am releasing miracles and signs and wonders in the earth and in the heavens. You will be amazed and your hearts will leap with joy as I step down to take the side of My bride!

Being a mother is a great and awesome responsibility. It brings new growth in the walk of life, and it brings great blessings. I am so wanting to bless all women who suffer under difficult situations, yet their hearts are tuned in to ME, and they try with all their might to follow My will. There is great blessing in being a mother. And there is great blessing in honoring mothers.
Remember that I AM is Mother-Father also and will always hold you in My arms whenever you need for me to do so. I am HERE FOR YOU ALWAYS!
My love and mercy endure forever!”

Isa 49:15-16 NKJV "Can a woman forget her nursing child, And not have compassion on the son of her womb? Surely they may forget, Yet I will not forget you. 16 See, I have inscribed you on the palms of My hands; Your walls are continually before Me.

Isa 66:13-16 NKJV As one whom his mother comforts, So I will comfort you; And you shall be comforted in Jerusalem."
14 - The Reign and Indignation of God
When you see this, your heart shall rejoice, And your bones shall flourish like grass; The hand of the LORD shall be known to His servants, And His indignation to His enemies. 15 For behold, the LORD will come with fire And with His chariots, like a whirlwind, To render His anger with fury, And His rebuke with flames of fire. 16 For by fire and by His sword The LORD will judge all flesh; And the slain of the LORD shall be many.

Transition to a Bigger Picture

by Bill Somers

At the recent Missions Conference held at our local Church, I was allowed to make a presentation to the Missions Director; and to speak a word of prophecy to go with it.
What I presented was a large print of the painting "Threshing Wheat" by Thomas Hart Benton. Up to that point the missions office had only one harvest painting on their wall. The picture I was giving them would be the second. As I presented them with this print I had the missions pastor hold up the new picture and his wife hold up the old one, side by side for comparison.
I had written out some of this prophecy but when the time came to give it, the Lord had given me something else. The written version presented here is a combination of both.

A prophetic comparison of the harvesting paintings.

The first painting shows three people bending down and picking up stalks of wheat off the ground. The area they work in is relatively small. They can only gather as much as they themselves can carry.

The second painting shows teams of men with wagons, trucks and machinery working in vast open fields. They are harvesting and processing great wagon loads of wheat. The second picture also is a good deal larger than the first.

The prophetic element is the comparison of the two paintings. They are the before and the after.

For the Lord would say to his pastors and missionaries; to the local and the world wide ministries: You are now called to a bigger picture! Behold you are called to have a greater vision, you are called to greater fields, you are called to greater mobilization, you are called to greater authority, you are called to greater activity, you are called to a GREATER HARVEST.. You are called into my end time harvest.

This is not just a little bit bigger; this is not just bumping it up 5 or 10 percent, this is not just a doubling or even a tripling. This is WAY GREATER! This is way greater than you can even figure.

For there is a transition coming upon my Church, and it is already begun. Some are calling it a reformation, some speak of repentance, some call it revival, I call it a Redemption. Some will see it as a collapse, a calamity or a civil war. Some will see it as a scourging and a shaking. It is Judgment beginning at the House of God. Yet my judgments are redemptive, remember that the Seat of Judgment is also the Throne of Grace. As my word says Zion shall be redeemed with Judgment and her converts with Righteousness. The Lord of the Harvest must first be Lord of the laborers. When Joel's army is finished, Gideon's army will march.

So this transition will redeem my Church and enable her to bring in my harvest of converts. The difference will be like night and day, it will be like death and life, it will be like these two pictures.

These pictures are the before and after. The key difference is that the people in the second picture are using power. There is a large plume of black smoke coming from the threshing machine. Where there is smoke, there if FIRE, And where there is FIRE there is POWER!

For I am sending down the FIRE and You shall have my POWER!

Before you were like a car stuck in first gear
After you will pull out on the open road and put the hammer down.

Before you were just getting off the runway,
After you will pull back on the stick and light off the after burner like a Navy Blue Angel on takeoff.

Before you were like a Star Trek ship putzing along on impulse power,
After you will take it up to Warp 10!

Before you gleaned handfuls,
After you will harvest wagon loads.

Before you sent out a few workers, like scouts or skirmishers,
After you will mobilize entire divisions.

Before your people did pretty much the same identical tasks,
After they will operate in the unique ministries and roles I have created them for.

Before you operated in natural strength like the people in the first picture can only gather what they can carry themselves,
After you will be born of the spirit, move in supernatural power Like the people in the second picture have trucks, wagons and machines to allow them to do more than their own human strength would allow, so you will operate in supernatural grace and strength. You will move in my Power!

Before you had short visits, and blessings and moves of my spirit,
After I will pour out my spirit without measure. I will dwell among you on an ongoing basis. And you shall see the whole earth filled with my glory.

Up to now, I have called you to fields that were open; to places where people were hungry for the gospel. Now I am calling you to places that are not open; where there is no hunger for the gospel; where they are even taught to reject the name of Jesus from childhood. To bring in my harvest from these fields will take my Power. The Power that I am about to give to my Church.

All through history, the adversary has erected walls. Walls intended to keep my people out and my spirit from moving. But I say unto you. That they are only walls. They will fall in due time. The walls of Jericho were only walls, when the time came they fell. The Berlin wall was just a wall, it fell. The wall of China is falling even now. The walls of Mecca will fall shortly. The walls of the strongholds of Buddha, Krishna and Allah that keep the gospel from penetrating the 10-40 window will fall soon. But first the walls that separate my people one from another will fall. Then you will see the fire and walk in my Power

Peace In The Storm

Betty Heimbach

“My Children,

“Be encouraged. I have not forsaken you, nor taken My watchful eye from you. You are Mine. You are precious to Me. Your life is precious to Me. My hand is upon your life. My hand is on you, to guide you, to care for you, to shelter you in every storm.

“You know My voice. Listen to me. For I do have some things I want to speak to you. Do not allow fear and concern to distract you. Do not allow the lies of the enemy to fill your mind so that you are not listening for My voice.

“I am walking in the center of your storm with you. Hold on. Hold on to Me. Hold on to My word. Hold on to your faith. Hold to My hand. Hold on.

“Do not allow the enemy to torment you with thoughts of impending disaster. Have I not clearly spoken to you in days gone by? Have I not given you warning of things to come? Is My voice now silenced? Can I no longer speak? Yes, I can and I do speak to you now. I am giving you My words of direction, of instruction, of warning and of comfort.

“Receive comfort and reassurance now, My child. Receive peace and rest – now. I am able to speak to you. My voice is still strong. Do not listen to the lies and accusations of the enemy. The best is yet to come. You have not seen the fullness of My plan for you yet. There is more, much more. Yes, truly the best is yet to come.

"Do not accept discouragement. Do not accept defeat. Do not accept limitations. For you will see the fulfillment of My promises to you, if you will but listen to My voice and follow My guidance.

“Yes there are some changes ahead. There are changes coming. Some you will have to make. Some choices you will need to make to bring about the change that is needed. Some changes will come without your participation. They will come as waves of the sea flow in unbidden – but unstoppable. But they will not overwhelm you as you rest in Me.

“Listen to me and follow My plan. Follow My guidance. And the things I’ve already begun to speak to you follow through on – carry it through to fruition. Make a wholehearted commitment to change what needs to be changed. Then through discipline and faithfulness continue in your new course of action. Be quick to hear and quick to obey. Be faithful in your diligence to continue in it.

“You are Mine. Your life is in My hands – My capable hands. Yield yourself completely to me. Do a greater work of crucifixion of self and the self-life. No longer yield to habits and ways of old. Put to death all that wars against the new course you must now take. Follow through by rising up in the spirit over your flesh and you will see victory.

“You are Mine. My loving care covers this storm, this trial and any storm to come. I am in the storm with you. You are Mine and you are precious to Me.”

Perfect Love Casts Out Fear

Yolanda Ballard

Aug 23, 2005

Brought forth as a bible study from the passage 1 John 4:17-21
By Yolanda Ballard (roarnworship@netzero.net)

We are God's children, and He sent His Son to die in our place to pay the penalty of our sins which was death. Jesus is our ultimate example of perfect love personified. Fear has torment, and we have been delivered of this bondage, because Jesus has set us free from the Curse of the Law. We now can have peace with the Father and know in our heart that our life is in His hands and that He is in total control of all that we face daily.

Because He first loved us, we are now able to love Him and share His love with others. We have the assurance that as He is in the world, so are we. We are the followers of the Lord Jesus Christ, born-again believers of the Gospel, and we are to shine as lights in this kingdom of darkness. Put on the Armor of Light and burn brightly as the noonday sun, and blind the enemy with the glory of God which is Jesus, the radiance of the Father.

Pull down the strongholds over the land, and join ranks in unity, and stay focused on the vision of God. There are many more who are with us than those who are not. So, stand firm on the promises of God. Waver not in unbelief. And rejoice for the Kingdom of God is at hand, and all of God's promises are yes and Amen for you! Halleluia!

Read verses 17-18. - Made Secure in Him

Because Christ died for us and we have received Him into our heart, we have the assurance that we have peace with the Father and have escaped His wrath. When once we were enemies of God, now we are His friends. The Father no longer sees the sin upon our life but sees the purity of His Son's blood upon us. Love has been perfected among us in that God gave His only begotten Son, and whosoever believes in Him shall not perish but shall have everlasting life.

Because of the grace of God, we have boldness in the day of judgment. And because we are now in Christ and are no longer enemies of God, we have the same stand as Christ before the Father, and before the powers and principalities of the enemy, and before those of the world. So, we should walk in boldness, and take our authority in the name of Jesus, and know assured that whatsoever we say believing we shall have. Because we have the love of Christ in us, we are to have no fear but the knowledge that God will protect us and take care of us always.

Read verse 19 - Because of His Love

Because of the mercy and grace of God, we were drawn into His presence. And by the wooing of His Spirit and His tender loving-kindness and patience, He kept His hand on our life even though we were lost. He knew us before the foundation of the earth, and everything that we had faced in life had the sole purpose of bringing us into the Kingdom of God where we would respond to His love. Because He first loved us, we are able to love Him and share His love with others, but this is a growing process. As we grow closer to Him in intimacy, He is able to heal our heart of the hurts we had experienced and is able to strengthen us where we are free to stand bold and unwavering in Him.

Read verses 20-21 - To Press in for Unity

Those who have truly been with the Father in an intimate relationship have experienced His love more deeply and are able to overcome and spread His love to others. But those who are easily offended and are tempted to become self-centered and inconsiderate just show that they have given into having a carnal lifestyle. You only reap the fruit of the one you spend the most time with. We are to manifest the character of Christ by spending time with Him. Otherwise, we manifest the character of our enemy or of our carnal nature and the world.

Satan is out to steal, kill, and destroy and that is of our testimony as a Christian. We are to be aware of the enemy's tactics to try to snare us. He uses complacency, the allurements of the world, vanity, and many other distractions to try to keep us from coming into the presence of the Lord. As we draw close to the Lord in our times of devotion to Him, we are becoming more like Him allowing Him to love through us. We cannot do it in our own strength, so we need not try. Just by being yielded vessels of His glory are we able to unite as the Army of God to draw in the lost.

Keep your eyes focused on the vision that God has given you and not become sidetracked by the purposes of the world. Be Kingdom-minded always, destined to spread the Gospel of Christ, and live the crucified life. God by His grace will complete His work in us.

Final Word - Because of the love and grace of God, we are now free and are in Christ today and are in the position where we can stand strong against the enemy. The battle is the Lord's, and the key to walking in His victory lies in the time that we spend quiet and still before Him basking in His presence. Remember, we become like the one we spend the most time with!

Powerful Love Changing The World

Ron McGatlin

ronmcgatlin@earthlink.net

The most powerful motivational force known to man is love. Fear is a powerful motivator but love over powers fear and casts it away. Hatred and revenge are passionate motivators and they along with greed, desperate need, lust, covetousness and pride drive men's actions but mature love overpowers them all.

1 John 4:18 There is no fear in love; but perfect love casts out fear, because fear involves torment. But he who fears has not been made perfect in love.
The word translated "perfect" here means "complete or mature".

Transformation of cities begins with personal transformation. Complete or mature love in men's hearts casts out all fear and pride destroying evil motivations and desires. Purity and holiness are released into the life through mature love. This result is transformation to calm powerful holy boldness to live as Christ is in the world.

1 John 4:17 Love has been perfected among us in this: that we may have boldness in the day of judgment; because as He is, so are we in this world.

We are now witnessing the beginnings of the most powerful stage of transition that the world has ever known. The most powerful force for transformation is coming forth into the reality of the world. Many are coming into the experience of abiding in the love of God - in love with God. Religion and every other passionate motivator is being dissolved in the hearts and lives of those maturing into the love of God.

In the recent past stages of this current transitional season, the love of God has been seen in His power coming forth to set people free, heal, and deliver many in powerful spiritual revival outpourings characterized by exciting praise and intimate worship of God. The love of the Father has come forth in the diverse realities of spiritual manifestations in renewal gatherings. Through the powerful presence and ministry of the Holy Spirit, transformation and impartation have come forth as people learned to soak in His presence and enter more fully into the work of the Spirit. Prophesy and intercession have moved to greater levels and spiritual revelation has removed the covering from deeper truths of the word of God.

Over the years each stage has prepared the people of God for the next stage. In the early stages of preparation we did not see a great world harvest. Individuals and congregations were transformed and there were those coming in from the world but the focus has been on awakening and maturing God's people. The lukewarm has been passing away as God's people have been becoming fervent in the passion of His love.

We now enter the harvest time. The cross is again looming large before us. Hearts broken by the love of God are turning toward a lost world of needy people with passionate love of God. As intercessors we have wept for ourselves and for the "church" but now the faces of multitudes of lost are appearing in our broken hearts. Multitudes will reach multitudes as each one touches others with the pure love of God.

1 John 4:21 And this commandment we have from Him: that he who loves God loves his brother also.

THE HARVEST IS ON! This is a sovereign move of God by His Spirit from within His people. It is not an evangelistic program or campaign. As wonderful as the great evangelistic days were, the Billy Graham Crusades and similar works will not be the major harvest machines of this move. Yes, there will continue to be great gatherings and multitudes of stadium gatherings of praise, worship, powerful ministry, and prayer that touches heaven and changes earth, but the harvest will come through a multitude of individual priests - a generation of beacons of light that have been in the very presence of God and are radiant with His love.

The people around them will be drawn to the love and glory of Christ in them. The harvest will mature in multitudes of house churches and business churches as well as local groups meeting in community buildings, store fronts and wherever. No one but the Lord will be able to number the multitude or rule over them. Christ will truly be the head of His glorious church of the harvest.

Transformation of cities will become transformation of nations as the glory of God fills the whole earth. The pride and arrogance of evil hates the love of God and desperately fears it coming forth in God's humble people. The cataclysmic events before us will bring massive destruction to the pride and loftiness of man as prideful men make war against God and His people. Those who can repent will, and multitudes will come to the light and so it is that the harvest increases.

The kingdom of God that is within His people will flow from them to become the way of life over all the earth.(Luke 17:21) The power and Love of God are inseparable. The love of God is the power that establishes, orders, and maintains the eternal kingdom of Jesus. Every knee shall bow and every tongue shall confess that Jesus Christ is Lord.

Phil 2:9-11: Therefore God also has highly exalted Him and given Him the name which is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of those in heaven, and of those on earth, and of those under the earth, and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Many, in this moment of the transformation season, who have experienced at least some of the previous stages, are asking, How can I get there? How can I be one that brings the love and glory of God to an insane world that has lost its way? What can I do to demonstrate the supernatural love and power of God to the hurting, dysfunctional, world in such great need?

We must be changed. Even our questions must be changed as our hearts are changed. The question must become, how or what can we? instead of, how or what can I?. In our wilderness season God had moved us out of the institutionalized man controlled structures. He has a purpose in our wilderness experience. He has allured us to Himself in an intimate one on one relationship free from outside distractions. This intimate love relationship is the core of the rest of our lives and must be done in isolation with Him.

Some are just now going into their wilderness experience with Him. Others are yet in process of becoming one with Him in intimate love. And many others are maturing in His love and are now being led out of the wilderness. Their love is now expanding to include the world around them as they are being placed back with people.

First we must become one with Him and then one with one another.

For those coming out there must be a rejoining to the true Body of Christ in relationship with others as the Holy Spirit makes the connections. Small spiritually alive groups are now being formed. They are coming together in intimacy with Him. The intensity of supernatural reality is greatly increasing as the group enters into deep spiritual places with God. The relationships bring multiplication of His glory. The multiplied love and power brings a manifestation of His presence with such glory that the radiance is seen by others and they are drawn to the glory of God upon you and the Christ in you.

John 17:20-23: "I do not pray for these alone, but also for those who will believe in Me through their word; "that they all may be one, as You, Father, are in Me, and I in You; that they also may be one in Us, that the world may believe that You sent Me. "And the glory which You gave Me I have given them, that they may be one just as We are one: "I in them, and You in Me; that they may be made perfect (mature) in one, and that the world may know that You have sent Me, and have loved them as You have loved Me.

None of us have all of Christ within us. His Body is collective and His Bride is a collective Bride. The "you" in "Christ in you the hope of glory." is a plural or collective "you". In southern USA language it would be "Christ in Y'all".

Beware of the little kings - the controllers and manipulators that seek to draw you together under their control to help them build their kingdom all supposedly in the name of Christ. But allow the Holy Spirit to connect you in intimate relationships with other members of the Body of Christ. Intensely seek God's heart together and allow the Holy Spirit to lead and minister among you. Greater love and powerful miracles will result and the world will know that God has sent Christ among you and will come to the light of His glory.

As you leave the gathering and go about your life show the love and speak of the things God is doing and be ready to pray for the needs of those around you in the world. Miracles will result and people will come to trust the God they see in you. The power of love will change the world around you.

Prepare Me A Place

Yolanda Ballard

Jan 4, 2005
Word submitted for your discernment By Yolanda Ballard (roarnworship@netzero.net.)

PREPARE ME A PLACE

Watch and pray that you fall not into temptation for the spirit is willing but the flesh is weak. It is so important to draw close to Me while it is day for soon disaster will cover the earth, and it will not be as easy to draw close in the secret place as it is now. You must learn to develop that quiet time in your heart so that you can draw close to Me always. You will not always have your prayer closet to draw into where it is quiet and peaceful so you need to have your own heart to be that dwelling place where I long to be.

You say that you have invited Me into your heart, but have you prepared a place for Me where I am welcome? There is always the hustling and bustling of preparation and the rushing to and fro and never a time where you just settle down and rest with Me, but you must develop this place when you have the time. It doesn't come that easy when you have had the habit of being busy and distracted.

This is the day the Lord has made and you are to rejoice and be glad in it, and the only way to do this is by committing the day to Me first and draw close to Me. I want to be the Lord and savior of your life so that you will be free from all harm and to walk in My wisdom. In order to know My will you must know My voice. Otherwise, surely you will fall into a snare that the enemy has set up. These are basic directions but they are so important. I want you to know My voice in order to know My will, and in order to do this you must know My word. So draw close to Me this day and open up your heart that I might enter in.

I want to open up the flood gates of My love and glory. Yes, I want to engulf you with My tangible presence. I want to move through you with My gifts and touch you with My healing power. That is what I will do, but you must do your part to be in the place where you can receive from Me. Resist the enemy and he will flee. Yes, flee the temptations and the distractions and enter in to a close communion with Me.

Prepare that place in your heart for Me. Walk with Me and talk with Me in the cool of the day. Join with Me to bring about My perfect will and My kingdom. If you put Me first and My righteousness, all good things will be added unto you. Yes, I will provide for you and give you the desires of your heart, but I first must have your heart. I love you, My children, but you must draw close.

Prisoners of Hope

Victoria Boyson

There are times, while waiting for the birth of your destiny, that you feel as though you would like to give up hope, but God will not let you. It feels as though you are held captive by hope.

"Return to your fortress, O prisoners of hope; even now I announce that I will restore twice as much to you" (Zechariah 9:12).

There are times during the development of your dream when your hope seems to have turned into a prison. You cannot make your dreams come true, and yet you find it impossible to stop believing in them. You cannot go forward any faster than God will let you, and you cannot return to where you once were before you became pregnant with the promise from God. God will not let you give up! During this time you might feel like saying, "Okay God, this is enough! I don't want to hope anymore! I am tired of being pregnant with this promise! I want out of this prison of hope!"

It is during this time that your dream feels so real to you, yet to others it does not. The conflict between what you feel in the Spirit and what is evident in the natural grates at your soul. You feel much like you are on a Ferris wheel. You have your up times when you can see your dream's fulfillment far into the future, but you also have your down time when you cannot see anything. You think to yourself, "Am I crazy to think that God would bless me?" The enemy comes in like a flood and you begin to doubt, causing anguish to your soul. This is the time when God is doing His greatest work in you.

It is Because He Loves You

You feel as though you are ready for your destiny, but once again God directs you back to the refinery for more tweaking. Oh, how weary you are of the awful refinery and that seemingly endless tweaking. "Okay, God, you can stop now," you scream, but He does not stop. You are caught in a prison of hope and He will not let you out until He is finished with what He began in you.

It is like a child who has a sliver. He does not like the pain the sliver causes him, but he hates the misery of having his sliver taken out. Removing the sliver is important, but he doesn't understand that. Even if he did, it is hard to keep still while it is being pulled out. Well, we all have spiritual slivers that we need God to take out, and sometimes it really hurts, especially when the sliver is way down deep in our heart.

This is when the refining process REALLY hurts, because He is getting down to the very core of your soul, to the deep regions of your heart. He is developing things in you that you did not know you lacked -- things you did not even know you needed.

You think, "Okay, God, this is deep enough." But every builder knows you must dig down deep to lay a proper foundation first, before you start to establish the height of the structure. And the greater the height of the structure, the deeper the foundation must be.

It is God's great love for us that keeps us from entering our destiny until our foundation is secure. If He has held you back and you feel like a prisoner, He has done it out of love for you. He does not want to see all that He has worked to build in you crumble, because He did not take the time to develop a sure foundation. He loves you that much!

Even though it hurts you, He needs to hold you in the prison cell of hope until it is safe for you to come out. Even though you are sick and tired of hoping, of believing, of waiting, He will still make you hope, believe and wait even longer. And this can be the hardest thing He has asked you to do yet.

But when you feel like giving up, and yet continue to carry on, you begin to sense a strength rising in you that you did not know you possessed. And really, you did not possess it previously, because it was your reward for enduring this painful process. It is a gift from God that the enemy cannot take away from you, because you have earned it.

Held Captive by Hope

In the Word of God we can find many people who were held captive by hope; there are Moses, Joseph, and Abraham, to name a few. My favorite is David -- his honesty in the face of misery draws my attention.

God had promised David that he would rule the kingdom of Israel, and Samuel had anointed him for it (see 1 Samuel 16:13). But after David had been anointed as king of all Israel, he had to go back to tending sheep. It was years before the promise came to pass for David, and he spent many of those years being chased by the man whose throne he would inherit. Back in the pasture on his father's farm, he did not envision himself hiding out in caves or pretending to be a madman in order to save his own life (see 1 Samuel 22:11). After all, God said he was going to be a king. A king does not have to do those things . . . does he?

In Psalm 119:82, David cried out to God in song and said, "My eyes fail looking for your promise." I understand the longing in his heart as he spoke those words. It feels, sometimes, as though the promise will never be fulfilled. But in fact, it was fulfilled for David, and it will be for you, too, if you do not give up.

Hopeless, No. Helpless, Yes!

Do you feel sometimes as though you are hopeless? Well, you are not without hope; you are not hopeless, but you are helpless. God has put you in a position of helplessness or complete dependency on Him, and you are helpless to help yourself. You struggle to gain some measure of control over your life, but your pride (that you did not even know you had) is being crushed during this helpless state, and the only thing for you to do is to surrender and receive God's peace. You may feel hopeless, but really it is the condition of helplessness that is causing you pain. God wants you completely dependant on Him, and He will keep you a prisoner of hope until you are.

Return to Your Fortress

Your fortress during this time is trusting in a loving God. Trust Him in spite of all the reasoning of your mind, in spite of the circumstances that surround you. You were content to give God control of your life until He decided to do something with your life you did not like. You were happy to surrender all to Him until He decided to give your promotion to someone else. You believe in His sovereignty, until His sovereign will conflicts with your will. Then you are sure He has made a mistake. You want to run from Him, but He is your refuge. How do you run from your refuge? How do you run from the only one who really loves you or understands you? The answer is . . . you don't. So, return, my friend, to your fortress and remain a prisoner until He is done with you; until He decides you are ready for all that He has for you.

What now feels like a prison cell to you, God sees as a fortress. And, of course, He is right. He loves you and if you give Him control of your life, He will guard it for you. Perhaps what feels to you like a prison cell may really be your place of safety and protection. David did not like being in a cave, but it saved him from King Saul. You may not like the circumstances you are in now, but do not run from them. They may be what is saving your life!

Double for Your Trouble

Why are we going through what we are going through? The second half of Zechariah 9:12 gives us the answer we are looking for. It says, "Even now I announce that I will restore twice as much to you."

God says, "Even now I announce to you that not only will I restore to you all that has been taken from you, but I will give you double for all the trouble you have endured." He says, "Don't stop now . . . keep trusting me, because I can see your future and it is very blessed. Keep walking with me and keep trusting in me and I will give you rest in the midst of the storm."

"Come to me all who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest" (Matthew 11:28). When we have learned to "rest" in God in the midst of our storm, God is mightily blessed. It proves to Him that we trust in His goodness no matter what our circumstances appear like.

It pleases Him very much when we trust in Him, and when He is pleased He will burst forth blessings from heaven. He just cannot help Himself; He loves to bless those who trust in His goodness.

He, as He did for Israel in Zechariah 9:12, will stand up and announce to all that He is proud of you and intends to restore double to you for your continued trust in Him through all you have endured. And this is the beginning of your dreams coming true. Enjoy it, friend, because you have waded through the river of adversity and your heavenly Father is proud of you.

Return to your fortress, O prisoners of hope.

Portrait Of Grace
Byron Putnam

(bwputnam@bellsouth.net)

A trail of tears runs to the altar of my grace. From the altar the waters flow to my wounded people. "Weeping endures for a night but joy comes in the morning." Walk the path of compassion to a hurting world. Your healing drives away the darkness.

Release my bread in obedience and it will feed millions. Continually pour the new wine into the new wineskin. It is full and ready to be given out in power. The next step is to walk in my glory with complete freedom. You are meshed into the tapestry of my love. Your vision is a portrait in my throne room. It is uncovered before angels and saints.

The vision may tarry but only for a little while. It will shoot forth like a star. Your destiny and purpose moves heaven and shakes the earth. Bride, You are ready for the victorious song. The brand is plucked from the fire. Its glow and warmth have touched your lips and you speak. Fire goes forth to my people. Hearts of stone melt and the released captive sings freedom.

The deceiver will not hide. The evil deed will not damage. The strong man's hands are tied. Angels have been sent to deal with him. I provide a servant to carry the load. Balaam's donkey spoke because of mercy. The way is blocked for your protection. I will not let you pass until it is time. You will not go the way of Balaam.

Build the sanctuary. Break the yoke in two. Multiply the work and double the portion. "My yoke is easy." I found you in the garden and gave you my mantle. You have said," I am whole and complete."

I heard your declaration of victory. I heed your cries for my people. Your tears flow to my heart. Bleed no more for the pain inflicted. Their blood will I require because they seek to slay. Cain's mutiny is defeated. Abel's sacrifice speaks in your anointing.

The garden blooms because of your wounds. You bled as you protected my children. Weeping has been heard in Ramah and comfort has come from Zion. "Blessed are those that mourn for they shall be comforted."

New robes have been given that are stained with tears that I wept for you. I give them freely. Your garments are washed white as snow. Your feet are shod for the work of the ministry. Oil is in the city. The prepared ointment is fragrant with my aroma. Use it at the eastern gate. You wait for my return. Amen.

Partaking of His Divine Nature: Two Extremes

Don Walker

"For by these He has granted to us His precious and magnificent promises, so that by them you may become the partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world by lust." (II Peter 1:4)

Theologians since the time of the early Church fathers have attempted to explain the nature of the believer's relationship with God. Through the centuries this issue has produced a broad spectrum of ideas. In our attempt to define and bring depth of understanding to God's revealed truth we must take care to remain within the biblical boundaries.

Some have taken the extreme position that believers are, by partaking of the divine nature, brought into a position of virtual equality with God. This view fails to adequately see the scriptural distinction between their union with God, in the divine life and nature, and the unique status of the Godhead possessed by the Trinity alone. They erroneously portray believers as in some way co-equal with God, assuming on some level His divine headship and authority. This appears to be the view of at least some in the "Word of Faith" movement. Their overreaching imprecise statements imply that "union with God" suggests equality with God, an absolute parity with God, and thus, some manner of participation in the Godhead and in those attributes of God which are incommunicable.

[In fairness to these brothers, I do not believe they are trying to actually lay claim to a co-equal status with God. These men are not trained theologically and thus in "stretching" to express a truth that they believe they see in the Scriptures; they appear to violate orthodox theological boundaries. They do not place sufficient "fences" around some of their statements. In addition to that, they seem to lack a clear understanding of the sovereignty of God.]

On the other end of the spectrum we have those who only recognize the believer's judicial relationship with God. This view holds that believers primarily imitate God's divine communicable attributes rather than partake of them. They deny or dismiss any organic relationship between the Triune God and His redeemed. This teaching minimizes the relationship of the believer to the Father to mere legal status of adoption, wherein the adopted child imitates the adoptive parent's behavior. I believe that this position is an over-reaction to the apparently extreme view they see as being perpetuated by the Word of Faith teachers.

I believe that the Biblical truth lies between these two extremes, embracing the judicial aspect of the believer's relationship to God and at the same time affirming his union with God in Christ. The Bible never elevates man to the status of equality with God. Even prior to the fall Adam was under God's direction and authority. God is man's Creator, and the Potter has non-negotiable power over the clay (Rom. 9:20-21). On the other hand, a number of authors, in reaction to the exaggeration, confusion, and the error of the Word of Faith teachers, end up throwing out the proverbial baby with the bath water. These authors have also rejected a number of essential biblical truths concerning the believer's vital union and identification with God in life and nature.

The believer's relationship with God is more than legal, forensic, and outward. It is more than "union of fellowship," as one author has called it. This is a limited view of our salvation. The Bible stresses that we are regenerated. According to I Corinthians 6:17: "He who is joined to the Lord is one spirit with Him." It is more than an "adoptive" status. God Himself indwells us (Rom. 8:9; Ephes. 4:6; Col. 1:27).

Jesus told His disciples to expect the Spirit of the Father to be in them (Matt. 10:20). He declared that both He and the Father would be in His believers (John 17:21). It is true that the incommunicable attributes of God are not possessed by the believer – these being self-existence, immutability, omniscience, omnipotence, omnipresence, eternality, and absolute sovereignty. Nevertheless, the Bible shows us that God has chosen to impart to believers His communicable attributes – these being compassion, graciousness, mercy, slowness to anger, truth, faithfulness, and forgiveness. [See Exodus 34:6-7.]

It is incorrect to teach that the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit indwell the believer apart from the divine life and nature; this would fragment the essence of God. God's life and nature are received at the moment of regeneration. God brings about the transformation of believers into His image by causing His indwelling life and nature to grow and mature within them (II Cor. 3:17-18). Ultimately, at His return even the physical bodies of believers will be transformed to a glorified state reflectng the glory of Christ (II Thess. 1:10; I John 3:2). It is scriptural to assert that believers participate in the divine nature, as long as it is made clear that we never become part of the Godhead and never evolve from creature to Creator. (This is the error of Mormonism, which teaches: "As man is, God once was; as God is, men may be.")

What did Peter mean by the statement, "You may become partakers of the divine nature" (II Peter 1:4)? Many of the early church fathers saw Peter's statement as actual union and participation by believers in the divine nature. Origen equated this fellowship of the Spirit with our partaking of the divine nature. He stated, "What is the fellowship of the Holy Spirit? Peter describes this by calling it 'sharing in the divine nature.'" Ambrose, Cyril of Jerusalem, and Novatian all said similar things commenting on II Peter 1:4. (See Ancient Christian Commentary on Scripture, New Testament Vol.11.) The Venerable Bede commented: "When God blesses us, He changes our very being so that whatever we were by nature is transformed by the gift of the Holy Spirit, so that we may truly become partakers of His nature."

Many modern Bible scholars have asserted in their writings that partaking of the divine nature is something real and inward. For example, Kenneth S. Wuest states, "The believer is made a partaker of the divine nature (II Peter 1:4). The life of God, surging through His being, causes him to hate sin and love holiness, and produces in him both the desire and the power to do God's will." A.T. Robertson considers regeneration as a partaking of the divine nature, as he says concerning II Peter 1:4, "Peter is referring to the new birth as I Peter 1:23." Henry Alford goes so far to say that the perfect divine nature abides in the believer. He writes that believers are "partakers of the divine nature (i.e. of that holiness, and truth, and love, and, in a word, perfection), which dwells in God, and in you, by God dwelling in you." I believe that I can say with certainty that none of these men would argue that believers are equal with God, but they have clearly affirmed that God dwells in the believer, bringing His divine nature into their being.

God's purpose in salvation was never to merely grant the forgiveness of sin. God's purpose is to live in and through His redeemed community. The whole redemptive work of Christ, from the Incarnation to the Resurrection and Ascension, as well as the work of the Holy Spirit culminate with the believer becoming a partaker of His divine nature as the completion of our salvation.

God's DNA
Don Walker

God's DNA and the Transformation of the Believer

In yesterdays message we dealt with the issue of being "partakers of His divine nature" (II Peter 1:4). In regeneration, God's DNA is imparted to us – His seed abides in us (I John 3:9) – enabling us to reflect His divine nature (His communicable attributes - compassion, graciousness, mercy, slowness to anger, truth, faithfulness, and forgiveness [Exodus 34:6-7]). What Christ is by His nature, we are by His grace. By grace through faith we have become partakers of His DNA, His divine nature. God's purpose in salvation was never to merely grant the forgiveness of sin. God's desire was not to have "good men," but to have men who have God's DNA.

First John 3:9 says that God's "seed" (Greek word sperma) abides in everyone who has been begotten of God. The Amplified Bible says for this verse: "His principle of life, the divine sperm, remains permanently in him." When we are regenerated we become children of God, possessing His heredity with His very life and nature. We are truly "born-again." In our first birth, we receive the human life and nature of our earthly father. In our second birth, we receive the divine life and nature of our heavenly Father. After our first birth, we need to grow in our human, physical life. After our second birth, we need to grow in the spiritual, divine life.

Our Union with Christ

This is a foundational aspect of the New Testament revelation that is expressed a variety of ways in the Scriptures. For example, the term our "union with Christ" addresses this same concept. T. Austin Sparks in the book, The Centrality of Jesus Christ, makes this statement:

"Union with Christ is the heart or center of all that has been revealed of God's thought concerning man and man's relationship to God. Union with Christ is like the hub of a mighty wheel. There are many spokes to that wheel – election, creation, redemption, salvation, sanctification, glorification; and then, like a series of subsidiary spokes – repentance, faith, justification, conversion, regeneration, and so on. These are the spokes of the wheel, but they all center in Christ and radiate from Christ and reach the rim, which is God. They unite us in Christ with God."

In Second Corinthians 4:6 Paul declares that God is "the One who shined in our hearts to illuminate the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Christ." Then in verse 7 he says, But we have this treasure in earthen vessels." This treasure, according to verse 6, is the face of Christ. (In Greek the word for face is the same word used for person in II Cor. 2:10.) It is the presence of Christ, the actual person of Christ, which is our treasure. We are earthen vessels who are worthless and fragile, but within our spirit we contain a priceless treasure, the person of Christ Himself.

Deification

I now want to introduce a word that was used by the early church fathers, a word that can be a "stumbling block" to those us who are Protestants; it is the word deification. This was the term used by the Greek fathers in the first four centuries of the Church. Jaroslav Pelikan, church historian, states: "For the Greek patristic tradition, especially in its mystical forms, the final goal and result of this saving knowledge, this forgiveness, and this rescue from death was 'deification.'" In the ancient church, deification was viewed as the ultimate goal of man's salvation. Athanasius, who stood against the heresy of Arianism at the Council of Nicea, made the statement: "He became human that we might become divine." (This could be translated, "that we might become God.") Was Athanasius a heretic? How could this "champion" of orthodoxy make such a statement? What did he mean?

He did not mean that man could become God in the Mormon or pagan sense. In the early church Christians opposed the deification on man in the widely held pagan sense, but they did not oppose a proper understanding of deification (Greek word – theosis). We must understand the distinctive way they used this term. They did not use the term, as some would presuppose. They understood that God had imparted to man, through the indwelling Holy Spirit, His communicable attributes. They understood that this was God's means of transforming men. Through the imparting of His DNA God brings man into His likeness, transforming him into a reflection of Himself.

What man lost at the fall was access to the tree of life (Gen. 2:9, 3:24), which we may say symbolized God as life to man for the fulfillment of man's purpose in creation. There is a deeper reason for the Incarnation. In Hebrews 2:10-11 we are told:

"For it was fitting for Him, for whom are all things, and through whom are all things, in bringing many sons to glory, to perfect the author of their salvation through sufferings. For both He who sanctifies, and those who are sanctified are all from one Father; for which reason He is not ashamed to call them brethren."

Here Christ's incarnation is viewed on the much higher plane of man's sanctification, and by inference his ultimate glorification. In order to sanctify man, Christ certainly must be divine. This was a major argument of Athanasius and others against the Arians in the 4th century. But if He is to impart His holy nature (DNA), Christ must also be human. By incarnation Christ brought the sanctifying source into humanity as the object of sanctification.

As a synonym for deification, sanctification focuses on the change in nature that believers undergo in transformation from sinners to sons of God. Holiness, an attribute of God's nature, is by definition what separates God from everything else. God alone is holy (Rev. 15:4), and in so saying, we declare that He is unique among all things and separated from all things. Thus, when we are sanctified, in other words, made holy (Ephes. 1:4; Col. 1:22), we participate in that which sets God apart from everything else – His holiness. The Greek fathers referred to this participation as deification.

[For further study on this concept, I recommend reading The Divinization of the Christian: According to the Greek Fathers by Jules Gross, published by A & C Press.]

Poised At The Jordan

Ryan Wyatt Jeff Jansen

"The Church is now poised at the Jordan, getting ready to enter into a promised land of God's glory, unlike anything the Church or the world has ever seen. However, at the gate is the greatest battle. "

September 26, 2005
This word includes insights from Bob Jones, Ryan Wyatt, and Jeff Jansen. There is a great battle taking place right now between the Kingdom of Heaven and the kingdom of Darkness over the attention and desires of the soul of man.

DEMONIC FIRE

I was recently in Iowa ministering, and on one night I had spent around 30 minutes sharing testimonies of God's healing power in order to get the people's faith to a place of really engaging heaven. Just as I began to release the healing wave, someone's camper caught on fire out in the parking lot. So, as I'm releasing the healing wave, people are now running out of the meeting to check on their cars.
The fire department came blazing into the church parking lot, with their red lights flashing. The intercessors at the church had been seeing red, flashing lights in their parking lot in the spirit all week but did not understand it. Now, it was coming to pass right before our eyes. We all knew that this was demonic fire and distraction released from the Enemy to keep us from receiving from God.

GODLY FIRE

That night after the service, I was just laying down to sleep for the night and told the Lord that He had gotten my attention and that I was listening if there was anything that He wanted to say to me. At the very moment I laid my head on the pillow, the fire alarm in the hotel went off.
At this point I became absolutely amazed at the events of the night. As I got out of bed to be evacuated from the hotel, the Lord told me to watch the faces of the people because there was a message in it. I was walking out of the hotel at around 1:15AM, with many people who were awakened out of a sound sleep. They were groggy and wanted nothing more than to be able to return to the comfort of their beds and not be bothered by the red, flashing lights of the firemen in the parking lot.

After about 45 minutes of standing outside, we were allowed to re-enter the hotel. Upon entering, I asked one of the firemen what the cause was for the fire alarm going off. He said that they were really confused because they can almost always find a natural reason for it, but they had checked every fire alarm and searched the rooms and could find absolutely no reason for the fire alarm. I then knew that God was really speaking clearly!

WAKE UP CHURCH

I woke up that next morning with God abruptly saying to me: "WAKE UP CHURCH!" That morning I preached on Psalm 29 about the God of glory who thunders and shakes us out of our wilderness and causes things to give birth. While I was preaching on the this, someone was outside the church watching, as it began to thunder, and the whole sky filled up with clouds.

A cloud formation appeared in the shape of an arm and hand reaching down from the heavens, as it rested right over the church. Suddenly, the arm retracted back into the heavens, and a literal hole opened up in the clouds, right over the church. Then, the sky broke forth with rain. This was all seen with the natural eyes, as a sign and a wonder in the heavens and on the earth.

I immediately called Bob Jones after the service to discuss it with him. We agreed that we are in a very intense time of warfare over the attention and desires of the soul of man. The devil is releasing everything he can to distract and suppress the church into a slumber. Meanwhile, God is shaking things up in our lives to get our attention. God wants us to wake up, and for those that will respond, God will open up the portals of Heaven, extend His arm of power, and release the rains of Heaven to put out all the demonic fires that rage around us!

COME UP FROM YOUR GRAVES

The week after being in Iowa, I came together with Bob Jones, Jeff Jansen, and Brad McClendon to minister at the Midwest Convergence in Cincinnati, Ohio. This was a gathering geared toward getting God's heart for the hour and releasing it to the Church. God spoke clearly from the very beginning. The people were expecting some stupendous, awe-inspiring word to be released, but instead, the Lord spoke the least expected.

God spoke to us about the Church being in a time of transition from the wilderness into the promised land. When Israel came up to the Jordan for the first time and God was going to lead them in, they were defeated because of the issues of their own souls. Issues like self-rejection, doubt, fear, unbelief, worry, insecurity, unforgiveness, etc…

The Church is now poised at the Jordan, getting ready to enter into a promised land of God's glory, unlike anything the Church or the world has ever seen. However, at the gate is the greatest battle. The devil tries to come against you and suffocate the life of God right out of you with depression, discouragement, and accusation. At the same time, God is standing by, ready to rebuke the accuser on your behalf, take off your filthy garments (issues of the soul), and put a rich robe on your body and a clean turban on your head (Zechariah 3:1-8).

BREATH OF HEAVEN

God is standing by, at this very moment, ready to release the breath of Heaven into your life and break off everything that binds us. However, He is looking for a people who will look to Him, that their faces might be radiant and not ashamed (Psalm 34).

On the last night, the Lord released a vision of Lazarus coming up from the grave and having fresh life breathed into him. Bob Jones and I also saw the Lord come into the meeting with a staff in hand and begin to stomp it on the ground in order to claim it.
Jesus is, at this present time, desperately wanting to lay claim to His inheritance. His inheritance is us! God spoke forth and said that He is claiming His promised land at this time. The Lord's promised land is for a people who will completely die to themselves in order to become His.

God is breathing fresh life into His army -- just like Ezekiel 37 and John 20:22 -- and saying it is time for us to come up from our graves and present ourselves before the Lord!

That night, we had a woman with metal in her feet, legs, and hips; the metal disappeared, as she demonstrated by bending her legs all the way to the ground! Another woman was healed of deafness of over 20 years. A young boy, deaf-mute from birth, began to receive his hearing for the first time.

HEAVENLY OIL CHANGE

Presently, there is a new purpose, vision, and blueprint being released to the Body of Christ, in a fresh way. As I flew into Detroit the week after Cincinnati, the Lord showed me a car going through an oil change. The old oil was being drained out, and the new, fresh oil was being poured in.

There is a remnant of people who are catching the vision and initiatives of Heaven and engaging the Lord daily. There will be a people who connect with the Head in Heaven, take on the mind of Christ, and learn of their true identity as friends of God.

This group of overcomers will lay hold of the blueprints of Heaven and truly carry Heaven on earth. They will be heavenly ambassadors that express the government of Heaven everywhere they go because they are constantly tapped into the mind and heart of their home government in the heavenly realms.

There is new purpose and destiny being released to those who, in these times, will respond to the shakings and engage Heaven with holy violence.

THE SIGN AND WONDER OF THE OIL CHANGE

After releasing the word of the oil change, I left the church building without touching any one or any thing. As soon as I stepped outside the building, I looked at my hands, and they were covered in black grease as if I had just changed the oil in a car! God backed up this NOW word with a sign that makes you wonder!

It's time to set our faces, like flint, on the Lord, and as we do this, He will bring us up from our graves, breathe new life into us, and cause us to come into a holy union with Him!

I SAW ANGELS FLOODING INTO THE MIDWEST

While seeking the Lord in preparation for the Midwest Convergence, I was taken into a prophetic encounter where I heard the steady beat of war drums over the Midwest and saw many warring and harvesting angels being released over key states. I heard a trumpet sound as a clarion call for the Church to awake and arouse herself from sleep. As it blew over the region, I knew that it was the proclamation of a new release and rein of the Kingdom of Heaven and authority on the earth.

The Lord was re-awaking a sleeping giant (the Body of Christ) into recognition of her true identity and inheritance in Christ. I literally saw an earthquake-like vein or circuit run through the ground in the shape of a lightning bolt that spread from North Dakota to New Jersey and then fork off into Northern New York.

The Lord is arousing the Body of Christ from a spirit of slumber, and she is waking up and shaking off the old mindsets of the past that have kept her in bondage. Jesus wants us to open the door to intimacy with Him so He can reveal Himself to us.

"Behold I stand at the door and knock; if anyone hears and listens to and heeds My voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and will sup with him and he with Me." -- Revelation 3:20

There is a new Kingdom reign knocking at the door, and we must open the door of invitation as intimate sons into supping or fellowshipping with the Lord and rightly display -- with substance and evidence -- the Kingdom of Heaven that is at hand (Mathew 4:17)!

During the conference in Cincinnati, we saw a marked increase in power and revelation. We're still awaiting the many confirmations of healings that took place, but without a doubt, there was an upscale release of power for miracles and healings.
We took many testimonies from individuals that received healings in their bodies after going through the Fire Tunnel on Friday night and miracles that took place after the healing wave was released on Saturday night. Conservatively, we could say that of the1,500 people that attended the conference there were more than 200 notable healings!

The Lord was clearly demonstrating His love and affection toward us, and it was clear to all that He was again extending an invitation for us to rise up and take our rightful place as heirs and inheritors of the Kingdom of God!

"Now what I mean is that as long as the inheritor (heir) is a child and under age, he does not differ from a slave, although he is the master of all the estate . . . Therefore, you are no longer a slave (bond servant) but a son; and if a son, then an heir!" -- Galatians 4:1, 7

God is awakening this sleeping giant into the realization of His true inheritance. This emerging, maturing son will possess "all things in Christ, because he is Christ's, and Christ is God's (1 Corinthians 3:21-23).

GULLIVER

Bob Jones had a very similar word and prophetic encounter, where in a vision he saw a great man, who in the past had fallen asleep. He was laying on his back, half-covered in dirt, and his name was Gulliver. Little people from a place of little input had completely tied him down, and he was waking up from being asleep for the past 38 years.
We can also call him (Gulliver) the Body of Christ. Bob saw that the head of this very large man was in Cleveland, Ohio, in a place called "Jacob's field." It was full of high school and college aged youth. The 2005 Shepherds Rod says that this is the year of Jacob (Psalm 44:4). We need to get a vision of the youth coming in great numbers in harvest in Cleveland!

The next thing Bob saw was a large, center pole of a tent coming up out of Columbus, Ohio. This was His heart. Powerful signs and wonders will come up out of Columbus, greater than we've ever seen before, that will look like a canopy over the region. Explosions of miracles and healings will be the hallmark of this city.

Cincinnati was the place where the reproduction organs were. Reproducing of the Kingdom will be evidenced here in priestly and kingly anointing.

The left hand of this large man was in Philadelphia, which had teaching and great love in it. The right hand extended west and came to rest in Indianapolis, Indiana. It began to flex, and the cords that were around it to keep it tied down, were beginning to snap off like rubber bands.

The left foot was in Charlotte, North Carolina, and there was a great television with it, so they televised the gospel all around the world. The right foot was in Nashville, Tennessee, where great faith is beginning to raise up.

This great man finally began to get up, breaking off all restraints and planting both of his feet in Atlanta, Georgia. God means to take Ohio, then move over to Indianapolis and up into Illinois, crossing over into the east, and finally, standing completely upright in Atlanta. The Lord told Bob that to take Atlanta would mean capturing the whole south.

The Lord is looking for the Body of Christ to keep its head focused in the Heavens above, and its body fixed on the earth below, walking out the Kingdom mandate with all convincing demonstrations. We need to be reconnected with the Head (Jesus Christ), so we can act out on the earth the strategy of Heaven with all power and authority!

Let us grow up in every way (Spiritual Maturity) and in all things, into Him Who is the Head, even Christ (Ephesians 4:15). We as the body must grow up in every way and stay connected to the Head, which is Christ.

THE GOLDEN TEAR DROP

On the last night of the conference, as Bob Jones was standing in front, something fell out of the heavens and hit him on the left cheek bone, directly under his eye. Brad McClendon saw it and said it looked like a drop of liquid gold. Bob said this had not happened to him in 40 years, and this golden teardrop was the Father rejoicing in seeing His children bringing the reign of the Kingdom to earth. It also signified the release of the Church into the glory of God.

"They who sow in tears shall reap in joy. He who goes forth bearing seed and weeping shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him!" -- Psalm 126:5-6
Jesus wept in the garden with great tears and agony. But He did it for the joy that was set before Him. He interceded for us, sowing in tears, knowing that His weeping would bring forth great seed of Kingdom harvest. For the joy that was set before Him, He endured the cross! We are His joy.

God is now reaping the very thing Jesus sowed in seed form for us in the garden, which is His offspring doing the very works of the Kingdom of God. Jesus shed His blood for this very reason, and the Father is overjoyed in seeing His children bringing back sheaves of harvest and generating fruit born out of His suffering. It is the Father's good pleasure to give us the Kingdom.

The return of the Glory of the Lord is at hand. It's time for the Church (who has been asleep for 38 years) to make a beeline -- these next two years -- for the promised land! Remember, Israel wandered 38 years in the desert, and the last two years they entered into their inheritance. These next two years are critical for the Body of Christ. It's critical that we wake up and possess the land. We must move forward into the purposes of God and fully access all that rightfully belongs to us, as inheritors of the promises of God.

Policy And Commentary

Bill Somers

> They say unto him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act.
> Now Moses in the law commanded us, that such should be stoned: but what sayest thou?
> (John 8:4-5)

Occasionally people ask me if we have kept track of what prophecies have come true and which ones have not. I never bother to do so. [It's too big a job anyway.]

We do not keep score on the prophets.

It may be that every prophecy of disaster that never happens is a testimony of intercession that did happen. After all, Jonah's preaching would have been somewhat less effective, [understatement intended], had he spoken in terms of possibilities.

When a prophecy is conditional, when there are some 'if' clauses to it, we may not know what they are. The Lord may or may not expressly state the conditions to a prophecy. That's none of our business. Our job as prophets is to obey to the best of our abilities and give our 'thus sayeth the Lord's regardless of the consequences, regardless of what happens and especially regardless of what others may think, say or do. The Lord is the one who keeps score. And that is based on our obedience, not our track record as prognosticators. As we know He looks at the heart, not the outward appearance.

I don't think we need to be in the business of keeping score over who was right and who was wrong. [Lover covers a multitude of sins.] I don't have a problem when someone's word doesn't happen. Nor do I get upset when one article is doom and gloom and the next is sunshine and roses. Nor when they contradict each other, or even when they contradict themselves. [You can find contradictions in the Bible if you are looking for them.]

I can spot the obvious flakes and errors, and attitude problems. [And some not so obvious, because of the training, [reflected in my own articles], that the Lord has put me through.] And I may still post some of those articles anyway, when there is merit that outweighs the problems.

But I can not automatically discern what is of God, lest I operate in my own strength. For the most part, I have no discernment, unless God gives it to me. As Daniel said about dreams, interpretations belong to God. He had to wait for the interpretation to come to him. So it is with discernment. Often discernment does not come. [That doesn't mean we can't miss it by failing to wait!]

I have my personal preferences, limitations and biases and these play a part in deciding what gets published here. That is to say, I have some favorite topics and writers, and also some topics and writers I avoid. This will mean that sometimes I miss something that should get published, and sometimes post some things not worth bothering with. I hope you understand this. The collection of material on End Time Prophetic Vision is not without editorial slant. But I do not delete portions of text that I disagree with. I publish what I feel is important, interesting or inspiring, [always adored alliteration] but it is still from my limited point of view.

But as I said, For the most part, I have no discernment, unless God gives it to me.

My understanding of the word is limited. The Word is not. To insist that things line up with the word may be to insist that they conform to my limited understanding of the word. The word of God understands me far better than I understand the Word.

And I certainly do not want to sit in judgment, after the letter of the law, [that worketh death,] and put labels on people. That would firmly place me in the seat of the scornful, a place where, according to Psalm 1, you are sure to miss the blessing.

Portals Of Glory

Beloved Ones,

While in prayer I saw and sensed some things happening...

The next two weeks will be a time to ascend. A time of purging, preparation. A time to set your selves apart, to consecrate your self. There is a cleansing happening as God is preparing to take His people to a "whole" new level. Being complete in him. I saw God's people going up through a tunnel and at places in the tunnel its tight and uncomfortable. But, as we trust him, its like being attached to a hot air balloon that keeps ascending. Once we move through this tunnel we will be looking down from a whole new perspective. From this new vantage point there will be new strategies given to His people. What seemed to be impossible in the past will be a breeze in this new place in God. During this next two weeks don't let discouragement weigh you down. Don't let oppression be your constant friend. Stay in the word, let the word cleanse you. As the Lord dislodges places of darkness, deal with them. They are the entanglements that hold us back from ascending to this new place. The word will bring the light on these dark places and there is a enabling grace being released in this hour to come clean and ascend.

Ascend in to the glory realm. Angels have been dispatched to help you. Its a new season, and a new day. A fresh new work is coming upon the face of the earth. My kingdom is coming, my will is being done and soon you will see it with your natural eyes. Soon Beloved ones, soon! Be encouraged you will soon start reaping for the years of sowing you have laid up in heaven!

Watch for a real dramatic shift in June. My earth realm will prophecy it.

Ascending too! Brenda Dowdin firebrand007@hotmail.com

Pouring Out Of His Spirit

Homer Owen

Nov 7, 2005
"And it shall come about after this that I will pour out My Spirit on all mankind; And your sons and daughters will prophesy, Your old men will dream dreams, Your young men will see visions. And even on the male and female servants I will pour out My Spirit in those days." (Joel 2:28-29)

It is raining this morning in Ariel. Glory! In Acts we find that those who had received the outpouring of His Spirit were from time to time being refilled. Lord, I am asking you this morning to refresh all of us with a fresh out pouring of Your Spirit. Fill us afresh to overflowing as we allow Your rivers to flow out of us to those around us. We acknowledge that we are thirsty for You, the Living Water. Thank you Lord Jesus for so great a salvation.

Our brother Paul prayed a special prayer for all of us in his letter to the church in Ephesus. The Lord has been sharing with me lately some of the keys of His Kingdom that He has worked into me over the past thirty seven years and one of the major keys is found in this prayer of Paul concerning the love of God extended to each of us. The very foundation of our walk of faith must be rooted and grounded in this great love before we can effectively believe God for great things. Allow His Spirit to minister deeply in you today about His love.

"I bow my knees before the Father, from whom every family in heaven and on earth derives its name, that He would grant you, according to the riches of His glory, to be strengthened with power through His Spirit in the inner man; so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith; and that you, being rooted and grounded in love, may be able to comprehend with all the saints what is the breath and length and height and depth, and to know the love of Christ which surpasses knowledge, that you may be filled up to all the fulness of God. Now to Him who is able to do exceeding abundantly beyond all that we ask or think, according to the power that works within us, to Him be the glory in the church in Christ Jesus to all generations forever and ever. Amen. (Ephesians 3:14-21)

As I was mediating on this passage of scripture I saw a big cubed box that was filled with His love and I was just kinda floating around in this cube. Suspended in His love. Wow! In Him we cannot escape His all encompassing love. Ruby and I have for the past five years endeavored to love these folks here in Ariel and the one big question that we are asked over and over is simply why. Why are you doing this? We simply tell them that their God has filled us with His love for them and this land. We are able to love because He first loved us. This is a major key to operating in His Kingdom.

We are living in a time that we are told many will lose this love or it will turn cold. I believe that Jesus centered His ministry on sharing His love for the Father and the Father's love for Him. I have four sons that are all over forty now, and I just love to physically take them into my arms and hug them and tell them that I love them. When I was first baptized in His love and delivered from a spirit of hate, the Lord spoke to my heart and told me that my greatest ministry to my family was to love them deeply. Love truly covers.

Two of the teen agers that hang out here at the mini golf are working with me some these days on our water project. Afghani and Dennis took a little ride with me the other day over to the spring on Mt. Gerizim. They had been filling pouches with water and we needed more water, so I decided to expand their outlook on the land that they live in. It was interesting as we headed for an area of Israel that they had never ventured into because it is occupied by the Arabs. These young men came from Russia as part of a million Russian Jews that came to Israel back in the mid 90's to help build this nation. Many fears keep folks from getting free.

As we drove up to the check point before entering the town of Hawaria we were naturally confronted with a line of Arab cars waiting to be checked by the Israel Army folks. The license plates on the Arab cars is white background with green lettering and my license plate is the same as the UN or diplomats which is white with black letters. I drove around the fifteen or so Arab cars and waved at the soldiers and drove on into this area of Israel. The boys were amazed at our not having to wait or be checked and I naturally used this to share with them how blessed they were in being His chosen people. Afghani was quick to tell me that he had a Jewish nose. Ha!

As we drove through Hawaria I honked and waved at a couple of Arabs that I have met and visited with and my Jewish friends were wondering about all this. They enjoyed the trip and were blessed in being able to help fill up the water tanks in the back of my little red truck. I sense a real excitement in heaven about the possibility of giving out a drink of His water from the Mount of Blessing with a message of Love from the Father to mankind. Glory! Thanks for praying with us about this project. Blessings from the Father of Love. Homer Owen

Pastries Of Praise

Sherri Kohler

(div9diva@yahoo.com)
To ALL MY Children:

I have placed a "Path Of Provisions" for you to take and enjoy.

They are gifts for the Father that He has prepared for you to have as you need them.

There are "Loaves Of Love" that He has baked in the "oven of His heart".

There are "Donuts Of Delight" that he has gazed with his divine and everlasting love.

There are "Crumpets Of Compassion" that have been molded and shaped in the size and circumference of My love

And a cup of coffee that has been brewed in the "coffee pot of My soul" that "percolated to the rhythm of My heart."

Children I bring you what is the Divine Dunkin Donuts of Heaven...

I am the One that has 1000 flavors and bake with the purest ingredients of the Father's kitchen

My oven is heated by my Holy Spirit and I have served more than any other in the world.

My franchise is huge, so fret none My children, I have plenty to go around.

So as I fed the thousands of people with only a few natural loaves, I ask you to go forth and feed the hungry as well with the "loaves in your basket." As the young boy shared all he had for others, do unto the same for Me.

I shall forever reign as your King and you shall forever be My children that I enjoy so to sit and drink and eat with as we go on our "Picnic In The Palace" to share our love for one another.

Enjoy children!! For my "Pastries Of Praise" are for you to enjoy and to share the delightful flavors of my Father with all you shall see.

Salute!!!!!!!!

Commune With Me

Sherri Kohler

The skies are enlightened with the beauty of My love as I open the realm further for those to see into. The thunderous skies are no more for it is a time for My divine peace to settle upon the earth. The reflection of My love is radiant as the colors of the spectrum reflect what is of Me. Like gemstones on the crown to which I possess, are glistening from the holy glow of My being.

This is a time of refuge and rest, a time to recover from the weary battles My beloved soldiers to which you have endured, and a time of worship and praises, as the angelic choirs lead you to song. It has been an intense time for some and now is the time to worship Me.

Sing a new song unto Me. Dance a new step to My rhythm. Rejoice and be glad. I know those who are weary and weakened. I know the heaviness of ones that have so faithfully carried their sword throughout the storms and it is now a time to celebrate, for the harvest is ready, and the fruits are ripened.

Rejoice! I say, rejoice! Come to the table that has been prepared unto you for feasting and fulfillment. You are all worthy and I invite you to commune with Me this very day to taste the delightful fruits of My Spirit. There is plenty, so fear not; the plates shall never go empty and the cup shall flow over.

This is a time of great victory and joy. For the dragon has been slain, and you My children hold the swords to which has beheaded the beast of lies and deceit. His mouth as I will say once more is broken; and you my children are the victors to the celebration of your lives and the ones before you.

Rejoice! Rejoice!! Oh chosen ones of mine. Rejoice!!!!!!!!!!

Glory Unto Him!!

Arise
Sherri Kohler

ARISE! ARISE! For Thy Light Has Come! Arise ! And Shine!

Glory to the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit, as it was in the BEGINNING, is NOW and SHALL EVER BE! Amen.

The Lord says, "ARISE" ARISE, For His Light Has Come.

Jesus is here, He has walked the grounds to which we stand, He stayed with us and had taught the words of The Father and spoke of the promises of His Kingdom.

He reminded me this day as I again stood in battle to battle my self -- such a stubborn contender that I seem to never be able to defeat when I go into the ring of myself and box with my boxing gloves of the flesh. It has been a hard lesson for me to understand, that the bell of victory has already been won and it is time to retire my boxing gloves and raise up my sword.

When Jesus went to the tomb of Lazarus He did not put on boxing gloves to battle death, He raised his sword to which was himself and said, "Arise" to that body. There is life that lives within us all. He reminded me this day as I was weary in a battle I was not meant to be in, to ARISE and speak truth to the death that was already defeated!!

To take authority and speak LIFE !! To ARISE!!!!

So my brethren, LIVE IT! GRASP IT! WALK IT! BELIEVE IT! LIFE !!! not Death!! I know that I want it!

I no longer want to carry the" bandages of death" on my body, the lying spirits that try to cover me with the" band aids of bondage" in the "hospitals of horror."

JESUS is my DOCTOR! JESUS is my HEALER!

JESUS is our Friend!

ARISE!! GO FORTH!! FOR THE LIGHT HAS COME!!

ARISE!! as Lazarus did. ARISE to LIFE! And when the enemy tries to tell you that you belong in the bed of bondage, offering you an admission in his "hospital of horrors," just tell him No, and walk away with Jesus!

For you are ALIVE, and you are not a patient but a worker in the "Hospital of Holiness And Healing" that will set the captives free!

Bringing GLORY to HIS Name, not mine,

Passing Of The Pope
Randy Williams

A few words about the passing of the Pope and the Coming of the Antichrist.
4-10-2005
openeyes@verizon.net

Pope John Paul II passed away on April 2nd, 2005 after a 26-year reign. Perhaps one era is ending and another beginning. I feel this is an appropriate time to post a few thoughts.

We have all seen the millions of people gathered to pay their respects to the Pope. We have seen paupers standing next to Presidents and Princes, all with solemn faces. Every mainstream media outlet has put forth a tribute to this "great man of faith". We have seen great pomp and ceremony. Times such as these are invitations to reflection and I am reminded of another funeral long ago. I am reminded of a death that took place under very different circumstances.

Almost 2000 years ago, the mainstream religious leaders crucified the very Son of God. Four different Gospel writers left us accounts of that day. When I compare the death of Jesus to the death of the Pope, I am struck by the total contrast. I am also struck by the total contrast between the Son of God and the man who claimed to be the "Father" to Jesus' Earthly church.

Jesus died as a criminal.
The Pope is revered as a Saint.

Jesus died as a man without sin yet he was falsely accused of many sins.
The pope died as a man who uttered many blasphemies...yet no one speaks of them.

Jesus, a poor man, was buried in another mans tomb.
The Pope, a very rich man, is buried in a great elaborate cathedral.

When Jesus died he entrusted the care of His mother Mary to His disciple John.
When the Pope died he was part of a movement to make Mary the 4th person of the Godhead, calling her a "co-redemptress".

At the time of Jesus' death the political rulers of the day despised Him.
The political rulers of our day shower the Pope with accolades.

When Jesus died the world hated Him but a small remnant saw Him for what He really was.
When the Pope died the world loved him but a small remnant sees him for what he was.

Jesus died as the leader of a small group of believers.
The Pope died as a leader of a huge organization that "sitteth upon many waters". (Rev 17:1)

Jesus was the leader of Apostles and disciples who overflowed with brotherly love.
The Pope was the leader of Cardinals and Bishops infamously known for homosexuality and pedophilia.

That's quite a contrast...but why? Why did the multitudes sneer at Jesus yet anguish over the death of the Pope? Why did the rulers of this world gather themselves in array against Jesus but gather together in support of the Pope? Why were Jesus' disciples forbidden to speak in His name yet millions openly praise the Pope? Why did people invent lies to falsely accuse Jesus yet ignore the blatant and numerous blasphemies of the Pope?

The answer is quite simple. Jesus was part of one Kingdom...the Pope was part of another. Jesus was building the Kingdom of Heaven and the Pope was greatly instrumental in building the Kingdom of the Antichrist. The world hated Jesus because He was not of this world (cosmos). The world loved the Pope because he was of this world (cosmos). The rulers of this world hated Jesus and were confounded by His words...the rulers of this world loved and respected the Pope because he spoke their same language.

I am sure you think I am being too harsh. Perhaps this sort of talk makes you uncomfortable. Perhaps it is because we have put off these kinds of talks for far too long. I could say many direct things at this point but instead I will ask some questions about some serious end-time realities...namely, the "one-world religion" and the "one-world government".

I'll try to keep this short and sweet..."Ecumenism" has been a major tool for the building of the Antichrist's "one world religion". Ecumenism basically has sought to gather the Protestants back into the Catholic fold...basically undoing the Reformation. Of course now it has moved beyond ecumenism and went into "Interfaithism" wherein all the different religions get together and "worship". Once all the religions are "together", the Antichrist can just step in and take control. This is a major method of the Antichrist system...consolidate and then control. (See the major consolidation of Federal powers by George Bush...but we will save him for another post).

The "one-world government" was once a thing looked upon as far off. Not anymore...it is basically here now. And there are thousands of websites devoted to this subject so I can only lightly touch it here. To make a long story short the "one-world government" of the bible is now here and called the "New World Order". You need to do some google searches for that term and educate yourself. The U.N. and the E.U. are totally controlled by the New World Order...but guess what...so is America. Again, educate yourself by learning what the "Council on Foreign Relations" is. Learn what the "Trilateral Commission" is. Learn what "Skull and Bones" is. Learn who controls our "Federal Reserve" system. Learn what the "Bohemian Grove" is and why your "Christian Conservative" leaders are doing mock human sacrifices and ceremonies to a 30 ft tall concrete owl. Learn what R.F.I.D is. Learn who the "Illuminati" are. And lest we leave out Rick Joyner we need to learn whom the "Knights of Malta" are. There is a good Christian man by the name of Alex Jones who has basically dedicated his life to exposing the New World Order and he has several great websites. Probably the best one to check out is www.prisonplanet.com as it has links to the others. I highly advise all Christians to augment their Bible reading with study of these terms etc. There are other people who have similar websites but to me Alex is the most concise and as I said he is a Christian. Understanding the New World Order is fundamental to understanding the books of Revelation and Daniel since the New World Order is what these books largely refer to. Turn off the boob tube for a few hours one day and search on the Internet for some of these terms.

We are headed for DEVASTATING times....times so foreboding and savage that they will have to be shortened if anyone is to survive. Even now we are in a time of MASSIVE deception. We live as if our little false bubble will never pop…as if Jesus warned us for nothing. But we are dead wrong...the situation of the world right now could be described as "the calm before the storm". It would take thousands of words to even lay the groundwork for most of you to understand what is happening. Instead I will just ask a few questions.

If ecumenism is indeed a tool of the devil, why have men like Billy Graham and the Pope been massive and instrumental supporters of ecumenism? If "interfaithism" is absolutely and directly against everything Christianity stands for, why does Chuck Colson go and "pray" with Satanists and Wiccans? Why does George W. Bush pray at Shinto shrines? If the Rev. Sun Myung Moon is a blasphemous false messiah, why are most of the TV evangelists funded by him and why did Jerry Falwell take several million dollars from Moon to bail out Liberty College in 1994? Why did George W Bush in his 2nd inauguration speech place "the words of the Koran" on the same level of truth as "the Sermon on the Mount"?

If the "New World Order" is the very mechanism that builds the Antichrist control system, why did George Bush Senior, the Pope, (also Hitler), and many other world leaders call for a New World Order? If Skull and Bones is just an offshoot and sub-branch of the New World Order, what does it mean to have a President who is from Skull and Bones...whose father is from Skull and Bones...whose grandfather is from Skull and Bones? Why did the Pope say we needed a one-world government and that Gorbachev would be the ideal man to rule over it?

There is a widespread misunderstanding that somehow "things are going to get better". It is clear from the Bible that things are NOT going to get better until the Millennium. It is false to think that somehow through political maneuvering that we are going to bring the 'kingdom now". That is a serious error and these pseudo-Christians in politics and the media are using it to promote a wrong agenda. They are throwing you the bone of being "Pro-Life" and you vote for them based on that and you have no clue how they are setting up the Antichrist's system for him. I don't really hear Ken Copeland warning people about a coming DEVASTATION...I hear him saying that if we vote Republican everything will be right. That is hilariously foolish. "Republican" and "Democrat" are nothing more than a false dichotomy to divide and conquer. I hear Copeland and others saying that if we just get us a Republican in office that it will be smooth sailing and that we will "spread Christianity all over the world and when people see how blessed we are they will want to be Christians too". That would be nice...problem being that it is the opposite of what Jesus said would happen.

Another terrible tragedy is the totally false teaching of a "pre-trib rapture". This is totally unscriptural and is only about 200 years old...the church fathers would have wept if they knew such a thing would ever be taught. We believe it because we want to...we don't want to face reality. This false teaching has left the church totally emasculated. We go on like we have forever here on Earth...as if the Antichrist won't come...as if APOCALYPTIC DEVASTATION isn't coming upon the Earth. And somewhere in the back of our minds we hope that we will be "whisked away before things get too sticky". What a total farce...and yet today you are looked upon almost as a heretic if you believe what Jesus said about His elect being gathered up "after the tribulation of those days". We are living like fools, totally unprepared for what is almost upon us yet we glibly read the parable of the wise and the foolish virgins.

How to sum it all up? I will try to give a few general statements. At this moment the average Christian is in a state of deep deception. They are in a situation somewhat akin to a deaf and blind person standing on the railroad tracks not seeing what is coming. Our "leaders" and the men we look up to are largely charlatans and they are, knowingly or unknowingly, building the wrong kingdom...(and getting quite rich in the process.) This goes for the religious as well as political leaders. Those comparisons I made of the Pope and Jesus would also fit for many other "Christian" leaders. We don't even know who these men really are that we look up to. We sit mesmerized by our television sets as we are programmed for hours upon hours with the devil's propaganda. We think that if it is on CNN or Fox that it must be true. Oh really? How many times have you heard them say that Jesus is the Messiah and the ONLY way to heaven? (shoot, Billy Graham and the Pope didn't even say that). We think that some guy on TV on Sunday morning with a big ministry must have the hand of God blessing him. I tell you plainly that the big ministry and world wide recognition is more a sign that the devil is "blessing" him. We think that some politician that names Jesus or speaks of "faith" is going to fix everything for us...even if he is a member of a satanic cult. We think it is impressive when we see Pat Robertson and others rubbing elbows with all these big political people...but can you picture Jesus rubbing elbows and hanging out with Herod or Pilate?

We need to see what is going on here. We need to come OUT of these false man made "things" we call churches. We need to return to local home churches as per the Bible, not man made conglomerate "systems" or "chain store churches". We need to refuse the trappings of the devil and his system. We have GOT to find a way to tear ourselves away from the devil's propaganda networks. And we have GOT to stop cowering in fear and false deference to these men who publicly blaspheme and publicly flaunt their false allegiances. The time for clarity is now. The time to name names is now. We need to simplify our lives and return to purity and holiness. We need to stop being easily led astray be every charlatan that appears. We need to build the Kingdom of God, not the system of the Antichrist.

Piece Of The Rock

"I also say to you that you are Peter, and upon this rock I will build My church; and the gates of Hades will not overpower it." Matt. 16:18

Son of Man - Son of God

Jesus had just been asking His disciples; "who do people say that the Son of Man is"? Notice with me how He phrases this question, "who do people say that the Son of Man is"? Why did He use the phrase "Son of Man" in this question? For that matter, why was Jesus always referring to Himself as the "Son of Man"? Apparently, it was very important to Him that we realize He came from man as well as from God.

Only a man could fulfill God's eternal purpose. It was man that God created to fulfill a special destiny in being the image of God. It was man that was to have dominion on the earth (Gen. 1:26). Therefore, the Christ had to come as a man in order to create a new race that would be the new Adam and would succeed where the first Adam failed. Jesus asked them, "who is the Son of Man," and Peter answered: "the Son of the living God!"

The Declaration of Peter

It's very important that we see how much depth is involved in the revelation that Peter received from the Father. We know that Peter's confession was a result of a revelation received from the Father in heaven. But let's take a closer look at the declaration itself. "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." Wrapped up inside this one short statement is the very foundation of the universe. The relationship of the Triune God is contained in this one little sentence.

You are the Christ: the word Christ means the Messiah, or Anointed One. But anointed by whom? Anointed by the Holy Spirit. From His baptism to His resurrection, the whole earthly mission of Jesus was in and by the Holy Spirit. He was sent out by the Holy Spirit; baptized in the Holy Spirit; and ministered through the Spirit.

the Son: He is the Son of the living God. Jesus has a relationship to God. He is His Son! If there is a Father, then there must be a Son. If there is a Son, then there must be a Father. Jesus, the Christ, is the only begotten Son of the Father. of the living God: this refers to the Father. In this relationship called "God," there is a Father. All life flows from the Father. That's why He is called the "Father." The Son continually flows out from the Father. The Son is eternal and has always existed. Nevertheless, He eternally flows out of the Father. This is what the term "only begotten" means (John 1:18).

So, here in this one statement of Peter's, we can see the relationship of the Godhead; the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Now, let's take a look at the Lord's response to Peter's confession.

Peter Gets a New Name

First of all, Jesus tells Peter that this revelation came from the Father in the other realm and not from man. Then He gives him another name. His name was Simon Barjona, now his name will be "Piece of the Rock." That's the literal translation of the word Peter ('petros' in Greek). The Lord tells him that you are 'piece of the rock' (or stone) and upon this rock (petra) I will build My church. The word 'petra' here means a massive rock or mountain. Are you starting to get the picture here? There is this mountain, a massive rock formation, and then there are these stones, or pieces of the mountain. Remember, all stones come from the mountain.

"And coming to Him as to a living stone which has been rejected by men, but is precious and choice in the sight of God, you also, as living stones are being built up as a spiritual house for a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ."

I Peter 2: 4, 5

Multiple Interpretations

Jesus said, "upon this rock (petra - massive rock) I will build My church. There have been several interpretations as to what this "rock" means. Some say that the rock is the revelation that Peter received. Some say that the rock is the confession Peter made. And some say that the rock is Christ Himself. I believe that all three of these are true, but I would like to add one.

The "rock" is also the relationship of the Godhead! Peter's confession was: "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God (Father)." Peter saw that the Christ was not alone. The Christ was not living in a vacuum. The Christ is part of a community of Three. Those Three are One. It's Their oneness that makes up the massive rock or mountain that is the foundation of the church (see John 17).

What is the difference between rock and sand? Why is sand not a good foundation for a house? It's obviously because the sand shifts, but why does it shift? Because sand is many tiny rocks that are all separate from one another. There is no cohesiveness. There is no oneness. The massive mountain is one solid piece of rock. It holds together within itself, that's why it can support a structure. This is the oneness of the Triune God. This is the fellowship of the Godhead. This is the foundation of the church! The Christ, the Son of the living God.

But how do you fit into this?

Piece of the Rock

Jesus told Peter that he was a piece of the rock. But what rock? The massive mountain that He would build His church upon! All stones must come from the mountain.

"Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places in Christ, just as He chose us (marked us off) in Him before the foundation of the world, that we would be holy and blameless before Him." Eph. 1:3, 4

Dear believer, you were chosen (marked off) in Christ before creation! The Father took a portion of the Son and wrote your name upon it! This is before there was anything. There was only God Himself. And the Father chose YOU in Christ! He chipped off a piece of the Rock and called it by your name!

This is who you are. This is where you came from. You came from the Mountain. You came out from the Massive Rock. Just as Eve came out from Adam, so the church comes out of Christ. Eve was not created. She was built from material taken out of Adam. Just as the church is built from the material that is taken out of Christ. Pieces of the Rock!

Now, God is in the process of building His house upon solid rock. He wants to take the living stones and build them together upon the massive mountain of His relationship with His Son. This foundation is sure and true because of the oneness within God Himself. God wants a place that He can call home. He wants a home where He can rest and relax and just be Himself. You are a piece of the Rock, a living stone. Won't you allow Him to build you together with other stones so He can have His house?

Pray For California

Lisa Doyle

As most of you are probably aware, California has recently been experiencing tremors and earthquakes throughout the state. As I was pondering and praying for the State of California in reference to these quakes, I was reminded of the dream-like visitation I had in March of this year in reference to the State of California that was released on the Elijah List on March 4, 2005.

In this dream-like visitation the Lord revealed to me that we were to pray for the State of California against impending natural disasters, especially tremors and earthquakes around the time that landslides occurred. On June 1, Laguna Beach experienced major landslides destroying many homes and damaging many others. At that time, the Lord told me to revisit the dream and look to what occurred about the time of the landslides. Here is an excerpt from the dream after the landslides:

As I continued in my endeavors to warn individuals and give my help along the way, I began to feel tremors below the earth's surface and I knew that a greater threat now existed. The tremors were faint at first and then began to build in intensity. As the visitation continued, I saw the rumblings and tremors build beneath the earth's surface, and I suddenly had a knowing that a major earthquake or earthquakes were impending. The visitation ended and I heard the Lord say, "San Bernardino."

I knew in my spirit that the landslide in Laguna Beach tied into the dream-like visitation and that it was definitely a sign to pray for California, especially in the area of earthquakes.

The other night, when one of the first earthquakes hit off the coast of Northern California, Steve Shultz and I were on the telephone dialoging about the current events transpiring, and he asked me what I was getting from the Lord. I said, with a knowing from the Lord, "that it was the beginning of many earthquakes." Since then there have been several other tremors and earthquakes throughout the state, including one in San Bernardino County.

What does this mean?

Well, I believe that this is a strategic time to rally in prayer for the State of California, specifically the area of San Bernardino -- as the Lord was very specific about this in the dream-like visitation -- but also the entire Pacific Coastline and the Pacific Rim of Fire needed intercession against any impending and devastating earthquakes, tremors, and other forms of natural disasters. And although I do believe that earthquakes are imminent, and many other prophets are getting and have released the same revelation, we should always pray to lessen the judgment and devastation of such events -- or even see them prevented altogether, the Lord willing.

Now, do our prayers guarantee that no earthquakes or loss of life will occur or happen? My answer would emphatically be, "I don't know!"

All I do know is that we are to pray, to prepare, and for each of us to do our own part as the Lord leads and allows.

Also, when a word is released that calls for prayer, especially in the area of warnings, direction, and/or correction, please hold fast to the Mercy Seat and ask the Lord to give you peace.

Philippians 4:6-8 "Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God; and the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

"Finally, brethren, whatever things are true, whatever things are noble, whatever things are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report, if there is any virtue and if there is anything praiseworthy -- meditate on these things." (NKJV)

Psalm 46:10 "Be still, and know that I am God; I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted in the earth!" (NKJV)

(also see Jeremiah 33:3)

Saints, please join with me in prayer to set up a prayer shield for the State of California and also the entire Pacific Coastline, including Canada, Alaska, Mexico, and South America, with an emphasis on these cities: Portland, Salem, Juno, Seattle, Redding, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Albany, Medford, LaGrande, and British Columbia. Please pray, prophesy and declare Psalm 91.

On a side note: Even as I write this I feel led by the Holy Spirit to rally in prayer protection for dams, tributaries, and water systems.

Also, please recognize that although we are calling for prayer for protection, we should also emphasize that the Lord is moving amazingly in the Pacific Northwest, and also beyond. We are experiencing the beginnings of Revival Fire and a Release of Faith, Hope, and Love within the region. (Isaiah 61; Psalm 133; Habakkuk 2:2, 3; I Corinthians 13; Joel 2:28; Acts 2; Isaiah 55)

Saints, please agree with us in prayer for the Lord's blessing and that His Favor shines brightly upon this region as the "Church Arises" and there is a release of Heaven that looses the Miraculous, Healing, Deliverance, Salvation, Resurrection Life/Power, and a cleansing and healing of the Land.

Also, in my spirit, I truly believe that the Revival that the Prophets have spoken of over the years for this area is awakening. Please agree in prayer, proclamation, and declaration, "For Such A Time as This," that it is time for the release and realization of the "The Great Awakening."

Many blessings, and love to you,

Prepare America!
Nita Johnson

September 8, 2005

Dear Friends:

The Lord has been very merciful to us this year. Many hurricanes have promised to be catastrophic and yet Jesus did the unimaginable and disallowed the forecasted destruction. Truly His mercy endures far beyond our evil deeds as a Nation and personal failures as a commonwealth of American Citizens.

Dennis was problematic, but a teaser compared to Katrina. Since Katrina came with her death defying winds and water, many have sought to explain the mystery of her rage. Some, but certainly not all revert to making this a Divine argument for Israel. I would like to share another side of Katrina and the situation with Israel.

Israel

The Lord covered the sin of dividing the Land of Israel in 2000, long before the land was practically divided. Jesus appeared to me in the fall of that year in connection with an important Congress concerning this very issue and shared His heart regarding His judicial decision to put this sin behind Him in light of His greater purpose for Israel. At that time He covered Israel and America who both stood to be disciplined for this act. This is what He told me.

The Land had to be divided. It was necessary for the purpose of preparing Israel for His glory. If you are not a Jewish person you may not be able to understand how us Jewish people love the Land to the point of idolatry if Messiah isn't in His proper place. This speaks of most of Israel. It is understandable in light of Jewish suffering around the world. Nevertheless, Messiah wants the heart of His people.

The Bible says: Therefore, are justice and right far from us, and righteousness and salvation do not overtake us. We expectantly wait for light, but only see darkness; for brightness, but we walk in obscurity and gloom. We grope for the wall like the blind, yes, we grope like those who have no eyes. We stumble at noonday as in twilight; in dark places and among those who are full of life and vigor, we are as dead men. For our transgressions are multiplied before you O Lord, and our sins testify against us; for our transgressions are with us, and as for our iniquities, we know and recognize them all. Rebelling against and denying the Lord, turning away from following our God. Is 59

This is Israel's way. I am not saying God is angry with Israel. I am saying that many Israeli's feel that salvation in some way rests in the Land and therefore do not look further for Messiah. He is trying to get their attention for the purpose of saving their souls which is imminently more important than the occupation of the Land at this point in time.

The Word says: Your people also shall all be uncompromisingly and consistently righteous; they shall possess the land forever, the branch of my planting, that I might be glorified. Is 60:21 When shall we inherit the land forever? When we are righteous. Further the Word adds: But he who takes refuge in Me shall possess the land [Judea] and shall inherit My holy mountain. Is 57:13 Who shall inherit it? Those who take refuge in Him, our wonderful Heavenly Father, by way of Messiah. I am showing you a secret in the Lord's dealings with my people. Messiah appeared to me with a scroll in His hand during one of my prayer sessions while in Israel. He handed me the scroll. Upon the scroll was the above mentioned Scripture. He pointed out to me that those who take refuge in Him will inherit the land forever. This is not speaking of the Gentile Church, but of redeemed Israel.

The Bible say's in Joel 3:2 that there is a certain punishment upon those Nations who Divide the land. God will bring them into the Valley of Jehoshaphat and execute judgment up them. This is why Jesus had to lead us to repent for this sin in the Congress of 2000 so He could cover both America and Israel with His forgiveness. Otherwise both Israel and America would fall under God's future judgment.

Let us consider another issue. The attitude in which a Nation might take it upon themselves to divide the Land is also important. We have had Presidents working on this Land for Peace who if they would have succeeded would have brought America under the severest judgment because their hearts were one of war with Israel. They weren't trying to spare Israel harm as is the case with President Bush, they simply wanted to give the land to the Arabs and make a political name for themselves. So, if America had to be involved with this issue I am thankful it was through a Christian President who really cares for my people.

Further, concerning the temporal government in Israel I want to share a few things. The Jewish people moved into Gaza at Ariel Sharon's request a few decades ago. Now he is saying I am sorry, I was wrong, you must move. I don't know that he was wrong. I think Israel has withstood many adverse winds because of the faithful people in Gaza.

The funds are available to give to the people who are being forced out of their homes to enable them to purchase something else. Why the government does not have the structure in place to make this a much easier transition I don't really know. The people should not have to be living in hotels right now, as I understand it. As far as people living in tents, this too is not necessary. They are doing this by way of protest against the forced move. Nevertheless, this terrible and painful upheaval is for the good of my people and is being provoked by the Lord out of His love and not anger. He is preparing the way for His glory. The many visitations I have been given over this issue explaining to me the reasons for this historic move are all listed in the article: "Dividing the Land of Israel." It is a must read if you are to fully understand what is happening. www.worldforjesus.org is my website address.

The Lord has offset the judgment against both our countries for some important reasons. First, in some ways dividing the land is going to put Israel under greater vulnerability. Arabs will have an open sea to transport arms into the Palestinian occupied land. That won't be good for Israel. Although I sense we will enter into a time of greater peace for a season after this pull out, I also believe that ultimately war will ensue which will put the whole Middle East in chaos. Israel will win that war! At war's end, the world will finally see that Israel has done everything humanly possible to make peace with the Arabs around them to no avail. There will be such a pity released World-Wide for Israel that the Nations of the world will then say: Israel build your Temple on Temple Mount. Then will Isaiah 61 be fulfilled and the Lord will be on His way back to His people.

Israel is presently tithing land that will be returned to them! During one of my visits to Israel I was in my room asleep late at night. The Lord awakened me and told me to go to the Worship Center. He said He would meet with me there. I arose and obeyed. As I closed the door of the room and locked it, the holiness of the Lord began to fill the room and I knew I was about to have a special visitation. I laid the map of Israel out on the floor getting ready to pray over the Nation concerning the boundaries. Suddenly two of the Seven Spirits of God came in. The Spirit of the Lord and the Spirit of the Fear of the Lord. I won't share this whole visit, but I will tell you this much. They came in, the Spirit of the Fear of the Lord stood beside me, and the Spirit of the Lord rose up into the sky. The ceiling of the worship center disappeared and I had the incredible, unfathomable privilege of watching the Spirit of the Lord mark out the boundaries of Israel. The boundaries He marked were far more vast than Israel occupies today. They spanned clear out to what looked like present day Iraq. I was in awe! After the Spirit of the Lord finished His task He took me up into the heaven's and asked me if I would like to see what He had just completed. I looked and behold there was a luminous red line of pure light that began in the North bordering on the Mediterranean, going down south to the tip of Israel's southern boarder, then over the mountains and plains toward Iraq and back east to the Northeastern tip of Israel. I was in breathless awe. He then told me these were the boundaries marked out by the Father and that they could never be changed. So, I know it matters little what man does now, for the Eternal Father has already had the last word in the matter.

In conclusion, Israel isn't going anywhere. My people are there to inherit there inheritance. There is one more important step needed to make that possible -- salvation through Messiah! In the meantime He will work toward turning our mourning into gladness.

America

Back to Katrina! Katrina was sent to stop us from going over the edge from which there would have been no soon return. The Lord spoke to me while I was in New Orleans with my leadership of the Gatherings. He said: I will destroy this city in a day! I was shocked, but I shared it with all the leaders. This was July 2nd of this year. The reason He stated for this stern discipline is the following. The foundation of the judgment is found in the shedding of innocent blood and the brutality against the First Nations People and the African Americans which span over 400 years. Of course the abortion issue falls next in line. After that, idolatry including, the occult and false religions, and the sins of decadence and the like. Every kind of licentious behavior falls into this category.

These are the reasons He gave to me that day! He never mentioned Israel and the dividing of the land as that is a settled issue to Him.

What we as a Nation need is repentance for our sin-sick heart! New Orleans never would have happened if that city and surrounding areas were not a Sodom and Gomorrah in God's eyes. The suffering of the innocent and the guilty brings tears of horrific grief both to the Lord and the world. But, He does have a plan for our good in aftermath.

Why am I going through such great lengths to explain this? Because we have more to travel through. After Katrina, the Lord began to speak to me about the Nation once again. He said: "There will be two more battles with hurricanes. Prayer can overcome." The next day He said: "Sodom and Gomorrah!" Later He said: "The sin of decadence." The next day He said: "Horse racing." Later that night He spoke in a vision: "Chaos." The next day He spoke in another vision: "Along the Gulf Coast." Right now, Ophelia is spinning around off the coast of Florida, a level one hurricane. One prophet said she is going to rip through Florida then into the Gulf. If she does what he said I would assume she stands a real good chance of being the storm that will bring about the fulfillment of our Lord's strong warnings to me. We are about to take another hit, dear Friends. This is not over Israel, it is over our sin-sick heart! It is a Divine attempt to bring us back to the Cross before we cross over the line of no return.

What were the sins of Sodom and Gomorrah? Ezekiel 16:49 & 50 says: Pride, overabundance of food, prosperous ease, idleness, neither did she strengthen the hands of the poor and needy and finally, haughtiness and terrible abominations.

What falls into the sin of decadence? Wantonness, lewdness - addiction to fornication and unlawful lusts, unrestrained lustfulness, indulgence in unrestrained sensuality as men grown wanton through prosperity. The apostle James said: Ye have lived in pleasures on the earth and grown wanton. (Js 5) It further speaks of luxuriant living and extravagance. All these fall under this category. We must as a people who belong to Jesus repent of our Nation's sins until our Nation can repent of its own sins. (Mk 7:22; II Cor. 12:21; GA 5:19; Eph. 4:19; and Jude 4) Romans Chapter 1 verses 23 - 32 says that anyone guilty of these sins is worthy of death. We have lived in the mercy of God all these years because He does not want any man to perish, and also, because of His great love for His Church.

This is what the Lord is looking for. In our repentance we will win the soul of our Nation. Chaos is once again coming to the Gulf unless we can pray it through and stop or greatly reduce this next calamity. Please pray for Israel as she comes through to her destiny. But, also pray for America as she comes through to hers.

The Precious: Part 2

by Bill Somers

This article is a short follow up to my earlier article, The Precious. That article forms a foundation for what I am saying here. [Also see the article The How and the Therefore.]

The Lord gives us instruction, 'line upon line, precept upon precept; here a little and there a little.' Each new insight becomes the foundation for something more yet to come.

So everything I've said so far is a preliminary. All this is the foundation for a word the Lord gave me in June and July of 92. A startling, exciting word, which he clearly spoke to me on two separate occasions. (The second time, he made sure I wrote it down.)

That the martyrdom of the church would allow him to break the powers that keep Israel in blindness! Correspondingly, the martyrdom of a remnant of saints would allow him to break the powers that keep the church in blindness!

So what is this supposed to mean? Lets look at some scriptures relating to blindness of Israel and of the Church.

> What then? Israel hath not obtained that which he seeketh for; but the election hath obtained it, and the rest were blinded.* Romans. 11:7
> For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, lest ye should be wise in your own conceits; that blindness in part is happened to Israel, until the fulness of the Gentiles be come in Romans. 11:25*.*

These two verses from the book of Romans speak clearly of the blindness on Israel. The following passage refers to the children of Israel but can also apply to the Church

> Seeing then that we have such hope, we use great plainness of speech:
> And not as Moses, [which] put a vail over his face, that the children of Israel could not stedfastly look to the end of that which is abolished:
> But their minds were blinded: for until this day remaineth the same vail untaken away in the reading of the old testament; which [vail] is done away in Christ.*
> But even unto this day, when Moses is read, the vail is upon their heart.
> Nevertheless when it shall turn to the Lord, the vail shall be taken away. 2nd Corinthians 3: 12-16..

We find an interesting commentary on this section in Luke; it could even be inserted in the above text after verse 15. "... If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead." (Luke 16:31). And of course the one who rose from the dead is Jesus, the Jewish Messiah! We believe it is proper to speak about blindness in the church because Jesus does in the Book of Revelation. In his rebuke to the Laodicean Church, which is the church of today, He says:

> Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked:
> I counsel thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and [that] the shame of thy nakedness do not appear; and anoint thine eyes with eyesalve, that thou mayest see Revelations. 3:17-18*.*

The above quoted passage from 2nd Corinthians applies to the Church for several reasons.
A. As Israel is a type of the Church, many verses that speak to or of Israel also make sense when applied to the Church.
B. The passage clearly speaks of a blindness in terms of a vail over the mind or over the heart.

C. The blindness is related to understanding of the scriptures, especially the old testament but also the new.
D. The mention of not being able 'to look to the end' speaks of not understanding end time prophecy.
E. The references to the vail say that it is 'done away in Christ' and 'when it shall turn to the Lord, the vail shall be taken away'. The vail is removed, done away in Christ, in the spiritual but in the natural it awaits the turning or returning to the Lord before it can be finally removed.

The vail of the Temple was removed at the death of Jesus. As Mathew. 27:51 says: "And, behold, the veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom; and the earth did quake, and the rocks rent;".

The removal of these other vails will also require a death. What the Lord is saying is that the blindness, the veil, over Israel will be removed by a death, the death of the Church. The removal of the vail in Matt. 27:51 is a type. Just as Jesus death removed the vail in the natural temple, the death of the body of Christ, the Church, will remove the vail in the spiritual temple.

But first the vail blinding the Church must be removed. And then, when the fulness of the Gentiles [the Church] is come in, Israel's blindness will be removed..

When the Church "shall turn to the Lord, the vail shall be done away." This will happen when revival comes. But it will require martyrdom, perhaps extensive martyrdom on the part of the remnant of the Church. [See the Rick Joyner article, Onslaught Against the Church] That is the remnant that is praying for revival and discerning the times.

When the nation of Israel "shall turn to the Lord, the vail shall be done away." And they will look upon Him whom they pierced and cry "Hosanna to the Son of David: Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord; Hosanna in the highest." Mathew 21:9

And so this concept is a key to the two major events of end time prophecy. The coming of the Lord and the coming of revival. The one event open and manifest, the other somewhat hidden in scripture.

To phrase it another way, the coming of the Lord, the Day of the Lord is the coming of the Lord for and with his church. [See Marvin Ford's vision of Heaven] The coming of revival, an invisible coming, is the coming of the Lord 'to' his church.

> Come, and let us return unto the LORD: for he hath torn, and he will heal us; he hath smitten, and he will bind us up.
> After two days will he revive us: in the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live in his sight.
> Then shall we know, if we follow on to know the LORD: his going forth is prepared as the morning; and he shall come unto us as the rain, as the latter and former rain unto the earth.* Hosea 6:1-3

THE PRECIOUS

by Bill Somers

"Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints." Ps. 116:15

Jesus asked one of his disciples, "... Wilt thou lay down thy life for my sake?" (John 13:38)
In Mark 10:38 He asked "... can ye drink of the cup that I drink of? and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?
Romans 12:1 asks us to present our bodies, a living sacrifice.
1 John 3:16 tells us we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren.
In Rev. 2:10 we are told to be faithful unto death.
In Rev. 2:13 we are reminded of the faithful martyr Antipas.

Personally, I never expected to be caught away as an escape from persecution or tribulation. The Lord has told us to expect persecution and tribulation. These verses here are a strong indication that He expects us to be ready to give our lives for the Kingdom. After all we are not our own, but are purchased with His blood and must be at his disposal. If He requires our death, at any time, He should be obeyed without hesitation. We really don't even have the right to ask why! But there is a God in Heaven that reveals secrets!

As I said, I never expected to be caught away as an escape from persecution or tribulation, I expect that somehow, somewhere I would die in the persecution! In John 7:16-17 we read "Jesus answered them, and said, My doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me. If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself." This implies that the Lord reveals his will to the willing. That He opens an understanding of His Word to those who are ready to obey.

Because of my willingness to obey Him in this, He has shown me something of Why the death of the saints precious to God? That is, that in some cases, MARTYRDOM CONTRIBUTES TO THE HARVEST. And of course the harvest is a major purpose of God. My first exposure to this idea came during a message I heard shortly after I got saved. Here it is.

The following text is transcribed from a taped sermon given by T. George Koshy, an Indian national pastor. I hope you can excuse his awkward English, which I try to quote as correctly as I can. This was given at Reserve Church, Nov 17, 1985. Brother Koshy was preaching on Living in Holiness. The text was Daniel 9:20-23. This is how he closed his message.

"Brothers and sisters, circumstances which we are in, its not favorable for you and me to serve the Lord. But don't blame the circumstances. In the midst of the strained circumstances, you and I can take a stand for God.
I think 6 or 7 years ago, in a state in the northern border of India, that state passed a law against worship. That means if I convert a man from Hindu to Christianity, that means the government can fine me three thousand rupees and put me in the prison.
In that state an around 18 year old girl, a tribal Hindu girl, accepted Jesus as her personal savior.
Her mom, dad, brothers and sisters; all the relatives, all the tribe of people tried their best to bring her back to her old religion. She said "No, I'm not going to deny my Jesus, I'm going to serve Him!"
The entire tribe of people gathered in one open place and brought this girl. They tried to persuade her to deny Jesus. She said no. They hanged her upside down on a tree. They beat her up. Then her father, mother, brothers, sisters, everybody implored her, "Please! Deny Jesus!" She said "NO!"
They put enough wood and things underneath, and put the fire on that wood, while she was hanging, burned and give her life for Jesus.
It is easy for me to say that. If the same thing happened to me I don't know how I'm going to stand and face....
Brothers and sisters, the entire tribe is in Pentecost right now.

While she was burning, heaven will be calling her 'thou art greatly beloved.'
Brothers and sisters, take a stand. If you have to give your life, don't hesitate, don't turn back. Tradition says when they tried to hang Peter, he escaped. But then he came back and said, "Hang me upside down, let me kiss the foot of my master, and I'll die."
If that happened today, ... how many will say ... I'm going to give my life ... for the one who hanged on the cross ... and gave his life for me. And heaven will say, 'thou art greatly beloved'.
My prayer, ... there was a prophecy towards me when I received the baptism. 'God will send me around the world as a witness'... that happened ... and second, 'I'll be slain for the sake of the Gospel!' And I pray every day, God, if I'm going to go through that kind of torture, ... give me the grace not to deny ... but to give my life ...."

I have included some ... pauses ... in my transcription of the tape to indicate the emotional content of Koshy's closing remarks. All of us there were very touched by depth of feeling he showed.

One comment of his stayed with me, though he quickly passed over it. And it seemingly went unnoticed by the congregation. That was when he said, "Brothers and sisters, the entire tribe is in Pentecost right now." This is to say, they all have been saved and baptized in the Holy Ghost! How or why was never mentioned. Yet here is a case where martyrdom apparently contributed to a harvest of souls!

Jim Elliot and four other American missionaries were killed in the late 1950's on an outreach to the Auca tribe in Ecuador, South America. Subsequently, the entire tribe converted to Christianity. And the very first converts were the men who had killed the missionaries. These missionaries gave their lives in a futile attempt to evangelize a tribe of savages. Their mission was apparently a total failure! Yet their deaths contributed to a harvest, for that tribe totally converted to Christ! Now why or how does this happen?

Divine Visitations in Algeria

In the early 1980's, a truly remarkable incident took place in a North African village located some 125 miles east of the city of Algiers. According to testimony, on one unforgettable night in 1983 - with no prior warning and for no immediately discernible reason - God sovereignty descended upon this coastal township with gracious bounty. Moving from house to house, and communicating through a combination of dreams, visions and angelic visitations. He did not rest until every member of this Muslim community was properly introduced to His only begotten Son, Jesus. As might be expected, come daybreak, nearly every villager had a story to tell.

As the Holy Spirit lingered and these simple citizens managed to piece together the magnitude of what had happened to them, a sense of spiritual awe settled over the entire village. In the weeks that followed, their conclusions led to a dramatic wholesale conversion involving some 400 to 450 Muslim villagers - a nearly eighteen fold increase in the size of the Algerian national church!

When amazed mission workers, who had had no direct involvement in this extraordinary development, began to investigate possible reasons for this sovereign visitation, they came across a stunning piece of information. It was at virtually this very site that, in June 1315, Raymond Lull, a Spanish missionary from Majorca, had been stoned to death by frenzied Muslims after preaching in the open market.

The blood of martyrs, it has often been said, represents the seed of the Church. Lull, who is generally considered to be the first missionary to the Muslims, certainly believed this. In his book, "The Tree of Life", he wrote that Islamic strongholds are best conquered "by love and prayers, and the pouring out of tears and blood." In retrospect, it appears that it was precisely this formula that summoned the recent supernatural events in Algeria. Falling into the ground on that summer day in the fourteenth century, the seed of Raymond Lull's poured-out life was subsequently watered by the tears of generations of pious intercessors.

Faithfully tending their cause, these saints waited patiently until, some time in the late twentieth century, the golden vials of heaven overflowed and God was released to summon forth fruit in its due season.

Adding even more luster to this marvelous story is the fact that it has apparently triggered a book of Acts - style revival throughout other parts of Algeria, which continues to this day. During the summer of 1990, I had the high privilege of meeting with several dozen former Muslims who had come to faith in Christ within the previous eighteen months. Nearly all reported some type of supernatural intervention. Churches are spreading like wildfire, particularly among the Habyle Berber people living in and around the Atlas Mountains. One recent Arabic speaking visitor described as many as several thousand new believers meeting for Bible studies and marathon prayer sessions in homes and on mountaintops.

On a recent trip to Rochester, New York, I spoke with a middle aged missionary who in the late 1960's led a team of young Americans in prayer on the very site of Raymond Lull's fourteenth century martyrdom in Algeria. Praying that God would redeem the seed of Raymond Lull's poured out life and send a move of His Spirit, the team helped to lay the groundwork for a sovereign outpouring of divine grace fewer than twenty years down the road. How and why does this happen?

George Otis's explanation is that "strongholds are best conquered "by love and prayers, and the pouring out of tears and blood."

In the late 1980's the Exodus II movement began under the leadership of Steve Lightle. One day in '88 the Lord showed him he would be involved with the harvest in Arabia!

I shared this one day with an Arab Christian minister from Kuwait. According to this prophecy, Steve Lightle was told he would one day preach the gospel in Mecca. Abdul Rahman (not his real name) told me that in the 1920's a Christian had penetrated Mecca and had actually gotten into the Kaba (a famous shrine) to pray. The Muslims found him there and killed him on the spot. (No further details were offered.)

I expressed a belief that the Lord would somehow honor that death and make use of it. He replied that the shed blood of the saints is never wasted.

Has this unknown 'Martyr of Mecca' become the seed for a future outpouring of the Spirit, following the same pattern as in the Algerian village? Do those who are interceding for the Muslims water this seed? Are both of these contributing to a future harvest, fulfilling the prophecy given to Steve Lightle? I believe so.

It looks like, whenever Satan kills one of God's people, it costs him something.

American missionary David Hogan, heading up Freedom Ministries, based in Laredo Texas, is a man moving in the anointing of a pioneer apostle. The Lord has used him, like Paul, in numerous miracles, especially raising the dead. Hogan in fact, claims to have lost count of the number of times he has raised the dead. His testimony includes an interesting incident related to our topic. While traveling on foot to a remote Mexican village his party was suddenly accosted by a pair of communist gunmen. His immediate proclamation went something like this. 'Devil, if you kill me, I'm claiming 100 more just like me to come take my place!'

The gunmen lowered their arms and disappeared into the brush! Every time the devil kills one of God's people, it costs him something. Apparently, in this case, being confronted first hand with this high cost, the devil backed off.

Jesus gave his disciples authority over all the power of the enemy. He gave us the power to bind and loose in spiritual warfare. Scripture teaches us to use the authority of His Name over the forces of Satan. Experience shows that this works, when the anointing is there.

Jesus also taught that when a strong man is bound his house can be entered and his goods taken. In the cases above, the Algerian village, the Hindu tribe and the American Indian tribe were all harvested. They were harvested in a total and dramatic fashion that indicates a spiritual breakthrough. These souls were taken away from the strong men, demonic rulers, who formerly held them captive. Somehow martyrdom contributed to these harvests.

We know that prayer can bind the strongman, but is there scripture showing that martyrdom can do so? We see that it is highly effective, even crucial in some cases. So how and why does this happen? My speculation is that the 'death of the saints', plus prayer, gives the Lord a reason to move. It provides justification for bringing judgment on the demonic powers. ("Ye shall die like men" Ps. 82:7). And clearly demonic powers have to be broken for this type of harvest to occur.

Suzette Hattingh (a teacher on intercessory prayer) gives the example of a policeman signaling for a truck to stop, as an example of authority in spiritual warfare. The prayer warrior, dressed in the armor of God, is like the policeman in his uniform. His authority is obvious because he is wearing the uniform. The Truck driver knows that he will be in a lot of trouble if he ignores the policeman and fails to stop.

Now consider what kind of trouble the trucker is in if he runs over the policeman and kills him! Every cop in town will be after him! If you translate this into the spiritual realm you can see what this means. This illustrates the power and effect of martyrdom. The Devil is in big trouble whenever he kills one of the saints. Whenever Satan kills one of God's people, it's going to cost him something sooner or later.

The scriptural key to the effect of martyrdom is as He says in Romans 12, "Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord. Therefore if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give him drink: for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head. Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good." (Romans 12:19-21)

More simply put, Martyrdom gives place to wrath. And then eventually vengeance comes. And then harvest comes. "Vengeance is mine, saith the Lord, I will repay." This verse is so often taken as a warning to the believer not to avenge himself. But look to the second part, "I will repay" and see that as one of God's promises! HE WILL REPAY! Not he might, and not he ought to and not he'll think about it. He WILL repay! You know our battles are not with flesh and blood, our enemy is spiritual. It is the vengeance that the Lord executes in the spiritual realm that breaks enemy strongholds, and brings such glorious results.

And so this summarizes my understanding of how martyrdom contributes to the harvest. I am reminded of the words of Medhi Dibaj, the recent Iranian martyr who said: "It is a terrible waste for a Christian to die a natural death!

Feb 11, 2005

At the end of last week's letter I mentioned the order of YHVH's kingdom, stating the following: The writer to the Hebrews states the problem very clearly. He says that after Yeshua was "made perfect, [He] became the author of eternal salvation unto all of them that obey Him, [and was] called of YHVH Elohim a high priest after the order of Melchizedec." In the same breath the same writer adds in the succeeding verse: "Of which [topic – the order of Melchizedec] we have many things to say and hard to be uttered, seeing you are dull of hearing. " The author of the book wanted desperately to share with the Believers about the order of Melchizedec, the order of YHVH's kingdom, but they could not hear. He goes on to say that although they ought to be teachers by now, they were still in need of taking once more the "milk" of the first principles of the oracles of YHVH, and are unable to consume strong meat. According to this author, the reason for their condition was, "not being practiced in the word of righteousness", a fact that rendered them as babes (ref Heb 5:12-13). End of quote.

One of Yeshua's greatest dissertations on righteousness, or explanation of the Torah, can be found in Matthew Chapters 5 through 7. These are not rules and regulations per se, but rather, they demonstrate the very nature and heart of Torah; the nature of the new creation life that was to be written on the heart of the New Covenant redeemed Israelites. Within the context of the teaching, Yeshua instructed His disciples to pray: "Our Father", as a point of personal family identity (both as an Israelite and as an individual). "Doubtless You are our Father, though Abraham does not know us, and Israel does not recognize us. You, YHVH are our Father; our Redeemer from everlasting is Your name" (Isaiah 63:16). "But now, YHVH, You are our Father; we are the clay, and You are our potter; and all we are the work of Your hand" (Isaiah 64:8).

Next, Yeshua states that our Father is in the "heavens". Please note the plurality of heavens. "Where can I go from Your Spirit? Or where can I flee from Your presence? If I ascend into heaven, You are there; if I make my bed in hell, behold, You are there. If I take the wings of the morning, and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea, even there Your hand shall lead me, and Your right hand shall hold me" (Psalm139:7-10). Then Yeshua sanctifies the name of our Father, acknowledging not just the 'letter of the name', but the very nature of His name - "Holiness", set apartness.

After giving glory to the Father, Yeshua sets in order the priorities; first and foremost His Father's Kingdom and His will: "Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done". Where? "On earth as it is in the heavens". "As it is in the heavens", indicates that there is no problem with YHVH's will being done there, and so it is to the earthly protocol of the Kingdom that Yeshua is pointing. That is, the redemption of His inheritance, Israel and the irrevocable call that is upon them as a nation. Those whom he foreknew are predestined to become His royal priesthood on earth – being the expression of His Kingdom. This is why in Matthew 6:33 He exhorts his followers to "seek first the Kingdom of Elohim and His righteousness".

What does it mean to seek His Kingdom? Where do we look and what do we look for? Many possibilities present themselves in this search for the Kingdom of YHVH Elohim on earth. But it seems that the search calls for a certain order. Perhaps to start with…

The angel Gabriel, in announcing the birth of the Messiah, declared that this one, who was to come, would set up His Kingdom in the House of Jacob (see Luke 1:33). Later the Messiah's disciples, expecting Him to establish this Kingdom in Israel, asked Him when He was going to "restore the Kingdom to Israel" (Acts 1:6). They were extremely disappointed that Yeshua had not accomplished what they felt the prophets had foretold. However, Yeshua's answer to their question was a little evasive: "just hang in there for it will soon come" (and with that He promised that they would receive the power from the Spirit of Holiness to be His witnesses of that Kingdom. Acts. 1:8). The disciples thought that there would be an outward manifestation of this Kingdom, with the Messiah sitting in Jerusalem on the throne of David, but instead Yeshua said that He was going to heaven to sit at His Father's right hand until all His enemies would be dealt with (Luke 20:41-43). From that position of authority He would then send the Spirit of Holiness and baptize the believing Israelites with fire in order to purge and restore righteousness, peace and joy to the heart of His people.

"I will put My Spirit within you and cause you to walk in My statutes, and you will keep My judgments and do them"…(Ezekiel 36:27, 37:14).

The Kingdom, along with the King, would take up residence in the House of Jacob. But rather than it being an outward Kingdom as it had been in the past, it would be an internal spiritual one. Since the House of Jacob is made up of the Two Houses, and those houses are made up of His people, it is the people who make up the house and who have His Kingdom in them. In this way they are fulfilling what the Messiah came to do - to set up His divine authority in the life of the Israelites.

Pressing On

David Davenport

All Scriptural references are New American Standard Version unless otherwise indicated.

Not long ago I met with an unusually restless evening late in the night, which led me to blindly turn on the television set in a sleepy stupor. I typically view very little television, and usually when I am met with restlessness deep in the night, I learn before long that the Holy Spirit has beckoned to meet with me in prayer.

As I turned on the television set, I recognized a nature documentary in motion. The setting was that of a beautiful aerial view of the Amazon River in South America. And as the camera began to zoom-in on a portion of the riverbank, I observed a man in khaki safari gear, wading into the river with pant legs rolled up to his knees.

The man was of Latin origin, of dark complexion, and was bent over with arms held wide, as if readying himself for the onset of a wrestling match. He appeared to be stealthily probing the river floor with his feet, very near the bank of the river. It was quite obvious that this man was stalking something lurking just beneath the surface of the water.

In a flash the man plunged headlong into the water shallows, moments later reappearing intertwined with an enormous snake—the largest snake I have ever observed. With his hands speedily groping the snakes' jaws in hopes of clamping down on them, the snake managed to plunge one of its fangs or a series of fangs, deep into one of the man's hands. And with camera-hungry, viewer-appetite for the extreme, a close-up of the man pulling his impaled hand from the snake's jaws revealed a deep laceration.

In seconds the man managed to gain a momentary stranglehold on this beast of a snake, at which point an assistant quickly placed a crude tourniquet on the man's wrist, markedly slowing the blood flow from his wound. The injured hunter then laughed-off the incident, and stated in broken English, something to the effect that "…this kind of injury is 'all in a days' work.' "

Interestingly, this biologist's actual first name is Jesus (pronounced, "Hay-suse" in Latin).

In a few minutes, this violent scene settled into relative calm. And as it did so I began to sense the unmistakable presence of the Holy Spirit in my living room at this late hour—this despite my fuzzy thinking and bed-hair (He had given me little time to present myself properly to Him upon His entrance).

Sensing the presence of the Lord while viewing this bizarre scene on television, I was certain that He was to shortly impress something upon me of a prophetic nature. And as I have often found to be characteristic of prophetic promptings, impressions, dreams, visions and the like; they are quite often filled with color, adventure, mystery, drama and even humor at times.

I began to grow warm all over, and the sounds in my television set seemed to fade into a distant murmur. As this occurred I was nearly certain that this is what I heard spoken to me—internally—in my spirit:

"What you are observing in this hunter is a caricature of the power and authority that I am beginning to impart to my vessels within the Last-Days church. The serpent is soon to meet his end, and he will ultimately be rendered powerless within the grasp of those among my servants who will stand and believe that my power and authority is at their disposal. This serpent symbolizes the fears faced by many within My last-days army, and the wounds you've observed within this struggle on television are symbolic of the wounds my veteran soldiers will need to overcome if they are to fully overcome the serpent's schemes in this hour—to fulfill their earthly destinies."

Moments following this divine communiqué, the volume in the television set moved back into earshot, and I heard the commentator state the following: "The Anaconda snake reportedly grows to a length of 33 feet, and can weigh-in at 550 lbs. Further, this is the very first video footage of humans on the offensive with such a snake. Our biologist-researcher has yielded remarkable breakthroughs in our understanding of this snake, by dispelling the ageless misconception that the snake itself is the aggressor in this scenario. The fact of the matter, and as we have now come to understand, is that it appears this snake is in fact fearful of man. This, contrary to the historical notion that aside from the Lion, this snake is of the most feared predators within the animal kingdom."

With this analogy in mind, in addition to increasing reports of miraculous healings, deliverances, Holy visitations and signs & wonders taking place around the globe, it has become quite clear that the Lord has begun to release power and authority over the schemes of the Devil like never before. And in this light, Luke 10:19-20 takes its strategic placement within the "signs of the times," to read as follows: Behold, I have given you authority to tread upon serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing shall injure you…the spirits are subject to you…

As well, never before has the promise in Romans 16:20 held so much fiery authority, as now: The God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet.

Following twenty four years at this point, and through countless opportunities and experiences within varying facets of teaching, prophetic and pastoral ministry, I have had the priceless privilege of observing literally thousands of Gods servants freed from the bondages of psychological and emotional trauma, torment and agony. The core of my delight in playing a small part in so many cases of deliverance and healing has been that of the association of my personal struggle with having experienced and endured extreme traumas as well, incurred as early as my infancy.

Rather than expound upon the hideous personal injustices, wounds, traumas and trials that I have faced; please trust me when I offer that the associated pain and turmoil has badgered me much of my adult life. This leads us to the unveiling and exposure of one of Satan's grand schemes. For it is my belief that Satan recognizes unusual elements of destiny upon God's saints, and that at a very early age. In fact, when he can place his clutches upon the lives of the very young, in a vicious attempt to thwart Divine plans, he will do so. My infancy and toddler-hood were no exception to such the vicious attempt.

This said, I believe it to be one of Satan's master schemes within the lives of the saints, to so traumatize them at a young age, that they then spend the bulk of their adult lives groping about in psychological and emotional confusion and defeat, rather than spending the bulk of their adult lives embracing and fulfilling the call, ministry and destiny upon their lives.

You may read deeper relevance into this concept as you would consider that I have personally met thousands of drug addicts, alcoholics, prison inmates and sanitarium residents, who have recognizable calls on their lives of such magnitude that they often appear to parallel the destinies of some of the greatest Christian figures in history. And as a Believer, it does not take much more than average intuition, perception and discernment to recognize unusual destiny upon the Lords Called.

What I have observed then, is destiny—interrupted, destiny—intercepted, and destiny ultimately—thwarted.

The mere law of average dictates that a sizeable number of the readership of this article can readily identify with having been traumatized at a young age. As well, I can confidently state the likelihood that within this number, at least half herein have spent nearly their entire lives simply recovering from traumas of one form or another. As such, it is quite common to encounter the need for healing of such throughout the Body of Christ.

Through many colorful opportunities within itinerant teaching and prophetic ministry engagements over the years, I have encountered without exception, at least a handful of Believers within a given congregation who have in a sense, decommissioned themselves from the fulfillment and the carrying-out of significant ministry which had been planted in them over many years. And for many of these dear ones, the callings, ministries and visions had been planted in them from childhood, to later find confirmation over many years and through many encounters, often in the form of words spoken over them by those moving in the revelatory gifts.

These saints are often those who have fallen into sin of one form or another, have endured marital abuse, divorce, legal and/or financial carnage, substance abuse, sexual abuse, disappointments and failures of a moral, ethical or spiritual nature, to include perhaps the violation and failure of their personal standards of character and integrity, as well as wounds incurred by others in ministry. These failures, points of pain and trauma have often occurred during their Christian walk, and quite often while holding positions in leadership within the Body of Christ.

We now approach the unveiling of yet another of Satan's master schemes; a scheme that often comes in the following form—a message whispered to one of these wounded saints, when they find themselves at their weakest point in depression and despair. And it goes something like this*: "You received tremendous cleansing and healing when you met the Lord. You really did. And you were really cultivating substantial intimacy with Him. You were beginning to embrace humility and the trademarks of Christian maturity. You began to exemplify the 'fruit of the Spirit,' and your fruitfulness in ministry was plentiful. You were stepping-out and into strong gifting and anointing; but now you've failed. You were forgiven of your failures as a non-Believer when you met Him. But now, well, now you've sown the cords of disobedience into your soul, as yet a Believer, and these cords will eat at your soul for the remainder of your life, and you will never fulfill the breadth and depth of the longing in your heart relative to the calling on your life. You've been* dis*qualified!"*

This, dear ones, is a lie straight from the Abyss. And it is akin to the lie that "you will never be fully healed of the traumatic violations of your childhood, because if you were meant to be completely freed from them, they would have been erased from your psyche upon your conversion."

Though it is true that some wounds require healing well into our Christian maturity, it is also true that you will find ultimate deliverance, freedom and healing from these deep violations, wounds, tragedies and failures. For though it is true that your wounds mold the very character and nature of the ministering agent within you, thus granting you the authority to speak healing and wholeness into the same within others; they must yet be released from their residency upon the psyche, and they must be freed from harbor within the soul.

Your healed wounds, seasoned with the anointing of the Holy Spirit, can be powerfully used to minister to those who suffer like injuries. The sensitivities created by your wounds therefore lay the foundation upon which one can see into the wounds of others. However it is these very elements of sensitivity and vulnerability of the same that make for a prime target in the form of return-visits from the evil one. And his evil visitation most often takes on the form of graphic reminders of how you may have contributed to the near destruction of your own life, to include the near destruction of the lives of others. Guilt, shame, despair, remorse and spiritual despondency then creep-in and quench the flame that once fueled your vision for the fulfillment of the Lord's call upon your life.

We are all accustomed to the phrase, "the bottom line." Could we not so call the last chapter, in the last book of the Bible, the bottom line? Consider this: Blessed are those who wash their robes, that they may have the right to the tree of life, and may enter by the gates into the city (Rev. 22:14). This in close association with: He who overcomes shall inherit these things, and I will be his God and he will be My son (Rev. 21:7).

Note the verb tense in "wash" (Rev. 22:14). This denotes an ongoing process versus a one-time transaction. This to say that when you soil your robe, or when your robe has been soiled by any means, you must simply wash it, again, and again, and again, each time it is soiled. And for your persistence in this washing, you will in fact receive the very right to the tree of life.

It is crucial in understanding then, that persistence is the vital key in our overcoming.

If you've been a part of the family of God for any length of time, you have heard reference to Philippians 3:13-14, which reads: Forgetting what lies behind and reaching forward to what lies ahead, I press on…toward the upward call…

In recent years I have observed literally thousands of figurative prisoners set free from deeply seated psychological and emotional wounds, in one moment (forgetting what lies behind), through the revelatory gifts in action. And just moments later, through the same gifts, I have seen these very people affirmed in their gifts, callings and ministries (pressing on*--and embracing the upward call). I have observed this process take place within the context of but a few minutes time as my wife and I have shared the supreme privilege of delivering a message representative of the two primary tenets in Philippians 3:13-14; a message delivered within the context of itinerant ministry visits to several churches over the course of several years.

By the day, it has become increasingly clear to me that God is truly in the business of healing, delivering and recomissioning the wounded and battle-weary saints among us, for the pointed purposes of equipping and training the final generation of the Army of God.

As a former U.S. Navy sailor who also trained quite extensively with Marines (within an Amphibious Ready Group), I can tell you that it was the battle veterans that had gone before us, who molded we new recruits into battle-ready form. With scars, lines around the eyes etched by pain, anguish and anxiety that few of us will ever know, to include war stories and the accompanying wisdom, they possessed the battle-ready savvy or “grit” which had to be imparted to each individual within the amphibious assault group I represented. And with this analogy in consideration, I trust that you the reader have begun to feel the stirring and rekindling of your tremendous worth and purpose in getting back on the saddle; and getting back into the fight. For there is presently an enormous army of young recruits being groomed for the final hour, who need the very training, mentoring and modeling that only you can impart.

Having surfed the Southern California coast for nearly twenty years, it was quite traumatic to ultimately move to the Midwest, a move resulting in an eight-year withdrawal from the sport. To then have moved to the South Carolina coast in recent years, I have returned to the sport with passion that even surpasses that of my teen years.

Upon my recent return to the sport, I have discovered that surfers are now surfing a number of spots around the globe that are actually producing waves in excess of 80 feet in height. In fact, not long ago a veteran BIG-wave surfer, Ken Bradshaw, age 49, successfully descended and rode-out an astonishing 85 foot wave off the North Shore of Hawaii at a wave-break known within the surfing culture as “Jaws.” This ride, photographed and filmed, stands as the current world-record. Equal to the astonishing 85 foot wave ridden by Bradshaw, is an account of BIG-wave activity at another location in Northern California, nicknamed “Maverick’s” (named after a German Shepherd baring the same name, that used to swim-out to the surfer line-up back in the late 50’s and early 60’s). “Half Moon Bay” as it is officially known on the map, on November 21st of 2001, produced a series of 100 foot waves late in the afternoon not long following a mass-exodus from the water wherein just hours previous, several big name/BIG-wave surfers had been surfing 80 foot-plus waves. This series of waves were witnessed and documented by the local Harbor Master, and are found within the permanent oceanographic logs in this locale. I am now aware of five locations around the globe that are producing the largest ridden waves in surfing history.

In addition to the BIG-wave phenomenon, consider that within the past 36 months (of the writing of this article), the earth has sustained the deadliest combination of frequency and intensity of earthquakes in recorded history. Consider as well that the Arab neighbors of Israel have never before brewed and stewed more threatening military venom than that within this very hour. Add to this, the horrifying destruction of thousands of lives on American soil as the result of terrorist attacks upon the World Trade Center, and a quarter of a million people killed in South Asia as the result of the deadliest Tsunami in human history; and we now have a recipe for the makings of what one might very well consider the birth pangs of the End of The Age.

The “signs of the times” have never before been so clear, colorful and obvious. We are in fact heading toward a final battle. I believe a heavenly military draft has been actuated. The young recruits being drafted cannot ultimately face battle until the battle-veterans are in place, governing boot camp and grooming battalions.

It is time to press on, and to re-embrace your upward call. And in doing so I can think of no better analogy than that representative of the lives of three men who embraced and embodied this concept at the birth of the 20th century.

The early 1900s represented an era in the United States largely known as the "Industrial Revolution." During this period, three economic magnates collectively and nearly single-handedly fueled the United States economy and thrust it into a rate of growth and health that has yet to be paralleled—comparatively.

These men were Andrew Carnegie (steel industry), J.P. Morgan (banking industry), and J.D. Rockefeller (oil industry).

At the height of the ultra successes represented in these three men, a young and bright journalist became unusually intrigued about the notion of discovering the secret to success which surely had to be resident and common among them.

Following repeated and persistent requests, this young journalist was ultimately granted interviews with each of the three. Interesting to note is that neither of the three were aware that the journalist intended to interview the other two within a short period, and with the same quest in mind.

With each of the interviews, the journalist concluded his privileged time by asking one final question. The question was this: "How do you define your genius? What constitutes your economic genius?"

Each of these men, again, completely unaware that the other two were being presented with the very same question, remarkably, answered almost verbatim, that which was stated by the other two.

Their collective answers were this: "My genius? You must understand my good man, that I was born of average intelligence. I have been given nothing on a 'silver platter.' In fact, I have had to work for every thing I own. I was given no 'breaks' along the way. I'll tell you how I define my 'genius': I have been a miserable failure, and I have lost every last penny to my name on more than one occasion. I have had everything, I repeat everything completely collapse around me. Yet when it did, I lay there under the rubble, listening to the debris settle over my body, breathing-in the dust hovering just above the floor, and have then paused to collect my thoughts. Shortly following, I have taken in a deep breath, have begun to gently move the enormous weight of the debris, have painfully pulled myself to my feet, have stealthy made my way through the rubble to ultimately find a glimpse of daylight, have stood in amazement and shock while assessing the enormity of the carnage about me, have dusted off my hands, have looked back over the rubble one last time, have fixed my gaze skyward and have then walked away from the catastrophe--and have never looked back. I persisted, young man. This then, is how I define my genius: persistence. Persistence therefore, is genius."

And it is persistence (pressing on) that is being required of you now, dear ones.

You really must forget what lies behind.

If you have been personally wounded at the hands of another, and those wounds have in turn propelled you into a state of sadness and despair; a condition which may have pushed you back into vices that you have formerly overcome; and you have subsequently been responsible for creating the collapse and destruction of lives around you, or for nearly destroying your own; have cried out for forgiveness, cleansing and restoration from the Lord, and have as well asked for the forgiveness of those you've wounded, the tasks remaining are first; that of believing that God's mercy is much greater than our ability to terminally incriminate and incarcerate ourselves, and two; that of understanding the supreme importance of seeking the daily renewal of your mind. "Be transformed by the renewing of your mind" (Romans 12:2),

How do we "be" transformed? We enter into the secret place, the Holy place, the quite chamber of our one-on-one time with the Lord, early morning, every morning, for the remainder of our lives. This is where the transformation takes place, and this is where the carnage, rubble, destruction and associated loss and pain is healed and restored. This is the place where we are given the grace to forget what lies behind. And this is the place where you are given the grace to press on and to embrace the upward call, again.

The glorious annals of those who have gone before us; the countless martyrs who with their very lives have laid each stone in the pathway that has led to the religious liberties available within many parts of the world today, are filled with examples of those who have given significant portions of their lives to entering into the Holy Place of one-on-one time with the Lord—first thing in the morning, each day of their lives.

The accounts of Corrie Tin Boom, within the Nazi death camps; the accounts of Madame Jean Gouyon having endured tremendous persecution and imprisonment; and the accounts of Viktor Frankyl, yet another of the Nazi death camp survivors, tell tales of those who have found solace and sustenance in the practice of crying out to God in the wee hours of morning—long before the masses about them have begun to stir up the vain and agonizing repetition of the drudgery within prison life.

Madame Jean Gouyon especially, paralleled also by the likes of Basilea Schlink, cultivated a life of early morning prayer that so saturated her day, that it was said of onlookers that she often resided in a state of heavenly presence that was unaffected and unaltered by any measure of opposition within the context of a given day. It is my belief that this heavenly state that Madame Gouyon had cultivated was actually the very …peace that surpasses all understanding (Philippians 4:7).

Surely Madame Gouyon was but following the example and pattern set by the Lord Himself, so clearly established in scripture: And in the early morning, while it was still dark, He arose and went out and departed to a lonely place, and was praying there (Mark 1:35). Yet long before the earthly life of Jesus, this pattern of early morning prayer was gracefully modeled by King David: In the morning, O Lord, Thou wilt hear my voice; in the morning I will order my prayer to Thee and eagerly watch (Psalm 5:3).

I have always likened the practice and the experience of early morning prayer and quiet time as that symbolic of climbing a mountain—coming closer to the face of God with each step. In this light I can think of no more colorful representation of this process than that represented in Moses as he regularly ascended Mount Sinai to seek the face of God: …Be ready by morning, and come up in the morning to Mount Sinai, and present yourself there to Me on the top of the mountain (Exodus 34:2). Later in this chapter we observe the result of Moses' time with God: …It came about when Moses was coming down from Mount Sinai…that Moses did not know that the skin of his face shone because of his speaking with Him (Exodus 34:29).

Moses' encounter is also a profound representation of the purist form of ministry we can engage in within our lifetimes—the very ministry unto the Lord. And once we have served Him in this way, within the context of a given day, everything else that transpires within the course of the day as it unfolds bares His trademarks and semblance ("his [Moses] face shone").

With this Holy radiance emanating from our faces following our meetings with God, face to face; whether we then go on to count toothpicks for a living in a remote factory, or speak to a crowd of 100,000 unsaved hearers in a third world crusade within the context of a day, we are equally fruitful as God's very nature has affixed itself to our being, and we then conduct His "ministry" regardless of what we put our hands to within the context of a given day.

Just prior to Moses' encounter with God on Mount Sinai, the Lord explains the profound benefits of Moses' obedience herein, which equally echoes the endless blessing of the same for us, if we will but do likewise and ascend this mountain each morning: Behold, there is a place by Me, and you shall stand there on the rock; and it will come about, while My glory is passing by, that I will put you in the cleft of the rock and cover you with My hand…(Exodus 33:21-22).

Is it not in the very "cleft of the rock [Jesus]" that we long to dwell? For this cleft can and will sustain us from the most hideous of wounds, and will as well keep us safe from the self- destructive course of the thoughts and feelings which so permeate our minds following our grave failures.

We can find this cleft, and we can enter-in, through the simple practice of early morning prayer, quite time and devotion. It is actually that simple.

As I seek to draw to a close my plea for your entrance and presence into this quiet chamber, I wish to allude to an excerpt of a timeless statement made by the late Dietrich Bonhoeffer concerning the place and practice of early morning prayer:

"The entire day receives order and discipline when it acquires unity. This unity must be sought and found in morning prayer. It is confirmed in work. The morning prayer determines the day. Squandered time of which we are ashamed, temptations to which we succumb, weaknesses and lack of courage in work, disorganization and lack of discipline in our thoughts and in our conversation with other men [and women] all have their origin most often in the neglect of morning prayer."

While "underway" (out to sea) and behind the wheel (as a Helmsman) in the U.S. Navy, I often found myself enduring the dreaded "mid-watch," a watch duty of four hours in length, which spanned the dreadful hours of 12:00 a.m. to 4:00 a.m. Once relieved of such duty, I would then have to awaken at 6:30 a.m. to begin the standard workday--often lasting twelve or more hours. As dreadful as this mid-watch was, I recall countless occasions when despite my extreme fatigue, I would realize the supreme silence and stillness of the night. It would then dawn on me that all that I could hear was the subtle drone of the "screws" (massive underwater propellers) and the gentle breaking of a glassy wake at the bow of the ship, accompanied also by an occasional and distant murmur of a fog horn from another seagoing vessel. I also knew that 99% of the ship's crew was fast asleep. And though I felt such a tremendous amount of responsibility at the helm, I would sometimes lose the weight of such, and feel as if I had entered another realm of some sort. What I didn't realize at the time, was that I was being met and wooed by the very presence of the Lord in those wee hours as I stood manning that helm.

If you are representative of 90% of the workforce in the United States, as well as many other developed nations, you find yourself fast asleep during the hours of 1:00 a.m. and 5:00 a.m. And within your sector of society, the world itself seems fast asleep. Your conscious mind has resigned for the night. However your *sub*conscious mind maintains spiritual antennae—spiritual antennae which grope about like the sensors on a snail's head—absorbing elements of the spiritual activity being waged about you as you lay in a vulnerable state.

In this state the evil one will often seek to visit and torment us through nightmares, and through other dark invasions and intrusions deep in the night. We can and should pray for protection from these dark visitations over our minds prior to retiring at night, every night. In the same context, and within these very hours of deep sleep and subconscious vulnerability, I have found the Lord most active in my life and in the lives of others; first in the form of dreams, and secondly, through gently awakening us, and prodding us to arise and seek Him in quiet, prayerful meditation—waiting and listening. It is evident then, that spiritual warfare is waged over us at night, in a unique way, distinct from that which is waged over us during the day.

Job 33:14-16 reads: Indeed God speaks once, or twice, yet no one notices it. In a dream, a vision of the night, when sound sleep falls on men, while they slumber in their beds, then He opens the ears of men, and seals their instruction.

If you will pray for His visitation in dreams, and will pray for His visitation to beckon you to your knees deep in the night, He will be faithful, and will ultimately grant you such encounters with Him. When this does occur, I wish to encourage you to muster every fiber of willpower at your disposal, and crawl out of bed long enough to receive His Holy "download." And in doing so, you will receive His transforming grace; a transforming that will enable and empower you to forget what lies behind.

There is not a Believer among us who has not visualized the awesome fulfillment of being used in miraculous ways to save, heal and deliver the lost and broken. Equally so, there are few among us who have not earnestly pursued the spiritual gifts (I Corinthians 13:31) in such a way that we hunger and thirst for daily opportunities to be used of God in the measure that He has gifted and anointed us. I am no different in this pursuit to be used of God. Yet, in all my pursuing, and following twenty-four years of such the pursuit, I have come to a place wherein more than anything else, I simply long to be of encouragement. For if we can but simply leave a meager deposit of encouragement in another, we are feeding the eternal purposes in an individual who has been made in the very likeness of our Creator; and a person of infinite worth. In this light, loved one, I sincerely hope that in some measure I have found a way to encourage you through what I have shared.

If I had the time and space, I would have expanded upon the horrendous pain and trauma I have endured in my 44 years. It will suffice to say that I have experienced your pain, dear one. I have fallen to the depths of pain and agony that can bring human beings to the very brink of the willingness to cease to exist; a measure of grief wherein one can actually give themselves up and cease to live, through sheer will. And yet in and through the dark valleys that I have crawled, many of which were of my own making, Mount Sinai has always been within view—standing as a beacon of hope, healing and restoration. And this mountain calls out to you as well, loved one.

Forget what lies behind; press on; begin ascending this mountain in the early morning, forsaking fatigue, spiritual despondency, lethargy and resignation to life, and enter into that “cleft” in the rock that will not only renew and sustain you from now until the fulfillment of your assignment on earth, yet will also propel you into the fulfillment of the calling, ministry and destiny that has been affirmed in you over so many years.

You are going to make it, loved one. There is an army of young eyes looking to you for guidance and equipping. The Call is going out. Will you embrace it?

Proclaim Heaven’s Decrees
Geoff Pick

Received 9 Sept 2005

As Israel in the days of the Kings said let us be like other nations with their gods and ways …allowing the roots and seed of their destruction [to flourish]. So man has proclaimed that we are not a Christian Nation, but a ‘multicultural society’.
In the name of tolerance the politically ‘correct’ [spiritually deceived] proclaim an all religions society.

So the same destruction will be reaped. It is time for Heaven’s decrees to be spoken over the nation… The words of life and Truth. [Call to intercessors and prophets].

The life of Christ to be made known !!
Do NOT listen to the proclaims of men – those who have turned their hearts far from God and made their own wisdom.

For I will surely cut the ground from beneath them and call forth Truth speakers into the Halls of power. [Proclaim this call it forth intercessors].

For I have spoken, it will be accomplished through My Word and I shall vindicate those who have stood faithful in the hours of darkness.

1 Kings 3 5-7
Proverbs 24 v1-7

Judgment Poured Out On The Earth
Geoff Pick

The time of the Kingdoms of men is over.
The bowls of my judgment are tipping over.
How long will you wait, before you arise.
Oh nations that once honoured me –
Have you banished Me from your Kingdoms?
That my people live as wanders in the earth.

This is the hour when I shall arise and cut down the trees, that have mans mark upon it.
This is the day of deliverance for those who choose me.

I speak life upon my body for those washed by the blood, the churning of the sea will not push you around for the rock is standing firm and you can face the winds and waves and stand in Heaven’s armour.
[Note: Not instructions for handling a hurricane]

So drink in My Word,
Draw close to me,
Let my Holy Spirit
Stir the wisdom of Heaven
Speak forth the language of Heaven
Dwell in the Heavenly place.
The treasure within your heart, cannot be destroyed, it is eternal.

I call you to boldness !!
To proclaim My Word to the people
To stand for me as Your Lord.
To stand as a prayer wall for your Nation.
To proclaim the new dynamic that that is coming to pass
To be vanguard pioneers to retake the land.
To break through lies over your Nation
To call into being the new thing.

Awaken from slumber the nations that own My Name.
Awaken to the new as the Kingdoms of the world are shattered.
My Kingdom is being birthed in power and the deliverer will come.

The armies of Heaven are now in place to dislodge the enemy
And according to my servants the proclamation through the Holy Spirit will bring down the walls of satan and the lies of mankind.

The hand of God is going to prevail against the enemy.

Prophetic Cycles
Marsha Burns

September 2, 2005: Carefully preserve and protect all that is vital to you. Manage your resources to prevent exploitation or destruction. Resist the temptation to be extravagant or foolish with finances or emotions. It is important that you take your position as a watchman. Watch and be alert to discern the enemy's tactics against you that would bring dissipation or dispersion. Quiet your soul and stay focused on things of importance. Be established in wisdom, says the Lord.

September 1, 2005: Haven't I told you that I will vindicate you? You have walked in light and truth, and I have brought forth your righteousness as the light and justice as the noonday. For surely I will bring light to every situation, and the truth will reveal every lie. You have been redeemed from the curse, and truly no weapon formed against you shall prosper. I will not allow the enemy to rejoice over you. Rise up in the power of praise and go forth in the strength of victory. I am with you, says the Lord.

August 31, 2005: Stop and discern. Take note that nearly everything around you has taken on an air of newness. Even things that are very ordinary to you will seem strangely unfamiliar. This is because you are entering a new season. Do not try to maintain what once was or try to stay in your comfort zone. Let Me transport you to that new level that promises to expand your awareness and bring greater spiritual sensitivity. You may not understand this now, but if you will yield to this supernatural work it will bring great liberty to your life. Isaiah 55:9 "For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are My ways higher than your ways, and My thoughts than your thoughts."

August 30, 2005: Be sensitive and careful to not violate the boundaries of others. To do so will bring quick and unpleasant consequences. Even when others violate your space, it is not a good idea to respond in kind or react negatively, for that will certainly open the door to insecurity and produce results you will regret. Be wise. Exercising patience and forgiveness will yield the peaceable fruit of righteousness. James 3:18 Now the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace by those who make peace.

August 29, 2005: The following prophetic cycles speak specifically to those who are yielded completely to God and are in Ezekiel's River -- in the flow of God's purposes – those who are dedicated to establishing the kingdom in their lives and metrons. These cycles have produced two distinct results depending on the hearts of the people. Those who are virtually self-absorbed instead of God-centered will repeated experience times of presumption followed by periods of grave disappointment and will completely miss the revelation and blessings of the season. They will not experience the spiritual reality or victory available to the Body of Christ.

2 Timothy 3:1-7 But know this, that in the last days perilous times will come: For men will be lovers of themselves, lovers of money, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, unloving, unforgiving, slanderers, without self-control, brutal, despisers of good, traitors, headstrong, haughty, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God, having a form of godliness but denying its power. And from such people turn away! For of this sort are those who creep into households and make captives of gullible women loaded down with sins, led away by various lusts, always learning and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth.

Acts 17: 26-28 "And He has made from one blood every nation of men to dwell on all the face of the earth, and has determined their preappointed times and the boundaries of their dwellings, so that they should seek the Lord, in the hope that they might grope for Him and find Him, though He is not far from each one of us;for in Him we live and move and have our being, as also some of your own poets have said, 'For we are also His offspring.'

Where have we been?

Cycles Seem to Always Begin With the Feast of Trumpets.
1987-1996: Ministry focus was on the elementary principles of salvation, the gifts and fruit of the Holy Spirit, baptism in the Holy Spirit, and healing.

1996-2005: Produced a new sound for praise and worship. Warfare and deliverance was a main theme in ministry. The office and gift of the prophet was established. The Internet became a powerful tool for ministry.

We began this cycle with the joy of the Lord. Laughter was God’s tool to bring healing to the Body of Christ. The cycle progressed with sowing seeds of the Word into our own lives as well as into the Body of Christ; watering with revelation and proclamation of the Word (both written and prophetic); God giving the increase. We also had another season of separation and division both individually and corporately, and many ministries came to the brink of ruin. Everything that wasn’t working has been torn down or upgraded.

As we transition between the old cycle and the one that we are entering. We came to understand that our lives are not a series of starts and stops, but that we are in a continual flow of God’s mercy, favor and grace. That flow has produced a time of renovation and rebuilding on every level.

We are again shifting to new focus spiritually as we begin another 9-year cycle. The Feast of Trumpets (October 3-4, 2005) will mark the beginning of a break-away year and will conclude the changes that began in the fall of 2003. By break-away, I mean that there will be a complete break with the past as we do what Paul wrote about: Philippians 3:13 "Brethren, I do not count myself to have apprehended; but one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind and reaching forward to those things which are ahead.

Where are we going?
We are at a new bend in the river -- on the threshold of a new era (a point in time from which a series of years is reckoned or determined). Life will take on new meaning and greater intensity as we move forward to fulfill kingdom destiny. What we are given to do will be fraught with significance as we proceed under the unction of the Holy Spirit with greater discernment and awareness of that which is supernatural being made manifest in our lives.

The phrase “Old ceilings become new floors” will take on significant meaning in the days ahead. Everything that has been significant in ministry will be elevated to a new level -- the sound of praise and worship, warfare, and all of the gifts of the Holy Spirit. Those who camp out on the last move of the Spirit and old revelations will miss this next great wave of the Spirit.

God has called us into a transitional season of joy, liberty, thanksgiving, praise, and rejoicing that will bring renew our strength and hope and regenerate us. The reproach of the past is being rolled away. The Lord is going to supernaturally heal wounds of the past and restore His Body to joy that produces His strength. We will be given an extra measure of courage and boldness with which to step into the future. It will be like a honeymoon filled with hope and wonder. Enjoy it while it lasts.

2005-2014: Another cycle of ministry. We have heard a lot about the apostolic anointing in the past cycle, but we have yet to see the true manifestation of apostolic power and anointing. I believe that the office of the apostle will be established in this cycle.

Internet Ministry will continue to be huge as we continue to see the Body of Christ as a global entity. Many ministries who have been afraid of the computer and Internet will now get on board.

Destiny will be the operative word as the upcoming events and changes will propel God’s people into a higher octave of kingdom life, meaning and ministry. As diligently as we have planned and envisioned our lives at this time, surprises will still abound. So, expect the unexpected. The coming season will be filled with exciting possibilities and unusual opportunities.

Words from the Lord:

I had a vision of us wearing those head lights that miners wear in the tunnels, and I heard the Lord say, “I will give you the treasures of darkness hidden riches in secret places that you may know that I, the Lord, which call you by your name, am the God of Israel. (Isaiah 45:3) I will reveal mysteries, and the darkness will become as noonday."

You are struggling to break free from the last season and recent tests. Your spirit man wants, desires above all things, to move ahead and be free. Yet, you must break free of the mindsets of the last season's tests and even the last move of the Spirit before you can go forward. I am doing a new and liberating thing, says the Lord, and I will help you break through. It will be by My grace and by My Spirit that you break through and move on beyond the strain of the past. The old phase will end and another will begin as you leap forward without the bridge of transition from one to the other.

The next phase will be like going from first grade to high school without going through the classes and grades between. It will be very different, but you won't know that until you get through it. Where you have been will be elementary compared to where I am taking you by My Spirit and revelation. I have given you opportunities to look back and see where you have been and to see how you have overcome things in your lives so that you can move forward. It will be a major leap. I am revealing the places in you that complicate your lives and make things harder and more complex than they have to be. I will show you the distractions and difficulties that hinder your progression.

You will progress so quickly that it will feel like you have been on a playground and then suddenly have acute awareness, the ability to see and perceive and know and discern. I will do this in you, says the Lord. Change your attitude and stop playing with ministry and Christianity, and go forth in the truth and reality of the kingdom.

To those who are reluctant to move ahead because of who they might leave behind, but you will be a greater witness, and the gap will actually be closed rather than widened because of your moving ahead rather than staying where you are. Do not drag your feet on this progression. When you moved into the season that is now ending, it was like going from a Model T Ford to a Cadillac, but this time it will be like going from that Cadillac to a jet-powered hovercraft.

Decisions that you make now will change the course of your life and be lasting, but you must not be afraid of radical changes. You are moving up! Old ceilings will indeed become new floors.

1 Corinthians 13:11 When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I understood as a child, thought as a child; but when I became a man, I put away childish things. You have long since moved to a place of maturity and taken your position on the wall. You have raised a standard and proclaimed My purposes, but now you will step into a level of authority that will bring a level of effectiveness that will surprise you and delight those around you.

I have called you to understand and exercise My authority and to depend upon My leading. And, you have done well. But, that place of authority that has been a platform that you step onto will now become an indwelling and permanent state of being. You will find this position to be far more powerful and effective in carrying out the work of ministry.

The authority that you wield carries much responsibility, and much wisdom is required for the decisions that you must make. But, rest assured that I am with you every step of the way, and My wisdom is only a prayer away. Ask, and I will give an abundant flow that will carry you to new heights.

There are many demands on your time, but instead of being burdened by the multiple things that draw on your energies, you will be strengthened by them and find great joy in what I have given you to do. You will gain great satisfaction in accomplishing with diligence what I have set before you.

You can expect a season of greater spiritual growth and maturity in which your discernment will become more acute and your understanding more clear. Take full advantage of every opportunity to gain wisdom and knowledge.

The revelation that you have enjoyed will seem like child's play compared to the level of illumination that is about to become available to you. This is not something you will have to earn or work for to achieve. It is available as you yield to the flow of My Spirit, says the Lord.

You have experienced extraordinary rejection, the pain of accusation, and the agony of defeat that has plunged you into many dark days in the past four years. And, it seems as though things have gone from bad to worse at times. But, you have not turned back from following Me, says the Lord. You have continued to seek to know Me. Now, I will tear down and destroy every conspiracy, and I will vindicate you. This is a new season of hope and promise for you. Rise up in new confidence, for I am with you to make you strong again.

I have given you wings to mount up and rise above the storms. The attacks will no longer have the punch they once did, and you will find the strength and assurance necessary to overcome the fear of man, which is a snare to your soul. Take wing and soar, My child!

You have had several prime opportunities to be devastated beyond repair, but you chose to rise above rejection and self-pity and allow correction to be constructive rather than destructive. Well done! The seeds of your faithfulness will bear fruit in the coming season.

You are coming to a point of fresh hope that is accompanied by a sense of being valued again. Don’t let it slip away, but know that you are indeed valuable to Me and always have been. Be strong in the power of My might.

This is a significant season in which destiny awaits you. You often have difficulty in deciding a course of action, and taking a step into dark uncertainty can be very frightening, but if you will trust Me, says the Lord, I will lead you by the hand and make your darkness like the noonday.

You will experience greater stability on every level – spiritually, emotionally, and financially. Old insecurities will become dim memories that will no longer take control of your life. Rejoice in this new freedom.

I have torn, but I will heal. I have stricken, but I will bind you up. You will rise up and revive, and your latter years will be greater than the former years, for you shall be established and stand firm in My kingdom, says the Lord.

Your dedication and persistence in the face of incredible odds against you will now begin to pay off. You can expect breakthrough in several areas of life, which produce unparalleled liberty.

Your faith will once again become childlike as you revisit your spiritual roots and re-establish your spiritual foundation. This will also be and enticement and a great benefit to those in your sphere of influence.

Let nothing deter you from being a free spirit as you find joy in simple pleasures. Enjoy this season of simplicity as you behold My face in every facet of life. You have truly maintained a pure faith, which is a prerequisite to relationship with Me.

I have called you to set up a standard, and now I will make you a watchman. You will prepare for war and declare both the work of the enemy and proclaim the victory. Do not underestimate the power of your proclamations, says the Lord.

Your love for My people is strong, and I will reward your generous heart in ways you would never conceive of. The heart of the Father is the power of your love, and your motivation is Divine.

I have made you a strong and supportive hub in the circle of people I have given to you to minister to. What you do and say will have profound and eternal consequences that will yield a great harvest and reward. Do not grow weary in your well-doing!

You are entering a season of greater security and stability than you have ever known. But, the enemy will do his best to overwhelm you with the responsibilities you have taken on and will entice you to run away. But, I say, stand fast. I am with you to bring you through to victory. Trust Me!

Make you choices and be firm. Remember … a double-minded man gets nothing and is unstable in all his ways.

Your loyalty is beyond reproach, and I will use that platform of faithfulness as an example of kingdom integrity, a foundation of strength where many will find solace and hope.

You have trod the mountain tops and skirted the valleys and have proclaimed the glory of the Lord. And, your work in the valley will reveal My glory in unusual but definitive ways. Get ready to stretch, for the days ahead will require more than you thought possible. Yet, nothing is impossible with Me, says the Lord, and I am with you!

I have used you and will use you again to present opportunities to others to step into kingdom destiny. Those moments belong to them to decide. Do not become disheartened when they refuse the narrow path. The failure is not yours. You are My instrument of faithfulness, a vessel of honor.

You are a forerunner, and as you forge ahead and prepare the way, you call back to those who lag behind. Your persistence and zeal are a compelling force that invites even the most resistant. Refuse to allow their reticence to dowse your fire.

Now you can break through and overcome many obstacles that have hindered you for as long as you can remember. Simply yield to My leading as I take you step by step into new joy and freedom.

August 26, 2005: Watch for the devil to try to distract and disable you in an effort to keep you from receiving that which is spiritually vital to you at this time. Rise up in his face and declare, "Thus far and no more." You must turn back the battle at the gate and refuse to become a victim of this attack. Remember that I cause you to be victorious in all things, but only as you cooperate with Me and believe My word, says the Lord. Galatians 5:1 "Stand fast therefore in the liberty by which Christ has made us free, and do not be entangled again with a yoke of bondage."

August 25, 2005: The new season is upon you, and now is the time when you can tie up the loose ends and take care of details and last-minute preparations before you launch out. The spiritual atmosphere will be charged with excitement and anticipation, and you will have a heightened awareness that you are heading into new territory. Go forth with fresh vigor, says the Lord.

Prophetic Directives For 2006

Patricia King

December 21, 2005

Some Key Words for 2006: Possess and Occupy; Called to Purity; Mandated to Love; Kingdom Warriors Arising; Emerging House Church Movements; Jerusalem Needs Prayer; Potential Shifts in Government; Spiritual Revolution; and Enlargement, Expansion, and Increase.

Some Key Scriptures for 2006: The Book of Malachi; Psalm 24; Deuteronomy 8; Joshua 1:1-9; Colossians 3:1-3; 1 Corinthians 2

1. A Call to Love

A radical and specific call to walk in the power of divine love is being released from the Spirit of God to the Body of Christ in 2006. Humility, favor, blessings, glory, provision, and miracle power will be released to those who pursue love. Increased faith will accompany this move. Household salvations and restoration of relationships will follow those who respond to this invitation. Jesus said, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the great and foremost commandment. The second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. On these two commandments depend the whole Law and the Prophets."
The Lord gave me a full prophetic insight into this call in November of 2005. Although believers are always expected to walk in pure love, the Spirit is inviting the Church to a specific focus in 2006.

2. The Purifier

In 2006, the Lord will shake those things that can be shaken. Jesus will manifest as a purifier of His Body. The book of Malachi will be key for believers in 2006. The Lord will deal with the weaknesses and sin in His people that are holding them back from fullness. He will come to cleanse and purify. The fire and the blood will be significant.

The Visitation of the Angel Purity

In December 2005, our producer Shirley Ross was visited by an angel called Purity. Purity is a white eagle with piercing, fiery eyes, and yet, it is soft, gentle, and dove-like in nature. Shirley also saw a golden ring that Purity carried. It was a ring of power and protection, and it was placed around individuals and groups who chose the virtue of purity. I was present during the visitation and also felt the presence of Purity at that time, although I did not see it.
I heard three words in my spirit: Expose, Sift, Analyze. I felt the Lord say that He will expose things that need to be exposed in His children's hearts and lives. Nothing will be left unexposed. For those that submit to His convictions and dealings, there will be new levels of authority and grace that follow. He will sift so that only the pure will remain, and He will analyze.
"Every man's ways are right in his own eyes, but the Lord weighs the hearts." -Proverbs 21:2

The angel Purity returned the next day and the day after. I saw the vision of this being during the two days and also felt the softness of its breast feathers on one occasion. We met with our team artist Ruthann Fryer and commissioned her to paint the vision of this angel.

Heavier Weights of Conviction

Jesus is known in Malachi as the Purifier. He is calling His people to higher levels of purity in 2006.

Things that individuals were not convicted of in 2005 will carry conviction in 2006. This will come by the Spirit and not by legalistic rules.

As this call to purity rises, there will be increased measures of toleration for sin and worldly-mindedness within parts of the Church too. Good will be called evil, and evil will be called good. The deceitfulness of sin will attempt to fill the minds of some believers, thus producing unaddressed compromises.

The nature of deception is that when you are in it, you do not know it. Strong relational accountability will be needed to help avoid the pitfalls that come with deceptive doctrines and mindsets.

"I have this against you, that you tolerate the woman Jezebel, who calls herself a prophetess, and she teaches and leads My bond-servants astray so that they commit acts of immorality and eat things sacrificed to idols." -Revelation 2:20
"Do not love the world nor the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh and the lust of the eyes and the boastful pride of life, is not from the Father, but is from the world." -1 John 2:15-16

Polarization

It is important in 2006 that believers stay clear of destructive compromise. There will be some severe tensions over this in the New Year to a point where division and separation will come in some Christian circles as a result. Those who are committed to purity will stand strong in their convictions, and those who are giving tolerance to worldly mindsets will promote and defend their beliefs. These two parties will be polarized.

Deceitful last-day's doctrines will attempt to be birthed into the minds of believers that will give license to lustful and worldly pleasures. Confusion will come to some as supernatural visions, revelations, and even some scriptures will be used to support the doctrine. These doctrines will seem right to some, but the end will be destruction. They will fall away from the truth as a result.

"Do not be deceived, God is not mocked; for whatever a man sows, this will he also reap. For the one who sows to his own flesh will from the flesh reap corruption but the one who sows to the Spirit will from the Spirit reap eternal life." -Galatians 6:7,8
"There is a way which seems right to a man, but its end is the way of death." -Proverbs 14:12

The Whole Counsel of God

The Lord is calling His people to stay closely aligned to the truth within the scriptures and to meditate on the whole counsel of God. Many believers will be led to read through the whole Bible again in 2006 (especially the New Testament.) This will be used to fortify their faith and help them stand for purity and righteousness.

"How can a young man keep his way pure? By keeping it according to Your word. With all my heart I have sought You; Do not let me wander from Your commandments. Your word I have treasured in my heart, that I might not sin against You." -Psalm 119:9-11

Advocates for Morality and Justice

As part of the Lord's call to purity in 2006, there will be individuals who will be raised up as advocates for morality and justice. The Lord will grant strategies that will allow them to call forth righteous foundations in their nations. The younger generation especially will be involved with this. Their message will be opposed by many, even like in the days of Elijah, but the Lord will strengthen them to stand firm. Their message will be soaked in love, faith, and compassion, but it will be delivered with the spirit of conviction.

Holiness Revivals

Like the revivals of old, the Lord is calling for His anointed revivalists in 2006. There are young men and women right now who the Lord is raising up as righteous advocates for the Kingdom of God. Some of them are still in obscurity. They are being seasoned by spending time in His presence. They are a humble company--and yet, radical and zealous. The zeal of the Lord consumes them. They will be marked through a holy conviction that comes through their message of love and truth. They will also be noted for the amazing displays of Kingdom power, signs, and wonders through their consecrated lives. They are not afraid to go into the dark places to bring the light.

This emergence of this company of revivalists must be birthed through prayer. Many intercessors will find themselves groaning for the coming forth of this righteous company. Just like Anna the prophetess, many prayer warriors will not leave their posts until they see the manifestation of these revivalists. Even creation will groan for the coming forth of this company.

"For the anxious longing of the creation waits eagerly for the revealing of the sons of God. . . For we know that the whole creation groans and suffers the pains of childbirth together until now." -Romans 8:19,22

3. Kingdom Warriors

In 2006, there will be a new level of spiritual confrontation and combat. Psalm 24 will be a key passage. Jesus Christ, the King of Glory, will reveal Himself as the Lord, mighty in battle.

Visitations of warrior angels will be evidenced by many. These warrior angels will aid believers in their fight against evil and will battle in the heavens on behalf of righteousness. They will be released into their assignments through the prayers of the saints and through the confession of the Word of God.

"Bless the Lord, you His angels, mighty in strength who perform His word, obeying the voice of His word!" -Psalm 103:20

Men and women of God who have been faithful to stand on the authority of the Word of God in the past will find new levels of authority manifest through their lives in 2006. Their breakthroughs will come much quicker, and some victories will even manifest within minutes following the Word being declared.

Great Warriors Wielding the Sword

Great warriors who know how to wield the sword of the Spirit will arise in 2006. These warriors will impart courage to others in the Body of Christ and will model fearlessness just like David did when he fought Goliath.

I saw a vision of a sword, coming out of the sheath of the Lord. It is a sword sharpened to slaughter, and it is polished to flash like lightning. This sword is to cut off all the works of the enemy, as well as the works of the flesh. It must be wielded.

"Be silent, all flesh before the Lord, for He is aroused from His holy habitation." -Zechariah 2:13

4. House Churches

More house churches and house church movements will spring up in the New Year. Some of these will be launched due to the clear word of the Lord. Others will be planted due to rebellion and unresolved offenses in the hearts of wounded Christians. The churches planted with pure motives will succeed, and the others will be short-lived and potentially cause division and pain in the Body.

The Lord will highlight the relational dimension of His Kingdom in the house churches, and many will be saved in and through them. The Lord, however, is not replacing other expressions of His Church through this avenue, but He is, in fact, adding new dimensions.

5. Increased Visitation of the Lord in Jerusalem, as Well as Increased Conflict

I saw angelic messengers in the form of men walking the streets of Jerusalem. They were marking certain areas (store fronts, homes, and portions of streets) with red paint, which I believed to indicate the blood of Christ. This was in preparation for visitations of the Lord in those places where the crimson blood was painted. Increased appearances of Christ and angelic hosts will be seen in Jerusalem and in other parts of Israel.

Israel will continue to be an area of conflict and crisis in 2006, and much prayer will be needed for the peace of Jerusalem.

6. Potential for Righteous Governments and Judicial Systems to be Established.

There is great potential for righteous governments to be set in place in western nations, between 2006 and 2008, but it is very important for the Church to take its place in fervent intercession. A number of Christians who had no previous ambition for public service will be specifically called into the political arena in 2006.

As the Church prays for the unrighteous deeds performed in secret to be brought into the light, exposure will come. The judicial systems of nations will come into righteous alignment, as the Body of Christ continues in passionate supplication and intercession. Prayerlessness at this hour will be a fatal error.

7. Possess and Occupy

The year 2006 is the year to possess promises. In Joshua 1, the Lord commands Joshua to take courage and move forward to possess the promise of the Lord. Many Christians will move forward in faith to lay hold of past prophetic words that have yet to be fulfilled.

Numerous believers will increase in their purchase of lands, houses, and buildings. Many will inherit lands and estates in 2006, and some will inherit from unexpected sources.

It is a year to move into promise. Deuteronomy 8 will be significant.

8. Expansion

The new year is a year to dream big, although there will be some things in the natural that will tend to tempt people to minimize their vision. Believers must keep their focus on the greatness of God and His ability to do anything. Nothing is impossible with God.
"Now unto Him who is able to do exceedingly abundantly beyond all we could ask or think according to the power that works within us." -Ephesians 3:20
Those who soak in the glory of God and believe in His abiding presence will increase and enlarge beyond expectation. Things will grow quickly in 2006. Many will reap one hundred fold return in one year from all that they sow into good ground in the Kingdom.

9. Defined Apostolic Movement

True apostles will be more defined in 2006. They will be marked by their humility, faith, kingdom authority, power, and signs and wonders. There will be a further settling as to apostolic structures as theological adjustments move into place concerning the multi-faceted definition of this gift and calling.

Greater numbers of individuals in the Body of Christ will become "apostolic" according to the pattern in Matthew 10.
"Jesus summoned His twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal every kind of disease and every kind of sickness. . . And as you go, preach, saying, the kingdom of heaven is at hand. Heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out demons, freely you received, freely give." -Matthew 10:1,7,8
"And with great power the apostles were giving testimony to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus and abundant grace was upon them all."* -Acts 4:33

10. The Spiritual Revolution

In 2006, more and more believers will be hungry to lay hold of Kingdom perspectives and experiences. Spiritual terms and language will become more common. Individuals will be raised up to bring more understanding, pastoring, and instruction in the operations of the unseen Kingdom dimension.

Unsaved people are going to search for spiritual fulfillment with increased persistence. The Church must be ready to give them the truth concerning their spirituality.

The surfacing of hunger for the unseen realm will cause some increased conflict within the Body, but more and more believers will be open to the counsel of the Word on the subject. Here are some more scriptures to meditate on: 1 Corinthians 2; Colossians 3:1-3.

Prophetic Tears

Bill Somers

Mount Gilead, Ohio, USA

Shalom Aleichem

Several Years back, I had an experience with Prophetic Tears. As it turned out, it was not to be my last. We happened to be listening to a recording of Shalom Aleichem done as an instrumental by David Grisman and Andy Statman. The tune is a slow and very melancholy traditional Jewish song. All of a sudden I had an overwhelming urge to cry. The experience was much like the burden some people get during intercessory prayer. It would come back on me, for a season, every time I heard this recording. I knew in my spirit that I was sharing the tears of our Father in Heaven for the sufferings of the Jewish people throughout the ages. Much of this suffering has been at the hands of the church.

Yerushalayim Shel Zahav - Jerusalem Of Gold

About a year and a half ago, just before the Hezbollah war broke out, I found myself weeping over Jerusalem the same way. There is an Israeli song, Jerusalem of Gold which I heard quoted on the Paul Wilbur CD Shalom Jerusalem. Being curious about this song, I discovered that there is a web site devoted to it. http://www.jerusalemofgold.co.il/

This site conveys background information, lyrics and links to recordings and midi files of the music. This song was especially composed for a 1967 Israel Song Festival, Forty years ago, just before the 6 Day War. I found that merely reading the story behind this song caused me to weep. This was prophetic, intercessory weeping over Jerusalem and for the Jewish state in Israel.

Weeping For America

I have also had the same burden to weep for America. There have been many prophecies about the USA being defeated in war and invaded by foreign troops. I had been thinking about how this would be a new situation for the US as she has enjoyed God’s protection from such invasions all through her history. Then the Lord reminded me that we have in fact had enemy troops on our soil. This was twice in our history, in 1812 and during our revolutionary war, 1775-1783.

Realizing this, I then had a great desire to study the History of the American Revolution, seeing that the situation would be similar. In 2000, a movie called The Patriot was released. When I viewed it at our local movie house, I made sure to take a good handful of tissues with me, as I knew I would be crying at some point during the film. What I found interesting was the parts that moved me to tears. It was not when the enemy committed atrocities against the civilian population, nor when they murdered prisoners of war, nor when major characters in the story were killed. What made me weep was when the Americans were urged or expressed a desire to stand up for what they believed in, and resist the enemy. One character, a pastor of a church, said God had called him to shepherd the flock and that sometimes that meant you had to drive off the wolves! It was sentiments like that which had me breaking out in tears.

More recently, I find my self weeping when I hear American patriotic music. This was especially strong when I heard a barbershop quartet do a rendition of Stars and Stripes Forever. This is a famous march by John Philip Sousa. [I never knew there were lyrics to it!]

Another song that brings on the tears is Lee Greenwood’s God Bless The USA. One of the lines goes: Cause the flag still stands for freedom and they can’t take that away. When I hear this line, I find my self saying, Oh Yes they can! If these prophecies come to pass, they will take away our freedom and the Stars and Stripes won’t be here forever.

All this shows me, if nothing else would, the seriousness of the hour for Israel, The Church, and the USA. I have long realized that Israel is a type of the Church and also of The USA. This means that certain events in one will have a parallel in the others. As we know that Judgment needs to begin at the House of God, it may well begin in all three of these at once. But if the Stars and Stripes won’t be here forever, we know that the Kingdom of God will.

Prophetic Words

Prophecy 1

People shall weep at my glory.
They will weep at my manifest presence.
As they behold the Son of God whom they murdered.
They pierced me, they took my robe away from me.
I was stark naked. I bled and died.
I was ashamed but I bore my shame.
I took away the pains and the grief of your heart at the cross.
Don’t be bitter towards any fellow.
Learn to love for I bore your pains.
I took your sorrows away.
I did bare them.
Take my cross and learn of me.
I am beauty.
You’ll learn well of me.
At the cross, I showed you love, when I bore your sins for you.
I paid the price as I bled to die for you.
I took the pain.
I bled and died.
Look to me with a fervent heart.
I will be there when you call.
You’ll call on my name and I will answer you.
You’ll pray and I will hear for I am wanting to know you.
I’ll be there to help you out of your difficulties.
Don’t be troubled.
Be prudent.
For I’ll come in a time that you expect not.
Therefore wash your robe.
Make it clean lest I come and find you wanting.

Prophecy 2

I have shared my gifts to all the body.
Now move in me and have life.
Learn to swim in me and covet the gifts.
Flow in me and use them for your edification.
I will pour out my Spirit as you are ready to covet more of me.
Flow in love.
More power is available when you flow in my love.
My word is ever ready to share with you of the happenings of tomorrow.
Learn to release yourself to me.
For I have my word in full measure to release to you.
As you ask, you'll receive.
Go in the fullness of prophecy.
Get ready to swim in my river.
Go for the depths of prophecy.
Move in the light and you will learn to swim more.

Love is the key to the flow of prophecy.
Love is the key to learning more of me. Go for the refreshing.
Let Love be the platform on which you receive my gifts.
For if you have it without love, you will be disenabled to walk in my river.
Therefore love and do not hate.
Move in the river.
Move in the light for Love is the fullness of my Spirit.
As you walk in Love, I'll speak to you.
You shall hear clearly and all shall be well with you.

Psalm 94

Clo DiPilato

Dream of May 28th, 2005. I share this and realize there is a prophetic unction on me, as I do.

I dreamed a servant of the Lord handed me a bottle which at first I thought was perfume. But then, when I turned it toward me, and saw the label, it came to me very clearly that this was a bottle of anointing oil. I remarked to the Lord's servant that it was anointing oil, and there was agreement on this.

The label on the bottle was a picture of "stalks" of wheat. Underneath that wheat, was the inscription: Psalm 94.

Of course, when I got up in the morning, the first thing I did was to read Psalm 94. I believe through this dream the Lord was telling me that God's people are getting ready to move into a level of authority (the anointing oil) where they are going to have a right to execute God's judgments and vengeance against such wickedness as mentioned in this chapter; and these things are even ripened unto the judgments of God.

I come to this interpretation based on the following scriptural references:

> 6 ¶Let the high praises of God be in their mouth, and a twoedged sword in their hand;
> 7 To execute vengeance upon the heathen, and punishments upon the people;
> 8 To bind their kings with chains, and their nobles with fetters of iron;
> 9 To execute upon them the judgment written: this honour have all his saints. Praise ye the LORD. Psalm 149:6-9

> 1 Corinthians 6:1 ¶Dare any of you, having a matter against another, go to law before the unjust, and not before the saints?
> 2 Do ye not know that the saints shall judge the world? and if the world shall be judged by you, are ye unworthy to judge the smallest matters?
> 3 Know ye not that we shall judge angels? how much more things that pertain to this life? 1 Cor. 6:1-3

Here is Psalm 94, and I will let the word speak for itself, but as you read, have your senses sharpened to see how many things in the scripture actually address present day vexations against God's Word and His people. When I saw "murder the fatherless"......who are the fatherless, but countless aborted babies who would be born to unwed women if they were given the chance to be born!! No one is ever "fatherless" in the biological sense of the word, so it must be speaking of illegitimacy.

And then this scripture is replete with references to the persecution of the righteous, which is becoming an all-too-familiar trend in our land.

I continue to cry out much to God for His mercy to fall on this sin-sick nation to awaken people to repentance, but this dream I had shook me when I realized what the Spirit is saying, and that we are at a crucial point in time where the anointing on God's people is changing. It will not just be empty words trying to cajole and convince and convict , but God's power being manifested through a people who have been chastised and corrected into such a walk of obedience, He can trust them with His judgments.

My mailbox is flooded almost daily with those who wish to see righteous legislation to undo some of the evil of our day, and I praise God for these ones on the front-lines of the battles who are truly doing a worthy work.

But dearest friends, I believe we are getting ready to see an intervention of God through His people that will literally will defy the laws of gravity....... and by that, I mean that those who are so grounded and smug and arrogant in what they are perpetuating against righteousness are going to be blown sky high when they see God's activation of tribulation through His servants in order to purify and cleanse the land of sin and uncleanness. Righteousness WILL prevail.

God's people have feared to walk in the full authority He has given to them, but there is an anointing coming for it, and the righteous are going to be as bold as a lion, not turning aside for any!!

And it's not even going to come up for debate among God's people whether it's from the Lord or not because no one is going to dare say, "Is it the Lord?" because people are going to KNOW it's "from the Lord".

Sing unto God, sing praises to his name: extol him that rideth upon the heavens by his name JAH, and rejoice before him. Psalm 68:4
(Jah means, "The Lord most vehement!")

In the time of God's judgments, it's the time for the righteous to REJOICE, and not to be afraid!

The atmosphere is pregnant with the reality of this fresh anointing for servants to move into their position as sons. Read Galatians 4 to understand the difference between a servant and a son.

The sobriety and seriousness that seems to be overwhelming your spirit is actually a spiritual transformation taking place throughout a remnant in the body of Christ who are being "set" in the land as "thrones of judgments". It's not by man's might, nor by man's power, but by God's Spirit. You cannot make it up if God isn't putting it on you, and you cannot get out of it, if He is.

God's got a fire in Zion (His people) , and a furnace in Jerusalem (His people) , and the heat coming from off those fires are getting ready to start some fires that the ONLY thing that will quench the burning will be the water drawn out of the wells of salvation. A great humbling is coming to the land. God has promised yet another revival to this Nation, but it's coming by way of the fires of God's judgments. Some will run to the "wells of salvation" (His people with a clear word of redemption to bring them unto repentance, deliverance, and full cleansing), but sadly, there will those who will refuse to hear to the very end, and the seed they've sown will reap the harvest after it's own kind.

Let the "more sure word of prophecy" speak to you, as you read the following passage of scripture.

> Psalms 94:1 ¶O LORD God, to whom vengeance belongeth; O God, to whom vengeance belongeth, shew thyself.
> 2 Lift up thyself, thou judge of the earth: render a reward to the proud.
> 3 LORD, how long shall the wicked, how long shall the wicked triumph?
> 4 How long shall they utter and speak hard things? and all the workers of iniquity boast themselves?
> 5 They break in pieces thy people, O LORD, and afflict thine heritage.
> 6 They slay the widow and the stranger, and murder the fatherless.
> 7 Yet they say, The LORD shall not see, neither shall the God of Jacob regard it.
> 8 Understand, ye brutish among the people: and ye fools, when will ye be wise?
> 9 He that planted the ear, shall he not hear? he that formed the eye, shall he not see?
> 10 He that chastiseth the heathen, shall not he correct? he that teacheth man knowledge, shall not he know?
> 11 The LORD knoweth the thoughts of man, that they are vanity.
> 12 ¶Blessed is the man whom thou chastenest, O LORD, and teachest him out of thy law;
> 13 That thou mayest give him rest from the days of adversity, until the pit be digged for the wicked.
> 14 For the LORD will not cast off his people, neither will he forsake his inheritance.
> 15 But judgment shall return unto righteousness: and all the upright in heart shall follow it.
> 16 Who will rise up for me against the evildoers? or who will stand up for me against the workers of iniquity?
> 17 Unless the LORD had been my help, my soul had almost dwelt in silence.
> 18 When I said, My foot slippeth; thy mercy, O LORD, held me up.
> 19 In the multitude of my thoughts within me thy comforts delight my soul.
> 20 Shall the throne of iniquity have fellowship with thee, which frameth mischief by a law?
> 21 They gather themselves together against the soul of the righteous, and condemn the innocent blood.
> 22 But the LORD is my defence; and my God is the rock of my refuge.
> 23 And he shall bring upon them their own iniquity, and shall cut them off in their own wickedness; yea, the LORD our God shall cut them off.

Proclaim The Day

Bill Burns

What day is it, My children? Is it not the Day of resurrection and the Day of My power? Is it not the Day of the Third Day Church? I have called you to the forefront of this hour to proclaim the Day and to proclaim the Way and to release the blessings. I say to you that the seeds for the Jubilee blessings have been sown according to My word, and I will fulfill what I have spoken, and I will bring forth the harvest of what has been sown. You know that I am faithful in all of My ways. Freely you have received; freely give and watch as the harvest comes. These are the days of the blessing of the Lord. Receive what has been given to you, says the Lord.

Marsha Burns

March 28, 2005: Beloved, you have stood your ground and faced adversity with courage, and now the dark days of doubt and oppression are beginning to fade away. You have been prepared for victory, and now you can arise and take back what has been stolen. I have released fresh vision. Your light shall dawn in darkness, and even your darkness shall be as noonday, for the reproach has been rolled away. Now, you will maintain strength and courage at all times and be ready to do battle at the first sign of attack. Your victory will be won when you set a watch and turn back every battle at the gate. Then, you shall prosper in victory and rejoice.

Putting The House In Order

Shirley Lise

January 23, 2005

The following word came in a little different format than what I have been used to and incorporates some personal aspects the Lord has been speaking to me about, however, I believe the message is for each one of us to consider.... that the Lord wants us to evaluate our lives, including our homes and households, to see if things are in order, and if not, to take action to put them into order. I sense a bit of urgency to this message to "put the house in order."

Blessings, Shirley Lise, Moderator

I am putting the house in order, putting the household in order, putting the household of God in order, lining all things up with My divine plumb line.

Get the house in order. To do this, I ask that you fix what needs fixing. Look at a house, a dilapidated house. What you do, is go in and fix it up, bring it up to standard. Well, I am asking you to do this in every area of your life, to bring it up to standard.

And what is the standard you ask? Everything I have given you has been entrusted to you. I would ask that you look after it properly, that you be a good steward of it. How do you do this, you ask? By looking at what needs to be done and bringing it up to standard.

Your house and home have been entrusted to you. Look at it and bring it up to standard. What needs to be done? Does anything need fixing? Fix it. Is it clean and is everything in it in order, or is it dirty and out of order? This is important. The house needs to be put into order. So look at your home and you will be able to judge whether or not your house is in order.

Do you continually leave things undone? Just as it is in your home, so is it in your life. So, put the house in order. Do those things that need to be done and do not neglect them. You will set the example to the next generation. If they see your house out of order, they will live in disorder. So I am asking that you take a good look at these things. Are you teaching and training the next generation to be good stewards of what I have given, or will they squander their wealth on foolishness and neglect the household?

I am setting a standard, says the Lord. It is a standard of holiness and requires that the house be put in order. So look around you and check to see if things that need to be done are getting done and if the house is kept clean.

There are some basic things I am addressing that can easily be overlooked, but I ask that you take a look at them. Looking after yourself is important. Getting enough sleep, eating properly, personal hygiene and cleanliness, good work habits, time spent in intimacy with the Lord, and time spent helping and ministering to others are necessary. All these need to be in order. Once again, your household reflects whether or not these are in proper order.

Interior Decorating. I have spoken to you about interior decorating. You are beginning to learn about colors and their use. Well, I am about to open your understanding regarding these things. You will see and appreciate the order I have designed in use of color and color schemes. You will see how colors are used to keep a room and house decor harmonized. You will also learn how to arrange furniture, what styles to use. I am opening a panoramic view of interior design and decor to you. You will learn how to put the house in order design-wise. This will help you to see the parallel which I am speaking to you about. Removing clutter is important in good design. You will see its use. Likewise, I ask you to remove clutter from your life. Get rid of those things that distract you and keep you from being focused on what I have called you to do.

Renovate? Renovate is even a stronger word than redecorate. If your life is extremely out of order, you cannot just redecorate, but you need to renovate. As in renovating, you bring everything up to standard by a complete overhaul. Well, I ask you to look at your life to see if you need a complete overhaul. If you do, it is time to begin.

So write up the checklist. Jot down those things that are out of order and make a conscious effort to bring them into line.

Pass The Salt

Robert Ricciardelli

Pass the salt, please!

I was channel surfing the other day. I do not have much time or desire for the television these days, but I was able to catch part of a basketball game. I then surfed over to a Christian cable network hoping to hear a good word. I am not so sure what I saw could have been described as good, but it sure was sweet, sugar coated for sure. There seems to be a trend of sweets for the flesh, from well meaning preachers on the television, from pulpits, and other media as well. It seems to come across as "The Word of God", because there are bible verses attached. They speak of Christianity as, "The land of milk and honey, and where all your dreams come true". If you have enough faith to name it, then your faith can claim it too. Fathers will does not seem to be necessary, if we only will live by faith, we will receive material prosperity. If you do this then you get that, if you give this much, then you get that much, have your cake and eat it too!

Those that know me know my heart and that I will defend a brother almost always. It just seems that we have been getting an over abundance of "sugar and spice and everything nice", and not enough of the "lose your life, so you may have it", type of teachings. Do I believe in biblical and godly prosperity? Yes I do! Do I believe in rewards for obedience? Yes I do! Do I believe in sowing and reaping? Of course I do! I am not talking about biblical truth; I am talking about pouring heaps of sugar and candy on top of the truth. I am hearing about a whole lot of sugar and not a lot about being the salt of the earth. I don't know about you, but for me, somebody pass me the salt, please!

Matthew 5:13
"You are the salt of the earth. But if the salt loses its saltiness, how can it be made salty again? It is no longer good for anything, except to be thrown out and trampled by men.

Colossians 4:6
Let your conversation be always full of grace, seasoned with salt, so that you may know how to answer everyone

I started thinking about salt and all the characteristics and uses for it in the natural. There are so many spiritual lessons we can learn from salt, the very thing Jesus told us to be like on this earth. Why was salt of such importance in the scriptures? Why did Jesus compare people to salt . . . what on earth could the two have in common? To find the answer, I did some research about salt. I was amazed at what I learned and how much we can extrapolate to understand how we should be living, moving and having our being as salt and light to the world. .

Extractor Of Flavor – It enhances flavor when added. This gave me the idea of salt as a servant. Whatever food it serves, it brings out even a better quality of flavor. As we begin to touch peoples lives though the power of the Holy Spirit, we then will begin to see them begin to see the Lord and accept Him. His properties begin to be transferred by His presence, as healing and deliverance take place.

Then those persons become a new flavor, a new life in Christ, and the old flavor passes away…..

Salt Serves The Digestive Tract As salt we then can help the world digest the life-saving truth of God's Word. The nutrients of the Word of God feed and strengthen the world. We allow the only Spirit to continue to give us His Word fitly spoken into people's lives and give them the answers to their cares.

Salt Is Essential For Muscle Movement - "Christian salt" enables the world to move smoothly in the right direction and in the right way. Without it, there is lack of coordination–disorder, mayhem, lawlessness, etc. We should bring this movement to all areas of society so that they may be in alignment to the precepts of His word. A nation can be transformed as we bring His presence to the gate keepers in politics, healthcare, business & finance, media & entertainment, education, law, and our churches….

Salt is needed most in "hotter climates" - The need for "Christian salt" increases with temptation and sin. In times and area's where wickedness is on the increase, the greater the need for "Christian salt." It is interesting to note that, in the parts of the world where persecution is at its most devastating, the Christian faith is multiplying by leaps and bounds despite all efforts to stifle it. It seems like the greater the persecution, the greater blood, sweat and tears are realized. As blood, sweat and tears contain salt, it represents the fact that those that go and grow through them have increased their salt content.

Our failure to be salty causes great damage - Chronic deprivation of "Christian salt" causes loss of weight (dwindling Christianity in the world loss of appetite (the world's lack of interest in God and His Word), nausea (the world's rejection of God and His Word), and muscular cramps (disorder, conflict, and wickedness in the world). Eventually, lack of "Christian salt", leads to stunted growth–a body or world that can never reach full health and maturity. –Note: there is transformation taking place throughout the world – China, India, Pakistan, Russia, Eastern Europe…etc. but not much in the United States, yet).

Salt Preserves – Those that have become Christians can be preserved through learning from God's Word and discipleship. As we teach them to obey the Word of God and live according to His principles, then they become multiplied salt for the earth and bring that life to others.

Diluted Salt – Salt when diluted, loses it's saltiness. I was thinking in the area's of compromise in our life. As we compromise or add to much sugar theology to our diet, we then cannot be the witness and the flavor or image of Christ that we need to be. We can be diluted salt for the earth by many other things as well, such as unforgiveness, rebellion and many other sins. So we must continue to be uncompromised and obedient to His Word to keep our salty advantage.

Lumpy Salt – Salt will lose it's ability to function when it lumps together and separates it's free flowing properties. I began to think of the many factions, denominationalisms, individualisms, that separate at times from being the one true inseparable body of Christ. When we begin to think that our order, or the way we may worship is better than others, we then can become lumpy and lose our saltiness. There is only one church and although we may have different expressions of the only true Way and only true Church, we must realize that church is not an organization, it is a people that belong to and live for Jesus Christ. In that essential we can then be mobilized to interact with every believer no matter what race, denomination or culture.

Salt Creates Thirst – Salt will create a constant thirst. If you have enough salt of God's properties in your life you will always be thirsty to drink more of Him and His Word. You will thirst for righteousness. You will thirst for souls. You will thirst for His presence and you will thirst to hear His voice. You will thirst for obedience and you will never stop thirsting to advance His kingdom.

Salt Has Value – Salt is valuable, is taxed heavily, and has been used as currency in many parts of the world. As God's agents of salt and light to the world, we are also valuable. We are of so much value beloved and we were purchased at a great price to be considered sons and daughters of the living God. We have inherited His authority and we are in training to reign with Him. We must understand who we are in Christ and the kingdom value and witness we represent.

These are a few examples to encourage us to feed those things in our life that will create us to become effectual witnesses for Christ wherever He leads us. We also must cut out from our diet, those things that would decrease the life giving properties of the Holy Spirit within us. We must not quench the salt and light of the Holy Spirit and begin to root out the culprit. The culprit many times is self. Self enjoys indulgences and like Luther in His day, we have establishments that are feeding us indulgences and sometimes they come in the form of godliness.

Let's get on a health food kick of the unadulterated Word of God and begin to wean out the sweets from our diet. An over abundance of sugar will kill you in the natural and can lead self or others towards spiritual death. It may taste good, it may feel good and it may tickle your ears. But if it is not producing the fruits of the Spirit in your life and causing you to seek first His kingdom and His righteousness, then it is no good. As for me and my house, we have seen and heard enough sugar, so pass the salt please!

Paying The Ultimate Price

Kerry Denten

www.kerrydenten.com

I would like to share a vision I have when I came across the story of Veronica Guerin.

Veronica Guerin was an Irish journalist who was brutally murdered in 1996 at the culmination of an investigative report into organised drug running and crime operations in Ireland.

The twelve months after Veronica Guerin's death saw a series of remarkable changes in Ireland. One week after her death, the Irish government ratified a constitutional change allowing the freezing and seizure of illicitly gained assets resulting from crime. Over the twelve months following Mrs. Guerin's death, there was an astounding galvanising of the people of Dublin that resulted in almost all of the drug dealers in that city being driven out by ordinary people while the main drug bosses were driven underground and their operations were significantly hampered. Almost all of the people involved in Mrs. Guerin's death were apprehended and brought to justice while having their assets seized .. and overall, there was a 15% drop in crime nationwide.

I was left deeply pondering why it always seems to be that one person has to pay such a high price for so many others to find a way through to a new experience of life. How many times across history have we seen this happen? One person makes the sacrifice and it seem to be the catalyst that triggers sweeping change for countless men and women.

I was moved to tears as I considered the pain being experienced by any individual in their quest to fulfill the thing that burns in their heart. I was overtaken by the pain and confusion that the individual's loved ones are left with in the wake of them paying the highest price of all for the sake of their quest.

I was left asking the Lord why that is. Why does an individual have to pay such a high price?

As I was pondering this concept, the Lord overtook me with a vision of what's really going on behind the scenes ....

Suddenly I saw a small company of angels assigned to stand very close protective guard over the person chosen to pay such a price. These angels are commanded by the Lord to pay any price to protect their charge. The one they are protecting must arrive at the moment where the ultimate price can be paid .. for the good of all those who are to benefit from their sacrifice.

In my vision I became aware of an increasing clamour as the angels war to defend their charge with all vehemence to ensure he or she makes it through to the end. The enemy is not deterred. He knows what it will look like if he loses to God's intent through this individual. The enemy presses in harder, looking for weak spots. The angelic company close ranks to ensure that their charge makes it through.

The enemy pushes harder. The clash of weaponry in the Spirit is deafening .. the roar of the Heavenly host intensifies as they spur on the Lord's chosen one .. "come on, you can do it .. you can make it" .. "don't give up, you must make it to the end" they cry .. and suddenly, the timing is right .. both history and destiny collide in a moment .. the Lord's goal is achieved and at the same moment, a gun shot .. the price has been paid .. all of heaven gasps .. the great cloud of witnesses holds their breath .. "how will the people respond to the price that's been paid for them?" .. "will it all be worth this individual's training?" .. "will the people run with the opportunity that's been given to them?" .. "will the Lord's orchestration of their life be worth it?

For therein lies the truth of the matter .. even though the angelic company was "defending" their charge, the fact is, they were meant to ensure that at just the right moment, the price was indeed paid by that individual .. even their life. This is why the Scripture says that "costly is death of His saints", because much has been invested into bringing them to the point where they would demonstrate their love for others by being willing to lay down their lives in the fulfillment of a plan much bigger than themselves .. but at any moment they may choose to say, "it's all too hard, I can't go on, I'm outta here!"

Along the journey, they may not have understood what it was that was driving them. Oh, they could try to explain it as a passion for justice, a determination to make a difference, a commitment to changing the status quo .. but what even they may not have known is that it was God who had invested Himself into them all along, in the hope that they would make it to the end in order to see the goal achieved, the battle won.

.. and here's the most shocking thing for me about this whole experience ..

God will ensure that the price is paid one way or the other and, if He can't find a believer to follow Him, He will find an unbeliever who He can trust to at least see out the task to the end.

Perhaps next time you are confused by your circumstances and yet feeling driven to pursue your goal come what may, you might stop and consider whether you too have been chosen for one of those moments when history and destiny might collide for the good of many who will come after you. If so, pay the price. We are with you!

Prepare The Way
Rick Joyner

The greatest sign of the return of the Lord is recorded in Matthew 24:14, “And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in the whole world for a witness to all the nations, and then the end shall come.” An acceleration of transformation is now going on in the church in order to prepare the way for this gospel to be preached and this prophecy fulfilled. The greatest force for truth is now being assembled for this purpose.

There are true, last-day prophets and apostles already living among us. Most are still immature, but they are here, they are maturing, and they will soon be released in power. Their commission will be foretold by the earth itself suffering spiritual contractions so that all who dwell on the earth will tremble. God is coming to shake things up.

The Revolution

This “gospel of the kingdom” is not the same as the gospel of salvation, commonly referred to as “the gospel” which has been the primary message of the Protestant and the evangelical churches for the past five hundred years. It is now time to understand the gospel of the kingdom, how it is distinguished from the gospel that has been preached, and how the message of the church is about to change so that it is preached throughout the whole world. We also need to examine the way that the gospel of salvation has been perverted in recent times, changing it from Him coming to save His people from their sins, to Him coming to save His people from their troubles. This is why so few remain in the faith after their “conversion.” The only true salvation comes from the conviction of our sins and our profound and desperate need for the atonement of the cross of Jesus Christ. Anything other than this is a wrong foundation that cannot stand. He did not come to deliver us from troubles, but rather the opposite. When someone comes to Christ, he or she needs to immediately be prepared for troubles, as the whole fallen world will be against them.

Without question the Christian life is the most fulfilling, wonderful adventure that anyone can experience in this world, but it is also the most difficult life that can be lived on this earth. When people come to Christ, they need to be prepared for battle from the first day. If they are not prepared for this, they are very unlikely to remain in the faith, as the glaring statistics of those who “come to Christ” that are lost again to the world should boldly teach us.

When we are born, it is not the goal of our lives, but only the beginning. Likewise, to be born again is not the ultimate goal of the gospel; it is the beginning of the greatest quest and journey toward the full maturity of what we are called to be. It is now time for the church to go on to maturity, and this must begin with our message. It is the greatest message of hope, but also a call to battle.

To preach the gospel of the kingdom does not in any way negate or denigrate the gospel of salvation. In fact, it is the gospel of the kingdom that leads to true salvation, which is why the Lord Jesus Himself preached this gospel, as well as the first century apostles. Redemption, reconciliation, and restoration are all part of the gospel of the kingdom, and these are reasons for which the kingdom is coming. However, the gospel of the kingdom does include more than the salvation of believers—it is the message that the rightful King is coming to take over.

Those who are born again with the hope of salvation may be changed, but those who are born again in order to see the kingdom will be so changed that they are a “new creation” (see Galatians 6:15) which stands out in great contrast to those of the old creation. Just as the first century Christians stood out in stunning contrast to all who lived in their time, the radical faith that is about to be revealed through such radical Christians will cause the whole world to stand in shock and awe.

Recent studies have revealed that modern, evangelical Christians are really no different from non-Christians in basic moral and integrity issues such as honesty, cheating, and immorality. That is about to change. As the Lord warned in John 15, every branch that does not bear fruit will be cut off. If you receive anything from this bulletin, heed the following clear warning from Galatians 5:16-25:

But I say, walk by the Spirit, and you will not carry out the desire of the flesh. For the flesh sets its desire against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; for these are in opposition to one another, so that you may not do the things that you please. But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the Law. Now the deeds of the flesh are evident, which are: immorality, impurity, sensuality, idolatry, sorcery, enmities, strife, jealousy, outbursts of anger, dispute s, dissensions, factions, envying, drunkenness, carousing, and things like these, of which I forewarn you just as I have forewarned you that those who practice such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God. But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control; against such things there is no law. Now those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. If we live by the Spirit, let us also walk by the Spirit.

Again, we can know for sure that those who practice such things as are listed under the works of the flesh "shall not inherit the kingdom of God." The scariest thing in the world should be if we are doing these things and getting away with them. As we are told in Hebrews 12, the Lord disciplines His children, and if we are without discipline, then we are not His.

The Gospel of the Kingdom

The gospel of the kingdom is not just the gospel of our atonement, but it is the good news of the kingdom of God and the declaration that the King is coming to establish it here on the earth, beginning with us. To be saved with a vision of our salvation is good, but it is man-centered. To be saved by a vision of the kingdom is an enlistment into the army of the coming King. This is not a matter of "majoring on minors;" each has very different consequences and different fruit. When the gospel of salvation is preached, we are compelled to "accept the Lord" and often it is done as if we are doing Him a favor. When the gospel of the kingdom is preached so that His kingdom is seen, we will bow the knee begging His acceptance.

As the Lord instructed His people to pray for nearly 2,000 years, His kingdom is going to come, and His will is going to be done right here on the earth just as it is in heaven (see Matthew 6:9-13). This prayer of so many millions for so many years, the prayer that the King Himself gave us to pray, is going to be answered. He wants to start with us. That He came to be our Savior is something we will marvel at for eternity; however, He did not just come to be our Savior, but our King. There is a difference.

The coming of His kingdom is the greatest hope that has ever been preached on the earth. There is no hope found in any other religion or any philosophy of utopia that is as great as what we have been given to proclaim. As the troubles of the end of this age increase, the light of the hope of His kingdom will shine brighter and brighter. Now is the time to fill our lamps with this oil.

The earth will be restored to its former paradise so that there is no more war, sickness, dying, hunger, or even pain. The lion will lie down with the lamb, children will be able to play with cobras, and no one will hurt anyone else. This is the greatest message of hope that the world has ever heard. The gospel is not just "good news," but it is the greatest news, the greatest message OF A FUTURE that the world has ever heard. Our message must change from proclaiming that the end is coming to proclaiming that the beginning is coming.

He Comes to His Temple First

This is a sure promise, and the time is near for its fulfillment. The kingdom of God is surely coming to this earth, and soon. However, it can come to us today! We can live in the kingdom now, and those who begin to proclaim it will do this as true citizens of this kingdom. As we read in Revelation 3:20, the Lord has been standing at the door of His church, patiently knocking to see who would open to Him, but the time is near when He will suddenly burst into His temple and take over. His church is then going to be His body who does His will, speaks His words, and does the works that He did.

We may think this is what we have been doing, following His leading in everything, but in truth few have followed Him in much at all. Many wonderful things have been done in His name which the Lord has blessed, but He will bless many things that He will not inhabit. There have also been many terrible, even diabolical things done in His name.

Soon we will know the difference between what was truly born in the heart of God, and that which was born in the hearts of men. He is going to cleanse His temple, destroy the idols that have been set up there, and drive out the money-changers. He is then going to rebuild it so His church is in fact His church—His body of which He alone is the Head.

Great changes have been happening deep in the heart of the church for years. These are about to accelerate, resulting in such a great transformation that it will be viewed as the greatest move of God in His people since the Day of Pentecost when He first poured out His Spirit on the church. Like the Day of Pentecost in the book of Acts, it will begin with a remnant that has been very close to Him, but it will quickly get the attention of the rest of His people in every nation. These will also begin repenting of their ways that have in fact caused them to reject Him and live contrary to His will. Just as John had to preach repentance before Jesus came the first time, a great repentance is going to precede His second coming.

The sword of the Lord will sweep over the whole earth and remove from among His people all who are not bowing before Him. He will remove the arrogant and the stumbling blocks. When we see this deep repentance even touching the most highly visible and influential leaders of the church, we can begin to expect a radical transformation of the church so that true, New Testament church life as the Lord intended can be re-established on the earth. Then the church will not be known so much for its organization, facilities, or even its message, but it will be known as the place where the living God dwells. His people will be continually in awe of Him, and the rest will be in awe of His people. Another sign that His kingdom is near will be the mountains being brought low, and the valleys and low places being raised up. Many of the things that have been high and lofty in the church will be brought down, and things that have been kept in low esteem will be exalted. The message of the cross and the crucified life will be the first to be lifted up. The messages that have promoted presumption, self-seeking, and selfishness will be brought low. The messengers who promote them will likewise follow them.

Through the coming repentance, a great and profound maturity will come to the church. It will be such a radical change that Christians will claim that they have begun to see the kingdom of God and even the King for the first time. To a large degree this will simply be the result of getting our eyes off of ourselves and turning to Him. Instead of the church being so focused on building itself, it will begin to focus on preparing the way for His kingdom. This reorientation from self-focus to that which is greater will, in fact, do more to build the church than all of our self-focus was ever able to do.

Even so, this great repentance will result in a great pruning of the church. Many will not be willing to make these changes. The recent split of many denominations around basic issues is but a small foretaste of what is coming. Those who are more devoted to institutions or organizations than to the Lord will have a hard time, and many will not make it. Even so, those who do must press on.

In a relatively short period of time, the church will become more brilliant and powerful than it has ever been. The branches that are cut off from it will wither and die very fast. Do not die with them. Our allegiance must be to the Lord and His kingdom, which is bigger than any denomination or movement. When denominations turn from the Lord and His Word, it is time to turn from them.

From Control to Authority

There have been many messages that have come proposing to be the gospel of the kingdom, but as Robin McMillan observed, most of these messages have somehow been about how to control people. Indeed, a control spirit has not only entered into many of these teachings, but has sat in the seat of authority in much of the church since the first century. There is still a great deal of confusion in the church on the issues of authority, but that will soon change as a true authority is raised up.

Obeying the Lord and His delegated authority is important. The Lord Himself explained that if we call Him “Lord,” but do not do what He says, we are building on a foundation that will surely collapse (see Luke 6:46-49). Therefore, obedience to Him as the King is crucial for being a true messenger of His kingdom. However, the way in which the Lord preached the gospel of the kingdom actually said very little about authority and obedience, but rather He demonstrated their power over the conditions on earth.

For example, when the Lord saw a cripple it was as if He said (I am paraphrasing), “You know, there are no cripples in heaven, so watch what happens when the kingdom of heaven touches this cripple on the earth.” Then the cripple would be made whole. When He saw a multitude hungry with no food, it was as if He said, “You know, there is no lack in heaven, so watch what happens when heaven touches these few loaves and fishes...” The condition of heaven would touch the circumstances on earth and prevail over them. In this way, the authority of the kingdom of heaven was demonstrated to be greater than any authority or condition on the earth. He told His disciples to go and live the same way so that they could preach the same message. It is noteworthy that when the Lord turned the water into wine or multiplied the fish and loaves, He always made too much! Of course, He did this purposely to demonstrate the abundance of His kingdom. He did come to give abundant life! He promises those who are faithful to bring the whole tithe into His storehouse that He will pour out a blessing which they cannot contain (see Malachi 3:8-12). Likewise, the apostle Paul affirms the same in II Corinthians 9:6-8: Now this I say, he who sows sparingly shall also reap sparingly; and he who sows bountifully shall also reap bountifully. Let each one do just as he has purposed in his heart; not grudgingly or under compulsion; for God loves a cheerful giver. And God is able to make all grace abound to you, that always having all sufficiency in everything, you may have an abundance for every good deed.

Life in the kingdom is one of abundance, having “all grace” abounding to us, “all sufficiency in everything,” and “an abundance for every good deed.” However, this is not just for our consumption, but for service. It is also in Spirit and power, which is why the apostle Paul wrote:

And my message and my preaching were not in persuasive words of wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power, that your faith should not rest on the wisdom of men, but on the power of God (I Corinthians 2:4-5).

For the kingdom of God does not consist in words, but in power (I Corinthians 4:20).

The message of the kingdom is about the King. The office of king is obviously about authority, but the authority of the kingdom of God is not just about beating people into submission. In John 18:36 the Lord said, “My kingdom is not of this world.” His kingdom is from above, and in many profound ways, not like the kingdoms of this world. Most of the doctrines concerning the kingdom and even those which have been declared to be the gospel of the kingdom, are very hard to distinguish from the kingdoms of this world, and have very little evidence or demonstration of being from the realm of heaven. What is coming will be different. The foundational purpose of the coming gospel of the kingdom will not be about getting people to line up and obey. It will be about healing them, feeding them, and transforming their minds by such demonstrations of the goodness of God that people begin to love Him, His truth, His righteousness, and His justice.

Seeing Is the Beginning

In John 4:48 the Lord said, “Unless you people see signs and wonders, you simply will not believe.” This is often taken as a rebuke, but when you read it in its context, it is simply the statement of a fact. When the Lord said this, the royal official who was seeking the healing of his son did believe, which is why he came to Jesus. The Lord went about “to do and to teach,” because people needed to see in order to believe. When the gospel of the kingdom goes forth, people will be given ample opportunity to believe.

Even so, as the Lord said in John 3:12, “If I told you earthly things and you do not believe, how shall you believe if I tell you heavenly things?” As Todd Bentley recently told me, he was beginning to understand that we must be born again to see the kingdom, and we must see it in order to preach it, but the ultimate goal is to “inherit the kingdom.” This is something that great saints have pondered throughout the church age, but we can expect it to soon become a preoccupation with believers because a great revelation of the kingdom is coming.

However, we are after more than a revelation of the kingdom. We must be born again to see the kingdom, but not everyone who is born again sees it. In fact, until now very few seem to have seen more than a passing glance. When we begin to see the kingdom, the change it will generate will be at least as great as being born again. Once we see the kingdom, it becomes impossible to be overly concerned about the temporary things of this world. To see the kingdom is a call to live in the power of the age to come. When we begin to see the kingdom and see its power demonstrated, we will not be able to contain our hope, but will have to proclaim it. Even so, our goal is more than just preaching the gospel of the kingdom. Our goal is to live in it now, demonstrating it.

The Church and the Kingdom

The end of this age will be the greatest time of trouble that the world has ever known because man will learn that he simply cannot rule over the earth without being in proper relation to God. Then, through His church, which is composed of men, He is going to establish His authority over the earth and He is going to “restore all things.” This means that mankind and the entire earth will be restored from all of the consequences of the Fall and the earth will be the paradise that He originally designed it to be. God’s original plan for man and the earth have not been thwarted, but He will certainly finish that which He began. About this we can be sure. Because of the transgression, the atonement, redemption, reconciliation, and restoration had to be added to the plan of God. It does not negate the fact that the Lord knew from the beginning that it would have to be added, as “His works were finished from the foundation of the world” (Hebrews 4:3). Even so, His intention all along has been to dwell with men upon the earth. This is our ultimate goal—to be His dwelling place and to have that intimate, personal relationship with Him restored.

The gospel of the kingdom is not just about heaven and eternal life—it is about heaven coming to the earth. This is the prayer that He gave us to pray in the beginning, that His kingdom would come and His will would be done, right here on earth as it is in heaven (see Matthew 6:9-13). We can be sure the prayer that the Son of God Himself gave us to pray for nearly two thousand years will be answered, and the time is near.

The Great Decision and the Great Division

Since the first century, the church has found a way to divide over almost any doctrine or procedure. That will change in the near future and ultimately a great unity will come, but first a great division is coming. The whole church will have to choose between following a control spirit or the Holy Spirit—the headship of men or the Headship of the Lord. Those denominations, movements, or churches which choose to go the way of building and following human political alliances in place of the Headship of Christ will quickly see huge numbers of churches and people departing. If they do not quickly repent of their error, they will fade away completely. Paul wrote in Galatians 1:10: “If I were still trying to please men, I would not be a bond-servant of Christ.” The fear of man is the most basic enemy of true spiritual authority. Those who are controlled by the fear of men, seeking the approval of men more than God, will be removed from leadership in the church. The Lord Jesus is going to be the Head of His church, and He will rule through bond-servants who live to do His will.

As stated, many things have divided the church in the past, but in the future the main division will be between those who follow the Lord, and those who follow after men, or human, earthly ambitions. This is the main division coming upon the earth, and the judgment will begin with His own household. The issue is over who is going to rule His house, and then over who is going to rule the earth. The Lord will ultimately rule over all, but the end of the age is about choosing who we will serve. As the Scriptures make clear, a great shaking is coming upon the world, and everything that can be shaken will be removed (see Hebrews 12). We are told in I Peter 4:17: “For it is time for judgment to begin with the household of God; and if it begins with us first, what will be the outcome for those who do not obey the gospel of God?” The key phrase in this verse is “obey the gospel,” which is more than just giving an intellectual assent to it, but it is conforming our lives to the truth of the gospel by acknowledging Jesus as the Lord by obeying Him.

The Lord cannot judge the world if His own people are doing the very things that He is coming to judge the world for. He is going to shake out of His kingdom those who have been conformed to this world and have not submitted to having their minds renewed and transformed. The flesh or carnal nature of man is about to be consumed like grass.

As the apostles make clear in the Scripture we read previously, those who “practice” the works of the flesh “shall not inherit the kingdom of God” (Galatians 5:21). Many have been duped by a cheap salvation which in reality excludes the cross that we must each take up daily, implying if they just believe that God exists, and that Jesus went to the cross they will be saved. This is an ultimate deception, and has left many thinking they are safe who are in fact still in eternal jeopardy. Those who truly believe the gospel also obey it. This does not mean those who slip and do the works of the flesh are condemned, but those who “practice” them will not inherit the kingdom. If we are Christ’s and His Spirit is leading us, we will war against the deeds of the flesh until the flesh is not only subdued, but dead.

Whoever controls us is our true lord. If our carnal nature still controls us, then it is still our lord in place of Christ. If the fear of man controls us more than the fear of God, then we are still ruled from below and not above. The shaking that is coming will reveal that which is hidden, and the true state of us all.

However, the gospel remains “good news.” There is still time to repent and turn back to the Lord if we have become lukewarm, a backslider, or have ceased fighting the good fight of faith against our own fallen nature. As we are told in I Corinthians 11:31-32, “But if we judged ourselves rightly, we should not be judged. But when we are judged, we are disciplined by the Lord in order that we may not be condemned along with the world.”

Many of the great gatherings of Christians to repent and humble themselves before the Lord in such places as Washington D.C. have been heard, and the Lord has given us more time. However, He will not indefinitely refrain from judgment. To humble ourselves and pray is good, but true repentance is to turn from the sin. These are encouraging signs that there has been a lot of true repentance and turning away from sin in the church, but the battle is far from over

The Nature of Judgment

The judgments that are coming are not the result of God reaching out to smite the earth as much as it is Him removing the hand of mercy that has stayed “natural processes.” The Lord created His universe to live in harmony, and there are spiritual and natural harmonics which, if they are upset, set off everything from earthquakes to storms to diseases. If it had not been for God’s hand of mercy, holding back “the winds of the earth,” earthquakes and storms would be off the scale and super viruses would have already devastated the earth. The judgments that will come in the last days of this age are simply the result of God removing the restraints so that the earth and its natural systems will begin to do what they would have done a long time ago had they not been restrained (see Revelation 7). The “judgments of God” are really our own doing. They are simply fallen men reaping what they have sown. Just as the judgments that came upon biblical Israel by her neighbors being released to plunder her were simply the removing of the hand of the Lord from restraining these nations, so it will be in what is to come. God desires to show mercy far more than judgment, and He has always restrained the judgments until there was no longer any choice because of the hardness of men’s hearts. So as long as the judgments have not come they can still be stayed, and even when they come they can still be lessened if we repent.

Stand Upon What Stands

We have a kingdom that cannot be shaken. The citizens of that kingdom are going to become increasingly obvious as they will in time be the only ones standing. Not only will they be standing—they will be prevailing and prospering. As the Lord Jesus’ own prophecies concerning these times make very clear, we are coming to the greatest times of trouble the world has ever known. However, the good news is, if we have built our lives on the kingdom which cannot be shaken, we will not only survive what is coming, but we will prevail and prosper. This is actually the time when the church is going to cross over and begin to possess its Promised Land.

The present world systems are going to be shaking, and this will increase. As a sign of this, increasing natural disasters such as earthquakes and storms will continually break records until they exceed all previous scales and frequency. All who continue to think they can run the world, or even their own lives without God, are about to learn that this is impossible. Those who are “obeying the gospel” will know increasing light and prosperity at the same time the world around them is collapsing. We must not be ashamed of this, but it too is a part of the judgment. However, our prosperity is not so we can live luxuriously, but so we can help the desperate and prepare the way for the coming kingdom. In Joshua 3:16, we are told that the waters of the Jordan “which were flowing down from above stood and rose up in one heap, a great distance away at Adam.” This could have been translated that the waters of the Jordan “were rolled back all the way to Adam.” It was no accident that this little town was named “Adam,” just as there are no accidents at all in Scripture. This was a prophecy that when God’s people begin to cross their Jordan, we will begin possessing all of the promises of God that we are called to inherit, and then death will be rolled back all the way to Adam! This means that all of the death which was the consequence of the Fall will be reversed. This is the good news and the reality of it will actually be much better than we have even been able to conceive. Now is the time—today is the day of salvation! Today we can live in a kingdom that will never shake and will surely prevail. Today let your choice be for the Tree of Life—and you will live forever.

The Fruit of the Land
Rick Joyner

" . . .Today I have rolled away the reproach of Egypt from you."

> "Now when they had finished circumcising all the nation, that they remained in their places in the camp until they were healed.
> "Then the Lord said to Joshua, 'Today I have rolled away the reproach of Egypt from you.' So the name of that place is called Gilgal to this day.
> "While the sons of Israel camped at Gilgal, they observed the Passover on the evening of the fourteenth day of the month on the desert plains of Jericho.
> "And on the day after the Passover, on that very day, they ate some of the produce of the land, unleavened cakes and parched grain.
> "And the manna ceased on the day after they had eaten some of the produce of the land, so that the sons of Israel no longer had manna, but they ate some of the yield of the land of Canaan during that year." Joshua 5:8-12, NASB (Emphasis mine)

We see above that it was on the very day after the children of Israel celebrated the Passover that they began to eat the fruit of the land. There is a fundamental connection between remembering the Passover sacrifice of Christ, and our beginning to walk in the fruit of the Spirit as I Corinthians 5:7 states: "Christ our Passover." We need to look briefly at this connection before our study of the fruit of the Spirit.

To partake of the Passover refocused Israel on their true Deliverer. It is Christ Who has delivered us from our bondage. Just as Israel was commanded to celebrate the Passover Feast year after year so that they would never forget this, we, too, need to always remember that it is the cross of Jesus that delivers us from our bondage and from death, giving us eternal life.
The more we start to walk in the fruit of the Spirit and possess our promises, the more we need to be reminded that this is not the result of our own righteousness or our own ability. It is a free gift we should always be thankful for, even through eternity. This is why the Lord is called "the Lamb" throughout eternity as we see in the book of Revelation. Eternity will not be long enough for us to thank Him for His great salvation!

Birth is Not the End Goal, But the Beginning

It was on the very night that Israel partook of the first Passover that would be their last night in Egypt and bondage. Their whole lives changed so radically that they would never again see all that they had been familiar with their whole lives. They would, from that day on, journey to lands in a new realm they had never seen before. This is how radically our lives should change when we come to Christ. As we are told in II Corinthians 5:17: "Therefore if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creature; the old things passed away; behold, new things have come." This represents the new birth that we have when we partake of Christ as our Passover.

However, a birth is not the end goal, but the beginning. Israel was born again on that night, but it took many years for them to become mature enough to be able to take their land. One whole generation that could not get Egypt and bondage out of their hearts had to pass away, and another grow to maturity before they could enter into their full purpose. The Lord wanted the first generation to enter, but they disqualified themselves by their lack of faith. We, too, will need to have faith in God to possess our Promised Land.

"Clean Out the Old Leaven, and Beware of the Leaven of the Pharisees & Sadducees"

A part of the Passover Feast that Israel was also commanded to celebrate is called: "The Feast of Unleavened Bread." In Scripture, leaven represented two seemingly opposite evils. One is sin and wickedness, which we see in I Corinthians 5:6-8:

"Do you not know that a little leaven leavens the whole lump of dough?

"Clean out the old leaven, that you may be a new lump, just as you are in fact unleavened. For Christ our Passover also has been sacrificed.

"Let us therefore celebrate the feast, not with old leaven, nor with the leaven of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth."

In Matthew 16:6 Jesus warned His disciples to "beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees." This represented the legalism of those movements. We see that leaven represents both the lawlessness of sin and wickedness and the self-righteousness of legalism. These are the two ditches that are on either side of the path of life. Both of them are referred to as leaven even though they seem to be the opposite problem. This is because they each work into a person's life like leaven. When you place just a tiny bit of leaven into a lump of dough, it quickly begins to spread until it has penetrated the entire lump. Such is the nature of both lawlessness and legalism.

The tragedy is, when many fall into one of these ditches, they may get out, but then they often so overreact to the ditch that they go to the opposite extreme and fall into the ditch on the other side. Reactionary people will spend much of their lives going from one extreme to the other. Because of them some of the worst doctrine, theologies, and even heresies have spread through parts of the body of Christ. If we are going to be free of these, we must refuse to let mistakes, failures, or wounds be the source of our beliefs and the way we live. We must resolve to believe the Word of God and only the clear teaching of Scripture.

Israel celebrated the Feast of Unleavened Bread as a reminder of how they left Egypt in such haste that their bread did not have time to become leavened (see Exodus 12:33-39, and Deuteronomy 16:3). That, too, is how we keep such leaven from our lives -- we must leave Egypt in haste. Even though we are leaving for the purpose of inheriting a Promised Land, we do need to get out of bondage fast, fleeing the evil ways of this world. Egypt represents the ways of this world that keep people in bondage. People who come to the Lord, but are slow to make the complete departure from their old ways, will inevitably end up back in bondage.

"Being Led to the Promised Land"

In recent years, studies have been made that indicate that there is no longer a distinguishable difference between the character of Christians and non-Christians when it comes to basic issues such as morality, cheating, lying, and stealing. This reveals that the leaven of the world has gotten back into the bread of the church and spread. This condition will not last long, but will soon change because the church is about to endure a new circumcision and then celebrate the Passover and Feast of Unleavened Bread again. The cross and the crucified life will soon become restored to the church. We will not be able to go on to possess our promises until this is accomplished. We will go no further in our present condition.

Again, to keep the leaven out of our bread, we must keep moving forward, growing, and going on to maturity. However, we are not to be moving in reaction to past mistakes or problems, but rather in the pursuit of God and the fulfillment of His purposes. The children of Israel were leaving bondage, but God did not come with a promise of just getting them out of their troubles, but rather of leading them to the Promised Land. We must always keep this in mind. We do not live in reaction to the ways of the world, but in obedience to God. There is a difference. One will lead to the religious spirit that is rooted in the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil, and the other will be eating of the Tree of Life.

When someone starts to slow down and camp too long in one place, either sin and wickedness, or legalism, will tend to creep into their lives. This is why movements are so important to the body of Christ. Each one is intended to keep us moving forward toward our purpose, growing closer to the Lord and becoming like Him. If we are not moving forward, growing more Christlike by growing in the fruits of the Spirit in our lives, and growing in power and authority, we will regress. To not be moving forward is to become lukewarm at best, which is the most dangerous condition any Christian could ever fall into.

"Fruitfulness is the Result of What Christ Did on the Cross"

So, here we see that immediately after the circumcision, Israel celebrated the Passover and Feast of Unleavened Bread, and then immediately began to eat the fruit of the land. The principle is that our fruitfulness is the result of what Christ did on the cross, which we must always keep in mind. The way we keep the leaven out of our bread is to leave Egypt in haste, and keep moving, growing, and going on to maturity. When Christians begin to do these two things again, we will begin to immediately see the fruit. We will also begin the conquest that we have been waiting so long for.

Newly 'Filled' Christian Girl Sees Profound Vision Of The World
by Tina Robertson
http://www.goodnews.netministries.org/
kathiewalters@mindspring.com

This young lady has only been filled with the Spirit a few weeks. This is to encourage you. See, you don't have to be "mature" to experience God! You don't have to "qualify" to enter into the supernatural realm -- it's your inheritance -- your divine right!

Here, in the words of Tina . . . is her story.
Via Kathie Walters

Kathie, in case you don't remember, I am the girl who you prayed over about the Freemasonry spirit at the very end of the meeting. Hugs! Tina

THE PRESENCE OF GOD CAME DOWN

On the last night, when we were leaving the most amazing thing happened to me!!! I just felt God's presence come upon me, and I began to lift up my hands and praise Him! Suddenly, I began to laugh . . . I MEAN LAUGH!!! I couldn't stop. Vivian was with me and she began to laugh (Vivian is VERY SOFT SPOKEN!). She was laughing so hard, she could hardly breathe . . . it was so funny! I was crying with laughter! We would get our composure back and start laughing again!! LOL!!
Nothing we could do could stop it! It was WONDERFUL!! I now know what the Scripture means when it says, "Be not drunk with wine, but be filled with the Holy Spirit!" My stomach is still sore from all that laughing! We finally made it back to the hotel, and we just sat out in the parking lot and worshiped God some more.

THE CALL OF GOD TO THE NATIONS

We both just laid our seats back, listened to Celtic worship music (Fireland CD), and lifted our hands to the Lord. I was praying in tongues, and something that has never happened to me before happened . . . I started interpreting what I was praying! I was saying, "The world shall see."
I didn't know what the words were to the music I was listening to -- it was a new CD from Ireland (Fireland) -- but I started listening, and the different countries were being called out: Ireland, Scotland, Wales, England, Canada; all over the United States, Australia, Africa, South America, China, India, Muslim nations; bring real light to deception, Russia, Europe; visitations for Rome, Jerusalem, the Armies of the Lord . . . (Fireland)

I could see the earth spinning and an angel on the East and West, touching it, to make it spin . . . It was a beautiful sight. I couldn't believe what was going on within my Spirit . . . It was praying . . . For the nations . . . Revival!

I started praying some more, so excited that I was able to interpret; I wanted to be able to do it some more . . .

INTERPRETATIONS

I was able to interpret more of my tongues. I was saying, "You are so Beautiful." (As I type this I am shaking . . . it was so precious . . .)
Suddenly, His presence was hovering above me . . . I reached out to touch Him, and I touched the outer part of Him and longed to bring Him closer to me, but felt so unworthy. I felt His love and, with tenderness, He moved closer to me and went within my heart. He dove into me. (My body shakes all over as I type this.)
I felt so much love . . . I, intensely, cried as never before as His presence was above me . . . I never felt such warmth and love . . .

After this, I was ready to go in; I was so overwhelmed, but I heard Jesus say, "Stay with me."
When Jesus sweetly asks you something . . . you can't say no . . .

HE SHOWED ME THE CROSS

Next, He showed me the cross . . . I kept saying within my Spirit, I don't want to see it. He was so precious and only showed it to me in black and white, with slight colors. He wanted to show me that I was worthy now (He made me His daughter) because of what He did for me.

He is our strong Tower.

He closed the door and I felt so safe with Him.

I saw myself at the bottom of the cross worshiping Him. We are so safe with Him.

Next, things came into color and the cross was at the top of the world! And we began to hold hands, Jesus and I, and dance around the cross; and our circle got bigger and bigger -- the whole body of Christ joined in, and we were all holding hands in a circle around the cross.
We danced in a circle around the whole earth, going further and further down as the circle got bigger. I could see the Nations . . . and I saw North America, and I said, "Jesus, I want to go there!"
And so, Jesus and I went to North America and I said, "I want to go to North Carolina" (I've been praying for revival in our area).
So, Jesus and I went and danced all over North Carolina. And Jesus said, "I want to go further," and started heading to the West Coast.
I said, "Jesus, I can't keep up; my legs are getting tired."

He told me to let Him run for me (no more striving, like Kathie said!!); then we went some more.

GOLDEN ARMOR

Next, I saw a box of gifts in front of me. I couldn't see what they were, but I was like a little kid and started grabbing all that I could grab and placing it inside my chest

I started feeling pieces of our warfare armor coming out. I put it all on, one by one. But I missed one and He called me back over to it, and He took His hands to give me a gift.

I thought this one must be precious for my Daddy to want to give this one to me from His hands. I remember thinking, "I am going to really need this one," and I looked, and it was the Sword -- the Sword of the Spirit. It was gold with a long, red laser-type beam at the end.

He placed it in my hands; it was so beautiful!

Kathie had been talking about people going up in chariots . . . I kept telling Jesus that I wanted to go up in one.

THE CHARIOT RIDE

So, my Daddy took me up in a chariot. I remember how excited I was -- like a little kid getting to ride a carousel. He took me up above the clouds, and I could see a waterfall and saints below me. I really can't remember everything I have seen.

I just kept thinking, "I want to see you Jesus!" Through all of this, I never really saw Him; I just knew it was His presence there . . .

He took me to another place, and He placed me in a sled. I am not sure why the change?

I SAW THE ARMY

Anyhow, He took me to another place and, before I got there, I could hear marching. The closer we got, the louder the marching got. I looked down to behold an Army for the Lord; they were all wearing the Armor of the Lord.
I didn't realize it until that moment, that our armor was pure gold! WOW! Jesus told me it was my time to get in the battle. I was now ready. At first I didn't want to go, because I didn't want to leave . . .

He assured me that He would be with me. He let me know that He is with us each step -- each one of us.

It's so real!

This was so real - this was not in my imagination. It was too real! I was also amazed at the time . . . It was really almost 9 pm, and I "knew" it had to be 11 pm. In eternity, there is no time though . . .

Take from it what you think, but as for me, it is time for us to go fight for the Lord in our cities, states, country, nations . . . But, we must be truly equipped with His armor.

As I typed this, I put in the Fireland CD that was playing and was amazed at how a lot of it was the same rhythm as my experiences.

Jesus longs to be with us and have communion with us.

II Corinthians 13:14
"The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Ghost, be with you all." KJV

Pray Without Ceasing

2 Chronicles 7:14 - If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.

1 Timothy 2:8 - I will therefore that men pray every where, lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting.

Pray without ceasing. Pray that those who are in your care and sphere of influence would benefit in this day, for I am about to move in an unprecedented way to bring about salvation and healing in the lives of those you love and pray for. I am not a man that I should lie. I am faithful to My promises, and I promise that you will be blessed and be a blessing to those for whom you care.

Rest in Me, My love. Rest your weary head upon My shoulder. I am addressing issues that need to be addressed. I will see to it that you are credited with what belongs to you. You know that the enemy would have you believe that your prayers are fruitless, but I tell you, I hear every one of them and I will act on your behalf.

Rest in Me and be assured that My hand of protection is upon you. There are those who would want to discredit you, but I am accrediting you. I am bringing you into the fullness of what I am releasing. It is the anointing to be a light in a place of darkness, to shine forth the radiance of Christ to a hurting world.

Watch as I increase within you. You will recognize My authority in your daily affairs, for I have given you authority over the trials and challenges. I have given you the gift of faith that moves mountains. So continue to pray. Pray wholeheartedly, believing that in so doing, you are taking ground from the enemy and commanding a blessing upon those for whom you pray.

Link up with those I am joining you with. Yes, come together and call down the high places and raise up the low. Declare My lordship in the Earth and acknowledge that I am in control, that there is nothing that I am not involved with, that I hear and act when My people pray. Pray for your loved ones, for their help, their healing, their salvation. Put them on your prayer list and pray through regarding them.

This is the day of fulfillment of promises made, of miracles on your behalf. What I have said, I will do. What I have promised, I shall come through on. I will destroy the power of the enemy and break the chains that have kept your loved ones bound.

Peace and pardon are coming to your house, so be ready to experience abundant joy. I am coming to you this night and I shall make up for lost time. I shall dispel doubt and prove to you that I have, indeed, favored you. So bring your requests before Me, find rest in Me, and trust Me to deal with the enemy on your behalf.

I Shall Establish My Government In The Earth

Injustice, campaign against injustice. Raise up the standard. Raise up the age old foundations. Address issues and do not shun them. Address issues of ill in society. Address the issue of pornography, of incest, of idolatry, of "playboy" and "playgirl." Address the issue of blatant sin in society. Do not skirt the issue. I have given you voice. Raise up a banner, a declaration to war against the ills in society.

Fuel, I am giving you fuel that will propel the mandate forward to raise up the standard of righteousness in the land. I am giving you the platform. I am giving you My voice. Voice forth My will. Do not hold back.

You will see the turning of the tide. You will see the issues rise to the surface, for I am exposing them, putting them into full view and they will not go overlooked, but they shall stand out and be made known publicly. I shall put these things on display, yet not so man can indulge freely, but so that he may be made ashamed. It is coming, the wave is coming and it shall wash away the filth and purge the land of harlotry.

This is the time for action. I will lead a campaign through the land, and those of My choosing shall get on board. I shall establish My government in the land, not the peoples, but Mine, says the Lord. I shall shake society’s hold in false securities and bring such a shaking that men will call out to Me.

This is what I am doing. I am erecting My standard of holiness in the midst of society. All will adhere to it, for I shall come with a sweep through the Earth to bring all onto bended knee. I am rising up to declare war on injustice and it shall manifest in the Earth. Prison doors shall open to those wrongly accused. But to those who refuse to acknowledge My lordship, there shall be great calamity, for I am set to outdo them in their craftiness.

Gain understanding in this day. See that the time is right for the shaking to begin that will wash away impurity, for I shall cleanse and heal and give liberty to those pressed down. Roar forth My ordinances and do not let up until all is put under My feet. Speak forth My word of truth from the platform of righteousness.

Elections are coming up, but a tidal wave of My Spirit shall interrupt their flow. I shall make My name known on the political scene as the one and only name of choice. Say good-bye to your political forum. Kiss good-bye to means and methods of political behavior known, for I come to upset the man-made systems of government in order to erect My counsel and judgment. Once again I shall raise up the priesthood in the land, and establish kings and judges according to My divine order. Once again you will see that the Word of the Lord is read throughout the land and its ordinances kept. How will this take place, you ask, and what will it look like? I have earmarked My governors and given them jurisdiction to reign and rule in the Heavenlies, yet their jurisdiction shall be made known in the Earth, for I shall establish My government in your midst.

I am the King of Kings and Lord of Lords and I shall rule in righteousness through the kingdom that I am establishing in the Earth. Governors shall take their rightful place. Judges shall be established in the land who shall judge according to My precepts. You have seen the rise and fall of many, but you are yet to see the greatest event in all of history take place, the resurrection of the dead and the establishment of the government of God in the Earth. It is time for these things to come into place.

Provision And Great Blessing

Provision And Great Blessing Shall Be Channeled Through The Family
Prophecyfortoday@sgci.com
February 24, 2005

Eye has not seen and ear has not heard of the wonderful things I am about to do, of how I shall restore back to your loved ones gladness of heart, great joy, joy rooted and grounded in contentment, for I shall bring your children into rivers of living water that shall wash away all the debris, all the darkness, all the hopelessness, and I shall give them hope of a future and remind them of My great love for them at every turn. They will see and they will know that I have ordained family and they shall be blessed to dwell within the context of family, for I shall release riches untold to them via the family.

The world said it could not be done, that the family could not provide, but I say that the family shall provide, that provision and great blessing shall be channeled through the family. I come to set a household in order, to reconcile man to wife and children to parents, to turn the heart of the father to his children, and I shall do this. I shall turn the hearts of the fathers back to their own households, to love and cherish and provide for them. I shall strip a father of his wanderings and lead him back home.

FAMILY BUSINESS

This is the answer. I have ordained that the family work side by side. Family business is of My design. Each child has his contribution. Watch and you will see movement in this direction as I speak to the hearts of family members. What I ordained, men fought to destroy, but I am pulling down the high places, statues erected to men, and I am laying low the buildings of men and erecting My building. It is a household ministry.

Do not be deceived, that which is not of Me will come to an end because I am raising the standard, erecting My government in the Earth, and the family is ordained to govern diligently. I will put power back into the hands of family. I shall raise up a voice declaring that the family is God-ordained and central to all of society. Even into My church, shall I bring a witness of what I am doing to put family back into the place of authority that it belongs in.

And yes, there are many aspects that are needed to come into alignment with My will and purpose to promote family. Every act of injustice toward the family will be dealt with, for I shall put the house in order and I shall raise up a banner of love over the family. So be encouraged and understand that I am uniting hearts on this, that I am bringing unity and harmony into the household, that I am moving and working in society to uproot man-made kingdoms and to bring the family into proper position, in the marketplace, and in relation to every aspect of industry and society.

Yes, I am upsetting the apple-carts of those who have been opposed to Me. I am pulling the rug out from under their feet and they shall find themselves out of position, out of place, unless they repent, turn to God, and let Me place them into family.

You will see the rise of the family in the near future and the abandonment of a system of institutions that have warred against the family. You will see the upsetting of man-made systems of lawlessness, for I shall make a shout and declaration that I am bringing the family into prominence and that nothing will be able to thwart My purposes in the Earth to restore all things back to their God-ordained place.

Justice and liberty shall flow. Arrears will be paid back in assessments. What has been stolen from the family will be delivered back. What has been trampled upon will be raised up, brushed off, and put on the pathway to recovery, for I surely shall recover everything that has been lost.

So watch the shaking of nations to see that I am shaking loose platforms erected by men, religious strongholds in the hearts of erring men, that I am shifting foundations. No longer will men build upon faulty foundations, but they shall recover the foundation that had been trampled and begin to build upon it. And those who build upon it will be building their house upon the Rock and their house shall stand through the storms. The foundation is Christ who ordained family and that the household function in proper order.

Wolves in sheep's clothing have been at work over the centuries to scatter the sheep, to rip up the foundation of Christ laid in the Earth. They refused to believe that a man who troubles his own house inherits the wind. But I will bring a revelation to this generation that will shake apart the systems of men, rendering them futile. And I will raise up the family and the household to be a light shining forth the radiance of Christ, a city high upon a hill whose light will not be hid.

Get ready for the blast, for I am exploding apart the systems of men.

Prophetic Word Over France

David Wagner

Nov 8, 2005

I hear the Spirit of the Lord saying:

"I am releasing a purifying fire over the nation of France. I shall prove who I am to a people who have turned their backs on me. Turn back to me at once and see me do a new thing within your borders. Even in these days of unrest I shall prove myself to the French people and I shall show forth many great signs and wonders in the midst of the people who have denied me."

"The violence in the streets you have been witnessing is only the beginning of assaults that shall come against this land but I will prove myself faithful. I will do a new thing among the French people and their hearts shall be turned by the signs and wonders that I will perform in their midst".

"Paris has been given over to the enemy for many centuries. The French have entertained false gods and have given themselves over to idolatry. However, like a husband who pursues his wife although she is a harlot, I am reclaiming the adulterous nation for my own again in this season. If my people will arise and take their places of prayer, I will bring forth an outpouring of my Spirit like never before in France and it shall spread into other nations from there."

"France has been known for its wine and its food but it shall become also known for the bread of life, and the new wine of my Spirit that I am releasing to my people there."

"The youth and children are the key instruments of change that I will use in the nation of France. I am sending a mass invasion of missionaries that will focus on this generation says the Lord. I am raising up a mighty army of young end time warriors that shall even turn the hardest of hearts including the radical Islamic extremists says the Lord."

"Church this is your season to arise in Western Europe. Do not sit idle any longer, but work the harvest fields while it is yet day. The harvest is plentiful but the laborers are few. Will you go for me? Will you take your place in this pivotal region of the earth? These are days of grace but great judgment is coming. Prepare and position yourselves and see what I can and will do on your behalf says the Lord of Hosts."

As I was typing this word I saw a bull's eye painted on some major leaders in Europe. The enemy was targeting some leaders for assassination and God was targeting others as deliverers. Believers must pray for this area of the world like never before it is a very crucial time in history. Revival will come and change will come if the church will pray and respond to the voice of the Lord in these trouble filled days.

Prophetic Words That Seem To Contradict

Cyndee Pillow

Many of the Prophetic Words we have been receiving have caused some of us to wonder why they seem to contradict each other. Some words seem to speak of blessings. Others speak of much destruction. What are we to believe?

Maybe these prophetic words that sound so contrary are not as different as they seem? We must remember that All things work together for the good to them that love the Lord and are called according to His purpose. So, whether the earth is shaken beneath us, it is ALL good for the Child of God. He is ever working for our benefit and for His Glorious will to be manifest in the earth.

With that in mind we must remember these are days of great change. God's people are not appointed to wrath, so we can stand strong, blessed and secure IN Christ, even if 1,000 fall on one side, or 10,000 the other side, when change occurs. If we keep this in mind, we will not be easily moved.

There is renovation going on. In renovation, things look terrible in the house. "What a mess," we think, when we view a wall torn down, or a floor pulled up. Suddenly, the stuff piled up that use to be is in shambles and in a pile of rubble. When a skilled hand brings about renovation and restoration, what was in a moment of time, is not any longer. What has become formed is then awesome to behold.

We are in transition on the earth between one place and the other. In transition, there are a lot of things beginning and a lot of things ending at the very same time. It is always messy in transition, as it always requires a tearing down of things not profitable and then a clean-up process. Now, we stand on the verge of a day of transformation for all the earth as wickedness is swiftly coming to an end as these things take place.

It is time to watch the Master Builder bring understanding to all the diverse inspired words coming forth. I think we will be blessed as well as surprised at the end results, when we see how it comes together. The word says, man has not even imagined in his mind what the Lord has prepared for those that Love Him. Let us trust in His Finished work. I think the saying many use to day will fit here. And that saying is,
"It is all good".

Love in Jesus,

Queen of Hearts

Kathleen Pirl

Sovereign she reigns;
Shabbat shalom the bride is coming home.
Off with their heads!
They must operate instead
With hearts of power and love!

She has the heart of a lioness;
The disposition of the dove
Rests on her from above.

With a sword afire,
She comes in white attire,
To rest on the bed
With the Nation’s Desire.

She lays her head down
On his breast;
With kisses of wine
They sing the divine.

She enters his tent,
Shuts the door,
If you didn’t repent
Then there is no more!

Quicken
Mary Clark

quicken – 1) to become enlivened; revive
2) to begin to show signs of life. To become more rapid; speed up

I am doing a mighty work in you, My beloved. I am doing a work that will quicken your senses. I am doing a work that will enable you to soar in the heavens with your Beloved. How am I doing this? I am doing it by the power of My Spirit, Who dwells within you. I am doing it by the mighty power that enables one to see the goodness of the living God and experience His glorious presence. That, beloved, is how I am doing this. That is how I am enlivening you, enabling you to come into a new realm – a new dimension of My power, causing you to soar – causing you to react in the way that is fitting for the growth of My kingdom.

Yes, I am doing a work inside you by the power of My indwelling Spirit. You don't always realize this. You go about your day as usual, doing your tasks, humming or singing songs of praise to Me, speaking to others about mundane things, and at times speaking about things pertaining to Me. Yes, you don't realize this ongoing work, but I do. I realize it, because the change that it is making inside you is forever before Me. I do like what I see. I am excited about what I see. You could say that I am VERY excited about what I see.

So know this day that My Spirit is working within you, bringing about change to your willing heart. My Spirit is doing an undercover work within My vessels of honor. I am enjoying this work and I love the progress that it affords My kingdom. I want you to know that you are truly My own. I hold you dear. You are very precious to Me. Don't doubt My work. Don't ever doubt this ongoing work. Rejoice in it every day with the singing of praises that I do so like to hear. Rejoice, knowing that whether you are realizing it or not, your Beloved is at work in you, bringing about His most perfect will.

I promised you that I would do a work in you that would bring Me pleasure – much pleasure, and I am doing it with an exactness you don't realize. I am doing it in your waking hours and while you are sleeping. It is phenomenal. It is a work that cannot be understood by man, but know this: It is a work that can be enjoyed by man. It is a work that can bring much benefit to a heart willing to comply with My will. It is a work that you will see take on a shape that will surprise you in the days to come. It is a work of which NOTHING, and I mean NOTHING, can compare.

So rejoice, beloved! Rejoice in this eternal work – this work that has no boundaries – this work that will enable you to soar with your Beloved. Rejoice NOW, knowing that I am presently at work within you – presently at work -- bringing about My desired results, and know this, dear one – know this when the enemy tells you that you are not going to make it to that place of wonder in Me – KNOW THIS: I never fail and My failure will NOT begin with you. No! There is nowhere in the history of man when the Beloved failed, and there will be no time in the future that will see My failure. For you see, beloved, you serve One Who has all under control. You serve One Who looks at the world with a kind, benevolent heart, yearning to draw mankind close into His embrace. You serve One Who accomplished all that you might enjoy much. You serve the living, eternal One, and I have never failed. I go on with My work with great precision, and I will complete it with the same precision the same wonderful expertise that mankind cannot understand.

So remember that I look on one who is surrendered to Me as complete and whole in Me, because I see the BIG picture. I see the BIG picture, and I know Myself. I know what I am capable of, and I know what the future holds. So rest in that wonderful truth, and know as time goes by that the work goes forth as planned. And beloved it will accomplish all that I yearn for it to accomplish. It will bring you into a place of wonder in Me. You will know with heart certainty that the Beloved has seen His way clear to quicken you in a phenomenal way – a most unusual and exacting way, and you will say, "He has made me alive to His truth. He has cleansed my heart and set me free to soar, and I will forever sing His praises for the life that I have found in walking with Him. I will forever sing His praises for all that He has done for Me and through Me. For He spoke His intent and He accomplished it with precision. He accomplished it with an expertise not known to man, but man has benefited. Oh, yes! Man has benefited, for the Beloved has made something that was dead and useless alive – alive to Him—alive to the fact that He is present, and alive to the fact that He is working mightily on our behalf to bring us into that place of completeness that can only come by the working of His Spirit – the holy One who quickens us within, making us to lie down beside the still waters and be restored – restored and made ALIVE to produce His will in our lives as we speak forth His truth of love to all with whom we come in contact."

There you have it, beloved. I am quickening you. I am making you more alive than you ever dreamed possible, and with this work is coming a heart peace that will open avenues of wonder for you to enjoy – avenues of wonder for you to walk in – to walk right out of this life and into eternity with Me. That is what this quickening is all about, beloved. Consider it your ticket to heaven – the ticket that I purchased free and clear. The ticket that I am about to put in your precious hand!!!

Tender Hearts

Mary Clark

Tender hearts of compassion displayed throughout your day delight Me. It delights Me when I see a hand offered – a kind word spoken. It delights Me. Speak My truth – only My truth. Extend your hands in loving compassion to others. Offer Me. Offer Me. Speak of Me. Direct others to Me. I will be there. I will be there with My arms open wide to receive. Just speak. Act in a compassionate way.

See My truth as it is. See My truth as it is – as it works, developing wonder in the lives of others. Speak it. Speak it. Speak it. Act it out. Show it forth. Show it forth that others may see Me in you. That others may know that My heart is in you. That others may react in a positive way and come into a meaningful relationship with Me. In order that they too may show compassion to others. It is a chain reaction – a lovely, lovely chain reaction. Start it in your vicinity. Bring it forth in your life. See it work. See it produce a bumper crop* – a bumper crop. See My words produce a bumper crop.

Returning To First Love
Ron McGatlin

The breaking of a people gone astray after their own way.

> Rev 2:4 "Nevertheless I have this against you, that you have left your first love.
> John 15:1-2: "I am the true vine, and My Father is the vine dresser. "Every branch in Me that does not bear fruit He takes away; and every branch that bears fruit He prunes, that it may bear more fruit.

The redemption of a rebellious kingdom involves purging and pruning of all that offends the holiness of God. In the first century the church knew and lived in its "first love". The passion of Jesus was fresh and vital in their hearts. The cross was real and never far from their minds. The blessed fellowship of oneness in the heart of Christ by the Holy Spirit filled their lives and established their every motive and desire.

They had no church building, no man to stand as vicar between them and Christ, no professional ministers to tell them what to do, no religious system and hierarchy of control, no one to do the religious things for them while they watched, nothing was between them and the pure intimate love relationship in the heart of God. Their lives were permeated with the love of God and their love for God. The life of the resurrected Christ was with them and in them. The love and power of Jesus flowed through them. The church was a young but living vital presentation of the very life and love of Jesus. The miraculous works of the Father flowed through their lives and everyone around them was touched by the young church in love with God.

Their own pleasure, wealth, and even needs were only a distant second to the great value of intimately knowing Christ. Their lives consisted in the heart of Christ. Obedience to the Father was of greater importance than even their own lives. They were willing volunteers of sacrifice to the love that was first in every way in their lives. Love for God was number one in their lives. God's love is a consuming fire consuming all that it fills.

Probably there has always been in every age since then a remnant of people whose first love was Jesus. But not since the first century church has there been a greater consensus of believers consumed in the love of God. Later a powerless form of godliness replaced the reality of living in the heart of God. Because of this the "church" strayed centuries ago into the pagan ways of the world and has never recovered. Religious forms have so overtaken the reality of God living in His people that a powerless "Christianity" has evolved. Without the power of God flowing through an intimate relationship with God the people of the "church" lost their ability to resist sin. Much of the "church" became riddled with sin and yet has little or no ability to change the world.

> 2 Tim 3:5 having a form of godliness but denying its power.

The call is coming powerfully through the voice of the Father to return to the FIRST LOVE of the first century church. Jesus is longing to embrace His holy purified Bride and to move with her to bring the kingdoms of the world to the Father. The empty forms of godliness will be abandoned as a weeping people come to the heart of Jesus and fully embrace Him. We must become a broken hearted people void of stubborn stiff necked pagan religious ways. Our hearts must be broken as is His. He again looks over His people and weeps desiring to gather them under His wings of His love and healing.

The return to "first love" will not be easy for a people steeped in powerless paganized "Christian" religion. Painful purging and pruning will purify and make holy the "called out" people who will draw near to Jesus and seek God with their WHOLE hearts. Many who love their lives will fall away when the purging and pruning comes upon them. But there will be those who will overcome by the blood of the Lamb, the word of their testimony, and who do not love their lives to the death.

> Rev 12:11 "And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, and they did not love their lives to the death.
> Mark 8:35 "For whoever desires to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake and the gospel's will save it.
> 1 Cor 5:7 Therefore purge out the old leaven, that you may be a new lump,

The only way back to becoming one with Jesus is by our hearts being melted together with His until the are as one - soaking in His love and moving closer to Him in a personal intimate way - purging ourselves of fleshly and soulish desires and being willing for the "vine dresser" to prune all of our paganized "Christian" religious ways. Our greatest joy will come in returning to the simple ways of "first love" with Jesus. All the hype and all the stuff will fall off if we truly fall in love with Jesus all over again. We must abide in Him in a greater way than probably any of us have truly known. Only then will we truly see the glorious church Jesus is building of living stones.

Turbulent times are before us. Cleansing has begun in the house of God and in the world.

Father, we give our hearts and lives fully to you. Help us to know how to purge ourselves of all that offends your holiness. Prune us, Father, of all that is not fruitful in your kingdom. Create within us a clean heart as we draw near to you. Blend us into Jesus and fill us with His heart and life. Make us one together with You and Jesus. Open the heavens that we may know you and live in Your presence and love.

Forgive us, Father, by the blood of Jesus, for our twisted religious ways, that the word of our testimony may be holy and pure. Father, we lay down our lives and do not love our own lives even to the death. Come Holy Spirit take us and make us according to the Father's plan and not our own. Father, let Your kingdom come and Your will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Amen

Respond To My Call

Yolanda Ballard

This is the final hour, and I AM calling My bride to come up higher to escape the snares of the evil one. Once you know that I am calling you, you need to respond by drawing near. Don't allow the evil one to distract you by saying that you need your rest or that you don't have time.

For I AM your meat and drink, and I AM your refreshment, and all I want to do is to encourage you and strengthen you. For you have gone through the onslaughts, and many are weary from the fight just to stay above water, but I want you to just let go and flow in Me.

Let go of the props and the formality, and just worship Me and bask in My presence. Don't pay attention to who is around you whether they are worshipping Me or not. Just allow My Spirit to take you deeper in Me, and many will follow your lead. For I have called you a worship leader just by your example of worshipping Me in spirit and in truth.

Yes, this is the final hour, and I AM calling My bride to come up higher, and to tear down the strongholds of the enemy, especially of pride, disobedience and complacency. For these are snares many have fallen into because of their carelessness in not watching and praying and seeking My face.

Don't think that you have it all together and that you don't need to draw near to Me, for outside of the Vine there is no life and no health, and surely there is no prosperity. If you have been struggling in all areas of your life, examine your heart whether you have become independent or not. Do you still need Me, or are you just going through the motions, and trying to say all the right things, but in your heart you have drawn away. Return unto Me, and I will strengthen you and restore you, and fill you to overflowing, and the overflow will touch others.

Yes, return and I will bless you with My presence. Cast all your care upon Me for I surely care for you and love you and long to have you come before Me. I want you to trade places with Me for I want to live My life through you using your hands to heal and your feet to carry you through the mission field, whether in your own neighborhood or abroad. Yes, I want to use you in a mighty way so others can see My face in yours and hear My voice speaking forth the oracles of My Father, loosing and setting free the captives with the truth of My word.

So be ready for a mighty move of My Spirit and through you, My bride, but you must return unto Me. Yes, this is the final hour, and I AM drawing you near, but I hear you saying what must I do to be saved. And I tell you this day just to trust Me and rely on My word and be open, willing, and available, and I will do the rest.

By My grace I have called you, and by My grace I will enable you, and by My grace alone you will grow strong and mature and excel in the giftings I have placed within you. Be willing and I will give you the Kingdom and My glory forever and ever. Yes and Amen.

Ready For Battle!

www.vision2advance.com

Are you prepared to face the enemy at the mouth of your cave? The enemy at the mouth of the cave can be fear, a habit, anything to keep you from advancing. The enemy will throw many things at us to keep us from fighting the good fight of faith for the glory of God. Before we engage in battle we must know that we are called to be warriors that fight not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the powers of this dark world and against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms. We also must understand that we are either battling to advance or losing ground. We may be called to stand in preparation to go forward strategically as the Father directs us, but there are battles in just standing or waiting to advance.

Let's take a look at one of the Lord's early adopters to warfare.

1Samuel 17:31-51a

31Then David's question was reported to King Saul, and the king sent for him.

David Kills Goliath
32"Don't worry about a thing," David told Saul. "I'll go fight this Philistine!"

33"Don't be ridiculous!" Saul replied. "There is no way you can go against this Philistine. You are only a boy, and he has been in the army since he was a boy!"

34But David persisted. "I have been taking care of my father's sheep," he said. "When a lion or a bear comes to steal a lamb from the flock, 35I go after it with a club and take the lamb from its mouth. If the animal turns on me, I catch it by the jaw and club it to death. 36I have done this to both lions and bears, and I'll do it to this pagan Philistine, too, for he has defied the armies of the living God! 37The LORD who saved me from the claws of the lion and the bear will save me from this Philistine!"

Saul finally consented. "All right, go ahead," he said. "And may the LORD be with you!"

38Then Saul gave David his own armor--a bronze helmet and a coat of mail. 39David put it on, strapped the sword over it, and took a step or two to see what it was like, for he had never worn such things before. "I can't go in these," he protested. "I'm not used to them." So he took them off again. 40He picked up five smooth stones from a stream and put them in his shepherd's bag. Then, armed only with his shepherd's staff and sling, he started across to fight Goliath.

45David shouted in reply, "You come to me with sword, spear, and javelin, but I come to you in the name of the LORD Almighty--the God of the armies of Israel, whom you have defied. 46Today the LORD will conquer you, and I will kill you and cut off your head. And then I will give the dead bodies of your men to the birds and wild animals, and the whole world will know that there is a God in Israel! 47And everyone will know that the LORD does not need weapons to rescue his people. It is his battle, not ours. The LORD will give you to us!"

48As Goliath moved closer to attack, David quickly ran out to meet him. 49Reaching into his shepherd's bag and taking out a stone, he hurled it from his sling and hit the Philistine in the forehead. The stone sank in, and Goliath stumbled and fell face downward to the ground. 50So David triumphed over the Philistine giant with only a stone and sling. And since he had no sword, 51he ran over and pulled Goliath's sword from its sheath. David used it to kill the giant and cut off his head.

David faced a giant and so must we as there are giants in the land. Some of the names of those giants are Fear, Past Hurts, Religion, Bitterness, Hopelessness and Despair. They wait at the door that opens up to a land called Freedom and we must go through them to get there. They do not want us to move beyond our fears, beyond our habits, beyond our religion, beyond our hurts, or beyond our unbelief. In Christ, those giants cannot prevail against us. There is one condition though and that is to stand up in the authority and assurance we have in Christ Jesus and defeat anything that comes to defy the armies of the living God. It is in Christ that we engage and overcome the issues of this life. These issues come in many forms and life experiences, and we need divine inspiration and courage to move towards our God designed purposes.

What was it in David that gave him what it took to face a giant enemy? Here are a few things I gleaned from David's ability to move beyond the boundaries others would not dare.

1. He became righteously indignant to an enemy that was opposing His God and his people.

He would not stand for an enemy who blasphemed against his God. This enemy put his people in harms way and bound them in terror. This mobilized him towards action, knowing that it was God's battle and he was to be but an instrument of almighty God who is mighty in battle.

2. His faith in a God who was always with him and had allowed him to win other battles.

David had been able to defeat the lion and the bear to protect the flock as God partnered with him. The battle is always the Lords and it is a gift to partner with Him. We have all won battles because of the King of glory. He caused us to defeat the enemy called "Eternal Death", and we became sons and daughters of the living God. Many of us have won battles over addictions, self limiting beliefs, insecurities and so on. You may have not defeated a bear or a lion, but maybe you were able to defeat in Christ, alcoholism or pornography. In the same strength and Spirit that gave you previous victories, will you march to victory again.

3. David did not go into battle relying on another person's strategy or armor.

Sometimes we may rely on another persons faith or strategy because we have not spent enough time with the Lord to truly hear His voice and His commands. God wants us to hear from Him how to face a battle and yes He may direct us to others, but let us first counsel with Him as our Father. God does not like to use formulas, lotions or potions. He wants to be Commander in our lives and give us fresh revelation for our battles instead of seeking solely mans advice and wisdom. David faced many battles and he needed divine strategy for each one and they were always different. Joshua had divine battle plans as well. God most likely will not have you march around your opponent seven times and then shout and expect your enemy to come tumbling down. That happened one time in history for one specific event, for the victory. He may use a strategy more than once, but rely on His word and not on a formula that worked for someone else.

4. David Prepared.

He had a relationship with his almighty God. He knew the Lord God, Mighty in Battle, would fight for him. He also spent many days slinging stones. His preparation and faith guided that stone to hit the mark of victory. I heard the remark that he possibly carried 5 stones to prepare for Goliaths brothers or any others that may want to take on His God. God desires us to partner with Him in the physical and spiritual aspects of this life. Many times it seems that we are not delivered from evil and many times it is because we are engaging in battle without Him. Preparation takes time to develop and we are not spending time with the Lord in prayer and to know Him and His Word.

We must come out of the cave and into our freedom that Christ died for to give us. The Father grieves as He watches His children sink back into the retreat of their caves ever longing for them to respond to His love and His ways. His love which is perfect, casts away fear so that His way can be traveled. We must prepare by humbling ourselves to the point of knowing that it is no longer we that live, but He lives within us. It is in the dying to our self that we can truly be free to live for His purpose and glory. Let's face the enemy head on and watch our savior knock them over as we partner with His Spirit in battle…Amen!

Reasoning And Analysis

Priscilla Van Sutphin

Sept 26th, 2005

"I have a lot to say to those who will listen and not just spout their own opinions. I have a lot to say about all that is happening and I have spoken, yet people try to do and hear what they want to do. Where is the one who will cry out in repentance, who will acknowledge their lacks? Pride is a stench in the nostrils of humanity that I can no longer wink at.

When I allow judgment, it is because I am trying to straighten out people and get them to walk in righteousness instead of sin. It is not to pummel them into the ground and grind them to dust. It is to change their hearts that they might acknowledge ME and seek My face!

Lamentations [Eikhah] 3: 21-26 CJB

But in my mind I keep returning to something. Something that gives me hope - that the grace of Adonai is not exhausted, that his compassion has not ended. [On the contrary,] They are new every morning! How great your faithfulness! "Adonai is all I have," I say; "therefore I will put my hope in him". Adonai is good to those waiting for him, to those who are seeking him out. It is good to wait patiently for the saving help of Adonai.

Lamentations 3:31-33, 37-51 Complete Jewish Bible

For rejection by Adonai does not last forever. He may cause grief, but he will take pity, in keeping with the greatness of his grace. For he does not ARBITRARILY TORMENT OR PUNISH HUMAN BEINGS….

Who can say something and have it happen without Adonai's commanding it?

Don't both bad things and good proceed from the mouth of the Most High?

Why should anyone alive complain, even a strong man, about the punishment for his sins?

Let us examine and test our ways and return to Adonai ..

Let us lift up our hearts and our hands to GOD in heaven and say, "We for our part, have transgressed and rebelled; you , for your part, have not forgiven. You have covered us with anger, pursued and slaughtered us without pity. You have covered yourself with a cloud so thick that no prayer can pass through . You have reduced us to rubbish and filth among the peoples. All our adversaries open their mouths to jeer at us. Panic and pitfall have come upon us, desolation and destruction. My eyes stream with rivers of water over the destruction of the daughter of my people. My eyes weep ceaselessly; there is no respite, until Adonai looks down and sees from heaven. My eyes make me so upset at the fate of the women in my city."

The Lord continues…

"It's true that it rains on the just and the unjust. It's true that the earth is groaning. It's also true that when My judgments come, people have their idols crushed and they have to turn to ME Who is the only source of all they need! I have a contention with the nations! I have much to say to the nations of the earth who spurn My affections. I will have them bow their knees in the end! Yet will many scorn Me and laugh and mock, and refuse to come into My arms of love! Surely in a flood of many waters I will rescue the one who calls on MY NAME! I am a God of compassion and mercy, love and kindness. But to those who spit on the cross and are perverse in their ways and refuse My kindness, I will have the last laugh!"

Tehillim – Psalms 1 & 2 CJB

How blessed are those who reject the advice of the wicked, don't stand on the way of sinners or sit where scoffers sit! Their delight is in Adonai's

Torah; on his Torah they meditate day and night. They are like trees planted by streams – they bear fruit in season, their leaves never wither, everything they do succeeds.

Not so the wicked, who are like chaff driven by the wind. For this reason the wicked won't stand up to the judgment, nor will sinners at the gathering of the righteous. For Adonai watches over the way of the righteous, but the way of the wicked is doomed.

Why are the nations in an uproar, the peoples grumbling in vain? The earth's kings are taking positions, leaders conspiring together, against Adonai and his anointed. They cry, "Let's break their fetters! Let 's throw off their chains!"

He Who sits in heaven laughs; Adonai looks down at them in derision. Then in his anger he rebukes them, terrifies them in his fury. "I myself have installed My kind in Tziyon, my holy mountain."

I will proclaim the decree: Adonai said to me, 'You are my son; today I became your father. Ask of me, and I will make the nations your inheritance;

The whole wide world will be your possession. You will break them with an iron rod, shatter them like a clay pot." Therefore, kings, be wise; be warned, you judges of the earth. Serve Adonai with fear; rejoice, but with trembling. Kiss the Son, lest he be angry, and you perish along the way, when suddenly his anger blazes. How blessed are all who take refuge in Him.

"You may think that I change, but I do not and you overestimate the time you have. Are you not supposed to live your lives everyday as if it were the last? Do you not realize the times you are living in? Have I not pointed out to you in My word and spoken to my prophets for YEARS about judgments coming? Will you listen now My people and will you finally do MY WILL instead of your own? Is not America more accountable in My eyes for the many Christians that live in her? Will you continue to contend with Me and with My prophets? I tell you that what I do next will utterly change the tune of those who mock but still have a changeable heart! It will also take those who have been apathetic or complacent and turn them around. SURELY You will then know the truth of what I have said!"

2 Chronicles 7:12-20 CJB [Divrei-Hayamim Bet]

Adonai appeared to Shlomo [Solomon] by night and said to him, " I have heard your prayer and have chosen this place for myself as a house of sacrifice. 13 If I shut up the sky, so that there is no rain; or if I order locusts to devour the land; or if I send an epidemic of sickness among my people; 14 then, if my people, who bear my name, will humble themselves, pray , seek my face and turn from their evil ways, I will hear from heaven, forgive their sin and heal their land. 15 Now my eyes will be open and my ears will pay attention to the prayer made in this place. 16 For now I have chosen and consecrated this house, so that my name can be there forever; my eyes and heart will always be there. 17 AS FOR YOU, IF YOU WILL LIVE IN MY PRESENCE, AS DID DAVID YOUR FATHER, doing everything

I have ordered you to do, and keeping my laws and my rulings; 18 Then I will establish the throne of your rulership, as I covenanted with David your father when I said,

You will never lack a man to be ruler in Isra'el' 19 But if you turn away and abandon my regulations and mitzvot which I have set before you, and go and serve other gods, worshipping them. 20 Then I will pull them up by the roots and out of the land I have given them. This house, which I consecrated for my name, I will eject from my sight; and I will make it an example to avoid and an object of scorn among all peoples.

The Lord continues…

" I am not through passing my rod over America. I will fulfill the scriptures as written. You will go to the nations, but some will go in bondage due to civil strife, and economics. Many will go because you have been willing to bear the burdens of others and have volunteered in this the day of My power, and I will take you there even quite supernaturally. Others will go on business as business here will not be as lucrative. Some will go under strife because they have been unwilling to yield to me and have taken advantage over others instead of nurturing others.

Will you kick against the goads My people or will you stretch out your hands to the needy and broken and do My will? Will you become passive again? Will you think only of your own needs anymore? Or will you learn to love one another? Learning to love is the whole point of your life – learning to love Me, and learning to love each other.

In the midst of chaos and turmoil I see many who I am very proud of reaching out and helping and sacrificing their own comforts to help others.

This is the way to show the world that a nation founded on Christian principles will rise up out of the ashes of brokenness and destruction and praise their God. I hear the testimonies of those on TV saying, "PRAISE GOD" and sharing the TRUTH of Who I am! I am proud of those who in such dire circumstances have been bold in proclaiming my name! I am proud of those who endure great affliction yet follow ME. I will arise in this nation and you will see a third great awakening as you have never seen before!

Continue to reach out! Continue to pray and do not go backwards to comfort and apathy. There will be a turn around soon in all that has been. Defeatism will be broken, and selfishness, complacency will be broken in my own. The dark will keep getting darker, but you will shine like the stars in the heavens! You will grow fat as stall fed calves – very oily, very healthy in ME. I am transitioning many of you for what is coming. Listen for the still small voice in your time of prayer. WAIT on Me, that you might receive your instructions. Know that your tears are accomplishing much in the heavenlies and your worship will cause a raining down of glory!"

Hostile Nations
Priscilla Van Sutphin

Sept 30th, 2005

Joel 1:6 AMP For a [heathen and hostile] nation [of locusts, illustrative of a human foe] has invaded My land, mighty and without number; its teeth are the teeth of a lion, and it has the jaw teeth of a lioness. [Rev 9:7,8.]

Ps 144:11 AMP Rescue me and deliver me out of the power of [hostile] alien [tribes] whose mouths speak deceit and whose right hands are right hands [raised in taking] fraudulent oaths.

Rom 8:7 AMP [That is] because the mind of the flesh [with its carnal thoughts and purposes] is hostile to God, for it does not submit itself to God's Law; indeed it cannot.

The Lord spoke:
Why do the nations rage and plot against the daughter of My people? Why do they meet in secret accord plotting the demise of this nation? Because they are surrendered to the evil one and delight in greed, covetousness and brutality! Secret meetings are not all they seem to those who attend from this nation. Men all over the world are hostile to Me and My beloveds, to Israel and to the Church of Jesus Christ. Those who align with their hostility will be broken and crushed by My Son in the end.

I cannot delay any longer what is purposed in my heart because of the hostility of the nations! There is no end to their greed. But I WILL raise up a standard in the midst of destruction and evil that is intended, and I will pour out My Spirit on all flesh.

Isa 60:1-5 NKJV The Gentiles Bless Zion
Arise, shine; For your light has come! And the glory of the LORD is risen upon you. 2 For behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, And deep darkness the people; But the LORD will arise over you, And His glory will be seen upon you. 3 The Gentiles shall come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your rising. 4 "Lift up your eyes all around, and see:
They all gather together, they come to you; Your sons shall come from afar,
And your daughters shall be nursed at your side.
5 Then you shall see and become radiant, And your heart shall swell with joy;
Because the abundance of the sea shall be turned to you, The wealth of the Gentiles shall come to you.

I will through the glory poured out in My people give the nations a chance to repent and turn from their wickedness. Much wantonness & perversion has filled the hearts of men. But My GLORY will arise over you, and be SEEN on you. They will KNOW who you are because of MY LIGHT in you. Do not give in to the defeatism the enemy is trying to bring to you, to make you give up and feel paralyzed by the reports of threats and the groanings & judgments to come.

Did I not keep John from being boiled in oil? For those who like him, stay close and lay their head on My chest and seek My face, I will sustain you until it is your time to come to glory. Did I not shelter even those who were in GOSHEN, even though many turned out to be rebellious to Me? A return of the apostolic age is soon upon you, and with it greater accountability to walk in holiness, but fear not, for my grace is sufficient and I will empower you to overcome if you seek ME, and not just My hand. To those weary and discouraged ones, I will pour out MY GRACE and STRENGTH again, and you will go forth as stall-fed calves.

As Israel finds oil, so will I bless them with a greater revelation of WHO I AM, and there will be a flood of MY OIL poured out onto those who are called by My name! I will pour and pour and pour, and there will be no excuse for those who don’t turn to honor My Son in the days ahead. It will be obvious even to the dull, who is really GOD over the heavens and the earth. Still many because of judgments and groanings will curse ME and not turn. Do not be like the heathen in UNBELIEF. Know that I AM FOR YOU and not against you. Though you go through the valley of the shadow of death, I am with you. I will comfort you and sustain you My beloveds. LOOK to ME, for I am abundant in mercy and grace. Keep your eyes FIXED on ME.

Know My beloveds, that unbelief is displeasing to ME. I am God and there is no other, but if you don’t believe, and walk in FAITH, how can you overcome?
Do not think that I am an ogre for I am NOT. I am gentle and humble of heart. I have given many warnings of the coming of this time. Do not fail to stay in the Word , prayer and worship. Stay in communion with me as the time draws near. Recognize the hostile nations are within you. Recognize the enemy has sown many deceitful ones in your midst. But if you believe, you will receive! Pray and seek My face, for I am so longing for communion with you. Set your eyes on UNION with ME! Walk in My presence. Recognize I AM WITH YOU. Christ in you the Hope of Glory. My Spirit will never leave you nor forsake you. So cast ALL of your cares on ME, for I care FOR you!

REJOICE and be glad for Your Prince comes to you, and will establish His Kingdom in your heart in greater measure than you have known! He is a man of war and will war for you and with you as the days draw on. REJOICE, for the days you have longed to see are at hand!

Phil 4:5 NKJV Let your gentleness be known to all men. The Lord is at hand.
Phil 4:5 AMP Let all men know and perceive and recognize your unselfishness (your considerateness, your forbearing spirit). The Lord is near [He is coming soon].

Be dependent on Me more than your own wisdom. Seek MY wisdom My beloveds. Open your hearts and let the King of GLORY come in! I am about to ASTOUND and OVERWHELM YOU WITH MY LOVE & GLORY! I will, I will, I will NEVER leave you nor forsake you. I am routing the enemy that I can come in. REJOICE and be exceedingly glad when men persecute you and speak ill of you, and know that all suffering leads to glory!”

Rom 8:17 NKJV and if children, then heirs — heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ, if indeed we suffer with Him, that we may also be glorified together.

Col 1:24 [Even] now I rejoice in the midst of my sufferings on your behalf. And in my own person I am making up whatever is still lacking and remains to be completed [on our part] of Christ's afflictions, for the sake of His body, which is the church.
Col 1:25-27 AMP In it I became a minister in accordance with the divine stewardship which was entrusted to me for you [as its object and for your benefit], to make the Word of God fully known [among you]--
26 The mystery of which was hidden for ages and generations [from angels and men], but is now revealed to His holy people (the saints),
27 To whom God was pleased to make known how great for the Gentiles are the riches of the glory of this mystery, which is Christ within and among you, the Hope of [realizing the] glory.

1 Peter 2:20-25 NIV But how is it to your credit if you receive a beating for doing wrong and endure it? But if you suffer for doing good and you endure it, this is commendable before God. 21 To this you were called, because Christ suffered for you, leaving you an example, that you should follow in his steps. 22 "He committed no sin, and no deceit was found in his mouth." 23 When they hurled their insults at him, he did not retaliate; when he suffered, he made no threats. Instead, he entrusted himself to him who judges justly. 24 He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, so that we might die to sins and live for righteousness; by his wounds you have been healed.

1 Peter 3:14-17 NKJV But even if you should suffer for righteousness' sake, you are blessed. "And do not be afraid of their threats, nor be troubled." 15 But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts, and always be ready to give a defense to everyone who asks you a reason for the hope that is in you, with meekness and fear; 16 having a good conscience, that when they defame you as evildoers, those who revile your good conduct in Christ may be ashamed. 17 For it is better, if it is the will of God, to suffer for doing good than for doing evil.

2 Tim 3:8-9 Now just as Jannes and Jambres were hostile to and resisted Moses, so these men also are hostile to and oppose the Truth. They have depraved and distorted minds, and are reprobate and counterfeit and to be rejected as far as the faith is concerned. [Ex 7:11.] 9 But they will not get very far, for their rash folly will become obvious to everybody, as was that of those [magicians mentioned].

Col 1:21-23 And although you at one time were estranged and alienated from Him and were of hostile attitude of mind in your wicked activities,
22 Yet now has [Christ, the Messiah] reconciled [you to God] in the body of His flesh through death, in order to present you holy and faultless and irreproachable in His [the Father's] presence. 23 [And this He will do] provided that you continue to stay with and in the faith [in Christ], well-grounded and settled and steadfast, not shifting or moving away from the hope [which rests on and is inspired by] the glad tidings (the Gospel), which you heard and which has been preached [as being designed for and offered without restrictions] to every person under heaven, and of which [Gospel] I, Paul, became a minister.

Dan 10:20-21 AMP Then he said, Do you know why I have come to you? And now I will return to fight with the [hostile] prince of Persia; and when I have gone, behold, the [hostile] prince of Greece will come. 21 But I will tell you what is inscribed in the writing of truth or the Book of Truth. There is no one who holds with me and strengthens himself against these [hostile spirit forces] except Michael, your prince [national guardian angel].

Hos 10:10,12-13 AMP When I please I will chastise them, and hostile peoples shall be gathered against them when I shall bind and yoke them for their two transgressions [revolt from the Lord their God and the worship of idols]. [Jer 2:13; Lam 3:31-33.]…
12 Sow for yourselves according to righteousness (uprightness and right standing with God); reap according to mercy and loving-kindness. Break up your uncultivated ground, for it is time to seek the Lord, to inquire for and of Him, and to require His favor, till He comes and teaches you righteousness and rains His righteous gift of salvation upon you. [2 Cor 9:10.]
13 You have plowed and plotted wickedness, you have reaped the [willful] injustice [of oppressors], you have eaten the fruit of lies. Because you have trusted in your [own] way and your chariots, in the multitude of your mighty men,

The White Dress
Priscilla Van Sutphin

Sept 28th, 2005

I woke up seeing a vision of a woman's back, zipping up a white dress, like a bridal dress. Then I saw two large hands and a man's form standing behind her with his hands placed on her back on both sides of the zipper, as if assuring her, and at the same time holding it in place. I felt the Lord say…

" I am finishing up the new dress for My Bride. I am giving her pure white garments to wear. She is adorned in My glory that all may see her beauty. Though she has been bedraggled and disdained by many, now I will finish the final touches and imbue her with My love and power so that all the world will know that she is Mine ! They will know that she has spent time in My presence ! They will know because she will reflect My character and My power both.

Know that the things I am doing now in the earth will produce a most beautiful bride who loves and cares for others. Have I not said, that when the enemy comes in like a flood, the Lord will raise up a standard against him? The enemy has come down spreading his filth in all directions, but I have a plan too. I am JEALOUS for My Bride. I will not allow her to continue to wallow in filth. I will revive her heart and heal her wounds that others have not cared for. I will do all I've said I will do. I will not leave you comfortless.

Remember My beloved ones that this is NOT your home ! Heaven is your home. I am your HOME. In this world you will have troubles, but know that I have overcome the world and broken the power of the enemy. You will fulfill all I've destined for you, and when that is done, then only will you come home to ME.

Evil men continue to conspire and pride is rampant, but I AM with you and I will sustain you and fight beside you as you enter into the final war with the enemy ! He has come down with great wrath, knowing his time is over and wanting to destroy all he can. Do not be PRAYER LESS ! Keep your lamps trimmed and supplied with the oil of the Holy ONE. Keep in communion with Me. Stay beloveds close to ME in this hour. You need My advice. You need My discernment in all things pertaining to all around you. Do not go days without speaking to me ! How would you who are married feel if your mate didn't talk to you in days ? Would you not feel neglected ? How do you think I feel when you go day after day without stopping to take time for communion with ME, Who is your Husbandman ?"

My advice to you is to buy from Me gold refined by fire, that you may be rich; and white clothing, so that you may be dressed and not have to be ashamed of your nakedness; and eye salve to rub on your eyes, so that you may see ! As for Me, I rebuke and discipline everyone I love; so exert yourselves, and turn from your sins! Here, I am standing at the door, knocking. If someone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and eat with him, and he will eat with Me. Rev 3:18-19 CJB

" Know that my heart is not to hurt you. I am a God of restoration, not destruction. But the world is escalating into wickedness, and I cannot stand by and see men continue to oppress without consequence, nor can I stop what will bring the culmination of all time. Know that I love you and my heart is ravished for My bride. Come to Me and let me hold you and heal you and bring to you all that I am ! So when you have opportunity, you will have what you need to give to others and to declare My word and be My witnesses !"

Radical Lovers

Victoria Boyson

The enemy has been attacking the church with cold love in an attempt to pre-empt the coming move of God with seeds of division. In response to his attack, we must become God's army of radical lovers, who love in spite of wrongs suffered. In so doing, we will indeed usher in the next wave of God's glory with a greater manifestation of God's love, peace and joy.

My Mother's Love

As I was growing up, my mother's favorite saying seemed to be, "If you can't say anything nice, don't say anything at all." She never allowed me to speak evil of others. She would always tell me, "If you have to say something negative to someone or about someone, speak seven nice things about them first to make up for the one negative thing spoken." This is wonderful advice, but I have to admit that I have not always followed my mother's advice.

I understand completely what Paul meant when he said, "For the good that I want, I do not do, but I practice the very evil that I do not want" (Ro. 7:19). We all desire to speak blessings over others, but occasionally negative thoughts about them held in storage in our minds pop out of our mouths in the form of accusations.

The enemy has targeted our thoughts and mouths because he knows better than we do that the power of life and death is in our tongues (see Prov. 18:21). Truly, we have yet to comprehend the power that is released through the words we speak. When we speak negative words about others, we open doors for the enemy to come into our lives and bring death and destruction.

So, the plan of the enemy is very simple isn't it? He knows if he can gain control of our tongues he can use it against us for our destruction. He puts thoughts in our minds about others that, if not taken captive, will take root in our heart. These thoughts may lay dormant for awhile, but at an improper moment they come spewing out our mouth like a deadly poison, destroying or hindering any victory or blessing we may have had lying ahead of us.

Sowing and Reaping

I have discovered a shift in the spirit realm in the area of sowing and reaping with an almost immediate harvesting of what we have sown. Amos 9:13 says, "'Behold, days are coming,' declares the Lord, 'When the plowman will overtake the reaper'" and we are beginning to move toward that now, with the blessings of heaven coming shortly after we have sown them. This is a time we as believers have been anticipating. But now that it is here, I have begun to see how unprepared we are for the full benefits or consequences of this promise.

We have failed to understand that everything we sow will be reaped. Even the negative seeds we sow will spring to life soon after we have sown them. While in the midst of a great victory, the enemy will try to trap us in a harvest of our negative words. With careless words, we can turn our surest victories into complete defeats.

He knows that by getting us to curse others, we curse ourselves as well. He is seeking an open door in order to destroy us, and quite often we have given him access to our lives without even realizing it.

One day my oldest son was playing basketball, and before the game we prayed for him to do well. For the first half of the game he played exceptional. However, during half-time a friend shared news with me about a brother in Christ. My initial response toward the news was not redemptive, but judgmental.

My son got back onto the court and did not play as well as he had the first half of the game. There was a visible change in his abilities. I prayed, rebuked the enemy, spoke in tongues and hollered out encouragement to my son, but nothing helped. I could feel in my spirit something had changed, but I didn't connect the two incidents. It wasn't until later, as I thought back on the game and the negative words I spoke, that I saw what happened.

No matter how good my son was at basketball, he needed God's grace to play well. God's grace comes through our humble submission to do what He desires of us. If we want the grace of God in our lives, we must be willing to give that grace to others. Judgment toward others comes through an attitude of superiority. Moreover, "God is opposed to the proud, but gives grace to the humble" (James 4:6). By having a judgmental attitude toward a brother, I closed the door on God's grace for myself and my son.

Ps. 34:12-13 says, "Who is the man who desires life and loves length of days that he may see good? Keep your tongue from evil and your lips from speaking deceit." If we want to see good in our lives, we must not speak evil of others. We must repent of any words of judgment toward others and cling to and live by the mercy of the cross of Jesus Christ and the unconditional love of our Father.

Love Covers All

"Love covers all transgressions" (Prov. 10:12).

If love covers sin, we must seek to love more than anything. Love is that important! Love is a refuge for us and we must abide in the love of Christ (see Jn. 15:10). Loving God and loving His people keeps us safe from the traps of the enemy. If we harbor love for others in our hearts instead of offense, we are kept safe from the snares of the enemy.

As we experience offense, we must deal with it right away or it will become a snare to us. The enemy causes offense, and then uses it to lie to us about those who have offended us. It is these unhealed wounds that open the door for the attacks of the enemy. If these lies are not dealt with, they will eventually become words that curse others, opening doors for the enemy to destroy us.

We must stay on our guard and take every thought captive (see 2 Cor. 10:5). We must aggressively war against any offense that comes at us with prayers of radical love for our offenders! We must see past the offense to the redemptive purpose of the offense, which is our intercession for them. If someone wounds us, we can choose to either accuse or intercede. I call to mind the admonition of James who wrote, "Mercy triumphs over judgment" (James 2:13), for I believe these words not only show the power of mercy, but the joy that God has when we display a merciful heart.

Judgment actually feeds the evil that is attacking our brother and it is spurred on by the pride in our own hearts. But humility births intercession that responds to the needs of our brother by becoming the solution to his problem through prayer saturated in love.

I have a friend, who seems to have spiritual sonar to know when I am under attack; somehow she always knows when I need help. She never judges me for needing help, she just helps - simply responding to my need with love and redemptive prayers of intercession. She has become a safe harbor for me - loving, not judging. She sees past my faults and ministers to my need.

Radical Love

Redemptive love is radical love; love that is not based on experiences, but on the unconditional love of Christ.

God is calling His people to be radical lovers. Radical love destroys the works of darkness in the lives of others. It causes us to love in spite of how we are treated! Radical love is simply loving as Christ loved, who gave His life for those He loved.

"Greater love has no one than this, that one lay down his life for his friends" (Jn. 15:13). This kind of love responds to offense with redemptive intercession, not with accusation or judgment. It does not take offense personally, but looks past the faults of others and sees their needs, compelling us to become a part of the solution, not the problem.

This is the "greater love" that our Lord is calling us to walk in. This is the radical love that God had for us that moved Him to send His only Son to redeem us from our sins. God gave us life and we turned away from Him and lived for ourselves. In our rebellion we brought a curse upon ourselves, God's response was to send His Son to redeem us from that curse. He gave His Son so that we might live! That is indeed radical love, for Jesus came to save the world, not judge it (see Jn. 12:47). We must do the same!

"Sow with a view to righteousness, reap in accordance with kindness; break up your fallow ground, for it is time to seek the Lord" (Hosea 10:12).

Pray this with me:

Dear Lord,
Please forgive me for the negative seeds I have sown. I repent of judgment and accusation. Cleanse my lips Lord and help me to only speak life. I plead the blood of Jesus over myself and those I have spoken against. I ask you to bless them, myself and Your church. Cause me to respond to offense with Your redemptive, radical love! In Jesus' name, Amen.

Stretch Out Your Hand
Victoria Boyson!

In Mark 3, Jesus entered into a synagogue and found a man there with a withered hand. The Pharisees were watching Him to see if He would heal the man on the Sabbath. "And He said to them, 'Is it lawful to do good or to do harm on the Sabbath, to save a life or to kill?' But they kept silent. After looking around at them with anger, grieved at their hardness of heart, He said to the man, 'Stretch out your hand!' And he stretched it out, and his hand was restored." (Mark 3:1-5, emphasis mine)

The Pharisees had no regard for the man whose hand was withered. They did not care that he suffered; his handicap was of no concern to them. Their hearts were so hardened that they felt no pity for what the man had endured. They did not love him. But Jesus did care about the man and they knew that . . . that is why they were watching Him. They wanted to catch Him breaking the rules.

They cared more for their religious rules than they did for those whom the rules were made for. They were more concerned for the form of godliness than for the power that form was made to hold. Jesus said in the last days their would be those who have a form of godliness, but deny the very power of God (see II Timothy 3:5).

The power of God was not necessarily the healing that transformed the man's hand, but the compassion that Christ felt for the man. His love caused Him to "break the rules" and heal on the Sabbath. Truly, the great power of God is that God is love. Everything He does is motivated by His love for His creation.

Jesus loved this man enough to break the rules for him. Yet, He was grieved and angry at the hardness of heart of the Pharisees at the synagogue. He saw their callousness -- how they cared more for their rules than this man -- this angered Him.

His response was to face their judgmental attitudes head on, and in defiant anger to their hateful hearts He told the man, "Stretch out your hand!"

Defiant Love

Jesus didn't care that He was breaking their rules. He cared only to love this man and restore him. He did what was offensive to the Pharisees because He was moved with compassion for the man. His love was defiant in the face of their hypocrisy.

He was not grieved because rules were broken, for He was the One Who broke them. On the contrary, He was grieved because they cared more for their rules and laws than they did for people.

Jesus was a rule breaker for the good of men, while the Pharisees were rule keepers at the cost of men. They sacrificed people for the sake of the law they served. Jesus served the people He loved at the cost of the rules He broke.

A Good Idea!

Jesus told a story of how King David and his companions came into the house of God and ate consecrated bread that was reserved for the priests. He did this because his men were famished. David broke the rules for the sake of his men (see Mark 2:25-26).

Jesus told them, "The Sabbath was made for man, and not man for the Sabbath" (Mark 2:27).

The Sabbath was made so we would have a day of rest; that sounds like a wonderful idea. But the Pharisees turned this rule, that was made for the good of man, into a harsh legalistic law that men must obey or face their wrath.

When we take a good rule and use it to wound or manipulate others, we have become no better than the Pharisees. Rules in ministry are good, but when we put our rules and regulations above the people we serve, we are no longer serving people, but the rules we have established. If we put our rules above God, making them more important than Him, we have stopped serving God and are now serving rules. God is a God of order, but He is more so a God of love.

The Greatest Rule

Many times in Scripture Jesus broke the man-made laws in order to show forth the law of love. Jesus was also a great advocate of the law. He pointed out that the greatest law was the law of love -- to love God with all your heart, soul, mind, and strength and to love your neighbor as yourself (see Mark 12:30-31). And, indeed, God showed us His love when He sent His Son Jesus to die for our sins.

If we stack up all our man-made rules against the law of love, they fall terribly short of the heart of Christ. They are good, yes, but the law of love is greater, and in that love, we will find the true power of God. Indeed, we will find God Himself!

Whose House is it Anyway?

The Church has been inhibited because we have cared more about "having church" than we have cherished the true Church, which is the people the church structure was made for.

Have you ever seen a child scolded for running in church? I smile at the memory of an usher scolding a child for acting like a child in the house of God. I smile because the Lord says that the kingdom belongs to such as these (see Matthew 19:14).

If it truly is God's house, He says, "Let them run!"

If it is God's house, He says, "Let them come to Me!"

If it is God's house, He says, "Set the captives free!"

If it is God's house, He says, "Rejoice!"

I guess we've got to decide who the boss in God's house will be. Will it be our rules? Will our rules be strong enough to fight against God Himself? Can they take on the Big Guy? Or will our rules come crumbling to the floor as Christ Himself stands and says, "Stretch out your hand!"

Will the Church today answer the Lord when He asks, "Is it lawful?" Or, will we remain silent like the Pharisees, knowing the answer, but resigning to keep silent because of the hardness in our hearts?

Will we grieve the Lord? Or, will we choose to love and set the world ablaze with the love of Christ? I can't wait to find out what we will do, because I am proud of the Church, and I know what the answer will be!

Please pray this with me:

Dear Father,
Give me the heart and mind of Your Son. Revive my love for You and Your people. Set me free from religious bondage that I may love like You love. Give me the courage to break a few rules if it means I might set the captives free with the power of Your love.

Warriors of Truth
Victoria Boyson

In prayer, I was shown a vision. In it I saw misguided people who were the enemies of Truth, rallying together to deceive the saints; they were being guided by demonic forces who used them like toys. Great effort was being made by the realms of darkness to bring confusion and to stir up strife among the brethren to break up friendships that gave strength and encouragement to the saints. I saw the enemies of Truth entering the lives of those who have been wounded by rejection and held in bondage by fear. They spoke demonically induced lies with great power to deceive them in their weakened condition.

Ironically, the lies of darkness actually seemed like "real truth" to them and the enemies of Truth seemed like great saints. They appeared as though they were God's answer for the loneliness and pain they were feeling, so they opened their hearts to them. Because they came into agreement with their lies and their love grew painfully cold, they began to attack their brothers and sisters in Christ with accusation and judgment. Consequently, their attacks against them unleashed powers of destruction on the Church.

Just when it seemed that the saints would falter under the heavy assault, I saw the great warriors of heaven rally their armies in preparation to invade earth and dispel the enemies of Truth. They only awaited the command to do so by the saints -- for their cry for help. Under the weight of accusation, the saints began to weep. Their tears unleashed the army of heaven to attack the realms of darkness.

The Judgments of the Lord

It was then that I saw a heavenly warrior filled with great power, radiating a glorious light, entering the home of my enemy. This man had been used by the realms of darkness to rain down curses on my head; he was very jealous and filled with hatred toward me.

However, even though I knew his dislike for me was great, I feared for him because the power of the heavenly warrior was great. I saw the warrior stand before him and draw its sword, which was enormous and gave off a great light.

I wondered at the sight of what was about to occur and thought, "Can it be God's will to destroy my enemy?"

I heard the warrior speak in answer to the question of my heart and say, "I have been given authority to execute the judgments of the Lord."

Then the warrior, standing over my enemy, raised the sword and thrust it into his heart.

It was difficult for me to watch, because I truly loved my enemy and had prayed for him for a long time. I did not want to see him destroyed. Indeed, I had wept and prayed that he would completely surrender his life to the Lord and not allow the enemy to use him any longer.

The warrior knew the thoughts of my heart and spoke again to me saying, "This sword is the sword of Truth, and will dispel the lies of darkness that have taken over his heart."

"Your Love For this Man Made This Possible for Him"

Then I looked at the sword and saw that, in its radiance, it seemed to be alive and was pulsating. As its large blade rested in my enemy's heart, the Light it held began to fill his body; like melting gold, the Light seeped into his chest.

At first, he lay motionless as if the sword had no effect on him, but then I saw his face cringe as if in pain and I sensed brokenness enter his heart. Sorrow was invading his soul as the truth of his actions was shown to him. The spirit of repentance was dispelling the demonic lies, and darkness was fleeing from him as tears ran down his face.

I looked again to watch the heavenly warrior who had come to execute the judgments of the Lord on my enemy. He watched with determined anticipation as the sword did its work on the man.

Turning to me, the warrior told me, "Your love for this man made this possible for him. I came to him only because you chose to love him in spite of his attacks against you and your family. You chose to love him, and because your Father loves you, He was compelled to touch the man for your sake."

I was shocked! I wept at the words the warrior spoke because I knew that it was only because of my love for Christ that I loved my enemy.

"My Earthly Enemy Was Not My Enemy After All; He Was the Treasure that the Lord Had Longed to Uncover"

In myself, I wanted to hate him. Indeed, I wanted him to suffer as he had made me suffer. My first thoughts at the onslaught of his attacks against me were to call upon God to execute vengeance against the man. But I saw that the longer I clung to thoughts of judgment toward him, the more distant Christ became to me.

It was only because of my desperate need and love for Christ that I forced myself to pray for him. I asked God to give me love for him, because I simply had none of my own. I had no desire to forgive, but I asked God to give me that as well. And when He had changed my heart, I could honestly say, "I love him" and mean it.

It scared me to remember how easy it would have been for me to condemn the man and how close I came to doing it. It was truly only because Christ loved me that I felt the need to love this man.

Could that one small decision to love and forgive him have brought about his redemption and activated the armies of heaven to fight for him? I was astonished to think that his deliverance at this moment came only because of that one small choice I made to stand with Christ.

Now, I stand in awe as I see the transformation of someone I thought was unredeemable.

I had, in the past, desperately pleaded with God to remove him from my life, so he would no longer have the power to hurt me. I couldn't understand why He wouldn't do it. It was, however, because He wanted to use me to change this man's life, and in the process of helping him, my own heart was transformed as well.

Yes, his redemption has truly changed us both. My earthly enemy was not my enemy after all; he was the treasure that the Lord had longed to uncover, if only I were willing to help Him.

Liberating the Lost

Now I see the warriors of Truth have invaded other lives across the earth as the hearts of the saints have cried out for the souls of men. They are liberating the lost from the darkness that bound them as these saints of Christ cling to the cross of love and hold it high above them in a defiant reply to the attacks of the accuser of the brethren.

The treasured friendships among the saints that seemed hopelessly broken are being miraculously restored, and they have received a greater level of appreciation for one another. The cold love that had tried to force them to fear one another has been flung aside and radical, selfless love has become their war cry!

Darkness had them bound, but THE TRUTH Himself has set them free, and whom the SON sets free is free indeed!

Radical Womanhood
Danny Korakas

I realize that many who may read this may wonder or even question a man's understanding of radical womanhood. I know in my own life as a man, that much of what I have and need to learn to attain a greater measure of godly manhood, comes through the viewpoint of a woman's perspective. My wife has taught me many priceless lessons on what makes a man complete in his call and purpose for life. Some has been well received and others, well, lets just say it took some time! However, I finally came around. Hopefully, this perspective will encourage and challenge you to be the woman that the Lord has purposed and called for such a time as this. A few men may need to read this as well!

It is interesting in today's society of how we view heroes of womanhood. What many consider to be a time naivety, a woman was honored and received a place of high moral standing when she gave herself to her husband and children (family). This high place of honor came through a biblical and willing heart to sacrifice for those whom she loved. Women placed a premium of devotion to the maintaining and order of her home – both physically and emotionally. She set the atmosphere that the family longed for and could find rest and peace in. She was angelic and Christ-like in doing her part to bring the kingdom of heaven to earth. She was radically devoted to her children and willing to sacrifice the desires of her own for the nurturing and building of the next generation.

However, these values have been programmed or brainwashed in our conscience as being antiquated and backward. These values of self surrender and sacrifice has given way to the satisfaction of earning a paycheck, the fallacy of independence, and the acquisition of power and respect outside the sanctuary of the home. Now, at this point, please don't assume that I am saying that women should be house hermits wrapped in aprons all day. This is not where I am going, so please follow me through this article and what I sincerely believe is the heart and word of the Lord for the healing of the nations.

We are surely wearing rose-colored glasses or even blinded if we cannot see the cultural assault and attempted murder of traditional marriage, motherhood, and contentment within our sexuality that has its corrupted origins in the socio-political and economic systems of the "world." The antichrist spirit is not an individual. The beast and the dragon as mentioned in the book of Revelation are real and tangible entities. The antichrist "spirit" is the spiritual evil that is manifested through these entities and adverse to the Lord's anointing, power, and perfect will for mankind. ("Christ" means "Anointed, anointing, and "to rubbed with oil." Thus, the spirit of antichrist is the anti-anointing and the adversary of God's best for our lives) John said that it was the "same spirit that was at work in his day" that was resisting the work of TRUTH the hearts of mankind. The world or antichrist system and its kingdom design are in tension or direct conflict with the kingdom design of God.

What transpires in the confines of the home is the true spiritual condition of the church…It is not what shows up on your typical Sunday morning that defines our true spiritual health as the corporate church. We can all put on our best for a few hours a week If the enemy of our souls can erode the Lord's design of the family structure – surely this house will not be able to stand through the storms of life. Much of the eroding of the family and radical womanhood has come through the once respected position of raising children, attending to a husband's need and running the "business" of the home as now portrayed as brainless, worthless, and even degrading or unprofessional. Concerning this position, Supreme Court Justice Ruth Bader Ginsberg stated, "No woman would willingly live a life of such limited achievement." This is but a mere reflection of the damage and brainwashing that the feminist movement has created in leading women away from God's primary and most glorious call for their lives – Her family and the responsible raising of her children.

I once read a statement that summed up the feminist movement well: "Feminism is not about giving women freedom to choose; it is about taking away choices of which feminist disapprove. And one choice they disapprove of is the participation in a conventional family…Perhaps the most vicious aspect of radical feminism is that it necessarily criticizes women who choose to work primarily as mothers and homemakers." I find it fascinating that multitudes of books are now being published to validate a woman's right with young children to work outside of the home and the benefits of it. The desire to ease this guilt is obvious – In the heart of a mother, she desires the opportunity at all cost to raise her own children. However, society's gauge of success, materialism, and our own rationalizations have shrouded the hearts of many women. Sadly, and even more tragic, is the pressure that many husbands place upon their wives to work outside the home to support a particular lifestyle at the expense of their own children. I have stated in a previous article that having children is one of the most selfish things that humanity does. We desire all the benefits of having children but want somebody to raise them. As a marriage, church, and nation, we understand and place the nurturing of our children and young people as the priority of our future and well-being. However, the opposite has been true and we are now experiencing the results of it.

The great deception is that anything done in the name of a woman's right is fancied and accepted as great courage. The world would have us view women as "intelligent" if they possess independence and autonomy. Somehow, the richer and abundant life is no longer the Lord's model for abundant life, but how equal women can perform in what God has called men to do. I believe some who are reading this may disagree on several points that I have already brought up. However, we must understand and recognize the difference between "conditioning" and familiarity through television talk shows, sitcoms, books, movies, and political movements. These are not the Lord's Word nor his best to answer humanities illness.

We live in a society where personal desires and ambitions take precedence over moral and personal "ideals." We have become through each preceding generation more and more consumed with ourselves. Living in the realm of "self" moves us constantly to the "mirror of life", making lifetime choices on how we want to mold and shape the reflection looking back. Sadly, many Christian women, along with our modern culture has ridiculed the reflection of the traditional wife and mother. Our social support of what we place priority on has surfaced and is on display for all to witness. The economic, political and emotional support for full-time homemaking has been replaced by easily funded abortion on demand, divorce, institutional child rearing, and illegitimate births due to young people looking for someone to meet their needs. Parents wonder why their children indulge in sex before marriage and get pregnant, thus ruining their young lives and God's plan for their teen years. Maybe it's because they spent too much time in the mirror of life and not enough time with their children. Their physical and emotional needs will be met by somebody...The choice is yours. Who are they spending their time with? Do they even have a choice?

The enemy has been at work stealing away our greatest resource – our young people and future. Children books are being introduced that portrait traditional marriage as a trap, but yet encourage the toleration of gay marriages. Feminism minimizes the healthy differences between men and women. When the core of a soul is led to believe that sexual differences are trivial or of little value, sex without true and meaningful love becomes normal and accepted. I believe that women understand deep within themselves that the difference between men and women is a beautiful picture of hope and relationship. It is this portrait that brings clarity of God's love for Christ and the church – His bride. The inner longings of a woman to be tenderly loved and cherished by a man and his support to her calling is the greatest legacy that a woman can leave. It is wrapped in this loving security that will provide a model for the godly young women of tomorrow as they embrace radical womanhood.

Elisabeth Elliot wrote:

"God has set no traps for us. Quite the contrary. HE has summoned us to the only true and full freedom. The woman who defines her liberation as doing what she wants, or not doing what she doesn't want, is, in the first place, evading responsibility. Evasion of responsibility is the mark of immaturity, The Women's Liberation Movement is characterized, it appears, by this very immaturity. While telling themselves that they've come a long way, that they are actually coming of age, they retreated to a partial humanity, one which refuses to acknowledge the vast significance of the sexual differentiation. (I do not say that they always ignore sexual differentiation itself, but that the "significance' of it escapes then entirely.) And the woman who ignores that fundamental truth ironically misses the very thing she has set out to find. By refusing to fulfill the whole vocation of womanhood she settles for a caricature, a pseudo-personhood."

Society places a premium of money, resources, and time in keeping many species from becoming extinct. The days we live in are dangerous for the LIFE and survival of the traditional and biblical model for marriage and family. In the name of tolerance, women have allowed themselves to be misled and deluded into popular culture and its lure of acceptance. Issues and movements that are morally "acceptable" does not constitute them as being morally "right." Popular culture is just that, popular. The world is not forcing its views and warped sense of truth down an unwilling church's throat. The demand for compromise, rationalization, and excuse to join them is obviously already there. Are we seeking the applause of a sin sick and soaked world to minimize our biblical responsibility to our families? Husbands, are you the problem? Are you sacrificing your wife and children to the gods of this world? Are we lusting over the things that money, power, and position can buy at the expense of our family? Have we forgotten that "What is highly valued among men is detestable in God's sight? "(Luke 16:15).

Righteousness and Humility

Troy Busch

October 24/05
The Holy Spirit is re-emphasizing the requirement that Righteousness and Humility be defining characteristics of His people, especially as the Day of the Lord approaches. Now is the time to pursue these in ever-increasing measure. "Seek the Lord, all you humble of the land, you who do what he commands. Seek righteousness, seek humility; perhaps you will be sheltered on the day of the LORD's anger" (Zeph. 2: 3).

The plans of the Lord will not be thwarted. His purposes shall be accomplished, on earth as it is in heaven. The question is, 'Will we be standing when all is said and done?' The greatest time of testing the world has ever known is destined to precede the end of the age. Only those who have humbled themselves by taking refuge in Him will stand in that day. "When the storm has swept by, the wicked are gone, but the righteous stand firm forever" (Prov. 10: 25).

Humility, nurtured in the soil of true and ongoing repentance; and Righteousness, born of the purifying work of the Refiner, are qualities the Lord is seeking in His people. "Your attitude should be the same as that of Christ Jesus: Who ... made himself nothing, taking the very nature of a servant... He humbled himself and became obedient to death - even death on a cross! Therefore God exalted him to the highest place and gave him the name that is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father" (Phil. 2: 5, 7, 8-11).

"Humble yourselves, therefore, under God's mighty hand, that he may lift you up in due time" (1 Pet. 5: 6).

Revisiting A Love So Fierce

Danny Korakas

Aug 4, 2005

"In this is love, not that we loved God, but that He loved us and sent His Son to be a propitiation for our sins ... and not for ours only but also for the whole world." (1 John 4:10; 2:2)

A prophetic declaration of the love of God to the WHOLE WORLD is about to be unleashed with a fury of fire to melt the hearts of men. We may at times forget how to love, but God "so loved the WORLD that He gave His only begotten Son." (John 3:16). As bad as the world may seem at times, God has not forgotten or given up on the world. With a love so radical, so forgiving, so sacrificing, so fierce; how could He possibly give up on humanity. His heart radically burns for the saved and unsaved alike. His heart is ravished for the Muslim and the New Age-er. His passion is that ALL would be saved and come to the knowledge of Jesus Christ. (1 Timothy 2:4) God sends His love to us, "in that while WE were yet SINNERS, Christ died for us." (Romans 5:8)

There are many people in the world today that are deceived by false religions and worship false gods. When people in India and much of the Orient look into the face of their gods, they see mean and evil countenances with sharp teeth and claws. There is a sense of hatred in the faces of these hideous idols created by the imaginations and hands of man. Is this really a "god" that you could LOVE and feel LOVED? The gods of the Egyptians, Assyrians, and other ancient cultures were even more diabolical looking and had an appetite for human flesh – even child sacrifice. How could these gods have possibly created the LOVE that burns in your heart or the love of a parent toward their child? You can only create what is within you.

You will find upon review, that all pagan religions and writings are void of a God that LOVES them. It is completely alien for the Muslim to know that God created them for a loving and intimate relationship and that He loves them UNCONDITIONALLY. The only benefit that the moon god Allah could offer a pious Muslim woman would be that of a "heavenly prostitute" for a cold blooded murderer. My dear Islamic friends, who really is your god? What is his NATURE?

The Greeks and Romans were serving a myriad of gods that were waiting to strike them with a lightening bolt at the first instance of weakness or failure. For the intellectual or strong Greek, these gods took great joy in trying to trick mankind so as to prove their supremacy. It was as if the gods were playing a sort of cosmic game with mankind for their amusement. How could it be that a "God" could truly LOVE them? We need to realize how revolutionary this revelation was to mankind at this time in history.

Preston Eby tells a famous Confucian story that some missionaries discovered when they got to China. It is a story of a young man of a wealthy father, who one day stole a large portion of his father's wealth and ran away from home. He took the money and wasted it in riotous living. The years passed and finally it was all gone and he came into destitution. Finally, through an intermediary, he appealed to his father to take him back again. With open arms, his father accepted him back into the home and prepared for him a great feast. Does this sound familiar? As they sat feasting together, all eyes were fixed upon the son. There was a big smile beaming on the face of the father which broadened as a look of horror suddenly spread across the countenance of the son. The son grasped at his throat, finally realizing too late that he had been poisoned! And Confucius says, "So it shall be with every son that dishonors his father." How infinite is the gap between this story and the story that Jesus told of the prodigal son. Jesus came to REVEAL and display the Father's LOVE to humanity. Jesus stated that He came not to condemn the world, but to save it. (John 3:17).

The heart of the Lord and His word to the church today is simple. Humanity will become like and resemble in their actions the gods that they serve. I believe that it was Alexander Hamilton who said, "people deserve the government that they have, for it is a reflection of who they really are." Trying to change an Islamic country to a form of democracy will never work as long as the people remain violent in their core religious and societal beliefs. Violent people produce violent governments — whether secular or spiritual. We not only take on the nature of the god we worship, we take on their countenance as well.

Jesus came to PERSONALIZE a loving Father and God to humanity — His creation. People seem to have a difficult time moving in the pure beauty of faith and need to see and experience things with their natural senses. God even overlooked our lack of faith and completely revealed Himself in Jesus Christ that we could look and gaze upon His love for us. Jesus shows us what the NATURE of God is like.

Jesus showed us a love so fierce and so powerful that it would have to finish its course on a cross dying for our well being and salvation. Has another "god" ever proclaimed his love in such tenderness and depth, let alone suffer death on his creations behalf? This astounded the world at this time with utter shock. Does it still today? I seriously doubt it. We are casual and numbed to the love of God by the cloud and pollution of religion that has created religious DUTY rather than spontaneous and passionate love.

Suppose that I came home to my wife Carole with a dozen long stemmed roses. Carole would say, "O Danny, thank you. They are beautiful." As she is about to hug me, I hold out my hand and say, "Don't mention it. It's my duty."

Well, what has happened here? The roses only have meaning if they are given spontaneously from my heart. Actually, without the spontaneity of passionate love, the roses actually belittle her. God did not perform a duty in His appointment with the cross. The Rose Of Sharon died for us out of a passionate love for relationship. On the other hand, the "dutiful religion" we see and experience so much of is a far cry from the dying to ourselves that Christ set as an example of love for us to follow.

I realize that many reading this have been beaten down and abused by the trials of life. A great many people, even though surrounded by many people, are lonely and feel isolated in the purpose and meaning to life. I know more than a few believers who are in financial difficulty and wonder if anybody really cares. Some have suffered lay-offs and job closings after years of faithful commitment and may even feel that God has abandoned them.

Many who are parents know the care and love you have for children who have been hurt and wounded. It is a love that reaches and extends out in the midst of every facet of need. It even extends to a child who is wayward and has run away from his or her family. We can try to imagine the love of the greatest and most caring parents, but it pales in comparison to the measure and unimaginable depth of God's love for you.

Because of His great love toward us, we hold within us the greatest of treasures and inheritance — His Holy Spirit. We are the New Testament Ark of His covenant. What made the Old Testament Ark of value was not the acacia wood overlaid with gold. Nor was it the tablets (God's law), Aaron's rod that blossomed (God's power and authority), or the jars of manna (God's provision). It was the manifest presence of God.

No other "god" has given humanity the gift and inheritance of His Words, power, authority, and perfect provision. Even the essence of His holiness God has given to us who believe. "Be holy for I am holy." (1 Peter 1:16) But the most astounding gift is that He gave us Himself! Like the Ark of old, His presence gives us value, meaning, and purpose. Of all that God could have chosen to call Himself, He simply said, "I am LOVE." When God fills us with His Spirit, He fills us with His love. God is telling us in His Word who He is. The words leap off the pages revealing to us His very nature. When we speak of caring we know that God is charitable, but He is not "charity." When we think of justice, we know that God is just, but He is not "justice." However, love is different. God IS love. Love is the revelation of the Father's very nature and being.

"And we have known and believed the love that God has for us. God is love, and he who abides in love abides in God, and God in Him." (1 John 4:16)

Finally, we have those who do not believe or have faith in any "god." Actually, these individuals exhibit some of the "greatest faith" among the peoples of the earth. The Bible says that we are all without excuse and that God has revealed Himself to every man through something down deep in the spirit of within us. (Romans 1:20) To BELIEVE that there that is no God takes a tremendous amount faith considering the complexity of LOVE.

I can understand the scientific argument for evolution or the Big Bang theory. It makes perfect sense to me when I contemplate it on the surface. But as I dig deeper with UNDERSTANDING into the complexities of everyday life, I find serious faults and discrepancies in this "faith."

Imagine if I were to take all of the atomic and molecular particles in the entire expanding universe and combine it into one massive entity. In our scientific and natural understanding, we would obviously have the greatest source of power and mass conceivable. With this tremendous entity of power, could we or "it" produce just one drop of LOVE? Even those who believe in evolution must hold that everything has a starting place or origin. The question that the faithful atheist must answer is, "where was the origin of love and emotion?" Where did the freedom to experience and have passion come from?

The most intellectual and brilliant minds of men can justify and argue against the origins of God's creation. However, trapped within the confines of a finite mind, they have failed to UNDERSTAND the origin of the greatest gift given to man — The LOVE of God. "God IS love." And the love we express and experience from others can only have its origins within the heart and nature of God. It is His love for the whole world that permeates the hearts of mankind and gives them the ABILITY to love.

Jesus said that the whole world would know that we were His disciples by our love for one another. Does the world, your neighbor, your family, know that you are Christ's disciple?

Rebuking A Spirit Of Competition

Kristi Allegretto

Just recently, dreamt that I was part of a praise and worship practice. The leader asked me to open in prayer. God's anointing was very much present, as I began praying with quiet humility. However, as I did many others started to shout out their prayers...as if the louder they were, that made them more spiritual than others. Showy prayers obviously grieve our Lord's heart!

In the dream, God's Holy Spirit came upon me powerfully with righteous anger! I shouted louder than the rest of the people, rebuking them for operating in a competitive spirit and in vainglory! After I did that, there was complete silence with a keen awareness of our Lord's weighty Presence!

Though this dream's message applies to other ministries, I awoke knowing God was targeting the rivalry between praise and worship teams. Some seem to focus more on outperforming the other, rather than on Christ and helping to bring His People in! to His Powerful Presence! They seek the glory of man, instead of through heartfelt songs to glorify Jesus, Lord of lords and King of kings, who is coming back for His peaceable church!

Matthew 6:5-8 And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites are: for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward. But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly. But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking. Be not ye therefore like unto them: for your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask Him.

Philippians 2:1-5 If there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the ! Spirit, if any bowels and mercies, fulfil ye my joy, that ye be likeminded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind. Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves. Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others. Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus.

Matthew 11:29-30 Take My yoke upon you, and learn of Me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls. For My yoke is easy, and My burden is light.

Psalm 133:1-3 Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity! It is like the precious ointment upon the head, that ran down upon the beard, even Aaron's beard: that went down to the skirts of his garments; as the dew of Hermon, and as the dew that descended upon the mountains of Zion: for there the LORD commanded the blessing, even life for evermore.

Ephesians 4:1-3 ! As a prisoner for the Lord, then, I urge you to live a life worthy of the calling you have received. Be completely humble and gentle; be patient, bearing with one another in love. Make every effort to keep the unity of the Spirit through the bond of peace.

Redemption And The Tsunami

Ephraim and Rimona Frank

Shalom Fellow Israelite,

In letter 251 I suggested that the reason for the earthquakes and tsunami were directly related to Torah principles of cause and effect, blessings and curses (Deut 28). But in this week's letter I would like to view these troubles from a different perspective.

Many have been reading, speaking, preaching, writing and talking about Yeshua's words to His disciples on the end times and the tribulation. His dissertation in Luke 21, much like the one in Mathew 24, seems to cover an extensive period of time. Some parts were fulfilled soon after Yeshua's ascension, but others have to wait to the end days. There are a number of points regarding Luke 21 that I would like to make reference to.

Yeshua said: "Now when these things begin to happen, look up and lift up your heads, because your redemption draws near" (v. 28). "So you also, when you see these things happening, know that the kingdom of Elohim is near" (v. 31). Is Yeshua saying that these troubles are signs of redemption and of His manifested kingdom on earth? If this is the case, these are good tidings in the midst of bad news! Back in the 1970's, a friend and brother in the assembly of called-out, suggested that the reason for the tribulation was due, at least in part, to the very presence of YHVH's anointed ones, His redeemed remnant, on planet earth. Today, while pondering Yeshua's words in the above quote, it occurred to me that there might be some truth to what this brother had postulated.

Could it be that our (the redeemed remnant of the house of Jacob) presence is causing the Almighty to shake up the kingdoms of this world? Paul the Apostle said that the kingdom of YHVH is in the Spirit of Holiness and is made manifest in righteousness, peace and joy (ref. Rom 14:17). Can we conclude, therefore, that the more the called-out ones become mature in righteousness, peace and joy - the more the kingdoms of this earth are shaken by tribulation tremors? YHVH said that He would take out of the nations a remnant and bring them back to the land of their forefathers, and that He would do it through signs and wonders ("perplexities"). Will this present day exodus be reminiscent of the time of the deliverance of our forefathers from Egypt? Would YHVH have done all those things to Egypt had His people not been there?

As we know from the book of Daniel, the statue of man was representative of the kingdoms of this world. But when YHVH's little rock (His kingdom) hit these kingdoms on the foundations of their humanity (the feet of clay), the entire statue came tumbling down. Similarly, didn't we find our little kingdoms shaking and crumbling when we received the Spirit? How much more so when YHVH restores His holy nation of kings and priests and brings them back to Zion and to their land!

"Why do the nations [heathen nations] rage and the people imagine a vain thing"? (Are they dreaming about their own divinity, world dominion, one-world government-power, without being redeemed from sin, nor having a relationship with YHVH?) "The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against YHVH, and against His anointed, saying, 'let us break their bands asunder, and cast away their cords from us'. He that sits in the heavens shall laugh: YHVH shall have them in derision. Then shall He speak unto them in His wrath, and vex them in His sore displeasure. 'Yet have I set my king upon My Holy Hill of Zion'" (Psa. 2:1-6).

Since the majority of today's governments, including the United Nations, have been birthed out of the Greek form of rule, they stand in arrogant opposition to YHVH's kingdom government, which has now been set up in Zion, in the House of Jacob/Ya'acov and ruled over by the "Son" - Yeshua. "He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest: and YHVH shall give unto Him the throne of His father David, and He shall reign over the house of Ya'acov for ever; and of His kingdom there shall be no end" (Luke 1:32-33). Yeshua said that kingdoms would be at war with each other. We find that even in our own personal lives, now that YHVH's kingdom is present in us, the kingdoms of this world are at war with that inner life authority of His kingdom. How much more will the kingdoms of this world resist His power and authority, as He restores the two nations of Israel and brings them together to make them one in His hand (Ez. 37)?

Have you ever wondered what YHVH's wrath and perplexities might be like? Read again how Yeshua describes those days in Mathew 24 and Luke 21. Many people are going to die in these cataclysmic events, as YHVH is no respecter of persons and will have mercy on whom He wills. Through Zephaniah, YHVH says: "' Therefore wait upon Me,' says YHVH, 'until the day I rise up for plunder; My determination is to gather the nations, to assembly the kingdoms, to pour on them My indignation, all my fierce anger; all the earth shall be devoured with the fire of My jealousy'" (3:8). Although all of that sounds dreadful, it will result in calling upon His name and in serving Him. "For then I will restore to the peoples a pure language, that they all may call on the name of YHVH, to serve Him with one accord" (v 9). "For when Your judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness" (Isa 26:9).

When I mentioned in the past letters that the tribulations are the consequence of lawlessness (anti-nomianism), I was accused of self-righteousness, arrogance and presumptuousness. I guess in these days it is not politically correct to be explicit and specific about repentance. To repent and humble ourselves is a nice gesture, but what good is it if we don't acknowledge what it is that we are turning away from? I had read that several Christians were arrested for calling a spade a spade, when they preached that homosexuality is sin. I would imagine that even saying this here could cause some server domains to cut off these letters.

It is becoming more and more crucial that the believers, those who have been called out of the kingdoms of this world, begin to identify with the only nation that has been called and chosen to manifest the glory of His kingdom (see Rom. 9:4 and Isa. 43:7). This nation will be a light to the nations during the dark hours that are coming upon this world. YHVH declared to His servant Israel, that He would not give His glory to another (Isa. 42:8). May we make up that one redeemed restored nation (Israel), with the glory of the Son in us so that we might be that holy nation, a true light to the nations! Thus our restoration and the occurrence of troubles and sorrows are not unrelated. I was once looking at a dispensational chart that showed the pre-tribulation rapture over the valley of dry bones. In this chart the valley of dry bones was seen going down into the tribulation, and the church going up in the air. What struck me was the depiction of "two sticks"coming together in the midst of the tribulation. When I asked the pastor, who had this chart on his wall, what these two sticks were, he said that they were the unredeemed remnant of Jews that did not want to accept Jesus and leave in the rapture. My response to that was: "What if there is no pre-tribulation rapture, could it be then that these two stick/nations of YHVH's people, the house of Joseph in the hand of Ephraim and Judah, are bearing a testimony of their Elohim and His kingdom to the nations during this awesome period in human history?

Shabbat Shalom,
Ephraim

Religious Darkness

Clo DiPilato

Don't stay in religious darkness while your baby drowning
Dearest Friends in Jesus,

I recently had a dream, and the Spirit causes me to realize it is for those whom the Lord is calling to a "new and living way", and especially for those whom God is calling to pioneer new things because this is a day of some spiritual trail-blazing, and there is a new spiritual frontier, and the fore-runners are called to go forth, and pave the way into the new thing God is doing in this time of transition. You will know if this dream is meant for you:

The dream had to do with being in a dark room where a religious atmosphere was being cultivated. Some people were standing, some were sitting, and some were quietly walking about the room. The people thought it was very spiritual, but it was not. It was an artificially created mood, and not from the true Spirit of God at all. Actually the atmosphere was mixture, as I discerned the Lord was trying to break through, but the religious spirits that had the supremacy would not allow it.

At first, I thought the people wanted the room dark because they wanted not to be distracted by things around them and that was very true, but the spirit that was motivating all of this was a religious spirit, and not from the Lord at all.

There was a young man playing the piano, and it was an old Pentecostal worshipful tune, and I was drawn to the tune because it brought back good spiritual memories to me. So, I went to approach the man to see if I was truly recognizing the tune, and because I wanted to softly sing it along with him. I knew by the spirit that to sing the song worshipfully would lift the atmosphere into a higher place, and I was greatly anticipating this, and felt he would be pleased to see someone else there knew the tune.

Since the atmosphere was very quiet and reverent, I knew that I must approach him very softly, and so I did. I caught his eye, and mouthed the words to him to see if I had the tune right. He looked me in the eye, but his spirit totally snubbed me as if I were interrupting the flow of "the anointing". I felt like I wanted to make friends with the man, and I tried to draw him in, but he refused to be drawn in, and my spirit was very wounded by his attitude toward me.

Then, I suddenly realized that I had left my own baby down by a pier that led into the water, and the baby was crawling down to the pier, and was going to fall into the water if I did not go rescue him. It was like I came to my senses, and thought........oh my gosh........what am I doing here?? My own baby is going to drown and here I am in this dark room with these people who don't even like me!!! My dear friend, if you have the true spirit of God operating in you, and through you, religious people with religious spirits do not like you!!! Are you ignoring, or haphazardly taking care of your own baby, the vision and ministry God has given to YOU, while you are trying to please and appease the religious system???

When I left that dark room of meeting, I came out into a big very green grassy yard, and daylight. I sprinted across the yard, and down to the pier, and my baby was sure enough crawling toward the pier, but then I remembered the baby had on an apparatus that would actually keep him from drowning so that he could navigate a bit in the water by himself. So, I was a bit relieved, but nevertheless.......I was horrified at myself that I had left the baby, and knew that I had done wrong in a big way. I woke up from the dream feeling satisfied that I had rescued the baby, and he had not drowned, but not actually remembering that part of the dream.

Oh my beloved friends, pay attention to the part highlighted in yellow. You may think it's fine and dandy and okay that you left the baby with it's 'water wings' or whatever, to keep itself afloat while you're still trying to get on the good side of the religious people who are busy creating religious moods so they can be religiously superior to others, and especially to YOU.

When you are so hungry for the REAL THING, when you are the one who truly WANTS not RELIGION but the light of God to be shining forth into the dark places, and TRUE WORSHIP to permeate those places where people are hungry for the Lord, why are you mixing with those who are intent in creating some artificial, soulish, religious atmosphere which is far more comfortable in religious darkness rather than in the light of revelation??

It wouldn't be so bad, if it was just about YOU, and like you are going to try one more time to get them to like you, to get them to receive you, to get them to maybe allow you to give a prophecy that's been burning in your spirit all week long, or a word of knowledge that's been rolling around within the deep of your being for many months......and so maybe this is the Sunday that liberty will prevail, and you just MIGHT get a chance to actually obey the Lord. Maybe you just be able to lift your voice with a sharp, piercing forceful stream of tongues that would scatter the dullness in the atmosphere to cause the joy of the Lord to break forth, and set the atmosphere free. Maybe they JUST MIGHT forsake their superior religious ways to let God move.

If you don't have your own baby to take care of, go ahead and play that silly religious game that's been keeping your soul in bondage for months and maybe even years!!! But if you've got your own baby, and you think it's okay to just leave it alone with enough to get by and keep it from drowning while you still try to appease the system, and make those people like you and receive you, please in the name of the God of heaven, COME TO YOUR SENSES, and GO and take care of the baby God has given to you, and DO IT WITH YOUR WHOLE HEART, and put your strength into that baby that will rise up and bless you, and call you "Mommy" and call you "Daddy", and quit trying to fit in where you just don't fit, and where you are not wanted, and where you will never be able to please the people because you are of a DIFFERENT spirit!!! You've got the spirit and the anointing that wants to operate in the LIGHT, and not in religious darkness and bondage!! And God is calling you to raise up a generation of LIGHT AND REVELATION, so why are you still dabbling in the darkness???

And when I say "religion".........believe me, I'm not picking on the Presbyterians and the Methodists. Some of the foulest stench of religion is coming out of people who ought to know better, who've actually KNOWN the light of the glory of God, and His true presence, but then they've MADE A RELIGION OUT OF IT by thinking they could control it, order it, put it in a box, and pass it off to God's people like it's still fresh manna when it's been defiled and corrupted by too much handling and manipulation of the minds and hearts and hands of men! The ark has been steadied, and death is in the camp! 2 Samuel 6. The name "Perez- uzzah" where the ark was steadied means a break, a breach. Actually, Perez means a breach, a gap, and Uzzah means "strength. David the man of God, who knew the true spirit of God, and the true moving of the Lord rightly named the place. When you steady the ark, you cause a breach in the spirit that creates a wide open gap for all sorts of religious and familiar spirits to come in and take over the territory! When are we going to call things by their right name? When are we going to say "Perez-Uzzah" to those things that had the life of God, and that could have continued in the presence of the ark, but instead chose to somehow "fix it and make it better?"

Now, here is how my dream could have been. It could have been a totally DIFFERENT dream. The dream COULD HAVE BEEN about me enjoying my baby. It was a beautiful day out. The grass was soft and lush and very green. I could have been playing with the baby in the grass. The water off the pier was very calm, and not at all too cold. I could have been playing with the baby in the water. It would have been a beautiful time with my precious little baby that God had given to me. I love to take my little granddaughter and sing the alphabet to her, and make up funny endings to sing to her. My son goes into sweeping gales of laughter when I sing this one to her: Now, I've sung the abc's THROUGH, you will sing them when you're TWO. Do you remember when you took your little ones to the beach, or to the lake?? How much fun it was to play with them there in the water, holding them, and dancing in the water with them, and playing little games with them, and singing silly little songs in their ears, the beginnings of life long relationships with your children? Doesn't that sound FAR MORE APPEALING than some dark and stuffy and suffocating religious atmosphere??? I completely understand why Tom Sawyer or Huck Finn (can't remember which one....maybe both) played hooky from church, and went fishing!!

Where are you putting your strength?? Are you putting into things that will not profit, into a religious system that doesn't care a thing about you, or the vision God has given to you, or the burden of the Lord that impregnates your soul, or are you putting your strength and attention into your own baby, the ministry, the vision that God has very uniquely and singularly given to YOU!!??

I feel by the Holy Ghost that I am really talking to someone who needs this word. It's time for you to step out and take care of the things God has given to YOU. You don't need to wait for some catastrophic thing to happen or for a "church split" or for a prophet to come along and give you permission to obey God before you start putting your energy into the vision the Lord has given to you!! By the anointing, in Jesus Name, I release you to obey the Lord to take care of your own vision, to put your strength into your own vision, and I release you from very false responsibility to a religious system that cares nothing about you but to endlessly chew you up, and spit you out! And when I say "your own vision", it's YOURS because the Lord very carefully gave it to you to keep it and watch over it, and pray about it, and water it and cultivate it and see it come forth, but it's truly HIS vision, but HE KNEW the "steward" in His household that was the RIGHT ONE to guard this vision, which is truly HIS vision, but He has also made it YOUR vision!!! We need to fully embrace and possess and cherish the things God gives to us, as we would care for and cherish a baby in the family!

In my dream, I was very aware of something. When I left that meeting to take care of my own baby, nothing there at all changed. They still kept doing their religious thing in the dark, and felt like the atmosphere they created was the Lord, and His presence. Not a thing was missed at all by my being gone. What I did or didn't do didn't even make a flutter of a dent on their " thing" they were doing. If anything, they were probably glad to get rid of me as I wasn't in their flow. One thing about religious spirits. They NEVER realize they are "religious", and always think they have THE corner on God and the word of the Lord, and what He is doing. And usually, you have to work so hard, so very hard to get their approval and to be in good standing with them. But it's almost impossible to measure up, except for that the same diabolical religious spirits that are ruling them, are also ruling you. Birds of a feather, flock together.

But where the true spirit of God is moving and in operation, it doesn't matter what level you are at spiritually........you could be saved 5 minutes or 50 years. You could be a "seasoned saint" measuring every word with grace and the beauty of holiness, or a recently born again reckless warrior, like a bull in a China shop, thinking you're going to save the world but offending everyone you meet because you're abrasive and have had no true tempering yet. You could be any one of those people, and anywhere in between, and when you come to the true presence of God, and the presence of His Life, you NEVER feel like you're not received or loved or warmly welcomed by the family of God.

There's no sense that you're not "good enough" or "spiritual enough". The "seasoned saints" don't make you feel like you're unworthy, and like you'll never arrive. They've got something that causes you to hunger and thirst and desire more of God because what they have DRAWS you, and doesn't make you feel worthless. There's absolutely NOTHING in Jesus that's harmful or hurtful. He's holy, undefiled and harmless! Those who are truly mature in the Lord make you want to sharpen your spiritual senses, not run from their blazoned and drawn swords ready to slice you up because you're not spiritual or mature enough. Here the word of the Lord and pay due diligence to understand the atmosphere you're in. Is it a religious one, or is where God is truly moving and working and having full sway over what's happening???

I am going to add a second part to this article separately, as I feel some things the Lord has been doing recently goes along with the flow of this dream that I wish to share.

But I feel that part one should conclude here.

Part 2.

I feel like the dream I had also corresponds with a demonstration in the Spirit I recently experienced in the course of my prayer life.

First of all, I will often sit in a dark room to wait on the Lord, meditate, especially late at night or very early in the morning to wait in the stillness before the Lord, and I believe it's RIGHT to do this. It's just the Lord and myself, and I do not feel that I am dealing with foreign or familiar spirits , though these things may try to gain an entranceway , but I'm very careful to pray over the atmosphere and cleanse it of anything foreign or diabolical before a time of concentrated waiting on the Lord.

So be clear that the dream I have shared with you is not telling you that you should not wait before the Lord in such a way, or in the stillness of the darkness. He tells us to commune with Him upon our beds at night. I'm sure He realizes we'll be doing that laying there in a dark room, and not with all the lights still on.... Either way, the point is to be still and wait before Him, and that is a GOOD thing..........whether you have NO lights on, or every light in your house on!!

Recently, I had a few weeks of a certain night of the week where the Lord spoke to me that I was to actually have every light on in my home from the hour of 11 p.m. until 7 a.m. in the morning. And when God said, EVERY light, that's what He meant! I had to make sure every night light was plugged into a socket, all the bathroom lights, the utility room lights, even the lights in the closets. It was just another one of those times that the Lord was telling me to do something He commanded me to do that had something to do with spiritual warfare that I didn't particularly need to understand........I just needed to obey Him.

As I came to the close of that period of doing this time of waiting before the Lord in the middle of the night with all the lights on, I realized it was a demonstration to the spirit realm that REVELATION and LIGHT is coming that is going to uncover works of spiritual darkness happening in the lateness of the hour. By "lateness of the hour" , I am not talking about the hour on the clock, or the time of the day, I am talking about these end-times that we are living in when we are going to actually behold in the experiential realm, and not only judicially, the wresting of the kingdoms of this world out of the hands of the enemy, to be converted and translated back exclusively into the kingdom of His dear Son.

¶Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light:
13 Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son:
Colossians 1:12,13.

First, of course, the obvious work of the Spirit is that God is "making us, delivering us, and translating us". What is going to be manifested outwardly to the world, and all those things listed in the scripture below in blue , is first going to be made real to His people inwardly inside of our hearts and lives. He will first have the preeminence within us.

Who is truly seeking the Lord and desiring His very best that is not aware of the deep and penetrating searchlight of God piercing the darkness of every nook and cranny of the inward man? Sometimes it's accomplished through the heat and light of a fiery trial that brings hidden things to the surface. Sometimes, it's as simple as the Lord working through our consciences:

Proverbs 20:27 ¶The spirit of man is the candle of the LORD, searching all the inward parts of the belly For by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him:
17 And he is before all things, and by him all things consist.
18 And he is the head of the body, the church: who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead; that in all things he might have the preeminence. Colossians 1:16-18

God has been doing a deep work in the lives of His people, but the time is now to declare that there is a FINISHED WORK!! The submission of our lives to Him and His dealings gives us a right to take that very same searchlight of the Spirit that God has shined upon our lives, and shine it into the places where principalities and powers and hidden things of darkness lurk, and demand their exposure by the light of God. The Bible speaks of the saints judging not only the world, but even the angels! (1 Cor. 6:2, 3) What is the preparation for this judgment? It's that we ourselves have been dealt with and chastened and received correction as sons, and like Jesus, the Pattern Son, the prince of this world has come, and he has nothing within us!! Refs.
Hebrews 12, and John 14:30.

When the Lord put upon me to leave the lights on all night long through the wee hours, and into the morning's light, I was actually declaring to principalities and powers that the Church of the Lord Jesus Christ, filled with power and glory of God is ON THE MOVE, and going forth with such light and revelation, that no longer will these things be able to hide. They are being uncovered by the light of truth, and the radiance of His true glory.

Why do I say "true glory"?? Because there are manifestations of "false glory". False glory produces its own set of religious feelings, it's own company of false prophets, it's own generations of familiar spirits. Not every goose bump you get is from God. False glory is most likely to be manifested and produced for those who are seeking manifestations and feelings and experiences and visions apart from recognizing the need to seek the Source and the Giver of all good gifts, and usually so they can take personal advantage of it in some way. If only I'd have a major experience, then I can sell more books!! Let me give you some very serious spiritual advice: If you are seeking the Lord for a supernatural visitation and manifestation so you can get some fresh ministry fodder and write a book, CEASE AND DESIST!!! You're on dangerous territory!! You're open target for familiar spirits and field spirits!!

In fact, I'd suggest you make a promise to the Lord that if He sends you a very special and unique visitation you won't tell anyone, but cherish it in your heart, and keep it as an intimate secret between yourself and the Lord, and see what happens THEN!!! When you're crying out to God and begging Him to let you see the throne and angels and into the highest and holiest places in the heavenly realms, tell Him that you PROMISE not to say ONE WORD, except you get a very EXPRESS WORD from the Lord you are meant to share!!

My friend, I've had some encounters with saints who have seen some awesome things by the Spirit of God. People of deep prayer and sanctified lives. What they received from God was so precious, and brought such a sense of His holiness, it would NEVER cross their minds to market it!! This will sound harsh, but when the heart is purely toward Jesus, and honoring Him, you wouldn't dream of casting your pearls before the swine!

Do you know that God has a people in the earth OF MYSTERY who are yet to be revealed who are the ones who have been receiving true manifestation and vision because the goal has NEVER been manifestation, but ALWAYS Jesus!! Oh, Lord Jesus, how I want to be in THAT number!!

True glory comes from one source, and only one. It emanates out from the person of the Lord Jesus Christ. It is not it's own disconnected entity out there in the atmosphere. It never happens apart from the adoration and exaltation of the Lord Jesus Christ, whether it be through prophecy, or testimony, or song, or prayer, or preaching of the Word. You will only find "glory" where you find Jesus! He never dumps His glory off somewhere, and then takes off and leaves. He's protective of it.

Yes, the light of the true glory of God is going on, and the revelation of His word, and things that have been able to hide are going to be hidden no more! The Bible specifically declares that the end-times would be marked by false Christs, false prophets, false teachers, lying signs and wonders. Those things are manifesting among us liberally even now. They're manifesting in manipulative and controlling people in large churches. They're manifesting in the 'big fish in little pond' syndrome........that's those little ministries like a home meeting, or a small church where someone with a strong spirit comes in and usurps authority because they have a need to be seen and heard. They're manifesting in silly women who run all over the country after preachers getting revelations and giving words.

They are manifesting in people who feel it's more important to have a gift than to have their foundations rightly laid. I recently encountered a situation where someone needed to spend special time ministering to a "prophet of God" because the man was getting blown about because he didn't have his foundations correctly laid!!! Can you imagine such a thing??? Someone actually thinking they are a prophet, and they don't even know their abc's in the faith???? Unbelievable!!! And yet the church is full of such ones.

We can see these things as harmless, and in many cases they very much are. Why rock the boat? Live and let live!! But the Spirit of the Lord is telling me the lights are going on because in the process of preparation for the saints to rule and reign with Christ, there has been an advance of spiritual darkness very specifically sent forth against the church because God has allowed this to train the saints in spiritual warfare and to learn spiritual authority, even as He allowed satan to come against Job because He wanted to prove to the devil exactly what was in Job, and just what the quality of his personal metal was!!

Do we really believe we are going to be engaged in the spiritual contest of all the ages without having gone through the preparation?? The lights are going ON, and just as God told me to turn every light in my house on as a demonstration and a testimony against principalities and powers, etc, even so He is now raising up an apostolic and prophetic light-turning on brigade against the forces of darkness!!

It's coming through anointed preaching and teaching of the Word. It's going to be through the true manifestation of the gifts of the Spirit. It's going to be through the very presence of holy and sold out lives on fire for the Lord Jesus Christ. And under the anointing of the Holy Spirit, I will tell you that an unction is coming to lay the foundations with all authority in the lives of many who have claimed the Lord but have not known the deep works of God, and how He DIGS DEEP, and lays the foundation upon a SOLID ROCK within your life of relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ.

When the Lord asked Peter, "Whom do you say that I am", He wanted Peter to understand that what gave Him the right to be the ROCK upon which He would build the Church was the fact that He was in relationship with the Father. Peter understood. He didn't just say, "Thou art the Christ. (the anointed one.) That should have been enough. But understanding relationship was important: So, he said, Thou art the Christ, the Son of the Living God." (Matthew 16). If there's a church built because Jesus Christ is in relationship with the Father, then don't we need to understand we must be in relationship with Him, and with one another!!

Light is coming to expose those who don't really and truly know the Lord in relationship, and who are operating out of another spirit. Relationship with Jesus IS your foundation!

Don't be surprised if the Lord starts dealing with you strongly about fellowship ties where there is a question mark. I hear weeping and wailing in the Body of Christ because some "angels of light" who have been floating airily among the people of God like little sunbeams of sweetness are going to be manifested for the deceiving serpents that they are! The weeping and wailing is because some have had their spiritual lives and well-beings totally immersed and absorbed in these snakes, and the rending is going to be terrible as God begins to require it.

Something in me wants to soft-pedal this word so I don't hurt anyone's feelings. I do not want you to have questions about anointed vessels, but the Holy Ghost is saying that it's an hour when we'd better have the questions!! It's in this present hour, while the tares are growing up side by side with the wheat that we'd better start discerning which is which because the reapers, the messenger angels are coming, and if we have ourselves entwined around a tare that we thought was wheat, we just might get yanked up along with it!! I feel a holy fear for the people of God .

It's time for the lights to go on~!!
With all sobriety in the Spirit, recompense - reward, compensate, repay, pay, remunerate, make up for, reimburse

I want to speak to you tonight, beloved about recompense. I want you to know that your God paid a debt that He did not owe on your behalf. Rejoice in this work. Rejoice in the benefits that this mighty work brings to you, My beloved.

In the beginning, I created the heavens and the earth. I formed man to fellowship with Me ‘ to walk in My divine love. Man faltered and fell. Man could not meet the requirements of a just God, so I paid the debt ‘ I made the plans to do all of this long before you were born. You were rightly Mine before you said ‘yes’ to Me, beloved, for I had purchased you with a dear price long before you knew Me. When you said ‘yes’ to Me, dear one, you then received the greatest of gifts. You received the wonders of your God in one solid package.

So think on these words today, beloved. Ponder and rejoice over these words. They are truth everlasting. They are for you. They will enable you to grow, as you ponder their truth, accepting all that the Beloved has done for you.

I ask nothing but that you accept this work ‘ this wonderful work, and follow Me ‘ follow Me being an expression of My goodness to others. I desire that you draw closer to Me day by day, learning My ways, accepting My truth. For in the days ahead, beloved, things are going to be a bit rocky for those who have not accepted the payment the Lord God Almighty made on their behalf ‘ things are going to get VERY rocky.

So hold fast to this truth, knowing that I provided a wonderful means for you to step into the wonder of My heart. I gave Myself in payment for man’s fall. I gave Myself entirely to the cause of mankind, and that is not something to take lightly, beloved. That is something to hold close to your heart.

You are My beloved. I hold you dear, you prized possession. I did an eternal work when I died for you. I did a work that will benefit you forever. So stand strong in this truth, realizing that the One Who is holy paid the price for you, and nothing can ever change that wonderful fact ‘ that wonderful truth.

I do take delight in you, My chosen. I would do it again, if need be. But once was enough. Once was enough to open the portals of heaven and bless you mightily, offering you hope and everlasting peace of heart. Yes, once was enough.

So take this token of My wonderful love for you, knowing that I delight in you and want to move you further in My truth, further into My display of love for you, further into your rightful inheritance. For you see, dear one, the price that I paid for your freedom in Me covers much ‘ much more than you could ever imagine ‘ much more than you could ever ask or think. That is the true recompense of My love, beloved. That is the true recompense of your Savior’s love ‘ more than you could ever ask or think.

For many of God's people, you have been going through a season of testing, where the Lord has been "drawing out" and has brought your life into the open before you. Past hurts, rejections and disappointments have resurfaced and while you have been faced with the reality of what has been beneath the surface, you have been tempted to give up on yourself, to write yourself off as being unworthy, not being able to be used by the Lord and a feeling that you have missed the last train that pulled out of the station.

But the Lord would say do not give up on yourself because I have not given up on you. As My sons and daughters, I have searched your hearts and brought to light what was hidden within you. As you bring each burden before Me and leave them at My feet, not only will I bring healing and restoration but I will breathe new life into you. I will sharpen your vision and bring clear direction of where you are to go from here.

Though your enemy, the accuser of the brethren, stands and points the finger at you, yet I say, rise up and declare My word over every accusation. I have not condemned you but rather I am refining your character and enlarging your capacity to move in a greater way with Me. Leave all at My feet and let My Spirit breathe upon you, for truly where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.

Heb 12: 5-6 AMP
5. And have you [completely] forgotten the divine word of appeal and encouragement in which you are reasoned with and addressed as sons? My son, do not think lightly or scorn to submit to the correction and discipline of the Lord, nor lose courage and give up and faint when you are reproved and corrected by him
6. For the Lord corrects and disciplines everyone whom he loves, and he punishes, even scourges, every son whom he accepts and welcomes to his heart and cherishes.

Refreshing

Barbara Lynch

August 10, 2005; 12: 49AM

Tell my people I have come with My glory and I am giving refreshing wherever the river flows. Tell them that I am with them in all things. Tell them that this is the hour of great visitation from their Father, and they will be refreshed and renewed to do the great and mighty works that I am calling them forth to do.

August 4, 2005; 11:02 PM

My people who are called by name will assemble together at this given time and they shall receive divine instruction from their Heavenly Father. They shall come directly to the throne of grace and receive their orders directly from Me, their Father. There will be no more questions. There will just be instruction. I will lead, guide and direct My people in the path that they shall go and no more will they be tossed to and fro. They shall know what it is to be instructed in holiness and then to walk in holiness. I am with My peoples, I have not left them nor forsaken them as some have voiced. Oh no, on the contrary, I have been with them every step of the way and they shall soon see why they had to go down the path that they journeyed on for these past several years. Yes, it has been a hard path, but I was there every step of the way and I did not turn My back on them as some supposed. Happy are those who trusted in their Father for direction, for they shall see the salvation of the Lord.

July 19, 2005; 7: 39 AM

Many sorrows will begin to befall those who are refusing to follow Me. I have not asked much from My people, I have only asked that they love Me and follow Me, but there is so much chaos out there, to distract and sideswipe My people. They no longer look to the make as their supplier, they look to man they look to flesh. I desire to take care of My chosen ones, but they are so busy with the cares of this world that they leave Me out of the loop everyday. I have asked My children to come close, but they worship Me afar. I am asking My chosen ones at this hour to be still and know that I am God and know that I am in full control of all things, in the spirit realm and in the natural.

Remember Krakatoa

Remember Krakatoa

A Prophetic Warning for the Indonesian Archipelago

November 20, 2005

Indonesia covers a vast portion of the Pacific, comprised of over 17,500 islands between Australia and the Asian Mainland, 6,000 of which are inhabited. (The Philippines have in comparison only 7,100 islands.) Located in one of the most seismically active regions of the world, these islands lay within a very fragile part of the Pacific Ring of Fire. Interestingly, the world's most recent volcanic super-eruption took place in Indonesia only 122 years ago in 1883. The Krakatoa eruption was so powerful that it not only dissolved an entire mountain, but obliterated two-thirds of the island of Krakatoa. Tsunami were recorded as high as 40 meters (140 feet), four times higher than tsunami triggered by the 9.3 Sumatra quake on 12/26/04. Had the epicenter of the eruption been outside the middle of the Indonesian Archipelago, the loss of life would have climbed into the millions. But Borneo and Sulawesi blocked the path of the tsunami from reaching most of the Pacific. Otherwise, the west coast of America would have been devastated, not to mention 90% of Asia. To the northwest, Sumatra blocked tsunami from reaching most of the Indian Ocean. Australia was shielded by Java. Although large tidal surges were recorded around the world, the impact of the eruption outside Indonesia was insignificant because of the shielded location of the event. Instead of millions of lives, only 36,417 people perished in this spectacular volcanic super-eruption. Was this event unique in the history of Indonesia? Will such an event happen again in our lifetime?

Last year in our November 11, 2004 Report we published a strong prophetic warning for Indonesia, which gave graphic details of the coming tsunami one month before the 9.3 Sumatra quake took place. The documented report was sent to hundreds of people on our mailing list, and read by thousands on our website at www.Elijah1.com. Shortly after the 11/11 report was published, in December, 2004 the vision was no longer a prophetic warning, it had become front page news. Now exactly one year later, we are preparing to send a prophetic team into the heart of Indonesia after receiving strong prophetic warnings of greater events yet to come, earth upheavals on the scale of Krakatoa if not averted through prayer, repentance and obedience to the directives of the Holy Spirit. We have been warned that the Sumatra 9.3 quake was NOT the Big One, but a small piece of a progressive series of warnings which point to a greater event yet to come. As we draw near to the Lord's return, we need to keep a very close eye on the islands of the sea, especially in fragile areas surrounding the Pacific Ring of Fire, whereas these regions are extremely vulnerable to great quakes and volcanic cataclysms. As we prepare to depart for Indonesia on this strategic intercessory journey, please keep the islands of the Pacific in prayer, that REVIVAL would sweep across the Pacific like a massive wave of glory, and that the seas would be calmed by the PEACE of God which passes all understanding.

Blessings,

INDONESIA MISSION MOVED TO DECEMBER: This has been an extremely busy year for our ministry, with prophetic teams being launched into Australia, New Zealand, Fiji, California, and now our final assignment into Indonesia. I feel a particular urgency to complete this upcoming trip to Sumatra without delay. People often ask me, "Why is it necessary to send apostolic or prophetic teams into these nations which are on the verge of great upheavals or judgments? Can't we just pray for these areas from our homes instead of going there?" My answer is: Of course not all are called to go into these regions. But one important aspect of the prophetic office is to GO, set our feet upon the soil of the nation and blow the trumpet of warning, calling the nation into repentance and intercession so the event can ultimately be averted. Do not underestimate what can be accomplished through simple obedience to the Holy Spirit, for the anointing is more powerful than a thousand atomic bombs, and can turn around the atmosphere of an entire nation through the child-like obedience of one person. Being at the right place at the right time in the future can mean not only the difference between life and death for you and your family, but for an entire nation or region.

If you would like to sow a special gift towards our upcoming Indonesian mission, please send all donations to our new permanent Bend, Oregon address listed below. This mission is currently on hold until funding materializes. Our New Zealand mission was supported by New Zealand, Fiji Mission sponsored by California, Australia mission supported by Australia, but thus far no nation has stood in the gap for Indonesia. We need approximately two-thousand, five-hundred dollars to proceed with this important mission. December is a critical time for Indonesia, which is 88% Moslem, 8% Christian. Persecution of Christians has been on the rise in many provinces of Indonesia such as Sulawesi, where recently 3 school girls were beheaded near their Christian school, followed by several other students being shot in the head, simply for being Christian. As we approach Christmas, the only hope of peace in Indonesia is through intervention from the Prince of Peace. Please consider supporting our upcoming Indonesian mission in behalf of your nation today, for our time is quickly running out to act and intervene on behalf of Indonesia. The blood of the martyrs is crying out from the ground for judgment, and make no mistake about it, our immediate response to the warnings received for this part of the world will determine the events which will soon manifest. If you think this matter does not concern your nation, remember Krakatoa. The next volcanic super-eruption in the Pacific may not be shielded by 17,000 islands.

To support our upcoming Indonesian mission, please send all donations to:

Release

Lanna Perry

The Lord longs to bring release to all who seek Him. The Lord longs to bring release to people's lives as they continue to walk with Him and continue to ride the rollercoaster of faith.

Release is an amazing gift from God. The release from bondage, the release from sin, the release from one season to another, the release of anointing, the release of God's provision. The Lord is a God of release. He loves to release His children into greater freedom. He longs to bring greater release of joy, freedom and peace into your life as you continue to keep your eyes firmly focused upon Him.

The Lord does not desire for His children to be kept under oppression. The Lord does not desire for heaviness to be a backpack that you or any of His children carry around daily. The Lord does not desire for depression and anxiety to be constant companions of His children. The Lord does not desire for His children to be constantly struggling through life.

God gave His children, the ultimate release when sending His Son Jesus to save us from our sins, and guarantee us eternal life as we choose to seek and follow Him wholeheartedly. For God did not send His Son Jesus to pay the price for us to live a life void of release. He came so we MAY life a life of complete release. (John 10:10) God's heart is not for you to live a life tied to bondage, heaviness, oppression and darkness. So why do many still live this way? Jesus paid the price for His children to live in complete freedom.

For it is only in the place of complete surrender before Jesus, that His true release can come. Many wait on Him for release into a new season. For a release of His miraculous movements, or for a release of His provision. For the Holy Spirit loves to cultivate and grow the heart of His children. True release only comes once the old is finished. Once the old has come to completion. God is a God of completion. What He has started, He is faithful to finish. (Phil 1:6)

Relinquishment - Release goes hand in hand with relinquishment. Release cannot come without the relinquishing of ones will and ones desires. God is looking for His children to be children that are living lives of continual relinquishment. Completely committed to relinquishing their desires and rights to serve themselves, on a daily basis. A surrender, a complete and pure surrender that has not been seen in great numbers by the world before. The Lord is wanting to rise up His church in a new and radical way. A group of believers whose hearts are radically surrendered to Him.

Whilst contemplating the word release I kept hearing the words in my spirit. Refusing release through relinquishment means no peace. Refusing to release your hearts and lives completely to the Lord, automatically removes peace out ones life. Why? Because without complete surrender to God, a human is not truly living. As humans we were created to be in relationship with Jesus Christ, and to be in complete relationship means to be completely surrendered to Him daily (Luke 14:27). Not just by words, but in the very actions of our lives and desires of our hearts.

Rejoice - It is important to always rejoice while waiting for release to come. Rejoice no matter your circumstances. Rejoice no matter what your heart feels. Rejoice no matter what your heart or people tell you. Rejoice in the release of God's character in the person of Jesus Christ. Rejoice, for has God changed? Surely not! God is good, and even if He didn't do one more thing for you and I, He is worthy of all our honour and our praise.

If you are waiting for release into your destiny, rejoice in the release of today. Rejoice in the release of God's power in your life today. Rejoice in the release of God's blessings in your life today. Rejoice in the release of the revelations of God's character and heart for you in your life today. Rejoice in the release of God's provision in your life today. As you continue to rejoice in today's release, the greater future release will come to you in a greater way than you expect.

Focus not on when your release will come, but focus on the release that has already come in your life today. Rejoice in this!

The Bible says that His mercies are new every morning. Every morning the Lord releases His grace, His love, and His blessings into your life. Each day they are new. So as you continue to focus on the release of today, the release of being sent out into the desired ministries that He has for you, will come to you at the allotted time, and the process will not be slowed by wrong focus.

Rejoicing and praising Him releases His power in our lives.

God is calling His children to be hungry for release.

God is now releasing an increase of anointing upon His church. Upon those who are truly seeking Him above all. The Lord's desire is for His church to walk fully in the release of the anointing upon their lives.

Are you waiting for release in your life? Whatever your circumstance God longs to bring that release to you. Our heavenly Father will not withhold any good thing from those who love Him. (Matt 7:11) As you continue to surrender your heart in complete obedience to Him (relinquishment), and hold tightly to the promises that He has given you, and rejoice in the release you have already received, you will see great release of the Holy Spirit's power in your life, in whichever manifestation you are requiring. You just need to take the first few steps each day, and God will go a mile.

God's heart is to release you. Release you forward into the destiny He has for you, release you from captivity and release you from circumstances that hold you down.

Choose to relinquish and rejoice, and release will come.

When God looks at a heart completely surrendered to Him, He cannot help but move, it's His character to always release good things and more of Himself. He loves to move in your life. He loves to change you into His image, and He loves to love you. He loves YOU.

Hunger for release.

Relinquish, Rejoice, Release!!!!

Let's be RRRadical for Him.

Renouncements
Priscilla Van Sutphin

May 27th , 2005 2:33 am

The Lord spoke ‘renouncements’ and then had me look up these scriptures…

Ps 23:3 NKJV He restores my soul; He leads me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Jer 23:3-4 NKJV "But I will gather the remnant of My flock out of all countries where I have driven them, and bring them back to their folds; and they shall be fruitful and increase. 4 I will set up shepherds over them who will feed them; and they shall fear no more, nor be dismayed, nor shall they be lacking," says the LORD.

Job 2:4-6 AMP Then Satan answered the Lord, Skin for skin! Yes, all that a man has will he give for his life. 5 But put forth Your hand now, and touch his bone and his flesh, and he will curse and renounce You to Your face.
6 And the Lord said to Satan, Behold, he is in your hand; only spare his life.

Prov 11:2 AMP When swelling and pride come, then emptiness and shame come also, but with the humble (those who are lowly, who have been pruned or chiseled by trial, and renounce self) are skillful and godly Wisdom and soundness.

Luke 14:33-35 AMP
33 So then, any of you who does not forsake (renounce, surrender claim to, give up, say good-bye to) all that he has cannot be My disciple.
34 Salt is good [an excellent thing], but if salt has lost its strength and has become saltless (insipid, flat), how shall its saltness be restored?
35 It is fit neither for the land nor for the manure heap; men throw it away. He who has ears to hear, let him listen and consider and comprehend by hearing!

Titus 1:11 AMP Their mouths must be stopped, for they are mentally distressing and subverting whole families by teaching what they ought not to teach, for the purpose of getting base advantage and disreputable gain…
Titus 1:16 AMP They profess to know God [to recognize, perceive, and be acquainted with Him], but deny and disown and renounce Him by what they do; they are detestable and loathsome, unbelieving and disobedient and disloyal and rebellious, and [they are] unfit and worthless for good work (deed or enterprise) of any kind.

Titus 2:12 AMP It has trained us to reject and renounce all ungodliness (irreligion) and worldly (passionate) desires, to live discreet (temperate, self-controlled), upright, devout (spiritually whole) lives in this present world,

Heb 11:37-38 AMP They were stoned to death; they were lured with tempting offers [to renounce their faith]; they were sawn asunder; they were slaughtered by the sword; [while they were alive] they had to go about wrapped in the skins of sheep and goats, utterly destitute, oppressed, cruelly treated--38 [Men] of whom the world was not worthy--roaming over the desolate places and the mountains, and [living] in caves and caverns and holes of the earth.

Then He spoke:
“My beloveds, you are the salt of the earth, but if the salt loses it’s flavor, how will it be restored? You don’t hide a light under a bushel basket. You let it SHINE, SHINE, SHINE!! I have not called you to pride, position, and the power of the world, but I have asked you to be servants to one another, just as I washed the feet of the apostles. You are to do so without constraint!

I have called you to walk with Me, but not in envying and strife. I am looking for renouncements in My people – renouncements of this world and all it has to offer, for only when you are free from the entrapments of it, then can you be trusted with true power and the fullness of what I have for you! Your heart must be willing to die to SELF. The reason I bless you is out of LOVE, not striving, not selfish ambition, trying to make a name for yourselves, but out of MY LOVE FOR YOU. And it is so YOU can be a blessing to others, not to acclaim position and power that is earthly or sensual.

I am the LORD and there is no other like ME. I am coming to right all that is wrong in the church. So position yourselves in the lowest place, in the place of humility. I am looking for you to go lower, not higher! Bend your hearts, and bend your knees to the LORD OF GLORY and HE will come in and have fellowship and union with you. There is MUCH, MUCH MORE of ME that is available to you if you will humble yourselves and pray and renounce the world and all it offers. That doesn't mean I won't bless you with earthly things, but just so that they are not the idol they have been in the churched.

Many are trying to preserve their positions and power by accusing others before me, but that is not necessary, as I know what is in the heart of a man. Only I KNOW what is in their hearts. YOU ARE NOT THE JUDGE.
I AM! So lay down your swords against your brothers and take up the sword of the word and BLESS those who curse you and pray for those who have spitefully used you. I am the ONE Who is separating, and testing and trying
The flock. My winds are blowing and they will blow stronger still to divide the wicked from the just. The western church MUST be cleansed of it's dirt and mud. Lay hold of the hem of MY GARMENT and humble yourselves in My presence and ask ME to heal your hearts and attitudes.

I am the TREE of LIFE and in My presence no one can stand. I will be cleansing and empowering in GREAT GRACE those who have been so wounded and bludgeoned. I will turn the hearts of the wicked, whom you have disdained instead of laying down your lives for, and use them sooner than anyone who would lift HIMSELF up before ME. I will exalt the humble and lay low the prideful and arrogant in this hour. So pray that your heart would be free of all that so easily besets you. I am shaking and I am going to shake all the trees in my garden to see if fruit is still standing – to see if the limbs and leaves are sturdy and healthy and full of MY LIFE.

Leviathan rises it's head in the form of Jezebel in this hour. And only if you are free from it yourself, will you be able to slay the spirit that seeks to destroy you and all who lift up MY NAME. RENOUNCE all pride, ego, vanity, arrogance and unthankfulness, discontentment, intolerance, frustration and impatience. Allow ME to be HEAD over your lives. SURRENDER the whole of your lives to ME. EVERYTHING – everything belongs to ME. You would have nothing without My blessing you. So what can you lose? What can a man profit by gaining the whole world but losing his soul?

How can you discern oh man, if you do not read My Word and ask ME to help you to understand it? Why is your life so busy oh downhearted one? Is it not because you have not entered the QUIET PLACE with ME and spent time in My presence? I AM THE SOURCE of all you need. LAY DOWN YOUR LIVES and I will give you MY LIFE – My Resurrection Life! MY LOVE, MY JOY, MY PEACE, MY HUMILITY, MY PROVISION, MY FAVOR! Allow me to completely possess your soul! Ask and you shall receive, for I LOVE YOU, as no other can love you. I am JEALOUS for you My beloveds! Draw in to My love. Draw closer to Me, and I will draw closer to YOU!

Truth And The Inner Man
Priscilla Van Sutphin

May 23rd, 2005

The Lord spoke to me…"truth and the inner man."

Ps 63:1 AMP O GOD, You are my God, earnestly will I seek You; my inner self thirsts for You, my flesh longs and is faint for You, in a dry and weary land where no water is.

Eph 3:16 AMP May He grant you out of the rich treasury of His glory to be strengthened and reinforced with mighty power in the inner man by the [Holy] Spirit [Himself indwelling your innermost being and personality].

Rev 2:5 AMP Remember then from what heights you have fallen. Repent (change the inner man to meet God's will) and do the works you did previously [when first you knew the Lord], or else I will visit you and remove your lampstand from its place, unless you change your mind and repent.

“ I want to say something to My beloveds about the renewing of your inner man - the healing of your souls. I am the Creator God, Elohim, and it is I Who created you in Our image and likeness. It was with the Words I spoke that creation was launched. And with the Word that is written, called the Bible, that your minds are to be renewed daily. The logos helps you to know truth. But it is only as it is translated by My Spirit to penetrate the darkness inside of you, that you are set free. This is why many can read the word over and over and some truth comes, but if they don’t depend on the Spirit to teach them and lead them, then it becomes religious and futile.

The Pharisees knew the Word, and yet they did not KNOW the WORD.

The rhema is what I speak to you, and by it your soul and inner man is quickened to understand, to know, and to know My wisdom. THIS is the TRUTH that sets you free. You can know to do something right, yet be unable to DO it, because of demonic strongholds in your mind, will, and heart.

I deliver in many ways the sons of men. Just as I am creative, I also have many ways to deliver and heal that are suited to the individual person and their background. I don’t treat or speak to everyone in the same way, but according to their knowledge and life experiences. I alone know all these.

The knowledge then of the truth is PROGRESSIVE in that you don’t download all truth the moment you read it. It is only when the Spirit quickens it to your soul with understanding, that it has an effect. And still, it may cause you to WANT to be free, yet you are not always instantly delivered. Yet I am a FAITHFUL and RIGHTEOUS GOD, and I know what it takes to heal each one, and I will do it, as that person seeks ME, and as I will. Some things are left in place at times to produce endurance and perserverance in character. For if I suddenly did everything, then no one would understand others with whom it has taken longer to get free, or to understand the torment that others go through.

Rom 5:3-4 AMP Moreover [let us also be full of joy now!] let us exult and triumph in our troubles and rejoice in our sufferings, knowing that pressure and affliction and hardship produce patient and unswerving endurance.

4 And endurance (fortitude) develops maturity of character (approved faith and tried integrity). And character [of this sort] produces [the habit of] joyful and confident hope of eternal salvation.

Repeated encounters with frustration and failure also bring humility that makes you realize that apart from ME, you can do nothing. Pride is the root of many and various sins and sickness. So as I root out that sin & pride, one becomes more free to be, and more free to do MY will, and not just your own. Walking in the Spirit perfectly requires freedom from demonic strongholds. But you are not free so easily when there has been great pain and suffering in a life. This is because the church has not walked in the perfection I intended, but through the years, has lost the power of the Spirit and it’s doctrines and holiness have been eaten away.

Soon, that will change! Soon, I will come in power and RESTORE all that has been stolen. Soon, anyone who is IN CHRIST WILL BE A NEW CREATION and you will see it and marvel! Many will be instantly healed and delivered at the same time! This will be quite startling for those whose doctrines have been full of untruths and half truths. And it will cause a great RUMBLING and SEPARATION in My church. Those who accept My ways, and the power of My Spirit will walk in great authority and power, but those who don't will dry up and no longer be of any effect. A new world order is emerging whose roots are in the occult and antichrist in nature. Those who are not firm in foundations will easily fall to the lies and compromise. So strengthen the hands that hang low, and the feeble knees! Strengthen your brothers and sisters as best you can. And KNOW that I am coming quickly and will RESTORE all the locusts have eaten. Keep close to ME My beloveds! Keep your eyes on ME. Keep in the Word, and in the WORD. You are IN CHRIST, and seated in heavenly places.

REMEMBER THAT DAILY! Remember Whose you are! REMEMBER the power of your GOD to deliver and keep you. Remember how much I love you!

RESTORATION is coming in powerful and startling ways. Your hearts will leap and rejoice and you will be encouraged GREATLY in your FAITH. Do not shrink back. Strengthen your inner man with the washing of the Word, and the in the PRESENCE of the HOLY SPIRIT daily. Seek FIRST the KINGDOM of GOD and His righteousness and all you need will be provided.

OT:5315 nephesh (neh'-fesh); from OT:5314; properly, a breathing creature, i.e. animal of (abstractly) vitality; used very widely in a literal, accommodated or figurative sense (bodily or mental): [soul, inner self]

(Biblesoft's New Exhaustive Strong's Numbers and Concordance with Expanded Greek-Hebrew Dictionary. Copyright © 1994, 2003 Biblesoft, Inc. and International Bible Translators, Inc.)

Ps 6:3-4 AMP My [inner] self [as well as my body] is also exceedingly disturbed and troubled. But You, O Lord, how long [until You return and speak peace to me]? 4 Return [to my relief], O Lord, deliver my life; save me for the sake of Your steadfast love and mercy.

Ps 16:9-10 AMP Therefore my heart is glad and my glory [my inner self] rejoices; my body too shall rest and confidently dwell in safety,10 For You will not abandon me to Sheol (the place of the dead), neither will You suffer Your holy one [Holy one] to see corruption. [Acts 13:35.]

Ps 31:9 AMP Have mercy and be gracious unto me, O Lord, for I am in trouble; with grief my eye is weakened, also my inner self and my body.

Ps 41:4 AMP I said, Lord, be merciful and gracious to me; heal my inner self, for I have sinned against You.

Ps 42:2 AMP My inner self thirsts for God, for the living God. When shall I come and behold the face of God? [John 7:37; 1 Thess 1:9,10.]

Ps 43:5 AMP Why are you cast down, O my inner self? And why should you moan over me and be disquieted within me? Hope in God and wait expectantly for Him, for I shall yet praise Him, Who is the help of my [sad] countenance, and my God.

Ps 57:8 AMP Awake, my glory (my inner self); awake, harp and lyre! I will awake right early [I will awaken the dawn]!

Ps 138:3 AMP In the day when I called, You answered me; and You strengthened me with strength (might and inflexibility to temptation) in my inner self.

Ps 139:14-18 AMP I will confess and praise You for You are fearful and wonderful and for the awful wonder of my birth! Wonderful are Your works, and that my inner self knows right well. 15 My frame was not hidden from You when I was being formed in secret [and] intricately and curiously wrought [as if embroidered with various colors] in the depths of the earth [a region of darkness and mystery]. 16

Your eyes saw my unformed substance, and in Your book all the days [of my life] were written before ever they took shape, when as yet there was none of them. 17 How precious and weighty also are Your thoughts to me, O God! How vast is the sum of them! [Ps 40:5.]

18 If I could count them, they would be more in number than the sand. When I awoke, [could I count to the end] I would still be with You.

Ps 143:12 AMP And in your mercy and loving-kindness, cut off my enemies and destroy all those who afflict my inner self, for I am Your servant.

Prov 3:15-26 AMP Skillful and godly Wisdom is more precious than rubies; and nothing you can wish for is to be compared to her. [Job 28:12-18.]

16 Length of days is in her right hand, and in her left hand are riches and honor. [Prov 8:12-21; 1 Tim 4:8.]

17 Her ways are highways of pleasantness, and all her paths are peace.

18 She is a tree of life to those who lay hold on her; and happy (blessed, fortunate, to be envied) is everyone who holds her fast.

19 The Lord by skillful and godly Wisdom has founded the earth; by understanding He has established the heavens. [Col 1:16.]

20 By His knowledge the deeps were broken up, and the skies distill the dew. 21 My son, let them not escape from your sight, but keep sound and godly Wisdom and discretion, 22 And they will be life to your inner self, and a gracious ornament to your neck (your outer self).

23 Then you will walk in your way securely and in confident trust, and you shall not dash your foot or stumble. [Ps 91:11,12; Prov 10:9.]

24 When you lie down, you shall not be afraid; yes, you shall lie down, and your sleep shall be sweet. 25 Be not afraid of sudden terror and panic, nor of the stormy blast or the storm and ruin of the wicked when it comes [for you will be guiltless], 26 For the Lord shall be your confidence, firm and strong, and shall keep your foot from being caught [in a trap or some hidden danger].

Lam 3:24 AMP The Lord is my portion or share, says my living being (my inner self); therefore will I hope in Him and wait expectantly for Him. [Num 18:20.]

Hab 3:16-19 AMP I heard and my [whole inner self] trembled; my lips quivered at the sound. Rottenness enters into my bones and under me [down to my feet]; I tremble. I will wait quietly for the day of trouble and distress when there shall come up against [my] people him who is about to invade and oppress them. 17 Though the fig tree does not blossom and there is no fruit on the vines, [though] the product of the olive fails and the fields yield no food, though the flock is cut off from the fold and there are no cattle in the stalls, 18 Yet I will rejoice in the Lord; I will exult in the [victorious] God of my salvation! [Rom 8:37.] 19 The Lord God is my Strength, my personal bravery, and my invincible army; He makes my feet like hinds' feet and will make me to walk [not to stand still in terror, but to walk] and make [spiritual] progress upon my high places [of trouble, suffering, or responsibility]!

Luke 11:41 AMP But [dedicate your inner self and] give as donations to the poor of those things which are within [of inward righteousness] and behold, everything is purified and clean for you.

Rom 2:4 AMP Or are you [so blind as to] trifle with and presume upon and despise and underestimate the wealth of His kindness and forbearance and long-suffering patience? Are you unmindful or actually ignorant [of the fact] that God's kindness is intended to lead you to repent (to change your mind and inner man to accept God's will)?

2 Cor 4:16 AMP Therefore we do not become discouraged (utterly spiritless, exhausted, and wearied out through fear). Though our outer man is [progressively] decaying and wasting away, yet our inner self is being [progressively] renewed day after day.

Eph 5:26-27 NIV to make her holy, cleansing her by the washing with water through the word, 27 and to present her to himself as a radiant church, without stain or wrinkle or any other blemish, but holy and blameless.

Titus 3:5-7 AMP He saved us, not because of any works of righteousness that we had done, but because of His own pity and mercy, by [the] cleansing [bath] of the new birth (regeneration) and renewing of the Holy Spirit, 6 Which He poured out [so] richly upon us through Jesus Christ our Savior. 7 [And He did it in order] that we might be justified by His grace (by His favor, wholly undeserved), [that we might be acknowledged and counted as conformed to the divine will in purpose, thought, and action], and that we might become heirs of eternal life according to [our] hope.

Heb 9:9 AMP Seeing that that first [outer portion of the] tabernacle was a parable (a visible symbol or type or picture of the present age). In it gifts and sacrifices are offered, and yet are incapable of perfecting the conscience or of cleansing and renewing the inner man of the worshiper.

Eph 4:23 AMP And be constantly renewed in the spirit of your mind [having a fresh mental and spiritual attitude],

Col 3:10 AMP And have clothed yourselves with the new [spiritual self], which is [ever in the process of being] renewed and remolded into [fuller and more perfect knowledge upon] knowledge after the image (the likeness) of Him Who created it. [Gen 1:26.]

Religion Or Relationship
Ephraim Frank

July 22, 2005
Shalom Fellow Israelite

Why did YHVH send His only begotten Son into this world?

Did He send Him to give His life and die for the purpose of starting a new religion called Christianity or Messianism? Did Yeshua shed his blood in order to restore a religion called Judaism? Or better yet, did He come to combine the two into one Judeo-Christian religious expression? Why did the Father send the Son? In Luke chapter one we read the message that the angel Gabriel brought from YHVH to Miriam, and the word of prophecy which was uttered by Zechariah the priest, when filled with the Spirit of Holiness. Both announced the Father's purposes for sending Yeshua:

- To redeem His people (v. 68).
- To raise up a horn of salvation for us in the House of His servant David (v 69).
- To sit on the throne of His father David (v.32).
- To save us from our enemies, from those who hate us (v.71).
- To show mercy to our fathers (those who received no mercy - Lo-ruhamah - ref. Hosea 1:6).
- To remember His holy covenant, which He swore to our father Abraham (vs. 72- 73), whereby He committed Himself to give him a land, to "make him" a nation and a blessing (Gen. 12:2-3).
- To bring deliverance from our enemies, that we might serve Him without fear, in holiness and righteousness before Him all the days of our life (vs.74-75).
- To rule and reign in the House of Jacob forever, and there to set up an everlasting kingdom (v.33).

None of these objectives appear to have anything to do with religion, or with some other form of temple worship. Rather, Yeshua came to restore a relationship between His Father and us, His people, His inheritance. He also came to restore the House of Jacob, meaning the relationship between the Two Houses of Ephraim and Judah and to break down the enmity and jealousy between the brothers.

"Listen, O coastlands, to Me and take heed, you peoples from afar! YHVH has called Me from the womb; from the matrix of My mother He has made mention of My name" (Isa. 49:1). "You shall call His name Yeshua [salvation]" (Luke 1:31). "And now YHVH says, Who formed Me from the womb to be His Servant, to bring Jacob back to Him, so that Israel is gathered to Him. Indeed He says, `It is too small a thing that You should be My Servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob, and to restore the preserved ones of Israel; I will also give You as a light to the nations, that You should be My salvation [Yeshuah] to the ends of the earth,'" (Isaiah 49:5-6). How were all these objectives to be fulfilled?

Before sin marred the relationship between the Creator and Adam, man was required only to "listen and walk". After YHVH redeemed Israel from Egypt and slavery, they too, as a nation, were told the same thing: "Listen to My voice and walk in My ways." When Israel failed to do that and missed the mark (sinned), YHVH gave them a religion, using the Aaronic Priesthood. Sin was the reason for religion. As long as we remain in sin, we will always have a need for some religious expression. But what was YHVH's promise to the nation of Israel? "For as the heavens are high above the earth, so great is His mercy toward those who fear Him; As far as the east is from the west, so far has He removed our transgressions from us" (Psalm 103:11-12). "But You have lovingly delivered my soul from the pit of corruption, for You have cast all my sins behind Your back" (Isaiah 38:17). "I, even I, am He who blots out your transgressions for My own sake; And I will not remember your sins" (Isa.43:25). "And I will remove the iniquity of that land in one day. In that day, everyone will invite his neighbor under his vine and under his fig tree'" (Zechariah 3:10).

Notice that when sin and iniquity are removed, relationships are made possible. How did the Father accomplish this reconciliation? "Now, once at the end of the ages, He has appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of Himself" (Hebrews 9:26). Remember what John the Immerser declared when He saw Yeshua? "Behold the Lamb of Elohim that takes away the sin of the world" (John 1:29). "YHVH was reconciling the world to Himself in the Messiah, not imputing their trespasses to them, and has committed to us the word of reconciliation" (2 Corinthians 5:19). "By Him to reconcile all things to Himself, by Him, whether things on earth or things in heaven, having made peace through the blood of His cross" (Colossians 1:20). This is why Paul insisted only on one thing: "For I determined not to know anything among you except Yeshua the Messiah and Him crucified" (1 Corinthians 2:2).

Yeshua died to atone for sin and to remove it altogether. How did He do this? By being offered on the cross as the perfect lamb for the sacrifice. He fulfilled every requirement of the religious system. In removing sin as far as the east is from the west, He removed the need for a religious structure and restored the priesthood according to the Order of Melchizedek (ref. Hebrews 4:14-5:10; 7). This was the priesthood that all Israel was to partake of. By virtue of the Torah being inscribed on the heart, worship was to be in spirit and in truth (John 4:23), resulting in TRUE relationships. For do you not know this about yourselves that you are a tabernacle of the Spirit of Holiness (ref. 1Cor.3:16), that Yeshua the Messiah dwells in you (ref. 2Cor.13:5) and that you have died and that your life is hidden in His, and that He is NOW your life (ref. Col.3:4, Gal.2:20)? Faith is what reveals this reality, but if we hold to an outward form of religion, we actually deny His presence within our Holy of Holies (our spirit). This will bring about the anti-Christ lie, which denies that Yeshua came in the flesh, (in this case the spirit-filled believer's flesh). John explains to us that the world is under the power of the evil one (1 John 5:19), meaning all of the world's political and religious institutions. In verse 21 he warns, "Children keep yourselves from idols". But "sandwiched" between those two verses is a powerful statement of truth: "We know that the Son of YHVH has come and has given us understanding, that we may know Him who is true; and we are in Him who is true, in His Son Yeshua the Messiah. This is the true Elohim and eternal life" (v.20).

Yeshua is restoring the "fallen Succah (booth) of David" by uniting a remnant of the Two Houses, and by being enthroned in the hearts of the individuals who form this remnant. Through the reunited House of Jacob (the nation Israel), He will administer the Everlasting Kingdom government to the rest of the nations. It is therefore imperative that we come out of religion into right relationships and our set holy national identity.

Be separate and wait for YHVH who will whistle for us to return to the land (ref. Zec.10:8), there to become a royal priesthood after the Order of Melchizedek, and a holy nation; thus the covenant that YHVH made with our father Abraham, to become a blessing to the rest of the nations, will be possible.

Shabbat Shalom
Ephraim

Behold how good and how pleasant it is for brothers to dwell together in unity. for in this YHVH commands the blessing "life eternal" (Ps. 133).

Repent

My precious church.....My precious body.....My precious followers....My precious children....how I long for you as My church to shine brighter than the noonday sun. How I long for each of you to operate in My Spirit's power and in deeper unity.

I am grieved My precious church, because I see so much pollution and so much disunity within My church, and My heart is grieved. I am longing to do great things through you My church, but there is so much pollution in My church.

I love each of you so much, and I love My body so much. Repent My church. Repent for your Idolatry, Repent of your worship of things that are NOT from Me. Repent for your sins and for your devotion to other things. Repent for allowing unrepentant sin into My house.

My precious church, you are the vehicle carrying My presence. Do not disgrace My name, but allow My Glory to rest among you, and to shine out of you in greater ways than ever before. I am calling you My church, as individuals and corporately to check your hearts before Me. Come before Me and check your hearts. Allow Me to show you things within you heart and within the body that are allowing the evil one to bring about havoc and division within My church. Come to Me, and allow Me to show you, so you may walk in all that I am calling you to, both individually and corporately.

I the Lord your God will not tolerate unrepentant sin, and I see much of this within My church today. Do not disgrace the name of the Lord your God. Repent, for time is short, and I am longing to pour out My Spirit in greater ways through those who are willing to continue to die to flesh, die to their desires and programs. I am waiting My church. I am waiting to do a new thing. Judgment will come upon My church, because of the unrepentant sin.

My church has become self-focused and is not focusing on what I am speaking. I am speaking "Repent, and turn your hearts BACK to Me". My precious church, you are My joy, do not continue walking in this way. Do not continue walking in sin and complacency.

Repent, allow Me to show the world My Glory through you. Allow Me to show the world, how great I am. Do not become like the world My church. Do not hide behind My name, but allow unrepentant sin into your hearts and churches. Stop now, and listen to Me.

Come before Me, let me embrace you, and remove all your idols. Let Me show you more of who I am, and let My Spirit show you what "I" want to do, not what you want to do. Let Me pour My love over you and My forgiveness and show you what I am doing.

Stop polluting My church. Continually come before Me individually and corporately....and listen to Me. Sacrifice what I am asking, even if you do not understand, sacrifice for Me, and let Me lead you in the path of everlasting. Do not be deceived any longer, but rise up, and let Me begin to use My church for what it was created for. To shine My Glory.

Stop becoming like the world enjoying your sin. Step OUT of your sin and idolatry...and TRULY come to Me and repent. Give Me your hearts truly. TRULY count the cost, and TRULY repent.

Judgment will come to those who are not repenting, and to My church. I am drawing the line in the sand now My church. I love you so much, but will not tolerate pollution within My house. Choose today

My church, choose to continue to walk in your ways, or repent and walk in the ways of the Lord Almighty.

The Bread Of Life

June 25th Sydney Australia

My precious children, many of you I see are in the place of desperation. Crying out to Me, "Lord WHEN, Lord HOW" I see many of you with an earnest desire to seek Me and an earnest desire to serve Me. I have seen your hearts and I am well pleased. I am well pleased with those of you who have sought after Me with all your hearts, you have sacrificed what I have asked, you have obeyed Me and continue to move forward in what seems to be a place without direction.

My precious friends, I have called you, I have chosen you and I have hidden you lately. I have hidden you so you may come to know Me in greater ways before I send you out. I have drawn you into the desert, into the quiet place where you can hear My voice and see Me. Where you are completely focused on Me and completely living for every word that comes from My mouth.

I see the desperation and the frustration within your hearts, and to you I say "soon" My children soon will you 'see', will you 'understand' and will you 'know'.

For I am the bread of life. I am the fresh bread from heaven, and I am all that you need. I am showing each of you that all you need is Me. That even when the physical side of life around you may not be going the way you desire, or may be planning out the way you intended, that I am all you need. As you continue to come to Me, and feast on Me daily, you will never hunger or thirst again.

As you continue to come to Me, and feast on every word that comes from My mouth and the beat of My heart, you will rejoice in your waiting. You will be captivated by My beauty and your focus will be on Me, and not the time and way that you will be sent out, or see how the future is to be planned out for you.

I love your desires to serve Me, and get out and do great things for Me, in greater ways, and I will soon show you the way, but for now, remain where I have placed you and allow Me to continue to cultivate you.

For I am grieved at the state of My church. I am grieved that the church has turned it's hearts away from Me, and has allowed sin to enter in. I am grieved that complacency has found it's way within My church, and that a lot of My children are not following hard after Me.

Those of you that I have called, and have placed specific callings on your lives, you My children, will be a light even unto My church. I will use you to shine My light to even those who know Me. I will shine My light through each of you, to show My church, My followers what it means to radically follow Me. For I am calling My church to turn back to Me, to repent and seek Me again, to know that I am their daily bread and they need NOTHING apart from Me.

For I am your daily bread, and NOTHING will ever satisfy the way that I do. I have called all of My children to come, to sit at My feet and receive, but many are running in the world trying to find what only I can give.

Be prepared My children, for a time is coming soon that I will rise up all My warriors who have been in waiting. Soon the release will come. Not one minute to early, or one minute too late.

Come, seek Me and allow Me to show you again and again, that I the bread of life are ALL that you need. That ALL things fall away in My presence. That NOTHING else matters when you stand before Me. Get your focus right, feast on Me, your daily bread, embrace Me, and put Me first. Receive more and more from Me, and then you will see ALL other things added unto you.

Barren Places Filled With Hope

Many of you are finding yourselves in a place where you feel abundance has left you. Many of you are feeling that what you have hoped for and have dreamed of for so long, has been taken away from you, stripped, and you are alone in a barren place.

My children, let me say to you today, you are not alone. I am with you in this place. You are not in these places because of your sin, you are not in these places because you have heard me incorrectly, you are in these places because I am refining your character. I am refining you, preparing you and moulding you. I am teaching you in this place to hold onto Me alone. That I am all that you have.

I am doing My work in each of you, and you will come forth as pure gold. You will come forth and you will shine as brighter than the sun, if you continue to comply with My gentle hand working in your lives.

I am looking at each of your hearts. What is your heart attitude in this place? I am cultivating a thankful attitude in your hearts, that you may praise Me no matter what your circumstances speak to you. I am teaching you, that I am good, and when everything else seems to be taken away, you have all that you need in Me.

For a great shaking is coming to this earth, and a time of judgment and I need strong soldiers to be on the frontline. Not soldiers who are walking in their own strength, but soldiers who have been tried and tested and proved faithful. Soldiers who have remained in the desert, the barren place with Me, and have learnt to cling to Me, and remain in Me at all times.

Soldiers who have learnt to not move one step forward or one step back unless they hear the voice of their God. Soldiers who have learnt what it means to continue to die to self, and live for Christ alone. These are the warriors which I am sending forth.

There is much pain, and suffering now in this time, but it will not last. Oh, how I am about to bless each of you that are walking through this season joyfully. You have no idea of the abundance, peace, joy and provision that awaits each of you. You have no idea what I am about to do in and through each of you.

In this barren place I am stripping from your hearts all that is not of Me, and I am giving you My heart. Think of the times you have asked Me, Lord let me see the way you see, let me have your heart, let me hear what you are saying....I am answering your prayers, My precious, precious children.

I delight in each of you so much. You may look around and see a barren place, but this place contains such hope, such promise, and such opportunity that you have never dreamed. The opportunity of being in the place I desire you to be. That place being, a place of complete and utter desperation for Me, and a reliance on Me that can only come through walking through this season.

Do not be discouraged My children, for great is the season you are in, and as you continue to cleave your hearts to Mine, you will rejoice in this place, seeing these places, as places of great opportunity.

In this place of what seems to be barrenness I am pouring out My Spirit on each of you in ways you've never dreamed. You may not feel it or see it in the ways that you think, but I am increasing the anointing on your lives, I am increasing My Spirit's power within you, I am filling all the places within each of you that you've been crying out for Me to fill.

You will come out even more empowered by My Spirit and you will see Me do miraculous things through each of you. I have counted all your tears, and have held all those small muttered prayers towards Me. I have held them all, and each of you will be rewarded in great ways very, very soon.

Look at this desert, look at this barren place, as a place of immense hope, and immense opportunity, for this, My children, is my truth to each of you. My heart is for each of you to receive this truth today, and rejoice in this time, knowing you are going further, and deeper in Me, than you EVER have. Being trained and strengthened as warrior soldiers for Me, who will stand in the frontlines, know their enemy, but more importantly KNOW their Commander and Friend and NOT be shaken.

March forth and rejoice My children, for the barren place will produce much fruit

What Have You Given Your Hearts Too?

My precious and beautiful children, I am calling each of you to examine your hearts. Come into My glorious light and examine your hearts in the light of My presence.

My children, I love each of you so much. I have called each of you to know Me and know My heart in great ways. Something that distresses Me greatly about My church today is that many do not know My heart. Many do not know what My heart is, and what My heart is saying to My church today. Many are not listening to My heart. Many have given their hearts to other things, and are not captivated and passionately following Me. Many are wandering off in their own directions while still calling on My name.

My precious followers, I love each of you with a love that is everlasting. With a love that reaches the deepest parts of you, parts that many of you don't even know that exist. My precious and wonderful jewels, I am calling you to come into My presence and examine your hearts.

Let Me show you the state of your hearts. Many of you have endured during this time and are enduring a deep time of refinement. This is me bringing your hearts into My light, those of you who are willing to become more like Me.

Many of you have given your hearts to things that are not of Me. Things that do not please Me. Let go My church. My precious, precious children, how I adore you, and My heart is to see you grow and flourish in My presence, yet many of you are not willing to let go.

Many of you are holding tightly to things that I have asked you to let go of. I am asking you again My church, let go of the things that are hindering you, that are causing your heart to turn to them and not to Me. Repent and let go.

I am now testing the faithfulness of My children, the fire is hot but you will NOT be burned. My children, let go, turn your hearts back to Me, and allow Me to reveal more of myself to you, and you will be captivated by Me in ways you've never dreamed.

My precious and wonderful warriors, I have called each of you with a great and wonderful purpose. You belong to Me, My family, and I want only what is best for you, so allow Me to change you and mould you. Let go of what is hindering you.

You have heard My voice in the stillness of your hearts lovingly urging you to let go, surrender and allow Me to take over. In those places where you don't understand, where you have sacrificed with what seems to be no purpose, let go of trying to understand and rest in Me.

I am moving My church forward. I am preparing the way for My return. Like voices in the wilderness My prophets are calling out "Prepare the way of the Lord, His return is ever so near", listen My church...come into My presence and let Me bring what is in your hearts to the surface.

Give your hearts to Me again. Be honest with yourselves and honest before Me. Repent of things that you have given your hearts too that are not of Me. Let go, and Let ME be God in your lives, and do all that I wish.

Then and then alone will you see My Glory manifest through each of you in glorious ways. I love each of you very much and want only what is best for you. Do not keep your hearts turned from Me, but turn back to Me. Turn your hearts back to Me, let Me remove the things in your hearts not of Me and I will fill them with more of myself.

Requiem

By Celia R. Okhuysen (USA)

[NOTE: This dream was posted on March 22, 1998. It is being posted again, revised and updated, in honor of Pope John Paul II's passing away in Rome on April 2, 2005 at the age of 84. Born Karol Wojtyla in humble conditions on May 18, 1920 in Poland, he became head of the Catholic Church in October 1978 at age 58.]

DREAM February 20, 1998

The environment in this dream was black.[1] There was not a hint of indoors or outdoors, or of any light. Large choirs alternately materialized in the midst of this blackness. Choir members were adult men and women of different heights and ages. Their complexions were mixed and everyone had dark hair. Each choir was closely grouped together as they stood on assembled platforms. Each choir also wore identical black robes with white collars, and sang acappella,[2] chanting the same slow, haunting, somber melody. I could not distinguish what language they sang. In sequence, a choir would fade out after it had chanted for a while and another choir would appear in its place, blending in continuity with perfect melody pitch. I had a strong and distinct impression that these choirs sang a requiem.[3] Throughout this endless chanting drama there seemed to be no obvious distinction about each choir, yet these choirs were different from each other.[4]

It was a dream of endless observation and listening. Upon awakening I continued to hear the choirs' deathly chanting echoing in my spirit. This vivid dream deeply affected and left me depressed in spirit as I grieved throughout the day. (It was s-o-o-o real.) This dream is also a powerful and foreboding omen. So many choirs' endless deathly chanting signifies that a prominent death is imminent. The intriguing question is, whose death?

Incredibly, while surfing through TV channels the following evening, I came across a large choir singing a Latin (requiem?) mass acappella. The men wore black tuxedos and the women wore long black dresses with white collars. They sang a contemporary style mass, and some of the selected chants could have quickly tuned most audiences out. Part of this requiem mass was sung in contrasting pitches of many sharps and flats in the music scales. It was not only grievous to the ear, but to my soul as well.

One particular chant seemed like a wail. It became apparent to me that the Holy Spirit was confirming the previous night's dream. Since this program was a prerecorded telecast from a cathedral in Poland, a prominent figure whose death could be highly considered would be a frail Pope John Paul II. Should he be the one in question, many nations would truly mourn his loss. History will record this pope to have been a truly beloved and dedicated servant of God as well as a strong and imposing historical figure who made an enormous spiritual and political impact in the world during the twentieth century.

Without doubt, much will be written and countless commentary voiced regarding this particular pope's legacy, more than any other pope in history. As a former Catholic, my personal opinion is that the papal reign of Pope John Paul II will be recorded in the pages of history as the Catholic Church's finest hour*.* Assuredly, countless choirs throughout the world will chant numerous requiem masses upon his death.

FOOTNOTES

1) Black signifies sin, death, famine.
2) Without music accompaniment.
3) Webster's Dictionary defines requiem as "A solemn chant (a dirge; a lament; deathly march) for the repose (peace; rest) of the dead."
4) The choirs portray nations.

The last three remaining popes are:

The Labor of the Son. JOHN PAUL II. 1978-Present. John Paul II is the most traveled Pope in history. He has circled the globe numerous times, preaching to huge audiences everywhere he goes. Even though he was once shot, he has not seemed to slow down. He has recently written a book which has enjoyed a large circulation. Like the sun which never ceases to labor and provides light daily, this Pope has been incessant. John Paul II was born on May 18, 1920. On that date in the morning there was a near total eclipse of the sun over Europe.

The Glory of the Olive

Peter the Roman

[NOTE: Some Biblical scholars seem to conclude that the last Pope, Peter the Roman, will be the False Prophet of Rev.13:11-15 (the second beast) who is described as having “two horns like a lamb," (a religious leader). He supposedly will be the Antichrist’s prophet. Therefore, the counterfeit trinity will be Satan, Antichrist and False Prophet.]

Restoration

Cindy Jacobs

"After The Nations Fast and Pray, (Sept. 22-October 31) There Will Be Restoration and A Powerful Move of the Holy Spirit. . . (Plus) New Orleans Will Be Built Upon A New Foundation!"

September 19, 2005,

Over the past few years, God has given me a number of prophetic words concerning New Orleans and, in particular, Southern Louisiana. In the year 1999, the Lord had me prophesy over Bourbon Street about a great, cleansing flood.
Then, in the year 2000, while we were doing a conference in New Orleans, I gave a very detailed prophecy and called for intercession for the city, because I had a vision of the whole city flooded. The vision was horrific, and I described, in detail, about seeing bodies -- young and old -- floating in the streets. I also mentioned coffins floating in the water. At that time, I called for prayer for the city.

Of course, this has all taken place, and we are all heart broken. We are grieved and sorrowful for those who have had such deep losses.

In seeking the Lord for a fresh word, the Holy Spirit spoke to me out of the book of Joel. Joel describes one of the most horrible cases of destruction of an area, in the Bible. The locust came in and destroyed all of the crops. For an agricultural society, this was a complete loss, not only for that season, but the next, as the locust laid their eggs, and the larvae ate up anything that tried to grow in the next season. In the midst of this, God called His people to turn to Him with fasting and prayer.

Restoration

We are doing this during the Forty Days of Prayer and Fasting, beginning on September 22nd - October 31st. God has planned the timing for this season to be a season of prayer. Intercessors from 33 nations are signed up, as well as 40 states. One hundred churches, in the Dallas area, are joining in the prayer and fasting, also.

The wonderful promise of God is that, after we fast and pray, there will be a restoration of the years that the locusts have eaten up. God spoke to me, saying that New Orleans and the surrounding areas of devastation will be built upon a new foundation, and that God is going to release a powerful move of the Holy Spirit into that area.

This is also biblical. The book of Joel also promises that after God's people pray, He will pour out His Spirit upon all flesh.

This promise is for all of those who need restoration. Fast and pray with us during this forty day period of September 22nd - October 31st. Then, as many of you that can, come during the last ten nights, October 22nd - October 31st, for nights of glory, as major leaders from around the world pray for the sick.

Resurrected Visions
Danny Korakas

Mar 26, 2005

"Then she ran and came to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple, whom Jesus loved, and said to them, "They have taken away the Lord out of the tomb and we do not know where they have laid Him." (John 20:2)

The Bible says that Mary "SAW" that the stone had been rolled away and that someone had TAKEN the Lord's body. Was this an ACCURATE statement that Mary had just spoken to the disciples? Did someone take the Lord's body as Mary stated? Well, of course not. We know that this was not the case. We all know that Jesus had been resurrected in power. What Mary had SEEN was according to her vision in the NATURAL and what she discerned from a natural perspective. Essentially, Mary was formulating a belief system and conclusion based on her past experiences in life. The word for "SAW" in the original language is the Greek word "Blepo", which means to casually or naturally see.

"Peter therefore went out, and the other disciple, and were going to the tomb. So they both ran together, and the other disciple outran Peter and came to the tomb first. And he, stooping down and LOOKING in, SAW the linen cloths lying there; yet he did not go in. (John 20:4)

The word for "SAW" that is used here for the vision of John is the same word "Blepo" that Mary previously based her assumption on. We see little progress as of yet in DISCERNING the resurrection and the words Jesus had foretold concerning Himself. We also notice that John did not GO IN. Because of this, John's understanding would be limited to what he SAW in the natural or at a distance.

"Then Simon Peter came, following him, and went INTO the tomb; and he SAW the linen cloths lying there, and the handkerchief that had been around His head, not lying with the linen cloths, but folded together in a place by itself. (John 20:6-7)

We now SEE that Peter went into the tomb. The original word and context that Peter SAW with is "Thereo." This is the Greek word that we get "theory" from in our modern vocabulary. Peter is pondering the facts that he is witnessing and we do have progress, but we do not base our faith and spiritual discernment on "theory" and assumption.

"Then the other disciple, who came to the tomb first, went in also; and he SAW and BELIEVED." (John 20:8)

John SAW and BELIEVED. The word for saw in this verse is "Eido", which means to SEE with UNDERSTANDING or REVELATION. It is no accident that we have three different words for "SAW" in this short passage and story. This is the VISION and spiritual eyes that the Lord desires we have as we approach Passover. John SAW into the REALITY of the Spirit realm. This anointing would continue to INCREASE in his life, culminating in the REVELATION of Jesus Christ.

The Lord is calling forth a people with VISION. A people who understand and SEE clearly that the cross is bare and the tomb is empty. The same resurrection power that raised Christ from the dead is the same mighty power that resides works within those who believe and call upon His name. This Spring season is more than simply recognizing resurrected lives...It is living in the power of the resurrection with a vision toward the supernatural.

John moved from the realm of the natural and into the supernatural in just a moment of time. Our prayer for you, is that you would truly SEE, believe, and experience Jesus Christ, our Passover Lamb. The Lord has given you VISION and a dream. We want to encourage you to step into your vision and dreams. Life is to short to look back over the course of our lives and wonder "what if?" All of us have the opportunity to experience the throne room of grace. It only takes a willingness to SEE and BELIEVE!

"Then I turned to SEE the voice that spoke with me. And having turned I SAW seven golden lampstands, and in the midst of the seven lampstands One like the Son of Man, clothed with a garment down to the feet and girded about the chest with a golden band.

His head and hair were white like wool, as white as snow, and His eyes like a flame of fire; His feet were like fine brass, as if refined in a furnace, and His voice as the sound of many waters; He had in His right hand seven stars, out of His mouth went a sharp two-edged sword, and His countenance was like the shining in its strength.

And when I SAW Him, I fell at His feet as dead. But He laid His right hand (The hand of blessing) on me, saying to me, 'Do not be afraid; I am the First and the Last. I am He who lives, and was dead, and behold, I am alive forevermore." (Revelation 1:12-18)

Where Are Your Roosters? Pt. 3

Danny Korakas

Mar 25, 2005

We will conclude this message with what I hope will be a greater understanding of the root causes that manifest as symptoms in areas of anger, criticism or judgments, unforgiveness, jealousy, gossip, depression, addictive behaviors and various forms of lust. We have discussed the fact that these areas of darkness or issues have taken root in the lives of many believers and are the primary hindrance to experiencing the glory and presence of God radiating through our lives for the benefit of others and ourselves. Many of us have been battling the same specific issues for years and even decades. The purpose of this 3 part article and prophetic message is to encourage you that you are not alone and every one of us has issues that the Lord is exposing and dealing with (sanctification). With this said, it is time that the church embrace the seasons of exposure in our lives and the Lord's sanctifying process.

The Lord is coming for His bride and has set a consummating date. However, the bride must "make herself ready." It is an act of perversion for the Bridegroom to dress the bride before their wedding day. We are born again and have been purchased with a tremendous price. But, it is naïve to think that our past has not had an impact on who we are today. The prophetic clarion of this message is to bring us into an understanding of the Lord's desire that we recognize the spots (sin) and wrinkles (disorder)` that are on our wedding dress as we begin the garment washing process in preparation for His soon return.

Corporately as the church, our greatest area of darkness is judgment and criticism. Judgment and a critical spirit will manifest through past, personal or individual hurts and REJECTION. The hurt or pain of rejection left unhealed will often lead to bitterness, and bitterness destroys its own mother or who conceives it. Needless to say, this is the root of many health issues and premature deaths that occur in the body of Christ (Please do not interpret this as being exclusive. It is simply one of the means of why the body of Christ experiences both premature natural and spiritual deaths). Judgment of others, and even SELF-JUDGMENT (The judging of one's self) can be lethal to not only our spiritual health, but our natural health as well.

The Bible states that many are sick and die prematurely because they have partaken of the Lord's Supper in an unworthy manner and have not rightly discerned the Lord's "BODY." (See 1 Corinthians 11) The Bible does not say that we are sick and many die from not rightly discerning the "blood." We clearly understand the power and priceless value of the blood of Christ to forgive us of our sins. Our continual problem has been rightly discerning the priceless value of one another as the "BODY" of Christ and our continual judgment and criticism of one another. The Bible states that the natural comes before the spiritual. (I Corinthians 15:39-46) We see this in the principle of biblical sowing in the natural, and the supernatural reaping associated with it. (I am not referring exclusively to money, rather, the sowing of obedience) Our Lord Jesus came first in the natural that we could partake of our spiritual and eternal salvation. Our "natural" words and actions precede the "spiritual" benefits and even consequences. We have already defiled the "spiritual" aspect the Lord's blood and body in an unworthy manner by our "natural" words of criticism and conduct toward one another.

"But if you bite and devour one another, beware lest you be consumed by one another." (Galatians 5:15)

Self-judgment has consequences that are just as grave as judging others. Scientists are learning that just one single cell of the human body has more INTELLIGENCE than can be computed by the most powerful computers. Human life (You) began as one single microscopic cell. This single cell contains within it the awesome intelligence to reproduce itself over and over until it's birthed with a soul and the ability to reason. This single microscopic cell holds within it the ability to love, create, imagine, and exercise faith. With this said, we need to understand the power and effects of "self judgment" upon ourselves.

A good example would be men and women who retire from the work place with no sense of future or purpose. An incredible proportion of these individuals die within one year after retirement. Why? Because many have convinced themselves that they now have little value to offer humanity.(They have judged their own self-worth) When these thoughts originate out of the depth and recess of our soul, every intelligent cell in our body goes to work in fulfilling that deep seated emotion and system of belief – even the opinion of oneself. We are a triune being consisting of spirit, soul, and body. When the will of the soul and the flesh take preeminence over the spirit-man, we are left to the "natural" principles that govern life and death rather than the principles or dynamics that govern the supernatural. It is healthy to judge ourselves and recognize the areas of darkness within us. However, this must be handled with the knowledge that there is "no condemnation in Christ." His love and forgiveness through His shed blood is more powerful than any force, emotion, and natural principle that govern a fallen world. With this in mind, we can embrace the Lord's work in our lives toward recognizing hidden sin and the liberation of repentance.

Also, when a person feels that they have no purpose or self-worth in the church (a living organism made up of many "cells"), they likewise, can suffer spiritual sickness and a premature death of God's vision for their life. The Bible says, that "those without a vision perish." Sadly, the majority of this is perpetrated by insecure and controlling leadership that suffers from rejection as well and is in need of healing. When those called to servant leadership remain unhealed from rejection – they in turn sow rejection in those whom they have been called to serve. Their focus cannot help but be directed toward themselves in their starvation for affirmation and admiration. These emotional qualities manifest in manipulation and control.

Like Peter, we have come to know Christ as our Lord and Savior. We have been born again into His kingdom and have received eternal life. However, it is naive to think that our past does not factor into who we are today. The sum total of our past experiences in life will not only affect how we view life, it will also reflect how we handle life's problems and issues. (Our greatest opportunity for spiritual promotion) The transforming and refining work that brought denying Simon from the cross to anointed Peter at Pentecost would continue in his life.

It wouldn't be long before Peter would be rebuked by Paul in a public setting because he had slipped back into spiritual pride. Peter had slipped back into spiritual hypocrisy, but the Lord was still doing a refining work in Peter's life. Peter had a choice in how would receive this word of correction from Paul. Obviously, Peter humbled himself and recognized his weakness and error, rather than resisting or blaming another. We never read of this issue happening again in Peter's life and ministry. Peter would go on to be a history maker and a carrier of the Lord's presence in changing the world around him. He would walk in obedience to the Lord and offer up the greatest of sacrificial love – his own life. Peter allowed the Lord to draw to the surface his deep seated issues and do a continual deep work in his life.

I believe the Lord would have me expound the effects of REJECTION (The root of judgment) and the hindrance it has become in the building of His kingdom. The Bible tells us not to judge and the degree that we judge others, we will be judged. Think about this – As we read in Galatians 5:15, this can greatly affect the quality of life that we live. Many have built their ministries on the "generational curse" platform. I tend to disagree with most of this thought and logic. The Bible clearly states that the sins that I commit, or what my grandfather committed, will not be passed or held against my son. (See Ezekiel 18) What many perceive as being a "generational curse" is no more than a child growing up in an unhealthy environment and mirroring their parent's ungodly and selfish actions – The breeding ground of rejection.

The sin of judgment lies in rejection and offense. The power of the past and the unhealed pain and hurt of offenses is our greatest obstacle corporately as the church. Offenses that are buried and harbored promote divisiveness and a "house divided will not stand." Let's face it, we are a "divided house" both naturally (marital and family) and spiritually (corporately as the church).

Our degree of hurt and pain (offense) is in direct proportion to the degree of significance that we give it. In other words, if you have been slandered by another and the pain of this offense is greater than the significance that you give forgiveness, you have just allowed an opening for the enemy to reside and sow unforgiveness in your heart and create a pocket of darkness. If you place a greater significance on forgiveness -- you have just created a portal or an area of light that the devil cannot reside nor have influence in. It is this understanding that brings the prophetic man and woman to maturity. As we stated in part 2, "Our response to the adversity and temptations of life is our Christian and prophetic witness to others. It is within this maturity that the prophetic mantle fulfills it purpose in being an "exposer" of darkness rather than offended and continually wounded.

So, how does one who is prophetic or one who is direct in their communication style separate proclaiming and teaching "truth" from passing judgment? How can we be an effectual prophetic voice and not fall into the sin of judgment? This has been one of the church's greatest misunderstandings and downfalls. First of all, we do not judge when we have or formulate an opinion. We move into judgment when we assume to know WHY a person is who they are and does what they do and communicate that to another.

A good example would be if I as a direct communicator called my neighbor who is very indirect or talkative as a communicator and said, "Good morning, I have some large branches that the garbage truck cannot haul off. Do you mind if I borrow your truck to haul them off? 'Well sure' the indirect neighbor responds. Hey great. Thanks."

Now, on the other hand, my neighbor calls me who is an indirect communicator and says, "Hi Danny. How are your wife and family? Oh, that's good. Have you had a good week so far? So what do think about this great weather?" Finally, he gets around to saying, "Oh, by the way, the garbage truck will not remove these large branches that I cut down and I was wondering if I could borrow your truck?"

Since I am direct in communication style, the only time that I am "indirect" is when I am manipulating a circumstance or hiding something to get my way. My neighbor is only "direct" and "to the point" when he is angry. What we could easily assume about each other is that my neighbor is manipulative when in fact he was just trying to be friendly and build a relationship. My neighbor believes that I am an angry and arrogant person when in fact I was sincerely trying to be considerate of his time on a weekend. I hope you can see by this illustration how easy it is for us to pass judgment upon one another and the certain reaping of that judgment. Once again, due to the reciprocating principle of judgment, our entire quality of life will be affected.

Much of the leadership within the church has fallen into this trap and mind-set of the enemy. We always assume that people should do things or "think things" for the same reasons we do. We find it second nature to put everybody into our box and ways of doing things. Prophetic ministry has suffered for over 1700 years because pastoral and teaching communicators were trying to conform prophetic communicators into what they perceived as being correct or how it should be done. Why? Because that is how they (pastors and teachers) would do it.

Again, the church's paralysis in becoming a united army has been people in places of position assuming that the right way is their way and failing to understand the differences in people's communication styles, spiritual gifts, and how they EXPRESS those gifts. We have created an atmosphere of judgment and criticism which has led to premature spiritual casualties.

The root sin in the Garden of Eden was "spiritual pride" – the desire to judge what was good and evil. What Adam and Eve found irresistible was to judge what was good and evil, and to be the god of their own world. Whoever perceives or enters into the right to judge another, has just set themselves up as "god" or has become the "god" of their own world. Needless to say, man in his fallen state has an inherited desire to judge and criticize. There is something dark in the heart of man that desires to live independent from God and take on the right to dictate what is good and evil. This temptation is so strong that it was bait of Satan that mankind bit.

Once man has become a "god" of his own world and has taken on the right to judge, the next step in his depraved self-righteousness is the perceived right to exercise the penalty of what they have judged. Once we have passed judgment on another by assuming WHY they have done something – we naturally want to dictate what we feel is the appropriate penalty. The darkness which manifests deep in our hearts, and spills out for others to witness, is most often the by-product of hurt and pain caused by REJECTION. Most who suffer from rejection will judge and criticize others in an attempt to feel better about themselves (self-worth) and mask there own insecurities. We saw this from the beginning with Adam and Eve in part 1 of this message – Adam immediately blamed and criticized Eve to make himself look better. Eve in turn blamed the serpent.

Many of our deep seated issues in life and the church have their origins rejection. (The greatest pain that Jesus endured was not the pain of cross, it was being rejected by those He loved and came to save). The wounds of rejection are deep and leave visible scars unless they are recognized and allowed to surface for the Lord to heal. Sadly, many have become spiritually gangrenous due to the constant picking and re-opening of old wounds.

We will share more specifically in our next article on "rejection" and the symptoms that manifest through it in its plaguing of the body of Christ as our primary hindrance to the anointing and power of God in our lives.

Regarding The Dec 26 Tsunami

Teresa Seputis

It was only 5 PM on Christmas Day where I live. It was 6:30 in the morning the day after Christmas for the people in India. It was 7 or 8 in that same morning for most of the rest of the places that were effected by the Tsunami that devastated southern Asia. It took about 12 hours for the news of this terrible disaster to travel throughout the world. Over 22,000 people are reported dead and the death toll is expected to climb even higher than that.

And people are asking "Why did this happen?" Christians around the world cannot help but notice how near this disaster was to Christmas Day and that the people effected by this were mostly idol worshippers. And some have wondered if this was some type of judgment of God against idolatry. In fact, that question ran briefly through my own mind as I got past the initial shock of the terrible news. I found myself asking God -- "was this a judgment or was it an attack of the enemy or what?"

It took about an hour before I was able to hear God's answer to my question. I think the delay was because this sad news hit me very hard, as I have close ties to the area. I have flown in/out of Chennai (a.k.a. Madras) many times. The state of Tamilnadu, where Madras is located, was one of the areas hardest hit in India. And I have ministered many times in the State of Andhra Predesh, and over 200 people are reported to have died from the Tsunami in that state. In fact, I had a guest from Andhra Predesh in my home at the exact instant the tsunami hit, and his wife was in India visiting her family 15 miles from the coast. (We did not know about the Tsunami until after he had gone home that night.)

This is what God told me: This was NOT a judgment from God, it was an attack of the enemy. The attack mirrors in the natural what God is about to do in the spirit, and it precedes an upcoming move of God in those areas. God has been hard a work behind the scenes to prepare South Asia for revival. It is almost ripe and God is going to release a wave of great revival there, a revival that will draw people to the truth and sweep away the stronghold of idolatry and ancestor worship. The devil is one who comes to comes to kill, steal and destroy. And he has brought this tsunami to kill as many people as he can before the revival hits. He is doing this because he does not want them to be saved in the revival. It is not God's heart or desire to destroy the people who live in great darkness in this part of the world -- it is His desire to shine His light into their darkness and to save them.

The Lord showed me a princple that relates to enemy activity in the area. The principle is that the enemy's "thing" is to kill and destroy, and the more of a hold he has on an area, the more of an ability he has to do his thing in that area. For instance, in India, the state of Tamilnadu was the one that was hardest hit by the Tsunami, and where most of the death and destruction occurred. This same state is one that had given the devil a stronghold by passing a very strong anti-conversion law that could imprison anyone who leads a person to the Lord. And because the devil had a stronghold on this area, he was able to bring more death/destruction to it than to other parts of India. (I am not saying that Tamilnadu is the only demonic stronghold in India. But the devil was able to destroy much there because it was one of his strongholds.) The good news is that Tamilnadu is almost ripe for revival and that area will be filled with God's light and presence."

We must remember that God's heart is for the lost and He wants to bring them to Himself. The devil's heart is to kill, steal and destroy and to oppress and keep people in darkness. God's goal and the devil's goal are diametrically opposed to one another. That is why there is a war going on between the two sides. God has already won the war when Jesus rose from the dead, breaking the power of sin and death. But God values human free-will; He wants people to worship Him of their own free choice.

And in order to preserve our ability to choose (free will) God has not yet banished the devil to Hell. The devil knows he is defeated, and like a trapped animal he still lashes out against God's kingdom and engages in warfare.

The Tsunami was a great and heart-breaking tragedy. We need to ask ourselves how God wants us to respond to this. I would like to share three insights to that question.

First, He wants us to love them with the love of Christ. That love does not sit idly by and hope the people will get the help they need -- instead that love helps those who become destitute from this Tsunami -- it gives both financial and practical aid. We are not to limit our help to just those who are willing to convert. We are to follow God's example: God sends His rain on both the just and the unjust, so we should help all who are effected, not just those who agree with our viewpoint.

Second, we need to pray for God's will to be done in this area. God's will is to bring a wave of His revival -- to break the power of darkness, to bring light and life and joy and peace and provision to these people. It is to bring them to the saving knowledge of Jesus so that they put away their idols and worship only Him. So we need to pray and intercede in agreement with God's will for a great revival to come to South Asia.

Third, we must participate with God in accomplishing His will in that area. This means doing missions work in South Asia. It also means supporting and equipping the indigenious believers as they evangelize their nations.

Great darkness has come to this area in the form of this terrible tradegy. Now it is time for the body of Christ to bring great light to dispell that darkness. It is time for us to bring practical and tangible help, as well as to bring God's love and the good news of the gospel to this region. It is also time to demonstrate the reality and power of God's love by healing the sick and doing the works that Jesus did.

Blessings

Take Heart, For I Am With You
Teresa Seputis

Child of Mine, I have good plans for you and you will walk in them. Yes, at times the way looks doubtful and filled with perils. But guess what? If you look at the lives of My saints of old, you will see their lives are stories of how I empowered them to overcome their adversity and live in My victory. Many of them started in the midst of much difficulty and adversity.

Jacob was a schemer who made so much trouble for himself that he had to flee to the home of an even greater schemer, who tried over and over again to cheat him. Yet, in the midst of all that, I prospered him. He alienated his brother to the point where his brother wanted to kill him, but I spared his life. Even though Jacob did all he could to "mess up" his own life, I still turned it around for My glory and made him the father of a great nation. I gave him many sons and great wealth. And I gave him a happy and fulfilled ending to his many days.

Joseph, from early youth, knew betrayal and injustice. He was first sold into slavery by members of his own family. Later, he was falsely accused and unjustly thrown into prison. His character and gifting were formed in great adversity and hardship. But in due time, I drew him out of the dungeons and set him in place to rule a whole nation, second in government under the Pharaoh. I gave him a family of his own, and I even restored his father and his brothers to him. He ended his days in much joy and fulfillment.

Moses was born a slave in captivity, and sentenced to death, but I protected him and spared his life. Later, as an adult he became a murderer and a fugitive and had to leave his native land as he ran for his life. He spent many years in exile, convinced that he was a failure and that his life would never amount to anything. But I met him where he had fled, and I put him in a position of leadership and caused him to deliver My people out of bondage and I worked mighty signs and wonders through him. I made him one of My greatest prophets and I taught him of Myself. I even spoke to him face to face as a friend, and I granted his greatest desire and showed him My glory.

King David spent many years as a fugitive, running and hiding from a king who unjustly wanted to take is life. Yet I brought him out of that great difficulty and made him the greatest of all kings. I gave him riches and comfort and all that his heart desired. I established a dynasty from him that will never end.

Do you not see the pattern, child of Mine? Adversity and hardship do come upon My own, but it does not destroy them. I give them victory over it and I place My favor on them and I cause them to prosper. They may face difficulties, but I make them into overcoming ones, and set them in places of great victory and joy. I cause them to walk in the fullness of their destiny and I shower them with My blessings and with My delight. And child, I will do the same for you. I will give you My victory and bring My abundance and My joy into your life. I have good plans for you and I will accomplish them in your life in due time. My desire for you is for joy. Nothing will be able to overcome you or defeat you. You will rise up in My power and in My anointing and you will live in your promised land and enjoy the fruit of your labor.

So take heart, My child. Turn your attention and your focus from your difficult circumstances and look to Me. I will encourage you and I will strengthen you. And in due time I will give you great victory and cause you to experience the fullness of My good plans for you. Yes, My plans for you are good and I will surely accomplish them in your life.

Revelation

Brenda Dowdin

July 29, 2005

Beloved,

I am pouring out new revelation to help you overcome your adversary, the devil. New strategies that I've had hidden from your eyes. I will give some, great understanding to interpret dreams and visions, as I did Joseph. I will unravel mysteries and open the eyes of your understanding. This is a season to press in. Press in through Labor Day, something great is on the horizon.

In this hour an increased anointing will fall on those who have been living the life of Joseph. Over night I lifted Joseph out of the pit and in to the palace. It is your obedience and my anointing that will bring you in to this new place. I have taken every detail to develop my character in your life. This time of releasing is before you. Double honor will come where misunderstanding has been. Trust me Beloved One! Trust me!!! That time is before you. Answers are coming, new things are coming. A fresh release is coming.

My strategies are as foolishness to human thinking....don't let the fear of man stop you from following after me in strict obedience. I am not asking for perfection, but I am asking you to follow me wholly, completely and with a pure heart!

I have tested your heart motives and made the minor adjustments where they have been needed. As you are walking in obedience these next few months it is breaking the old cycles that have held you captive. You are well on your way to complete freedom from the old, and moving forward and unhindered. I will reveal all schemes of the enemy and I will give you a battle plan to overcome him, just as I did my servant David. This is no time to be discouraged. This is the time to press in for my revelation....it will bring to light all the enemies lies, and bring deliverance!

A Heads Up For Intercessors:

My wine is about to be poured out afresh on my people. Watch out intercessors, for a greater level of authority and anointing is coming upon you to birth many new things on my heart. Prepare your hearts now for what is very near....Birthing will happen suddenly, it will seem supernatural as you go in to deep intercession. I will take you in this deep place suddenly, birth will take place and sudden joy will come. You will see my hand in it, and then you will see the fruit from the intercession. I am accelerating the answers to your prayers. It is a new season, you will have fun interceding. You have never known a season quite like the one I am getting ready to pour forth....

Whistle Blowers!

This is a time to blow your whistle. I will deal with the enemies illegal moves against my people. I referee what goes on, not him. Whistle to me and I will send my flies and bees against the enemy and demolish his plans and schemes. I will bring confusion upon his head. Isa 7:18 Blow your Shofars and sound the alarm that the Lord God Almighty has spoken and is about to do a new thing. Shout and let the Roar of the Lord be released from your spirit. I say to you today it is a new day and my glory is coming to cover the earth and bring in the new....

In many places (at least on the West Coast) we were blessed with an unusually long spring. It went from Feb through June this year. The weather was mild and spring like. Another intercessor and I were discussing this and the Lord broke in and spoke to us...."I have extended your spring season because new things are birthed during the spring and I have many more new things that I am birthing this year....Watch for the new... Beloved it's a time to look forward with anticipation. I have not forgotten you, I have tuned your heart in exactly where I've wanted it to be. Be expectant, like a mother about to give birth....many new things are springing forth in this new season. In September I will release a double portion anointing to bring my people in to the new~! Old cycles are being broken, I will use you to blaze a trail where there's been none!"

Be Blessed Beloved One's,
Lovingly In Him,

Raindrops from Heaven

Mike Tucker

First things first, Jesus Jesus Jesus

One word from the Lord is better than a book from man

Wisdom is a frequency, tune to it

When the sea is like glass, one drop reaches all shores

All thoughts flow from two rivers, the river of Life or the river of Death

Each day has its own troubles so each day empties us, hence the daily bread

Knowledge which does not produce Love becomes blindness

Tomorrow will always be there, but each day passes

Questions lead to God

I do more by Being than by Doing

Today I am a King

Tarry an hour for power

Argue with a fool, become a fool

Inside of God there are no more questions

Yes Lord, Yes Lord

Joy is the King’s Sword

Joy is strength

It is better to enjoy life than question it

When questions disappear then you will truly know

Jesus is the reason behind the reason

Life is each passing moment

The devil touches you on your own strength

I have experienced all the lies, their power is distant now

The world is filled with illusions, which are yours?

At times, I am wise enough to master my circumstances and fool enough to try

We are all expressions of God and some will return home to Him

The Heart is where the Spirit and the Soul meet

Jesus is the Sabbath

Sometimes it is wiser to lower the ground than to raise the boulder

Dwell on what to Be not what you were

The great irony of life is this, just when you learn all the important lessons… you depart

I have been tempted in many ways and fallen many times, I have been tempted yet again but now I stand

Love everyone where they are at for you have been there too

Verily help your neighbor but not often, lest he lean on you and forget his Maker

Your life is a series of choices, choose well

The Lamb is greater than the Lion, but the Lion will have His day

How I label myself is how I am limited

Hold God to His Word? Or embrace His Love!

God is not bound by formulas

Rules are for children, but the wise man hears the Spirit

Respect the church as your mother, but you will not long nurse from her breast

Adam and Eve covered their skin, this made God angry

Who will you give your heart to? Who can even steward their own?

As is done, so is done, and so on again

As we accept who we are, so we become

Love is born from freedom

Time knows no mercy except the gift to forget

Jesus is the Jubilee

Today is the Sabbath come rest in Me

Life is a journey not a destination

In war, you are either hunting or hunted

Life is a tree, eat its fruit

Beware what you say to children for they have the eyes of God

What you speak… is in you

Some teach it, some do it

What you think you own will own you

Many things is many troubles

Love is a garden, sow well

What I touch passes. What I believe is eternal.

Surrender to Jesus!

Reflections From The Heart

Reflections from the Heart: Fun in the Son, Fanning the Flames, God Encounters of a Heavenly Kind, Kairos Moments, Arms of the Lord, 12 Stars and Women of Rev. 12, Church of Philadelphia, Forms and Storms, Leg of Lamb, Healing Rooms, "New" Orleans

Oh, that the eyes of our understanding would be enlightened as the tent pegs of our minds are being enlarged with greater vision.

My dear friends, there is so much more for us to experience and enjoy. You may sometimes ask yourself, "is this all there is to life"? Yet, far above the principalities is one called Jesus/Jeshua who holds a dual citizenship as son of God and son of man in whose exceeding greatness far surpasses any hope and all expectations our little hearts could ever dream.

Fun, fun, fun Playing in the Son!

Do not be satisfied with a head knowledge of the Lord when the wonders of His character and kingdom, experimentally is ours. Do not be satisfied with the ability to sense the presence of His angels, but desire to see them. Do not be satisfied with anything less then entering into the fulfillment of His word for you, and you, and you. Oh, that our eyes of understanding and revelation to be opened to see our resources and reservoirs in Him in the heavenly realm and the eternal meaningful purpose of our souls here on this earth.

There are coming new baptisms of fire, water, wind and rain.

Flaming the fires of our heart - At a gathering the fires of the Holy Spirit came down as we worshiped and it felt so hot I thought I was in the midst of real flames, being consumed, and these fires, I felt, were fanning the flames of my heart, as they intensified. I came home and felt I had been in the "Son" all day, and was told that even my face did show a little glow.

In prophetic adventures, the Lord has been allowing me to experience unnatural phenomena which seem to even defy the natural laws of gravity. I had a dream, the neatest dream, where I was walking along this road, and suddenly the Holy Spirit prompted me to fly, and fly I did. for miles, along this highway - a "high way" - a higher way - His way - and it was incredible - I then saw myself interactively fly up over barb-wired barricades and such, and floating above a floor where I sensed there was acid - it was as if my spirit in the Holy Spirit could not be bound by natural space. This wind so reminded me of being able to fly in the Holy Spirit and defying those things which would hold us down.

All of creation is starting to "praise Him"! I saw water that had formed unnaturally like vertical icicles in an ice cube tray in my freezer and petals of water lilies become inverted, reaching upward as if in prayer. I then experienced skiing "up" a mountain, as one would ski down. These defy the basic laws of gravity, as we know it.. I call these God encounters of a heavenly kind, or His presents to His children. Who knows where the Lord wants to take us, or give to us prophetically. so reach out from the realm of the possible and touch the impossible!

BE all that YOU have been destined to be.

Kairos Moments - We are heading into kairos "moments", a point of no return for the church as the new order starts to eclipse the old. I am not sure what the significance of this is but we must follow the ark of God's presence, no matter when it leads.

"Arms" of the Lord - Blessed be the Lord, our rock and our firm strength, who teaches our hands to war and our fingers to fight (Psalm 144:1) I saw a vision of golden finger guards and arms that were being covered and protected by armbands of gold. These are the "arms" of His prayer warriors and the "arms" or artillery of His armies that are praying and marching through this land. Oh to be His hand extended, reaching out to the oppressed, let us touch Him, let us touch Jesus, so that others may know and be blessed.

Lord, help us to interpret the signs of the times and their appearance in the sky. I saw Arabic writing in the clouds and in vision, a crown of 12 stars upon the women in Revelations chapter 12. She was standing upon the land in Israel. Are these the (beginning) of birth pains?

Different forms Perfect storms Amidst the chaos Lord, bring your peace!

The promises to the Church of Philadelphia seem to be surfacing - to those who have kept the word of patience, the Lord will keep from the hour of temptation which shall come upon all the earth.

I saw a vision of the leg of the Lord, a "leg of lamb", as of a lamb being prepared for Shabbat. Beyond the Jordan is our place of rest and the promise of entering His rest still holds true and is offered to us today. Today can be the first day of the "rest" of your life.

I saw an explosion of power, a Mt. Saint Helen experience, and a new level to the gift of healing, resurrecting and exploding. As well, I saw the gates of heaven open, and the Lord showed me the "body parts" in heaven, ready for the faith of people to pull them down, to the earth.

I see small gatherings on the earth of two and three, and heaven, lifting its curtain, and the heavenly host taking their seats, to watch our earthly productions as we worship the King.

Every time a leaf falls from His tree of Life, God weeps. I see Jeremiahs' in waterless dungeons, fighting the dragons. I see weather-beaten rocks, and prisoners of war, returning home. Know your Commander-in-Chief. Know the difference between the accusation of the enemy and the conviction of the Holy Spirit.

Con-science is an awareness of moral consciousness. It can also mean that which is contrary to the discoveries of science. I see science and research as a tool which God is using for man to find Him in various fields of enlightenment. Let us not be afraid of any so-called "doctrines of research or truth of science" that would try to destroy our faith in God or any revolution on earth that would try to overthrow the kingdom of heaven. Truth in its highest form is finding the Lord Jesus Christ, and in Him dwells all the fullness of the Godhead, bodily.

I see the Lord, as artisan, painting a mother with child.

Sympathy and salvation - where am I (Jesus speaking) in your prayers? This is what I got today for "New Orleans". It is His heart for this city to become "New" and we speak hope, restoration and revival, for this city and His people.

Lord, beyond time and space In unbroken focus We want to gaze upon your face!

Jesus/Jeshua - do not be satisfied with anything else!

Radiant Glory Poured Out
Yolanda Ballard

Aug 4, 2005
Radiant glory is being poured out upon you for this is the day of the Latter rain Outpouring, and I AM preparing My bride to receive all that I have for her in the way of gifts and ministry. Open wide the flood gates for the King of Glory to enter in.

There has never been an outpouring before of this amount of tremendous power. Do not delay in the preparation by doing your part, by just dropping everything that you are doing at present, and enter into My glory. Do not question whether this is of Me or not. Just trust Me, and listen, and prepare your heart to receive.

I AM doing a quick work in the body, especially with the youth, because I AM going to enter into their presence with such glory that many will not be able to stand, and I will pour out My fire, and burn by the power of My love. I will come down in such strength that lives will be completely changed just by being with those who have received their calling. For they will be known as the fire of My remnant anointing.

Reach out and touch the hem of My garment, and receive the healing of your heart, soul, mind and body, for you need to be ready to go out to spread My glory. Bow down and receive My touch of transformation into My image for I AM doing a quick work in the hearts of My bride. Yes, reach out and touch Me and receive the gifts and anointing that I have for you in full portion. Yes, this is the day of My latter rain outpouring, and I AM out to make My bride ready to receive.

Glory to the Lamb of God who sits upon the throne of grace. And you are to be stationed in positions high and lifted up in My army, if you would only humble yourself before Me, and repent of all worldliness and distraction. Cry out for the hunger you need for My presence and for My wisdom, for many are complacent and apathetic.

If you would cry out for a portion of My heart in the way of burden, I will pour it out in measure that you will be able to receive the breakthrough you will need to see the victory. Many are crying out for My touch, and for My saving grace, and need those who are the vessels of My glory. I will radiate My love and glory out through you in such power that not only will the enemy be blinded, but also My own. You will walk by faith alone through the glory for it is of tremendous strength.

Do not fear for it is I who is pouring it out, and it is I who is in the glory, and it is I who is the glory, the radiance of the Father's presence, I AM.

A Call Up Higher
Yolanda Ballard

Aug 2, 2005

Last night I called My people to come up higher, but how many caught a glimpse of My sweet embrace. Too many were taken apart by the festivities of the season or by the distractions set up by the enemy. This is the day and the hour to come up higher, to even bask in My presence in a way never experienced before, for I AM letting out a trumpet call to draw men to My side for the final preparation before I loose My double portion anointing. For I AM letting out My battle cry. I AM letting out a warning like never before. Those who are sensitive to My call will be separated from those who have given way to complacency, to worldliness, from those who will miss out in what I AM planning to do through My bride.

For lo, this is an open invitation to all, to come to My banqueting table to celebrate the victory of the Lamb, for He is the great warrior of light, and He has made His bride ready. Those who have spent hours in My presence waiting upon Me with no lasting reply. Even though the heavens appeared as brass, they still bowed at My feet and waited. And I promised a reward for those who sought My face diligently. And now this is the hour where I will pour out My anointing for manifested promises. Yes, I have come to set the captives free. Yes, those who stood on My promise for household salvation. This is the hour to open the blind eyes that they may see My truth. Expect a change in their countenance for I have touched their heart in a profound way this night.

Shout Halleluia! for the Bride has made herself ready. I will do greater works through My bride, because she remained faithful through the fire and her love endured the test. And a great embrace is let out from the Father's heart, and great grace is abundantly falling like drops mixed with fire and rain.

So for those who did not catch the call to come up higher, it is not too late to join in for I AM a Father that gives second chances to shake off the complacency and the distractions of the enemy. Be open to a fresh wind of My Spirit to even tenderize your heart to conviction that you will not sin. I gave the life of My Son that you would have life. Now don't waste this chance once again. Come apart from the unclean thing. Cast off the chains that bind you. Cry out for renewal of your spirit that you may embrace Me once again. Return to your First Love, for this is truly a call to come up higher.

Rain is Coming

Priscilla Van Sutphin

March 11th, 2005

via www.upstreamca.org

Just before falling off to sleep I had a vision of rain coming through the roof of my apartment…dumping puddles of water all over the place…just kept leaking and leaking. I'm on the ground floor and there is another apt above me. I saw myself trying to get pans, buckets, to collect the water to prevent damage to the rug, and trying to stop the leaking or control how it came down….but it was impossible to stop or control it.

Then the Lord when asked what He wanted to say…

"Do you hear the sound of the abundance of rain? I am coming and with Me will I pour out the latter day rains that will flood the earth with My Spirit. Just as you could not control the rain making puddles in your apartment, you will not be able to control this move of My Spirit. It will just erupt and there will be no controlling what I want to do! Man will find himself fighting directly against ME if he tries to control or stop it! I will frustrate all attempts to do so. Though many will shut it down, those affected will leave.

There will also be many who leave the church in fear because of the way I will do things. My Spirit will not be controlled in this movement. I WILL be LORD over My church. I WILL RESTORE all that the locusts have eaten, and I WILL RESTORE the FOUNDATIONS OF TRUTH! There will be such abundance of truth and it will make some who have been walking in lies who think they believe the truth, to try to cover and resist, but they will not be able to control those who want the truth. I will make it clear to My people WHO is in charge of the church!

The portion of Jacob will again preach in the church. He will rule and reign over what is His."

Jer 10:16 NKJV The Portion of Jacob is not like them, For He is the Maker of all things, and Israel is the tribe of His inheritance; The LORD of hosts is His name.

[Leonard Ravenhill said that the "Portion of Jacob" is Jesus - as the Spirit of revival in the church.]

"This flood will come as awakening, and not just to be hoarded in the church. It will start not in the church everywhere, but in the streets, in the coffee shops, in the parks and among common people. Worshippers will be leaders in this awakening. Many will be turned to the brightness of My glory and I will have an awakening that will flood the earth with My glory! No man will be able to take credit for what I do! I will startle the religious Pharisees in My church, and I will alter the face of the true church forever! The face of the church is the heart attitudes of the people! Know that this will not end until I come. What I start I will finish. What I call into being will NOT be aborted this time. I have been blowing a wind called "holiness" but soon will come the second wind and it will come in GREAT POWER" and you will receive healing, deliverance and great empowerment and AUTHORITY when it comes. You only have to HUMBLE yourselves before ME.

I am the MIGHTY ONE OF ISRAEL and I will no longer suffer My church to shame. I will change your hearts so that you will love one another as I have loved you once again. The church will once again be as at the beginning – one that will love and protect one another, and given to HOLINESS."

Zech 14:20-21 KJV In that day shall there be upon the bells of the horses, HOLINESS UNTO THE LORD; and the pots in the LORD's house shall be like the bowl's before the altar. 21 Yea, every pot in Jerusalem and in Judah shall be holiness unto the LORD of hosts: and all they that sacrifice shall come and take of them, and seethe therein: and in that day there shall be no more the Canaanite in the house of the LORD of hosts.

Zech 14:20-21 AMP In that day there shall be [written] upon the [little] bells on the horses, HOLY TO

THE LORD, and the pots in the Lord's house shall be holy to the Lord like the bowls before the altar. 21 Yes, every pot in all the houses of Jerusalem and in Judah shall be dedicated and holy to the Lord of hosts, and all who sacrifice may come and take of them and boil their sacrifices in them [and traders in such wares will no longer be seen at the temple]. And in that day there shall be no more a Canaanite [that is, any godless or unclean person, whether Jew or Gentile] in the house of the Lord of hosts. [Eph 2:19-22.]

Diaspora
Priscilla van Sutphin

March 18th, 2005

Diaspora: noun
Etymology: Greek, dispersion, from diaspeirein to scatter, from dia- + speirein to sow 1 capitalized
a : the settling of scattered colonies of Jews outside Palestine after the Babylonian exile
b : the area outside Palestine settled by Jews
c : the Jews living outside Palestine or modern Israel
2 a : the breaking up and scattering of a people : MIGRATION <the black diaspora to northern cities>
b : people settled far from their ancestral homelands <African diaspora>
c : the place where these people live

The Lord spoke “diaspora”, then said,

“When persecution comes there is always a diaspora – a scattering of peoples. When disaster comes, there is also a scattering due to financial lows, and inability to find work to make a living. Birth pangs are growing and a separating and scattering will come as the earth groans and spits up lava, - as it separates and shakes, as weather patterns which man has tampered with destroy crops and fields. Man has gone too far in thinking he can control everything. Shakings are coming that will level cities, nations, and level economies, and bring to fruition the written scriptures.

The enemy has come down, knowing he has little time left, and desires to destroy all he can of mankind. [Rev.12:12] Beware to not hold on to what you can hold in your hands, but rather treasure what your heart can hold. Store up treasures in heaven and not on earth where moth and rust decay. Learn to share what you have with others who are less fortunate. For less prosperous times are on their way. Perilous times are AT HAND. Determine to cling to ME, and not to the things of this world. Use the things of this world to ADVANCE MY KINGDOM, and not your own. Put on your ARMOR daily.

There is less time left than you would believe. So many are still sleeping. SHOUT from the rooftops what you hear in your ears! Do not hide the words I am speaking to you. Take them to the lost and to those who will listen. Go to the highways and byways. Invite them to come in to My arms of love. SEE THE FIELDS ARE WHITE FOR HARVESTING. Turbulence and chaos approaches. STAY CLOSE MY BELOVEDS. LOVE ONE ANOTHER as I have loved you! By THIS all men will know you belong to ME.

Circumstance will suddenly catapult many of you into the ministries I have prepared for you before the foundations of the earth. You are a privileged generation and group of generations. Know that I AM WITH YOU TILL THE END OF ALL TIME. KNOW that I LOVE YOU and adore you and will do anything you ask in My name. Cry out for the nations! Cry out for the church! Cry out for your loved ones and friends and neighbors. Watch how I will answer as you bend your hearts towards ALL I love!”

{Then an old song came to me, “ Lean on Me, when you’re alone, I’ll be your friend, I’ll help you carry on .}

“I am about to ERUPT & EXPLODE upon the scene - in your neighborhoods, in the marketplace, in your home and families. The SON is arising with HEALING in His wings. You will grow fat as stall fed calves! The anointing will increase immeasurably. You have no idea of the great plan I have had for you! I WILL DO MIGHTY THINGS through all who love ME! I will turn around churches who have kept Me out. I will upgrade those who have disdained My Holy Spirit, so long as their hearts have loved ME. THERE IS NOTHING that My glory cannot change! I WILL SHOCK MANY into submission to MY WILL and purposes. THINK BIG, and ask for MY eyes to see with.

HOLINESS IS MY IDEA. BUT IT IS I ALONE WHO hold the keys to death and hell. Do not judge before the time any man. Only judge as I would ask you to judge. I WILL PUT AWAY ALL DOUBT AND UNBELIEF among My own. AM I UNABLE to change anyone? Is My grace so weak and my blood so meager a gift that you think it incapable of changing the hardest of hearts? What were you before you said YES to ME? Did you steal? Then you were a thief. Did you have an abortion? Then you were a murderer? Did you have sex before marriage? Then you were a fornicator. Did you lie? Then you were a liar. Are any of these lesser sins that I didn’t have to die for. Then why do you look at the lost as if they are strange to be so lost when the world has grown so evil?

You murder babies before they are born in astronomical numbers, and at the same time America, you wonder why the youth are killing each other. Have you not set an example before your sons and daughters of devaluing life? Have you not taught them by example, even in MY CHURCH, that life can be just easily snuffed out if it is too inconvenient? So why are you surprised at euthanasia and rationalization of murder that is in your streets?

REPENT and turn that there may still be hope of restoration. I did not come into the world to condemn the world, but to SAVE IT. So do NOT look down at those who have gone the way of the world and write them off. I DON’T WRITE THEM OFF. My love NEVER FAILS. My mercies are NEW EVERY MORNING. REPENT OF YOUR OWN PRIDE and ARROGANCE and HYPOCRISY My church, for you have been weighed in the balances and found WANTING. I WILL HAVE A SPOTLESS BRIDE. And I will come NOW to set My church in order. MY GOVERNMENT HAS NO END. NOW, I will arise - Now I will make Myself known!

I will keep those who love ME, safe in My arms until your purpose here is fulfilled. Many of you are called to difficult lifestyles and I have been preparing you, so that you can teach others the TRUTH. So few know the TRUTH. So few are taught the fullness of the scriptures for they have been twisted to man’s desires and carnality. He who desires to be godly in CHRIST MUST SUFFER, I have said. Yet men have not taught this truth.

They enjoy their comfort more than serving others. THIS WILL CHANGE. I have groomed an army who knows what it is to suffer for My name’s sake. And it is to THESE that I will extend GREAT FAVOR to subdue cities and nations. Do not think your suffering has been in vain, or that I have not seen your perseverance to hold on to ME. Your failures do not matter as much as your steadfastness to pursue ME. Failures can be forgiven and overcome.

You have not denied ME before men, and you have struggled, so I will give to you GREAT FAVOR and ability to teach those who will come. I will extend My scepter to you and you will bring great deliverance and healing to those I send you to. Soon you will know that I truly have seen all, and I will make those who say they are Mine, but are not, to know that I have loved you.”

Precipice
Priscilla Van Sutphin

March 7th, 2005
www.upstreamca.org

The Lord said: “Precipice”
prec·i·pice

Etymology: Middle French, from Latin praecipitium, from praecipit-, praeceps headlong, from prae- + caput head
1 : a very steep or overhanging place
2 : a hazardous situation; broadly : BRINK

"You, My children are on the brink of great change. You are on the precipice of great extremes of good and evil. You are heading into uncharted territory, and beyond this lies eternity. Great evil is coming, but where the enemy does pervade the land, so will My glory be poured out.
You are hanging on the edge of eternity and all that needs be shaken will be shaken. I am shaking My church loose of it's structure and a form of religion that has no power. At the same time is growing a totally apostate church who call themselves by My name and even use the name of My Son…but they do not KNOW HIM.

There is an EXTREME generation coming forth that will be transformed by My light and GLORY, and there will be a destruction of the PRETENSE that has shrouded My children, and those caught up in the darkness of this world who are called to New Life in ME. I will rip the veil of covering from off the nations. I will remove the spiritual blindness on those whose hearts are changeable – on those who are called to be in ME.

But know there is an evil army arising also. They have no conscience about the evil they do. They have seared consciences and will not turn from their wickedness. You must be able to know the difference and be free from any unsanctified mercy that would make you vulnerable to their wickedness. When I tell you "DON'T TOUCH THAT ONE" – I mean it! DO NOT TOUCH THEM. If you do, you are rebelling and it will leave you open to the demonization desired upon you by the enemy. When I say walk away…walk AWAY! When I say, that one is reprobate, and will not change, then you must listen. Do not be pulled into mercy I do not give out.
On the other hand, I will at this hour pour out GREAT GRACE upon all who will HUMBLE themselves before ME, and admit their faults and desire freedom. Some of them will even be astounded by their own attitudes, because they don't realize they've been bound by demons. When grace is poured out, it will alter their ability to say yes to ME. You won't have to waste your time in explaining things, because the Most Holy Spirit will be with you in POWER in such a way that HE will suddenly change that person in an instant, their eyes will be opened and all things will become NEW to them.

And I will pour out that grace in you as well to overcome all that has opposed ME in you. Chains will be broken off of all those who are desiring freedom!
I will , I WILL, I WILL SURELY DELIVER ALL WHO WANT IT! Nothing will stop the flow of My Spirit as He pours out this last awakening on the earth. A GREAT HARVEST is out there. It is time. It is time. It is time for harvesting. I am coming to many of you in visitations in the night watches and there will be an explosion of My Spirit within you that will change you mightily, to be able to walk with ME, and be and do all I want you to be and do! Great peril is ahead, but also great POWER and an awesome outpouring of MY LOVE that will overcome DEATH."

Ezek 47:6-12 KJV
6 And he said unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen this? Then he brought me, and caused me to return to the brink of the river.
7 Now when I had returned, behold, at the bank of the river were very many trees on the one side and on the other.
8 Then said he unto me, These waters issue out toward the east country, and go down into the desert, and go into the sea: which being brought forth into the sea, the waters shall be healed.
9 And it shall come to pass, that every thing that liveth, which moveth, whithersoever the rivers shall come, shall live: and there shall be a very great multitude of fish, because these waters shall come thither: for they shall be healed; and every thing shall live whither the river cometh.
10 And it shall come to pass, that the fishers shall stand upon it from En-gedi even unto En-eglaim; they shall be a place to spread forth nets; their fish shall be according to their kinds, as the fish of the great sea, exceeding many.
11 But the miry places thereof and the marishes thereof shall not be healed; they shall be given to salt.
12 And by the river upon the bank thereof, on this side and on that side, shall grow all trees for meat, whose leaf shall not fade, neither shall the fruit thereof be consumed: it shall bring forth new fruit according to his months, because their waters they issued out of the sanctuary: and the fruit thereof shall be for meat, and the leaf thereof for medicine.

Eretz
Priscilla Van Sutphin

March 15th, 2005

I felt the Lord say “eretz” and I know this is a word that goes with Israel meaning “the land of Israel” - Eretz Israel.

“I am the Sovereign of the Universe and it is to ME that the nations must bow, and not to man. Man has come to believe he can do whatever He wants and I won’t DO anything.

Zeph 1:12 NKJV "And it shall come to pass at that time that I will search Jerusalem with lamps, and punish the men who are settled in complacency, who say in their heart, 'The LORD will not do good, nor will He do evil.'

But I say to you that I AM the only GOD, and I WILL DECIDE and have already decided the plight of man. I know who will obey in the end and who will not. I know who will turn to Me and who will not. It is I Who sits above the heavens! It is I Who created the heavens and the earth. It is I WHO divided the land and the seas. And as man has undertaken to destroy My beloveds, so shall those men be destroyed. Do not think that I will sit idly by forever. Time as you know it is short. There is an escalation to all that has been planned. You are being catapulted into times that you have no idea how to deal with unless you lean on ME.

“Come and eat” I’ve spoken to you. Come and learn of ME. For I am gentle and lowly in heart. Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord and I will lift you up. But man has not seen fit for the most part to humble himself. He cannot without believing in ME. Unless I change a person, how will he humble himself? It is ONLY when I pour out My Spirit that man has any clue as to how to behave, much less the ability to do it. One can ONLY obey as I free them from the demons and strongholds that hold them in place.

I am coming to take back the LAND of your SOUL My beloveds…and the land of all who will give themselves to ME. You cannot judge by outward appearances. Appearances are deceptive. Acknowledge ME - ask for the GRACE you need to humble yourself appropriately before ME. I will give the heart who really wants to be free it’s freedom. I will ROUT the enemy from your soul as you cry out to ME for that freedom. And as you admit to ME, the things you see in yourself, as I pour out My glory, then you will be made free to be all you want to be. But I am going WAY BEYOND all you can ask or think in those around you. You WILL see startling transformations as I pour out My Spirit in this hour. People will be in SHOCK at the things I do.

People who mocked you before and doubted will be stunned into silence before ME as I pour My Spirit out through you. Do not be caught up in condemnation and doubt about yourself, or how much I love you. Do not believe the enemy’s lies that you can be disqualified! For whom I call, I QUALIFY! I will finish in your what I have started. I will NEVER abandon you. MY FAITHFULNESS IS FOREVER! My LOVE ENDURES FOREVER!

The enemy is busy trying to make you think somehow you’ve blown it and will never make it. He is trying to wear you out in every way. But I WILL HAVE THE LAST WORD in each of your lives! And you will pummel the enemy as you take the WORD and USE IT against him. He is afraid of your confidence. He is afraid if you really know how great My love is for you, then you will be effective in what you do! SO GRASP HOLD OF MY GARMENTS, and hold on to the TRUTH of what I have told you. Encourage yourself in the WORD and in what I have spoken to you. DO NOT FAINT.

DO NOT GIVE UP! I WILL have My stand on the earth! And I WILL GLORIFY MY TEMPLE, which you are!

DO NOT DOUBT My goodness to you even in the midst of turmoil. It is in the darkness that you will shine the brightest!”

Truth and Lending
Priscilla Van Sutphin

March 19th, 2005
I heard, “Truth and lending”

I give to you My love and I treasure you like the pearl of great price. I have given you My TRUTH and changed your lives to reflect My image, little by little, but now that will change in an amazing way, rather abruptly. I will set all things in their place and destroy the schemes of the wicked one. I am not a man that I should lie, nor a son of man that I should change My mind.

I am determined to bless My own, and especially those who have endured great hardship in My name. Do not worry one bit about your life for I am here and I will sustain you.

Ps 46:1-5 NKJV God the Refuge of His People and Conqueror of the Nations - To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of the sons of Korah. A Song for Alamoth.
God is our refuge and strength, A very present help in trouble. 2 Therefore we will not fear, even though the earth be removed, And though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea; 3 Though its waters roar and be troubled, Though the mountains shake with its swelling. Selah
4 There is a river whose streams shall make glad the city of God, The holy place of the tabernacle of the Most High. 5 God is in the midst of her, she shall not be moved; God shall help her, just at the break of dawn.

Hab 3:17-19 AMP
17 Though the fig tree does not blossom and there is no fruit on the vines, [though] the product of the olive fails and the fields yield no food, though the flock is cut off from the fold and there are no cattle in the stalls,
18 Yet I will rejoice in the Lord; I will exult in the [victorious] God of my salvation! [Rom 8:37.]
19 The Lord God is my Strength, my personal bravery, and my invincible army; He makes my feet like hinds' feet and will make me to walk [not to stand still in terror, but to walk] and make [spiritual] progress upon my high places [of trouble, suffering, or responsibility]!

I am pouring out an abundance of TRUTH into My vessels who are coming forth as gold, and I will pour out many other blessings of this earth, that you may share with those who are broken and downtrodden in this perilous hour.
Keep in the Word so that your discernment will grow. Keep in My presence daily, that My love will be poured in again and again to refresh you. Amazing times are upon you. REACH OUT IN FAITH. Do not shrink back in unbelief.

Heb 3:12-14 NKJV Beware, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief in departing from the living God; 13 but exhort one another daily, while it is called "Today," lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin. 14 For we have become partakers of Christ if we hold the beginning of our confidence steadfast to the end,

Heb 3:17-19 NIV And with whom was he angry for forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the desert? 18 And to whom did God swear that they would never enter his rest if not to those who disobeyed? 19 So we see that they were not able to enter, because of their unbelief.

Rom 11:22-27 NIV Consider therefore the kindness and sternness of God: sternness to those who fell, but kindness to you, provided that you continue in his kindness. Otherwise, you also will be cut off. 23 And if they do not persist in unbelief, they will be grafted in, for God is able to graft them in again. 24 After all, if you were cut out of an olive tree that is wild by nature, and contrary to nature were grafted into a cultivated olive tree, how much more readily will these, the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree! 25 I do not want you to be ignorant of this mystery, brothers, so that you may not be conceited: Israel has experienced a hardening in part until the full number of the Gentiles has come in. 26 And so all Israel will be saved, as it is written: "The deliverer will come from Zion; he will turn godlessness away from Jacob. 27 And this is my covenant with them when I take away their sins."

If you don't walk in TRUTH and FAITH, then you will be self centered and focused in the days ahead when there is much turmoil. You need to have a heart bent to MY WILL alone and not harden your heart towards brothers and sisters, and towards the lost who will need to hear the TRUTH I have imparted to you. If you close your hearts to others, and do not lend to them your time, your finances, your things, your heart, then you will become hardened in unbelief, and turn away from Your Lord and Maker. Do not take this admonition lightly. For the love of money is the root of all evil. If you think you are going to be wealthy to spend it on yourself alone and are not able to share and lend freely, then you will be bound by poverty and debt, and unbelief which will destroy your confidence in ME. Self preservation is a strong and powerful pull on the soul. If you don't abandon yourself to ME, and trust ME fully with your things, then your things have you in bondage.
Bondage will steal and rob from you. Lend freely to all who ask. GIVE and it will be given to you, pressed down and running over!

Luke 6:38 AMP Give, and [gifts] will be given to you; good measure, pressed down, shaken together, and running over, will they pour into [the pouch formed by] the bosom [of your robe and used as a bag]. For with the measure you deal out [with the measure you use when you confer benefits on others], it will be measured back to you.

Uncovering
Priscilla Van Sutphin

March 10th, 2005
www.upstreamca.org

While sleeping earlier today, I woke up after a vision of someone like a male with a kilt on bent over showing his bare butt. This was a bit startling…but Then the Lord reminded me of scriptures about uncovering the skirts.

Then while watching the news, again I was reminded of the vision as they were talking about Michael Jackson, wearing pj's to court today with a suit jacket over them, and the testimony of the victim's brother. Then also on the 6:30 news was a story about retired cops, who were paid by mafia to be hitmen. One had retired to Las Vegas and even acted in a movie . So again the theme of "uncovering".

Jer 13:26-27 NIV I will pull up your skirts over your face that your shame may be seen — 27 your adulteries and lustful neighings, your shameless prostitution! I have seen your detestable acts on the hills and in the fields. Woe to you, O Jerusalem! How long will you be unclean?"

Nah 3:5-6 NIV "I am against you," declares the LORD Almighty. "I will lift your skirts over your face. I will show the nations your nakedness and the kingdoms your shame. 6 I will pelt you with filth, I will treat you with contempt and make you a spectacle.

Isa 47:1-4 NIV "Go down, sit in the dust, Virgin Daughter of Babylon; sit on the ground without a throne, Daughter of the Babylonians. No more will you be called tender or delicate. 2 Take millstones and grind flour; take off your veil. Lift up your skirts, bare your legs, and wade through the streams. 3 Your nakedness will be exposed and your shame uncovered. I will take vengeance; I will spare no one." 4 Our Redeemer — the LORD Almighty is his name — is the Holy One of Israel.

Jer 13:22-23 NIV And if you ask yourself, "Why has this happened to me?" — it is because of your many sins that your skirts have been torn off and your body mistreated. 23 Can the Ethiopian change his skin or the leopard its spots? Neither can you do good who are accustomed to doing evil.

Then the Lord spoke:

“I am uncovering the skirts of those who have hidden their wickedness. Just as I’ve been exposing the hearts of My own children to My glory and showing them their own sins and weaknesses. I am uncovering the wickedness in the world and the tares in My church for all to see. I will give you a new heart and new eyes to see as I see, as you humble yourselves before Me. I want to bring the light of My love into the darkness of the hearts of those who have given themselves over to the enemy.

You are my ambassadors of LIGHT – so it is , in you, I have been working to show you where you need to be free and shining My light so that you will not walk in SELF-righteousness and recognize that without My GRACE, you might be the same as they! There are degrees of bondage. I am coming for a bride that is spotless, so I will perform a mighty work to establish My justice and My holiness within My own. I will overturn the tables of the wicked and oppressors. My heart however is to transform them. So, guard your heart against judging. For with the same judgment you use, it will be meted out to you. Keep your hearts IN ME. Walk in humility and know that nothing is too difficult for My blood to heal.

If any man be in Christ, he is a new creation! - This will be realized in faith in the days to come. You will see startling transformations as you walk in greater FAITH!

Revival In Israel Sooner Or Later

> Heinz' Law of Eschatology says: For any given topic in end time bible prophecy there are 57 Varieties of opinion.

This essay will take a look at some of the ins and outs of various end time theories as they bear on revival in Israel and the Return of the Lord. If you hear some saying ouch, it's that we may well step on some toes in our treatment of this issue. It will not be an exhaustive treatment, but more in the way of exploration and speculation. [An exhaustive treatment would be exhausting and probably never get written.]

Israel Closed To The Gospel

Years ago I was blessed by a set of teaching tapes done by Ralph Mahoney on the subject of Spiritual Influences on the Mind. Mahoney is one of those known as missionary statesmen. This would be like an apostle to the missionaries. A missionary himself in his early years, he went on to become a trainer and executive leader of missionaries.

A great part of the teaching had to do with spiritual influences of demonic princes determining whether a given country or region was open to the gospel. Missionary administrators have to determine which areas are open and which are not open for efficient deployment of their missionaries and their monies. Then he took time to lament the fact that a disproportionate number if the church's resources were spent on missions in Israel, which was and is still closed to the gospel. And he noted that in terms of results, much of these resources should be sent somewhere else. In other words, a lot of the missionaries sent and money spent in Israel was a waste of effort.

That is not meant to say we shouldn't be working in Israel. But if you are in Israel, please be sure that's where you are called to be. Keep in mind the saying, Some were called, some were sent, others just packed up and went.

Romans 11:28 tells us that they are enemies of the Gospel.

> Romans 11:28 As concerning the gospel, they are enemies for your sakes: but as touching the election, they are beloved for the fathers' sakes.

While Romans 11:16 indicates that all Israel will be saved.

> Romans 11:26 And so all Israel shall be saved: as it is written, There shall come out of Sion the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob:

So for now, Israel is closed to the Gospel, but at some point all Israel will be saved. This has to mean there will come a point when the situation is turned around and Israel becomes open to the Good News Of The Kingdom Of God. The question is when? Sooner or later it will happen, when and how it will happen is the main focus of our discussion.

Theories, Theories, Theories Everywhere

Several theories I have come across recently suggest that the revival in Israel comes at the beginning of the tribulation. Just when this 'tribulation' begins or how long it lasts are points of disagreement.

Some say 7 years, some say 3 and a half, some say it depends. But most agree there is going to be a time of tribulation of some kind. Remember Heinz' Law.

All Israel Saved At The Beginning of the Tribulation

This theory is very widespread. It goes like this. A somewhat literal reading of Revelation 14:1-5 is seen as the Lord appearing with the 144,000 servants of God mentioned in Revelation 7:3-8, 12,000 from each tribe, in the city of Jerusalem on the hill called Mount Zion. So this is taken to mean a revival in Israel. Then this revival in Israel produces a great wave of evangelism so that the Gospel is preached through all the world. This world wide preaching of the Gospel is one of the conditions that must be met before the end will come, as explained in Matthew 24.

> Matthew 24:14 And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come.

While one view is that this 144,000 is a remnant of the Jews there is another view that is held by some, especially Messianic Jewish believers. This view is that the revival seen in Revelation 14 is the point when 'All Israel' gets saved.
Here are the key verses from Romans 11.

> Romans 11:15 For if the casting away of them {Israel] be the reconciling of the world, what shall the receiving of them be, but life from the dead?
> Romans 11:25 For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, lest ye should be wise in your own conceits; that blindness in part is happened to Israel, until the fulness of the Gentiles be come in.
> 26 And so all Israel shall be saved: as it is written*, There shall come out of Sion the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob:*

The reference, as it is written, points to Isaiah 59.

> Isaiah 59:20 And the Redeemer shall come to Zion, and unto them that turn from transgression in Jacob, saith the LORD.

There are some who balk at this idea of All Israel saved. We hear talk of only a remnant saved, or mention that individual Jews can be saved but they must repent first, just like anyone else. Verse 23 mentions that they cannot remain in unbelief and still be restored.

> Romans 11:23 And they also, if they abide not still in unbelief, shall be graffed in: for God is able to graff them in again.

Yet verse 26 says the deliverer shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob [Israel] To show exactly how it is that 'all Israel' gets saved this scripture from Zechariah is usually cited.

> Zechariah 12:10 And I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplications: and they shall look upon me whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for him, as one mourneth for his only son, and shall be in bitterness for him, as one that is in bitterness for his firstborn.

Here we see a mention of the spirit of grace and of supplications. This is the Holy Spirit, the Deliverer of Zion, which gives the people the grace to repent and to intercede. Since this grace is given to the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, we understand that to mean Israel. This is what makes it possible for 'all Israel' to repent and be saved at once.

Keep in mind that this can refer to literal sight, that is, physical seeing and to spiritual sight which is understanding. At this time they cannot see him physically because he has risen to heaven and sits at the Father's right hand. Secondly, they cannot see him with their understanding because of the blindness mentioned in Romans 11. So when blindness is removed, spiritual sight is granted. And by this grace, Israel can make supplication, or in simpler language, make prayers of repentance.

Why is this needed? Let's jump over here to Matthew 23 we see where Jesus says he will not return till his people pray and ask him to.

> Matthew 23:39 For I say unto you, [speaking to Jerusalem] Ye shall not see me henceforth, till ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.

How did this blindness get there? One view is that the blindness came because Israel missed their time of visitation. A close reading of Romans 11 however shows that it was there all along.

> Romans 11:7-8
> 7 What then? Israel hath not obtained that which he seeketh for; but the election hath obtained it, and the rest were blinded
> 8 (According as it is written, God hath given them the spirit of slumber, eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear;) unto this day.

Here you see in verse 8, where is says as it is written, a reference to a verse in Deuteronomy 29 that supports the idea that it was there all along.

> Deuteronomy 29:4 Yet the LORD hath not given you an heart to perceive, and eyes to see, and ears to hear, unto this day.

Let's keep moving along with this theory that all Israel is saved at the beginning of the tribulation. Life from the dead [Romans 11:15] is seen to be the revival of "Israel" to fulfill her national calling. This calling is to be a light to the nations. The nations are the gentiles and thereby the 144,000 are those who will evangelize the world. And so the gospel of the kingdom is preached to all the world. And the harvest of the gentiles is completed. Then the end comes as Jesus returns and sets up a kingdom to rule from Jerusalem for 1000 years.

See: Revival Redemption and Return of the Lord http://www.etpv.org/2008/rrnrotl.html by Bill Somers

One problem with this is how the Lord is Revealing Himself to the Jews. According to Romans 11:25 this requires the removal of the blindness. This is in turn requires the fullness of the gentiles. If the fullness of the Gentiles speaks of the harvest of the gentiles, then the above scenario is a case of circular reasoning. That is they are saying in effect that the fullness of the gentiles yields a removal of the blindness. This produces the revival in Israel which brings about the fullness of the gentiles. Naturally there is a way around this if you claim that the fullness of the gentiles means something other than the harvest of the gentiles as is commonly thought. Remember Heinz' Law.

Now we are going to focus on the idea of "All Israel Shall Be Saved" and the setting whereby this happens at the end of the tribulation.

All Israel Saved At The End of the Tribulation

A Spiritual reading of Revelation 14:1-5 would see it as depicting revival coming to the Church at the beginning of the tribulation, not to 'all Israel' or even part of Israel. In this case, Mt. Zion is the church, as in Hebrews 12:22-23. And the 144,000 are followers of the Lamb, Jesus. They are Jews and Gentiles from every group and denomination including the outcasts of Israel.

This does not rule out any sort of revival in Israel to come at any time. We certainly welcome any move of God in Israel. All we are saying is that Revelation 14:1-5 is not interpreted as applying to natural Israel.

This view sees it as linked to other passages which show the same event from differing vantages or express it in differing language. Some of these links are Revelation 12:10, Revelation 11: 15-17, Psalm 2:6, Isaiah 28:16, Zechariah 4:7 and others. All of these relate to the Kingdom of God. In this view, the church does not usher in the Kingdom, the church does not expand the kingdom, and the church does not establish the kingdom. Rather the church becomes the kingdom by way of the outpouring of the Holy Spirit, and the Revelation of Jesus Christ. We are still living in the days when there was no king is 'Israel' and every man did what was right in his own eyes. When the King comes, we can say, Our God Reigns. This is the Gospel of the Kingdom mentioned in Matthew 24.

> Matthew 24:14 And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come.

The Gospel: Good News and Glad Tidings for all peoples.

The Gospel of the Kingdom has two expressions. One is the Promise of Salvation to all peoples in terms of saying there is a kingdom Coming.
It speaks of 'salvation ready to be revealed in the last days.'

> 1 Peter 1:5 Who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.

After it is revealed in the last days, i.e. the Revelation of Jesus Christ, the Gospel will have a new expression. It will say "Our God Reigns" as those end time saints go forth proclaiming this good news. They have the lovely feet shod with the preparation of the Gospel of Peace. And this is what truly enables world wide evangelization.

In the first expression, we say, like Jesus did, repent for the kingdom is at hand. In the second, we say the kingdom is now here.

Opposition To The Spiritual Approach

This whole approach is shunned by dispensationalists, i.e. pre-tribulationists, because it puts the church in the tribulation period. Any hint of such an approach triggers a 'don't go there' reaction.

It is also loathed by messianic believers for several reasons. First is spiritualizes 'Israel' which can lead to a doctrine of demons called 'replacement theology;' a theory that leaves natural Israel out in the cold. Second, it puts off the salvation of 'all Israel' to the end of the tribulation, meaning that Israel would never fulfill her national calling to be a light to the nations and that she will remain an enemy of the gospel till the very day Jesus returns. And third, it undercuts the view that Jesus will set up a literal physical Kingdom, with it's capitol in Jerusalem when it's all over. And finally it sidesteps the issue of Israel's right to inherit the land promised to it in the bible.

Israel Saved At The End: A Quick Summary

Revival in The church.
Church evangelizes the world.
Fullness of the Gentiles. Romans 11:25
Israel's Blindness removed Romans 11:25
Israel receives the Spirit of grace and supplication Zechariah 12:10.
Israel calls on the name of the Lord and Jesus returns Matthew 23:39
Resurrection of the dead Romans 11:15
Jesus and the armies of heaven fight the battle at Armageddon. Revelation 19:19

Zechariah 12:10 Linked to the Second Coming

In the earlier discussion we looked at how it is that ‘all Israel’ gets saved, quoting from Zechariah.

> Zechariah 12:10 And I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplications: and they shall look upon me whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for him, as one mourneth for his only son, and shall be in bitterness for him, as one that is in bitterness for his firstborn.

This indeed shows the means for All Israel being saved. But we also need to look at other cross references here that speak of the Second Coming. These following verses provide a picture of the Second Coming.

This shows him coming in the clouds.

> Matthew 24:30 And then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven: and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory.

This one tells us that when he comes in the clouds, everyone shall see him, especially those which pierced him, at the crucifixion, his own Jewish people.

> Revelation 1:7 Behold, he cometh with clouds*; and every eye shall see him, and they also which* pierced him: and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him. Even so, Amen.

And then the mention of they also which pierced him takes us right to Zechariah 12:10 which mentions me whom they have pierced. So the work of the spirit of Grace and Supplications that is needed to bring about the salvation of ‘all Israel’ is directly tied to nothing less than the Second Coming of the Lord Jesus Christ. And this places the salvation of ‘all Israel’ right at the end of the tribulation.

Tie in to Romans 11 to Matthew 23:39

> Matthew 23:39 For I say unto you, Ye shall not see me henceforth, till ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.
> Romans 11:11-12
> 11 I say then, Have they stumbled that they should fall? God forbid: but rather through their fall salvation is come unto the Gentiles, for to provoke them to jealousy.
> 12 Now if the fall of them be the riches of the world, and the diminishing of them the riches of the Gentiles; how much more their fulness?
> Romans 11:15 For if the casting away of them be the reconciling of the world, what shall the receiving of them be, but life from the dead?

Here the argument is that if the receiving of them i.e. the salvation of Israel, comes at the Second Coming, then the phrase life from the dead is the resurrection.

> Romans 11:25-26
> 25 For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, lest ye should be wise in your own conceits; that blindness in part is happened to Israel, until the fulness of the Gentiles be come in.
> 26 And so all Israel shall be saved: as it is written, There shall come out of Sion the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob:

> Romans 11:27 For this is my covenant unto them, when I shall take away their sins.

Battle of Armageddon
The Battle of Armageddon is laid out in these three quotes.

This shows all the world coming against Israel.

> Zechariah 12:2-3
> 2 Behold, I will make Jerusalem a cup of trembling unto all the people round about, when they shall be in the siege both against Judah and against Jerusalem.
> 3 And in that day will I make Jerusalem a burdensome stone for all people: all that burden themselves with it shall be cut in pieces, though all the people of the earth be gathered together against it.

This shows where they are gathered to battle.

> Revelation 16:16 And he gathered them together into a place called in the Hebrew tongue Armageddon.

This shows that all those gathered to battle against Jerusalem, are there to fight against ‘Him that sat on the horse,’ Jesus.

> Revelation 19:19 And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him that sat on the horse, and against his army.

There are many who will not like this scenario and present alternate views. Remember Heinz’ Law. There are many who don’t like the idea that ‘all Israel’ will be saved. And others who don’t want to believe that the hope of Israel is deferred to the very end of this tribulation, also known as Jacob’s trouble.

This is why you can find endless quibbling about who is Israel, who is a Jew, or what does ‘all Israel’ mean. What about the lost tribes? And some are saying the fullness of the gentiles refers to the times of the gentiles.

Further consequences for the church
Questions we need to ask.
Does the blindness get removed because the Holy Spirit comes? Or Does the Holy Spirit come because the blindness is removed?

What is the fullness of the gentiles? And what is the fullness of Israel? Besides the notion of ‘full number’, the context of Romans 11 seem to indicate that fullness means their salvation. In Genesis 48, Jacob prophesies over Ephraim. The Hebrew word there for multitude is also translated fullness, elsewhere in the Hebrew old testament.

> Genesis 48:19 And his father refused, and said, I know it, my son, I know it: he also shall become a people, and he also shall be great: but truly his younger brother shall be greater than he, and his seed shall become a multitude of nations.

This idea of salvation here is linked to the idea of a multitude; we are speaking of the salvation of a multitude or large quantity of nations or gentiles.

> Romans 11:11-12
> 11 I say then, Have they stumbled that they should fall? God forbid: but rather through their fall salvation is come unto the Gentiles, for to provoke them to jealousy.

> 12 Now if the fall of them be the riches of the world, and the diminishing of them the riches of the Gentiles; how much more their fulness?

In these verses, their fall is contrasted with their fullness, so fullness speaks of restoration or salvation. What if they had not fallen? Then salvation would not have been available to the gentiles. If they knew Him to be their Messiah, they would not have had him crucified, and then there would be no redemption for mankind.

While there is a promise that 'all Israel' shall be saved, there is no similar promise that 'all gentiles' will be saved. Still we see that the Gospel must be preached to all the world, and this fullness of the gentiles must have 'come in to remove the blindness'. So if it is not all the gentiles, then it has to be some number gentiles. It has to be a vast multitude from every tribe and nation, still it is some number that has to be reached.

In the book of Revelation, when sixth seal is mentioned, there is a clue. Here it is saying the return of the Lord, to avenge his martyrs, must await the fulfillment of the rest of the martyrs that should be killed. There is a certain number to be fulfilled. That is a certain quantity.

> Revelation 6:9-11
> 9 And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of them that were slain for the word of God, and for the testimony which they held:
> 10 And they cried with a loud voice, saying, How long, O Lord, holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?
> 11 And white robes were given unto every one of them; and it was said unto them, that they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellowservants also and their brethren, that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled.

Let's spell this out very carefully. The request to Judge and Avenge in Revelation 6:10 is talking about the second coming of Jesus. Here it is seen in 2 Thessalonians where the bible tells of vengeance happening at the return of the Lord.

> 2 Thessalonians 1:6-8
> 6 Seeing it is a righteous thing with God to recompense tribulation to them that trouble you;
> 7 And to you who are troubled rest with us, when the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels*,*
> 8 In flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ:

So all this is to say there is a 'certain number' of martyrs that must be fulfilled before Jesus returns. While Romans 11:25 is saying there is a 'certain number' of Gentiles that must be fulfilled before Jesus returns. When you phrase it that way, the connection becomes very clear.

Is fullness of the martyrs then the fullness of the gentiles? And when that number is reached, will the Lord say Vengeance Is Mine, I will repay.

> Romans 12:19 Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord.

If the fullness of the martyrs means the fullness of the gentiles, many will be quite unhappy with the idea that the church goes through the tribulation only to be martyred at the end. On the other hand, this means the martyrdom of the church which is fullness of the gentiles brings about the revival in Israel, and in turn this leads to the Return of Christ. This is something we should look forward to and be glad in.

All this reasoning involves long chains of logic. If any one of them proves to be a weak link, then the whole idea falls apart. Remember Heinz’ Law. Still this is what the Lord has shown me, as far as I understand it, and there are confirmations of it given in other articles I have written. Consider that the whole discussion beginning in Romans 10 has a conclusion in the use of the word therefore in Romans 12:1.

> Romans 10:1 Brethren, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved.
> Romans 12:1 I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

And this leads to the conclusion of Romans 12, a promise and a prophecy.

> Romans 12:19 Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord.

Respond In Love And Faith

Jeff Culver

As I entered into my normal routine last Friday to pray over the sanctuary and the people and church that I pastor, the Lord gripped my heart in a powerful way over what is soon to come to pass, beginning in 2005. He showed me one thing that I cannot control, or stop, and then He showed me two things that I can control in my reaction, as the beginning of the end unfolds before our very eyes.

The Lord first began to speak to me about the European Union, and how it was going to assert itself in stronger and more aggressive ways. It will set in motion a pattern of behaviour that is a fore-runner of the prophesied Beast with 10 heads found in Rev. 13:1. This pattern of behaviour will release fear and lawlessness across the earth in an ever-increasing measure over the coming years.

But the focus of the Lord was not primarily on this. He then turned His attention and focus to the reaction of His Church. As the "signs of the times" grow ever more obvious, as things continue to fall into place at an increasingly quick pace, how would His Church respond? The Lord expressed His desire that we respond in love and faith.

Over the coming years, and there will be a notable increase in 2005, there is going to be a steady increase in lawlessness. This is a release of lawlessness that is leading up to the unprecedented lawlessness embodied in "the man of lawlessness" himself. It will shock many, releasing a great fear, and extinguishing love as humanity goes into an "every man for himself" survival mode. The increasing lawlessness will cause the love of many to grow cold (Mt. 24:12). The temptation for the Church is to respond in the same way. Yet the Lord will be wanting to demonstrate His love through His Church in greater and greater measure. In speaking to the Church at Ephesus (Rev. 2:1-7), Jesus told them that they have left their first love, and the activity and outer appearance did not cover up the inner death of love. As a result, if there was not a speedy repentance, He would remove His presence (the lampstand) from their midst. The Lord emphasized the word "quickly" to me. As the world around us retreats from love, the Church of Jesus Christ is to advance in love.

This great decrease in love will lead to a decrease in faith as well.

Jesus asked in Luke 18:8 if He would find faith on earth when He returned. He would not have asked this if it were not going to be an issue. Hab. 2:4 tells us that the "...just shall live by faith..." NKJV The characteristic of the people of God is to be a lifestyle of faith. Heb. 11:6 tells us that we cannot please God without faith. It is impossible. As lawlessness and fear lead to decline in human culture, the temptation is to hang onto that which we can comprehend with our minds, that which we can apprehend with our senses. Yet the call is to faith in God beyond what we have currently lived. Learning to trust in that which is unseen above that which is seen. For the Lord wants to release His works through His Church as never before. Dan. 11:32 tells us that those who know their God will do exploits. The Lord emphasized this verse to me repeatedly. This is the Church's hour! This is our chance to shine His glory! The life of faith makes the impossible possible. The sick are healed, the dead are raised, and the good news is preached to the poor.

And so, the Lord is focusing more on our response to the increase of trouble and tribulation, and is directing us to respond to their increase in an increasingly Godly way.

Rest In Me

Susan Waldrop

I see the turmoil, I see the stress, I see the sorrow, but I see your tomorrow! This is the moment we are together, this is the intersection at life you are at now. Nothing is ever permanent, remember this, for I see where you are going. This will pass, as everything in the past has passed.

Know this: I magistrate all things. I raise my righteous right hand in love, and I correct that which needs correction, I speak to those that are around you that persecute you and say, "Enough."

The speed and brilliance of my clouds passes over you now. Lay down in my green pasture, let each blade soften and wipe each tear as it falls. Do you not feel the love of even my grass, upon your cheek?

My creation knows me, knows my creation, for it is alive. Everything I make is alive! Yes, things you do not even know about, let your heart lead you now, and rest in me. Just rest... IN ME.

Redemptive workings of the Holy Spirit

In the Battle of Somme, 1 million men perished during World War I, on the ancient pathways and boundaries where the red poppies bled. France, your allies, our son's and father's blood that was spilled for your liberation from the Nazis in WWI and WWII, cries out to you in these days! Why do you make an alliance with nations that further oppression, tyranny, and slavery? Is it for wealth you will prostitute yourselves? Why do you fault us allies in our liberation attempts when not only have you received the benefits of such postures but also the restoration efforts such as those we have sown in post war Europe? Are you doomed by your patterns of behavior?

Belgium, Brussels at the Palais de Justice is the altar Pergamos (Satan's throne). It is a pivotal crossroads, the hub of nations; the pathway through Europe. The Palais is located on a high place that is a Babylonian palace of lions and angels. The circular drive in front of the Palais is a memorial to the slaughtered men of WWI and WWII. Do we remember? The very exclusive Royal's shopping mall (definitely class-oriented), contains a sculpture hanging from the ceiling of a dragon carrying off a cow. Who is this dragon that devours the laborers gain? This seems to be operational. Here are the Celtic highways ancient Gallic lands where I am taking notes from the Heart of God. Here is Montemartre in Paris where we were taken to the high place Sacre Coeur (Sacred Heart) to be shown the restoration of His heart for Paris in the place of martyrdom. He took us to the centre of the city the Isle de Paris where the ancient Celtic Parisi established the spiritual and political heart reflected in the current historical governmental houses.

We went under the Seine River and City center in the metro to the very lowest place underneath the river (the foundations) possessing every place our foot steps. Do we kill those we are to love? Do we bury them alive?

We stayed in the Faubourg district which contains a large Jewish population next to Montemartre. What is the heart of the Christian for their brothers of faith the Jews? Do we just say we are for them or do we really lay down our lives for their welfare as the Ten Boom family did in WWII? Is it performance? Is it their ministry? Or is it God’s ministry?

IS PARIS BURNING?

The Holy Spirit is coming with fires first of repentance! He is coming with fires of holiness! If they do not repent the fires of judgment are coming!!! Fire will descend on the coastlands Ez 39:6. France has more coastlands than any other European nation. Who is the Keeper of the Flame?

I brought you to Sacre Coeur. I brought you to the nations that have denied my Passion - trampling my blood. I have brought restoration to my remnant beloved church since year 2000. I have brought a fire of passion by my Spirit to those with eyes who can see and ears who can hear.

Ez 39:21 And I will set My glory among the nations; all the nations will see judgments which I have executed, and My hand which I have laid on them. 22 “So the house of Israel shall know that I am the lord their God from that day forward.” I love you .I am blue without you. I love the thunder in you the volcano of fiery lava.

Visions- Lord carrying His cross. I saw Angel of His Presence blowing a trumpet with glory. I saw a man’s femur bone. I hear the vows of those who have disassociated their hearts from their lives. I hear the cries of those who hate themselves. The love of the Father will establish the love of life. I think I see the bones coming together. Ez 38 & 39

Retreat Not, But Join Ranks

RETREAT NOT, BUT JOIN RANKS

Warriors, do not retreat in the battle. Do not run in the opposite direction of the enemy, but run towards them for surely I have given you the land. Do not give up in what appears as defeat for the enemy is lying to you. You are right at the edge of a mighty victory, a breakthrough you have been waiting for. For yes, you are at the threshold of a great awakening of My people. For I will take away the scales off their eyes of pride and deception and anoint them with the eye salve of humility and strength. For many have given way to the enemy without knowing it and have been in the enemy's camp. Now it is time to wake up and escape the clutch of the enemy.

Rush forward, Mighty River of God, and cleanse us of all filthiness of the flesh. Take away anything that would hinder our calling in You. Strengthen us to do battle, to lift up a mighty shout, and unite us as one.

No, it is not time to retreat, but to be strengthened in My presence. So draw together as one. Yes, join ranks, and I will give you the strategy that you will need to win this fight. The strategy is to humble yourself before the mighty throne of God, and I will lift you up. Trust in My strength for the joy of the Lord is your strength. Trust in My grace alone and My wisdom. If you feel you don't have a plan to take, then just rest and wait on Me for My timing is perfect in all things. Don't think you have to do something all the time for you need to take this time to rest.

Be sensitive to My calling you forth. You will hear My voice when I know you are ready. Join ranks I say this day. Put down petty differences and seek My face alone, and worship Me as a way of life by trusting and resting in Me. I will bring forth the victory through those who have childlike faith, one who trusts Me no matter what they feel or see. For I AM calling those who walk by faith and not sight and those who love above all things for that is your greatest weapon that will win the unlovely and will repel the enemy from the lost.

Yes, above all things I will have you to love your neighbor as yourself and love Me with all your mind, soul and strength. This is My greatest commandment. And to trust Me as a child would trust one who is a good father to them. Remember to keep humility as your mantle of praise, the joy of the Lord as your strength, and love your greatest weapon this day forth. This is My greatest battle plan for you is to join ranks.

Declutter Your Spiritual House

Declutter Your Spiritual House

Examine the entranceway into your heart. Is it full of clutter or is it a clear pathway full of My wisdom and grace? I want you to be able to get to the place where you can be quiet and still before Me. Many are so scattered in their thoughts that they have actually become divided within themselves.

This is the day of the latter rain outpouring, and I AM examining My bride to see if she might be ready to even move in My glory. The enemy has been working overtime pulling out all his props causing so many to fall away into complacency and apathy. Many don't even desire to be in My presence to seek My face. Everything else catches their attention, and it grieves My heart to see this happen.

For without Me there is no life within, and for My life to flow within you, you need to draw close to Me, and listen to My still small voice. Are you able to get quiet before Me? Do you even desire to do so? For I AM calling you back to your First Love, and I AM ready to put in your heart a deep thirst and hunger for My love. I AM even going to make you like a dry sponge ready to soak up all that I will pour out into you. If you would only die out to the props of the enemy to tear you away and return unto Me.

I will give you the grace to be able to stay before Me if you desire it. For I see your heart, and I see that many have just lost interest in having an intimate relationship with Me. I encourage you to not give up. I know it has been a long dry road, and the appearance of the Bride has been discouraging, but you must know that revival begins with you, by you crying out for repentance, and by standing in the gap for others to repent and to want purity in their lives and truth.

Look to Me, the Author and Finisher of your faith. I have begun the good work in you, and I AM faithful to complete it. So declutter the pathway that leads to your heart. Stay focused on the vision I've given to you. Be still and know that I AM Faithful, and that I have called you, and will use you in a powerful way. Yes, be still, stay focused, press in, and break through, says your God.

Rubber Necked Horses

Vicki Camp

10-3-05 In a vision I was shown two horses. They were dark colored (browns), and both were on their hind legs as stallions would be in fighting stance with one another, but I saw there was something other than fighting, which they were about and doing. It was like a friendly power dance, for they did not harm each other with their hooves, nor were they biting -- more a strong, powerful display and dance they danced with one another ....

They stood moving on their hind legs, in what appeared to be a lake or large pond of water having muddy grasses around the shoreline edge closest to me. The water was only 5-9 inches deep, or so, and these horses moving on their hind legs were never coming down, nor lowering to 'all fours' .
As I watched,,, these two horses would at times stretch out their necks to almost wrap around each other, extra-ordinary to see, while they were reared up and hoofing the air...... quite spectacular -- this dance, choreography, and power display of these two horses.

Then suddenly the two horses melded into one larger horse; One horse who was showing in tones of live mosaic in colors, as he moved; which I cannot really describe well in writing - a mosaic of colors very similar to stained glass with differing light glistening portions of glass in appearance, but most real and living horse flesh ! Marvelous to see; so "alive" moving, flowing with the light and shadows, the muscle, flesh and sinew of this new spectacular one-larger-horse.

This newly formed horse of colors also never lowered to all fours, but stood moving in magnificence,, still prancing on hind legs in that water, stirring it up, hoofing the air, throwing his head and mane about. -- and after some time of my watching, this vision ended.

Some insight received: In biblical times horses were power and strength, and in the way of God' language and symbol today, horses can sometimes depict ministers/ministries (which, horses have represented for me in dreams/vision from God in the past). Power as in horse-power.

*note: when I speak of ministers/ministries I am meaning "us", each one of us in Christ Body. Rom 12:4 and on,
"For as we have many members in one body, but all the members do not have the same function, so we, being many, are one body in Christ, and individually members of one another. Having then gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us, let us use them:..."

I believe the two horses of this vision represent the apostolic and prophetic. When unity is gained, melding into one, then these two horses 'more' abilities are achieved. This is not unto any loss of identity of each horse, but this was a vision depiction received showing of their 'togetherness' larger strengths.
>From the 2 brown horses (earthy color, or human being) God raises up (standing on hind legs) glorious and powerful new mantled ministers/ministry from out of these two -- together.
Both; The 2 horses doing the neck-wrapping with each other (impossible), and the final larger vision-horse and his magnificent coloring, were supernatural depictions being shown, e.g. not things that are possible in the natural.

When prophetic and apostolic people (2 horses) get hold of this, being pliable, enabled to be and do with one another in a unity, the waters (read: people) will be stirred for sure (!), even as it was in N.T. times with the church of Jesus Christ.
And too this also stirs up some not so good muck (muddy, fleshly, 'all flesh is as grass....' - I Pet. 1:24a) on the shoreline, on the peripherals (those who will not enter-in).

However, the God' Glory (beautiful mosaic glass-like light colors) that comes forth out of this power of two horses into one = unity .... when compared with small-mud-shoreline-turbulence. .. is unto SO much more in our Lord Jesus Christ, for HIS' people and those entering in. (- Eph. 2:20)

These are pliable ones, not stiff-necked, but pliable like stretching rubber to our Lord's direction as DanceMaster, for they are yoked to HIM (necks: yoke)
As prophetic and apostolic people (2 horses) move up into our Lord Jesus Christ (one horse, one body = HIS) in unity of HIS' purpose and work; Jesus Christ as our foundation and our High top covering as well as all / everything in between, we come into a unit/oneness displaying HIM in both power and beauty purpose – His purpose.

This is what the Lord is emphasizing to me once again, through this vision and after: There is no stopping the unified apostolic/prophetic people and body of Christ our Lord; Nominal believers and the world do take note -- for they cannot and will not be able to miss this body, as she the apostolic/prophetic body and bride-church is all about 'stirring-up the waters' unto salvation, destroying the works of the enemy, redemption, healing, wholeness -- a 'one' in strength and purpose unit, Christ' body; glory and power, apostolic and prophetic people who are gifted and given to the people who receive of her Jesus' Grace's ..
'Glory Hallelujah to The Lamb, our Christ and King ! All thankfulness and glory, praise and honor, on earth as in heaven, forever unto our Father and Lord Jesus Christ, of Holy Spirit – Let Your Will be accomplished in us and through us, Your Body on earth.' In Jesus Name, - amen

"Now Israel loved Joseph more than all his children, because he was the son of his old age: and he made him a coat of many colors. " - Gen. 37:3
  * Traditionally rendered a "coat of many colors". It is said that the exact meaning of the Hebrew is uncertain.

"But they obeyed not, neither inclined their ear, but made their neck stiff, that they might not hear, nor receive instruction." - Jer. 17:23
  * stiff necked = stubborn, rebellious

Jesus says, "Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls." - Mt. 11:29
  * yoked at the neck, to Jesus.

Resolution of Apology to the Native Americans

Jean Steffenson, one of USSPN National Apostolic Council Members and leader of the Native American Resource Network, has forwarded the following from John Sandford and Jim and Faith Chosa. These respected leaders bring wonderful understanding regarding the Biblical and historical view that supports the necessity of the Resolution of Apology to the Native Americans. This insight will help answer questions to those hesitant to support it.

Blessings,
Chuck D. Pierce

Word from John Loren Sandford - Resolution of Apology

In 2 Samuel 21 a famine was recorded. It was discovered that the famine had occurred because King Saul broke the covenant made with the Gibeonites 400 years earlier. In America over 800 solemn covenants (treaties) were made with Indian people. Not one was kept! A tremendous curse hangs over America! Not as though Indian people have not been forgiving; many have done so, many times. But sometimes apologies and resultant forgiveness must be done by the right people.

Never have officials of our government taken up authority to apologize officially. It is my hope that many will see this apology in that light, as an act that can begin to lift the curse of the law of broken covenants off of this land. To me, that is the significance of this apology. But, so far, in the many discussions I have heard about it, too few seem to grasp the real significance. I believe our native community needs to see this as an official act which can touch history with redemption! Many others have repented and prayed, but this is the first opportunity for those who can truly represent our nation officially to repent and begin the official process of lifting away the curse. For this reason I believe we need to call for our people to pray that the resolution will be passed and acted upon by our President. I fervently believe our American Indian people need to realize and pray about this apology's true significance, for if our faith and forgiveness is joined to this act, great good can follow - and if we do not respond appropriately, what kinds of present day "famines" may still occur needlessly? This resolution is not merely some kind of political action that may have little practical effect. This is a spiritual event of profound importance for us and for many generations to come. If you agree, would you please pass this information along?

Yours in our Lord Jesus Christ,

John Loren Sandford,
Descendant and member of the Osage Tribal Nation.

Resolution of Apology Prayer Alert – Jim and Faith Chosa

You may have previously received many notices regarding this critical national issue so this alert may seem like redundancy. However, we hope you will press forward in the strength and determination of the Lord to see this issue through to victory. To date, the Resolution of Apology is moving forward in the legislative process.

In this prayer alert to mobilize focused prayer and rally support from the Body of Christ to contact their respective Senators and Congressman to support this resolution, we submit the following summary of the need for this resolution:

1. There are 371 treaties that have been negotiated between the federal government and Indian Nations and ratified by the US Senate; when a treaty is ratified by the Senate, it becomes the "supreme law of the land" according to constitutional language. All of these treaties have been broken by the federal government in a multitude of ways. The most distressing has been the complete removal of Indian Nations from lands recognized by these treaties as rightfully belonging to these Indian Nations.

2. The US Constitution is the foundation for all law within the Nation; when this law is broken by the breaking of these treaties by US federal agencies, and the legal rights of the host Indian Nations which sought protection under the Constitution are radically violated and their cultures, and in some cases entire Indian Nations, are cruelly exterminated, then the Constitution as the platform for law in the Nation is also violated and greatly undermined.

3. The results of violating and breaking the covenant of the supreme law of the land adds the defilement of bloodshed to the land which serves to root a shroud of the spirit of death over the land significantly manifesting in the death of those most vulnerable, the unborn in the womb. These defilements in the land are the root spiritual causes of the many social curses now plaguing our Nation especially those resulting from dysfunctional family relationships due to the high divorce rate. In addition, the attack on the sanctity of marriage itself, drug abuse, street gangs and epidemic lawlessness are rooted in the breaking of these 371 covenants.

4. In the realm of the spirit, broken covenants greatly defile the land and provide an environment for evil to work in all facets of society; the ancient testimony of the Nation of Israel reveals how broken covenants weakened the nation from within and made it extremely vulnerable to external forces from without. We have, by God's Spirit, been alerted to the reality of how these broken treaties have created spiritual breaches in our borders and how terrorists will potentially recruit radical elements within the Indian Nations located in the border regions of our Nation. Indications are this recruitment is now a stark reality!

5. The violent history of our Nations beginnings, reveal how the primary Nations of Britain and France recruited allies among the Indian Nations to further their colonial goals in America. This history is on the verge of repeating itself with radical elements from foreign nations again recruiting Native Americans to further their extreme religious goals.

6. The cultural barrier, manifesting as mistrust and deep bitterness, between the Native Americans and the rest of society in our Nation stems from the breaking of these treaties. The most significant arena where these unresolved issues manifest is in the Church where Native Americans resist the message of Christ because they view it as the white man's gospel. Therefore, Native families, especially Native young people, remain entrenched in a spiritual vortex which becomes magnified as extreme hopelessness producing pernicious addictions of drugs and alcohol, lawlessness and high rates of suicide. This creates a ripe environment for foreign terrorists to recruit local assets for their cause.

7. A vital aspect of the Resolution of Apology is HOMELAND SECURITY. To undermine and neutralize the power-grid of evil set and anchored in the land of America by these broken treaties begins with an apology. Whenever Israel was threatened by an invading force, the prophets in the Nation would call the nation to repentance before God. If the nation sincerely repented, then the Lord would move with great favor and force on Israel's behalf and the threat was removed. The Resolution of Apology initiates this repentance action. As a result, it will provide a legal platform for the Church in many ways to advance the true loving message of Christ into Native America and begin to bring about spiritual restoration of Native families and their societies and righteously connect them in the larger fabric of society in the Nation.

8. It will also provide a legal platform for the Church, rightly aligned with Native indigenous spiritual authority, to spiritually remove the defilements of these broken treaties and negate all their associated curses from the landscape of America and close the spiritual breaches in our borders.

This Resolution of Apology is not just about Native Americans it is an issue which greatly impacts all inhabitants of America and all it's citizens will greatly benefit from the passage and declaration of the Apology. On behalf of the Lord Jesus Christ, and homeland security for Native America and all inhabitants of the land of America, please pray for and then contact your Senators and Congressman and urge them to support this Resolution of Apology.

May the Spirit of the Lord grant you courage and great grace as you allow Him to ignite a passion in your spiritual heart in regard to this Resolution of Apology to stay the course until the victory is gained.

In the Service of King Jesus,
Jim and Faith Chosa

Resolution Of Apology To Native Peoples

SJ 15 IS 109th CONGRESS 1st Session S. J. RES. 15
To acknowledge a long history of official depredations and ill-conceived policies by the United States Government regarding Indian tribes and offer an apology to all Native Peoples on behalf of the United States.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES April 19, 2005 Mr. BROWNBACK (for himself, Mr. DORGAN, and Mr. DODD) introduced the following joint resolution; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Indian Affairs

JOINT RESOLUTION

To acknowledge a long history of official depredations and ill-conceived policies by the United States Government regarding Indian tribes and offer an apology to all Native Peoples on behalf of the United States. Whereas the ancestors of today's Native Peoples inhabited the land of the present-day United States since time immemorial and for thousands of years before the arrival of peoples of European descent; Whereas the Native Peoples have for millennia honored, protected, and stewarded this land we cherish; Whereas the Native Peoples are spiritual peoples with a deep and abiding belief in the Creator, and for millennia their peoples have maintained a powerful spiritual connection to this land, as is evidenced by their customs and legends; Whereas the arrival of Europeans in North America opened a new chapter in the histories of the Native Peoples; Whereas, while establishment of permanent European settlements in North America did stir conflict with nearby Indian tribes, peaceful and mutually beneficial interactions also took place; Whereas the foundational English settlements in Jamestown, Virginia, and Plymouth, Massachusetts, owed their survival in large measure to the compassion and aid of the Native Peoples in their vicinities; Whereas in the infancy of the United States, the founders of the Republic expressed their desire for a just relationship with the Indian tribes, as evidenced by the Northwest Ordinance enacted by Congress in 1787, which begins with the phrase, `The utmost good faith shall always be observed toward the Indians'; Whereas Indian tribes provided great assistance to the fledgling Republic as it strengthened and grew, including invaluable help to Meriwether Lewis and William Clark on their epic journey from St. Louis, Missouri, to the Pacific Coast; Whereas Native Peoples and non-Native settlers engaged in numerous armed conflicts; Whereas the United States Government violated many of the treaties ratified by Congress and other diplomatic agreements with Indian tribes; Whereas this Nation should address the broken treaties and many of the more ill-conceived Federal policies that followed, such as extermination, termination, forced removal and relocation, the outlawing of traditional religions, and the destruction of sacred places; Whereas the United States forced Indian tribes and their citizens to move away from their traditional homelands and onto federally established and controlled reservations, in accordance with such Acts as the Indian Removal Act of 1830; Whereas many Native Peoples suffered and perished-- (1) during the execution of the official United States Government policy of forced removal, including the infamous Trail of Tears and Long Walk; (2) during bloody armed confrontations and massacres, such as the Sand Creek Massacre in 1864 and the Wounded Knee Massacre in 1890; and (3) on numerous Indian reservations; Whereas the United States Government condemned the traditions, beliefs, and customs of the Native Peoples and endeavored to assimilate them by such policies as the redistribution of land under the General Allotment Act of 1887 and the forcible removal of Native children from their families to faraway boarding schools where their Native practices and languages were degraded and forbidden; Whereas officials of the United States Government and private United States citizens harmed Native Peoples by the unlawful acquisition of recognized tribal land and the theft of tribal resources and assets from recognized tribal land; Whereas the policies of the United States Government toward Indian tribes and the breaking of covenants with Indian tribes have contributed to the severe social ills and economic troubles in many Native communities today; Whereas, despite the wrongs committed against Native Peoples by the United States, the Native Peoples have remained committed to the protection of this great land, as evidenced by the fact that, on a per capita basis, more Native people have served in the United States Armed Forces and placed themselves in harm's way in defense of the United States in every major military conflict than any other ethnic group; Whereas Indian tribes have actively influenced the public life of the United States by continued cooperation with Congress and the Department of the Interior, through the involvement of Native individuals in official United States Government positions, and by leadership of their own sovereign Indian tribes; Whereas Indian tribes are resilient and determined to preserve, develop, and transmit to future generations their unique cultural identities; Whereas the National Museum of the American Indian was established within the Smithsonian Institution as a living memorial to the Native Peoples and their traditions; and Whereas Native Peoples are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights, and that among those are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness: Now, therefore, be it Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. ACKNOWLEDGMENT AND APOLOGY.

The United States, acting through Congress--
(1) recognizes the special legal and political relationship the Indian tribes have with the United States and the solemn covenant with the land we share;
(2) commends and honors the Native Peoples for the thousands of years that they have stewarded and protected this land;
(3) recognizes that there have been years of official depredations, ill-conceived policies, and the breaking of covenants by the United States Government regarding Indian tribes;
(4) apologizes on behalf of the people of the United States to all Native Peoples for the many instances of violence, maltreatment, and neglect inflicted on Native Peoples by citizens of the United States;
(5) expresses its regret for the ramifications of former wrongs and its commitment to build on the positive relationships of the past and present to move toward a brighter future where all the people of this land live reconciled as brothers and sisters, and harmoniously steward and protect this land together;
(6) urges the President to acknowledge the wrongs of the United States against Indian tribes in the history of the United States in order to bring healing to this land by providing a proper foundation for reconciliation between the United States and Indian tribes; and
(7) commends the State governments that have begun reconciliation efforts with recognized Indian tribes located in their boundaries and encourages all State governments similarly to work toward reconciling relationships with Indian tribes within their boundaries.

SEC. 2. DISCLAIMER.

Nothing in this Joint Resolution--
(1) authorizes or supports any claim against the United States; or
(2) serves as a settlement of any claim against the United States.

Realms Of Eternal Faith

Clo DiPilato

Dearest Friends in Jesus,

The Lord has given me a couple of articles that I am going to call, "Prayer Warriors, Prophets, and Faith For An Eternal Realm". These articles addresses the subject of prayer warriors who are called to realms of Eternal Faith. These ones will actually be commissioned for service in the armies of the heavenly redeemed, and therefore, they have a prayer life very different from someone whose efforts in prayer are constrained to life on planet earth as we know it. These articles will precede a series of articles I will be doing on the subject of faith over the next few weeks.

Though for sake of contrast, the first group of prayer warriors I address through these articles are noted for their interest far more in a present image and immediate answers than for God's long term eternal plans to prepare them to be part of a remnant who will sit with Christ in His throne through all eternity, their prayers are to be valued for what they accomplish on the temporal level.

Though there is some disappointment in their lack of sensitivity to eternal things, in no way do I wish to neglect to appreciate a present anointing many of these ones are operating in. If there seems to be any sense of rebuke in the first article, it is because the Lord is wishing to call some of these ones up to a higher place, and my prayer is that we all have "ears to hear".

(I also wish to note that there are some personal testimonies in these articles of some who have been close to me such as my own grandmother, and the woman of God who mentored her into the life of prayer. I have found that at times people are offended by the personal testimonies, as if they are being exalted over the testimonies of others. They are not. They are simply what I can relate to firsthand, but I do know all those who serve the Lord do have their own stories and testimonies that are to be just as highly valued. In no way do I mean to minimize that which have others have learned about prayer through their own testimonies and experiences. We are all on the same side, and hopefully, serving the same God, and I am always greatly blessed when people write to me, and share their own stories with me!!)

Now, to share with you just a bit of the dealings of the Lord that led up to these articles:

I have recently been experiencing a "trial of my faith." I am rejoicing in this because the Bible tells us when our faith is tried, it should be considered as more precious than gold.

> 6 ¶Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now for a season, if need be, ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations:
> 7 That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ: 1 Peter 1:6,7

I had presented to me an opportunity that would have allayed my immediate fears, and been a bit of a respite from the tension of my situation. But then I realized that it was a "short -term fix", and what I needed was a "long-term solution". The Lord spoke to me that I needed to deal with the root issue of a lack of faith. He spoke to me that I needed a greater impartation of faith, and in dealing with the problem on this level, rather than to just address a surface issue, I'd have faith to draw from whenever the need for greater faith would arise.

So, in obedience to the Spirit, I took a little trip to a place where there is a history of great faith in operation. On my 4 hour drive to the location, I did my best to prepare my spirit for whatever I'd receive from the Lord. I arrived at my destination late on Friday evening, and was shown to a beautiful guest room. The grounds, buildings and furnishings of this place are all exceptionally lovely, and it is all "debt free", and a place where the blessings of God flow. I was alone in the administration building for

Friday night, and most of Saturday except for some that had to come and go as part of their routine responsibilities in being part of church/Bible College campus ministry. (See Blue Ridge Chapel at http://www.blueridgchapel.org , if you are interested to find out more about this ministry)

As I settled in, and began to seek the Lord both in my room, and walking the hallway outside of my room (I'm a prayer "pacer") , and spending time in the Word in a little sitting room across the hall, there was one word from the Lord, and it was truly the word of the Lord, and began the process of encouraging me in my faith to the great dismay of any "fear, doubt, and unbelief" lurking within my soul. This was the word: "All that you see with your eyes, is because someone prayed." Knowing the history of this particular ministry, I knew they were people of GREAT prayer.

I also realized I needed to much consider the subject of prayer, and the articles I will be sending out over the next few days come out of that time of waiting on the Lord.

Let me encourage you that the articles do get more positive as I go along. I feel the first articles are an important foundation to the final article, which deals very primarily with what the Lord deposited into my spirit about faith. The following "points of review" introduce you to the content of the following articles. The next two articles will follow shortly, and then the final article will appear on the weekend.

A review of the Temporal Realm Prayer Warrior, Image is Everything.

1. Praying is to be able to successfully operate in gifts for the ministry advancement.
2. Praying is rarely about coming into relationship with the Lord.
3. Praying is rarely about coming to understanding of personal shortcomings and things in need of correction, though much will be discerned in the lives of others, and will set others in awe of the gift of knowledge in operation.
4. This prayer warrior's name recognition is much more important than the Name of Jesus. (They love to refer to themselves in the "third person", as if they are talking about someone else, just to make sure their name gets "out there".)
5. These prayer warriors have gifts that are outstanding because ALL attention is on the gift, and never on character. Their gifts will never betray them.
6. Praying is always about gifts and ministry, and never about character and personal sacrifice, except for what others should sacrifice to service the Temporal Realm Prayer Warrior's ministry.
7. Do not automatically dismiss these "prayer warriors" as false prophets, and be careful about making such a judgment. Rather pray for conviction to come, and their eyes to be open.

Review of the Eternal Realm Prayer Warrior: JESUS is everything:

1. The prayer life of this one will never escape the "candle of the Lord" that searches all the inward parts of the belly.
2. The prayer life of this one always goes by way of the Cross.
3. The prayer life of this one takes a life-time to get the answers because this one is committed to process to become more like Jesus.
4. The prayer life of this one has eternity's values in view, and is preparation for eternal ministry in the heavenly realms , and not just a present dispensation.
5. The prayer life of this one recognizes the advantages and value of praying in secret, and having the label of "intercessor" is not important to this one. The Lord getting HIS desired results is what is important.
6. The prayer life of this one is usually conceived in personal sufferings, but matures into a true and selfless expression of the burden of the Lord for others, and the work of the ministry.
7. The prayer life of this one knows how to come into a place of quietness to hear the Lord should He wish to address personal issues apart from the militant prayer mandate.

I trust you will read and consider what the Spirit is saying through these articles, as you have the time to do so.

Dearest Friends in Jesus,

As I was writing this article, the Spirit of the Lord came upon me to address some things through prophetic insight. This is a bit of a hard word, but I feel if I soften what the Lord has given to me, I will be in disobedience to the Spirit of God.

We are in serious times, and God is dealing with the misuse of the ministry at all levels. We are coming to times when God's people are going to be in the forefront as never before ministering in reality, and NOT in theatrics and showmanship. A purging and pruning is coming to the Church, even if God has to "strip the bark clean bare" in order to get the representation of Himself that He desires to be manifested in this earth. I know many of us have been experiencing it on a personal level, and it's going to be manifested on the corporate level, as well as on the "stellar" level. What do I mean by the "stellar level"?? You'll understand at you read the article.

About prayer warriors who take hold in faith........

I have found that there are two types of "prayer warriors" who are "successful" in ministry. Much prayer is always at the root of any accurate prophetic ministry.

This first group addressed through this article are those who are very concerned with the present state of things, and temporal issues. If you are in this group, you would want to carefully seek the Lord to see if He has something higher for you in His purposes. If you know someone who is caught up in this type of ministry, give them the benefit of the doubt that they really do love the Lord, but just do not have the maturity to see beyond present spiritual gratification to the bigger picture of eternal values. Because much is being done to be seen of man, they have their rewards here and now, and will gain little in God's eternal kingdom.

For this type of "Prayer Warrior", image is everything.

These are prayer warriors who know how to turn the search light off when it comes to the dealing of God to their own soul. They pray with fervent energy, will rise up early and stay up late, will spend many days in prayer and fasting, but somehow they manage to be able to pray for ministry needs and success and giftings and anointings, but they never let the Spirit of God come to do a deep work within that changes their own nature. I think among these are the very ones who will be cited as being those who say in that day of the Lord's review, "But Lord......didn't we prophesy in your name, etc. "

> 21 ¶Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.
> 22 Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils?
> and in thy name done many wonderful works?
> 23 And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity.
> Matthew 7:21-23.

These particular prayer warriors build monuments to themselves. They always name their ministries after their own name. They only use the Name of Jesus for the advantages of it. Notice how all they DO, they DO in the Name of Jesus, but as far as truly knowing the Lord, Jesus denies them. They know how to work the laws and principles of the faith, and it WORKS. But those things will never buy relationship with Him. It's because though they are willing to spend endless hours in prayer and fasting to get power, they are not willing to submit to the fires that will bring their nature into conformity to His Nature, and His NAME is HIS NATURE!! This reminds me of the Lord's counsel to the church at

Laodocea:

> 4 ¶And unto the angel of the church of the Laodiceans write; These things saith the Amen, the faithful and true witness, the beginning of the creation of God;
> 15 I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot.
> 16 So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth.
> 17 Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked:
> 18 I counsel thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear; and anoint thine eyes with eyesalve, that thou mayest see.

Now, I want you to catch something in the above portion of scripture. Jesus speaks of the Laodiceans as being "lukewarm". Because gifts and callings are without repentance, this scripture is NOT talking about being "lukewarm" in the manifestation of the gifts. You can be redhot in your gift, and lukewarm in your soul!!

If this particular group of "prayer warriors" were actually interested in giving glory to the Name of Jesus, they'd submit to His dealings so that their whole lives would be a testimony to Him . They'd take the counsel He gave to the Laodicean Church to heart.

When a ministry is not built on the Name of Jesus, it t takes the boundless amount of soul energy the original founder had to carry it on. Who has that energy, since they "did it all"?? There are very few powerful "second generation" anointings coming forth of this brand of "prayer warrior". But this foundation of the Name of Jesus again and again proves to be the "stone that the builders rejected". Why? Because the Name of Jesus brings an offense!! Better to say "the man upstairs", or that "guy in the sky" . To boldly say His Name, and that you recognize and honor Jesus as God Almighty manifested in the flesh will get you in trouble.

I found it quite interesting when I recently listened to a great exhortation to faith and deliverance from generational curses. This well-known minister managed to carry on for his half hour television show without even ONCE mentioning that the power is in the Name of Jesus!! He got all the principles out there, and I was really being blessed by what he was saying. I kept eagerly looking forward to the name of Jesus. It never came. I made the excuse for him that in the real services on location at his local church , surely they are mentioning the Name of Jesus, and not leaving Him out!! They just need to leave Jesus out so they won't offend the television audience and maybe lose donations.

Mentioning the Name of Jesus may get you moving in a very impressive level of power. But actually building on the Name of Jesus requires a whole lot more than throwing money to a ministry. It brings you face to face with the nature and character behind the Name, and a reverencing of God, and a bringing forth of fruits. (Read Matthew 42:33-42).

> 42 Jesus saith unto them, Did ye never read in the scriptures, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner: this is the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes? Matthew 42:21

These "Image is Everything" Prayer Warriors are usually legalistic in their approach to ministry because the worth of their ministry is based on "image", and so anything that would damage the "image" is not tolerated. Image is first and foremost the most important thing, and being able to boast about a dedicated prayer life is one thing that does help the image.

God honors prayer. Their prayers will get answered. Their anointings will be powerful and mighty, and will be manifested because they prayed. They faithfully prayed, and they will not be denied. Their ministry is not about a relationship with God that brings inward correction when there is a lack of integrity. It is about what is portrayed to the world of power and manifestation of their giftings.

Remember, Balaam was not a false prophet because of what he SAID, he was a false prophet because of unresolved character issues, and misusing the gift of God for selfish gain. Do you realize you can use the gift of God for "selfish gain" in other ways rather than just about money?? I could go into detail, but that would make this too lengthy. Again and again and again, I come under the conviction of the Spirit regarding the motivation behind any ministry endeavor. I know I am not alone in this matter. Beloved, it's just not all that important to God that we have a flourishing and successful ministry image. (Someone recently told me I'd never have a ministry that would amount to anything because if it was to happen, it would have already happened. My flesh reacted by being offended. But now, I am rejoicing because it truly sets me free to speak as the Lord anoints me to speak forth because there really isn't much at all for me to lose!)

These prayer warriors have gifts honed to perfection. That is because the most important thing to their world is their gift. Their gifts will NEVER betray them. They can hear from God about what color dress you wore last Tuesday, who you slept with last Monday, and where you went to church last Sunday. They can make you shake in your shoes that you might get caught in your own sin and uncleanness. You hear that the "prophet" is coming, and you're checking out your own soul every which way and on your face repenting before God because you know this "prophet" who is a prayer warrior who spends hours in the throne room is coming to your city.

But for some reason, this very same prophet who can hear reams from God about sins of others, storms on the horizon, and the rise and fall of national leaders have NO conviction whatsoever when it comes to hearing a word from God about abusing and misusing the sheep if someone is found not to be advantageous to his/her ministry. They can cut you off in a flash without caring one bit that they have wounded you. You are very dispensable because they have never cared about your soul, but only the workings of their own ministry machine, and any cog that keeps the wheel from running as it should needs to be replaced as fast as possible.

They will not spare your soul because of your crying. You'll be just fine. I know of a ministry that boasted in their ability to let people go. I heard first hand how they had dismissed about 50 people from the same position in a space of about 5 years. All because somehow they would have hurt "the ministry".

They feel no remorse whatsoever about using their ministry as a vehicle to their own financial success riding over the backs of those who struggle to make ends meet by commercializing a gospel and making merchandize of God's people when the Lord says, "Freely ye have received, freely give." Just what was Jesus talking about when He said, "Freely ye have received, freely give":

> ¶These twelve Jesus sent forth, and commanded them, saying, Go not into the way of the Gentiles, and into any city of the Samaritans enter ye not:
> 6 But go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.
> 7 And as ye go, preach, saying, The kingdom of heaven is at hand.
> 8 Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out devils: freely ye have received, freely give.
> 9 Provide neither gold, nor silver, nor brass in your purses,
> 10 Nor scrip for your journey, neither two coats, neither shoes, nor yet staves: for the workman is worthy of his meat.

Jesus was talking about the fact that the gifts they had received of demonstration and power were freely given to them, and these should be freely ministered to others. It was not just talking about the simple gospel message of a free salvation. They didn't get to charge registration fees for holding a revival service.

Now, is it a contradiction when the Lord says "freely give", and then turns around and says in the same breath that a "workman is worthy of his meat"?

Comparing scripture with scripture, we find that the "workman" refers to those who "labor in the word and doctrine". It does not refer to one who has the manifestation of a gift in operation in his/her life. This tells me that the signs and wonders were accompanying the preaching and teaching of the Word. So, the Lord was saying they were entitled to an offering, but they were NOT to charge for their gifts. If you are advertising your ministry based on your gift, and then charging ridiculous honorariums and conference fees because you use your gift as the drawing card, how do you square such a thing with what Jesus said???

We never see the Apostle Paul giving one word of advice to those he fathered in the faith as to how they should charge for their spiritual labors. Rather, He spoke directly to God's people, "Thou shalt not muzzle the ox that treadeth out the corn." 1 Corinthians 9:7-9. Paul took this directly from the Old Testament Law. Deut 25: 4.

What does it mean not to "muzzle the ox" that treadeth out the corn. The natural feeding habits of oxen is to graze. As the ox was fulfilling his usefulness in the field, he would be free to graze. Here is what the dictionary tells us "graze" means:
Main Entry: ^{1}graze

- Pronunciation: 'grAz
- Function: verb
- Inflected Form(s): grazed; graz·ing
- Etymology: Middle English grasen, from Old English grasian, from græs grass
- intransitive senses
  1 : to feed on growing herbage, attached algae, or phytoplankton
  2 : to eat small amounts of various foods several times a day transitive senses
  1 a : to crop and eat in the field b : to feed on the herbage of
  2 a : to put to graze <grazed the cows on the meadow> b : to put cattle to graze on 3 : to supply herbage for the grazing of
  - graze·able or graz·able /'grA-z&-b&l/ adjective
  - graz·er noun
- Pronunciation Key

The animal, the ox, instinctively would know his own limitations, and not take more at one feed than he could naturally tolerate for the mechanisms of his digestive system. If you read about historical oxen, it's interesting to note that their helpfulness to humans was so valued they were literally worshipped in some societies. Hmmmmm. Think about that one!!

An unmuzzled ox could eat whatever he desired to eat, and was obviously trusted not to rake the fields clean of it's harvest. The people of God ought to be able to trust the servants of the Lord to freely receive from the works of their hands in the work of the ministry without fear they'll end up fleecing the flock because they are given to an insatiable appetite of greed. But the people of God need to be careful they don't "muzzle the ox".

> 4 Behold, the hire of the labourers who have reaped down your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, crieth: and the cries of them which have reaped are entered into the ears of the Lord of sabaoth. James 5:4

I recently had a vision, and it kept coming to me over the course of several days. It was a room full of stacks of money, and the money was bundled by different colored bands. I never got close enough to the money to see the actual denominations of the bills. It could have all been one dollar bills, or a thousand dollar bills, or a variety. There were simply tables and tables and tables full of money. It seemed in this vision, I had access to this money. I saw myself filling my arms with as much money as I could possibly hold, and then trying to manage it so I would not drop it. The Spirit spoke to me, "You are to only take what you need." So, then the money dropped out of my arms because I knew that I had to come to a place of discerning what I truly needed because I felt the seriousness of the Spirit, and that there would be a great grieving if I lied to the Holy Ghost about what I needed to "take". I actually felt a great foreboding that I would even be killed, if I took more than what I needed!! In the issue of Ananias and Sapphira (Acts 5) , they lied to the Holy Ghost about what they were giving. Beloved, by the word of the Lord, I will tell you that finances are going to come into the kingdom of God, and it's going to be the temptation to lie to the Holy Ghost about what we are taking!! Be careful!!!

The Holy Spirit within me is so offended by the commercialization of the truth, and the merchandizing of the gospel that I get some of these "commercial Christian websites (usually prophetic in nature)" and I am literally sickened when I open them. Because I have a great respect for truth, and in no way wish to come against the Lord's anointed, I cannot bring myself to "deleting" their mail. Instead, I save it in a folder to be opened at another time. I know other friends who are true in the spirit will end up forwarding me any true word of the Lord where I don't have to wade through half a dozen advertisements to get to the pure word. Thank the Lord for these ones!!

Yes, I know that paper and postage and printer's ink and marketing all costs money. That is a no-brainer. But when you put your advertisements at the top of your website instead of the word of the Lord on your "prophetic" website , just what spirit is motivating you? I think it's the same one that motivates the used car salesman and the cheap mattress company. Is it the desire that the people hear from God a relevant word that will help them to draw closer to the Lord, and navigate their way through perilous times, and be encouraged in their faith, or is it your need to make money off the word of the Lord?

Some defend these ones by telling me how "sincere and sweet" they are. A person can be very sincere, and be sincerely wrong. How can one sit as a judge over the word of the Lord through the mouths of His prophets and give commendations of their words, and not yet be able to hear from God that you've taken God's house, which is to be a place of prayer, and made it into a den of thieves. How does the conviction escape you? How do you manage to understand and explain such deep revelatory teachings and prophecies, and yet so thoroughly sear your consciences so that you cannot even hear and understand the clear teachings of scripture?

It would be better for you to repent and go work the night shift at 7-11 than to continue as you are doing. Haven't you read about the sons of Eli in 1 Samuel 2 and 3? Don't you know about how the Apostle Peter talks about false teachers and false prophets who will make up stories to get the people's money? Read all of 2 Peter Chapter 2.

When Jesus drove out the money-changers what was that all about? People had come from long distances to be at the temple. They were selling the animals used for sacrifices to poor people who could not afford them at exorbitant prices. Do you have a gift of God that people can't have because they can't afford what you're charging to get into your conferences?
What about "scholarship funds" for special retreats, etc? That is quite noble, but if you're the poor person on the receiving end of it, how do you get to the money without being embarrassed?? The poor are certainly way too proud, aren't they!! They should be very thankful for the hand out. Beloved friend, what would happen if we ministered out of the true provision of the Lord rather than from the level we fancy ourselves to be at, when we are NOT there? Isaiah spoke of a principle: It's called "line upon line", and "precept upon precept", and "here a LITTLE and there a LITTLE". It's found in the 28th chapter of Isaiah.

This "image demon' that is rampant in the church wants us to bypass all prayer that would bring us to the throne room for the purpose of seeing the Lord high and lifted up as Isaiah saw Him. It would not do at all to find ourselves for days on our faces before God over a "woe is me for I am undo, and I'm a person of unclean lips, dwelling in the midst of an unclean people" attitude when "the ministry" demands we pray more about our power and our gifts and our special visitations and revelations than about being more like Jesus!

"Image" has so invaded the church that moving and ministering in simplicity has almost become virtually impossible!! It's a spirit that has overtaken us and run roughshod over us as the church of Jesus Christ.

Here is the word of the Lord straight out of the scripture for those who engage in the practice of misusing the ministry for selfish gain, and are overly concerned with image. It may be wonderful to be riding on the wings of great charismatic, end-time, third-wave, third day, kingdom (and whoever I've forgotten) revelatory popularity, but you are setting yourself up to be the martyrs of the faith and are you sure you've got the right stuff to stand in that day of adversity and persecution?? Doesn't matter how much time you've put in "burning out for Jesus" and in hours of prayer and fasting. If the image of successful ministry is at the root of your desire rather than the desire to come forth in HIS image and likeness, believe me, you are NOT prepared for what will be coming your way, and you've made yourself a sitting target like a duck at a carnival. In the day of adversity, a willingness to stay hidden and humble is going to preserve God's people, not as "running in fear" but in having sense enough to discern the times. You're worth a whole lot more to God's purposes here on planet earth in tumultuous times if you're alive and ministering to a humble few hidden in some cave in the woods than if you're some dead super-star.

Jeremiah 45:1 ¶The word that Jeremiah the prophet spake unto Baruch the son of Neriah, when he had written these words in a book at the mouth of Jeremiah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, saying,
2 Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, unto thee, O Baruch;
3 Thou didst say, Woe is me now! for the LORD hath added grief to my sorrow; I fainted in my sighing, and I find no rest.
4 Thus shalt thou say unto him, The LORD saith thus; Behold, that which I have built will I break down, and that which I have planted I will pluck up, even this whole land.
5 And seekest thou great things for thyself? seek them not: for, behold, I will bring evil upon all flesh, saith the LORD: but thy life will I give unto thee for a prey in all places whither thou goest. Jeremiah 41: 1-5.

Review of the "Image is Everything" Prayer Warrior:

1. Praying is to be able to successfully operate in gifts for the ministry advancement.
2. Praying is rarely about coming into relationship with the Lord.
3. Praying is rarely about coming to understanding of personal shortcomings and things in need of correction, though much will be discerned in the lives of others, and will set others in awe of the gift of knowledge in operation.
4. This prayer warrior's name recognition is much more important than the Name of Jesus. (They love to refer to themselves in the "third person", as if they are talking about someone else, just to make sure their name gets "out there".)
5. These prayer warriors have gifts that are outstanding because ALL attention is on the gift, and never on character.
Their gifts will never betray them.
6. Praying is always about gifts and ministry, and never about character and personal sacrifice, except for what others should sacrifice to service the "Image is Everything" Prayer Warrior's ministry.
7. Do not automatically dismiss these "prayer warriors" as false prophets, and be careful about making such a judgment. Rather pray for conviction to come, and their eyes to be open.

End of Part One.

Dearest Friends in Jesus,

In the first article, I shared with you about the Temporal Realm Prayer Warrior : Image is Everything.

Here is the second group, and the one you wish to be in, if you are going to hear from the Lord's mouth in that day when He judges both the quick and the dead:

> ...Well done, thou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord". Matthew 25:21

For the Eternal Realm Prayer Warrior, JESUS is everything!!

This Prayer Warrior may perceive a need, and go to prayer, but they often get off track because as they are praying about a certain issue, they come face to face with something within their own nature that will cause them to turn aside. For this one:

> The spirit of man is the candle of the LORD, searching all the inward parts of the belly. Proverbs 20:27

As much as the burden is real, the unbecoming issue in the flesh is relentless in it's appearing, and while they want to see God change a circumstance or meet a pressing need, it always seems prayer time never fails to take them by the way of the cross. They live with the perception that if they are going to see true answers to prayer, there is going to be a need for a death to the self-life.

When others get to collect goods and substance to leave to their children, they come face to face with this final outcome to their prayer life. They will never be truly satisfied until they come forth into the image and likeness of Jesus Christ:

> 14 From men which are thy hand, O LORD, from men of the world, which have their portion in this life, and whose > belly thou fillest with thy hid treasure: they are full of children, and leave the rest of their substance to their babes.
> 15 As for me, I will behold thy face in righteousness: I shall be satisfied, when I awake, with thy likeness. Psalm 17:14, 15.

These prayer warriors are the "Eagle Saints". If you are an "Eagle Saint", it means you always are "drawn to the carcase".

> For wheresoever the carcase is, there will the eagles be gathered together. Matthew 24:28.

In other words, where there has been a true death to the self life, the eagles are going to recognize it, and come together. Those of like spirit will gravitate toward one another, and if you are this type of prayer warrior, you will be found of others who are of the same spirit. You may be lonely now, but you can be assured, there will be a carcase that will be as a gathering place.

Beloved, if you are one of these "eagle saints", you just instinctively know by the Spirit when life is coming forth NOT based on the ability to produce or mimic a certain sound, or hype up a meeting, or prime a good old fashioned Pentecostal pump. (Something I have to admit, I personally love to do!!) Your spirit bears witness with something you fully understand.......what it means to go the way of the Cross, and out of death always comes TRUE LIFE.

The eagle saint's prayers come up before God as a sweet smelling savour. You would think the stench off the seething carcase of burnt flesh would be putrifying. But because the prayers of these saints are incense before the throne of God, that burning smell of flesh is masked and all God smells is the incense of the saints.

> 7 And the priest shall put some of the blood upon the horns of the altar of sweet incense before the LORD, which is in the tabernacle of the congregation; and shall pour all the blood of the bullock at the bottom of the altar of the burnt offering, which is at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation. Leviticus 4:7
> Revelation 8:1 ¶And when he had opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven about the space of half an hour.
> 2 And I saw the seven angels which stood before God; and to them were given seven trumpets.
> 3 And another angel came and stood at the altar, having a golden censer; and there was given unto him much incense, that he should offer it with the prayers of all saints upon the golden altar which was before the throne.
> 4 And the smoke of the incense, which came with the prayers of the saints, ascended up > before God out of the angel's hand. Rev. 8:1-4.

I believe these "prayers of the saints" spoken of in the book are those times of consecration and surrender and willingness to be as the "burnt offering" upon the altar, for the burnt offering, which represents complete sacrifice was accompanied by incense.

The Temporal Realm Prayer Warrior, "Image is Everything" are extremely skillful at making militant noises and projecting energy into the atmosphere through words and sounds and they will definitely achieve results. Several years ago, I went to a prayer meeting of this type. The Instructor in prayer wanted things to stay revved up to a fevered pitch. You couldn't pray loud enough, pray fast enough, or pace the floor fast enough to suit the leader. This group was expected by their "Chief Intercessor" to scream in tongues for hours without losing any momentum. Willing to learn something new, I tried to keep up, but it was quite a struggle. During that prayer time, if the Spirit came to speak in a soft voice into the ear of someone who needed a word of God about an issue in their life that might be keeping them from the kingdom, it never would have happened.

The very sad thing is that this was a group that got great results as far as money and numbers and some miraculous events. But it fell apart because the leader fell into a snare of the devil. I would love to be able to report a restoration, but I just don't know the facts to be able to do that. My hope is that the experience, and the humbling switched him from being a Temporal Realm Prayer Warrior to being an Eternal Realm Prayer Warrior.

Wouldn't it be wonderful to know that now instead of focusing on a style of prayer or a method of prayer, the focus is on Jesus, who answers prayer!! Jesus answers ALL prayer, but oh to be that one who returns to give Him thanks with a willingness to enter into relationship with Him, even as that one lone leper returned to acknowledge the Lord when there were 9 others who also received a healing, but chose not to return. Luke 17:11-17.

Because the Eternal Realm Prayer Warrior is far more sensitive to the convictions of the Spirit, their prayer life is a way of life that takes a literal life time to see things accomplished. What a "Temporal Realm Prayer Warrior" can accomplish in two weeks simply because they stay so focused on hounding heaven until they get what they are demanding, the ""Eternal RealmPrayer Warrior" can end up taking two years, or maybe even twenty years!! I know one man of God who has literally been before the throne of God a life-time waiting on God in prayer regarding vision and promise the Lord has given to him. Seems like by now he should have had a 'breakthrough". Why hasn't he?? Maybe because on his way to the results to prayer, this man of God is in the process of having eternity's values established in his life because he is not only called to accomplish things in THIS world, but in the one to come, too!!

> 2 Grace and peace be multiplied unto you through the knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord,
> 3 According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, > through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory and virtue:
> 4 Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature, > having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust.
> 5 ¶And beside this, giving all diligence, add to your faith virtue; and to virtue knowledge;
> 6 And to knowledge temperance; and to temperance patience; and to patience godliness;
> 7 And to godliness brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness charity. 2 Peter 1: 2-7

Why does it take so long? Because it's not just about the results. It's about a preparation for eternity. Prayer will engage the whole being, and convictions about prayer never seem to escape this type of prayer warrior. This one is far more often forced to pray "in secret", and doesn't have the advantage of calling a vast contingency of prayer warriors to his/her side. This one often cannot build a successful "intercessor's network" because they are so commissioned to the secret place that to do so would be counter-productive to the burden of the Lord upon this prayer warrior's soul. I am not saying it's WRONG to call an "army of intercessors". In fact, if you have an 'army of intercessor's " praying with you, I bless you in the Name of the Lord!! But in some ways, it defies the logic of true intercessory prayer. It's like having your wife in the delivery room at a large city hospital with her doctor, and the attending nurse, and then calling all the visitors, all the other medical personnel, all the housekeeping staff into the labor and delivery room to be part of the experience!! True intercessory prayer takes place in private and intimate settings. It's not a "spectator's sport", but it's been made to seem that way.

My grandmother who was a missionary for 23 years in Israel, and 17 years prior to that in Tunisia, North Africa had one of the most unusual lives of prayer. Often, people would come to her wanting to write a book about her life, or promote her ministry. She would never allow it. She felt this type of exposure would do great damage to the very thing the Spirit had commissioned her to accomplish. Because of a secret life of prayer, literally praying every night from 9 p.m. until 2:oo a.m. walking the floors and binding the powers of darkness, she had liberties to do things in four different churches she started in Israel, mostly among the Arabs. Where men of God could not "make it" in the work of the ministry there in Israel , my grandmother had churches with great big Arab businessmen getting saved and filled with the Holy Ghost, and because no woman was allowed to pastor a church, she simply ran the meeting from the back of the church as these humble men submitted to her leadership!

Now, could she have accomplished these things if she was a "public intercessor"?? No way!! True prayer that had an ear to hear what the Spirit was saying gave her the sense to realize she needed to keep it quiet more than she needed to be recognized for her prayer life. Now, after her death, the Lord is allowing the honor to come that she never received in her life time.

The Eternal Realm Prayer Warrior has usually been forged into a life of prayer through personal trials and sufferings whereby their only recourse was to pray. There was simply no other answer for them. God laid a deep foundation of prayer within their lives by taking them through some things that taught them to pray. After being in this "school of prayer" whereby they learned faith and trusting in God on a deeper level, they were able to move beyond their own "life and death" issues to being useful to God to pray through on matters of the burden for souls, the establishing of ministries, the calling forth of giftings and anointings, and so on. Because the Lord became very close to these ones in a deep place of personal prayer, they never cease to appreciate their foundations, and to misuse prayer for selfish ambition and gain would be unthinkable. The fear of God is so interwoven into the fabric of their being, it would not occur to them to pray after the lusts of the flesh.

In the late 40's, my grandmother came from California to Brooklyn, NY, and through God's intervention, landed at the doorstep of Mary Crandall. She had never met the woman, but God sovereignly led her to her home through the help of a taxi driver. Mary Crandall took my grandmother in, and informed her that what they do in her home is "pray". My grandmother expected some little token prayer meetings.

Instead what happened was that she was informed that they are up by 7:00 a.m., beds got made, and then it was breakfast time. After breakfast, then it was prayer time. Mary Crandall pulled the "prayer cushions" out from underneath the couch, and went to prayer. And prayer didn't last for a half hour, or an hour, it lasted for 8 hours. Out of this woman's prayer life came forth a thriving church in New York City, two Bible College Presidents with close to 100 hundred of their own children and grandchildren all serving the Lord, and many in some capacity of the work of the ministry. Mary Crandall went to China by the word of the Lord at 80 years old when she originally received a prophetic word about China in her early twenties!! (Nowadays someone gets a prophecy and if it doesn't come to pass in two weeks, they are whining they got a word from a "false prophet.) My grandmother's flourishing ministry of many years on the mission field, never once being backed by any major missions board, but having God's people take care of her so that she was able to cross the waters 17 times to come back to the states to minister here from time to time was birthed through the prayer life she learned at the feet of Mary Crandall.

A brother in the Lord I regard as my own "father in the faith", asked Mary Crandall the question, "Where did you learn to pray that way"? She told him this story:

She had her sixth child. In those days, there was no welfare. Her husband left her, and she had no food for her children. Everyday, she went out to a big rock behind her house, and cried out to God to bring the provision to meet the needs of her family. The husband left when the new baby arrived. She was so humble before the Lord, she considered it a great blessing when someone rang the doorbell and she went to find that one lone new diaper had been left on the doorstep for the new baby.

Many can have testimonies about some hard times that taught them to pray. We can all cry out to God in times of trouble. But the Psalmist David talks about the "Valley of Baca" in the 84th Psalm. That is a place of weeping. I'm so blessed when I read the margin of my Bible about this particular scripture. The King James version says this:

> 5 Blessed is the man whose strength is in thee; in whose heart are the ways of them.
> 6 Who passing through the valley of Baca make it a well; the rain also filleth the pools.
> 7 They go from strength to strength, every one of them in Zion appeareth before God. Psalm 84:5-7.

But in the margin, it says that in the RV it reads, "in whose heart are the highways to Zion".

Beloved, the Eternal Realm Prayer Warrior has the "highway to Zion" in his heart!! This one knows how to make that valley of weeping a well, and knows how to pray the rain of God down to fill the surrounding pools. I believe the heart of my grandmother and others she influenced was as a "surrounding pool". And then that one goes from "strength to strength".

Mary Crandall started her prayer life by praying out of the depths for her personal needs. But she went from "strength to strength" as she learned to prevail in prayer to see the Lord birth great ministries, and was even instrumental in the early beginnings of some recognized Pentecostal movements. Remember how when talking about the "Temporal Realm Prayer Warrior", there is little generational fruit of powerful ministry following in their footsteps because they've built on their own names rather than the Name of Jesus? Well, this woman of God so lifted up the Name of Jesus, and so gave glory and honor to Him, I am seeing her grandchildren, and even her GREAT grandchildren moving in powerful anointings, and still establishing the work of the ministry on His Name, and not their own.

Beloved friend, when you pass through the valley of Baca, recognize it's power to give you a prayer life that will take you from the realms of selfish prayer for personal needs into the realm of selfless prayer where your heart is full of the "highways to Zion". What is the highway to Zion? It's a highway of holiness that leads straight to Jesus!! He is the kings that is enthroned on the holy hills of Zion!! Zion may physically be in a land across the waters called Israel, but more than that , it's in the hearts of His people who are giving the throne rights to Him!!

For that one who is the "Temporal Realm Prayer Warrior, Image is Everything", the ends will always justify the means. Doesn't matter what they do, or who they hurt on the way to recognition or answers they wish to achieve. For the "Eternal Realm Prayer Warrior, JESUS is everything", the "means" are every bit as important as the "ends". Theirs is a life-time commitment to a pathway that shines "brighter and brighter" unto the perfect day. It's not just about "getting there" quickly, but it's about relationship with Jesus, every step of the way, and as He is truly the bright and morning star, He is continually making Himself more real to these ones~!!

But the path of the just is as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day. Proverbs 4:18.

Review on the Eternal Realm Prayer Warrior: JESUS is everything:

1. The prayer life of this one will never escape the "candle of the Lord" that searches all the inward parts of the belly.
2. The prayer life of this one always goes by way of the Cross.
3. The prayer life of this one takes a life-time to get the answers because this one is committed to process to become more like Jesus.
4. The prayer life of this one has eternity's values in view, and is preparation for eternal ministry in the heavenly realms , and not just a present dispensation.

5. The prayer life of this one recognizes the advantages and value of praying in secret, and having the label of "intercessor" is not important to this one. The Lord getting HIS desired results is what is important.
6. The prayer life of this one is usually conceived in personal sufferings, but matures into a true and selfless expression of the burden of the Lord for others, and the work of the ministry.
7. The prayer life of this one knows how to come into a place of quietness to hear the Lord should He wish to address personal issues apart from the militant prayer mandate.

These articles will conclude with a series appearing over the next few weeks on how these understandings about the different types of prayer warrior will prepare you for not just temporal faith, but for eternal faith!!

Dearest Friends in Jesus,

As I have been inwardly processing the two types of Prayer Warriors, I discussed in Parts One and Two of this series, my heart is crying out to be faithful to the Eternal Realm Prayer Warrior" style. I want to have a life of prayer that causes me to accomplish great things for God, but I want it ALWAYS to be with "eternities values in view".

I started these articles by telling you I went to a place to meet the Lord for an impartation of faith, and God spoke to me when I surveyed the wondrous things God had done for these faithful servants, "All that you see with your eyes is because someone prayed." But it wasn't just the relentless kind of prayer that will not take NO for an answer. It was the type of prayer that brought these servants of the Lord to the place of sacrifice over and over and over again. It seemed almost counter-productive to the popular brand of faith that makes demands on God just because "I say so".

When you find yourself in the midst of true covenant people, and are seeking something from the Lord, it's usually very little about fanfare and sensationalism, and MUCH about "quiet time in the Word with Jesus". Again, it's because it's about a LIFETIME of a WAY OF LIFE, and not just some sudden emotional frenzy of spiritual activity that gets the blood rushing through your spiritual veins.

Since I went to that particular place for an impartation of faith, I decided I was going to go into the gospels and see what Jesus had to say about "faith".

Without elaborating much on these items, I'm going to give you my notes, and let the Lord build upon it within your own spirit. (Over the course of the next few weeks, I do hope to be able to write in more detail on each item, but I wanted to give the "list" now, for those who want to do their own studying on the subject.)

It seems there is a balance of negative and positive thoughts to help us to guard against doing the WRONG things that can hurt our faith, and encourage to do the RIGHT things that will help our faith. I would encourage you to read the scriptures in context.

1. If you don't trust God for your basic needs, then you have little faith. Learn to TRUST GOD!! Matthew 6:30

2. Jesus equates using the authority of His Name, and speaking the word (commanding things to happen by the word of the Lord, and in His Name) with GREAT faith!! Learn the POWER IN THE NAME OF JESUS!!
Matthew 8:5-10.

3. The fearful are of little faith. Get rid of the fear!! Matthew 8:26

4. Jesus grants answers to prayers "according to faith", but He also sees crying out for mercy as FAITH!!
When you feel like you're lacking in faith, then CRY OUT FOR MERCY!! Matthew 9:27-29

5. There is little faith in the presence of doubt. Get rid of doubt!! Matthew 14:31.

6. To reason with God is considered "great faith", and produces results!! Never be afraid to try to convince God to meet your need!! Matthew 15:21-28.

7. Learn spiritual principles through natural lessons. To reason among yourselves shows a lack of faith, but to commit to memory the things that God has done will increase your faith. Remind yourself and share with others often the testimonies of things God has done for you!! Matthew 16:6-12.

8. Faith as a grain of mustard seed: Life is in the seed, and life produces life, and faith produces faith. This is a level of faith that keeps multiplying and producing more faith. Have ever increasing levels of faith! Matthew 17:20

9. Have faith, and NO DOUBT. You shall DO and you shall SAY. ALL THINGS asked in prayer! As the saying goes, "Believe your faith, and DOUBT your DOUBTS!! " Matthew 21:21

10. Corporate faith: One sick of the palsy "borne of four". When Jesus saw their faith.......The elements of corporate faith are "bear, bring, break, and "lay down before Him (see Luke 5:18)". Find those who will bind their faith with yours. Mark 2:3-5.

11. When you are in the presence of God, Jesus will question your lack of faith. Why are you so fearful? How is it that you have no faith? Jesus when He calmed the sea, asleep in the ship. Even though the Lord may not be "actively manifesting", He is there, and very aware, do NOT be fearful!! Mark 4:35-40

12. Faith "saves". Woman at house of Simon the leper with alabastor box who "worshipped." Look up what the word "saves" means in this context, and get fresh revelation into both faith and the fullness of salvation. Luke 7:50

13. The Apostles said unto Him, "Lord increase our faith". Those of apostolic anointing and calling hunger and desire an increase in faith. Luke 17:5

14. There is a faith that doesn't fail! Let us contend for this kind of faith!! Luke 22:31-32.

Amen and Amen. Let your own study of the Word develop these thoughts within your own spirit.

Riders on Horses
Priscilla Van Sutphin

4/27/05

tearsofthefather@comcast.net

Zech 10:3-5 NKJV "My anger is kindled against the shepherds, and I will punish the goatherds. For the LORD of hosts will visit His flock, the house of Judah, and will make them as His royal horse in the battle. 4 From him comes the cornerstone, from him the tent peg, from him the battle bow, from him every ruler together. 5 They shall be like mighty men, who tread down their enemies in the mire of the streets in the battle. They shall fight because the LORD is with them, and the riders on horses shall be put to shame."

" Some trust in chariots and some in horses, but I would that YOU would trust in Your LORD My beloveds! Many trust in their own strength and what they can DO. But I want you to trust FULLY in ME and what I can do in and through you, and for you! The days are coming burning like an oven and I want you ready for battle, but I want you to battle MY WAY and not your way. My ways are higher than Your ways. My ways are not always easy, are not always what you would want to do, but they are the SURE way. It is easy to trust in what you have always done before.

But I am asking you to look to ME, and to do things My way for NOW. Do not look to old ways, but trust ME to show you what I am doing NOW – for BEHOLD I DO A NEW THING. Before it springs forth, will you not know it? I am preparing you new wineskins! You must see the way I SEE. You must hear the way I HEAR. There is a way that seems right unto a man but it's way leads to death. Going your OWN way in the days ahead may well lead to death My beloveds. DO NOT yield to your own way, but learn now to lean on ME. Cast all your cares on ME, for I care FOR you.

I know the best way. I am your Resource for all you need, so lean on My understanding and not your own. Look to ME for the answers. Behold, I will show you mighty and wondrous things! I will show you all you need to know if you will just rest and be QUIET before Me, and allow Me to speak. Quiet yourself and let Me pour out My love to you! Be still and know that I AM GOD. I will sustain you in all things. I will lead if you LET ME! Think of Me as your dance partner. You don't move unless I lead you ok? You don't go ahead and do things just because you feel compelled or driven, but because I lead you there. Trust that if you obey and walk in the Spirit then I will lead you the right way. Trust Me to confirm My will to you.

I AM the FOUNTAIN of LIVING WATERS and I am bubbling up…like Yellowstone geysers, I will well up in YOU and I will explode inside of you, and You will obey Me because you will be FILLED with My love and power when I do My mighty work. Until then, you must depend on ME to lead and guide you. At that point, you will want to obey and you will not go back to the old man. You will walk in NEW LIFE and GLORY will fill you up and burn off all the chaff. You will be a NEW MAN or WOMAN, BOY or GIRL! All will change. ALL THINGS WILL CHANGE. The world will know that I have loved you! Every knee will bow and every tongue will confess eventually that Jesus Christ alone is LORD.

I will bring down the gods of clay, stone and wood. People will discard their idols when they see My power working through you! They will be ASTOUNDED and SHOCKED by what I do in you! WAIT FOR ME! I know you have waited already many of you a long time. It is just a bit more, and surely I will come to you, and no more will they laugh at My name! Those that do will be reprobate and those that WILL NOT CHANGE.

Low, I am with you ALWAYS, even unto the end of all time. I AM WITH YOU MY BELOVEDS. DON'T think I have gone anywhere. I LIVE INSIDE YOU. TRUST the anointing within you. CAST OFF ALL DOUBTS! REST and REJOICE in ME. I WILL COME AND MAKE ALL THINGS NEW!!!"

Ps 20:7-9 NKJV Some trust in chariots, and some in horses; But we will remember the name of the LORD our God. 8 They have bowed down and fallen; But we have risen and stand upright. 9 Save, LORD! May the King answer us when we call.

Ezek 39:18-20 NIV You will eat the flesh of mighty men and drink the blood of the princes of the earth as if they were rams and lambs, goats and bulls-all of them fattened animals from Bashan. 19 At the sacrifice I am preparing for you, you will eat fat till you are glutted and drink blood till you are drunk. 20 At my table you will eat your fill of horses and riders, mighty men and soldiers of every kind,' declares the Sovereign LORD.

Hag 2:22 NIV I will overturn royal thrones and shatter the power of the foreign kingdoms. I will overthrow chariots and their drivers; horses and their riders will fall, each by the sword of his brother.

Rev 9:17-19 NIV The horses and riders I saw in my vision looked like this: Their breastplates were fiery red, dark blue, and yellow as sulfur. The heads of the horses resembled the heads of lions, and out of their mouths came fire, smoke and sulfur. 18 A third of mankind was killed by the three plagues of fire, smoke and sulfur that came out of their mouths. 19 The power of the horses was in their mouths and in their tails; for their tails were like snakes, having heads with which they inflict injury.

Rev 19:17-18 NIV And I saw an angel standing in the sun, who cried in a loud voice to all the birds flying in midair, "Come, gather together for the great supper of God, 18 so that you may eat the flesh of kings, generals, and mighty men, of horses and their riders, and the flesh of all people, free and slave, small and great."

Fruit of My Lips
Priscilla Van Sutphin

4/30/05

"Have you ever thought about the fruit of My lips? Have you ever thought how when I speak, it brings life? With My words, there is enactment. There is conviction. There is empowerment. My lips speak gently to those who are beloved to Me. They speak as a Father speaks, not as a dictator, but as One Who implores you to right standing and holiness, and to woo you to Myself. I AM a good Father. Whether I am encouraging or correcting My children I speak in love. I may be abrupt, or stern, but never harsh and critical. Such admonitions come from another source who is a counterfeiter.

My words do not normally bring condemnation and death. They bring conviction, and they bring a conviction that engenders repentance and life giving sorrow, not grief and self condemnation. I have put My Spirit inside of you to write the law on your hearts. If you want to have words of life and conviction coming from your own mouth, then you must speak as I speak. You cannot judge and condemn others, ridicule and criticize and think that your words can bring life. If you gossip and judge others who are saved, then how are you helping them or encouraging them to righteousness? If all that comes out of your mouth is negative, then how can it bring forth LIFE – MY REDEEMING LIFE?

Do I lecture you? Do I hold a hammer over your head? NO! My words bring conviction and LIFE to your soul. Matt 12:34-36 NKJV

34 Brood of vipers! How can you, being evil, speak good things? For out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks. 35 A good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth good things, and an evil man out of the evil treasure brings forth evil things.

So, in order for the fruit of YOUR lips to emulate the fruit of MY lips, then your heart needs to become healed and whole. Your soul needs to become free of demonic strongholds and bondage. THERE are precious few in the body of Christ who are whole. For many years the church has failed to heal patiently the hearts of those who have been gravely or even slightly wounded. People have grown impatient and intolerant. Look at the fruit of My lips, My beloveds! See how when I speak to you in love, it engenders love back? Even if I have to say something hard to you, I do it gently, in love, that you will be drawn to return love and to repentance.

So many speaking for Me now, are speaking out of the fruit of their own lips, but those lips are yet unclean. With the same mouth they curse others and wish judgment on others out of unforgiving hearts. They disdain those in the world and do not love them. They haven’t yet learned to love their enemies or to be good to those who hate them. But I WILL CHANGE the face of My Church. You will come to know the TRUTH. And that TRUTH will set you free. I am a God of LOVE and KINDNESS, and yes, My judgment is My love greatly provoked. But My judgments are to bring you back to line up your behavior with the WORD. It is to restore RIGHT relationship.

Do not think I rejoice to have to bring judgment. Weep and cry My beloveds. Weep for the brother who is in sin. Weep for the lost. Weep for those who are ignorant and misunderstanding of My love. Do not think to be arrogant, or you, like the publican and the sinner story will find yourself judged even as you have judged. LAY DOWN ALL PRIDE. For judgment is reserved for those who are haughty and think themselves better than others. Arrogance and pride will be brought low. If you want to remain humble, then hang out with the humble and not with the haughty. For I tell you the truth, My beloveds. All that walk in pride and haughtiness will be brought low indeed!

Rejoice and be exceedingly glad, when men abuse you and speak wickedness against you, and malign your name, for great is your reward in heaven. Come and let us reason together you and I. Let us talk and let me touch you in the places where your own heart has been wounded. I love you and adore you and I will not let the places that are wounded continue to fester and stay infected IF you are willing to be healed. Come away My beloved and rest in My arms and let me touch you and heal your brokenness. Let me undo the bonds that have bound you from the wicked words of men and women who have been jealous or unkind and misunderstanding towards you. You are my peculiar treasures and I greatly guard those who love Me. Bitterness only leads to death. It is a road better to be less traveled. It will separate you from hearing from ME clearly. It will only steal and rob from you. The SON is rising with healing in His wings. I AM STEADFAST in pursuit of healing My bride! I am coming only for a spotless and pure bride. So lean on Your Beloved KING. Come and allow me closer. TRUST ME to do all I’ve purposed to fulfill the call on your life.”

Song 4:11-12 NKJV Your lips, O my spouse, Drip as the honeycomb;
Honey and milk are under your tongue; And the fragrance of your garments Is like the fragrance of Lebanon. 12 A garden enclosed is my sister, my spouse, A spring shut up, A fountain sealed.

Song 5:13 NKJV His cheeks are like a bed of spices, Banks of scented herbs. His lips are lilies, dripping liquid myrrh.

[His lips speak of His words and His words are sweet and pure like lilies.

Solomon here as a type of Christ. Jesus’ words contain myrrh, which refers to His exhortations to embrace death to self as He did for us. – excerpt

From Song of Songs by Mike Bickle]

Song 7:9-10 NKJV And the roof of your mouth like the best wine.

THE SHULAMITE

The wine goes down smoothly for my beloved, Moving gently the lips of sleepers. 10 I am my beloved's, And his desire is toward me.

[The wine of the Holy Spirit is able to revive those who are spiritual sleepers. The wine of the Holy Spirit in her experience is able to awaken those who are spiritual sleepers. The Lord uses her (bride) to awaken people who are sleeping spiritually. In other words, she brings others to a life of worship and passion for Jesus. When she says “Yes!” to the Holy Spirit’s wine in her own life it eventually results in her ability to impact others to a life of obedience. – From SONG OF SONGS – Mike Bickle]

Isa 6:5 NKJV So I said: "Woe is me, for I am undone! Because I am a man of unclean lips, And I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips; For my eyes have seen the King, The LORD of hosts."

Matt 15:8-9 NKJV "These people draw near to Me with their mouth, And honor Me with their lips, But their heart is far from Me. 9 And in vain they worship Me, Teaching as doctrines the commandments of men.'"

Rom 3:13 NKJV "Their throat is an open tomb; With their tongues they have practiced deceit"; "The poison of asps is under their lips";

Ex 6:12 NKJV And Moses spoke before the LORD, saying, "The children of Israel have not heeded me. How then shall Pharaoh heed me, for I am of uncircumcised lips?"

Job 8:21 NKJV He will yet fill your mouth with laughing, And your lips with rejoicing.

Job 11:7-8 NKJV "Can you search out the deep things of God? Can you find out the limits of the Almighty? 8 They are higher than heaven — what can you do? Deeper than Sheol — what can you know?

Job 16:5 NKJV But I would strengthen you with my mouth, And the comfort of my lips would relieve your grief.

Job 23:12 NKJV I have not departed from the commandment of His lips; I have treasured the words of His mouth more than my necessary food.

Job 27:4-5 NKJV My lips will not speak wickedness, Nor my tongue utter deceit. 5 Far be it from me that I should say you are right; till I die I will not put away my integrity from me.

Job 32:20-22 NKJV I will speak, that I may find relief; I must open my lips and answer. 21 Let me not, I pray, show partiality to anyone; Nor let me flatter any man. 22 For I do not know how to flatter, else my Maker would soon take me away.

Ps 12:2-4 NKJV They speak idly everyone with his neighbor; With flattering lips and a double heart they speak. 3 May the LORD cut off all flattering lips, And the tongue that speaks proud things, 4 Who have said, "With our tongue we will prevail; Our lips are our own; Who is lord over us?"

Prov 8:6-7 NKJV Listen, for I will speak of excellent things, And from the opening of my lips will come right things; 7 For my mouth will speak truth; Wickedness is an abomination to my lips.

Prov 10:13 NKJV Wisdom is found on the lips of him who has understanding,
But a rod is for the back of him who is devoid of understanding.

Heb 13:15 NKJV Therefore by Him let us continually offer the sacrifice of praise to God, that is, the fruit of our lips, giving thanks to His name.

Here Comes The Son
Priscilla Van Sutphin

Started hearing this song this morning - Here comes the Sun little darling...here comes the SON : old Beatles song and I realized the Lord was singing to me. I thought these lyrics might bless you = ONLY REPLACE SUN WITH SON...I started to cry when I saw the full lyrics...It has been a long winter season for me!
Love, Pris

Beatles's Lyrics - Here Comes The Sun Lyrics

Here comes the sun, here comes the sun,
And I say it's all right

Little darling, it's been a long cold lonely winter
Little darling, it feels like years since it's been here
Here comes the sun, here comes the sun
And I say it's all right

Little darling, the smiles returning to the faces
Little darling, it seems like years since it's been here
Here comes the sun, here comes the sun
And I say it's all right

Sun, sun, sun, here it comes...
Sun, sun, sun, here it comes...
Sun, sun, sun, here it comes...
Sun, sun, sun, here it comes...
Sun, sun, sun, here it comes...

Little darling, I feel that ice is slowly melting
Little darling, it seems like years since it's been clear
Here comes the sun, here comes the sun,
And I say it's all right
It's all right
Hallelujah!!!

Felt it applied to many, not just myself though it was a personal word...Love, Pris

You are depleted but not defeated.
You are delightful and not denied.
I am here and with you even in sorrow.
I am here and with you even in lack.
I will restore and I will ROAR!
I will survey and I will supply all you need.
I will not abandon nor will I forsake.

I will contribute and I will SHAKE.
You will rely on ME and not be denied.
You will be restored and not be ignored.

I am with you and I will not allow the enemy to continue this much longer.
I will RESTORE ALL and I mean ALL that concerns your heart.
I will make the crooked places straight and level every mountain that arrays itself against you for My name's sake!
I am ALL LIGHT AND POWER. "I AM AN EXPERIENCE" and soon they will experience ME in powerful ways that will catapult them into the Kingdom of My love and they will go forth as mighty men and women of GOD! [Youth]
Do not think your tears or sorrow are of no effect! I gather every tear. I know every groan and sigh , every longing to see them walk in truth!
Even the ones that are so distant and rebellious will be brought to their knees. So rest if you please and just feel the breeze! I am desires you and wants to commune with you!

I am your love and you will soon discover
That all that I've promised will be uncovered.
The explosion of My glory draws near My love.
Then you will go on the wings of the Dove!
You will fly to new heights in ME , My love
And greatly praise the One who is above!
Your joy and delight will increase so much,
That even the ungodly will be changed in a touch!

{ This morning I had awakened with a vision of a poster board in blue, green and white with letters in the middle saying ZANF! It kept being repeated in my mind!
It is a colloquialism per an online dictionary that means: I AM AN EXPERIENCE!
Also the name of a British musician- Christ Zanf}

"Drifting away is not an option for those called to intimacy.
It is only through diligence and violence that wars are won.
Pressing in to ME, is the call now. Time is of essence.
Surety is promised to all who will turn their hearts to ME now in this hour.
I am not an ogre, nor am I slouch, so I ask you to press into ME without striving, without trying hard, but just being - Resting in Me. Just come and be silent before ME. Lay your head on My shoulder! The Lord Your God is about to RISE and LIFT up high the Name of all Names!"

[I had a vision of an eagle as He said this - taking off from it's nest and soaring.]

As I arise to make Myself known, I will arise over you and My glory will be seen upon you! The Word will be written on your heart and mind and I will call all things to memory that are needed to fight in the days ahead.
I will make you My strong warriors to go forth in LOVE and in MERCY, in GRACE and in the power of MY MIGHT. Those who depend on their own might will be lowered and humbled till they repent. My love will be poured out in unprecedented measure to enable you to withstand all the things that are coming upon the earth. Do not think it my desire to leave anyone out.

I know your concern for your families and children. I know which hearts will turn and which will not. I came to bring a sword, I said. Members of your own families in some cases will report you to authorities to try and have gain for themselves. Prepare your hearts in communion with ME so that I may give you specific instructions each day. Grow in dependence on ME and keep in the WORD. The WORD is life to your body and healing to your soul. It is your defense system. What kind of army would go to war without a defense system? I will level every mountain that lifts itself up against Me. I will raise up every valley. I will RESTORE MY CHURCH! Be still, and know that I am GOD. Do not strive. Just come to ME and allow ME to touch you and speak to you. I LOVE YOU MY BRIDE! NOTHING IS IMPOSSIBLE WITH ME. Together we will fly and soar as eagles. I will not leave My bride alone EVER. I am a devoted Lover! I will not abandon you. This is your finest hour My love!

Truth will prevail over deception. Love will prevail over death and destruction. Healing will be effortless as I come and demonstrate My love and glory to the nations! I am raising up RADICAL LOVERS for My Kingdom among the youth and young adults who will lay down their lives and live only for ME. Dependency on ME is your greatest asset. I AM the Vine, you are the branches. Apart from ME, you can do nothing. Keep going My beloveds! Don’t give up just before I break through! Hold on to what you can hold in your heart, not in your hands!”

Rights of Passage

Gal 4:4-7 NIV But when the time had fully come, God sent his Son, born of a woman, born under law, 5 to redeem those under law, that we might receive the full rights of sons. 6 Because you are sons, God sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, the Spirit who calls out, "Abba, Father." 7 So you are no longer a slave, but a son; and since you are a son, God has made you also an heir.

Heb 12:15-17 NIV See to it that no one misses the grace of God and that no bitter root grows up to cause trouble and defile many. 16 See that no one is sexually immoral, or is godless like Esau, who for a single meal sold his inheritance rights as the oldest son. 17 Afterward, as you know, when he wanted to inherit this blessing, he was rejected. He could bring about no change of mind, though he sought the blessing with tears.

NT:952 bebelos (beb'-ay-los); from the base of NT:939 and belos (a threshold); accessible (as by crossing the door-way), i.e. (by implication of Jewish notions) heathenish, wicked: KJV - profane (person).
NT:939 basis (bas'-ece); from baino (to walk); a pace ("base"), i.e. (by implication) the foot: KJV - foot.

Father said, “ Rites of Passage but to spell it rights”
As I was contemplating the second verse above, and the meaning of godless or profane person, I saw a foot , as if trying with these boots on to try and push open a door that was slightly above ground, as if to wedge it open. Then the boot was struggling to force it open but it would not open.

Then Father spoke:

“Those who have RIGHTS of passage to My kingdom have it through entering into relationship with ME and accepting what My Son Jesus did on Calvary. There is no other way. Why was Esau denied his inheritance ? Why did he so easily give up his rights ? For the needs of his stomach, and because he was only concerned with himself. He did not value the inheritance until he realized the imminence of his father’s death and the importance that it was now at that time.

Many of My own have no concept of the imminence of My return and the importance of their inheritance in Christ. They have been sold a doctrine of demons that makes the BLOOD of My Son cheap, and not all that precious. They have no conscience about throwing away their inheritance. So when troubles will come, they will easily give up their rights of inheritance to heaven and My presence, because they have never tasted it, or out of FEAR for their lives in this world. MONEY will mean more. THINGS will mean more. RIGHTS in this world will mean more than ETERNAL rights that they cannot see, touch or feel NOW.

You must rescue many out of this maze of lies they have believed to save many who have no idea of the value of the inheritance that is available through Jesus and His BLOOD. That is why I made a spectacle of it in the Passion Mel made ! Some thought it too bloody. That is because it WAS a very bloody event. It was barbaric. It was horrible. It was bloody.
Some think nothing of eating raw meat, full of the blood, when I have said, the LIFE is in the BLOOD. Yet you call yourself a culture that values LIFE. Why then do you then drink the blood of animals ?

There were only three things required of new believers in the new testament – to abstain from sexual immorality, to not eat food sacrificed to idols, and to not eat meat with blood in it. Why is this common now ? Because of the growing violence of society. In ages past, things were different. Now all things are OK.

[As the Lord said this, I thought OH LORD, they are gonna think I'm whacko now or cultic but I knew He was speaking truth]

You have rights that no other being has rights to as children of GOD. You have rights to the throne of GRACE. You have rights to access My heart , My emotions, My thoughts and My will. You have rights to prosperous lives.
You have rights to share in My suffering, so that you will grow in MY COMPASSION. You have rights to have angels help you in ministering wherever you are. YOU have rights to protection so long as you walk according to the Spirit and not the flesh. But of course so few walk according to the Spirit ALL the time, so you experience many digressions in availability of "rights". In order to access these rights, you have to lay down all YOUR earthly rights…TO LIVE WITH CHRIST, YOU MUST DIE WITH CHRIST FIRST !

This has not been taught, nor has been taught the preciousness of the CROSS, and bearing YOUR CROSS DAILY. So that is why many are stumbling and not able to have victory in their lives. The inconsistency has caused confusion and doubt and skepticism to grow, along with unbelief. They can't understand why they aren't living "abundant life." They have no paradigm for suffering with ME. IT has not been taught that abundant life includes suffering WITH ME.

YET IT IS CLEAR in the WORD. Those who will benefit the most in the days ahead are those who have the right access, because they have the right doctrine in respect to RIGHTS. They will pass through the door of LIFE and access to the KINGDOM. They do not count their lives as anything, but have given up their rights that they might obtain a more perfect reward !"

Acts 15:28-29 NKJV For it seemed good to the Holy Spirit, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things: 29 that you abstain from things offered to idols, from blood, from things strangled, and from sexual immorality. If you keep yourselves from these, you will do well. Farewell.

Rev 12:10-11 NKJV And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, and they did not love their lives to the death.

Re: Paul the apostle
Acts 9:16 NKJV For I will show him how many things he must suffer for My name's sake."

Phil 2:25-27 NKJV Epaphroditus Praised
Yet I considered it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus, my brother, fellow worker, and fellow soldier, but your messenger and the one who ministered to my need; 26 since he was longing for you all, and was distressed because you had heard that he was sick. 27 For indeed he was sick almost unto death; but God had mercy on him, and not only on him but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow.

2 Tim 3:12 NKJV Yes, and all who desire to live godly in Christ Jesus will suffer persecution.

1 Cor 12:25-26 NKJV And if one member suffers, all the members suffer with it; or if one member is honored, all the members rejoice with it.

2 Cor 1:6 NKJV Now if we are afflicted, it is for your consolation and salvation, which is effective for enduring the same sufferings which we also suffer. Or if we are comforted, it is for your consolation and salvation.

2 Cor 1:7 NKJV And our hope for you is steadfast, because we know that as you are partakers of the sufferings, so also you will partake of the consolation.

Phil 1:28-30 NKJV For to you it has been granted on behalf of Christ, not only to believe in Him, but also to suffer for His sake, 30 having the same conflict which you saw in me and now hear is in me.

Phil 4:11-13 NKJV I know how to be abased, and I know how to abound. Everywhere and in all things I have learned both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need. 13 I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.

1 Thess 3:3-5 NKJV For, in fact, we told you before when we were with you that we would suffer tribulation, just as it happened, and you know. 5 For this reason, when I could no longer endure it, I sent to know your faith, lest by some means the tempter had tempted you, and our labor might be in vain.

2 Thess 1:4-8
5 which is manifest evidence of the righteous judgment of God, that you may be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which you also suffer; 6 since it is a righteous thing with God to repay with tribulation those who trouble you, 7 and to give you who are troubled rest with us when the Lord Jesus is revealed from heaven with His mighty angels, 8 in flaming fire taking vengeance on those who do not know God, and on those who do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ.
NKJV

1 Tim 4:9-11
10 For to this end we both labor and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Savior of all men, especially of those who believe. 11 These things command and teach.
NKJV

2 Tim 2:9-10 NKJV
9 for which I suffer trouble as an evildoer, even to the point of chains; but the word of God is not chained. 10 Therefore I endure all things for the sake of the elect, that they also may obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory.

Requiem Of Revival And A Harvest Hypothesis
Chad Taylor

> "Moses my servant is dead; now therefore arise, go over this Jordan, you, and all this people, to the land which I do give to them, even to the children of Israel. Every place that the sole of your foot shall tread upon, that I have given to you, as I said to Moses..." (Joshua 1:2-3).

STEPHEN IS DEAD BUT PHILIP IS STILL ALIVE!

What once was is now ended and a new day do I declare. Your time of mourning over past dispensations is over and the dawning of a new day has come. From the mourning procession of previous revivals a new breed will emerge with a torch of new beginnings in their hand. They will blaze the road of my return and set the nations afire with a new vision of their future escaping the gravity of history and launching into a new understanding of Me. The eyes of the nations will be enlightened and they will abound more and more in the knowledge of God. As the world mourns the close of one era a spirit of Philip will arrest this generation and they will shed the garments of sorrow and go down to Samaria to set the captives free. They will not mimic or mime their predecessors but will speak a word in season to a world in crisis. Not only will they be harbingers of repentance but of hope and mercy as well. They will walk as I walked and they will only do what they see their Father in Heaven do. The smell of pretense and pre-planning will not fill My temple any longer but the aroma of a living sacrifice. Stephen is dead but Philip is still alive!

ROME, ITALY AND ATHENS: AN APOSTOLIC WOMB

>From this ancient place shall spring forth a new order that will define the future. A new face will be seen that does not wear the title of Catholicism or Protestantism but will shine like the face of an angel. They will carry a wisdom that the world cannot gainsay or rebuke. The seeds of Paul the Apostle shall come to maturation in these places springing up a harvest unprecedented in recent times. The foundation of the Apostles and Prophets will hold the weight of glory that will soon follow the seeds that have fallen to the ground and died; they will now bear much fruit. Watch the political tides in these places and you will see My hand shaping and changing the heart of a kingdom. I will open up the gates and the King of Glory will come in. I will harness the creative anointing in these places and use it to inspire the hearts of a generation, they will see a new song and dance the dance of David. A evangelistic explosion will occur in these providences and kingdoms spurring a fast work which will open the door to a new era ushering in My appointed and anointed. They will declare the Word of the Lord with daring boldness echoing the exploits of Paul and Peter. With this explosion will also come extreme persecution that will result in riot and mayhem in Rome's streets and squares but many will be saved and the head of Diana will fall. Many will be the testimonies from these days and many will be the victories that come from them. Watch with earnest expectation this apostolic womb.

THE BURNING BUSH IS SMOKING BUT A NEW FIRE IS KINDLING

You have only begun to see the Son and the unfinished work yet to be done in these notable places and people. I have reserved a special anointing for these 4 years that will set in motion the next 30. I will eclipse all that you have ever seen or done in the days to come. Do not look back at the former fire and do not linger at the well of previous experiences but I say climb higher up the mountain of expectation and view the landscape of My hope and glory. For the future I have predestined for you is greater than what you have previously seen. You will hear an amplified voice of righteousness come form the highest seats of authority as I release angels of government and harvest that have hitherto been restrained. They will carry My heart into chambers of legislation and law releasing a standard that will endure for a generation. I will loose you from the restraint of previous decisions that have brought to this land a curse. I will take supremacy in the supreme court and the sound of liberty will resound. A fire has been kindled and the floods of hell cannot put it out. My law will be exemplified and justified and the highest courts in this land will echo these mandates.

KILL THE FATTED CALF MY SONS AND DAUGHTERS ARE COMING HOME!

This is the year of the prodigal. The smoke of celebration will be seen from the rooftops as families rejoice from answered prayer. Those that have committed their hearts to evangelism will be rewarded exceedingly and abundantly more than they can ask or think. I will now give them the fruit of all their labors says the Lord of Harvest. Ministries that have aligned themselves with My heart and have not forgotten the widows and orphans will reap the greater blessing in this hour. I will expand their borders and strengthen their tent stakes and the blessings of the Lord shall overtake them. I have reserved the best seat in My house for the outcast and offscouring of this present world. Many in this hour will be taken to a lower seat as I promote the poor and destitute into a position of honor. Those that have humbled themselves under My mighty hand will now be exalted. Many that have laid claim to destinies and anointing that are not their own will relinquish them now to the simple and just. These humble servants returning from the fields of famine will find a signet ring of My authority and a robe of My glory that will carry them to the uttermost parts of the earth. I will give the heathen as their inheritance and the nations as their possession. Watch and see if it isn't so.

SMALL BUSINESS AND THE ENTREPRENEUR: A BARNABAS MANDATE

I will put my people in a position of proprietorship and ownership; they will possess the land. They will walk in the footsteps of Barnabas who laid claim to the apostolic anointing by his obedience to give. I will give the keys of obedience into the hands of this generation and they will accomplish the greater works. I will loose the hinges of wealth with the oil of giving in this hour to open up the windows of Heaven. There will be an abundance that cannot be contained and yet will have no number because as it increases in so will it be poured out. A river of resources will flood the land and propel my harvesters deep into the fields of prosperity. They will be the Barnabas's that equip the saints for works of service. The poor will be fed, the naked will be clothed and the prisoner will see a dawning a new light. Facilities will spring up in divers and sundry places that will accomplish more in a year than all of their predecessors combined. They will be a beacon of faith to an Egypt in famine giving from the storehouses of their obedience.

THE CIVIL WAR HAS STARTED BUT THE BATTLE HAS JUST BEGUN

I have not come to bring peace but a sword says the Lord. Some of your most fierce opposers will be those of your own household. The distinction between the obedient and malcontent will become clear. No longer will the two abide together. Harvest will be the decisive force that will bring forth a sifting which will refine My house. You have tasted the wine but now I will send the fire. I will purge the House of David and they will find the threshing floor of My desire. A purity of devotion shall come forth as My servants seek out the widows and orphans in their affliction. I will be able to say of this generation of ministers, "I was hungry and you gave Me meat, I was thirsty and you gave Me drink, I was a stranger and you took Me in. Naked and you clothed Me, I was sick and you visited Me, I was in prison and you came to Me..." You will know them by their fruit. My house will be a house of prayer for all nations.

INGENUITY FOR THE INDIGENOUS: THEY WILL BE MY JOSEPHS

These displaced people will find firm and steady ground in the coming days. I will open up political favor that has been reserved for such a time as this. These people native to this land will be a Joseph and will grant guidance in uncertain times. They will be ambassadors of peace and balance that will turn the tide of monumental decisions for life and equality. The voice of their forefathers will be heard once again and I will mark a day of remembrance for them. I will redeem the time that was lost in their ancestry and the dignity of their chiefs will once again be heard in the Whitehouse; their voices will be a voice of reckoning in the highest halls of the land. They will stand before kings for My names sake. I will restore land and boundaries that have been dishonorably displaced giving them back a legacy. I will stir the hearts of those in leadership and high cabinet positions to take up their cause as Esther did before the king. The giants of political prejudice will finally fall making way for a new generation of Kings and Priests. Thus opening the flood gates of restoration reestablishing a nation.

TONY BLAIR, GEORGE BUSH AND POPE BENEDICT XVI

These leaders will be lightning rods of controversy and reformation. I will use them as I used Daniel to bring about national reform and revival. There will be an unlikely alliance between these three that will open the windows of Heaven and re-dig the well of justice. They will be a hammer in my hand as Jeremiah was to break the hard hearts of unbelief and many will be delivered. I will confound the wise and justify the weak brining about a decade of liberty that will set the stage for unprecedented divine opportunity. At this table of world leaders will be my prophets as well. Those seeking a seat of notoriety and influence will be disqualified from this position and I will place instead the meek and unassuming to speak My mind and heart. The humble in this hour will be exalted and those desiring power and prestige will be broken. Watch the British says the Lord. Many will try to displace Tony Blair and remove him from his seat, the seat that I have created for him and like David, Saul will pursue him and even those in his own household will rise up against him but My will, will prevail. I will raise up mighty men to stand with him these next three years and the hand of righteousness and justice will prevail in the land. A whirlwind of revival will be created from the controversy and from the cities of Britain you will hear rumors of revival and a kindling flame will be started. Watch the royal house of England, there is a seed of salvation about to burst forth.

COUP D'ETATS AND THE SHIFTING POLITICAL PLATES

The landscape of political intrigue is changing. This year will be marked by radical transformation in cultural paradigms creating opportunity for change in impoverished nations setting the stage for economic revival. Out from the ashes of poverty will emerge an army of intellectual giants that carry My word and will. I will give them witty inventions and keen insights that set the pace for a generations of scientists and astronomers that will change the way we view the world. Like their predecessors they will upset the tyrannical orders that exist that insist on ignorance and poverty as means of control. This army of spiritual revolutionaries will bring about economic and educational reform casting down vain imaginations and science falsely so called. They will set new trends that will change the face of the future do dramatically you will not recognize what you see today - tomorrow. They will transcend third world mind sets and sit in the seat of Joseph and breaking the back of famine. This will create portals of missionary possibilities thrusting millions into the harvest fields. They will come with witty inventions and dramatic daring creating wealth from was once barren soil. Inventing and recycling what was always there to employ and empower the famished and outcast.

THE PITS OF PREJUDICE AND THE OPENING OF PRISON DOORS

Ancient gates of prejudice will break, opening the doors of freedom to a generation once enslaved to ignorance. A wave of inspired teaching will flood the educational systems of the United States and Great Britain setting a precedence world wide. I will lift the prisoners from the pit of prejudice and sit them with kings. They will arise and shine and embrace their destiny because their light has come. In governments of gross darkness they will be a ensign of change and reformation. They will lead an army into the promised land of My will says the Lord. Watch the East the shackles will fall from their feet and they will sing a new song in Vietnam North and South singing with one mouth. I will hasten it to come to pass. The anthem of ignorance will be turned into a song of joy and their mourning into laughter. I will give them beauty for ashes and the oil of joy for sorrow. Where once was civil unrest and war will be dancing and singing. I will restore what the canker worm has eaten and the locust have devoured. Your children's children will eat the fruit of the land. This is the day of new beginnings and a coming year of completion. You will have come full circle and a new season will seize you. You will not be who you were in the coming days and a new vision will lead you.

QUOTE OF THE WEEK: "And we ourselves are 'saved to save'-we are made to give-to let everything go if only we may have more to give. The pebble takes in all the rays of light that fall on it, but the diamond flashes them out again; every little facet is a means, not simply of drinking more in, but of giving more out." -Lillias Trotter

Religion or Relationship?
Roy Resh

Everyone has a value system, standards and customs by which they live. Such values are often held and enforced with religious zeal. Jesus Christ was once asked: "Which is the first commandment of all (the Ten)?" Jesus responded to make it clear that our love relationship with God was first, and that we are also commanded to love each other with similar zeal. He revealed that every godly human value arises from love relationships and called us to love all of God's children, not just our own relatives, friends, ethnic group… (Mark 12:28-33)

So why the myriad conflicting religions, each with its own value system, sets of laws, regulations and customs? Religions arise because leaders believe that they know what is right and righteous and try to hold others to their value systems and standards. Religious members often 'sign up,' taking oaths to keep such rules, and do so even after they prove very detrimental, which is often the case. Examine Islam as an example. Following Mohammed's guidance in the Koran, Muslims turned the heartland of the Middle East (once called the "Fertile Crescent") into a plantless desert. 'Peaceful' Islam uses terror, war, trickery, intimidation… (Eg. Mohammed mercilessly beheaded 800 captured Jewish men at Medina.)

What about the Judeo-Christian West? Do its religious institutions show lovingkindness and mercy as they try to enforce the value system of the Holy Bible? Even the great reformer Martin Luther was openly anti-semitic, calling for the persecution of Jews. History records this evil influence in the Nazi German holocaust that killed 6 million Jews. Regardless, millions world-wide call themselves "Lutheran" or "Denominationals" and therefore obligate themselves to God to obey revised but still deficient reformed 'Christian' value systems.

That's what religion does to man. Its 'good' value systems so detrimental to human dignity that wars and terror erupt on all sides. 'Politically Correct' solutions suggest that 'tolerance' and 'honoring diversity' are the answer. God, however, never tolerates sin, nor does He divide peoples into ethnic/religious groups and religious classes. His Christ called us to love Him, and our neighbors as ourselves. Unless mankind learns and follows this Truth, our end will be disastrous and painful. Whenever we go to God through His Christ we obtain the spiritual love that arises only from relationships. Religion can only hinder our progress toward the glorious One-to-one Bridegroom/Bride relations that Jesus the Christ wants with each of us. His Bride doesn't follow rules, she obeys His Spirit living within (His voice.)

The West has two major spiritual movements: institutionalizing religious mothers; and liberating relational fathers. Great contention has arisen between them as to how to lead people to Jesus or to grow them up in spirit. Hierarchical and demanding, mothers are often present at spiritual birth. Operating in a Nicolaitan spirit, institutionalized 'Churchianity' is largely a spiritual prostitute who has held near absolute control over Christ's earthly Body for almost 2000 years. She ties her never growing up, bewitched, captive little children to false religious value systems, telling them what they want to hear and hoping that they will continue to support her when Jesus calls for an accounting. (Luke 16:1-13) On the other hand, true spiritual fathers operate in the spirit of Elijah toward their children, as did Jesus' first Jewish Apostles. True descendants of these Apostles, fathers are a relational brotherhood who emphasize the liberty of righteousness and direct responsibility to God's Kingdom. (Mal 4:6)

Jesus Christ doesn't call spiritual toddlers or little children to marry Him! His Bride must be sufficiently mature in spirit and well informed of His character and heart's desires to truly know Him and His ways. To be truly betrothed to the King of Heaven and earth, she must turn her heart fully to Jesus, leaving behind both spiritual mother and father. She must learn to hear and obey His lovely voice within, moment-by-moment! This can't be religion, it's a relationship that brings much Glory to God and blessing to Christ's betrothed!

Note: Very few religious people, be they Christian, Jew, Muslim, Buddist… know the stringent and detailed rules and regulations of the value systems (religion) which they have chosen to follow. Regardless, our holy God expects every member of each institution to follow all of its rules, even though He hates their Nicolaitan works that separate people into classes.

Scientists' Revenge

Roy Resh

During the "Dark Ages" the Roman men of the cloth ruled unquestioned in the Western sphere. They claimed 'sole authority from God' to rule over all men's spirits, to even approve who entered Heaven or who must be consigned forever to Hell.

Then an inspired scientist discovered that, contrary to their doctrine that the earth was the center of the universe, the earth actually revolved around the sun. They were so certain of their doctrine that they demanded that this scientist recant his discovery, or be consigned forever to hell. Faced with such a terrible alternative, the scientist naturally recanted. Regardless, the earth continued to revolve around the sun.

Later a partial spiritual reformation in the West sparked the discovery of many natural world scientific principles that conflicted with Roman doctrine but proved useful to advance technology. When scientists began to challenge their authority, the men of cloth ridiculed, excommunicated, and even murdered many of them. Eventually an uneasy truce was established: Science would control in the natural domain, and the men of cloth in the spiritual. Man would leave his spirit at home for secular activity.

Public trust in the scientists increased rapidly as their discoveries were proven to advance mankind. One renown scientist wasn't happy with letting the men of cloth have rule over the minds of men. In fact, he claimed that there was actually no supernatural realm, and that humans weren't the creations of God in His image, as the men of cloth claimed. This scientist claimed that humans evolved from lower forms, from single-celled life which was created naturally through chance occurrences. Scientists soon recognized that this theory challenged the power of the men of cloth. If humans evolved, there is no need for a heaven or hell, because they are spiritual places. Many skilled scientists put their reputations behind this unproven, yes, unscientific, theory. The general public accepted it as fact and began to teach it to their children.

Some scientists eventually proved that chance happening could never naturally bring the proper atoms and molecules together for even the simplest life form, nor could the intricate information contained in DNA molecules arise without a Creator. Most scientists, however, merely used the same tactic that the men of cloth normally use on those who challenge their positions. Science claimed "What scientists say is true is true simply because we honorable men (and women) say it is true, and if most of us learned leaders believe it, it certainly must be true."

The men of cloth paid the penalty of those who assume authority that doesn't belong to them, but many, many still followed them rather than listen to God's voice for themselves. As the public bought into their deception on the origins of humanity, the scientists thought that they had the last laugh. But there really was a holy God in Heaven observing all of this religious and scientific deception. Because they desired lies above Truth, He sent a spirit of strong delusion to deceiver and deceived alike. What few people realized that the day was fast approaching when His wrath toward mankind's pretense, self-deception and rebellion would not be stayed longer. Oh, Oh!! The question of the hour is: "Are you among the self-deceived who is living in the spirit of strong delusion sent by God Himself and promoted in both religion and science?"

Rosh Hashanah 2005

The Significance Of Rosh Hashanah 2005

September 26, 2005

Last night our family in the Philippines was awakened by smoke and fire, and after running to the door discovered that our patio had caught on fire while we were sleeping (we suspect that someone threw a cigarette through our gate). Only one week after our home was flooded by Typhoon Damrey, (which just hit Hainan, China as their strongest typhoon in 30 years), shortly afterwards we experienced an unexpected fire. Asking the Lord what the prophetic significance of all this was, the Holy Spirit spoke to me that Rosh Hashanah 5766 was going to be a year of fires and floods, of cleansing and purification, of shakings and preparation for what lies ahead if the nations of the world continue on their current path. Immediately after receiving this word, our local news announced that a 7.5 quake had shaken Northern Peru. Indeed, I believe that a year of shaking and change is now upon us, but the purpose of this shaking is to direct nations towards repentance and salvation.

I am departing within days for Perth, Australia, arriving one day before Rosh Hashanah, and will then begin a 3-nation assignment in Australia, the U.S. and Indonesia. In a nutshell, what I hear the Holy Spirit saying is: Change and purification is coming, and the army of God needs to prepare for a period of extreme cleansing and refinement in preparation for one of the greatest harvest of souls the earth has ever seen. During the coming year, we cannot cancel or annul God's judgments, but they can be lessened and shifted to alternate events which will ultimately produce the same outcome: purification and preparation for God's end-time army, that the Good News of the Gospel of Jesus Christ would be preached in all nations before He returns, including Islamic nations.

While traveling in the Bahamas in July, the Holy Spirit spoke to us that both judgment and places of refuge would be released to the U.S. mainland out of the Bahamas. As most of you know, on the day we departed a rare tropical storm formed directly over our heads on Eleuthra Island, which almost prevented our departure to Florida. Hurricanes normally form far out in the distant Atlantic, but very rarely form directly over the Bahamas. Since our departure in July, weather patterns have drastically changed. Both Katrina and Rita both formed directly over the Bahamas. Interestingly, while praying for California from Eleuthra Island (interceding that the vision we received of 11,000+ deaths from a large California quake this year would be averted or lessened), unknowing to us at the time, judgment would be released from the east of the U.S. directly under our feet in the Bahamas. But instead of 11,000+ casualties, only 10% of that figure was reached when Katrina hit land (roughly 1,100 casualties to date), and the location of the judgment was shifted. Why? Does this mean California is off the hook for the rest of the year? I believe not. It is now time to tune our ears carefully to what the Holy Spirit is saying for the coming year of 5766, (which begins on Rosh Hashanah, October 4-5), for God is not playing games. There are three areas of great concern to me over the coming year: Indonesia, the US West Coast (from Alaska to California), and Australia (including South Pacific region). These areas have a great potential for explosive revival, and also a great potential for explosive judgment if we do not heed the warnings and stand in the gap for our cities and nations.

Blessings,

AFFECTS OF KATRINA ON MISSIONS

During the last month, Philippine mission donations have been down approximately 80% as a direct result of Hurricane Katrina. Although funding for relief efforts is extremely important, I believe that equally important is the continued launching of apostolic and prophetic teams into key areas to prevent or lessen the magnitude of these judgments in the immediate days ahead, especially as we enter into October and November. Our ministry has planned two strategic missions into Sumatra and San Francisco which have not yet been funded. Please consider sowing a special preventative relief gift this month before the disaster happens so that we can deal with the root of the cataclysm before it even manifests, and intercede for a release of revival instead of sorrow and destruction. We have an immediate need of roughly US $3,000 launch these two missions in California and Indonesia, and airline tickets need to be purchased immediately.

The Key to the House of David

For about a month the Lord withheld revelation from me & I was crying out day & night! Then, a couple of weeks ago He gave me several treasures (actually it was a steady flow for several hours); the chief of which I want to share with you.

I was pondering the “KEY OF THE HOUSE OF DAVID”(& other ‘keys’ mentioned in scripture & this is what the Lord’s shown me so far:

> And it was the preparation of the Passover and about the 6th hour:
> And he (Pilate) saith unto the Jews, “Behold your king!”
> But they cried out, “Away with him, away with him, crucify him.”
> Pilate saith unto them, “Shall I crucify your king?”
> The chief priests answered, “We have no king but Caesar.
> Then delivered he him therefore unto them to be crucified.
> And they took Jesus and led him away. And he BEARING HIS CROSS > went forth into a place which is called in the Hebrew, Golgotha. John 19:14-17

(Picture, if you will, HOW he carried his cross.)

Next,

> For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given:
> And the government shall be upon his SHOULDER: Isaiah 9:6-7

(What government? The government of the Kingdom of God—the Apostolic Anointing, Christ being the Chief Apostle.)

> And his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, the Mighty God, the Everlasting Father, the Prince of Peace. Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice from henceforth even forever. The zeal of the Lord of Hosts will perform this.

Next,

> And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will call my servant Eliakim (God who rises up) the son of Hilkiah (a portion of Jah) and I will clothe him with thy robe, and strengthen him with thy girdle, and I will commit thy government into his hand: and he shall be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem and to the House of Judah. AND THE KEY OF THE HOUSE OF DAVID WILL I LAY UPON HIS SHOULDER, so that he shall open, and none shall shut; and he shall shut, and none shall open.
> And I will fasten him as a nail in a sure place; and he shall be for a glorious throne to his father’s house. And they shall hang upon him
> All the glory of his father’s house, the offspring and the issue, all vessels of cups, even to all the vessels of flagons.
> In that day, saith the Lord of hosts, shall the nail that is fastened in the sure place be removed, and be cut down, and fall; and the burden that was upon it shall be cut off: for the Lord hath spoken it. Isaiah 22:20-25

And,

> These things say he that is holy, he that is true, he that hath THE KEY OF DAVID, he that openeth, and no man shutteth; and shutteth and no man openeth… Revelation 3:7

I've looked up and made note of the meanings of the word 'key' in both Hebrew and in Greek: (OT "key":"maphteach"; from "pathach" to open wide; specif. to loosen

NT "key": "kleis"; from "kleio" to close; shut up (as shutting a lock)—interesting!

Also, keys are usually used to open doors (Jesus IS THE DOOR) or to unlock MYSTERIES!

Also, I noticed, when looking up the word 'shoulder' in the concordance, That the 'right shoulder' of the animal sacrifices in Leviticus, etc. were considered 'hallowed unto the Lord (over and over again throughout the lists of sacrifices). So, I daresay that Christ carried the cross on his right shoulder…

All this to say that I'm sure that the Key to the House of David IS THE CROSS OF JESUS CHRIST! After all, Jesus is the door, he's the way to the Kingdom! What has OPENED the door to the Kingdom for all of us is the cross!

AND that the 'keys of the Kingdom' that Jesus referred to when talking with Peter in Matthew 16:17-19 are our individual crosses! When I asked the Lord to confirm this to me, He immediately answered me with this:

"Mine is the Master Key; yours are duplicates—made exactly like mine!"

My next step was to submit what the Lord had given me to several respected sources for their insights. My reply from Bill Somers was amazing! He sent me the following two articles that he had previously written: Key of David and The Ultimate Repair Kit:

Key of David
Bill Somers

> And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write; These things saith he that is holy, he that is true, he that hath the key of David, he that openeth, and no man shutteth; and shutteth, and no man openeth; Revelation 3:7

The Key of David is mentioned Revelation 3 also comes up in Isaiah 22. What exactly is the Key of David?

In the passage from Revelation, we see Jesus describing Himself. This letting us know something about himself is a major feature of the book aptly named The Revelation of Jesus Christ.

But the mention in Isaiah doesn't seem to have anything to do with Jesus. Here is the text from Isaiah.

> Isaiah 22:
> 15 Thus saith the Lord GOD of hosts, Go, get thee unto this treasurer, even unto Shebna, which is over the house, and say,
> 16 What hast thou here? and whom hast thou here, that thou hast hewed thee out a sepulchre here, as he that heweth him out a sepulchre on high, and that graveth an habitation for himself in a rock?
> 17 Behold, the LORD will carry thee away with a mighty captivity, and will surely cover thee.
> 18 He will surely violently turn and toss thee like a ball into a large country: there shalt thou die, and there the chariots of thy glory shall be the shame of thy lord's house.
> 19 And I will drive thee from thy station, and from thy state shall he pull thee down.
> 20 And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will call my servant Eliakim the son of Hilkiah:
> 21 And I will clothe him with thy robe, and strengthen him with thy girdle, and I will commit thy > government into his hand: and he shall be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to the house of Judah.

> 22 And the key of the house of David will I lay upon his shoulder; so he shall open, and none shall shut; and he shall shut, and none shall open.

Keys imply power and authority. To have a key is to have power, ability, or authority. They are also mentioned in Rev 1:18, Matt 16:19, Matt 18:18. In both these cases the Word speaks of ultimate authority to open and shut. It's clear that Jesus has the ultimate authority to open and shut.

> And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. Matthew 28:18

But in Isaiah we find the same key of David with the same authority assigned to Elaikim the son of Hilkiah. Who was He? And moreover why should he be given the Key of David?

We also find Shebna and Hilkiah mentioned in 2 Kings and in Isaiah 37.

> And when they had called to the king, there came out to them Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, which was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder. 2 Kings 18:18

> And he sent Eliakim, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests covered with sackcloth, unto Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz. Isaiah 37:2

And here we find out that Shebna was a scribe or lawyer, and that they were part of King Hezekiah's entourage during the Assyrian siege.

Let's look at some other factors. Hilkiah means portion of Jehovah or my portion is Jehovah. Eliakim means whom God establishes or Whom God will raise up or set up.. Shebna means youth or vigour. There are other clues to be found in careful reading of the text. Notice that in Isaiah 22 Shebna is mentioned as being over the house, but in Isaiah 37 and 2 Kings 18 it clearly states that Eliakim was over the household. In Isaiah 22:20 he uses the phrase "And it shall come to pass in that day". This indicates that the passage is prophetic and points to a future time. Also in the same verse he calls Eliakim 'my servant', a phrase associated with Messiah as mentioned in Isaiah 53 and other places. Next consider that Eliakim is always described as the son of Hilkiah while no genealogy is ever given for Shebna. He is always called Shebna, the Scribe. This whole passage about Shebna and Eliakim is only about them on the surface. This is figurative speech contrasting Jesus the Son of God with Satan the legalist. And the passage is really or prophetically speaking of Messiah being established in the place of Satan. Jesus is being set up by the Father, over the household of God where before it had been under the domain or influence of Satan, who is about to be overthrown with great judgments.

Notice that God says He will lay the key of David on his shoulder. There is another passage in Isaiah where we read about the government on his shoulder

> For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace.
> Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice from henceforth even for ever. The zeal of the LORD of hosts will perform this. Isaiah 9:6-7

Now of course this passage is a reference to Jesus, the Messiah. Here it says "and the government shall be upon his shoulder" In the passage above from Isaiah 22, speaking of Eliakim, a figure for the Messiah, God says I will lay the Key of the house David on his shoulder. There is a very important connection here between the key, the shoulder and the government.

The Key of David sets him over the house of David. Or to use the language of Isaiah 9, it gives him the government of the house of David. As we read in Isaiah 22:21b: "and I will commit thy government into his hand, …."

We said before the key speaks of power and authority. Some commentators say that this is a mantle of authority, and thus we can speak of it being set upon someone's shoulders. So in this view, Isaiah 22 says that, God is saying He will give Jesus the government once held by Satan and give him all power and authority.

But if verse 21a it says " And I will clothe him with thy robe …. So the key may not be an article of clothing. Besides, if it referred to a mantle, like the mantle of Samuel, or of Elijah, then it would rest on both shoulders!

In this case the key is speaking of something required to exercise power and authority. It is not the power and authority itself. Just as a key is required to open or shut a door, the Key of David is required to exercise power and authority. And the clue here is the shoulder. And the key is the Cross which he bore on his shoulder. For it was not till after He went to the cross and rose again that he came and told his followers :"… All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth.

> And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross.
> Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name:
> That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth;
> And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. Philippians 2:8-11
>
> Yet it pleased the LORD to bruise him; he hath put him to grief: when thou shalt make his soul an offering for sin, he shall see his seed, he shall prolong his days, and the pleasure of the LORD shall prosper in his hand.
> He shall see of the travail of his soul, and shall be satisfied: by his knowledge shall my righteous servant justify many; for he shall bear their iniquities.
> Therefore will I divide him a portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he hath poured out his soul unto death: and he was numbered with the transgressors; and he bare the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors. Isaiah 53:10 12

The Key of David that was laid on His shoulder is the Cross. And because he was obedient unto the death of the Cross, He was given the power and authority over this world.

The cross was the wooden altar that the perfect sacrifice was offered upon.

As his feet were nailed to the cross, you could say that the cross is his footstool and also his throne, for because of the Cross, he reigns.

And because he reigns he can extend to the church a promise to rule and reign with him.

> To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne. Revelation 3:21

To sit in his throne may require that we spend time on his cross. If we expect to rule and reign with him, we must be crucified with Christ.

> I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me. Galatians 2:20

And as it says in Timothy:

> If we suffer, we shall also reign with him ….:2 Timothy 2:12
> Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution. 2 Tim 3:12

In these end times we are not to fear or worry or seek to be survivors. We are to be overcomers. We are to overcome the same way he overcame, by obedience even unto death. For we know that we can always trust the father for the grace needed to go through any trial or situation. As is says in Psalm 48:

> Let mount Zion rejoice, let the daughters of Judah be glad, because of thy judgments.
> Walk about Zion, and go round about her: tell the towers thereof.
> Mark ye well her bulwarks, consider her palaces; that ye may tell it to the generation following.
> For this God is our God for ever and ever: he will be our guide even unto death. Psalm 48:11-14
>
> Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; and ye shall have tribulation ten days: be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life. Revelation 2:10
> And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death. Revelation 12:11
> And I saw thrones, and they sat upon them, and judgment was given unto them: and I saw the souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jesus, and for the word of God, and which had not worshipped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years. Rev 20:4

This was incredible to me! I was so excited that I was ‘on target’, but was completely surprised that someone already knew that the key was the cross!

Then my second source also knew! The third one did not, but said that she ‘totally agreed’ with what was written.

Next, Bill forwarded The Ultimate Repair Kit and I am including it here because it is necessary in order to appreciate what follows.

The Ultimate Repair Kit
Bill Somers

The Ultimate Repair Kit was the title on a package I ran across recently in a local Wal-Mart. In the paint and hardware department they had quite a few of them on display. It consisted of one roll of duct tape and one can of WD-40 spray, packaged together in a box, wrapped in plastic..

I found this especially amusing because for many of my years as a repairman, I have made a similar joke. My claim was, only half jokingly, that 80% of all repairs, except for parts replacement, could be made with one or more of five essential items. Super glue, duct tape, WD-40, plastic tie wraps and plastic wire splices. This is my repairman's five essentials. Sometimes I would substitute electrical tape for duct tape, or silicone sealer for super glue, but the idea was basically the same.

Now what exactly do these things do? Duct tape is a thick strong tape that is used to hold things together that have come loose for some reason. The same goes for other kinds of tape; and for glue, sealer, tie wraps, baling wire, binder twine, splices, screws and nails.

WD-40 is a lubricant and rust remover that allows things that are stuck together to come lose and move freely once again. The same goes for penetrating oil, motor oil, cooking oil, solvents and cleansers.

The filing system your computer uses has a similar function. It keeps or holds together things that belong together, and separates, [loosens or frees up] things that should be kept apart.

It all has to do with binding and loosing. Many common tools do this. Staplers bind things together; crowbars break them apart. Wrenches, pliers, and screwdrivers do both. Keys open and shut. By now you may have guessed where I am going with this.

The Real Ultimate Repair Kit is the Keys to the Kingdom given by Jesus to his followers.

> And I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven. Matthew 16:19

So whatever you have that needs fixing, the tools are at hand. All that is needed is proper application.

There are other common tools that do not involve binding and loosing. They include squares, levels, chalk lines, plumb lines, meters and gauges. These are instruments of evaluation or judgment. In the bible there is mention of the plummet and the measuring rod. These instruments of judgment are only used by the master builder or at his specific direction. And that is another subject altogether.

After reading this article (which exactly corresponds with what God had given me), the last few words kept rolling around in my head…

“So whatever you have that needs fixing, the tools are at hand. All that is needed is proper application.”

All I could think about was the devastation in New Orleans/Louisiana, and Texas and that we are called to be ‘repairers of the breach, restorers of paths to dwell in’…isn’t this exactly what we are called to?

Note: (OT “breach”: “perets” to break out; (lit. or fig.) break; breach; breaking forth; gap) Also take note of I Samuel 5 & II Chronicles 14 when David fought & overcame the Philistines & David named the place “Baal-perazim” meaning: “Possessor of Breaches” because the Lord had “broken in upon mine enemies by mine hand like the breaking forth of waters”.

Let’s look at Isaiah 58…I believe that this is a clarion call to our nation and specifically to the Body of Christ…

> Isaiah 58
> Cry aloud, spare not, lift up thy voice like a trumpet, and show my people their transgression, and the house of Jacob their sins.
> Yet they seek me daily and delight to know my ways, as a nation that did righteousness, and forsook not the ordinance of their God: they ask of me the ordinances of justice; they take delight in approaching to God.
> Wherefore have we fasted say they, and thou seest not?
> Wherefore have we afflicted our soul, and thou takest no knowledge? Behold, in the day of your fast ye find pleasure, and exact all your labours.
> Behold, ye fast for strife and debate, and to smite with the fist of wickedness: ye shall not fast as ye do this day, to make your voice to be heard on high.
> Is it such a fast that I have chosen? A day for a man to afflict his soul?
> Is it to bow down his head as a bulrush, and to spread sackcloth and ashes under him? Wilt thou call this a fast, and an acceptable day to the Lord?
> IS NOT THIS THE FAST that I have chosen? To loose the bands of wickedness, to undo the > heavy burdens, and to let the oppressed go free, and that ye break every yoke?

> IS IT NOT to deal thy bread to the hungry, and that thou bring the poor that are cast out to thy house? When thou seest the naked, that thou cover him; and that thou hide not thyself from thine own flesh?
> THEN shall thy light break forth as the morning, and thine health shall spring forth speedily, and thy righteousness shall go before thee; the glory of the Lord shall be thy reward.
> THEN shalt thou call, and the Lord shall answer; thou shalt cry, and he shall say, Here I am.
> IF thou take away from the midst of thee the yoke, the putting forth of the finger, and speaking vanity;
> And IF thou draw out thy soul to the hungry and satisfy the afflicted soul;
> THEN shall thy light rise in obscurity, and thy darkness be as the noon day.
> And the Lord shall guide thee continually, and satisfy thy soul in drought,
> And make fat thy bones: and thou shalt be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water whose waters fail not.
> And they that shall be of thee
> SHALL BUILD THE OLD WASTE PLACES: THOU SHALT RAISE UP THE FOUNDATIONS OF MANY GENERATIONS; > AND THOU SHALT BE CALLED,
> THE REPAIRER OF THE BREACH, THE RESTORER OF PATHS TO DWELL IN.

Now this next part refers to the Sabbath (specifically ceasing from our own labours and entering the Lord’s rest—just as Jesus did):

> IF thou turn away thy foot from the Sabbath, from doing thy pleasure on my holy day; and call the sabbath a delight, the holy of the Lord, honourable; and shalt honour him, NOT DOING THINE OWN WAYS (death to self), nor finding thine own pleasure, nor speaking thine own words; THEN SHALT THOU DELIGHT THYSELF IN THE LORD; and I will cause thee to ride upon the high places of the earth, and feed thee with the heritage of Jacob thy father: for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it.

Jesus said, “All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth; Go ye, therefore and preach the gospel to every creature; teaching them to observe All things that I have commanded you, and lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the age.”

My dear, brethren, if we are His, we have the ultimate repair kit; we are the repairers of all breaches, we hold the keys of the Kingdom!

May we glorify Him in this incredible hour.

Post script: The morning after the Lord gave me Isaiah 58, the following e-message was on my computer:

Descent Into Darkness And The New Orleans Paradox
Chad Taylor

> "Your children will rebuild the deserted ruins of your cities. Then you will be known as the people who rebuild their walls and cities..." (Isa 58:12 NLT)

Our second trip into the Gulf Coast region and more specifically New Orleans can only be described as a slow descent down a ladder into gross darkness. As we entered the Mississippi region and crossed through Biloxi and Gulf Port and began our journey into Louisiana it was surreal and extremely difficult to grasp the magnitude of the disaster we were facing. It was only after we left the region and began our travels home for more supplies did it begin to hit me. When we crossed the Causeway bridge over Lake Pontchartrain and entered Jefferson Parrish and the city of New Orleans we took a quantum leap from normality and predictability into tragedy and catastrophe in a blink of an eye. It was like a bomb had went off and we were climbing out of our insulated "bomb shelters" called our personal lives and seeing what the real world now looked like. Everything was marked by the hurricane from the road signs to the light pole - nothing was spared or unscathed by its wrath. Steel bill board signs with a 10 ft. girth were snapped like twigs. Businesses and entire cities were folded up like an old newspaper and thrown away. In many places nothing is left. Nothing.

The closer you approached the downtown area of New Orleans the tangible reality of darkness and death permeated the air - literally. The smell alone was shocking as we drove down the streets lined with empty houses and boarded windows. Patrols of military troops dotted every corner and an army of vehicles attempting to restore some semblance of humanity raced down the streets. Displaced people stared at us like robots waiting for a meal, a bottle of water or any glimmer of hope. We visited two major hubs of distribution; Victory Fellowship and Riverside Baptist Church and the mountain of donations was impressive. Little do most know though how quickly this mountain will dwindle as thousands try to re-enter a city that at this point is uninhabitable both naturally and spiritually. It is said that the public conscious lasts about 3 weeks and the danger is, that far before the rebuilding of New Orleans supernaturally and naturally occurs, the momentum currently being sustained by donations from all over the world will lose it's steam thus creating a vacuum that the very much present evil is intent on filling. Look at it like this relating to the massive aid and clean up of New Orleans and you will foresee the danger that's now facing us, "When an unclean spirit goes out of a man (or a city?), he goes through dry places, seeking rest, and finds none. Then he says, 'I will return to my house from which I came.' And when he comes, he finds it empty, swept, and put in order. Then he goes and takes with him seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter and dwell there; and the last state of that man is worse than the first. So shall it also be with this wicked generation..." (Matt. 12:43-45). The enemy desires to raise from the ashes of this devastation something even more corrupt and wicked than it was previously. If all that the enemy finds once the dust settles and the public awareness shifts is a city, "empty, swept, and put in order..." we have utterly failed in our attempt to help as sincere as our efforts may be.

Step back with me for a minute and ponder this: New Orleans's crime rate is ten times the national average, affluent corporations and businesses have fled New Orleans years ago because of the internal corruption and controversy always orbiting around the city. Just weeks before Katrina, federal officials indicted associates of the former mayor, for alleged kickbacks and contract fraud and the state ranks third in the number of elected officials convicted of crimes. Recent scandals include the conviction of 14 state judges and an FBI raid on the business and personal files of a Louisiana congressman. The Daily News goes on to note that in the 1990s the New Orleans Police Department "had the dubious distinction of being the nation's most corrupt police force and the least effective: the city had the highest murder rate in America. More than 50 officers were eventually convicted of crimes including murder, rape and robbery; two are currently on Death Row." Yearly New Orleans celebrates one of the most pagan demoralizing events in the world; Mardi Gras. By mid-August of this year, 192 murders had been committed in New Orleans, 'nearly 10 times the national average'. The New Orleans "southern decadence" festival which was to take place Labor Day weekend is described as a extreme gay celebration rivaling Mardi Gras and was only interrupted by Hurricane Katrina...

No doubt this is a major cleansing and purging by the Lord but the paradox is this: It also sets the stage for the most extreme move of God in America's history as well if we can fill the void with much, much more than cases of water and canned food. We need to move now into this vacuum and fill the air with worship and intercession 24 hrs. a day - seven days a week. But will we? We are so conditioned as a church entity to simply write a check and wash our hands leaving the dirty work to someone else that we run the great peril that New Orleans will not be revived then what is all of our efforts then? We have watched the ship of revival pass us time and time again namely Sept. 11th and the attacks on New York City. This created a public awareness of God that is unrivaled in American history and yet after a few months to a year it faded from our memory to become an epitaph on a stone memorial. The church failed to fill the spiritual vacuum created by it thus the enemy discovered that America was, "empty, swept, and put in order..." but not revived thus creating a compounded problem that we are facing now in the Gulf Coast and New Orleans. Remember this, New York is not immune to another attack the enemy is plotting and planning something much more evil and devastating right now for New York and only our sustained and perpetual prayers will stop it. This applies to New Orleans and the entire Gulf Coast territory as well, hurricanes will stack up like a deck of cards on one of Biloxi's river boats until the church learns to leap from the steps of complacency and stand in the gap with "prayers without ceasing" and sinners repent of their sin and turn to the living God. But contemplate this, "How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher? And how shall they preach, except they be sent?" (Rom 10:14-15). We must act now or forever bear this countries darkest days that await her if the Church does not move now...

We have a plan. After two trips into this devastated area we are convinced that we could accommodate teams that could arrive from around the nation to pray, fast, worship and seek the Lord for true restoration and revival. Envision this... a small to medium tent with tables and chairs with teams from all points and providences praying and seeking the Lord for New Orleans with 24 hr. recorded and live worship. Envision this... a flat-bed truck trailer hosting worship bands publicly and openly worshiping the Lord for all to hear powered by gas generators filling the ravaged air with praise. Envision this... Teams stationed and ready to invade the streets with the love of God from this "worship and intercession base camp" bringing thousands of souls to Jesus. Envision this... healing and prophetic teams ready and prepared to administer the healing power of God to broken bodies and hearts and compelling them to move on with God's destiny for their lives. Envision this... having motor homes and other means of accommodating the teams in New Orleans and possibly a church or other sort of building to sustain this 24 hrs. a day 7 days a week worship and prayer in the very thick of the gross darkness and hopelessness. I tell you this it can happen if we can raise the standard and grasp the possibilities presented to us by the Lord and reach higher than we ever have as individuals and a church. Consuming Fire and many of our friends and even people we have never met are poised and in position to accomplish such a feat, are you ready to try?

We already have use of a 34' class A motor home, a 5 ton trailer for the commercial generator and gas supply (we currently need this size of generator if anyone can donate or let us use), and an enclosed 10X 5 trailer to transport supplies into and around New Orleans (we need something bigger or more of the same). Enterprise Rent-a Car has been incredibly gracious to give us almost 50% off the trucks we've used to travel with supplies from Southwest Georgia into these areas of destruction but we will be hard pressed to continue to pay over $250 dollars a week to travel and stay in New Orleans, we need to concentrate our prayers and efforts and secure a 4-door newer to new pick-up and/or larger SUV. It is critical we take hold of this in the spirit and allow it to manifest in the natural now. Any and all creative ideas small or large will not go unnoticed or considered. Please respond. I am convinced somebody reading this has the means even as Joseph had to fill the storehouses in Egypt to make this happen. We stand waiting and ready for this answer to prayer for the appropriate vehicle(s) to convoy to New Orleans and possess the land. We are giving our life to see America revived, this is not a mere charity drive it is a precipice of impossible possibilities that looms before us like a Titanic, will we sink or rise Church? Will we respond or fall back under the peer pressure of religion and continue the gamble of Sunday morning church and the revolving doors of conferences as epic disasters line up on our hallowed shores? What will we do in this hour? New Orleans is latchkey for America, how we respond to her is how we will respond to our own cities and streets. Will she remain empty and void of God's power in us or will a vanguard of Christians leap to this opportunity and "repair the breach..." We are here ready and willing to help you do just that, only we need you to be able to do it.

1) We need a vehicle(s) equipped for such a mission not only a truck to haul and carry supplies but others to take teams and prayer warriors into these areas of compromise and pray and minister. We would even be willing to bus teams in if the means were made available. We currently have a commercial semi-truck from Oregon ready to pick up larger supplies as well for this mission. Agree with us for the "Josephs" that are currently in position to answer this request now. AMEN.

2) We need an indoor tent that could accommodate approximately 50-100 people for continued around the clock prayer and worship. The main body of activity will be in the open air the tent would simply be used to pray, worship, and help individuals on a one-on-one level. Chairs and tables would also be necessary but not many. We all hold a piece of this puzzle please find your part and lay it on the table.

3) A flat bed semi trailer that live bands and ministers could use to call New Orleans into God's presence. We could literally host ministries and strategic prophetic voices from around the country to usher in America's greatest hour. A simple piece of equipment such as this could make this happen.

4) We will also need specialized team leaders that are skilled in these areas i.e., worship leaders, healing teams (possibly trained in the Healing Rooms from Spokane, WA. etc.) prophetic and evangelistic team leaders, team leaders possibly from I.H.O.P in Kansas City and an array of others that can simply stand in the gap and receive a city to Jesus. We believe we will be able to accommodate you in New Orleans and sustain a continuum of worship, prayer and outreach pushing back the pending darkness and destruction that still pervades.

5) If you can assist us RIGHT NOW to begin to mobilize this vision please visit our link at Consuming Fire below that's dedicated to receive your help and aid either small or great to make this a reality. We are currently still using Enterprise's vehicle to do pick ups and errands for these trips and the one we are planning now if you want to help in this area for one day, a week, or any amount of time you can contact Enterprise directly at (229)-228-5742 in Thomasville, GA. A generator is currently available of this size and capacity at The Tractor Supply in Thomasville and can be contacted at (229)-228-9844. We have worked with a car dealer in the past in Thomasville that has Christians in management that could be a possibility for a truck you can contact Thrifty Car Sales in Thomasville, GA. at (229)-551-0313. These are only points of contact and we will continue to agree with you for their answers. We are planning sometime in October to begin the building of a base camp in New Orleans and at least one more trip to secure the property for such a strategy as well. We can do this.

Not only is it a confirmation, but it is also a perfect example of the reparation that the Lord is calling us to.

Comment by Bill Somers
Dear Sandra

As I was looking over your article, which I like, I noticed the following verse from Isaiah. I have quoted it here in the interlinear form that gives the original Hebrew words used.

Isa 22:23 And I will fasten <taqa> him [as] a nail <yathed> in a sure <aman> place <maqowm>; and he shall be for a glorious <kabowd> throne <kicce> to his father's <ab> house <bayith>.

Now what I see is that this whole verse could be translated quite differently, like this.

I will drive a nail in a sure spot, a glorious throne [seat or stool] to [in or for] his fathers house.

I think this reinforces the idea of linking the cross and the throne. The word used for throne can also be translated seat or stool.

Also this verse from Ezekiel

> Eze 43:7 ¶ And he said unto me, Son of man, the place of my throne, and the place of the soles of my feet*, where I will dwell in the midst of the children of Israel for ever, and my holy name, shall the house of Israel no more defile, neither they, nor their kings, by their whoredom, nor by the carcases of their kings in their high places.*

This brings to mind the idea of the feet nailed to the cross i.e. the throne or footstool of the throne.

Some time back I read a study of Ezekiel’s plan of the temple. The writer analyzed the measurements and saw that significant parts of it were laid out in the shape of a cross. And the place where the feet would be nailed to the cross, corresponded to the holy of holies!

Sandra adds:

Also, the fact that in john's vision (book of rev.) Christ is still referred to as the Lamb (sacrifice) 'in the midst' of the throne...(rev. 5:6 " And I beheld, &, lo, in the midst of the throne & in the midst of the elders, stood a Lamb as it had been slain, having seven horns & seven eyes (omniscience) which are the seven Spirits of God sent forth into all the earth") also confirms this.

Road to Armageddon

Bill Somers

News Item:
Palestinian President Yasser Arafat said Sunday that his people, locked in running street battles with Israelis, would remain resolute until Palestinians won sovereignty over Jerusalem.

News Item:
Communications Minister Binyamin Ben Eliezer, told reporters that Israel has lost its peace partner and must therefore establish a unity government to prepare for major challenges ahead. He said he found it "difficult to believe that Arafat is going to abandon his new strategy of bringing about a Palestinian state by blood and fire."

Here is that strategy in a nutshell:

War for Jerusalem: Battle Plan

Step 1 Find a pretext for increasing the level of the violence [war]
Step 2 Increase it till the enemy is compelled to respond with [increasingly] harsh force. [Disregard your own losses; once the enemy can no longer respond you have won.]
Step 3 Call for outside help and use the enemy response to: Go to step 1.
As long as outside help continues to come and outside intervention does not come, you will eventually overcome the enemy.

Comment:
One potential source of outside intervention is the USA. If and when the USA is unable to intervene, that leaves only one other source.

Rottweiler Warfare

Marion Guenther

Last summer I was at a prophetic conference, and, as many others probably experience as well, my eyes were opened more acutely to the spiritual world than usual. I saw many angels over those days, and was able to see just how much our actions (or non-actions) affect their ability to move.

The sessions had been long and there was much beautiful worship music. I felt sleepy one afternoon, and, instead of participating in the worship around me with all of my heart, I just listened and sang softly now and then. My eyes were suddenly opened to a group of very disappointed angels. They were greatly desiring to worship the Lord, but as long as I just sat there, sweetly stupid, they seemed unable! Needless to say, I got myself into action! The next day a similar incident occurred while the congregation was in a prolonged time of prayer. Again, I 'zoned out,' and again my eyes were opened to the same group of disappointed angels. They were armed and ready, but with no place to go as long as I was just passively drifting along! Again, when I got actively into prayer, they began moving out strongly.

We have a large and beautiful Rottweiler. I have been reading up on these dogs. Probably few people realize that if the dog's owner is being attacked and the owner falls down or shows a frightened, submissive attitude, the dog just becomes confused and doesn't know what to do. They are pack animals, and instinctively go with what the 'alpha' dog does. If the owner is fighting, the Rotti is more than happy to join in. But if the leader doesn't take up the fight, neither will the dog. I know dogs are not angels (not mine, anyway), but I believe that the same principle applies in spiritual warfare. I am, of course, assuming that we are fighting the battles we are assigned by the Lord. If we cave in to the intimidation or confusion surrounding the stand and do not fight, we simply don't get any help. But even if the force arrayed against us appears unassailable, if we will just put our heads down and wade into the battle, we will find that we are marvellously backed up.

Royal Robes
Mary Clark

November 25, 2004

In a vision, I saw purple robes and heard the Lord say, "royal robes." Here is what He has to tell us about these purple, royal robes that He has for those who follow diligently after His beloved heart:

I am the King of the universe. I have created this outstanding hour for you, My beloved, to walk in the knowledge of My will for you. I want to enliven you. I want to present My heart to you, and I want you to walk in My glory.

The world will look on My performance in awe. They will definitely see that something is "up," and they will be correct. Something is "up," and it is the mysteries of the living God being unfolded for all to see. I tell you truly that a dynamite time is at hand. I tell you truly that I am doing something outstanding in your midst, and you will see and know the wonders that I am presenting from an awesome vantage point.

I have a lovely robe for each of you, My beloved children. I want you to wear it, knowing that it is for this hour that I have called you into this new region where My wonderful love will be made known to your hearts in an astounding way. Walk with your head held high. You are a child of the King of glory. You are a chosen generation; called out to represent Me and My glorious will in your life.

I have a purple robe for you, beloved. Wear it, knowing that it delights My heart to see you don it. It delights My heart to see you walk forward into that place of delight in Me. And you, dear child of the living God, will know with a certainty that the love of your God is unfolding before your very eyes as you take each step into that place of wonder in Me. You will know that I have pronounced on you the title of emissary where you will go forth in My will, doing My deeds, and presenting My heart. That is your calling. That is why you are wearing that royal robe, beloved – to represent your God and His endeavors in order for all to see the urgency of the hour, and to walk in the wonder of Who I am, Who I am to whomsoever will surrender his whole heart to Me – His whole heart of love to the One Who is love, and has endeavored to bring forth His finest hour of wonder in your midst – My chosen – My beloved – My called-out ones – My very own!!!

Pestilence
Mary Clark

November 20, 2005

pestilence – plague, deadly disease, epidemic, virulent disease, virus, Bubonic Plague, endemic, pandemic.

I want to talk to you, My beloved, about things that are impending. Much is seen on the horizon in this hour. Much is seen about which man is growing anxious. But I do not want you to be anxious. Do not be anxious about anything, beloved. Do not get your focus on anything other than on Me – your God. Let Me tell you why I am asking this of you:

In this day, many occurrences are looming on the horizon. There are many with mad, anxious thoughts who delight in proving their point at the expense of others. This is not pleasing to Me – not pleasing to Me at all.

Then there are those who want to argue just for the sake of arguing. They want to look at every situation from every angle and tie all of their points in one big bow, seemingly proving their point. To this, I say, "hogwash!"

Now, let Me be more explicit – more to the point. There are words being spoken about a coming pandemic of huge proportions to the earth. I want My children to know this with a certainty. I would never let anything come near your dwelling that would cause havoc in your lives. I am your protector. I am the One to Whom you may look for total security. Yes, total security lies in the Beloved. So just keep your focus on Me. Don't let your focus stray to those things that could cause you anguish. Don't listen to words that will put fear in your hearts. I am not the author of fear, beloved. No, no, no. I am not the author of anything that would bring fear to your hearts, so rest in the knowledge that the One Who is holy and true is doing a work on planet earth – an astounding work, and He does not want His dear children filled with fear about what is to come.

I want you resting in the knowledge of Who I am – Who I am to you, and the reason that I created the universe and all that it contains. I did not create you to walk in fear and anguish. I created you to fellowship with Me – to commune with Me – to be in right standing with the One Who is holy and true.

Now, I tell you, beloved, that perilous times are surely coming – they are coming by man's hand, but your God is with you. I will not abstain from My right to move you into the design of My will. I will not surrender My Lordship over those hearts that are committed to Me. I take care of My own. I will continue to take care of My own, and you will see on that fateful day that your God reached forth His loving hand in a protective manner, and that you are free and satisfied in My embrace. Yes. You are deeply loved by the Almighty, and He will not let a hair on your head be damaged, for I have looked on you with an eye to bless, and bless you I will. Bless you I most solemnly will!!!

Seven Brides for Seven Brothers
Mary Clark

November 20, 2005

In a vision, I saw seven men walk up to seven brides, wearing white wedding gowns. They whisked them up in their arms, and walk off with them. Then I heard the Lord say, "Seven brides for seven brothers." Here is what He has to tell us about this vision:

I want My dear children to see something clearly. I want you walking in the realization of My love for you. I want you fit, as you travel life's road with Me. I want you focused on your Redeemer and His plans for you. Let Me tell you a little secret. Let Me open your eyes to some rich truth about your God:

I am taking you into a new place in Me that is alive with excitement. This new place is vibrant and wonderful. It is a place where you will look on My face and glow from within. It is a place that guarantees you experiences that you never dream of having. Look on the coming hour with much anticipation. Look on the coming hour with one notion in mind: To see the will of your God unfold in your life, offering new hope for you and new hope for those in the world who will follow Me.

I want you to know that I take delight in one who is committed to My ways. I take delight in seeing My dear children blessed – blessed beyond their understanding. I want you desiring to follow after My heart with great intensity. I don't want you lukewarm, beloved. I want you hot – on fire – for the things of your God. "How do I get to this place," you ask? Now this is where this most important word gets interesting.

I want you seeking Me, following after My will, yearning for My presence, just as you would your bride or bridegroom. I want you anticipating My return just as you would anticipate your bride or bridegroom. I want you dressed, ready, and presenting yourself to Me fit and alive, ready to follow Me into the new, high drama that is coming to the earth. I want you coming to Me, ready and vibrant with the glow of the living God. I don't want to see any of My precious children in dingy clothing. No! I want you dressed in the purity of your God.

So get ready to walk in the knowledge of My will for you. Get ready to explore the depths of My heart. Your Bridegroom awaits you patiently, but don't you be patient about seeing Me. Be exuberant! Be anticipating that moment when I will come and whisk you up in My arms, and carry you off into that place of My love being made known to your heart with vitality and warmth you have never experienced.

I tell you truly that your Bridegroom is awaiting that hour of wonder, when He will come for His bride and carry her off into that place of wonder that is found in His heart. He is eager. He is anticipating that hour with everything that is in Him. He is so eager that He shouts, and all of heaven comes to attention. I want you to know that great preparation if being made for your arrival, dear one. This is not an invitation that is not being backed up by much preparation. No! The preparation is going forth as I speak. Things are being done with you in mind. There is great care taken for the coming hour when I will whisk up My bride and take her to her new home – that new place of wonder that is found in entering My heart of love. Don't doubt that the work that I do will spring forth with new life for one who eagerly accepts My invitation.

I am telling you some words today that should thrill your heart. I am telling you that I will soon come for you, and I want you eagerly anticipating My arrival. I want you ready – prepared for where I am taking you. I want to know that I look on your heart with the excitement of a bridegroom on His wedding night. I want to look in your eyes and see My love for you reflected back to Me. I want to hold you close – so close that we are one, and, beloved, I tell you truly that this coming hour holds much in the way of excitement and wonder for you, My beloved – MUCH WONDER AND EXCITEMENT.

So get ready to explore the depths of My heart and know the meaning of true love. Get ready for the announcement to be made. Get ready to see all of heaven at attention, and know deep within that the Holy Master has prepared a way for you to enter into the hour of preparation – the hour when you will glow with the power and wonder of the One Whom you hold dear. So get ready! Anticipate this time of wonder and know, beloved, that the hour that I have prepared – that hour when I will come and whisk you up in MY arms is coming soon, and with it is coming a promise – a promise fulfilled.

A promise that was made to you long ago will come alive, and then, dear one, you will realize that you have accepted the Holy One and all that He is. You will step into that place that was prepared for your habitation – that place within My heart where you will thrive on the wonder of knowing Me, belonging to Me, and being a part of My master plan – the master plan that was written with you in mind.

You Are Special
Mary Clark

November 23, 2005

You are special to Me, beloved. Let Me tell you just how special you are to Me: I created you to walk in the design of My will – to fulfill a purpose. I created you to know Me – to share in the knowledge of My great love and compassion. I created you for this hour, to walk in My truth in such a way that the whole world will see and know that I truly live inside you. This is an awesome responsibility, but it is one that I, and I alone, will enable you to fulfill.

I tell you truly, beloved, that you are very special to Me. I have a wonderful plan for your life. I made you for a purpose, and you will see the completion of that purpose in your life. You will see My will flowing in your life in a wonderful way, and you will recognize, with a thankful heart, that all is unfolding according to My will.

You are SO absolutely special to Me, your Father and Creator. You mean SO absolutely much to Me. My heart swells with pride when I look on your surrendered heart. I hear your words of love and I almost burst forth with an exuberance of love that could shake the world off its axis – if I were so inclined to do so. (Smile)

I want you to know, beloved of the Lord, that your future in Me looks bright. It looks so bright that the angels in all of heaven can see the sheen from where they are standing. It looks so bright that I, beloved, feel the warmth coming from your heart.

I am your God. I am your Creator. You, beloved, are special to Me. I created you to complete a very important assignment on My behalf, and I can see that you are doing this. I can see that your heart's intent is to bless Me with your willingness to obey My wishes. I can see the love gleaming from your tear-filled eyes, giving Me signs of love and gratitude for all that I am to you.

Yes indeed, beloved, you are special to your heavenly Father – very special. I want you to know that in the coming days you will be in for some happy surprises. Just you wait, beloved. Just you wait! You are in for some happy surprises, and with these surprises you will realize a very important fact: You are special to Me – so very special, and I am moving you into a new arena – a new love-filled arena where My love will encompass your heart, offering to you new hope for the days ahead.

Oh, yes, beloved, I certainly DO have some happy surprises for you – some very happy surprises and they will unfold at the appointed hour. You will see and recognize My goodness to you, and you will cry out to Me with a loud voice, "Father, You are SO absolutely SPECIAL to me – so absolutely special to me in every way! And Father, I want You to know that I am glad – so happy – to serve You. My heart is willing. I am willing throughout My whole being, and I want You to see by my actions just how special You are to me – how absolutely special You are to me in every way, my Father – the One to Whom I look for my every bit of sustenance and declare my allegiance to now and forever!!!"

Yes, beloved, you are very special to your Father. And it gladdens My heart to hear that I am special to you. It gladdens Me right down to My toes, and I want you to know that in the coming days I will fulfill My words to you. I will fulfill the truth that it is in My heart to bless you with more of My essence, and I tell you, beloved, this essence – this wonderful presence of My being – will enable you to rise up in might and power and proclaim Me and all of My goodness to others. And beloved, this is a part of My plan – this is a part of My inevitable plan for you!!!

Righteousness Peace And Joy The Gospel Of The Kingdom

Bill Somers

Mount Gilead Ohio USA

October 2008

This essay will be a continuing look at the Gospel of the Kingdom as presented in the Old Testament, that is, The Law and The Prophets.

We started to look at this topic in an earlier teaching, Gospel Of The Kingdom [http://www.etpv.org/2008/gotk.html]

We will focus on the question: What is the Gospel? And touch on the nature of the Kingdom. Also we'll consider what difference there is between saying: The Kingdom of God is at hand, and saying: Our God Reigns.

What got this discussion going was the raised by this verse from Acts 28:

> Acts 28:23 And when they had appointed him a day, there came many to him into his lodging; to whom he expounded and testified the kingdom of God, persuading them concerning Jesus, both out of the law of Moses, and out of the prophets, from morning till evening.

Paul was teaching the Kingdom of God from the Old Testament. How would he do that, and what scripture would he use?

Gospel Definitions

Gospel
A word of Anglo-Saxon origin, and meaning "God's spell", i.e., word of God, or rather, according to others, "good spell", i.e., good news. It is the rendering of the Greek evangelion, i.e., "good message." It denotes (1.) "the welcome intelligence of salvation to man as preached by our Lord and his followers.
(2.) It was afterwards transitively applied to each of the four histories of our Lord's life, published by those who are therefore called 'Evangelists', writers of the history of the gospel (the evangelion).
(3.) The term is often used to express collectively the gospel doctrines; and 'preaching the gospel' is often used to include not only the proclaiming of the good tidings, but the teaching men how to avail themselves of the offer of salvation, the declaring of all the truths, precepts, promises, and threatenings of Christianity." It is termed "the gospel of the grace of God" (Act_20:24), "the gospel of the kingdom" (Mat_4:23), "the gospel of Christ" (Rom_1:16), "the gospel of peace (Eph_6:15), "the glorious gospel," "the everlasting gospel," "the gospel of salvation" (Eph_1:13).

> Easton's Bible Dictionary

Gospel
gos´pel (τὸ εὐαγγέλιον, tó euaggélion): The word gospel is derived from the Anglo-Saxon word which meant "the story concerning God." In the New Testament the Greek word euaggelion, means "good news." It proclaims tidings of deliverance. The word sometimes stands for the record of the life of our Lord (Mar_1:1), embracing all His teachings, as in Act_20:24. But the word "gospel" now has a peculiar use, and describes primarily the message which Christianity announces. "Good news" is its significance. It means a gift from God. It is the proclamation of the forgiveness of sins and sonship with God restored through Christ. It means remission of sins and reconciliation with God. The gospel is not only a message of salvation, but also the instrument through which the Holy Spirit works

(Rom_1:16).

The gospel differs from the law in being known entirely from revelation. It is proclaimed in all its fullness in the revelation given in the New Testament. It is also found, although obscurely, in the Old Testament. It begins with the prophecy concerning the 'seed of the woman' (Gen_3:15), and the promise concerning Abraham, in whom all the nations should be blessed (Gen_12:3; Gen_15:5) and is also indicated in Act_10:43 and in the argument in Rom 4.

In the New Testament the gospel never means simply a book, but rather the message which Christ and His apostles announced. In some places it is called “the gospel of God,” as, for example, Rom_1:1; 1Th_2:2, 1Th_2:9; 1Ti_1:11. In others it is called “the gospel of Christ” (Mar_1:1; Rom_1:16; Rom_15:19; 1Co_9:12, 1Co_9:18; Gal_1:7). In another it is called “the gospel of the grace of God” (Act_20:24); in another “the gospel of peace” (Eph_6:15); in another “the gospel of your salvation” (Eph_1:13); and in yet another “the glorious gospel” (2Co_4:4 the King James Version). The gospel is Christ: He is the subject of it, the object of it, and the life of it. It was preached by Him (Mat_4:23; Mat_11:5; Mar_1:14; Luk_4:18 margin), by the apostles (Act_16:10; Rom_1:15; Rom_2:16; 1Co_9:16) and by the evangelists (Act_8:25).

> International Standard Bible Encyclopedia

The Gospel Summarized in First Corinthians

> 1 Corinthians 15:1-4
> 1 Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand;
> 2 By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain.
> 3 For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures;
> 4 And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:

Here is Paul giving a summary of the Gospel, this is the gospel and it is good news. But is this all there is to it? No this is only one expression of the good news. It can be phrased in many other ways.

Glad Tidings The Gospel of Peace

The expression Glad Tidings is a synonym for Gospel; sometimes it's rendered Good News or Good Tidings. See here how it is used in Luke

> Luke 8:1 And it came to pass afterward, that he went throughout every city and village, preaching and shewing the glad tidings of the kingdom of God: and the twelve were with him,

So the Gospel of the Kingdom of God is the Good News or Glad Tidings. That same phrase is found in Romans 10, where the Gospel is spoken of as the Gospel of Peace.

> Romans 10:15 And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

Now let's find this in the Old Testament. In Isaiah 26 there is a mention of peace that we can relate to our previous discussion, Gospel Of The Kingdom. There we said: to seek first the kingdom of God is the same as to love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and the same as to have no other gods before him.

> Isaiah 26:3 Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee: because he trusteth in thee.

Show me someone whose mind is stayed on The Lord: because he trusts in The Lord, and I'll show you someone who is seeking the Kingdom of God first and foremost.

In Romans 10:15, quoted above, we see the words: as it is written, Romans is quoting from Isaiah 52.

> Isaiah 52:7 How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace; that bringeth good tidings of good, that publisheth salvation; that saith unto Zion, Thy God reigneth!

This one verse ties together several ideas which are, in typical Hebrew fashion, differing ways of saying the same thing. These are:
good tidings publishing peace publishing salvation saying to Zion: [Israel and or the Church] Thy God Reigns, i.e. the Kingdom of God.

So if you are preaching from Isaiah 52 or anywhere in the Old Testament on any of these synonymous themes, you are preaching the Gospel of the Kingdom of God from the Old Testament. Here are some other examples.

> Nahum 1:15 Behold upon the mountains the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace! O Judah, keep thy solemn feasts, perform thy vows: for the wicked shall no more pass through thee; he is utterly cut off.
> Isaiah 40:9 O Zion, that bringest good tidings, get thee up into the high mountain; O Jerusalem, that bringest good tidings, lift up thy voice with strength; lift it up, be not afraid; say unto the cities of Judah, Behold your God!
> Isaiah 57:19 I create the fruit of the lips; Peace, peace to him that is far off, and to him that is near, saith the LORD; and I will heal him.

Notice that in both Isaiah and Nahum The Spirit uses a curious expression: the feet of him that bringeth good tidings.* Romans 10:15 also says How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace. Ephesians 6 tells us that the Gospel of Peace is part of the whole armor of God. It's the part that goes on your feet! This is what enables you to Go and Preach. And this is what makes for beautiful feet!

> Ephesians 6:15 And your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace;

Earlier in Ephesians it tells us that Jesus Christ is our peace.

> Ephesians 2:14 For he is our peace, who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us;

So the gospel is announcing the Kingdom of God, who is our peace, The Prince of Peace. He is called that in Isaiah 9.

> *Isaiah 9:6 For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace.

So if you're preaching from Isaiah 9, that's the Gospel of the Kingdom of God, from the Old Testament.

The Son, The King, The Cornerstone, The Promise

Here is a passage from Acts 13 that links the Glad Tidings with Psalm 2.

> Acts 13:32-33
> 32 And we declare unto you glad tidings, how that the promise which was made unto the fathers,
> 33 God hath fulfilled the same unto us their children, in that he hath raised up Jesus again; as it is also written in the second psalm, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee.

And in Psalm 2 we read:

> Psalms 2:6-8
> 6 Yet have I set my king upon my holy hill of Zion.
> 7 I will declare the decree: the LORD hath said unto me, Thou art my Son; this day have I begotten thee.
> 8 Ask of me, and I shall give thee the heathen for thine inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession.

Acts 2 links the Gospel with the promise made to the fathers; i.e. the covenant with Abraham, and then links it to Psalm 2 where the anointed one, i.e. the Messiah is declared to be the only begotten son. Psalm 2 then links these ideas to The Kingdom, Mount Zion and his inheritance. His inheritance is the heathen, [the nations] and all the earth.

Let's look at a mention of Mount Zion found in Isaiah 28.

> Isaiah 28:16 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner stone, a sure foundation: he that believeth shall not make haste.

This is a parallel depiction of what is says in Psalm 2 "Yet have I set my king upon my holy hill of Zion." Another depiction of the same event is given in Zechariah 4 where the cornerstone is termed the headstone. The Lord Jesus is the head stone set in place on the great mountain, which is Mount Zion.

> Zechariah 4:7 Who art thou, O great mountain? before Zerubbabel thou shalt become a plain: and he shall bring forth the headstone thereof with shoutings, crying, Grace, grace unto it.

Notice that this quote mentions that the mountain shalt become a plain. This is seen in the book of Micah, and Isaiah.

> Micah 3:12 Therefore shall Zion for your sake be plowed as a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of the forest.
> Isaiah 40:3-5
> 3 The voice of him that crieth in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the LORD, make straight in the desert a highway for our God.
> 4 Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low*: and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough places* plain*:*
> 5 And the glory of the LORD shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together: for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it.

You can also tie in the mention of Mt. Zion from Psalm 133, and preach the Gospel of the Kingdom from the Old Testament.

> Psalms 133:1-3
> 1 <A Song of degrees of David.> Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity!
> 2 It is like the precious ointment upon the head, that ran down upon the beard, even Aaron's beard: that went down to the skirts of his garments;

> 3 As the dew of Hermon, and as the dew that descended upon the mountains of Zion*: for there the LORD commanded the blessing, even life for evermore.*

The Promise To The Fathers
Now let's look at the Promise.

> Acts 13:32-33
> 32 And we declare unto you glad tidings*, how that the* promise which was made unto the fathers,
> 33 God hath fulfilled the same unto us their children, in that he hath raised up Jesus again; as it is also written in the second psalm, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee.

This quote from Acts links The Gospel with the Promise To The Fathers and to the Messiah, the Son mentioned in Psalm 2. We can find the promise spoken of in Genesis 12, although the first hint of it is in Genesis 3.

The promise to Abraham is seen in Genesis 12 thusly.

> Genesis 12:1-3
> 1 Now the LORD had said unto Abram, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and from thy father's house, unto a land that I will shew thee:
> 2 And I will make of thee a great nation, and I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing:
> 3 And I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee:.
>
> 7 And the LORD appeared unto Abram, and said, Unto thy seed will I give this land: and there builded he an altar unto the LORD, who appeared unto him.

Now here is a multi part promise.
1. I will make of thee a great nation
2. I will bless thee
3. and make thy name great
4. and thou shalt be a blessing
5. And I will bless them that bless thee
6. and curse him that curses thee
7. and in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed
8. Unto thy seed will I give this land

Item number 7, and in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed Is the really important one. Galatians speaks of this blessing as The Gospel.

> Galatians 3:8 And the scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all nations be blessed.

And Galatians 3:14 elaborates on that saying that the Gospel is the blessing of Abraham coming to the gentiles, and most importantly that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith. This promise of the Spirit is the promise of a New Covenant. It’s the same new covenant that was promised to Israel of old. Also it is telling us that the promise of a new covenant goes back to Abraham.

> Galatians 3:14 That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.

Thus the Gospel of the Kingdom is the promise of the Spirit. This would mean that any scripture in the Old Testament that mentions the Promise of a New Covenant or the Outpouring of the Spirit, is a preaching the Gospel of the Kingdom from the Old Testament!

Romans looks at the promise to Abraham and describes it, not as a promise just to receive the land of Canaan but to inherit all the world.

> Romans 4:13 For the promise, that he should be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith.

Now turn that right around and take it back to Psalm 2.

> *Psalm 2: 8 Ask of me, and I shall give thee the heathen [nations] for thine inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession.

And remember how the Gospel is spoken of as Good News for All in Luke 2 in the New Testament and in Isaiah 52 in the old testament.

> Luke 2:10 And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people.
> Isaiah 52:7-10
> 7 How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace; that bringeth good tidings of good, that publisheth salvation; that saith unto Zion, Thy God reigneth!
> 8 Thy watchmen shall lift up the voice; with the voice together shall they sing: for they shall see eye to eye, when the LORD shall bring again Zion.
> 9 Break forth into joy, sing together, ye waste places of Jerusalem: for the LORD hath comforted his people, he hath redeemed Jerusalem.
> 10 The LORD hath made bare his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations; and all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God.

Here we see the gospel is a promise of the Spirit. When one says the Kingdom of God is at hand, he says, there is a kingdom coming. When you say Our God Reigns as is Isaiah 52:7, you are saying the kingdom is here. This has to do with when the promise of a new covenant is fulfilled by the coming of the king. And so lets look at when the Kingdom of God comes to earth. That is when will God's will be done here on earth as it is in heaven. Here are some verses that indicate the timing on this.

On Earth As It Is In Heaven

> Daniel 2:44 And in the days of these kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed: and the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand for ever.
> Revelation 11:15-17
> 15 And the seventh angel sounded; and there were great voices in heaven, saying, The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ; and he shall reign for ever and ever.
> 16 And the four and twenty elders, which sat before God on their seats, fell upon their faces, and worshipped God,
> 17 Saying, We give thee thanks, O Lord God Almighty, which art, and wast, and art to come; because thou hast taken to thee thy great power, and hast reigned.
>
> Revelation 12:10 And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night.
> Psalms 2:6 Yet have I set my king upon my holy hill of Zion.
> Psalms 110:1-3

> 1 <A Psalm of David.> The LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou at my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool.
> 2 The LORD shall send the rod of thy strength out of Zion: rule thou in the midst of thine enemies.
> 3 Thy people shall be willing in the day of thy power, in the beauties of holiness from the womb of the morning: thou hast the dew of thy youth.

Righteousness Peace and Joy

Let's look at another way the Gospel is related to the Kingdom. Romans 14 lists Righteousness Peace and Joy as three signs of the Kingdom of God.

> Romans 14:17 For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost.

We can see in the following three quotes where the Gospel is seen as salvation, peace and joy.

> Ephesians 1:13 In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise,

> Romans 10:15 And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

> Luke 2:10 And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people.

So we could simply claim the salvation is synonymous with righteousness to tie in the three signs of the Kingdom to the Gospel. However it's easy enough to find scripture that links these two ideas.

> Isaiah 56:1 Thus saith the LORD, Keep ye judgment, and do justice: for my salvation is near to come, and my righteousness to be revealed.

> Isaiah 61:10 I will greatly rejoice in the LORD, my soul shall be joyful in my God; for he hath clothed me with the garments of salvation, he hath covered me with the robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom decketh himself with ornaments, and as a bride adorneth herself with her jewels.

This last quote also brings in the idea of Joy once again. And of course Ephesians 6 informs us that righteousness and salvation are a part of the whole armor of God.

> Ephesians 6:13-17
> 13 Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.
> 14 Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness;
> 15 And your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace;
> 16 Above all, taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked.
> 17 And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God:

So there you have righteousness, and peace, and joy: The Gospel of the Kingdom of God!

Other Aspects Of The Gospel

The Gospel Has Power

Consider these quotes mentioning power relating to the Gospel of The Kingdom.

> Romans 1:16 For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.
> 1 Thessalonians 1:5 For our gospel came not unto you in word only, but also in power, and in the Holy Ghost, and in much assurance; as ye know what manner of men we were among you for your sake.
> 1 Corinthians 2:4-5
> 4 And my speech and my preaching was not with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power:
> 5 That your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God.
> 1 Corinthians 4:20 For the kingdom of God is not in word, but in power.

The Gospel Requires Obedience

> Romans 10:16 But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Esaias saith, Lord, who hath believed our report?
> Romans 16:25-26
> 25 Now to him that is of power to stablish you according to my gospel, and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery, which was kept secret since the world began,
> 26 But now is made manifest, and by the scriptures of the prophets, according to the commandment of the everlasting God, made known to all nations for the obedience of faith:
> 1 Peter 4:17 For the time is come that judgment must begin at the house of God: and if it first begin at us, what shall the end be of them that obey not the gospel of God?

Summary

In Acts 28 we read another one of those parallel expressions. This one also makes a good definition of the Gospel of the Kingdom of God.

> Acts 28:31 Preaching the kingdom of God, and teaching those things which concern the Lord Jesus Christ, with all confidence, no man forbidding him.

It's telling us that the Gospel of the Kingdom of God consists of those things which concern the Lord Jesus Christ. So your old testament sources can be any of the following themes and more besides.

Any passage relating to the first commandment or
The coming of the Messiah, or Peace or Salvation or
The promises to Abraham and the fathers or
The King in Zion or
The cornerstone laid in Zion or
The promise of the New Covenant or
The Promise of the Spirit

Now we'll generalize a bit further. Consider that this quote from Acts 28 tells us that the Gospel of the Kingdom consists of those things which concern the Lord Jesus Christ. Let's take a look at the opening verses of Acts.

> Acts 1:1-3
> 1 The former treatise have I made, O Theophilus, of all that Jesus began both to do and teach,
> 2 Until the day in which he was taken up, after that he through the Holy Ghost had given commandments unto the apostles whom he had chosen:
> 3 To whom also he shewed himself alive after his passion by many infallible proofs, being seen of them forty days, and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God:

The mention of the former treatise in verse one is usually understood as speaking of The Gospel of Luke who wrote both Luke and Acts. Since we know that the true author of all scripture is the Holy Spirit, it is not too much of a stretch to see that the Former Treatise has a double meaning. That is to say, it is a veiled reference to the Old Testament! And with the guidance of the Holy Spirit, we should be able to teach on the Gospel of the Kingdom of God from just about anywhere in the Old Testament. Selah!

> 1 Corinthians 11:33-34
> 33 Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eat, tarry one for another.
> 34 And if any man hunger, let him eat at home; that ye come not together unto condemnation. And the rest will I set in order when I come.
> 1 Peter 4:17 For the time is come that judgment must begin at the house of God: and if it first begin at us, what shall the end be of them that obey not the gospel of God?

Let me start out by upsetting some peoples theology. God is not coming back so he can set up his Kingdom here on earth, he is setting up his Kingdom here on earth so he can come back.

Hey wait a minute, aren’t we getting things backwards here. Everyone agrees that Jesus will come back at the Second Coming, right? Well OK, so everyone doesn’t agree. But the Bible shows him coming back in Revelation 19 and in Revelation 20 it mentions the saints reigning with him a thousand years.

> Revelation 20:6 Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: on such the second death hath no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with him a thousand years.

So that is when he sets up his kingdom. Right? No, that’s jumping to a conclusion. There are other scriptures to counter that view and we will look at some of them in this essay. The Bible says prove all things. We should question every traditional teaching we have ever had. See if what you believe is supported by scripture or if you are just accepting the teachings of men.

What about the Return of the Lord?

Anyway isn’t God all powerful and can do anything he wants, whenever? So why doesn’t he just come back now? Well because there are some scriptures that have to be fulfilled first. He says in his word just how he is going to do something, and he can’t just change his mind any old time and do something differently.

Here are two major things that stand in the way of the Second Coming.
A. The Gospel must go out to all the world producing a harvest.

> Matthew 24:14 And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come.

B. The Lord will not come back till the people of Jerusalem, the Jews, repent and call on his name.

> Luke 13:34-35
> 34 O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, which killest the prophets, and stonest them that are sent unto thee; how often would I have gathered thy children together, as a hen doth gather her brood under her wings, and ye would not!
> 35 Behold, your house is left unto you desolate: and verily I say unto you, Ye shall not see me, until the time come when ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.

The connection between these two is in Romans 11.

> Romans 11:25 For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, lest ye should be wise in your own conceits; that blindness in part is happened to Israel, until the fulness of the Gentiles be come in.

So the way this works it that the Jews, can only call on the Lord if the blindness is removed. And the blindness can only be removed with the fullness of the Gentiles. And the fullness of the Gentiles can only come once the Gospel is preached to all the world. So the Lord's primary objective is for the Gospel to be preached to all the world, and the rest will fall in line automatically. There are other ways these verses can be interpreted, but I believe this is what the Lord has shown me.

That leaves us with the question:
What is it going to take for the Gospel to be preached to all the world?

It's going to take a people who are dead to self and willing to make whatever sacrifices it takes to win the lost. This means that the church of today must be purged, purified and empowered. We are told that judgment must begin at the house of God. We need to understand why this is so and what the result will be.

We also need to realize that this judgment is what it will take for God to accomplish his task and allow him to come again in clouds of glory.

And further we need to see that this act of judgment actually is God setting up his kingdom here on earth. That is why we said earlier that God is not coming back so he can set up his Kingdom here on earth, he is setting up his Kingdom here on earth so he can come back. So we want to show that Harvest follows Judgment and that this Judgment consists in God setting up his Kingdom here on earth.

The Faithful City, Corrupted and the Lord's End Time Plan

This passage from Isaiah 1 lays out the issues God has with the church, and his end time plan for dealing with them.

> Isaiah 1:21-28
> 21 How is the faithful city become an harlot! it was full of judgment; righteousness lodged in it; but now murderers.
> 22 Thy silver is become dross, thy wine mixed with water:
> 23 Thy princes are rebellious, and companions of thieves: every one loveth gifts, and followeth after rewards: they judge not the fatherless, neither doth the cause of the widow come unto them.
> 24 Therefore saith the Lord, the LORD of hosts, the mighty One of Israel, Ah, I will ease me of mine adversaries, and avenge me of mine enemies:
> 25 And I will turn my hand upon thee, and purely purge away thy dross, and take away all thy tin:
> 26 And I will restore thy judges as at the first, and thy counsellors as at the beginning: afterward thou shalt be called, The city of righteousness, the faithful city.
> 27 Zion shall be redeemed with judgment, and her converts with righteousness.
> 28 And the destruction of the transgressors and of the sinners shall be together, and they that forsake the LORD shall be consumed.

Isaiah 1:27 links judgment and harvest very directly.

> Isaiah 1:27 Zion shall be redeemed with judgment, and her converts with righteousness.

The same idea can be seen in Psalm 2. Here it shows the Kingdom being set up and this is happening while the heathen are raging not after Jesus has returned to destroy all opposition.

> Psalms 2:1 Why do the heathen rage, and the people imagine a vain thing?

> Psalms 2:6-8
> 6 Yet have I set my king upon my holy hill of Zion.
> 7 I will declare the decree: the LORD hath said unto me, Thou art my Son; this day have I begotten thee.
> 8 Ask of me, and I shall give thee the heathen for thine inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession.

And right after the king is set on The Holy Hill of Zion, there is mention of the harvest of the heathen, i.e. the gentiles. Taking place in the utmost parts of the earth, where the gospel must be preached before the end.

Mount Zion

Let’s take a look at the meaning of Zion. First of all, Zion or Mount Zion is a literal place in the City of Jerusalem. You can go there today and visit it. Symbolically Zion stands for Jerusalem and by extension, all Israel. Those who do not see Israel as a type of the church stop there and think that Zion only means Israel or the people of Israel. Spiritually Zion speaks of the Church, and the place where God dwells. So Zion can mean all three.

The Tabernacle of David and Mount Zion

What is the Tabernacle of David and what does it have to do with Mount Zion?
The exact phrase Tabernacle of David is mentioned at least three times in the bible. Much of this is done in brilliant figurative language.

> Amos 9:11-12
> 11 In that day will I raise up the tabernacle of David that is fallen, and close up the breaches thereof; and I will raise up his ruins, and I will build it as in the days of old:
> 12 That they may possess the remnant of Edom, and of all the heathen, which are called by my name, saith the LORD that doeth this.
> Acts 15:16-17
> 16 After this I will return, and will build again the tabernacle of David, which is fallen down; and I will build again the ruins thereof, and I will set it up:
> 17 That the residue of men might seek after the Lord, and all the Gentiles, upon whom my name is called, saith the Lord, who doeth all these things.

In both these quotes you find mention of the harvest of the heathen or gentiles following on after the restoration of this tabernacle. This tabernacle was a place inhabited by the Lord. Also David ordained 24 hour worship in this tabernacle. So the entire image is one of King Jesus coming to his place of rest, Mt. Zion, the City of the Great King. This is the setup of the Kingdom of God. It takes place before the harvest, not after Jesus returns.

Here are some more references.
This verse from Psalm 15 links the location of the tabernacle with image of the Holy Hill.

> Psalms 15:1 <A Psalm of David.> LORD, who shall abide in thy tabernacle? who shall dwell in thy holy hill?

Isaiah 16 tells us that He [the lamb] shall sit on a throne in The Tabernacle of David and connects that right to Mount Zion.

> Isaiah 16:1 Send ye the lamb to the ruler of the land from Sela to the wilderness, unto the mount of the daughter of Zion.
> Isaiah 16:5 And in mercy shall the throne be established: and he shall sit upon it in truth in the tabernacle of David, judging, and seeking judgment, and hasting righteousness.

Psalm 132 informs us that The Lord intends to inhabit Zion and will dwell there forever. Verses 15 and 16 give details of the blessings to come there. We can’t forget the mention of blessings in Psalm 133 either.

> Psalms 132:13-16
> 13 For the LORD hath chosen Zion; he hath desired it for his habitation.
> 14 This is my rest for ever: here will I dwell; for I have desired it.
> 15 I will abundantly bless her provision: I will satisfy her poor with bread.
> 16 I will also clothe her priests with salvation: and her saints shall shout aloud for joy.

Origin And Meaning Of The Tabernacle Of David.
These next verses tell us that David pitched a tent or tabernacle for the Ark of the Covenant in somewhere in Jerusalem.

> 2 Samuel 6:17 And they brought in the ark of the LORD, and set it in his place, in the midst of the tabernacle that David had pitched for it: and David offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD.

> 2 Chronicles 1:4 But the ark of God had David brought up from Kirjathjearim to the place which David had prepared for it: for he had pitched a tent for it at Jerusalem.

This quote tells us that it was on Mount Zion.

> 2 Chronicles 5:2 Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel, and all the heads of the tribes, the chief of the fathers of the children of Israel, unto Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the city of David, which is Zion.

The big picture in all this is that restoration of the Tabernacle of David precedes a harvest, and that it involves the Kingdom of God being set up there on Mount Zion.

More on Zion
This quote here from Hebrews 12 ties together many important biblical themes. Here Mount Zion is identified with, the Heavenly Jerusalem, The Church, and the New Covenant among other things.

> Hebrews 12:22-24
> 22 But ye are come unto mount Sion, and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels,
> 23 To the general assembly and church of the firstborn, which are written in heaven, and to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of just men made perfect,
> 24 And to Jesus the mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things than that of Abel.

Also there is this passage from Galatians 4 that identifies the heavenly Jerusalem with the New Covenant. So there is a contrast between the Old Covenant seen as Mount Sinai, where Moses received the Law, and the New Covenant seen as Mount Zion, the City of the Living God, the Great King.

> Galatians 4:24-26
> 24 Which things are an allegory: for these are the two covenants; the one from the mount Sinai, which gendereth to bondage, which is Agar.
> 25 For this Agar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and answereth to Jerusalem which now is, and is in bondage with her children.
> 26 But Jerusalem which is above is free, which is the mother of us all.

Zion Redeemed by Judgment
Let’s look back at Isaiah 1.

> Isaiah 1:21-28
> 21 How is the faithful city become an harlot! it was full of judgment; righteousness lodged in it; but now murderers.

> 22 Thy silver is become dross, thy wine mixed with water:
> 23 Thy princes are rebellious, and companions of thieves: every one loveth gifts, and followeth after rewards: they judge not the fatherless, neither doth the cause of the widow come unto them.
> 24 Therefore saith the Lord, the LORD of hosts, the mighty One of Israel, Ah, I will ease me of mine adversaries, and avenge me of mine enemies:
> 25 And I will turn my hand upon thee, and purely purge away thy dross, and take away all thy tin:
> 26 And I will restore thy judges as at the first, and thy counsellors as at the beginning: afterward thou shalt be called, The city of righteousness, the faithful city.
> 27 Zion shall be redeemed with judgment, and her converts with righteousness.
> 28 And the destruction of the transgressors and of the sinners shall be together, and they that forsake the LORD shall be consumed.

In this section from Isaiah 1 note the first three verses, 21-23 summarize the corruption found. Then the word therefore in verse 24 begins to list God’s responses. Then in verse 27 and 28 the responses are summarized. Briefly, because of all this corruption, God will bring judgment. So what is the purpose of Judgment but redemption? And isn’t Judgment one of the attributes of Jesus? We read of Judgments in the earth over in Isaiah 26.

> Isaiah 26:9 With my soul have I desired thee in the night; yea, with my spirit within me will I seek thee early: for when thy judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness.

Here it seems the result of judgment is a blessing! Judgment is a good thing, not to be feared.

I Lay In Zion

The same pattern is repeated in Isaiah 28. There the first 15 verses are itemizing the different kinds of sin and corruption among God’s people. Then comes the Therefore verse.

> Isaiah 28:16 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner stone, a sure foundation: he that believeth shall not make haste.

This verse is saying an exact equivalent of what God says in Psalm 2:6

> Psalm 2:6 Yet have I set my king upon my holy hill of Zion.

That is because the cornerstone spoken of is Jesus himself.

> Ephesians 2:20 And are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone;

Not By Might, Nor By Power

Laying the foundation stone in Zion is in figurative language the same as setting the King on the Holy Hill. The same figure is seen in Zechariah 4.

> Zechariah 4:6-7
> 6 Then he answered and spake unto me, saying, This is the word of the LORD unto Zerubbabel, saying, Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the LORD of hosts.
> 7 Who art thou, O great mountain? before Zerubbabel thou shalt become a plain: and he shall bring forth the headstone thereof with shoutings, crying, Grace, grace unto it.

Here the headstone is the same as the Chief Cornerstone mentioned in Ephesians 2:20. The great mountain mentioned in verse 7 is Mount Zion and Zerubbabel is a type of Jesus; and the one bringing forth the headstone is the Father. Notice now that the text says this great mountain shall become a plain. This is a figure of the judgment on Zion mentioned in Micah 3.

> Micah 3:12 Therefore shall Zion for your sake be plowed as a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of the forest.

The mountain being made low is seen in Isaiah 40 preparing the way of the Lord.

> Isaiah 40:3-4
> 3 The voice of him that crieth in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the LORD, make straight in the desert a highway for our God.
> 4 Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low: and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough places plain:

To tie all this together, Mt. Zion is judged and made level as a plain, or fallow ground being plowed, to prepare the way of the Lord. The Lord is the headstone, and he is the King being set in place on the Holy Hill. So the judgment coming is really a blessing because it is the Kingdom of God coming here on earth. He is the head of the body.

The Revelation Of Jesus Christ
Now this same pattern is found in Revelation. The central theme of the Book of Revelation is the Revelation of Jesus Christ. The major metaphor is the scroll sealed with the seven seals. Judgments come as the scroll is unsealed, so the Lord is revealed. Psalm 6 reminds the Lord is Known, i.e. revealed by judgments.

> Psalms 9:16 The LORD is known by the judgment which he executeth: the wicked is snared in the work of his own hands. Higgaion. Selah.

In Revelation Chapter 11, an evaluation is taking place.

> Revelation 11:1 And there was given me a reed like unto a rod: and the angel stood, saying, Rise, and measure the temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein.

There the prophet is instructed to measure, i.e. judge or evaluate the temple and the worshipers which are the church. Keep in mind that a measuring rod is an instrument of evaluation used by a carpenter. Then in Revelation 12 we find this statement about the setting up of the Kingdom of God.

> Revelation 12:10-11
> 10 And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night.
> 11 And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death.

And looking farther on to chapter 14 we see the King set in place in the Holy Hill.

> Revelation 14:1 And I looked, and, lo, a Lamb stood on the mount Sion, and with him an hundred forty and four thousand, having his Father's name written in their foreheads.

And with him are the 144 thousand, who will follow him wherever he leads.

> Revelation 14:4 These are they which were not defiled with women; for they are virgins. These are they which follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth. These were redeemed from among men, being the firstfruits unto God and to the Lamb.

And here we find the answer to our question posed earlier.

What is it going to take for the Gospel to be preached to all the world? It will take a group of people dead to self, totally obedient to the Lord. Ones who will overcome the enemy by laying down their lives without fear. God is not looking for survivors, he’s looking for overcomers.

> Psalms 110:3 Thy people shall be willing in the day of thy power, in the beauties of holiness from the womb of the morning: thou hast the dew of thy youth.

An After Word

As I write this, we are seeing a great deal of strife, A Civil War In The Church because of the Healing Outpouring that began in Lakeland Florida. This passage from Joshua 5 provides an illustration of how the Lord will bring all this to an end.

> Joshua 5:13-15
> 13 And it came to pass, when Joshua was by Jericho, that he lifted up his eyes and looked, and, behold, there stood a man over against him with his sword drawn in his hand: and Joshua went unto him, and said unto him, Art thou for us, or for our adversaries?
> 14 And he said, Nay; but as captain of the host of the LORD am I now come. And Joshua fell on his face to the earth, and did worship, and said unto him, What saith my lord unto his servant?
> 15 And the captain of the LORD'S host said unto Joshua, Loose thy shoe from off thy foot; for the place whereon thou standest is holy. And Joshua did so.

Here we see the Lord come into the camp of his own people with a drawn sword. This speaks of judgments being carried out on his people. The sword is the word and stands for Jesus who is the word. The idea that the sword is drawn and visible therefore speaks of The Revelation of Jesus Christ. Joshua’s question, Art thou for us, or for our adversaries? makes a lot of sense in context of this civil war. And the Lord’s answer can be paraphrased like this. “I am not come to take sides. I am come to take over.”

Rethinking The Five-Fold Ministry

Frank Viola

Copyright 2005 Present Testimony Ministry

In virtually every city where I've spoken, I have been asked the question, "Frank, do you believe in 'the five-fold ministry?' And do you believe that God is restoring 'the five-fold ministry' mentioned in Ephesians Chapter 4?"

In this article, I would like to answer that question.

My answer is largely hinged on what one means by "the five-fold ministry." That is, what "five-fold ministry" are we talking about? Are we talking about the 200-year old doctrine of the restoration of "the five-fold ministry?" Or are we talking about the ascension gifts that Paul had in mind when he penned Ephesians 4:9-16?

The Five-Fold Ministry: The History of a Doctrine

In 19th century England, Christians were ripe to flock to apocalyptic prophecies about the coming Millennial Age. The upheaval that the French Revolution had produced left God's people wishing for a reign of peace under their Lord that would set all things right.

In the year 1824, Edward Irving, a Presbyterian pastor in Scotland, began teaching that "the five-fold ministry" of apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors and teachers had disappeared from the church and were in need of restoration. According to Irving, the restoration of these ministries would usher in the Millennial Kingdom of Christ on the earth.

As a result of Irving's teachings, he and his followers began the Catholic Apostolic Church in 1832. Its chief purpose was to restore "the five-fold ministry" and usher in the Millennial Kingdom. The church ordained twelve "apostles" who were to be the last days equivalent of the original Twelve whom Jesus appointed. Henry Drummond, a wealthy banker from England, became the leader of the church. Drummond himself took the highest position . . . the "apostle to Scotland."

It was prophesied that these twelve apostles would be the last apostles to appear on the earth before Christ's return. (This is a throwback to Mani of Persia of the third century who labeled himself the "Apostle of Light," the very last apostle of Jesus to exist on the earth.)

Eventually these twelve apostles died (the last one dying in 1901). Upon their death, the Catholic Apostolic Church died in England. In Germany, however, the Catholic Apostolic Church ordained twelve more apostles and took the name New Apostolic Church.

In 1901, an erstwhile Congregational minister named John Alexander Dowie founded the Christian Catholic Church in 1896 and became its general overseer. In 1901, with 5,000 followers, Dowie established the "City of Zion" in north-east Illinois and ran it as a Puritan theocracy. In 1904, he revealed that he had been Divinely commissioned to be the "First Apostle" and told his followers to anticipate the full restoration of apostolic Christianity. In 1906, the community of believers in the City of Zion began to break down. Dowie passed away the following year.

Following the famed Azusa Street revival in Los Angeles in 1906, the restoration of "the five-fold ministry" and "a mighty outpouring of the Holy Spirit" just before the return of Christ picked up new steam. This spawned a new generation of apostles to appear. Luigi Francescon, "apostle to Italy," Ivan Voronaev, "apostle to the Slavs," T.B. Barratt, "apostle to Europe" were just some of them. Pentecostal denominations in Wales, New Zealand, Australia, Canada and the United States elected and ordained colleges of apostles to govern their denominations.

As the years rolled on, the restoration of "the five-fold ministry" doctrine somewhat faded. But it re-emerged again with a revival that was spawned at Sharon Orphanage in North Battleford, Saskatchewan, Canada in 1948. The New Order of the Latter Rain movement, as it was called, was prophesied to restore "the five-fold ministry" to prepare for the manifestation of the sons of God on the earth.

The restoration of "the five-fold ministry" doctrine again faded until it was given new life in the Charismatic Movement of the 1960s. It again began to dim until a group of men began to resurrect it with new fervor in the 1990s.

In 1996, Peter Wagner led a conference at Fuller Theological Seminary entitled National Symposium on the Post-Denominational Church. This conference spawned a new movement called the New Apostolic Movement, which Wagner claims is sweeping the globe with a new way of doing church. The churches who are part of this movement are being labeled New Apostolic Churches.

In 1999, Wagner sought to organize the movement under the name International Coalition of Apostles with Wagner as the "Presiding Apostle." The movement claims to be restoring "the five-fold ministry" today.

Sound familiar?

Parenthetically, the churches in the new apostolic movement are vanilla charismatic institutional churches replete with the office of modern pastor (now called "apostle"), Sunday sermons, pulpit, pews, church buildings, the 500 year-old order of worship, music led by a worship team, etc.

Point: The doctrine of the restoration of "the five-fold ministry" is over 180 years old! And it has been repackaged from movement to movement.

Running the Cart Over the Horse

So is God going to restore "the five-fold ministry?" To my mind, that's the wrong question. It's pushing the cart before the horse. The ascension gifts mentioned in Ephesians 4—which are gifted people given to the Body of Christ as gifts to His church—are the natural outgrowth and by-product of authentic church life. This is the case with all of the other gifts mentioned in the New Testament.

All in all, there are 20 gifts mentioned in the New Testament (apostles, prophets, evangelists, shepherds, teachers, word of wisdom, word of knowledge, faith, prophecy, healings, discerning of spirits, miracles, tongues, interpretation of tongues, helps, administration, service, exhortation, giving, and mercy).

If a group of believers gathers around Jesus Christ alone—rather than a doctrine, theological system, or distinct practice—and they are void of a clergy system (a la, the modern pastor or a board of elders that dominates them)—then in time the church will produce all the gifts and gifted ones that exist within the Body of Christ.

It is no mistake that Paul uses the human physical body as an apt metaphor to describe the way the Body of Christ functions. When a baby girl is born, most of her physical capabilities are not present. She can't ride a bicycle, add and subtract numbers, eat with a fork and knife, nor can she bathe or dress herself.

However, within her body, she possesses the genetic codes that will produce the physical development by which to carry out these capabilities. If she is fed and nurtured properly, in time, these abilities will naturally develop within her. She will grow into them. Why? They are organic to her species as a human being. They are the product of life.

In the same way, when a church is born, it possesses within its spiritual DNA all of the gifts that are in Christ. But it takes time for the church to produce them.

What is needed, then, is the restoration of the experience of the Body of Christ. And that is what God is seeking to restore today as He has in every generation.

If we can discover how a church is born from God's perspective . . . and how it is to be nurtured and maintained . . . then we will see a restoration of all the gifts that are in Christ in the way that they were meant to be expressed.

(In So You Want to Start a House Church: First-Century Styled Church Planting For Today, I discuss in great detail how churches were raised up and maintained in the first century. The book is an in depth treatise on apostolic ministry and a sober antidote for the scores of Christian men who are suffering from apostle-itis. It's also a solemn plea to reinstate a missing ingredient in the house church movement.)

I've been meeting outside the institutional church for almost 20 years. And one of the most startling discoveries I've made is how the gifts of the Holy Spirit function in an organic setting of church life opposed to how they are manifested in the Pentecostal/charismatic world. The gift of prophecy, for example, that comes up out of the soil of authentic Body life looks profoundly different from the way it is packaged in the typical Pentecostal/charismatic church. The latter is largely based on imitation.

Forgive the personal reference, but I believe it will help to explain the last paragraph. In the 1980s, I was part of a spontaneous expression of church life. Most of us who were gathering at that time came from the Pentecostal/Charismatic tradition. We functioned freely in spiritual gifts as they were modeled to us by that tradition. A number of years later a group whose background was anti-Pentecostal/Charismatic joined us. What a dilemma!

After a blood-letting church split, the Lord graciously showed us that what was needed is for both groups to lay down our ideas and practice of spiritual gifts and leave them at the foot of the cross of Christ. Though it was difficult, we let our ideas and practice of the gifts go into death. In a year's time, something remarkable happened. The gifts of the Holy Spirit were resurrected in our gatherings. However, they looked very different from what any of us had ever seen before. The Pentecostal/Charismatic packaging was utterly stripped away. And what was left was a pure expression of the Holy Spirit that glorified, unveiled, and lifted up the Lord Jesus Christ. As a result, the two groups came into a unified experience of the Holy Spirit's work.

Consequently, the pressing question is: Are we going to get serious about discovering how to gather around Jesus Christ according to the Divine principles outlined in God's written Word? Or are we going to blithely ignore those principles and for the next 200 years continue to hope (and prophesy) that "the five-fold ministry" will one day be restored?

Again, God's way of raising up the ascension gifts is by restoring authentic Body life. The ascension gifts do not magically appear because someone wrote a book prophesying that they will appear soon. Nor should we assume that they are restored when someone claims to be the "First," the "Last," or the "New Apostle."

The ascension gifts naturally emerge out of the expression of authentic church life. Authentic apostles, prophets, evangelists, shepherd/teachers are gifted members who grow up in authentic churches not as leaders, but as brethren, equal in position to everyone else in the church. Because they have developed out of the soil of church life, they have been tested and proven safe to the Kingdom of God and to the Lord's children. Their outstanding landmark is that they glorify, reveal, present, magnify, and bring into clear view the Lord Jesus Christ in unusual depths and in practical experience.

This is the heritage of the Ephesians 4 ascension gifts. It was true for all apostles, prophets, evangelists, and shepherds/teachers in the first century. And Jesus Christ has not changed.

The Peril of a Wrong Environment

What happens when gifted members of the Body of Christ are reared from a human organization built on unbiblical traditions rather than growing up organically out of the experience of the Body of Christ? To put it another way, what happens when a gifted Christian's only experience is in the modern institutional church?

The answer? Mixture . . . with a capital M!

Add to that a footnote: Malfunction.

What happens when you remove polar bears out of their natural habitat? If they survive (and some do not), they do not fully function as God designed. They lose their ability to reproduce. What happens when lions are caged and domesticated from birth? They lose their predatory and killer instincts. They lose something of the natural functioning with which God wired them.

Over the last decade, I've met scores of men who were self-proclaimed prophets and apostles. Some . . . not all . . . were genuinely gifted. Some of them had the gift of teaching. Others had authentic gifts of healing. Others had a genuine operation of the word of knowledge. A few of them (those whom I never met personally) have been helpful to me in my own spiritual walk, and I respect them greatly.

But most lacked any real depth into Jesus Christ and very little experience in understanding or embracing His cross. Further, I've yet to meet one who had a grasp of God's all-consuming dream and governing intention—His eternal purpose—the central object of all of His workings and dealings in and outside of space and time.

And most of them, if I can be perfectly honest, were very self-willed people who were fixated on their own importance.

Why is this? Because of the institution that raised them up. Or, in some cases, because they raised themselves up in isolation from other Christians. (The latter is an even more abnormal environment for a Christian to be nurtured. "He who separates himself seeks his own desire. He quarrels against all sound wisdom"—Proverbs 18:1.)

To put it in a sentence, such men did not grow up in their proper environment. Few if any of them grew up in an authentic Body life experience where they were simply brothers among other brothers. Few if any had spent any time in a first-century expression of church life where their weaknesses and blind spots were exposed to others of equal rank. Instead, most were part of several institutional churches and launched out into an independent ministry on their own without any proper training or sending. As Watchman Nee once observed, "The tragedy in Christian work today is that so many of the workers have simply gone out, they have not been sent."

The New Testament never envisions such a situation.

As far as apostles go, I have never met a self-proclaimed, titled apostle who plants churches that gather according to New Testament lines. (If such men exist, I desperately want to meet them. I say this soberly and in absolute sincerity.)

To place my concern into a question, where are the churches that the "new apostles" have planted that are gathering under the Headship of Jesus Christ without a clergy, where the members know one another deeply and are experiencing a depth in Christ, where decisions are made by the community, and where every-member functions in the meetings (services) without any man controlling, directing, facilitating, or dominating? Such is the hallmark of true apostolic ministry (1 Corinthians 9:2; 2 Corinthians 3:1-4).

Still more disappointing, every titled "apostle" in the new apostolic movement that I know of clings fiercely to and defends those church practices that are rooted in pagan tradition and have been hindering the Headship of Jesus Christ and the full functioning of His Body for the last 1800 years.

(If you don't understand that last sentence, I refer you to my book Pagan Christianity: The Origins of Our Modern Church Practices. The book demonstrates that most of our church practices have no basis in the New Testament, came out of heathen tradition, and are spiritually counter-productive.)

In short, at present, I'm monumentally unimpressed with the "new apostolic movement."

What Were the Ascension Gifts in the First Century?

When the ascension gifts emerge in an authentic expression of church life, their chief function is to nurture and encourage the believing community into spiritual maturity, unity, and every-member functioning. The success of these gifted members is rooted in their ability to empower and mobilize the saints for the work of the ministry. In this way, the Ephesians 4 ascension gifts equip (Greek: katartismos = mend or fit) the Body to fulfill God's eternal purpose.

This equipping does not come about by giving sermons to a passive audience every week. Nor does it come about by dominating church services with one's gifts.

The ascension gifts are not offices which carry authority. Nor are they formal positions. The Greek text has no definite article connected with any of them in Ephesians 4 or anywhere else they are mentioned in the New Testament. And they are never used as titles or referred to as offices. They are merely people with peculiar "enabling" gifts designed to cultivate the ministries of their fellow brethren.

(Note: The word "office" in Acts 1:20; Romans 11:13; 12:4 and 1 Timothy 3:1, 10, 13 is a misnomer. In Acts and Timothy, the word has no equivalent in the Greek text. It was added by some translators. In the Romans passages, the Greek words mean "service" and "function." They do not mean a sociological slot that one fills.)

Apostles

Apostles are extra-local, traveling itinerants. They are people sent by the Lord and by a particular church to plant churches. By "church," I don't mean the organization that is officiated by a pastor who gives sermons every Sunday morning. That's not the church as it is envisioned in the New Testament. (See my book Rethinking the Wineskin: The Practice of the New Testament Church for details.) A church is a community of believers that gathers under the Headship of Jesus Christ and where every member participates in the meetings, functions in ministry, and participates in the decision-making process.

Apostles enable the church by giving it birth from the ground up. They also help it walk on its own two feet. Apostles, if they are to be trusted, grew up in a first-century styled expression of church life as non-leaders before they were sent out to plant churches of the same ilk.

Prophets

Prophets are people who have a clear vision of Jesus Christ and who are able to articulate it lucidly. Prophets enable the church by speaking to it the present word of the Lord. Sometimes their words will simply reveal Christ to encourage, inspire, and comfort. Other times their words will recast spiritual vision when it is lost. They will seek to return to things as God sees them when they are forgotten or lost sight of. Prophets sometimes confirm the gifts and callings of other members. And they sometimes prepare the church for future trials.

Evangelists

Evangelists enable the church by modeling the preaching of the good news to the lost. They are fearless souls when it comes to speaking to unbelievers. And they have a genuine passion for the unsaved.

Shepherds/Teachers

Shepherds/teachers are two sides of the same gift. In Ephesians 4:11, the apostles, prophets, and evangelists are mentioned separately, while shepherds and teachers are joined together. Further, the first three ministries are preceded by the word "some." But the word "some" is attached to shepherds and teachers together. This indicates that shepherds/teachers are one gift.

As shepherds, these Christians have a genuine and evident care for God's people. This care is coupled with a heart that reaches out to heal their wounds. They often counsel, console, comfort, and encourage the Lord's people in personal and private settings. As teachers, they have an ability to clearly instruct the people of God in spiritual things.

The chief task of shepherds/teachers is to help the church in times of personal crisis (shepherding) and to enlighten and cultivate the church's spiritual life by revealing Christ through the exposition of Scripture (teaching). Shepherding is the private side of their ministry, while teaching is the public side. According to the New Testament, Shepherds minister on equal footing as all other believers in the church meetings (1 Corinthians 14:26; Hebrews 10:24-25). Neither do they CEO, control, or direct a church. And they are never tagged with titles like "Revered," "Bishop," or "Pastor."

The ascension gifts are not the equivalent of local leaders. According to the New Testament, leadership in a local assembly comes from three sources. In the beginning, it comes from the church planter (or apostolic ministry). The church planter takes a strong lead in the beginning, but he is equipping the church so as to work himself out of a job. Leadership then shifts to all of the believers in the church who make decisions together and share the ministry.

In time, some who are more seasoned in spiritual life will begin to emerge and operate. These people mainly help the church through crisis, both corporate and personal. Their ministry is that of oversight, which is a largely passive role. The New Testament refers to them as "older ones" or "elders."

Apostles, prophets, evangelists, and shepherding/teachers may or may not be elders. But all elders have a gift of shepherding. Some may be teachers in the public sense.

None of these gifts dominate the meetings of the church, which is a meeting where every member freely functions and supplies Christ in the gatherings (1 Corinthians 14:26). Consequently, the idea that apostles, prophets, evangelists, and shepherds/teachers dominate the church meetings is unscriptural.

The Error of Titles and Offices

The idea that apostles, prophets, evangelists, and shepherd/teachers are ministry titles is a post-Biblical invention. It is also an anti-Biblical invention! It is sad yet prevalent today to hear men and women wielding these Biblical words as personal titles. "Apostle Tommy and Prophet Wilma," "Bishop Jaquanza," "Pastor Rotunda," and "Evangelist Billy-Bob" all run against the grain of our Lord's aversion for titles and position which was a mark of the Jewish mindset of His day. Consider His words:

But do not be called Rabbi; for One is your Teacher, AND YOU ARE ALL BROTHERS. And DO NOT CALL ANYONE ON EARTH YOUR FATHER: for One is your Father, He who is in heaven. And DO NOT BE CALLED LEADERS; for One is your Leader, that is, Christ. But the greatest among you shall be your servant. And whoever exalts himself shall be humbled; and whoever humbles himself shall be exalted. (Matt. 23:8-12, NASB)

Gathering up the content of Christ's teaching here, we may glean the following:

*In the religious climate of the Jews there exists a class system made up of religious specialists and non-specialists. In the kingdom, all are brethren in the same family.

*In the Jewish world, religious leaders are accorded with honorific titles. (Examples: Apostle, Prophet, Father, Reverend, Pastor, Bishop, Priest, Minister, etc.) In the kingdom, there are no distinctions of protocol. Such titles obscure the unique honor of Jesus Christ and blur the New Testament revelation that envisions all Christians as ministers and priests.

*In the Jewish world, leaders are exalted into positions of prominence and glamorous display. In the kingdom, leaders find their work in the lowly towel of servitude and in the unassuming basin of humility.

*In the Jewish world, leadership is rooted in status, title, and position. In the kingdom, leadership is rooted in inward life and character. (In this vein, the current fad of bestowing honorary "doctorates" before the names of countless clergy is one example of how the modern church mirrors those leadership values that run contrary to God's kingdom.)

At this point, someone may retort by asking: "Didn't Paul use the word "apostle" as an official title when speaking about himself?"

Contrary to common thinking, most of Paul's correspondence contains a subtext that affirms that he is not an official-apostle. Granted, Paul regularly makes known his special function in the salutation of his letters (a la "Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ"). But he never once identifies himself as "the Apostle Paul."

This is a meaningful distinction. The former is a description of a special function based on Divine commission. The latter is an official title.

In fact, nowhere in the New Testament do we find any ministry or function in the Body deployed as a title before the names of God's servants. Christians who are "title-happy" need to reflect seriously on this!

Similarly, the New Testament never envisions apostles, prophets, evangelists, or shepherd/teachers as offices possessing official authority. Such was a mark of Gentile thinking in our Lord's day.

Recall that after James and John implored Jesus to grant them the glorified power-seats beside His throne, the Lord replied saying,

. . . You know that the rulers of the Gentiles LORD IT OVER THEM, and their great men EXERCISE AUTHORITY OVER THEM. IT IS NOT SO AMONG YOU, but whoever wishes to become great among you shall be your servant, and whoever wishes to be first among you shall be your slave; just as the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life a ransom for many. (Matt. 20:25-28, NASB)

And again,

. . . The kings of the Gentiles LORD IT OVER THEM; and those who HAVE AUTHORITY OVER THEM are called 'Benefactors.' BUT NOT SO WITH YOU, but let him who is the greatest among you become as the youngest, and the leader as the servant.(Luke 22:25-26, NASB)

The Greek word for "exercise authority" in Matthew is katexousiazo. Katexousiazo is a combination of two Greek words. Kata, which means down upon or over. And exousiazo, which means to exercise authority. The Lord also uses the Greek word katakurieuo in this passage, which means to "lord it over" others.

What Jesus is condemning in these passages is not oppressive leaders as such. Instead, He is condemning the hierarchical form of leadership that dominates the Gentile world!

That bears repeating.

Jesus was not just condemning tyrannical leaders. He was condemning the hierarchical form of leadership itself!

What is the hierarchical form of leadership? It is the leadership style that is rooted in the benighted idea that power and authority flow from the top down. Essentially, it is built on a chain-of-command social structure.

Hierarchical leadership is based on a worldly concept of power. This explains why it is endemic to all traditional bureaucracies. It is present in the vicious forms of liege-lord feudalism and master/slave relationships. It is also seen in the highly stylized spheres of military and corporate America.

While often bloodless, the hierarchical leadership style is harmful to God's people. For it reduces human relationships into command-styled relationships. By that I mean relationships that are ordered along the lines of a military chain-of-command structure. Such relationships are foreign to New Testament thinking and practice.

Hierarchical leadership is employed everywhere in pagan culture. Regrettably, however, it has been adopted into most Christian churches today.

Summing up our Lord's teaching on this style of leadership, the following contrasts come into sharp focus:

*In the Gentile world, leaders operate on the basis of a political, chain-of-command social structure—a hierarchy. In the kingdom of God, leadership flows out of childlike meekness and sacrificial service.

*In the Gentile world, authority is based on position and rank. In the kingdom of God, authority is based on godly character. Note Christ's description of leaders: "let him be a servant," and "let him be as the younger." In our Lord's eyes, being precedes doing. And doing flows from being. Put differently, function follows character. Those who serve do so because they are servants.

*In the Gentile world, greatness is measured by prominence, external power, and political influence. In the kingdom of God, greatness is measured by inner humility and outward servitude.

*In the Gentile world, leaders exploit their positions to rule over others. In the kingdom of God, leaders deplore special reverence. They regard themselves "as the younger."

In brief, hierarchical leadership structures characterize the spirit of the Gentiles. Therefore, the implanting of these structures into the church is at odds with New Testament Christianity. Our Lord did not mince words in declaring His implicit disdain for the Gentile notion of leadership. For He plainly said: "It is not so among you!"

All in all, there is no room in Christ's teaching for the hierarchical leadership model that characterizes the modern church. The so-called "five-fold ministry" is not a group of titles or offices. This ego-massaging model of ministry is incompatible with the primitive simplicity of the church and the upside-down kingdom of Jesus Christ. It impedes the progress of God's people. It suppresses the functionality of the believing priesthood. It ruptures the image of the church as family. And it places severe limitations on the Headship of Christ. For these reasons "it is not so among" those who bear the name of the Savior!

Equating the ascension gifts of Ephesians 4 with a sociological slot (an office) can only be done at substantial risk. We have to evacuate "shepherd" of its native meaning (one who tends sheep). We also have to evacuate "apostle" from its intended meaning ("one sent" to lay the foundation of a church). The same is true for the other gifts.

In short, Ephesians 4:9-16 does not envision a hired clergy, a professional ministry, nor a special priestcraft. It does not envision a special group of church "officials." Neither are these people a special class of Christians. Like Paul's catalog of gifts in 1 Corinthians 12:28, Ephesians 4 has in view special functions rather than formal positions. And these functions naturally and non-mechanically emerge out of the organic interplay of first-century styled church life.

Answering the Call

The burden on my heart is to see God's people far less concerned with a "five-fold ministry" that's supposed to be recovered someday. And instead, tend toward discovering what the church is supposed to be according to the mind of God. Upon making this discovery, the Lord's dear people will be faced with a decision. To answer the call of meeting around Jesus Christ alone in the way that

He has prescribed. Or to remain chained to the unmovable traditions of men.

If the former path is taken, which will involve considerable cost, all the gifts in Christ will eventually come forth in the way that He designed. And those gifts will never usurp or dilute the ministry of the entire Body, where every member participates in manifesting Christ in His church.

In addition . . .

Would to God that all men and women who feel they are called to be apostles, prophets, evangelists, and shepherds/teachers would soberly reexamine what these gifts and ministries were in the first century and in the thought of God. I believe that wherever this happens, many of them will be lead into brand new directions. Those directions will often lead them to meet a cross and to break with cherished traditions and popular concepts. Yet only by these elements will the house of God begin to be restored on a broad scale.

Revival The Hard Way

Jackson Senyonga

In Uganda, an evil tyrant shut down churches and massacred people by the thousands. Still, the people prayed.

The Christian church in Uganda is thriving. Despite the legacy of Idi Amin, the evil dictator who ravaged and plundered the East African country during the 1970s, Uganda is experiencing what many say is a spiritual revival. Under Amin's regime, violence and oppression prevailed, churches were ordered closed, and people died by the hundreds of thousands. But as the devastation spread, a remnant of believers began to pray. Here Jackson Senyonga, an international prayer leader and senior pastor of the 22,000-member Christian Life Church in Uganda's capital city of Kampala, explains how God brought transformation to his beleaguered nation.

In Uganda, we got our revival through devastation. The suffering of the people was beyond description, and no one came to our rescue. But God used the opportunity to wake a nation from its spiritual coma.

A remnant of believers went into the jungle. They gathered in underground caves. In desperation they prayed, "Lord, we don't know what to do. But you know." These people prayed continuously. They prayed desperate, deep, consistent, groaning prayers that never took no for an answer. They prayed until they saw a change.

Today, researchers say Uganda is one of the most transformed nations on the face of the earth. We've seen God transform the political system, the marketplace, and the church.

At 8 A.M. in the State House, people pray. The Parliament doesn't want to discuss things until they pray. The judges don't want to judge until they pray. The police are faxing prayer requests to the judges. The crime rate is dropping—down 70 percent in some communities. A major bank in the capital city of Kampala plays praise and worship music on all 11 floors.

Because God is everywhere, people are dreaming spiritual dreams. We've had Muslims and witch doctors come to our church saying, "I have never been to church in my life, but I had a dream. In my dream, I was putting on rags and rotten stuff. Somebody was telling me that I should come to church to get clean, white clothes. So I am here to find out if you give out clothes." They don't understand the dream. When you tell them the meaning of it, they burst into tears and give their lives to Jesus.

People come to our intercessors, who spend the night in the church, and say, "I cannot sleep. Something is telling me that I must give my life to Jesus." These people end up receiving Christ in the middle of the night.

At one point, aids in Uganda was at 33.3 percent. The World Health Organization predicted that Uganda's economy would collapse by 1999 or 2000 because there would be only widows and orphans left. So people sought the Lord and prayed. Today, thanks to prayer, education, and abstinence campaigns, aids has dropped to 5 percent.

Second Chronicles 7:14 says, "If my people, who are called by my name, will humble themselves and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then will I hear from heaven and will forgive their sin and will heal their land." God is healing Uganda! He is harvesting the nation to himself. In the next eight to ten years, it is estimated that 95 percent of the 1.8 million residents of Kampala will be Christians.

Our church started with seven people. God told me, "Move into the capital and start a church. If you will obey me, I will use your obedience to touch your church, your city, your nation, and the nations around." We went from seven to 2,000 people in two weeks, and we never read a book about church growth.

None of this is to say that I'm special and wonderful. I know this has nothing to do with me. Jesus was very serious when he said, "Apart from me you can do nothing" (John 15:5).

Still, transformation like we've experienced in Uganda is not automatic. Every time God talks about transformation and revival, he uses the word "if." God is not obligated to send it if we are not willing to satisfy the conditions. Second Chronicles 7:14 begins with, "If my people." The same condition appears in Job 8:5-6: "If you would earnestly seek God and make your supplication to the Almighty … surely now he would awake for you" (NKJV).

We have to begin the process by becoming men and women of intercession. We must desire the glory and power of God more than anything we want for ourselves. We must want God to come because we want his glory to be seen. We must want there to be fewer people in hell and more people in heaven. We must want him to come to our land and suppress evil and release good.

In America, people want things quick, big, and cheap. It's the drive-through mentality: "Give it to me now, and super-size it, for 99 cents." We want it without obedience, sacrifice, inconvenience, or discomfort. But the Bible says to seek God earnestly. Seeking means praying until you get an answer, disciplining yourself to keep on until you find what you're looking for.

In Uganda, we are living in a time of transformation. And the glory of God will transform America, too.

Continue praying. There are so many things God has done through our prayers; yet there is so much more that he wants to do. You ask, "How much longer?" Until the glory of God covers the earth as the waters cover the sea! Until revival comes.

Releasing The Joseph Company Part 4
Julie Volby

August 17, 2005

Joseph was last seen sitting in the depths of the house of bondage. He was wrongly and willfully accused of committing a crime that he did not commit by someone he had respected, honored and served. Now what? Perhaps his brothers had been right all along. He was a crazy man with lofty dreams that would come to nothing. Looking at the circumstances, it would surely seem that these gifts God had given him only brought more problems and more suffering than anything else.

As Joseph sat in the darkness of the prison, he pondered his life. What was the point of going on? What was the purpose of all of this? It seemed that the things he had feared most had come upon him. These thoughts led him along the paths of loneliness, doubt, fear and ultimately unbelief. How could a loving God leave someone so gifted, talented and useful in a place of isolation from the outside world?

But try as Joseph might to give up, he could not. There was something within him that drove him to keep pressing on. The Word tells us that even in the prison Joseph found God’s favor was still with him.

Genesis 39:21-23
21 But the Lord was with Joseph and showed him mercy, and He gave him favor in the sight of the keeper of the prison. 22 And the keeper of the prison committed to Joseph’s hand all of the prisoners who were in the prison; whatever they did there, it was his doing. 23 The keeper of the prison did not look into anything that was done under Joseph’s authority, because the Lord was with him; and whatever he did, the Lord made it prosper.

So, Joseph went about his business doing what seemed to come naturally to him, which was serving others. The servant’s heart within him gave him favor with the keeper of the prison and he found himself once again in a place of authority, even in a lowly prison. Through all the trials and tribulations that Joseph had been through so far, it was by grace that his heart had not been hardened to the point of no return. He realized that unlike the other prisoners, he had been wrongfully convicted. However, he also knew the right thing to do was serve them as unto the Lord and try to make the best of the grim situation. Somehow he knew inside that, “He who is faithful in what is least is faithful also in much; and he who is unjust in what is least is unjust also in much” (see Luke 16:10). So, despite the urge to complain and have a pity party, Joseph learned it was better to serve in simplicity and gladness.

The Word tells us in Genesis 40 that it came to pass that the chief butler and the chief baker offended the king of Egypt. They were put in prison and given into Joseph’s care. One night each of them had a dream. When Joseph came in to them, he saw that they were sad and inquired of them. They told him that they had each had a dream, but had no one to interpret it.

Suddenly, something within Joseph stirred! The dreamer within him seemingly revived. He was back! Joseph the dreamer was back! This was the opportunity he had been waiting for! This was his breakthrough moment! Joseph told the men that interpretations belonged to God and asked them to share their dreams with him. Each man shared his dream.

Genesis 40:9-11
9 Then the chief butler told his dream to Joseph, and said to him, “Behold, in my dream a vine was before me, 10 and in the vine were three branches; it was as though it budded, its blossoms shot forth, and its clusters brought forth ripe grapes. 11 Then Pharaoh’s cup was in my hand; and I took the grapes and pressed them into Pharaoh’s cup, and placed the cup in Pharaoh’s hand.”

Joseph then gave the chief butler the interpretation of the dream that the three branches represented three days and that within three days Pharaoh would lift up his head and restore him to his former place. What a wonderful interpretation this turned out to be. Not only would a man's life be saved, but Joseph also saw a great opportunity for BREAKTHROUGH to get him out of this dark, cold, cave like place called prison! Joseph said in Genesis 40:14-15, "But REMEMBER ME when it is well with you, and please SHOW KINDNESS TO ME; MAKE MENTION OF ME to Pharaoh, and GET ME OUT of this house. For indeed I was stolen away from the land of the Hebrews; and also I HAVE DONE NOTHING HERE that they should put me into this dungeon." Surely Joseph's gifts had made room for him and this was his way OUT!

With one dream interpreted, there was still one remaining. So, the chief baker shared his dream.

Genesis 40:16-17
16 When the chief baker saw that the interpretation was good, he said to Joseph, "I also was in my dream, and there were three white baskets on my head. 17 In the uppermost basket were all kinds of baked goods for Pharaoh, and the birds ate them out of the basket on my head."

Joseph again interpreted the dream. This time the three baskets represented three days. Within three days Pharaoh would lift off the baker's head from him and hang him on a tree and the birds would eat his flesh. This was quite a sobering word compared to the interpretation given to the chief butler, but Joseph remained faithful to deliver the interpretation given to him as shown by God.

Joseph had done his job and now it was time to get out of this confined space and be free! Breakthrough, breakout, freedom! However, Genesis 40:20-23 tells a very different story.

Genesis 40:20-23
20 Now it came to pass on the THIRD DAY, which was Pharaoh's BIRTHDAY, that he made a feast for all his servants; and he lifted up the head of the chief butler and of the chief baker among his servants. 21 Then he restored the chief butler to his butlership again, and he placed the cup in Pharaoh's hand. 22 But he hanged the chief baker, as Joseph had interpreted to them. 23 Yet the chief butler DID NOT REMEMBER JOSEPH, BUT FORGOT HIM.

Joseph may have felt released for a short time as he waited for the call to come. He had correctly interpreted the dreams and because of his gifting and innocence he should be set free. Maybe that is how many of us have felt in these past few seasons. We have seen and perhaps tasted release into God's Divine destiny for us, but for some reason it continued to elude us. We continued to sit 'trapped' by our current circumstances. There, in the darkness we waited and waited.

As Joseph sat in the prison, he perhaps began to consider what had gone wrong. He knew in his heart of hearts he had given the correct interpretations of the prisoners' dreams. He had specifically asked the chief butler to remember him and explained that he was in fact an innocent man. However, the more he pondered the contrast of these two dreams, his heart began to see a prophetic picture unfolding before him. He realized that through the two dreams, he had come face to face with his Ishmael (release of God's promise through fleshly understanding/means) and more importantly A CHOICE.

I believe the two dreamers and two dreams represent the choice that each believer must make. It is within three days or three prophetic days (millenniums) that the fullness of God's plan is being revealed. There is a point in the maturity of a believer when his or her eyes are opened in which he or she must willfully choose to continue walking according to the flesh or according to the Spirit. It appears that the chief butler is a type and shadow of the Son of God, Jesus, who is the last Adam or life giving spirit (see 1 Corinthians 15:45). This is represented through the pressing or crushing of the grapes into the cup of suffering or the shedding of Jesus' own blood, a pure sacrifice, presented to the Father on our behalf. Within THREE DAYS His head was lifted up and He was restored to His original position. It was on the THIRD DAY that Jesus was RESURRECTED to His rightful place with the Father. This was the King's BIRTH-DAY.

On the other hand, the chief baker represents the natural man or Adamic nature (flesh), who is the first Adam. In his dream we find the chief baker bringing three white baskets to the King, with no mention of where he got the bread. These white baskets further represent the whitewashed tombs Jesus spoke of in Matthew 23:27-28, “Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like white washed tombs which indeed appear beautiful outwardly, but inside are full of dead men’s bones and all uncleanness. 28 Even so you also outwardly appear righteous to men, but inside you are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness.” This bread never made it to the King because the birds of the air ate (stole) it. This is because the seed (bread or word of the kingdom) had fallen by the wayside, and had never truly taken root in the person’s heart and spiritually understood, which produces life (see Matthew 13). Instead of offering something of life giving substance to the King, the chief baker (representing the flesh life) tried to contain the bread (letter) in an old wine skin or system of religion and fleshly works, leaving him open prey to the birds of the air to feast upon his flesh life, ultimately leading to death.

These two men and their two dreams can also be illustrated by the choices the two thieves on the crosses made the day Jesus set the captives free at Calvary. Jesus further illustrated this, when He was in the wilderness for 40 days and nights being tempted and tested. What was the devil really after in his quest to get Jesus to sin? It would seem that he was trying, through the three temptations we are told of, to deceive Jesus into giving into the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes and the pride of life. But upon further investigation, it is revealed what Satan was truly after…HIS IDENTITY. Satan was trying to get Jesus to prove HIS IDENTITY by challenging Him with, “IF YOU ARE THE SON OF GOD...” Jesus did not need to prove He was the Son of God because He already KNEW IT WITHIN HIMSELF BY THE WITNESS OF THE HOLY SPIRIT. Here, through the prophetic picture of the two dreamers, we see Joseph has come face to face with the same identity crisis. Will he stand in the First Adam (carnal man or antichrist) or the Last Adam (Jesus Christ)?

It is in this time of prolonged waiting that Joseph finally sees that if he is to fulfill the destiny God has placed within him in full measure, he must make a choice to either go through the COMPLETE PROCESS of being CRUSHED into wine being CONFORMED into a true son of God or to continue to gather words of life around him into religious white washed baskets, but never fully allowing the Word and the Spirit to transform him that he might come to the knowledge of the Truth for himself PERSONALLY. To go on or not to go on, that is the question…

For a man or woman who has come this far by faith, the answer is quite clear. To stop here would mean that they would never fully carry out the destiny, which God had purposed and planned for them before the foundation of the world. However, to go on would mean a complete and utter death to all self-motives, ambitions, dreams, plans and understanding. The path of suffering cannot be escaped when one finally realizes that the prison they are trying to escape is not based on outward circumstances, but is actually found in the confines of the Adamic mindset that is HIDING WITHIN! The carnal mind, which is enmity (hatred) against God, is the true HOUSE OF BONDAGE (Egypt). “For to be CARNALLY MINDED IS DEATH, but to be SPIRITUALLY MINDED IS LIFE AND PEACE” (Romans 8:6). 1 Corinthians 2:16 tells us that WE HAVE THE MIND OF CHRIST. Two very clear choices are presented. Which one will you choose today?

The longer we sit still, the more we realize that we are a prisoner to no man including our own Adamic mindset, but prisoners of the Lord. The Adamic nature was already crucified with Christ (see Romans 6:5-14) and so our Adamic mindset/nature must be crucified within our own lives, which can only happen through enduring the Refiner’s fire. Our life is not our own and was bought at a price (see 1 Corinthians 6:20). As Paul said in Philippians 1:21, “For to me, to live is Christ, and to die is gain!” More revelation begins to pour forth as we see that God’s ways and thoughts are much higher than our own. We must repent and turn away from our own understanding, dreams and desires. As we fully turn toward God our hope is renewed and we have the faith to believe God’s plan will unfold in His time, which is the appointed time.

So, as we begin to FULLY understand that we are in a BAPTISM OF FIRE (see Luke 3:16) that must be completed to perfection or maturity, we learn further what it means to truly find rest and peace in God. We find insight into this in James 1:2-4, “My brethren, COUNT IT ALL JOY, when you fall into various TRIALS, KNOWING that the TESTING OF YOUR FAITH PRODUCES PATIENCE. But LET PATIENCE HAVE ITS PERFECT WORK, that you may be PERFECT AND COMPLETE, LACKING NOTHING.”

Through our waiting and learning to be still, the promises of God become alive as stated in Isaiah 40:31, “But those who WAIT ON THE LORD SHALL RENEW THEIR STRENGTH; They shall mount up with wings like eagles, they shall RUN AND NOT BE WEARY, they shall WALK AND NOT FAINT.” We also begin to see a pattern in all of our past self-efforts of trying to fulfill the call God has placed upon our lives. Anything that was birthed out of our own understanding or self works always ended in stripping us of or time, energy and anointing. Jesus said, “The thief does not come except to steal, and to kill, and to destroy. I have come that they might have life, and that they may have it more abundantly (John 10:10).

Even if we were not outwardly at fault for our circumstances, we find that stating our innocence does not make us righteous. We begin to FULLY understand that ‘THE JUST SHALL LIVE BY FAITH’ and that our own self-righteousness is as filthy rags. We understand in our hearts that true righteousness only comes from God through faith alone in the finished work of Jesus Christ on the Cross. This Finished Work also reveals to us the rest of God (see Hebrews 4) that we were given full access into on the day we first believed. It is through fully understanding by faith what Jesus did for us on the Cross, that we realize there is a way to maintain this position of rest in Him. It is then that we can begin to fully, “GO OUT WITH JOY, AND BE LED OUT WITH PEACE” (see Isaiah 55:12). Perhaps we have learned these lessons and feel that soon it will be time to get out of this dreary dungeon.

As we continue to wait for what seems like an eternity, our eyes begin to adjust to the dim light in the prison. Our longing to be released from this circumstantial prison has become secondary to the process we need to complete while waiting on God. We find the dim light in the prison has a purpose in itself. It seems to have set a mood for intimacy. Eventually we realize that there is even greater purpose in this hidden place of obscurity. With no one left to truly comfort us or anyone who really understands what we have been through, we finally break down and relinquish all control to our Heavenly Father. It is then that pure trust in the Lord with all of our heart and leaning not on our own understanding is birthed. It is then that we begin to see clearly that God ordained the season of severing from our flesh life. We realized that there is something GREATER to this whole thing than even the PROCESS OF PURIFICATION!

It is then that the LIGHT WITHIN US begins to flicker and grow brighter. We find ourselves drawing closer and closer to our God. Our eyes open even wider to see that by simply BEING IN HIS PRESENCE we have come to KNOW HIM and LOVE HIM MORE. In this cocoon of FIRE, we find we have been TRANSFORMED from the inside out! It is then that we see through this PROCESS that HIS PURPOSE was being FULFILLED all along!!!

IT IS THROUGH THE PRISON OF PROCESS AND SEASON OF SEVERING THAT OUR TRUE PURPOSE AND CALLING IS BIRTHED!!!

This process was never about us individually, but has always been about fulfilling God’s Divine purposes. In order to understand His purposes fully, we must go back to the very beginning.

Genesis 1:11-13
11 Then God said, “Let the earth bring forth grass, the herb that YIELDS SEED, and the fruit tree that YIELDS FRUIT according to ITS KIND, whose SEED IS IN ITSELF, on the earth; and IT WAS SO. 12 And the earth BROUGHT FORTH grass, the herb that yields SEED according to ITS KIND, and the tree that YIELDS FRUIT, whose SEED IS IN ITSELF ACCORDING TO ITS KIND. And God saw that it was good. 13 So the evening and the morning were the THIRD DAY.

God makes it very clear that His purpose from the beginning was to YIELD FRUIT whose SEED is IN ITSELF according to ITS KIND in order to REPRODUCE ITSELF. And we know that the SEED that God desires to REPRODUCE in this hour is CHRIST IN US THE HOPE OF GLORY (see Galatians 3:16 and Colossians 1:27).

It is in the prison of process that our carnal mind/understanding is broken down and revealed to be a container of lies. However, the Person of Truth, Jesus, provided the way for this veil of carnality to be rent within the temple of our body. It is revealed to us that the one ultimately holding us prisoner was our carnality and our Salvation has set the captives (us) free! Because no flesh can stand in God’s presence, the veil of carnality was rent over 2000 years ago so that we might continually enjoy sweet communion with our Lord and Savior in the Holy of Holies.

It is within the confines of obscurity that we find intimacy with the Lord and realize that anything truly birthed of the Seed, who is Christ, must come through the womb and canal of intimacy and covenant relationship between a Bride and her Bridegroom! The two MUST BECOME ONE FLESH in order for the FULL MANIFESTATION OF GOD’S GLORY or character to be birthed and manifested to a lost and dying world! This is the Manchild the whole creation has been groaning and laboring with birth pangs to see that will bring her glorious liberty from the bondage of corruption (see Romans 8).

It is in the place of obscurity and hiddeness that we learn deep humility and the art of being hidden in Christ, who is our TRUE COVERING. For we have come to understand that THE LORD IS OUR SHEPHERD! “For as many as are LED BY THE SPIRIT OF GOD, these are the SONS OF GOD” (Romans 8:14). No longer do we need manmade systems or doctrinal ‘coverings’ to ‘protect us’ or cover us as a white washed tomb. “But before faith came, we were kept under guard by the law, kept for the faith which would afterward be revealed. Therefore the law was our tutor to BRING US TO CHRIST, that we might be justified by faith. BUT AFTER FAITH HAS COME, WE ARE NO LONGER UNDER A TUTOR (Galatians 3:23-24). It is God’s righteousness that goes before us and His glory is our rear guard that makes the path straight and the way clear before us. This is not a lone ranger company, but one who has shared in the sufferings of Christ and has gone all the way with Him! THIS IS THE TRUE JOSEPH COMPANY THAT IS EMERGING ON THE SCENE!

These OVERCOMERS will help bring to full manifestation the mandate given to man by God in the beginning.

Genesis 1:26-28
26 Then God said, “Let US make man in OUR IMAGE, according to OUR LIKENESS; let THEM have dominion over the fish of the sea, over the birds of the air, and over the cattle, over all the earth and over every creeping thing that creeps on the earth.” 27 So God created man in HIS OWN IMAGE; in the image of God He created HIM, MALE AND FEMALE HE CREATED THEM. 28 Then God BLESSED THEM, and God said to them, “BE FRUITFUL AND MULTIPLY; FILL THE EARTH AND SUBDUE IT; HAVE DOMINION OVER THE FISH OF THE SEA, OVER THE BIRDS OF THE AIR, AND OVER EVERY LIVING THING THAT MOVES ON THE EARTH.”

My friend, your destiny was set in place before the foundation of the world by a HOLY GOD! It is he who ENDURES TO THE END (of their carnal lives to be resurrected into the new life) that shall be SAVED (as the best wine for last)! There is a company, a remnant, a people who have learned the art of hiddeness or humility and abiding in the Lord that at the APPOINTED MOMENT IN TIME WILL BE RELEASED TO RULE AND REIGN OVER ALL THE EARTH! They have endured the great tribulation and battle for their souls. They have overcome the evil one as their carnal/sin nature has been crucified with Christ, giving the enemy no power to function any longer in their lives. They are like a wall of Salvation where the outlet of the flesh has been removed and the enemy’s plug no longer has any place to ‘plug in’ and operate! There is no longer an outlet to release the carnality of the flesh life, which had in the past been stirred up by lies and manipulation, fear and pride. They have been caught up or ’raptured’ into the very presence of God and are seated with Him in the heavenly places far above all principality and power and might and dominion (see Ephesians 1:20-21 and 2:6).

This Joseph Company has learned to be faithful with little, in ruling and reigning over their own earthen vessels, as Joseph did in his specially designed prison. They have learned the lesson of good stewardship and being responsible with whatever and whoever has been placed in their care. They come not to condemn or bring judgment, as they understand that the only law of the Kingdom of God is the law of love, which conquers all, fulfills all and endures forever. This is no soulish love, but is one that operates in true righteousness, holiness, mercy and grace. This Holy Nation also understands that those who do not know Christ already stand judged and condemned. These lost ones are already as dead men walking and must be called into the accountability of a Holy God. Their call goes forth to REPENT AND BE TRANFORMED BY THE RENEWING OF YOUR MIND! They shall call men and women, young and old, to turn away from the flesh life and turn to face the LIVING GOD! This peculiar people are they who tread upon the lion and the cobra understanding that all adversity that is allowed to cross their path is only provided as a footstool into higher realms of God’s glory, just as the Jews were used to crucify Jesus, thus enabling Him to fulfill the mandate upon His life to be the glorious and triumphant sacrificial Lamb of God!

Oh, what a DAY is upon us! The SON is beginning to ARISE upon the THIRD DAY people! What started out, as a glimmer of light or understanding, has become a mighty rushing flood of the REVELATION OF THE GLORY OF GOD! It is time to ARISE AND SHINE FOR YOUR LIGHT HAS COME! The GLORY OF THE LORD HAS RISEN UPON YOU! It is His glory that will be seen upon you that will draw the unbelievers to you and the kings to the brightness of your RISING. As CHRIST IS LIFTED UP or RESURRECTED within your life, HE WILL DRAW ALL MEN TO HIMSELF! Let go of old mindsets and anything that would hold you back from what God is doing in this hour. For the KINGDOM OF GOD IS WITHIN YOU! It is demonstrated in RIGHTEOUSNESS, PEACE AND JOY IN THE HOLY GHOST!!!!!

The END of TWO FULL YEARS or era of waiting and being forgotten is drawing to a quick close. The THIRD (fullness) year is upon us in which the KING is calling forth those prisoners of the Lord who POSSESS that which will FULFILL HIS DREAMS! This possession is none other than the PRIZE HIMSELF, who is the MATURE SON, JESUS CHRIST WITHIN YOU, who is HOPE GLORIFIED! We have been tested, tried and weighed in the balance and have not been found wanting. Therefore, we shall be entrusted with the treasures of His Kingdom, which are the riches of His glory in Christ Jesus. We are being RELEASED from within and without. We have passed through the narrow gate (the Cross) and will now be set in a wide place. We will be led by His peace and walk in His love, now fully understanding the great PURPOSE, which the Father has BIRTHED WITHIN us. Through pure faith and trust in the AUTHOR AND FINISHER OF OUR FAITH, we will bring to COMPLETION God’s mandate to BE FRUITFUL AND MULTIPLY THE SEED WITHIN US, who is CHRIST. As KINGS AND PRIESTS OF GOD we will RULE AND REIGN WITH HIM bringing SALVATION and DELIVERANCE, DIVINE ORDER and RESTORATION to all the earth!

Receive The Light Of This Day

Bill Burns

December 19, 2005: I will never leave you nor forsake you. I have led you to the very tops of the mountains to sit in counsel with you. I have directed you and told you the way in which you should walk and led you forth by the Spirit of Prophecy into the heavenlies. I have opened the door to the Valley of Vision so that you would know and understand that My kingdom is supernatural. I have instructed you and walked with you in the valley where you have learned to fight the good fight of faith and have learned to prevail through prayer and dependence on My strength, says the Lord. Arise, for this is your finest hour, and I will lead you in power. Arise into the new day by faith and receive the impartation of the power of My presence that is necessary for the days ahead. I am establishing the spiritual boundaries of your victory. Arise and examine the signposts that have been planted, which have declared your victory over various past challenges in your life. Those signposts are a witness to you to arise and take the next position. Arise now and cross through the Jordan, the place of anointing, into the power of this day. Indeed, you are living in the age of power which is dawning upon you, My people. Receive the light of this day.

Marsha Burns
December 19, 2005: I have caused My prophets and psalmists to rise up and declare the season that you are now entering. This is a season that has been spoken of in your songs and prophecies in the past months and even years. And, you will go forth in great power and gain the victory, says the Lord. However, I am now looking for a people who will prepare the way for the next move of My Spirit that is yet on the horizon. I am going to bring revival, and I am now calling to My prophets and psalmists to declare it to the heavens, to the earth and to the seas. There will be a very great revival in the midst of My people, the likes of which you have never seen nor heard nor read about. This revival will invade and cover the land. But, I need a people who will rise up in prayer and in prophecy and in song to bring it forth. Rise up and declare it!

Regarding The Lord Spoke Of Disaster Prophecy
Gabriel Tonwuru

I have been a constant reader of the prophecies, visions and dreams posted each week on the ETPV website. But it is just today June 30 that it became imperative for me for the first time to reply to the word of prophecy entitled "LORD spoke of disaster" that The LORD gave to Misty Murphy's daughter who was awakened from sleep at 2:00 A. M June 10.

I need to let everyone know that the prophecy our LORD JESUS showed her in Haggai chapter 1:15 was fulfilled yesterday morning the 29th of August, and needless to say it is the disaster caused by hurricane Katrina. Also note that the Biblical 24 hour day begins in the evening of the previous night and ends sundown the 29th August, 2005.

Now here is the scripture in Haggai 1:15; "In the four and twentieth day of the sixth month, in the second year of Darius the King." And here is the interpretation I was given under inspiration by the HOLY SPIRIT;

GOD does not honor man's calendar nor man's holidays. Man may change the Calendar, the number of days in a month, the feast days, such as the weekly Sabbaths, the high Sabbaths, and the new moon, but GOD that gave the prophet Daniel the prophecy that "they shall change times and laws" will never accept those changes even if these laws have been changed and accepted by all men for almost two thousand years.

So in June when I came across Misty Murphy daughter's written word of prophecy given her by the LORD, I was convinced that it was a true word of prophecy because I have been led by the HOLY SPIRIT to prophesy since the year 2001 that the United States of America was given the last 66 years(of the 666 years given to the Roman Beast in Revelation 13:18, whose deadly wound was healed) to reign over the kings of the whole earth, beginning from September 3 1939 when the second world war was declared by Chamberlain, and up until the last biblical year that commences on March 8, 2005 and ends in the first week of March 2006. And as for the 600 years that preceded America's reign, these were the years given to the revived Roman empire which began in early renaissance, dated 1339 A.D, the date that GOD raised up Great Britain, France and Spain to colonize the world. Additionally the HOLY SPIRIT has given me the interpretation of Dumitru's vision of "the Star which he saw fell sixteen times" to which when he asked the angel, Dumitru was told that this Star represents America, and for the fact it fell sixteen times, this is how fast America will fall.

Now I am happy to let you know that The LORD interpreted the meaning of the star in another vision HE gave Dumitru Duduman, that the fall of each star represents I year, therefore the sixteen times it fell amounts to sixteen years. And for the calculation, you should know that he received this vision in Dec 1989, therefore GOD sent his angel to show him sixteen more years from then for America, which obviously the Biblical year was to commence in the springtime of 2000, and the end of the first year was springtime of the year 2001. And when you complete the additions of all the years you will find out that again the beginning of the sixteenth and final year is March 8 2005 (when the new moon actually came out, and not the tenth as it is shown on most calendars) and the end of the sixteenth year will be the first week of March 2006.

I will now address Misty Murphy's daughters prophecy; The scriptures says in Haggai 1:15, "the 24th day of the 6th month", that is the 24th day of the sixth month of the Biblical calendar which began on March 8, 2005, and not the 24th day of June of our Roman Calendar. Also you have to know that the biblical months are 30 days each, which should give us a total of 30 x 12 = 360 days. However if you carefully study the books of the Jubilees, and Enoch, and a few other apocryphal books, you will find out that The LORD commanded Israel that they must add 4 more days in order to bring the total number to 364 days in a year. And further more these 4 days are to be added separately, i.e. one each to the four quarters of the year, in order words starting from the beginning of the year we count 3 months of 30 days each but the fourth month we should add an additional day to make it 31 days. In like manner we make the same counts of 30 days each for the first three months and one additional day for the rest of the quarters of the year.

One more thing to know is the fact that the biblical 24hour day begins at sundown the day before the date listed on your regular calendar. Let us together now see the calculation of the days of the Biblical months that lead up to the 24th day of the sixth month on the Roman or the United States regular Calendar;

Biblical Months	Duration Of Days	Number Of Days
First (Nisan, Abib)	March 8 to April 6	30 days
Second (Zif, Iyar)	April 7 to May 6	30 days
Third (Sivan)	May 7 to June 5	30 days
Fourth (Tammuz)	June 6 to July 6	31 days(1 day added)
Fifth (Av)	July 7 to Aug 5	30 days
Sixth (Elul)	Aug 6 to Aug 29	24 days

From above it is obvious that our LORD JESUS has let us know by the devastating Katrina disaster that the new moon (or the first day) of the Biblical year 2005 was March 8 on our secular Calendar.

By the way, you should know that the phases of the new moon on the secular USA Calendar are calculated using the unreliable scientific UTC(unreliable time calculation) time devise, which is no good and not accurate in the sight of our LORD and SAVIOUR JESUS CHRIST. On the contrary the Biblical new moon is always revealed by our LORD to either HIS priests, apostles, prophets, bishops, evangelists, the elders of the church, members of the presbytery, or to prophetesses or members of the Body of CHRIST, rather than vain, irregular and absurd Scientific approximate guesses. And this is the reason why most believers that claim to have received a prophecy, seen a vision or a dream concerning specific dates of different prophetic events have as yet not seen the fulfillment of these messages given them by The LORD, even though most of these messages have been fulfilled.

I give the glory, praises and thanks to The FATHER, HIS SON JESUS CHRIST AND The HOLY SPIRIT for given the prophecy of the disaster caused by hurricane Katrina to sister Misty Murphy's daughter, and it shows that GOD is training her in the gift of understanding prophecy.

On The Hurricane Known By Americans As Katrina

This hurricane has completely destroyed New Orleans and its neighboring cities, and as well as ruined parts of the south of both Mississippi and Alabama States. Now it is obvious that this is the beginning of the final and last judgments that GOD is bringing upon the United States, which will lead to its utter destruction before June 6, 2006, and the resultant occupation of its land by foreign troops. However before this November 8, 2005 Mayoral election I believe The LORD will cause sedition among the Citizens of America against all the politicians and rulers of this Land. But what is even worse is the fact that any day now, and in these months of September and October of 2005, CHINA will strike America and lure it to war over the controversy of Taiwan and its territorial waters, and this in turn will cause Russia to come with speed, carrying all its arsenals to annihilate America and bring its Citizens to their knees.

The LORD prophesied through HIS servants (as Dumitru Duduman) in our generation who were before us saying " I will send storms, heavy rains, flooding, earthquakes, hurricanes and tornadoes, because I want them to see my power, and know that without ME they can do nothing. They trusted in themselves and in their own strengths. This is why I will punish this place." And "I will send great plagues over America and want you to be aware." And again "the winds and storms that will begin against the Christians in this country will take many. Those who remain standing will be very few.

Humble yourselves. Be holy. Seek ME more than ever kneeling before ME often, that in the hard days I may save you", says the LORD.

Now you know, New Orleans, and I'm speaking mainly of you bishops , pastors, Evangelists, Prophets, Deacons, and whatever titles by which you call yourselves in the House of GOD, and even of all you who survived the hurricane disaster, that you have lived a lie all your life in the House of GOD, speaking the lies of tithes and prosperity, but leaving out what was most important to GOD, (John 15:13) that after HIS SON JESUS CHRIST had saved us on the cross by HIS death and by the POWER of HIS resurrection, and JESUS CHRIST (John 14:15-21) had prayed to the GLORIOUS FATHER of Light to send us the promise of His blessed HOLY SPIRIT, that we should now go humbly and in meekness as HIS sons and daughters, to the streets corners, market places, the highways and byways and to all the earth to preach the truth of HIS Word, and (John 15:8) let The LORD use us as His delightful vessels of glory to save those that are still in this sinful world.

No but you would rather deceive many by your false doctrines that are far from the highest faith, which is to be as virgins and eunuchs, that JESUS HIMSELF taught that we should deny and strip ourselves of all forms of desires, lusts, possessions and everything we have that hinders us from living a chaste and holy life acceptable in the sight of GOD. No but you would rather be a gainsayer by your love for only one scripture, and by your saying that "well, GOD is love and full of grace and abundant mercies so he will always forgive us for whatever sin we commit, therefore let us cast out "those isolated few, called-out believers' so-called highest standards with their rat race to perfection". Famous quote "for as long we in the New Orleans Churches know that only JESUS CHRIST is perfect in The FATHER and The HOLY SPIRIT, for the LORD (with the exception of Joseph, Mary, Peter, Paul, James, John, Steven, and a few of the early Christian Church, cannot make no other person to emulate the life of CHRIST as those called-out imposters are claiming to be.)

"So therefore let us do some works of righteousness and sin a little bit i.e. every once in a while, and collect tithes and several offerings a day, and buy houses, cars, collect funds to have huge savings in the banks for the future of our church building, in order to build a more modern church building complex, and ask every new believer or visitors that join the church to abide by the New Orleans churches' Sunday school teaching books, and to abide by the pastors interpretation of the Holy scriptures, (and not what the HOLY SPIRIT interprets in the word of GOD.)"unquote.

Now if I may ask you church members that survived the hurricane disaster a few questions? Where now are all your church pastors? Did not JESUS CHRIST tell you that HE, JESUS CHRIST is the way, the truth and the life, and that no man cometh unto The FATHER but by JESUS only? It is important for you to understand that although GOD commanded the house of Israel in the old testament and today the New Testament Church (Hebrews 10: 24-25) not to forsake the assembly of believers, The LORD did not mean that when the church members rebel against GOD, and they go and worship other gods, for example as Mel Gibson movies that blaspheme GOD The FATHER, JESUS CHRIST and The HOLY SPIRIT, or two men, haven made themselves homosexuals are allowed to be married in your church, or are allowed as pastors, that you should remain in that assembly. Are you only convinced with one scripture in the entire Bible, (John 5:39) that you did not bother to search the scriptures as JESUS commanded? Only if you had searched, you would have found out that The LORD always made the provision, which is a way of escape in every generation for the righteous and faithful true believers (2 Corinthians 6:14-18) to come out from among them (the "them" means to come out from the false churches). And then you can look for new believers of like mind as you are, that though few as it is prophesied, nevertheless still upholding the truth of the Glorious Gospel of CHRIST JESUS. Now haven searched carefully and looked upward in the direction of CHRIST, you can confidently boast in The LORD, being amongst the prudent as Mary, Joseph, Peter, James, John and the Apostle Paul, by saying this in the book of proverbs:

Proverbs 14:15, "The simple believeth every word: but the prudent man looketh well to his going."

Remember that when Joseph and Mary were told by the Angel of the LORD about the plot that king Herod had made to kill all the infants from 2 years old and under, they both separated themselves from the company of the Pharisees, Scribes and elders of the temple in Jerusalem, and from Bethlehem. They went to Egypt where no one would find them. Again after the death of Herod, on their way back they by-passed Jerusalem and went far away from the land of Judah and Samaria, and they went back to Nazareth among the Gentiles, to another Jurisdiction, a place where the religious Pharisees and Scribes of the Sanhedrin would not find it easy to arrest them. Also examine the life of JESUS CHRIST, and see how HE was always amongst the poor and the sinners, except for the Sabbath days when HE went into the temple of the Jews, and every time HE was in the temple, the Jews hated HIM and wanted to kill HIM, but because HIS time was not come they were not able to kill Him, until the day that HE willingly offered HIMSELF for all our sins: PRAISE JESUS CHRIST our LORD. In like manner all the patriarchs and prophets of the old testament separated themselves from the religious. Did you notice that when JESUS was ready to choose HIS 12 apostles and the 70 disciples HE did not go to Jerusalem, neither did HE go into their temples to look for the right people for HIM to instruct in HIS doctrine, no but rather HE went to the Jews that have been cast out of the synagogues, that were living among the Gentiles.

Also was not Joshua among the assembly that came out of the Land of Egypt, and crossed the red sea, and then Moses, Aaron, Joshua and all the assembly arrived at the foot of mount Sinai? certainly he was amongst them, and this was only three months after the children of Israel came out of Egypt, and have witnessed the Mighty Hand of GOD in the plagues and the dividing of the Red Sea, and of all the wonders that The LORD wrought in the wilderness. But after Moses went up the Mount for only forty days the people corrupted themselves by the making of Idol gods fashioned after the gods of Egypt, and they disobeyed all the commandments of GOD that GOD commanded them by the mouth of Moses when they had just left Egypt. But Joshua being a man of great understanding, understood the abominations the children of Israel were engaged in, and as a result separated himself from their company and sat at the foot of the mount until Moses came down to see for himself all the abominations. Oh now you understand why The LORD blessed Joshua and Caleb, and afterwards after the death of Moses, The LORD gave them charge to lead the children of Israel into the promised Land.

Therefore if you delight in wisdom listen to what King Solomon was inspired by the HOLY SPIRIT to write:

Proverbs 18:1 "Through desire a man having separated himself, seeketh and intermeddleth with all wisdom".

Also Jeremiah 15:19-21 "Therefore thus saith The LORD, if thou return, then will I bring thee again, and thou shalt stand before ME: and if thou take forth the precious from the vile, thou shalt be as my mouth: let them return unto thee: but return not thou unto them. And I will make thee unto this people a fenced brasen wall: and they shall fight against thee, but they shall not prevail against thee: for I am with thee to save thee and to deliver thee, saith The LORD. And I will deliver thee out of the hand of the wicked, and I will redeem thee out of the hand of the terrible."

Now hear this you unbelieving pastors that have never seen The LORD in a vision, dream or HIS Glorified manifestations, neither have you heard HIS voice; The LORD prophesied of the storm of August 29, 2005, that Americans call hurricane Katrina. And this was prophesied through the mouths of cast-out believers whom you refused and to whom you said The LORD did not send them to you. And the LORD forewarned them to leave the Cities and areas affected by the storms months before the 29th August 2005, and they all obeyed and have since left to new areas where at least for now it is safe for them to proclaim the gospel of JESUS to the saving of precious souls, until further direction is given by The LORD as to where they have to flee to. As Peter, Paul and the early Christians were persecuted and driven from city to city so we are instructed to live our lives today, thus saith The HOLY SPIRIT.

Make sure you find out what The LORD is saying to the "Body of Christ" by humbling yourself in asking the true messengers of our LORD who mostly communicate amongst ourselves on the internet websites. Be aware of copy cats, such as psychics, soothsayers, magicians, astrologers, tarot readers who amount to about 98% of the prophecies on the internet. I have seen even Moslems from the middle east and those in America quoting the same prophecies that our LORD JESUS CHRIST has given to HIS prophets and prophetesses of today. But I would say if you know the Bible and the commandments of our LORD, you will never be deceived. Know that if satan have access into your church buildings on the Sabbath days and on Sundays, do not marvel that the devils are also at work on the internet. So do not let these little tricks of the devils prevent you from searching for the truth.

Also know that The LORD have shown many of HIS servants that destruction is coming this year 2005 to Florida and Atlanta, and equally all the coastal cities of the United States. So it will be wise to move out of these areas, except that The LORD station you in one of those places then you have to obey the LORD who will have HIS protecting hand over you.

I very much believe we are about to see the final fall of America, and by the latest November 29, 2005 we must have been deep in the war between China and America, and by May 29 2006 commercial airplanes must have stopped flying in and out of the United States. These are 2 dates that I saw clearly in my Dream on my bed. Also a few believers, Jo Ann, Priscilla Van Sutphin Mark Fritts, Cate from Alaska, Olivia Long have claimed to have received visions and prophecies that the Nuclear attacks(meaning more than one attack) will happen in the months of September and October.

Also, Kato Mivule, if you are reading this article please know that the number 7 in your Calendar vision represents the 7th month, and this year 2005, the first day of the 7th month is September 5 and the last day of the month is Oct 4, and this is why the months of September / October were written on it. Incidentally one of the Chief's football games at home is on September 11, a date that have been mentioned by Mark Fritts and Cate from Alaska. I very much believe that a nuclear attack is going to happen this year but then The LORD knows best, since we all know in part, and may the will of The LORD be done.

May the grace and mercies of The LORD GOD be with you all. May all the Glory be to The FATHER, and to The SON JESUS CHRIST, and to The HOLY SPIRIT. Amen.

Your fellow Servant of our LORD JESUS CHRIST.

Re-Thinking The Millennium

By Bill Somers

> To correctly understand the prophetic scriptures, we have to drop our assumption that the Millennium begins after the Second Coming of Christ.

So what exactly is the Millennium? In the book of Revelation we find mention of the thousand-year reign of Jesus with his saints at the very end.

> And I saw an angel come down from heaven, having the key of the bottomless pit and a great chain in his hand.
> And he laid hold on the dragon, that old serpent, which is the Devil, and Satan, and bound him a thousand years,
> And cast him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up, and set a seal upon him, that he should deceive the nations no more, till the thousand years should be fulfilled: and after that he must be loosed a little season.
> And I saw thrones, and they sat upon them, and judgment was given unto them: and I saw the souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jesus, and for the word of God, and which had not worshipped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years.
> But the rest of the dead lived not again until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection.
> Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: on such the second death hath no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with him a thousand years.
> And when the thousand years are expired, Satan shall be loosed out of his prison. (Rev. 20:1-7)

All this happens after Jesus returns and fights the battle of Armageddon. This passage clearly illustrates that Satan is bound for a thousand years, and that the saints live and reign with Christ for a thousand years. Since there is a definite point when Satan is bound, it seems that the thousand years begin at this point, just after Jesus' return.

What I'm suggesting is that God is speaking in generalities here. That is, the thousand years do not begin exactly at this point but approximately at this point. And that Jesus' reign on the earth does not begin exactly at this point but approximately at this point. What could make us modify our understanding of the thousand years? How can we best understand the Millennium?

- By taking into consideration other prophetic scriptures, and relating them to God's prophetic week. There are many things spoken of that must happen on the seventh day that must take place before His return.
- By seeing that Christ's reign on this earth begins in a spiritual sense before His actual return.
- By seeing that the thousand years reign means the Kingdom of God coming to the earth. Before The King of Glory comes physically.

First Principles

To see this you have to understand the first principles. Hebrews Chapter 5 makes reference to "the first principles of the oracles of God" which say, in effect, that to be skillful in understanding the Word you must know these first principles. The writer of Hebrews does not directly state these principles. He does indicate two levels of understanding. The unskillful is compared to a babe taking milk, the skillful, to one of full age who partakes of strong meat. This is to contrast the immature with the mature and the natural with the spiritual. The deep things of God are spiritual, and must be discerned by the spirit. That is the word is to be understood in its spiritual meaning. Therefore there is potentially a spiritual meaning to the most ordinary things. Another key principle is found is 1 Corinthians: "Now all these things happened unto them for ensamples: and they are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the world are come." (1 Cor.10:11). Briefly, this tells us that there is an 'end-time' application to be found throughout scripture. Specifically, it tells us that what we consider ordinary things might be best understood in the context of the end times. Many Bible teachers stress what they call "The Law of Literal Interpretation". I believe that scripture is actually telling us that there is a law of spiritual interpretation. We are to seek the Holy Spirit for a spiritual interpretation of whatever we read in His Holy Word. And in these end times, when The Spirit opens our understanding of His Word, the interpretation will have end time application.

God's Prophetic Week

Now what is God's week, and what does it have to do with the end times? Simply stated, God's week is the notion that God's timeline, since the creation of Adam, is divided into seven one thousand-year periods. (See Ps. 90:4; 2 Pet. 3:8)

Each of these one thousand-year periods can correspond to a day in a week. Thus from Adam to Abraham are two "days", from Abraham to Jesus are two "days", from Jesus till now are two "days", and the coming Millennium will be the last "day." It will be the seventh or Sabbath day of God's week.

What is the purpose of the prophetic week and why should we accept it as a valid tool.

The idea is that God has used the idea of the prophetic week to give seemingly ordinary passages in His Word a double meaning. In some cases multiple meaning. So that in speaking of the seventh day there is first a literal historic meaning in the context. And then there is an allegorical, prophetic meaning taking it out of context.

Look at this verse from Exodus.

> For in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the LORD blessed the Sabbath day, and hallowed it. (Exodus 20:11)

Literally it speaks of the 7 days of creation and how the Lord blessed the 7th day and rested in it. Prophetically it speaks of the 7 thousand year periods, millennia. And tells us that the 7th is to be a time of peace (rest) and blessing.

The simplest, most obvious connection to make is to identify the seventh prophetic day as the thousand-year reign of Christ we read about in Revelation 20.

The catch is that while there many prophecies that speak of things which must happen on the seventh day, most of these things take place before The Second Coming.

What I'm suggesting is the thousand years do not begin exactly at this point but approximately at this point. And that Jesus' reign on the earth does not begin exactly at this point but slightly before. [We can find this illustrated in scripture.]

If the seventh day of the prophetic week is indeed the thousand-year period referred to in Revelation 20, we will see that this chapter [Rev 20] does speak in generalities. And there is more to be learned by considering it together with other scriptures.

Synonymous Terms

We will find many synonymous terms for the seventh day in the Bible. Here are some:

- The Seventh Day, [in the seventh day, on the seventh day, after six days etc.]
- The Sabbath [in some contexts], The Last day
- The Third Day, [in the third day, on the third day, in three days, after two days, etc.]
- The Day of Rest, The Day of Judgment
- The Lord's Day, The Day of the Lord
- That Day, [in that day, on that day, etc.]
- The Day of Redemption, The Day the Lord has made [the Lord's Day]
- The Day of Thy Power, The Kingdom of God
- A Day in which he will judge the world.

The Third Day and The Seventh Day

So how can the phrase 'the third day' and the phrase 'the seventh day' mean the same thing? The term "last days" or "latter days" is sometimes taken to mean the time period from the day of Pentecost till today; that is the so-called "Church Age." Sometimes it can mean the interval just before the Second Coming of the Lord. Looking at the first definition, you can see that the last days would then mean the last three days of God's week. And that the third day would be the last day. In other words, the third day is the last of the last days, making it equal to the seventh day if you looked at the whole week. That is to say, when we are speaking in context of the last days, the 'third day' is the millennium! Thus the 'third day' is the 'seventh day'. To confirm this you can find several references in scripture that link the "third day" with the "seventh day." For example: "He shall purify himself with it on the third day, and on the seventh day he shall be clean: but if he purify not himself the third day, then the seventh day he shall not be clean." (Num 19:12 KJV) (See also Num. 19:19; 31:19) Our conclusion then is that references to the third day in scripture will very often have a prophetic meaning that speaks of the seventh or last day. And this point is important to note since there are quite a few examples that use the third day metaphor.

Third Day Examples

Here are some examples:

> "And be ready against the third day: for the third day the LORD will come down in the sight of all the people upon mount Sinai." (Ex. 19:11 KJV)

The end time interpretation of this is that it refers to the Second Coming when "every eye shall see him." This verse is saying that Jesus' Second Coming will happen on the third day or last day, and not before then.

> And it came to pass on the third day in the morning, that there were thunders and lightnings, and a thick cloud upon the mount, and the voice of the trumpet exceeding loud; so that all the people that was in the camp trembled. (Exodus 19:16)

This verse from the same chapter in Exodus speaks of God's judgments coming and fear falling on the people. It happens in the morning of the third day; or at the beginning of the Millennium.

> "After two days will he revive us: in the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live in his sight." (Hosea 6:2 KJV)

The end time interpretation of this is a) that it speaks of end time revival. This revival is to happen after two days. In other words it happens during the millennium. b) It refers to the resurrection, when the dead in Christ shall be raised up. This also happens "in the third day" and not before it.

> "And the third day there was a marriage in Cana of Galilee; and the mother of Jesus was there: And both Jesus was called, and his disciples, to the marriage." (John 2:1-2 KJV)

This can be seen as a reference to the Marriage Supper of the Lamb. It takes place during the Millennium no matter how you interpret it, but it's a good example of how God uses the phrase "third day" prophetically. Note that the bridegroom and bride are not mentioned or named but that Jesus and his disciples, the Church, are.

> And God said, Let the waters under the heaven be gathered together unto one place, and let the dry land appear: and it was so.
> And God called the dry land Earth; and the gathering together of the waters called he Seas: and God saw that it was good.
> And God said, Let the earth bring forth grass, the herb yielding seed, and the fruit tree yielding fruit after his kind, whose seed is in itself, upon the earth: and it was so.
> And the earth brought forth grass, and herb yielding seed after his kind, and the tree yielding fruit, whose seed was in itself, after his kind: and God saw that it was good.
> And the evening and the morning were the third day. (Gen 1: 9-13)

Here is probably the earliest passage in the Bible with end time implications. It says that God commanded the earth to bring forth its fruit on the third day. Prophetically this speaks of the harvest of the earth.

> And another angel came out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to him that sat on the cloud, Thrust in thy sickle, and reap: for the time is come for thee to reap; for theharvest of the earth is ripe. (Revelation 14:15)

Again this happens on the third day, and takes place before Jesus returns.

In second Kings we read:

> And Hezekiah said unto Isaiah, What shall be the sign that the LORD will heal me, and that I shall go up into the house of the LORD the third day? (2 Kings 20:8)

What does it mean to be healed and to "go up into the house of the Lord on the third day?" The healing and the third day are mentioned in Hosea 6.

> Come, and let us return unto the LORD: for he hath torn, and he will heal us; he hath smitten, and he will bind us up.*After two days will he revive us : in the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live in his sight. Then shall we know, if we follow on to know the LORD: his going forth is prepared as the morning; and he shall come unto us as the rain*, as the latter and former rain unto the earth.* (Hosea 6:1-3)

The latter rain is what brings the harvest! House of the Lord is His Church.

> And it shall come to pass in the last days, that the mountain of the LORD's house shall be established in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; and all nations shall flow unto it.
> And many people shall go and say, Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem. (Isaiah 2:2-3)

In this case Isaiah is saying the temple or Church will be built in the last days. And combining these two passages gives us several conclusions. The healing and raising up is the restoration of the Church. The going up into the house of the Lord is the establishment of the Church. The coming of the latter rain brings the harvest to the Church. All this takes place on the "third day" and before the Lord's return.

This verse from Luke mentions the third day as a day of perfection.

> And he said unto them, Go ye, and tell that fox, Behold, I cast out devils, and I do cures to day and to morrow, and the third day I shall be perfected. Luke 13:32

Prophetically this speaks of the perfection to come upon the Body of Christ, during the third day.

> That he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish. Ephesians 5:27

Seventh Day Examples

> Judges 14:17 And she wept before him the seven days, while their feast lasted: and it came to pass on the seventh day, that he told her, because she lay sore upon him: and she told the riddle to the children of her people.

In this passage, Samson's wife is a type of the church. Her telling the riddle to her people speaks of the church fulfilling the great commission and taking the gospel to all the nations [gentiles]. This seventh day event also must happen before Jesus returns.

> Joshua 6:15 And it came to pass on the seventh day, that they rose early about the dawning of the day, and compassed the city after the same manner seven times: only on that day they compassed the city seven times.

The fall of Jericho on the seventh day speaks of the fall of Satan's kingdoms.

> 1 Kings 20:29 And they pitched one over against the other seven days. And so it was, that in the seventh day the battle was joined: and the children of Israel slew of the Syrians an hundred thousand footmen in one day.

Here we read of another great victory for the children of Israel [a type of the Church] happening on the seventh day.

The Sabbath, or Day of Rest

The idea of the day of rest is first found in Genesis 2.

> And on the seventh day God ended his work which he had made; and he rested on the seventh day from all his work which he had made. (Genesis 2:2)
> For in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the LORD blessed the sabbath day, and hallowed it. (Exodus 20:11)

We need to link this to the idea of a place of rest. And then we need to see that the Lord comes to His place of rest on his day of rest. The place of rest is mentioned in Psalm 132, Isaiah 66,and in other verses of Scripture.

> Praise waiteth for thee, O God, in Sion: and unto thee shall the vow be performed. (Ps. 65:1)

Psalm 65:1 is a prayer telling the Lord that praise is waiting for Him in Zion [the Church]. The implication is that He, the Lord, must come to Zion where it awaits Him. And a further result is that when He comes to Zion He will find not only praise but also an obedient people. This is because it speaks of the vow being performed, which is to say, His Word being obeyed.

Psalm 132:8 is a prayer for the Lord to come. That is, for Him to come to His place of rest. And the place of rest is shown to be the temple, or the Church in verses 13 and 14.

> Psalm 132*:*
> 8 Arise, O LORD, into thy rest; thou, and the ark of thy strength.
> 13 For the LORD hath chosen Zion; he hath desired it for his habitation.
> 14 This is my rest for ever: here will I dwell; for I have desired it.

Several other verses speak of God's resting place being his dwelling place, the temple or the church.

> Thus saith the LORD, The heaven is my throne, and the earth is my footstool: where is the house that ye build unto me? and where is the place of my rest? (Isaiah 66:1*)*
> In Salem also is his tabernacle, and his dwelling place in Zion. (Psalm 76:2)

> And in that day there shall be a root of Jesse, which shall stand for an ensign of the people; to it shall the Gentiles seek: and his rest shall be glorious. (Isaiah 11:10)
> The LORD thy God in the midst of thee is mighty; he will save, he will rejoice over thee with joy; he will rest* in his love, he will joy over thee with singing. (Zephaniah 3:17)

From all this we get the picture of God coming to the Church to dwell at a certain point in time. And this time naturally must be on His day of rest. So the day of rest begins with the Lord coming to His temple. And He will do so before His actual return to the earth.

> Behold, I will send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me: and the Lord, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his temple, even the messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in: behold, he shall come, saith the LORD of hosts. (Malachi 3:1)

Though we have always understood the Church to be the Lords dwelling, there is a certain sense in which the Lord is yet to come to the temple. When He does, He will do so in a big way. It will be The Revelation of Jesus Christ!

Kingdom Examples

Let's state something that should be obvious. The Kingdom of God is wherever God is King. If Jesus is on the throne of your heart, and you are truly obedient to your King in all things, then the Kingdom of God is within you. When Jesus is truly enthroned in His church, and she is truly obedient in all things, then the Kingdom of God has come to this earth. This is what God has intended. And He has given us some illustrations in his Word to show us the pattern.

So to help us understand how it is that the millennial kingdom begins just before Jesus returns, lets look at examples of the Kingdom in scripture.

1. One parallel to the millennium in scripture is the reign of King Solomon. His kingdom was established during a time of Civil War in Israel. Peace came later. Adonijah proclaimed himself king and led certain elements of Israel into rebellion. He seems to be a figure for antichrist. At the same time, prior to his death, David anointed his son as King. Solomon took the throne and spent several years purging his kingdom of offenders. Likewise Jesus' Kingdom is going to be established during a time of Civil War in the Church, and peace will come after his return.
2. In 2 Kings, Chapter 11, read the story of queen Athaliah, a clear type of Satan. She ruled the land for six years, and in the seventh year she was overthrown. The seventh year speaks of the Millennium. In this particular case, the true king of Israel was crowned in the temple, and those in the temple rejoiced greatly. All the while, the usurper, Queen Athaliah, still ruled in the city outside.

Likewise, Jesus will build and occupy his temple, the Church, at the beginning of the seventh day [Millennium], and then physically return to overthrow Satan.

The Day of Thy Power

> Psalm 110*: (A Psalm of David)*
> 1. The LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou at my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool.
> 2. The LORD shall send the rod of thy strength out of Zion: rule thou in the midst of thine enemies.
> 3. Thy people shall be willing in the day of thy power, in the beauties of holiness from the womb of the morning: thou hast the dew of thy youth.
> 4. The LORD hath sworn, and will not repent, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchizedek.
> 5. The Lord at thy right hand shall strike through kings in the day of his wrath.
> 6. He shall judge among the heathen, he shall fill the places with the dead bodies; he shall wound the heads over many countries.
> 7. He shall drink of the brook in the way: therefore shall he lift up the head.

My brief commentary on Ps. 110 is as follows:

- Verse one depicts Jesus seated at the right hand of the father till his enemies are dealt with.
- Verse two mentions "the rod of thy strength." This is naturally the Scepter of the King. Since it is sent forth out of Zion [the Church], it means the Kingdom is at this point established in the Church. In other words, this is the beginning of the Kingdom of God. And at this time He, Jesus, rules in the Church, in the midst of the enemies that are still in the world.
- Verse three says that the people shall be willing. That is, they will be obedient to their King, Jesus, once the day of power comes. That is when the Kingdom of God comes to the Church.
- Verses five and six show events that happen on the day of wrath. This is the day of Jesus' actual return. So the Kingdom comes to the Church, and the day of power [the Millennium] begins before His actual return.

The Day of Power is mentioned again in Revelation:

> And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ*: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night.* (Rev. 12:10)

Here, we have another verse that speaks of both beginnings of the Kingdom and the day of power before Jesus' return.

The Day of the Lord Examples

Early on in the Book of Revelation we read:

> Revelation 1:10 I was in the Spirit on the Lord's Day, and I heard behind me a great voice as of a trumpet,

The writer is saying He was in the Spirit on the Lord's Day. This can have several interpretations, all correct.

1. Being in the Spirit can mean a trance like state in which the prophet gets his revelations, this being on the day of the week known as the Lord's Day.
2. It can mean being led of the spirit as opposed to led by the flesh. In this case the prophet is a type of the church which will be led by the Spirit and dead to the flesh in the Day of the Lord
3. It can mean being in a Spiritual state to receive visions, and while in that state to be on or living during the Day of the Lord. In this case you can say that everything depicted in the Book of Revelation takes place on the Day of the Lord. Most of this happens before the Second Coming which isn't till chapter 19!

Now there is a problem with using examples that mention The Day Of The Lord, multiple meanings again. The Day of the Lord can mean:

1. The entire seventh millennium, or
2. The portion of that millennium leading up to and including the Second Coming, or
3. The severe judgments during the portion leading up to and including the Second Coming, or
4. The days of the final judgments leading up to and including the Second Coming, or
5. The actual day(s) of the Second Coming

In the Book of Revelation, the time covered fits definition 2.

Here in Acts 2 it seems to be definition 5.

> Acts 2:20 The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood before that great and notable Day of the Lord come.

Here is a selection of scriptures on The Day Of The Lord, most fitting definitions 3, 4, or 5.

> 2 Peter 3:10 But the Day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night, in which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat. The earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up.
>
> Isaiah 2:12 For the day of the LORD of hosts shall be upon every one that is proud and lofty, and upon every one that is lifted up" and he shall be brought low"
>
> Isaiah 13:6 ¶ Howl ye, for the day of the LORD is at hand! It shall come as a destruction from the Almighty.
>
> Isaiah 34:8 For it is the day of the LORD's vengeance, and the year of recompenses for the controversy of Zion.
>
> Isaiah 63:4 For the day of vengeance is in Mine heart, and the year of My redeemed is come.
>
> Jeremiah 46:10 For this is the day of the Lord GOD of hosts, a day of vengeance, that He may avenge Him of His adversaries. And the sword shall devour, and it shall be sated and made drunk with their blood; for the Lord GOD of hosts hath a sacrifice in the north country by the River Euphrates.
>
> Joel 3:14 Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision; for the day of the LORD is near in the valley of decision.
>
> Amos 8:9 And it shall come to pass in that day," saith the Lord GOD, "that I will cause the sun to go down at noon, and I will darken the earth in the clear day.
> Zephaniah 2:2 before the decree bring forth, before the day pass as the chaff, before the fierce anger of the LORD come upon you, before the day of the LORD'S anger come upon you!

> Malachi 4:5 "Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD.

What exactly happens on the 7th day before the Second Coming?

The beginnings of the kingdom
The preaching of repentance
A series of judgments on the church and the world
Beginning of persecution of the church as part of the judgments
Redemption of the church while judgments increase on the world
Full establishment of the Kingdom of God in His Church
Great end time harvest while judgments increase on the world
Final persecution of the church
Still further judgments on the world leading to the Second Coming.

In my article, End Time Outline, I have broken these into 5 phases. These are considered from the viewpoint of what happens to the church. Kingdom, Judgment, Redemption, Harvest, and the Finale. All of this is part of the prophesied Millennium, The Day of the Lord.

This is the Day the Lord has made, we will be glad and rejoice in it!

Radical Things Of God
Jill Austin

"Do You Have the Faith for the Radical Things of God?"
by Jill Austin

This weekend, I spoke at Jubilee Church in Camarillo, California, and shared about the new generation the Lord is releasing -- the Joshua Generation. I feel there are many of you who are working in the marketplace, and you are full of creative ideas that have not been fulfilled yet, so I am sharing more of this with you today.

Please read the following Scriptures:

Joshua 1:2, 3 "Now therefore, arise, go over this Jordan, you and all these people, to the land which I am giving to them -- the children of Israel. Every place that the sole of your foot will tread upon I have given you, as I said to Moses."

Joshua 6:1, 2 "Now Jericho was securely shut up because of the children of Israel; none went out, and none came in. And the LORD said to Joshua: 'See! I have given Jericho into your hand, its king, and the mighty men of valor.'"

A Church Without Walls

I feel that the Lord is releasing many new movements on the earth, and one of the movements is called "The Third Day Movement." I feel the Lord wants to release a church without walls. He wants to mobilize the men and women to do exploits in the name of the King. There needs to be a cry inside of us that we will be ones who will do exploits for the King of Glory. Amen?

When we remember Moses, it says he lived to be 120 years old. His eyes were not dim, but because of his disobedience, he was only able to see the Promised Land and not go into it, but he prayed for Joshua and gave him wisdom.

Are You a Giant-Killer or a Grasshopper?

Now, I want to go back into Moses' time a little. We all know the story about the twelve spies. We know how they went into the Promised Land, and they saw the giants. They came back and they said, "There are giants in the land -- and we are like grasshoppers." The only ones who had faith to go into the land were Joshua and Caleb.

I feel that the Lord wants to stir faith inside of us that we are not grasshoppers. I think there is something in us that says, "The giants are so big, and the strongholds of Jericho are so huge. Would God ever give us divine strategies to take down these strongholds in our lives, and in the lives of our families and friends?" There needs to be a switch to something inside us, faithfully saying, "Lord, You will give us divine strategies. We just have to take one step at a time."

Do You Have the Faith for the Radical Things of God?

You see, they weren't able to go into the Promised Land because of their unbelief. They wouldn't believe their God, so they were willing to continue in the wilderness and in a place of familiarity. Often, in the church, we are used to what is comfortable and familiar. I feel the Lord is saying, "I want to use fresh strategies and fresh impartations of my Spirit. I want you to break out of My old familiar wineskins."

There needs to be a cry inside of you that you are willing to be forerunners -- revolutionists -- that you are willing to take the glory of the Lord outside the walls of the church into the educational and political systems, the music industry, entertainment, the marketplace, and that you are willing to move in the radical things of God.

Do You Cry for a Visitation? Are You Willing to Live in the Miracles?

There needs to be a cry in you that says, "Lord, I want you to break out in the marketplace."
I feel that the Lord is saying, "Are you willing to move in the times and the seasons . . . like Daniel, like Joshua?"
Is your cry, "Lord, I want to get the fresh strategies in our world for what you are doing in our lives"? There needs to be that cry that says, "Lord, I want more of you."

They were willing to live in the miracles. Moses had radical 40-day-and-night visitations. There needs to be a cry in you that says, "I want those visitations. I want an encountering and a gripping. I want to meet my Jesus face-to-face."

There needs to be a cry in you that says, "Lord, the platform of the church is too small; but Lord, where can you radically use me to impact my world in everyday life, as a prophet, evangelist, teacher, and preacher with prophetic words and words of knowledge that can impact my world and bring a shaking of the kingdom of God?"

Be Fearlessly Radical Even Among the Rich

I want you to not only be able to move in the church, but to be able to have "suddenlies" of the Lord -- to be able to have sounds in the secular world that can start to bring the presence of Jesus Christ into stadiums for the purposes of God.

Why not have a dream? Why not develop radical inventions? Why not move in the medical community with radical intelligence to bring cures of leukemia and cancer? Some of you have been gifted in the medical field -- you've been gifted in science -- you've been given a sharpness.

I think so often in the church we say, "Yes, Lord, we should get everyone ministering to the streets." We talk about the inner city; and I feel that the Lord says, "It's not just the inner city. It's not just the poorest of the poor. I want you to be able to go to the rich. I want you to be able to go to the influential. I want you to be able to go to the educational and political systems and impact your world radically."

Why Not Dream Big?

Why do we only sanction that we take a tract and go to the street corner, when many of you are so gifted? You need to move in your gifting and use your education to activate radical strategies that will break open the King of Glory to move in your midst.

You Have More than You May Realize!

You see, some of you are saying, "I don't have anything"; but if you have a word of God, it will open up doors, and you can go into the courts of kings. The Lord is going to change how the prophets are used. We have gotten into a conference mentality.

More and more, the most radical prophetic voices are going to move almost like invisible men and women behind the scenes to go and talk to kings, prime ministers, and leaders in the world. Many of them you would never know on the platform of a church, and many of them you would never see on a conference itinerary; yet, they are used radically as brokers for the King of Glory.

It Is Big

Whatever your gift is, the Lord will use it. Whatever your talent is, the world will use it. Many times, the five-folders have sinned against the business and education system. They've said that the only place to use your gifts is from the platform, instead of empowering you to sit at corporate board tables as stock brokers, as educators, where you can give the prophetic word of the Lord and change the course of an entire corporation for Jesus Christ.

We need to stop being envious and pining away for the church platform and start being about the business of Jesus Christ. "Arriving" does not mean standing on the platform of a church. We are in a prophetic journey our whole lives. We need to carry the presence and love of Jesus wherever we go. In one place, you will give a word; in another, one person will get saved; and in another, delivered. That is part of moving in the gospel of Jesus. We need to bring the kingdom of God into everyday life. It is not enough to just sit in conferences.

If You Give it Away, He Will Multiply it Over and Over Again

When did you last dream and ask for prophetic revelation of inventions that would change the world trends in music? How about songs that would change history? How radical do you want to be? How entrepreneurial?
In everyday life, are you radical for Jesus? Is your cry, "Lord, let me see the broken, let me see the weak, let me see the despised"? You have to be willing to let God customize your own death. Now, when Joshua was going to go into Jericho, he sent two spies. They went into Jericho and they met Rahab, a prostitute.

When you go into the music or computer industries, you are going to meet Rahab. You are going to meet the gentiles. You are going to meet the prostitutes. You are going to meet the ones who say, with terror in their hearts, "I heard about your God," and you are going to bring salvation for their whole generation. Did you know that Rahab is in the line of Jesus Christ -- she is the great, great grandmother of Jesus!

Are you willing to meet Rahab? Are you willing to meet the prostitutes? Not just the prostitute on the street corner -- but that radical gentile, that sexually perverted person in the music, entertainment, or computer industry? Is there something in us that says, "Give us a radical word in season that will break open their sin, bring deliverance, and bring them to Jesus Christ?" You see, if you really loved Him, you would give Him away. If He is your first love, what else would you do but talk about Him?

For Joshua, the Jordan was in flood season. They had to believe for a miracle. Many times, when God breaks you out of the old familiar things and brings you to the new, you have to go through the flood waters. There were wild lions around the river, there was a cry for strategies. And the Lord said, "On the third day, have the priests carry the ark. Where their feet touch the water, the waters will recede."

The ark carried the glory and the presence of God. There needs to be a cry in us that, as we start to transition from the old to the new, we carry the glory and the presence of God. There needs to be a cry in us to press into the face of Jesus with hunger and passion, no matter what crosses our path.

How hungry are you? You can't do it without Him. The Jordan symbolized death; the Lord is going to kill a lot of old wineskins. It is not enough to just remember the miracles of years past. Are you moving with signs and wonders now? Are you moving with a fresh anointing of the presence of God now? Are you seeing people healed and saved? Are you crying out, saying, "Lord, I want you?"

Or Are We Barren with No Salvation?

You see, it is not enough to just have a fire party. The presence and the fire of God come to grip us with that radical first love so that everybody will get healed, saved, and delivered. There is an empowering fire, and it is not just for you.

See, the Lord is saying, "Wake up, Bride." I want the sleeping giant of the church to wake up. Come on. "Arriving" is not the platform of the church. If you just look up at people there and don't take what they're offering to get equipped and do the things of God, it is idolatry.

Idolatry is Self-Seeking, It is Not God-seeking

So, they get to the other side, and their enemies are afraid. The Lord could have said, "Joshua, now is the time to take out Jericho." What did He say? "Now is the time to call a meeting with all the warriors." And Joshua called all the men forward and took a flint knife and circumcised them!

Ladies, we can relate to this because the Lord circumcises our hearts, too. We get the easier deal on that one. Why would the Lord take a whole army and put them in a place of radical weakness and dependability on the King of Glory? They could have gone on their own strength.

In approaching Jericho, the men of war were already terrified. They had terror because they remembered the miracles that took place with the Red Sea. They knew that the God of Jehovah was in their midst. He wanted them circumcised. He wanted a fresh covenant, because they were moving into a holy war.

Will You Let the Lord Circumcise Your Heart?

I believe the Lord is saying, "Many of you need to be circumcised with a fresh anointing and a fresh repentance to move into that place of a fresh covenant; to move into that place of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; and to be able to go in and take the land."

Joshua is on a faith journey; it is not any different than ours. Suddenly, we have the flood waters. We have to follow the Lord. There is nothing else that we can do besides follow the Lord. Then our hearts are circumcised. The enemy could have come in and wiped them out, but from a great place of vulnerability, and for weeks in recovery, they had to trust in their God.

From a Place of Humility, Visitation Comes

Then the Lord came with a divine visitation. The Captain of the Hosts showed up, and He gave them divine strategies to take down Jericho. How does He give you strategies to take down the strongholds in your own life? Do you ask the Lord for divine visitations and strategies, or is your knowledge of the Lord simply, "If I come, I will get into the river"?

I tell you, people, getting in the river is not enough. Getting a little warm feeling is nice, but it is not enough. There needs to be a radical gripping of God. A gripping in the depths of who you are. No one can make this happen, because there is a sovereignty of God. There is a place that you can position your love and your hearts.

Each One of Us Is Moses!

Each one of us is moving in the old familiar ways. We are in a season where the Lord wants to break you out of your old familiar paradigms and break you into a place to be a militant Joshua Generation. Each one of you is at a crossroads of the Jordan. God is inviting you to die.

The Jordan represents the cross. We die to our selfishness; we die to just us getting it and not giving it away. You want a multiplication of the prophetic; you need to start prophesying. You want a multiplication of the gift of healing, then you need to pray for the sick. You want a multiplication of moving in wisdom, then you need to counsel people and to ask God to give you wisdom and strategies for their lives. If you start to move into the kingdom, He will give you more. If you just go home, and say that we had a radical, wild conference, but you are not on fire, starting to give away Jesus, then you missed it.

Is Moses Dead?

Are you just a little grasshopper? Or, is there something in you that says, "We have a big God. We have a God who can take down giants. We have a God who can take down every city and every stronghold. We can go before Him. We have a God who can move on our behalf."

This is a word of freedom. It is a word to get you mobilized. It is a word to get you to say, "Go for it!"
"Move in God! Go for it! Be radical, fiery brides for the King of Glory! Take the land! Take the territory for God."

I want there to be a jealousy -- a holy jealousy, so you say, "Why not me? Lord, you could use a Gideon, why not me? Lord, you could use a David; why not me? Lord, you could use a little girl named Esther and made her a Queen. Lord, why not me? Lord, you could use my life. You used a Mary; why not me? Why can't you use my life?"

You See, He Can Use YOU!

Are you a Moses? Or a Joshua? Ladies, are you grasshoppers? Do you think only the men can be generals? Do you think that you can hold things in the Spirit? Can the Lord use you to move armies and come up with radical strategies for the King of Glory? Or, is it only the guys, and we get to be their shadows?
Are you guys saying, "This little light of mine, a little flicker?" Or are you a blazing torch?

There needs to be a cry that you are willing.

Recognize The Season

Jeff Culver

dlaog@lakesnet.net

Eccl. 3:1 tells us that there is a season for everything, a time for every purpose under heaven.

In the church of North America, we have forgotten about seasons. We have forgotten about sowing, watering, cultivating, plowing, travailing, waiting, suffering and looked for nothing but harvest. If a church is not in harvest at the moment, we assume/proclaim it is dead. We get antsy, impatient, nervous. We begin to force results in our desire to look successful and blessed, compromising all that brings true harvest.

I want to take a brief look at the Biblical words used for "time. The Hebrew word for time in Eccl. 3:1 is "zem-awn'", which means an appointed, or specific time. The Greek words for time are "Chronos" and "Kairos". "Chronos" is the passage of time, the season of "faithfulness in the little things", preperation, growth, refining, etc. It is the season of "breaking up the fallow ground", sowing, watering, cultivating, tears and travail, watchfulness, fastings, etc. In our culture of fast food and microwave religion, we can get extremely frustrated and impatient with God, our church, our pastor, our fellow church members in this season, simply because we do not understand the seasons.

"Kairos" is the second Greek word used for "time" in the NT. It is the "suddenly" of Acts 2 that we long for. The moment of Divine intervention. The Pow! The "WOW!" moment when the mighty wind of heaven descends upon earth in hurricane force. The moment revivals are birthed. In the past 100 or so years, there have been several of these moments. Wales experienced this in 1904, L.A. had one in 1906, known as the Azusa Street Revival, New Hebrides Islands experienced this in the late 1940's, a little church in Toronto experienced this wind in Jan. of 1994, and North America was hit again on Father's Day 1995 in Florida. When the wind struck, harvest began. This is what we pray for, wait for, long for.

But keep in mind that in comparison to the whole operation of farming, although the operation continues in one form or another, through various seasons, the season of harvest is the shortest one, lasting rarely more than 2 weeks of a 52 week year. The other 50 weeks, however, determine the quality and quantity of the relatively short season of harvest. The season of preparation, despite its length and seeming fruitlessness at times, is equally important to the actual harvest season, if not more so.

We like results. So we only look to the harvest, where the results are visible and manifest to all. But there are other seasons of our lives. The "Seven Forgotten Seasons".

1. Plowing. Breaking up the fallow ground. Both Jeremiah (Jer. 4:3) and Hosea (Hos. 10:12) tell us that this is where we start. After winter, the ground is fallow, hard and in need of breaking up. Most cities of North America are in this state.

2. Sowing. After the breaking up of the fallow ground, then the land can receive the seed of the Word of God. Evangelistic outreaches occur in this season.

3. Watering. Water = life. The rains of the Holy Spirit, and the tears of the intercessor.

4. Cultivation. Keeping the soil soft during the growing season. Preserving the harvest through the entire season. Guarding that which was planted. Bringing the harvest to full maturity ensures the fullness of harvest. Continued evangelism and intercession. A season of protracted, intense warfare on behalf of the harvest that is still to come.

5. Waiting. Things take time to grow. Usually more time that I am willing to wait. In our haste for results, we often bypass waiting. It is in this season that we often make the fatal mistake that kills/drastically reduces our harvest. At this point we sacrifice substance for superficial, the Charismata for Charisma and make shortcuts/compromises that undermine all we are working for. We at this point look for the can of "Instant Success", as the "Chronos" period is taking to long. We begin to look elsewhere, to other ministries/opportunities with longing eyes, as they appear to be "doing something".

6. Travail. Travail means to give birth. This also is the warfare. the "slugging it out". Once a woman goes into labor, we stop when the baby comes. No breaks or let downs. All attention from this point on are on the birthing.

Travail can often mean suffering. There are going to be times of suffering, tribulation, oppression, blatant attack by our enemy along the road to harvest. As Paul told the elders in Acts 14:22, Through many tribulations we enter the Kingdom of heaven. Sufferings are sure to come along the road to harvest.

7. Harvest time.

What season are you in right now? Recognize the season and stay on the road to harvest, that your reward might be great in the Kingdom of our God.

Retaking The Ship

Bryan Hupperts

I dreamed I was aboard a luxury liner, the good ship Christendom, converted curiously enough from a battleship, cruising blissfully through a lazy blue ocean. The cruise ads had promised clear skies, a great time, fun entertainment with some of the greatest speakers and singers of our time, and feast upon feast of a vast array of culinary delicacies from around the globe.

For some odd reason I had the impression this was supposed to be a family cruise but the wealthiest were atop in the luxury suites, quite isolated and protected from the rest of us who were secured in various levels of the ship each according to our rank of importance and wealth. Somehow, it didn't feel right.

Aside from a growing uneasiness that something wasn't quite right on this vast cruise ship, I was enjoying myself listening to great teachers and wonderful singers all the while surrounded by a few close friends.

One night, as I climbed into my bunk, I felt the ship begin to rock. It was a gentle rocking but soon the ship was tossing and heaving like a fish needing air. People were being thrown out of their bunks and began scrambling to get to the decks. Were we sinking?

I staggered like a drunken man up the stairs to see a sight unthinkable. The deck was rocking violently and everything that could be shaken was being shaken. Baggage and luxuries were being thrown overboard by the cresting of the waves and it seemed the ship would split into timbers. And through the swirling fog I saw what looked like another ship: a pirate ship?

We were being boarded and overtaken. It happened so fast there was almost no resistance. Some from the upper decks were shouting, "You cannot do this. We are the lords of this voyage." And a shrouded figure I took for the Captain of the attacking vessel stepped out of the shadows and replied simply; "It is not to be so among you for there is only one Lord."

Within a few minutes many of the passengers and crew were in chains for not having "lawfully boarded," while the rest of us were ordered to different decks. The whole ship was in ordered turmoil as everyone aboard was assigned a new place. A man named Mr. Prophet, who had been in irons for most of the voyage for "Speaking Mutiny" against the now deposed former Captain who ironically wore his same chains, was summarily released and placed into the watchtower to be the eyes of the ship.

A woman named Mrs. Intercessor who was serving in the galley as a lowly cook was sent to the deepest hole in the ship. I wondered about her punishment and asked one of the shining soldiers why this was so. He smiled and said, "She is close to the Captain's heart and needs the silence to be alone with him to hear his heart clearly. She has cried out to be released into this 'punishment' for many years. It is a station of great honor."

Others tried to use their former rank to demand an audience with the Captain but he ignored their swagger and boasts seeming instead drawn to the meek and lowly of heart, giving no regard to a person's rank or status.

The ship's powerful self-propelling engines were unbolted and dropped like useless, dead weights into the forgetfulness of the ocean! A mast went up and in a moment, she was transformed from running under her own power back into a sailing ship. Her ancient armory that had been locked tight was opened anew and her weapons were remounted transforming her into both a sailing ship and a warship. Many of the singers quit entertaining and began to offer up worship on the warship. An order was given to the speakers, "Quit merely speaking and teach by example. To your labor stations!"

Some who had beaten their fellow passengers during the voyage were publicly humiliated as a quick trial took place. Those who had abused their fellow passengers were allowed to remain on the ship and surprisingly were treated as guests of the Captain, but even what they had was taken away from them. There was a fast redistribution of wealth and duty as everyone was released into a place that somehow suddenly felt "right." We were no more divided into passengers and crew, but all simply crewmembers, fellow shipmates united under one Captain.

The Captain assembled the whole ship's company and, while holding a bottle of new wine in his hand, spoke quickly. "I come to liberate, not enslave! I have come to reclaim what is mine by birthright. I have retaken this ship that the pirates stole from me. She is no more christened The Christendom, but her true name, the good ship Salvation!"

He broke the bottle of new wine over her bow. "All who will may board her freely for the price to sail has been paid in full. We set sail for my Father's kingdom. Rebels and mutineers, beware! Your day of retribution draws swiftly near. Behold, I come quickly!"

A cheer went up from the crew as the sails were hoisted and a sudden wind from the deepest Heaven began to blow, propelling her towards an unseen land. My last sight was seeing her proper Captain at the wheel with his joyous face yet set like flint for the voyage to come. I sensed troubled waters of tribulation brewing and knew that only with the true Captain at the helm would we safely reach our destination.

Remove The Shroud Of Death

Warring To Remove The Shroud Of Death by Dutch Sheets (www.dutchsheets.org)

April 25, 2005

As many of you know, on March 24, 2005, I issued a prayer alert concerning the Terri Schiavo situation. This, of course, was before her death. In this alert I made some strong statements about the death culture in America and about a spirit of death being released from Florida to the nation, if her death was allowed. I have received requests from several people and organizations to follow up this prayer alert, since of course, she was killed.

The reason for a slight delay in writing a response to the situation is two-fold:

1) I wanted time to wait on the Lord, asking Him for His wisdom and word on the situation; and

2) I wanted to allow time for emotions to settle – both mine, in order that I might make my best effort to hear and write by the Spirit, and also the emotions of those who would read it.

Let me say from the start, that though I have received a few negative responses from what I wrote, the overwhelming response was agreement. I make no apologies for anything I said in the alert and still believe everything I wrote. I did try to be compassionate and conciliatory to those who have had to make heartbreaking decisions to disconnect loved ones from life support, while also stating that I did not believe that was what was happening with Terri. Here is that conciliatory statement:

"I feel that God is allowing it to epitomize where we are as a nation, picturing for us the death culture that has overtaken us in America. I do want to be careful at this point not to cast any dispersion on those who have had to make the excruciating decision to disconnect loved ones from life support. I have had to stand with individuals, giving them comfort and support as they made this decision for brain-dead loved ones. However, I have a very deep conviction that is not what is taking place in this case."

While I still feel the same strong empathy and compassion for those who have had to end life support for loved ones, it has become even more obvious to me that that is not what was happening with Terri Schiavo. Anyone with moral integrity and common sense can see otherwise:

1) She was NOT on life support – she was simply fed;

2) She was NOT on a breathing machine, she breathed on her own;

3) She was NOT dying;

4) She was NOT comatose;

5) It is almost certain her behavior did NOT meet the medical or statutory definition of a persistent vegetative state (PVS). Fourteen independent medical professionals (six of them neurologists) gave either statements or testimony that Terri was NOT a PVS;

6) Her husband (legally, not morally), who had long since moved on with his life, waited seven years to begin saying he remembered that she didn't want to be sustained by a feeding tube.

There are many other injustices and suspicious circumstances surrounding this ordeal. Even the supposed poll that "proved" most Americans wanted her to die was so slanted and dishonest making it suspect at best. For the exact poll question and the clearest expose of this situation I have read to date, you can go to www.focusaction.org and read Dr. James Dobson's article entitled, "Life, Death and Judicial Tyranny." It is shocking, hard-hitting and in many ways, frightening. It is somewhat long but is a must-read.

There is no doubt in my mind that Terri Schiavo was, in essence, "legally" murdered. My purpose in this communication is not to prove that, however, but to reiterate what I believe this caused in our nation and to discuss what we must do from here. I issued the following warning in the prayer alert: "As this burden began to intensify yesterday, I called Chuck Pierce and Ken Malone (the Strategic Prayer Network state coordinator for Florida). He reminded me of a word Chuck gave about Florida a few months ago. Chuck prophesied,

"A strategy will be uncovered out of Florida that will be very detrimental to our land. . . a strategy that will try to mature to stop the plan for this nation out of Florida, to bring confusion in this land." Chuck also told me yesterday that when he gave this word, he saw a death structure in Florida that would become an issue before the nation – that death would try to reign from there.

"I feel very strongly that if we don't overcome this spirit of death, a new wave of violence and death will be released across our nation. It could manifest through suicides, terrorism, disease, euthanasia, increased abortions, murder, etc. How it manifests may vary, but I am issuing the warning: if this is allowed to continue in Florida, this spirit of death will be unleashed with a vengeance."

I still stand behind this warning. Chuck Pierce also delivered another prophetic word on January 14, 2005 stating, "In April, death will attempt to sting." Terri died March 31! Don't miss the timings of her death and this prophecy. There is no doubt in my mind that when she died what the Holy Spirit warned of began. The stronghold of death in America has increased its strength through this "legal" decision.

By the visibility and coverage of this situation, God gave the nation the opportunity to stop this death by choosing life and therefore, mercy. Some tried to do so, including the President and Congress, but led by a Godless judicial system we (collectively) chose death and judgment.

It is too late to stop the initiating of this death "invasion." There will be an increase of violent death in our nation. As you will see before I finish this letter, I don't believe we have to allow this spirit of death and destruction to run its full course. But make no mistake about it, it has begun.

Is this coming destruction the hand of God? Certainly not. It is the absence of His hand. Jonah 2:8 says: "Those who cling to worthless idols forfeit the grace that could be theirs." (NIV) America chose death over life – even many in the church were strangely silent. We forsook grace and chose destruction.

I also wrote in the prayer alert about the courts – the judicial system. I, along with many other prophets and leaders, have been warning for several years that they are out of control and are the number one entry-point for the spiritual decay and cultural demise in our nation. Of course there are some good judges in America, but nonetheless this institution has done more than any other to release the spirit of death over our nation. Many of them are unaccountable, arrogant, godless and on a mission to legislate God out of America.

Please read the aforementioned article of Dr. Dobson's and, among many compelling arguments proving what I just said, you will read of Thomas Jefferson predicting this 200 years ago! *His greatest fear for America was the judicial system!

God placed them on public trial in the Terri Schiavo case. They were weighed in the balances and found wanting. They were offered a choice – they chose death. They failed the test and showed that they are under the influence of a spirit of death. They tried to say that they were only following the law, but when the President, Congress, the Governor and legislature of Florida gave them the way out – the way to choose life – they showed their true colors. They didn't want the way out, the way to choose life. They even defied a Congressional order – a subpoena. The point is, they didn't want a way out and didn't want to have any other governmental branch bringing checks or balances to them, as the Constitution mandates. They are full of pride and out of control, and they are now bringing America into another phase and level of judgment. We must pray and do everything else in our power to change this evil system. The destiny of America is at stake.

Jim Hodges, my apostolic covering and one of my spiritual fathers agrees with this. He said,

"A nation cannot be sustained or reach its divine destiny if it chooses a culture of death. 'I call heaven and earth to witness against you today that I have set before you life and death, the blessing and the curse. So choose life in order that you may live, you and your descendents by loving the Lord your God, by obeying His voice, and by holding fast to Him; for this is your life and the length of your days, that you may live in the land which the Lord swore to your fathers. . .' (Deuteronomy 30:19-20).

This word of God through Moses came to Israel as they prepared to cross the Jordan into their destiny. America has a prophetic destiny, but it can be aborted by choosing death!"

Where does this leave us? Is it too late to stem the tide of this death culture? Must we face the full force of this spirit of death that has been released? Is it too late to rein in this renegade judicial system? The answer to these questions is a resounding "No."

While it is too late to stop some of the judgment, we can and must break this death culture and overcome this spirit of death. Through various dreams and revelations, God showed Chuck Pierce in January that we were entering a ten month struggle against death in America. We lost a battle, but we can still win this war!

As Chuck and I have prayed and processed together, God began to speak about His river of life. Of course, God's life always overcomes death. There must be a fresh release of this river in America. Ezekiel 47:9 says, "Everything will live where the river goes." This river has power to heal even nations (see Ezekiel 47:12 and Revelation 22:1-2).

Saying we need a release of the river of God is another way of saying we need a fresh outpouring of His Spirit. Nothing else will break this spirit of death. Yes, I still believe revival is coming to America. Unfortunately, some of the cause will probably be judgment, since it is often what it takes to bring further repentance and a turning back to God.

Here are four things we can do now to see a fresh release of the Holy Spirit and His river of life, and a consequent breaking of the spirit of death over America. They involve, quite simply, a radical return to the basics:

1) Repent. Biblically, repentance means a change of mind leading to a change of action and direction. Complacency and indifference must be broken off of us, starting with the church. The blindness that keeps us from seeing our horrible condition must be lifted. If judges had done something to hurt our pocketbooks there would have been a far greater outcry, including from the church. We are pathetically selfish. We think we are "rich. . . and have need of nothing." But we "are wretched and miserable and poor and blind and naked," (see Revelation 3:17). We must "be zealous therefore, and repent," (verse 19). Do this individually and corporately. Do it identificationally for the nation.

- Repent for the pride and arrogance that permeates our nation.
- Repent for allowing God to be mocked and expelled from our culture.
- Repent of greed and selfishness.

- Repent of idolatry and gross immorality.
- Repent of lukewarmness in the church.
- Do not listen to false leaders and shepherds who tell us all is well.

Read the first six chapters of Jeremiah; it has many warnings for us.

2) Fasting. Sometimes there is nothing else that will produce breakthrough. According to Isaiah 58:6 it loosens the bonds of wickedness, undoes the bands of the yoke, lets the oppressed go free and breaks every yoke. There are many wonderful promises, as well as important conditions, in this chapter.

Fasting is also a statement of humility. It is a humbling or bringing down of self and its desires, and a reciprocal exalting of the spirit and its life forces.

3) Intercession. Both personal and corporate intercession must be released to pull down this spirit of death and break the death culture in America. Biblical decrees and declarations must be issued in order to release the sword of the Spirit. If enough believers in America would do this daily and enough churches do it weekly, we could overcome this spirit in a relatively short time. Don't underestimate the importance of yourself or your prayer group.

Do prayer journeys/walks to your courthouse, abortion clinic, Planned Parenthood offices and anywhere else God's Spirit leads. Don't make a scene – pray and decree. Your invisible force in the spirit is worth more than a protest.

4) Worship. Worship exalts God, weakens principalities and powers (Psalm 149:5-9) and confuses the forces of darkness (2 Chronicles 20:23). It cleanses the atmosphere. Worship gatherings – simply for the sake of worship – are important in this season. They should be regular and frequent.

In closing, while I firmly agree with Chuck Pierce that we are in a season of intense war with a spirit of death and the death culture in America, we can win this war. Even judgment does not have to be final under grace; mercy can triumph. Let's up this war for life and win it!

Redeeming The Time

Jon Hamill

Redeeming The Time

This July, at a gathering called "The Gate" in Washington, D.C., the Lord gave me a prophetic experience regarding an emerging season where He is redeeming the time on behalf of His body.

Almost immediately after this experience, God brought significant confirmation in my own life. Many friends with whom I have prayed and shared the word have also been impacted. In a dream a week ago, the Lord made clear it is now time to release this word to the broader body of Christ.

In the prophetic experience, I saw and heard swirling winds forming a whirlwind and descending upon us. The sound was like the rhythm of a helicopter, and the whirlwind was moving counterclockwise.

I asked the Lord why the whirlwind was rotating counterclockwise, and He spoke to me that it's because these winds were released for the redeeming of time. This is a facet of His manifest justice. God is prepared, as it were, to turn back the hand of time. He is breathing life into the gate of this nation, bringing us into a season where kairos windows of opportunity, stolen by the enemy, will be redeemed and brought back around.

As His breath begins to blow, God will bring to completion His intentions for our lives that have seemingly been aborted by the enemy. Even opportunities missed by our own stupor are available for His redemption. Let the Lord quicken to you what kairos opportunities you have been robbed of, and ask Him for restoration. He is eager to move on your behalf!

In Ephesians 5:15-16, we are admonished that redeeming the (kairos) time is a facet of walking wisely in the midst of evil days. The prophet Joel speaks of an army trained to "enter through the windows like a thief" (Joel 2:9). How often have we slumbered while incredible windows of opportunity have opened by the hand of the Lord? Just like an unrighteous thief, God is calling us to focus on the prize on the other side of the window. He's saying it's wise to see that the prize is worth the risk!

As God redeems kairos opportunities to establish His justice, even to change the course of history, let's walk wisely.

In his time, Martin Luther King responded to such a call. He perceived that God had opened a window to this nation to bring to fruition the promise of liberty for which the Civil War had originally been fought. In other words, God brought back around a kairos window of opportunity to establish His justice -- for all.

It is interesting to note that at this season in history, the healing movement birthed by Oral Roberts, Kenneth Hagin, Paul Cain, Jack Coe, Kathryn Kuhlman, and others, was being breathed on with strength by the Holy Spirit. God was restoring the Biblical truth that, through the cross, Christ Jesus paid for our healing as well as our salvation. And that our healing was a facet of His justice.

In this context, God raised up Martin Luther King with a healing anointing to restore the soul of a nation! It is to our shame that as God began to shift His people into a focus on healing a nation, the vast majority of white Christians responded with passivity.

Dr. King was often confronted with criticism from white Christians that his actions were too extreme for the era in which he lived. Responding to this criticism in a Letter from a Birmingham Jail, Dr. King amazingly identified stewardship of time as the core issue! He wrote: "Such an attitude stems from a tragic misconception of time . . . More and more I feel that the people of ill will have used time much more effectively than the people of good will. We will have to repent in this generation not merely for the vitriolic words and actions of the bad people, but for the appalling silence of the good people . . . We must use time creatively, and forever realize that the time is always right to do right."

We live in an era similar to that of Martin Luther King. To the seeking, God is releasing a new measure of apostolic anointing and authority to establish societal justice. This anointing, commensurate with our lifestyle, will empower us to redeem the kairos time so that issues of justice -- even on a national level -- may be brought to completion.

In this season of restoration, may God give us the same resolve so demonstrated by Dr. King. Because the cost will be much greater if we stay passive. The fulfillment of God's promise to this nation depends upon a swift response to His call to "establish justice at the gates." As the windows of opportunity open -- go through!

"Go through, Go through the gates; prepare the way for the people . . . " (Isaiah 62:10)

Returning To The Source

Chuck Pierce

Returning to the Source and Reversing the Lost Power of the Church" (A Prayer Journey to Moscow, Istanbul, Rome and Jerusalem)

Dear Standing Saints:

I recently attended John and Paula Sanford's 30th anniversary gathering. These saints paved the way for many of us to understand our identity. I remember reading The Elijah Task in 1978 and saying, "Thank you, Lord! This explains a little better who I am."

This is a year for things to come full circle. I believe this 30th anniversary signified a launching of God's prophets and healers into the next dimension. We left on Pentecost Sunday (June 12) for our Eagles of God trip to Moscow, Istanbul, Rome, and Jerusalem: Returning to the Source and Reversing the Lost Power of the Church (see details below). As the team of ten journeyed, we were declaring that the power of Pentecost come upon you -- bringing increase in REVELATION, PROVISION, and HARVEST THINKING.

THE WIND OF HEAVEN IS BLOWING! (A Prophetic Word for You)

Get Ready For The Vexation Of Your Spirit To Lift And Revival To Occur!

I preached a message, recently, titled "Do You Want to Be Made Whole?" We are entering into a time of revival of the spirit. The spirit of man is the innermost part of a person where the Holy Spirit resides. The spirit of man sings and blesses God.
Ask the Lord to release your spirit from any vexation so you can bless the Lord. Let your spirit bless God. Get past your wounds and confinements and let your spirit bless God. Let Him touch you in a way He has never touched you before. Tell the Lord you are willing, that you want wholeness, and that you want Him to transform your blood and remove any impurities from your life.

The Lord is speaking the following:

"If you have come with one arm withered, stretch both arms up and let Me stretch you in a new way. Feel Me chipping away at that thing which has been holding you and let Me shift you. Feel yourself rising even in the midst of warfare. The warfare around you is ending. I AM getting you past your conflicts and releasing a new grace for you to win the war.

"Even though you hear the sound of war, you hear My sound more clearly. Come up, come up, come up, and stand before Me. I AM the Father of your spirit. I want you to understand your full adoption. I have paid for your spirit to be free. I want you to experience your full inheritance.

"Feel the penetration of My Spirit through your spirit -- transforming your soul and changing your body. Enter into a new place of communion. Hear the sounds of heaven as you commune. Don't commune the same common way, but allow your spirit to be filled with Holy Spirit.

"Submit to the 'Father of spirits.' See things from a different perspective. Communion is a function of the spirit. Let Me infuse you with thoughts from heaven that will affect earth -- creative thoughts that will reorder structures and systems around you.

"I AM removing soul ties that have you bound to an earthy realm and in places you do not belong. You will now see where your spirit aligns and fits. Thank Holy Spirit for raising you up above the earth realm. You have been looking up at the sky and you've been thinking that the sky is going to fall on you. I'm pulling you up beyond what you thought could fall on you.

"Look at your right foot. Where it has been held by chains, I AM pulling it out of the pit. Lift it and step forward. Look at your left foot. Where it has been held by the shackles of sin -- the mud grip is releasing. Lift it and step forward. Raise your right hand and raise your left hand because extension is coming to your body today.

"I AM taking you up. A new wind is blowing that is causing you to rise. I AM accelerating your release from your enemies. The earth is crying out for My glory and right now the heavens are bringing you to a new height of victory. Holy Spirit has released you to ascend."

LET OLD CYCLES BREAK!

This FirstFruits gathering this month was one of our most important of the year. This is the month to decree that old cycles break! We addressed deadly cycles that seem to control our lives and remove our freedom. A cycle is an interval during which a recurring sequence of events happens.

A cycle can also be a periodically repeated sequence of events . . . something that happens over and over at a certain time. Sometimes this is impregnated with supernatural phenomena. A cycle can be linked with time or event and orchestrated supernaturally so a repeating wound or injustice occurs from generation to generation. Satan loves to keep us going around the same mountain. But God!

Romans 8:1-4 (LB) says:
"So there is now no condemnation awaiting those who belong to Christ Jesus. For the power of the life-giving Spirit -- and this power is mine through Christ Jesus -- has freed me from the vicious circle of sin and death. We aren't saved from sin's grasp by knowing the commandments of God, because we can't and don't keep them, but God put into effect a different plan to save us. He sent his own Son in a human body like ours -- except that ours are sinful -- and destroyed sin's control over us by giving himself as a sacrifice for our sins. So now we can obey God's laws if we follow after the Holy Spirit and no longer obey the old evil nature within us."
God has a remedy for iniquity. By embracing the blood and redemptive sacrifice of the Lord Jesus Christ we can break out of any old pattern. Ecclesiastes 4:12 says, "And a three fold cord is not quickly broken." Of course, this was written in the concept of the unity of the Trinity. However, this Scripture allows us to understand the principle that a triple, braided cord is very difficult to break.

You can also imagine if three demonic strongholds align with each other. The three demonic strongholds we have to deal with most of the time in our lives are poverty, infirmity, and religion. I am decreeing that each braided cord in your life, family, church, city, and state that is choking out God's best will begin to unravel. Move from POVERTY to INCREASE. Shift from INFIRMITY to HEALING. Leave RELIGION and move into THE NEW THING.

THE EAGLES OF GOD TRIP TO MOSCOW, ISTANBUL, ROME AND JERUSALEM

Returning to the Source and Reversing the Lost Power of the Church

Another three-fold cord of great importance has to do with the history of the Church. Your gifts and prayer support have spread around the world over the last couple of months and were now used to declare a change in Church History as we went to MOSCOW, CONSTANTINOPLE (Istanbul), ROME, and JERUSALEM for a prayer journey called Returning to the Source and Reversing the Lost Power of the Church.

The Purpose of the Trip

In AD 325, the Emperor Constantine gave the church "an offer it couldn't refuse!" As a result, the church compromised with paganism and lost touch with its biblical roots. The resulting paganized Christianity was marked by the worship of images, icons, shrines, prayer to Mary and the Saints, pagan rituals, ceremonies, holidays, a pagan view of God, etc. The church was plunged into a thousand years of ignorance and superstition, known as the dark ages.

Beginning with the protestant reformation, God has graciously worked to restore to the church much that it had lost, but the restoration is not yet complete. We believe God is bringing His church into a time of full restoration, when the apostolic church will be restored to its original purity and power, bringing about a great last-days harvest.

Branches of the Church

In the years since Constantine, the Church has split into several major branches. In this journey we will focus on three primary branches of the church that are highly significant theologically, politically, and prophetically.

The first is the Roman Catholic Church. Rome is called the "Eternal City." Rome brought about the destruction of Jerusalem, the persecution of the early Church and -- through Constantine -- the death of the early Church, cutting the Church off from its biblical foundation and plunging the Church into a millennium of darkness.

The second is the Orthodox Church, represented by Constantinople (now Istanbul), which called itself "The Second Rome." The Orthodox Church continued to build on the paganized foundation of Rome, adding the worship of icons and, in its worship, "restoring the temple veil" between God and the people. The Orthodox Church has been much more resistant to movements of renewal, restoration, and reformation than the Roman church.

The third is the Russian Orthodox Church, represented by Moscow, which calls itself "The Third Rome." The Russian Orthodox Church continued to build on the paganized foundation of the first two "Romes," but replaced the "Greek" mindset of the Roman and Greek churches with a barbarian worldview of the Kievan Rus. This laid a foundation of harsh oppression which resulted in the Bolshevik revolution and the rise of communism. The present Russian state has repeatedly stated its goal of once again rising as the "Third Rome."

While we, in America, are primarily concerned with the Roman church, (*and its reformed offspring, the Protestant church) we are also part of the greater church worldwide, and must intercede for the restoration of the church in all of its branches.

Our trip schedule was, beginning Pentecost Sunday, June 12th:

Sunday (noon)	Travel from Dallas to Chicago and on to London
Monday (AM)	Arrive in London and travel on to Moscow
Monday (afternoon)	Arrive in Moscow
Tues and Wed (AM)	Pray at strategic sites in Moscow
Wed (afternoon)	Depart Moscow and arrive in Istanbul
Thursday (AM)	Pray at strategic sites in Istanbul
Thursday (afternoon)	Depart Istanbul and arrive in Rome
Friday	Pray at strategic sites in Rome
Saturday	Depart Rome for Israel (AM) and arrive in Tel Aviv (afternoon)
Sunday and Monday	Pray at strategic sites in Jerusalem
Tuesday (early AM)	Travel from Tel Aviv (early AM) to Zurich and on to Dallas
Tuesday (afternoon)	Arrive in Dallas

Thank you for praying for us as we declared a reversal of lost power over you! MAY THE LORD RESTORE ALL! I am decreeing that every vicious circle the enemy has you in will break and that wasted time will be reversed. We will send along more reports through The Elijah List during the next couple of weeks. I appreciate each of you. I could not accomplish the will of the Lord for my life without you.

Blessings,

Brambles And Bushes
Chuck Pierce

"Many Feel Caught Up In The Brambles And Bushes..."

And the Lord would say to you: “Many of you feel today that you have been caught up in the brambles and bushes. Many of you even think you have lost your way. But I would say to you that I have a Highway for you and I AM going to bring you back upon the Highway. I’m going to set your feet on the way of holiness. I AM going to set your feet on the way of progression and advancement. I AM going to set your feet on the way of victory. And this day I AM calling you out of curses. I AM calling you out of bondage. I AM calling you out of a place of darkness. I AM calling you out of weariness. I AM calling you out of places of failure. I AM calling you out of condemnation. And I AM inviting you to come up on My Highway. Let Me establish your feet. You will stand, you will surely stand, you will surely stand” says the Lord.

Run Forrest Run!
Jeff Wright

Mrs. Gump: I happen to believe you make your own destiny. You have to do the best with what God gave you."

Forrest: Momma, what's my destiny?

Mrs. Gump: Your gonna have to figure it out yourself Forrest. Life is like a box of Chocolates, you never know what your gonna get."

Forrest: I don't know if mamma was right, if it's Lt. Dan, I don't know if we all have a destiny, or if were all just floating accidentally like on a breeze, but maybe I think it's both. Maybe both are happening at the same time.

Deuteronomy 30:19

19 Today I have given you the choice between life and death, between blessings and curses. I call on heaven and earth to witness the choice you make. Oh, that you would choose life, that you and your descendants might live! 20Choose to love the Lord your God and to obey him and commit yourself to him, for he is your life. Then you will live long in the land the Lord swore to give your ancestors Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob."

The Lord is calling His people on their unmistaken path to their destiny. Forrest Gump is a God breathed Movie. A story of Child like Faith and the beautiful obedience of a faithful child. You best see it and look at through your spiritual eyes! The Great Lord is calling for His people to run to their destinies. What did Forrest do. What did that faithful Child do. The young poor boy with the crooked back. He stepped out in faith when his enemies were chasing him, his friend said "Run Forrest Run! And he did! Telling his story he said, "Now you wouldn't believe it if I told you, but I can run like the wind blows! From that day on if I was going somewhere, I was running!" Just like David, "Gimmie that sling! I'm gonna eat me some giant! Let us run to the high calling so we will be able to stand before him unashamed. Yes, run to stand! Yes, Forrest you made your destiny, by your Love, your obedience and your childlike faithfulness set forth in your face of flint!

Church, the orders have been set forth by the Captain of the Armies of the Lord! His sword is drawn, and it's pointing at everything that is not of Him. Ignore what the real prophets have to say at your own peril! Prayer, Praise and Obedience. The Line has been drawn in the sand for the World and His Church. The World has all ready chosen their destiny. The question is what will you choose? Will you run like Forrest to what the Father is doing in this hour and what he's calling you to? Or in your rebellion will you die or be swept away in the flood waters of judgment that has been reserved for the world and forfeit the destiny the Lord was trying to bring you in? Choose Life, Be a David! Be a Son of God!

We need to renew our minds to these scriptures. Only in his power will we be able to stand. Only in His power will we have the" want to"! In faith we grab hold of the promise of a new heart that will long and thirst after Him at all costs. Not in our human motivation or will power it can't be done! By the Word, Worship and Prayer will we be able to come into sonship and a new heart. We Christians are that nation that has dishonored the Lord's great name among the nations. Because of our sick hearts.

Hearts that have had the Lords interests only in appearances. They honor me with their lips but their hearts are far from me. That is changing!

Jeremiah 24:77 I will give them hearts that will recognize me as the Lord. They will be my people, and I will be their God, for they will return to me wholeheartedly.

Ezekiel 11:1919 And I will give them singleness of heart and put a new spirit within them. I will take away their hearts of stone and give them tender hearts instead, 20so they will obey my laws and regulations. Then they will truly be my people, and I will be their God.

Ezekiel 36:23

23 I will show how holy my great name is—the name you dishonored among the nations. And when I reveal my holiness through you before their very eyes, says the Sovereign Lord, then the nations will know that I am the Lord. 24For I will gather you up from all the nations and bring you home again to your land25"Then I will sprinkle clean water on you, and you will be clean. Your filth will be washed away, and you will no longer worship idols. 26And I will give you a new heart with new and right desires, and I will put a new spirit in you. I will take out your stony heart of sin and give you a new, obedient heart.£ 27And I will put my Spirit in you so you will obey my laws and do whatever I command.

Joel 2

1 Blow the trumpet in Jerusalem£! Sound the alarm on my holy mountain! Let everyone tremble in fear because the day of the Lord is upon us. 2 It is a day of darkness and gloom, a day of thick clouds and deep blackness. Suddenly, like dawn spreading across the mountains, a mighty army appears! How great and powerful they are! The likes of them have not been seen before and never will be seen again.

3 Fire burns in front of them and follows them in every direction! Ahead of them the land lies as fair as the Garden of Eden in all its beauty. Behind them is nothing but desolation; not one thing escapes. 4 They look like tiny horses, and they run as fast. 5 Look at them as they leap along the mountaintops! Listen to the noise they make—like the rumbling of chariots, like the roar of a fire sweeping across a field, or like a mighty army moving into battle.

6 Fear grips all the people; every face grows pale with fright. 7 The attackers march like warriors and scale city walls like trained soldiers. Straight forward they march, never breaking rank. 8 They never jostle each other; each moves in exactly the right place. They lunge through the gaps, and no weapon can stop them. 9 They swarm over the city and run along its walls. They enter all the houses, climbing like thieves through the windows.

10 The earth quakes as they advance, and the heavens tremble. The sun and moon grow dark, and the stars no longer shine. 11The Lord leads them with a shout! This is his mighty army, and they follow his orders. The day of the Lord is an awesome, terrible thing. Who can endure it?

A Call to Repentance

12 That is why the Lord says, "Turn to me now, while there is time! Give me your hearts. Come with fasting, weeping, and mourning. 13 Don’t tear your clothing in your grief; instead, tear your hearts." Return to the Lord your God, for he is gracious and merciful. He is not easily angered. He is filled with kindness and is eager not to punish you. 14 Who knows? Perhaps even yet he will give you a reprieve, sending you a blessing instead of this terrible curse. Perhaps he will give you so much that you will be able to offer grain and wine to the Lord your God as before!15 Blow the trumpet in Jerusalem! Announce a time of fasting; call the people together for a solemn meeting. 16 Bring everyone—the elders, the children, and even the babies. Call the bridegroom from his quarters and the bride from her private room. 17 The priests, who minister in the Lord’s presence, will stand between the people and the altar, weeping. Let them pray, "Spare your people, Lord! They belong to you, so don’t let them become an object of mockery. Don’t let their name become a proverb of unbelieving foreigners who say, ‘Where is the God of Israel? He must be helpless!’"

The David's Of The Hour
Heidi Cummins

I am raising up my David's in this hour,- I have been preparing them, steadying them, rooting them in Me. They are like steel. No, they are like titanium. They will not only use the sling-shot effectively, but these that I am raising up, will also cut off the heads of Goliath in the land. Sharply and decisively. They are indestructible, unaware of the fray around them. They do what they are supposed to do. What they have been born to do. Nothing can stop them. Many consider them violent. They care not what people think of them. They only do what their Father asks them to do. They are fearless. They are "lightening-rods" in the Hand of the Lord. They are a prized possession. They cannot be stopped. They devour all that is in their path. Woe to those that try and oppose them. Those that oppose them are annihilated without mercy. They are hated with the most perfect hatred. They are hated for their single-minded devotion to the Lord. But they are steadfast. They are not moved. Who can withstand their assault? They trample on their enemies. They are successful in all they have been called to do. They are given the Spirit without limits. Who can stand before them? Who can oppose them? They are victorious and mighty. They have been prepared for the hour at hand. They are deadly in their accuracy. Tremble in the presence of the Holy ones. Tremble in the presence of the Lord. Does not His Word come to pass as it is written? All that has been written will come to pass. Look and see the Holy ones who stand on the mountain of the Lord. They are coming. The David's of the hour.

Rest Until the Rider Comes
Beverly Juelsgaard-Fischer

June 4, 2005

Again I say, rest, rest, rest – wait on Me, for I say to you the days ahead will not be easy. But know that through Me all things are possible.

For even as the wheels of change turn around you – you must sit in the eye of the storm. For the enemy seeks to pull you into it. DO NOT ENTER. I say to you, “DO NOT ENTER into the evil that lurks around you. For the enemy seeks to tie your hands, feet, and mouth, to keep you from going forward in My kingdom. Yet I say to you, that he will not stop that which I have placed in you. For I say, sit and rest. Know that you have crossed over the threshold and your future approaches you. The rider is coming (I saw a rider coming toward me, from the distance on a horse, with a scroll / document / contract in his hand.) Know that even as he approaches that you are ready for what I am giving you. Know that it will appear to be much – but do not fear, for what it appears to be – for know again, that I, Your God, Your Father, and Master am in your corner. I AM on your side, and what appears to be much in the eyes of man is only possible through My grace and mercy. You will rise up to the challenge and My glory will rise up through you. Know that you have been given great favor this day and that you have come out of darkness and into My Light – that My light will shine forth from you into the uttermost parts of the world - that I will use you for My Glory. Know that even now, the enemy trembles at what I have placed in you for he greatly fears what is coming in the days ahead, for he knows that I have won the war, yet he refuses to give up for he thinks there is hope through his corruption of man.

His hope lies in what is now happening around the world. His hope lies in deception, corruption, and death.

But know that My army is rising. My army is coming forth in all of My Glory. My army will overcome all that is placed before it, for it is filled with MY GLORY and MY OVERCOMING SPIRIT and it will not give up until it has defeated all evil.

So rest, in peace, My daughter, for the Army of the Lord is waiting with you, for My Word, for My Timing, and for Me to say, “GO, NOW, IT IS TIME.” Rest until the rider comes, for much will be yours in the days ahead. Rest and wait. Rest to prepare for what is coming. Know that I have it all in My hands – for I am in control.

Horsemen At The Gates And Angels Of Light
Beverly Juelsgaard-Fischer

June 25, 2005

As you go on this new journey in your life – BE RELEASED! – and KNOW THAT I AM GOD. Know that I have you in the palm of My hand, that I will protect and provide for you.

Rest, rest, continue to rest until the rider comes. For the rider comes in with a mighty wind of change, a change that will manifest itself greatly in your life, and the lives of those around and near you. For lives will not be the same.

For I come with great force and great passion for My people that I have called forth from the north, south, east, and west. I come also with gentleness. For again, should you choose not to change – I will not force you, but you also choose then to not come forth into the next move that will come forth on the earth, the next move that will shake Heaven and earth greatly. For, the horsemen are at the gates of every territory, every city, every region, and every nation. I say the horsemen are at the gates.

I looked up and saw thousands of riders on horses at huge iron gates that were very heavy and closed. But I knew in my spirit that a simple breath from the Lord would easily open these to allow the army of the Lord to enter.

Then I heard, WAKE UP! WAKE UP, OH SLEEPING ONES! WAKE UP! For I call you now to come forth into My plans and purposes, not into the plans and purposes of man. Know which plans are of man and which are of Me – seek Me. Join Me in My counsel chambers. Ask of Me, that I might show you what is to come – of what is of the days ahead, that you would be prepared – that you would be ready to choose.

I then saw many individuals in the counsel chambers of the Lord – many were on their faces, seeking Him for revelation.

Again I say, much change will come forth in the days ahead. Get ready now for what is coming. Rest, that you might gather strength. Rest that you will know Me when you see Me, that you will not be deceived by angels who pose as angels of light. (2 Corinthians 11:14)

I saw then a force of angels released from hell, who were dark, but as they approached the light they became lighter and appeared to look like the heavenly angels; but I knew they were not. They were dispersing to all parts of the earth and being sent to all people - that there would be a choice that would have to be made by people on earth.

For there are those who continue to seek to destroy My Kingdom.

You must be alert and ready. You must be aware. You must know the difference between light and dark. You must not compromise. For snares have been set in the darkness to capture those who are unawares, those who are not alert or ready. Be ready, for I come.

Rise Up With Words Of Victory

Yolanda Ballard

Jan 16, 2005

Rest assured that I know everything that you are going through this day. Even though the trials come your way, it is I who is in control of the wind and the waves. Remember when I first called you by my side, and the rage of the enemy burned brightly against you? But you stood firm no matter what you felt and saw. You didn't waver in unbelief, because you trusted in My faithfulness to keep you safe.

And now I AM calling you even closer, and the enemy doesn't like what he sees, because I AM raising up an army that will not waver in unbelief. Anything of the enemy that will be hurled their way will be repelled by the blinding light of My glory and love, Yes, I AM raising up an army that will not waver and will set their heads like flint against the enemy and will continue to take the land.

They are determined to possess their inheritance no matter what the enemy says to them, because they know he's a liar and the father of lies, and they know what is rightfully theirs. They know that the nations are their inheritance. They know that whatever ground that their foot will touch will be theirs, because they are claiming it for My kingdom to come and for My will to be done.

So be strong. Do not waver in unbelief because of what you might feel or see. Be still and see My hand move on your behalf. Fear not and stand firm and see My salvation for I AM the King of glory and I reign mightily. Once you make up your mind to stand firm, then wait upon Me patiently believing I will keep My word to you for all of My promises are "yes" and "Amen" to you.

This is the day to rise up and be strong for there is not to be any defeat in your vocabulary just words of victory. You are to proclaim only My truth and never to repeat the lies of the evil one. Spread only My good news and never anything the enemy is doing. Never bring any glory to the acts of destruction and defeat the enemy may bring your way or across the globe. Only proclaim truth, and you will see My power over-compensate the works of the enemy, for this is the day to only rejoice and to be glad.

Don't allow the trials of life to weigh you down. Be free in Me and see my glory fall. You are My mighty army, and I will flow mightily through you. Keep your heart shielded with My love. Keep your mind covered with My blood. Keep only words of victory flowing from your mouth, and see the enemy scattered before you. I AM raising you up this day. If I AM for you, who can be against you?

Revelation, Wisdom and Knowledge

Dan Williams

Releasing the Spirit of Revelation, Wisdom
& Knowledge - Dan Williams

For I hear the Spirit of the Lord speaking, and the Lord says, “I will release revelation in this year. For this year has been a crossing over, a threshold to a new season. A new season that will also bring forth new revelation. For many of my people have been in the old season. They have walked and moved as in times past, but things have now changed. The Spirit of God says things have changed. This is a new time and a new season. A threshold, a doorway entrance is now being opened into revelation this year, says God. My people have dreamed of and sought for more revelation and they have not attained it as yet. But this shall be given to you, says the Spirit of God. I shall reveal and unveil my Son in this year in a new and a profound way. A way in which My people have not yet seen. For my people have a hunger that has risen up within them. Many of you have became so hungry that you cannot do without more revelation and knowledge of who I am and my purpose for your life. And therefore, says God, even your Father, I shall bring forth revelation. I shall bring it forth new to you. Just as a baby that experiences new things, says God, my people like new babies shall experience something new within this year, says the Spirit of Grace. The Spirit of Revelation, Wisdom, and Knowledge will be loosed and be released upon this land. And you shall rise up in your inner man such as you have not experienced in times past. My people have been in bondage to this and to that. But the Lord says bondages shall fall off of my people like shackles of those in prison. They shall fall off, says the Spirit of God, for I am bringing release in this year. I am bringing a release not only of revelation, but a release to my people to bring them out. For my people, you must come out of something in order to enter into something new.

Do not look to the left nor to the right, says the Spirit of God, because it is not there. You shall not find it at your right hand nor shall you find it at your left. You shall not find it if you turn back, you shall only find it if you go forward in me. For I shall bring you in and out of that which you have experienced. I shall bring you into something that shall be far more glorious than that which you have known or could even imagine.

Brazil shaken and ablaze

I have something to speak to you, even this night, says the Spirit of the Lord, for Brazil. For the whole nation of Brazil shall be shaken. For Brazil shall have fire released within the nation, says God. I shall release a fire within the Nation of Brazil even in this year, says God. I shall shake the leaders of Brazil. I shall shake this nation by my hand, says God. For I have a plan and a purpose even for this people, says the Spirit of Grace. And this shall be a sign and a wonder to you, says God. This shall be a sign and a wonder to my people says the Spirit of God to you. For my sons and my daughters need to see a thing and know that the thing they see - comes from me. Oh yes, you must walk by faith and not by sight. You must live and see that which is not seen through the natural eyes by through eyes of faith.

The Spirit of the Lord says, I will encourage you this year. I shall do a sign and a wonder. I shall encourage you and stir you up, says the Spirit of God. This year shall be a year of breakthrough. This year shall be a year in which you shall obtain those things that you have sought for and have not been able to obtain. Yes, you have cried out. You have had desires and you have had needs in your life, says God. Yes, these needs shall be met in this year. The shackles shall fall off. Poverty spirits shall be broken off. My people, the blinders that have blinded you to see only so far shall fall off your spiritual eyes. You shall see beyond and perceive those things that you have only desired to see and have longed for and have never been able to take a hold of them. But by my Spirit, says God, you shall embrace that which is in front of you and you shall see my hand in an extended way such as never before. For signs, wonders and miracles shall be released upon this land, says God.

America Is Mine

Oh yes, Brazil shall be a sign and a wonder but America is mine, says the Spirit of God. I have my man back in the White House. He has been put there by my finger, says God. America shall have a season. America shall have a season of grace, a season of prosperity, a season of economical prosperity, says God.

There are doubters and scoffers that will say that it shall all fall to pieces in the next year or two, but the Lord says Nay, it shall not! I shall prosper this land says the Spirit of God. I shall prosper this land for a few. To those whose heart has been right toward me. Those who have called upon my name. They have turned from their own ways and have turned to mine. Therefore, I am bringing healing into this land, says God.

Many of you have longed for your loved ones to come out of darkness and into light. Many of you have prayed and said, ‘When will this thing be?’ In this year you shall see many of them come in, says God. You shall see harvest come your way. It shall be a harvest of souls and a harvest of your family. A harvest in your health, a harvest in your finances, a harvest, number one, in your relationship with me, says God. For intimacy shall fall upon you, says God. Just like the bride adorning herself to meet her husband, I shall robe you with intimacy this year, says God. I shall give you a spirit to be able to separate yourself unto me and in this year, you shall be able to come into this place with me. You have sought to do this in the past but you have never found the time nor the energy, says God. You have always been drawn to this and to that, says the Spirit of God. But in this year, I shall release you. I shall cause a great release. I shall blow upon you with the wind of my Spirit, says God. You shall be able to pull yourself back from those things that have held you in bondage to get into that place with me where you can hear my voice. A place in which you shall hear my voice and experience my presence. For in my presence, there is fullness of joy. At my right hand, there are pleasures evermore.

I long, I long for you to experience this with me, says God. I long for the intimate time with you, says the Spirit of God. For it is then that I can download the things of the kingdom unto you. It is then that I can reload you with those things that I need to have within you so that I can cause those things to flow through you. I can reload you and remove all that stuff that has been crowded into your minds and have crowded me out. All the cares and the concerns of this world. The worries of how you are going to make it have crowded me out of your life, my people. The worries of what you are going to wear, the worry of where you are going to live. You are worried about what you are going to drive. You are worried about what you are going to eat and how you are going to pay your bills, says the Spirit of God. But I shall breathe upon you. I am going to move within your midst. I shall raise you out of the ashes and beauty shall be yours, says the Spirit of God. The oil of joy shall fall upon you, my children. Laughter shall come in your midst again. For you shall see and you shall rejoice and be glad for I, the Lord has done it. It is my hand that shall bring you out and up.

Yes, it is I who has brought you out and has raised you up, says God. Do not look back any longer, my people. Don’t shake your head any longer at your problems, just shake your head at the devil, put your finger up to his face, and declare, ‘Devil, you have lost! Devil, you have lost and my Jesus has already won and gave me the victory! And I have the victory that overcomes this world.

I remind you of my Word, my children. Go into my Word and eat my Word because it shall be nourishment to you. This year when you feast upon my Word, you will find so much more. You shall see so much more this year that you have not seen in years gone by. For my revelation now shall come upon you. I shall cover you with it, says the Spirit of the Lord.

The Wind of the Spirit is Moving Along the East Coast

Dan Williams

A Word regarding The East Coast, New York, Italy and Cures for Various Illnesses.

For the wind is blowing. For my wind is blowing upon the east, says God. My wind is blowing across the east of this nation, says the Spirit of the Lord. And I shall blow upon the East Coast, says God. Down from Maine and all along the coastline shall my wind begin to blow, shall my fire begin to glow, shall my people begin to see. They shall begin to see, says God. This is a strange thing you say, 'We already see." No, you do not see. You do not see what you will see. You shall begin to see what you need to see, says the Spirit of the Lord, not what you want to see.

My people want to see things. They want to perceive certain things from their own intellectual understanding, but I shall open them up like a flower, says God. I shall cause them to bloom and pollinate them with a revelation. A revelation that shall burn like fire. A revelation that shall burn like fire, says God. A revelation that shall blow like wind even from the East Coast and through the nations, starting from this border, says God. I shall move in this land and you shall hear it. You shall hear of it. It shall be noised abroad.

Remember in my Word of how when the Word went forth, miracles, signs and wonders began to happen? It was noised abroad. It could not be quiet. There was great joy in those cities, says God. And there shall be great joy in these cities, says the Spirit of the Lord. For my wind shall blow and it shall be noised abroad that visitation has hit the East Coast in a new way.

Don't say in your heart, "Well, we are already there. We have already attained it. We are already walking in such revelation. We have already seen your hand touch this East Coast." Don't say this, my children. For you have not yet seen it. You have not yet seen what I will do. You have not yet heard what I will say. You have not yet experienced what I will cause you to experience in this next time and season, says God. You shall experience that which others, others, others have desired to experience and were not able to do so. For they were not prepared. They were not ready. And therefore I could not move in this way.

I have prepared a people that have been hidden out. I have prepared a few choice people that have been hidden out. This is not because I love them more, says God. It is because they were willing to hear. They were willing to change. They were willing to suffer. They were willing to take what came their way and give me the glory through the fire. And therefore, even as Shadrach, Meshach, and AbedNego, as they gave me glory, as they didn't bow, as they didn't bow and conform to their surroundings I delivered them even in the fire, says God. Their bonds were burnt off. Their bonds came off of them in the midst of their calamity. In the midst of their fire that they experienced, they became free. Therefore, these choice ones in which I have chosen, I have called to be leaders, says the Spirit of God. Is it you? Are you one, says the Spirit of the Lord? Are you one of those that will hear my voice even now, says God?

Ah! Are you one of those? For if you are one, I am saying come now! Come up higher! Hear and attain! Hear and attain the wisdom and the knowledge that I have for you. Take that which I want to deliver to your hand now. I desire, I desire to use you. I desire to see my church grow in this year. I desire, I desire fruit. I desire souls to come out of darkness.

I desire New York to be touched. Where the Statue of Liberty stands tall, where the Statue of Liberty stands tall, says God, my people are in great darkness. They are in such bondage in this land, says the Spirit of God. Even as that Statue is suppose to proclaim liberty, may my Spirit be and accepted and received in this land. May you receive it. May you corporate with me and I shall set these captives free, says God. I shall bring those out of darkness into light. And in this year there shall be a massive move of my Spirit. There shall be a mighty move of my Spirit because you my children have sought my face. You have got upon your knees. You have cried out upon my name and you have believed this thing and therefore I shall honor you even in this coming year, says God.

And I do hear those crying out in Italy, says God. I have heard those who have been crying out in Italy, says the Spirit of Grace. I will move in Italy. I will move in this place, says the Spirit of God. You shall even see my hand in this year, says God. You shall see some changes take place in your land. For you have called upon my name and even as it is written in my Word, "Call upon me and I shall answer you and show you great and mighty things which thou knowest not."

You have called upon me and I shall meet with you. I shall meet with you and I shall show myself strong on your behalf. I shall touch Italy this year, also. I shall touch people in Italy and leaders in this land, says God. Those in high places. Those in the court system and those in legal areas. I shall move upon this land, says the Spirit of God. For I have heard the supplications of my people. I have heard the cries of those who have been between the door posts. For they have placed themselves there and have fallen on their face. I have heard their cries, says God. I shall move in this land even so in this year you shall see these things begin to come to pass.

Revival Will Come To Europe

Is revival coming to Europe?

John Walker, Regional Vice President of FGBMFI Europe, a movement which aims to evangelise businesspeople, read a report by Peter Spreckley telling of an evangelistic revival in his movement in Nicaragua. "When I read that report, I felt a strong desire that a similar movement would pour out across the great continent of Europe, which has become so dark spiritually. I lay awake in bed in the early hours of Monday morning, thinking about the report. I sensed the Holy Spirit saying 'Revival will come to Europe, the glory of the Lord will cover the earth, as the waters cover the sea. Now is the time to remain strong, remain faithful and seek perfection in all you do. Now are the days of preparation. Do not remain lukewarm or self-contented, but remain strong as my faithful remnant in these days and this generation.'"

Learning from Nicaragua The following excerpts from Peter Spreckley's report show what stirred John Walker: "What we saw and experienced was overwhelming. We were challenged out of our long held understanding of FGBMFI's vision, as it was initially formulated in the book 'The Happiest People on Earth': at the most, monthly outreaches, with one or two prayer meetings in between. Our Chapter meetings generally follow the pattern laid out in the Chapter manual. In the fellowship's 'glory days', we had a good spiritual harvest, but realistically, we have to accept that the harvest has been decreasing, as did the number of Chapters, members and regular meetings. There were one or two exceptions, of course, but I don't think anyone would challenge that assessment. And yet we are called to impact and change our nation!

275,600 attend evangelistic dinners The following statistics give an impression of what we saw and heard in Nicaragua: There are over 530 Chapters in Nicaragua, which has a little less than 6 million inhabitants. 130 of those Chapters are Women's Chapters. There are around 100 Chapters in the capital, Managua. They expect to open one new chapter each week. Every Chapter invites people to an evangelistic dinner each week, and each time, an average of ten new people attend. At one such dinner, 22 of the 40 guests were there for the first time. 530 (Chapters) x 52 (weeks) x 10 (new people) = 275,600 new guests each year. Every third weekend, a seminar is held from Friday evening until Sunday midday for leaders and guests who react during the dinners. We attended one of these seminars, with 700 participants, 80% of which were there for the first time! The seminars cover many areas of the Christian life, such as marriage, giving, sanctification, being a good citizen etc..

94,500 respondents per year Seminars for youths and women are held between these weekends, each with over 3,000 participants. Three or four times each year, various regions hold revival meetings. We took part in one such event in Ocotal in north-western Nicaragua. Over 700 men took holiday from work for at least a part of the week. In one year, there were some 2,500 events, at which 94,500 people are reported to have called on Jesus as their saviour. Miraculously, in our European eyes, there seemed to be no door closed to the men from the Fellowship. We went with them into schools, where every class stopped while a member gave testimony, restaurants, local radio, the police station, the bus station, the ministry of employment, the list is endless. Always the same formula, using the vision of the Fellowship to explain why they are there, testimony and prayer. The hearers are then advised of the local chapter dinner dates. Sometimes there was individual prayer afterwards. We noted the authority and confidence with which the men spoke. How can this be? Well the answer has to be "God". But there is a history leading up to this great move of the Spirit and beyond. It starts, in 1991 (when the civil war had just ended) with a prophesy to Nicaragua, which is now being fulfilled.

Devoted fishing How do they do it? We see three things: commitment, fishing, testimony. The commitment is clearly visible, from the leadership to the last member. Hence the rapid expansion of the Chapters, participation of the seminars etc.. There would be no 'fired up' new members if there were none inviting them. So the commitment is not to the fellowship but to reaching men, born out of a deep life-changing personal experience of Jesus, leading in turn to a deep desire to see others experience the same transfer from the kingdom of darkness into the kingdom of light. So they are fishing every day, and the results speak for themselves. The tool they use is exclusively testimony.

What does that mean for Europe? Every attempt to analyse the situation must begin with the recognition that God is present (in Nicaragua) and is working out his purposes. However, we must ask ourselves "Why isn't this happening here?", "Can that happen here too?" and "Do we want it to happen here?"

Why isn't this happening here? It is hard to find an answer to this question which does not include excuses. Maybe it is not God's timing. But it is the same God and the same vision. How committed are we? And how seriously do we fish? Is our limited effort limiting God? Have we become 'religious' in the way we run our meetings? Should we put our rules and manuals aside and look at things through Nicaragua's eyes? We are tempted to make excuses: we are so busy at home, in our church and at work - but we can always find time to do what we want. That brings us back to commitment. Do we really love those who are not yet in the Kingdom? Do we really understand the call on each Christian, "go and make disciples"? Do we understand that we will have to account for our obedience to this command? "Unless the Lord builds the house, the builders labour in vain". If we are to respond to what He seems, in my understanding, to be showing us then we need to hear from Him. We need His revelation and we need Him to go ahead of us. Switzerland: Fathers and sons together A Christian camp called "The Levites' camp" was held near Winterthur, Switzerland, at the end of July 2005. One of the speakers was Matthias Kuhn, better known as Kuno, a young evangelist and house church planter from Thun, Switzerland. This Friday Fax is an extract of journalist Peter Schmid's recording of his talk about reconciled generations.

The next generation "We often hear prophetic words that it will be the coming generation, or the next generation, that will bring the breakthrough. In the passion rising among youth in the past few years, I also sense a pain. A pain, because I really do not believe that the coming generation will bring the breakthrough. I believe that only Jesus brings the breakthrough. Jesus does not glorify himself just through one generation, but through people uniting and joining in community, people in true relationship. A relationship and unity between the generations is definitely a part of that.

A key I believe that Malachi 4:6, the last verse of the Old Testament, is immensely important for our days. God says that he will again turn the hearts of the fathers to their sons and mothers to their daughters, to protect the nation from a curse.

Holding hands Friends, I don't believe that the next generation will reach our continent with the gospel, but I do believe that the blessing we so greatly desire will come when we humbly submit to one another and hold each others' hands. I believe that the glory of the Lord will break through when the younger generation takes their place in the line down from their elders and honours them.

The great lie We have believed a great humanist lie: we believe that we only become mature by making ourselves independent. That is not true. The truth is that the true quality of God's Kingdom (Eph. 4:16) can only break through when we make ourselves dependent on one another. The word 'dependent' often gives us the shivers - myself included.

Leader, or father? We have given the word 'dependent' a wrong meaning, understanding dependence on people exercising leadership, not fatherhood or motherhood. I do not believe that we should be dependent on leaders, but I do believe that we should depend on fathers and mothers. A leader desires to see the next generation continue his ministry; fathers, that the next generation comes with power.

A call to the younger generation To the younger generation I say, if we do not return to the hearts of our fathers and mothers, there may be a few more stories and a few more books about us at the end of our lives, but the Kingdom of God will not break through in a new quality. We desperately need to return to the place of dependence on our fathers and mothers. For years, I thought that I and my generation would bring radical commitment. I made myself independent from my parents. Only recently, after preaching about it many times, did I realise that I have to put it into practice.

Honouring our fathers I have wonderful parents. I called my father and said "I want to have a day of retreat with you". I wanted that once before, but I was also glad that he did not respond. Now I knew that the time had come. I had to again give my father his mandate to be my father. We sat together in silence. I knew inside that I had to lay down all my rebellion, pride, and the thought that my generation is the one, and say "Father, I need you."

Walking together Fathers and mothers, my appeal to you is not to believe that we do not need you. Don't believe we don't need you just because you don't know what an MP3 is. We need you desperately, not in order to use you to become something better, but because we know that the Kingdom of God can only come in quality when we walk together. We have four children; I am my son's father and trainer. My son plays handball, as I used to. When I'm sitting on the trainer's bench, my son does not need a trainer, but a father. One day, he was not doing well. He was playing in a tournament, shooting again and again - and missing every time. I called him over and told him to pull his socks up, get his game in order. The trainer had spoken. He went back out and shot again - and missed. "That can't be true!" I thought.

Trust and encourage Then God spoke to me, saying "Timo doesn't need a trainer, he needs a father." I went to him, and knew: correcting him is not the right thing to do now. I think that is the pain keeping the generations apart in our hearts; we have been very good at criticising each other, telling each other where our place is. Friends, living in reconciliation means trusting one another. I told my son, "Timo, I trust you and believe in you." That also happened in the story of Elijah and Elisha. It is the key to God's Kingdom coming in a new quality in our nation.

Where God's beauty shines If there is one thing I desire, it is that God reveals the beauty of mothers and fathers going forward in unity with their children, their hearts turned to one another. The time is ripe for a reformation in my heart. Let me no longer seek that which serves me and my generation, and how to become more radical, but how we as a young generation can seek to honour our fathers and mothers. That doesn't start up here on the stage, but in our own homes. I wish us courage. Source: Peter Schmid.

Redwoodland

Conrad Lampan

A few years ago I was scheduled to minister in the city of Porterville in California; it was my first time there. I arrived the night before the services and was lodged at a hotel in the area. That night I had a dream that I never shared with any of you because I did not have the interpretation or found any meaning for it until now. This dream never left me, it is one of those things that keep coming back all the time, and just a moment ago God showed in a very simple way a very simple albeit powerful meaning. I find it very significant that God has showed this interpretation now and not years ago; we all believe that God is just about to release a mighty revival in California, so sharing this dream and its interpretation comes just on due time.

In the dream we were approaching a meeting place out of town it seemed; it was a not very tall building, although from the distance it seemed to be very wide to the sides. It was dusk time. I saw many people I would say literally flocking into the building to the point that I wondered -in the dream- how could that building, as big as it looked extending to the sides, contain so many people. As we approached the place I could see a sign written on the wall on top of the door, like those signs over the main entrance of some malls or the like. The sign read "Redwoodland". Then I woke up.

Since the next day I was to minister at a church in Porterville that did not have their own building yet, I though I might have dreamt of the City Center where they were meeting, but when we got there it was not the building of my dream, and I could not find that sign anywhere. I have ministered in quite a few places in California but have never found that place, or seen a sign with those words. I have also performed quite a few searches over the internet trying to find such a place but never found it. So without finding that place I could not think of any interpretation to the dream... until today.

I asked a friend in Redwood City, in Northern California if there could be any such place with such name in that area, and he wrote back to me a short email unaware that he was giving me the interpretation of the dream. Here is what he said:

"In answer to your question, no, there is not place in California that I've heard of called Redwood Land. California is, however, the only place on earth where you can find the Sequoia Sempervirens, a redwood tree growing along the California coastal area. They grow to be the largest living things on earth and are quite impressive. So you might, unofficially, call California, Redwoodland."

I am so excited about this! Combined with the vision about fire in the triangle which I shared years ago, and what several others have received about an imminent move of God in California this dream and this interpretation right at this particular time makes it doubly exciting!

Based on the email from my friend I believe the building I saw in the dream (although it could exist physically somewhere) actually represents not a building but the whole region. If one approaches California from the sea it's quite wide extending to the sides just as the building I saw. Without entering into analyzing every single detail, I believe the meaning is that California will be receiving the nations of the world, people without number who will come to the meeting place the Holy Spirit is setting in that region.

Be Blessed

Submitting To Pentecost's Sword

Reuven And Mary Lou Doron

"My sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me." (John 10)

There was a time when man and his wife were naked and unashamed. Their fellowship with God and with one another was perfect, unhindered and pure. Together, as one, they walked with God in the cool of the evening in the garden of delight and knew no lack. This still is the highest privilege and calling of husbands and wives, and one which we ourselves strive to attain to daily as we walk out God's redemption in our own lives and marriage.

After the fall, however, things dramatically changed. The sound of God's voice seeking fellowship in the garden now triggered FEAR instead of joy. The guilt and shame in the hearts of Adam and his wife filtered God's life-giving voice, distorted it, and produced a horrific chain reaction in their wounded souls. The first couple on earth was now driven toward hiding, cover-up, denial and blame shifting, culminating in the "super-sin" of all -- accusing God for their calamity (Genesis 3:8-13).

Eve was deceived by the serpent. Adam was lured by her. In his defense, looking to deflect the responsibility for his actions, Adam said to God, "The woman whom Thou gavest to be with me, SHE gave me of the tree . . . " (Genesis 3:12). In other words, as Adam framed it, it was God's mistake that the woman was placed by his side in the first place, only to mislead him on that terrible day.

Then and there was born the enmity between the genders as distrust, anger and disappointment became part of each couple's experience from then on. We ourselves found that breaking down that dividing wall is a daily discipline and an ongoing and deliberate labor of love in order to appropriate what Christ has won for us and to defend our marital oneness in Him.

Once Adam turned on God, questioning His integrity as the sovereign creator of our lives and circumstance, it was all over! Unacknowledged and unrepented sin turned into a full-blown rebellion, and mankind became the enemy of God. Ousted from the garden, a flaming SWORD now blocked the way back to God and to eternal life. The Hebrew word for that SWORD in Genesis 3:24 is HEREV.

Creation was now cursed. Demonic forces roamed the earth freely and man was dead in sin. In this darkened atmosphere, God's voice, the source of all life and light, became a threat. The further mankind wandered from the garden and the more independent they became, the less they wanted and were able to hear that voice. It triggered FEAR and RESENTMENT in the hearts due to the unresolved guilt.

However, there is always a choice. As the decades and centuries passed, some heard God's voice, though not always obeying Him. Cain, Enoch, Noah, Job, Hagar, Pharaoh, Abimelech, Abraham, Lot, Laban, Rebekah and others, all interacted with the living word. Some sought Him, others were sought by Him. Some harkened and submitted to His voice, others disregarded and rejected it. The record of their lives and legacy is found in Scripture, demonstrating the stormy relationship between God and mankind.

The First Pentecost

Redeemed out of Egypt, young Israel arrived at the foot of Mt. Sinai during the season of Pentecost. The Hebrew nation was there to receive their calling -- God's Laws for life and prosperity which were to propel them into a global priesthood. But God's voice, once again, was too much to bear.

"And all the people perceived the thunder and the lightning flashes and the sound of the trumpet and the mountain smoking; and when the people saw it, they trembled and stood at a distance. Then they said to Moses, 'Speak to us yourself and we will listen; but let not God speak to us, lest we die.'" (Ex. 20:18,19)

Many, unwilling or unable to hear and receive the full impact of God's voice, still choose to hear only man instead. Our movements are filled with spectators, not unlike the sports arenas of the world. Some perform, others are entertained, but how many hear and obey the voice of God?

Moses, descending from the smoking mountaintop with the tablets written by God's finger in his arms, found Israel worshiping the golden calf. Moved with wrath, "Moses stood in the gate of the camp, and said, 'Whoever is for the LORD, come to me!' And all the sons of Levi gathered together to him. And he said to them, 'Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, "Every man of you put his SWORD upon his thigh, and go back and forth from gate to gate in the camp, and kill every man his brother, and every man his friend, and every man his neighbor."' So the sons of Levi did as Moses instructed, and about THREE THOUSAND men of the people fell that day." (Ex. 32)

The name of that desert mountain is Mt. Horeb, or Horev in the original text. This is the same root word used for the flaming SWORD found in Genesis 3. As the bloody drama unfolded on that terrible day, a SWORD, once again, separated mankind from the divine presence as the Levite swords swept thorough the camp at the foot of the mountain of the SWORD.

Three thousand souls perished in the judgment of the Lord on that first Pentecost. 1,500 years later, again at Pentecost, 3,000 souls were dramatically touched by eternity under a different dispensation as they were fished out of the Jerusalem mob by Peter's message and received eternal life.

Perhaps we haven't fully appreciated the words of the apostle in II Corinthians 3:6, saying, " . . . the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life." The same God who killed 3,000 by the giving of the Law also revived 3,000 by the giving of the Spirit. Why? Because of Jesus' blood and sacrificial death at Passover.

God's two-edged SWORD serves both life and death. The sword of the Spirit is the Word, and in order to return to God and live, we must first die. We must pass through the flaming SWORD separating us from Him in order to re-enter the garden. That HEREV is His word of truth that convicts us of our sin, rebellion and desperate need. In today's Pentecost, after the Passover has been fulfilled, the same word that kills us also revives us by the power of the Spirit that has now come.

We ourselves passed through the depth of God's dealings, judgments and cleansing of the sin of adultery and unfaithfulness in recent years. Often, we cried out to Him for strength and grace to submit to His sword working its work of death and life in our hearts, for He kills and He makes alive by the same word.

"For the word of God is living and active and sharper than any two-edged sword, and piercing as far as the division of soul and spirit, of both joints and marrow, and able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart." Hebrews 4:12

Strategy For What's Coming
Brenda Dowdin

This morning I had a dream, and it is still very clear in my heart and mind. In the dream I was talking with a gal I had gone to High School with. This gal came from a very large family, she was one of 15 siblings. She being the youngest. In the dream I was asking her how they had remained together all these years with so many different personalities? She started to tell me the secret of their success, but it was so hectic and noisy where we were standing that her words sounded like bits and pieces of words. Again I got very close to her and said, I can't hear you, would you please repeat that? She got right next to my left ear and said this, "Courage and Unity!" Then I woke from the dream.

This is what I sensed as I waited on the Lord. There is a shaking coming. This shaking will try and come against the very fiber of our society, the family! The remedy is courage and unity. But, it will take a listening ear, one that is purposely trying to hear the spirit in order to succeed in this area. It is not just about our own little family, but our parents and in-laws too. There is a bringing together of the family that the Lord is about. Unity from the grandfathers to the generations of grand children, and great grand children and everything in between. A cleansing of the 3rd and 4th generations. The Father is wanting to bring the blessings down and remove the cursing. He wants to use those of us who know him to bring this about in each family! We must ask him our part in it?

Family is on his heart. We can do this. Take courage and move towards unity.

1 Peter 3::8-12 "Finally, all of you be of one mind, having compassion for one another; love as brothers, be tenderhearted, be courteous; not returning evil for evil or reviling for reviling, but on the contrary blessing, knowing that you were called to this, that you may inherit a blessing. For He who would love life and see good days. Let him refrain his tongue form evil. And his lips from speaking deceit. Let him turn away from evil and do good. Let him seek peace and pursue it. For the eyes of the Lord are on the righteous. And his ears are open to their prayers, But the face of the Lord is against those who do evil."

Persevering Faith
Brenda Dowdin

I have seen your persevering faith. It pleases me so.... Persevering faith is the "purse", the "treasure chest", of reward for my saints, the "Crown". You have waited long, you have at many times felt like giving up, sitting down and saying, "What's the use...", but your love for me and your determination to follow through on my word and promises. Promises that I have whispered to you.... and so now is your time to enter into the promised land.

When you were in the desert I circumcised your heart, yes it was painful, but I never left your side. The land of Canaan is before you, and the desert behind you, your at the gate. There is a last push, just as a mother giving birth. The battle is at the gate, but I will usher you through the gate. A fresh wind will come upon you for this final push. Don't let weariness overtake you, for you are my Overcomer, you are my Beloved, you are my Priests and Kings and I will usher you in. Let obedience guide you and discipline instruct you. You are well on your way Beloved....

"Shall I bring to the time of birth, and not cause delivery? says the Lord. "Shall I who cause delivery shut up the womb? says your God." Isa 66:9

"Because you have kept My command to persevere, I also will keep you from the hour of trial which shall come upon the whole world, to test those who dwell on the earth. Behold, I am coming quickly!

Hold fast what you have, that no one may take your crown." Rev 3:10-11

"And let us not grow weary while dong good, for in due season we shall reap if we do not lose heart." Gal 6:9

Full Circle The Restoration Process
Brenda Dowdin

Beloved,

Where there are fragmented relationships I am bringing healing. Relationships that were intimate at one time, that were severally shaken are coming about full circle. It is time to re-connect with the direction of my spirit. I will bring this to pass. This will be a divine process. I have placed things in divine order. It is part of what must happen before you can be sent out "in to the new".

There is a place of "rest" coming in this "restoration process". Enjoy the process, let tears of joy come as the fullness of restoration happens....its by my spirit. It will cause healing to be released in a greater way.

The Predator Spirit....

In this next season you will see the Predator Spirit being dealt with. If you have been a victim, ask me for grace to forgive those who have hurt or offended you in this way. As you release them and forgive them, it releases my hand to deal with these who have allowed the Predator to use them. I am punishing this stronghold. I am pushing this enemy off of my Beloved One's. I see the innocent, the naive who have been used and tormented by this principality. I am dealing with it in this hour. You will see this dealt with in the church and in your society. Things done in secret are about to be exposed. The light will hit the darkness in a dramatic way..... I have heard the cry's of the innocent and it has caused my hand to act....

I am not finished with Michael Jackson. Pray for him, I have plans for him. There are things coming on the horizon.....

Beloved, There is a greater power being released in you as you pray. Don't discount the power of your prayers. They move my heart and that moves my hand on your behalf! Stand boldly before my throne and ask. I am waiting to hear your hearts cry!

Strength For Your Time of Need

Angel Dahilig

In this dream, a large number of people were captured by a Chinese occupation unit, including myself and two other Christians We were together when this happened. The officers (leaders) walked out of our sight to confer. As we were waiting to see what they would do with us, I realized that I didn't feel "ready" for this, although I had tried to prepare spiritually. Then, I realized that one may never truly "feel" ready. As I pondered this, the thought came to me, "Remember the example of your Chinese brothers and sisters before you."

Hebrews 12:1-3

1. Therefore, since we are surrounded by such *a great cloud of witnesses, let us throw off everything that hinders and the sin that so easily entagles, and let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us.
2. Let us fix our eyes on Jesus, the author and perfector of our faith, who for the joy set before him endured the cross, scorning its shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.
3. Consider him who endured such opposition from sinful men, so that you will not grow weary and lose heart.

I told the other two Christians, who were with me, to "Remember the examples of our Chinese brothers and sisters before us!", and also, "Pray, so that we will have strength for 'our time of need' ". I then dropped to my knees and began to pray in the Spirit. I did not "feel" strong, nor "ready", but I understood, as if by spiritual instinct, that this would bolster and strengthen me in my "time of need". It was like I was trying to store up, save up, all the prayers that I may need for grace later. Have you ever saved up for a house or something else, and then right before you actually bought it you saved every precious penny that you had to make sure that you would have enough? That's what this was like. Not knowing if there would be opportunity for prayer later, it was as if my prayers would be stored up to release grace at the proper time.

Luke 22:31-32
31 [Jesus said,] "Simon, Simon, Satan has asked to sift you as wheat.
32 But I have prayed for you, Simon, that your faith may not fail. And when you have turned back [to me], strengthen your brothers."

As I was praying, I started to pray outloud, as well as more loudly, and I think I stood up and walked around something while praying. I was praying both for myself and also for my companions. While doing this, I attracted the attention of one of the Chinese guards or officer or whatever he was. He came over with a sword that was sheathed. He began to spar me with the sheathed sword, and I blocked his attacks. It was as if he wanted me to grab at the sword, and thereby slip off the sheath and result in cutting myself. I knew this, and somehow the sword did become unsheathed and the blade exposed. But, somehow, I was able to grab the sword away from him and I broke it in two. It broke like a green twig, where one piece has a stringy piece still hanging from the other broken piece. That's how this sword broke, except the sword was clearly metal.
Then I awoke.

Luke 21:36
Watch ye therefore, and pray always, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and to stand before the Son of man.

Please understand, that in the scriptures, the word "watch" is used to mean "pray".

Matthew 26:41

> "Watch and pray so that you will not fall into temptation. The spirit is willing, but the body is weak."
> Mark 13:33
> "Take ye heed, watch and pray: for ye know not when the time is."
> Luke 12:39
> "And this know, that if the goodman of the house had known what hour the thief would come, he would have watched, and not have suffered his house to be broken through."
> Luke 21:34-36
> 34. And take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares.
> 35. For as a snare shall it come on all them that dwell on the face of the whole earth.
> 36. Watch ye therefore, and pray always, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and to stand before the Son of man.
> 1 Corinthians 16:13
> Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong.

In the Garden of Gethsemane, Jesus asked the three disciples who were with him, Peter, James, and John, to "watch and pray". When he returned to them and found them sleeping, he asked them, "Why could you not watch with me for one hour?"

> Matthew 26:33-45
> 33. Peter answered and said unto him [Jesus], Though all men shall be offended because of thee, yet will I never be offended.
> 34. Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, That this night, before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice.
> 35. Peter said unto him, Though I should die with thee, yet will I not deny thee. Likewise also said all the disciples.
> 36. Then cometh Jesus with them unto a place called Gethsemane, and saith unto the disciples, Sit ye here, while I go and pray yonder.
> 37. And he took with him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be sorrowful and very heavy.
> 38. Then saith he unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful, even unto death: tarry ye here, and watch with me.
> 39. And he went a little further, and fell on his face, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me: nevertheless not as I will, but as thou wilt.
> 40. And he cometh unto the disciples, and findeth them asleep, and saith unto Peter, What, could ye not watch with me one hour?
> 41. Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.
> 42. He went away again the second time, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if this cup may not pass away from me, except I drink it, thy will be done.
> 43. And he came and found them asleep again: for their eyes were heavy.
> 44. And he left them, and went away again, and prayed the third time, saying the same words.
> 45. Then cometh he to his disciples, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: behold, the hour is at hand, and the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

We are called to not fall asleep [become prayerless], but to "watch and pray" for all the saints everywhere.

> Ephesians 6:18
> Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance and supplication for all saints;

And in all things, we commit and trust ourselves unto Him who is able to keep us from falling.

Jude 1:24
Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy,

Romans 8:33-39
33. Who shall lay any thing to the charge of God's elect? It is God that justifieth.
34. Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us.
35. Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?
36. As it is written, For thy sake we are killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter.
37. Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us.
38. For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come,
39. Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Love in Christ Jesus,

Standing Against and Pulling Down Death's Reign

Dutch Sheets

March 24, 2005

As I am sure is the case with many of you, I have been following the Terri Schiavo situation in Florida very closely. Though I was already concerned and praying, an incredibly strong burden began to overwhelm me yesterday (Wednesday, March 23). As I prayed and processed, I became convinced that this situation is not just about Mrs. Schiavo. As precious as even one soul is to God, I believe this situation is all about our nation.

I feel that God is allowing it to epitomize where we are as a nation, picturing for us the death culture that has overtaken us in America. I do want to be careful at this point not to cast any dispersion on those who have had to make the excruciating decision to disconnect loved ones from life support. I have had to stand with individuals, giving them comfort and support as they made this decision for brain-dead loved ones. However, I have a very deep conviction that is not what is taking place in this case.

As this burden began to intensify yesterday, I called Chuck Pierce and Ken Malone (the Strategic Prayer Network state coordinator for Florida). He reminded me of a word Chuck gave about Florida a few months ago. Chuck prophesied, "A strategy will be uncovered out of Florida that will be very detrimental to our land. . . a strategy that will try to mature to stop the plan for this nation out of Florida, to bring confusion in this land." Chuck also told me yesterday that when he gave this word, he saw a death structure in Florida that would become an issue before the nation – that death would try to reign from there.

I feel very strongly that if we don't overcome this spirit of death, a new wave of violence and death will be released across our nation. It could manifest through suicides, terrorism, disease, euthanasia, increased abortions, murder, etc. How it manifests may vary, but I am issuing the warning: if this is allowed to continue in Florida, this spirit of death will be unleashed with a vengeance. But it is not too late to try to stop it! Begin immediately and with great diligence to do the following:

1) Ask God for more time. Pray that Terri not die, even if God has to keep her alive supernaturally for awhile.

2) Repent on behalf of our nation for allowing death to rule through greed and selfishness. Repent for our complacency and dullness to the horrible genocide in America through abortion and other means.

3) Ask God for mercy on us.

4) Stand against this spirit of death. Make biblical decrees against it. Decree that America's covenant with death will be broken (Isaiah 28:15,18), as well as anything else He gives you to pray and decree.

5) Do not turn this over to the courts. It may appear that they have the final say but they don't. For too long, the church has failed to realize that we have more authority on earth than any human institution. We lose by default. Take this situation out of their hands and rule through spiritual authority and weapons. (This is also all about the spiritual battle that is taking place over the ungodly element in our courts. This stronghold must and will come down, but the war must be won in the spiritual realm before we see complete breakthrough naturally.)

6) Pray for Governor Jeb Bush. Pray that, like the midwives in Egypt, he refuses to honor this decree of death. Pray that he realizes he is an Esther, placed where he is for such a time as this. Pray that he makes the same stand she did – "If I perish, I perish but I will do what is right in the sight of God." (see Esther 4:16). Pray against fear, compromise and political spirits. Pray for wisdom, strength and boldness. He is a good man and fighting hard. Undergird him.

Let's together break this assault. Let's say "Enough!" I am on my way to Florida as I write this. I will war from there – you war from wherever you are. Help us save Terri's life and many other lives, and keep this spirit of death from going to a new level in America. We can do it!

Settlements And A Settlement

Ephraim Frank

Shalom Fellow Israelite
April 1: 2005

Will the Jews of Gaza and Northern Samaria be transferred? Will they have to leave their homes and their businesses? That is the question. Many among them who are true Zionists and Bible believers, men and women of the faith, are going about their business as if they will be living there the rest of their lives. A group of Christians who went recently to visit each of the settlements in the Gaza strip, in order to encourage the settlers in the midst of their troublesome times, came away feeling encouraged and blessed by seeing the faith that these folks have in the faithfulness of the Elohim of Israel. These Gentile Believers also testified to having felt a “strange” oneness with these Zionist Orthodox Jews.

When in their last destination, in a settlement closest to the Egyptian border, an elder of the Christian group asked one of the children what was the best thing that has happened to him on that day. The child's answer stunned the listeners: “We didn't get shot at today”. Can you imagine living in a place where day after day you are bombed, shot at and watched by an enemy who wants you exterminated?! But what can be more disconcerting is the help that these enemies of peace, who are essentially terrorists and employ terror tactics for so called political ends, are getting from the United Nations with their resolutions, Road Maps and millions of dollars of "donations".

Scripture declares: “To everything there is a season, a time for every purpose under heaven… a time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace” (Eccl 3:1;8). It is none other than YHVH Elohim who is in control of the times and seasons. In Joel chapter 3 the prophet talks about the Valley of Jehoshafath (“Yah will Judge”). This prophecy is to take place at a time when the House of Judah is back in the land and Jerusalem is in their hands. Obviously this is the case today, along with the partitioning of Judah’s land.

“For, behold, in those days, and in that time, when I shall bring again the captivity of Judah and Jerusalem, I will also gather all nations, and will bring them down into the valley of Jehoshaphat, and will enter into judgment with them there for my people and for my heritage Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations, and parted my land” (Joel 3:1-2).

The next thing that we should be looking at therefore, during the times of restoration, is the gathering of the nations for war. “Proclaim this among the nations; prepare war, wake up the mighty men, let all the men of war draw near; let them come up: Beat your plowshares into swords, and your pruning hooks into spears: let the weak say, I am strong” (Joel 3:9-10).

It doesn’t take too much research to determine that far more money is being spent on military equipment than on development of and research in agriculture. We also may be hearing a lot about “peace”, but if we listen carefully to the News we hear much more about “war”. Even the fans of Israel’s soccer team, which has been playing for a place in the World Cup soccer tournament (the “Mondial”), yell at the top of their voices as they encourage their team in the packed out stadium: “Yisrael Milchama!" ("Israel – war!").

"Assemble and come, all you surrounding nations, and gather together…Let the nations be wakened, and come up to the Valley of Jehoshaphat; for there I will sit to judge all the surrounding nations" (Joel 11-12). What surrounding nations… are they the nations that surround the United States or Japan…?

Interestingly YHVH seems to have His eye on the destruction of the nations surrounding Judah and Jerusalem. So as we attempt at putting some of the prophetic signs together, we see that while Russia and the United States are working together to establish peace in the Middle East, they are also arming us as well as the surrounding nations for this war. Why are they doing this? Ostensibly, if the United States is going to go to war against Iran or Syria it will not do so if these countries are devoid of arms. This is also true in the case of the Palestinians. Israel cannot fight a war against sticks and stones, or with guerrillas and militias. So we, along with other interested parties, are arming them and putting them into a position so that the war games may be played "fairly". Do we dare say that this is YHVH working in the affairs of men in order to accomplish His purposes?

At the end of the Joel prophesies we read YHVH's final solution: "Egypt shall be a desolation, and Edom a desolate wilderness" (Joel 3:19). But if we look at the outcome for Judah, Jerusalem and for the rest of Israel, this is what the prophet says: "YHVH will roar from Zion, and utter His voice from Jerusalem… YHVH will be a shelter for His people, and the strength of the children of Israel…Judah shall abide forever, and Jerusalem from generation to generation… her mountains shall drip with new wine, the hills shall flow with milk, and all the brooks of Judah shall be flooded with water; a fountain shall flow from the house of YHVH and water the Valley of Acacias" (Joel 3:17-18).

All of this is accomplished by our covenant keeping Elohim so that "You shall know that I am YHVH Elohim, dwelling in Zion My holy mountain" (Joel 3:17).

May it be so!

Shabbat Shalom

Shake And Bake

Joni Ames

Dear Friends,

The Lord often prompts me regarding coming events by giving me "flash" visions or small phrases, and the term "shake & bake" has been coming to mind for some time. This week as the new fire in California showed up in the news, that term again came. Along with that, I've been laboring in concern regarding earthquakes, and the California and New Madrid fault lines had come to mind. In fact, even up to two years ago, I've been feeling that many of the next "terrors" will be due to various "natural" disasters.

This past week or so, I've also noted that there has been a drastic increase in the "flash" visions, impressions and phrases that have come, followed by related incidents in the natural. Many of you have probably been experiencing the same. I encourage you to "catch those fleeting thoughts," write them down, and see what the Lord has to say further about them. Because of those that have continued with me, I felt urged to send out this word in particular to pray regarding fires and earthquakes. (Which, by the way, could also lead to landslides and floods.)

I also felt that the Lord said "heads up" to pray regarding the possible severity of this coming winter's flu season and weather. Get whatever flu and pneumonia prevention shots you can get now, while they are available. And be sure to have your home ready for this winter in every way you can.

When these type of warnings begin to occur, I also begin to do research - by going to the Lord, through His Word, by the Spirit, and through whatever natural resources He also leads me to.

The terms "Fires" and "Shakings" can mean something literal - like natural fires and earthquakes - or they can mean trials, tribulations, and things getting "hot" or "shaken" in our lives. Regarding this word, I believe the Lord was speaking about "Fires" and "Shakings" in both the natural and spiritual realms. I feel that even our "current natural events" speak of this.

We never want to "pray against" what God may be doing - but we need to realize that He put us here to intercede for each other as well. Even if events are a result of His Judgment, and even if we were prophets, He tells us to cry out so that the vessels (people) involved do not perish and go into eternal damnation. (Ref.: Jer. 27:18)

=============
=============

We've heard a lot about "open heavens," and I believe that spiritual open heavens are occurring in many places. When this happens, the anointing of God comes through in greater measure. And when that occurs, things begin to be shaken and changed:

"....For the windows from on high are open, And the foundations of the earth are shaken." (Isaiah 24:18b)

"The earth is violently broken, The earth is split open, The earth is shaken exceedingly." (Isaiah 24:19)

When God shakes things up, it is like a man who pans for gold... Everything goes into a "sifter," and the sand and other debris come out of it, and the gold is what is left:

"Now this, 'Yet once more,' indicates the removal of those things that are being shaken, as of things that are made, that the things which cannot be shaken may remain." (Heb. 12:27)

During this time, in our own personal lives, it is a time when many things are being shaken - relationships, careers, the things we usually like to occupy our time with, family situations, attitudes of the heart, sin. The purpose? So that what is left will be that which we can live with, and do so without fearing God. So that we will be so strong and courageous that, when even worse times come, we will not be shaken, and we will be able to be that awesome and glorious Bride!

"Therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom which cannot be shaken, let us have grace, by which we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear." (Heb. 12:28)

DON'T LET THE SHAKINGS & FIRES CAUSE YOU UNHEALTHY FEAR

"Do not fear any of those things which you are about to suffer. Indeed, the devil is about to throw some of you into prison, that you may be tested, and you will have tribulation ten days. Be faithful until death, and I will give you the crown of life." (Rev. 2:10)

"(14) Inasmuch then as the children have partaken of flesh and blood, He Himself likewise shared in the same, that through death He might destroy him who had the power of death, that is, the devil, (15) and release those who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage. (16) For indeed He does not give aid to angels, but He does give aid to the seed of Abraham. (Heb. 2:14-16)

An important thing to do in these times is to submit to the Lord whatever we know it is that is not of Him. When we do that, then we know that - live or die - we win! - Because we know where we are going. When we have the kind of faith that says, "To live is Christ, to die is gain," even the threat of imprisonment or death will not hold us back from doing and being what we are called to! For truly, in the end times, the Word tells us that many will die, just through the fear and expectation of the things that are to come: "...men's hearts failing them from fear and the expectation of those things which are coming on the earth, for the powers of heaven will be shaken." (Luke 21:26)

But we need to know that the Lord will pursue our enemies and send fear upon them! - "'And as for those of you who are left, I will send faintness into their hearts in the lands of their enemies; the sound of a shaken leaf shall cause them to flee; they shall flee as though fleeing from a sword, and they shall fall when no one pursues." (Lev. 26:36)

================================
HOLY SPIRIT COMES FORTH IN POWER
================================

When shakings come, and the Lord is in it, His Power comes along with them:

"And when they had prayed, the place where they were assembled together was shaken; and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and they spoke the word of God with boldness." (Acts 4:31)

When we cry out to Him as David did when his enemies pursued him, God shakes things up in our favor:

""Then the earth shook and trembled; The foundations of heaven quaked and were shaken, Because He was angry." (2 Sam. 22:8)

"Then the earth shook and trembled; The foundations of the hills also quaked and were shaken, Because He was angry." (Psalm 18:7)

And He shows up: "And the posts of the door were shaken by the voice of him who cried out, and the house was filled with smoke." (Isaiah 6:4)

So be sure of this - He and His power is greater than any other, and you WILL be endued with power from on high in this time, and He will (if needs be) come forth in great power to your defense!

=========================

PRISON DOORS ARE OPENED

=========================

When the shakings of God come, no prison doors will hold His people back! - "Suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken; and immediately all the doors were opened and everyone's chains were loosed." (Acts 16:26)

So, if you are the Lord's and are being falsely accused, whether it is a natural or spiritual "prison" that you are threatened by, know that the gates will open wide, and those that are His will be set free in this time to do what He has called them to. Even the very gates of Hell will not prevail!

WE CAN STAND IN PEACE IN THE MIDST OF SHAKINGS

If we are "OK" with the Lord, we do not have to be shaken, because He will be with us and use us to reach others:

"For David says concerning Him: 'I foresaw the Lord always before my face, For He is at my right hand, that I may not be shaken." (Acts 2:25)

"No one should be shaken by these afflictions; for you yourselves know that we are appointed to this." (1 Thes. 3:3)

"Do not be soon shaken in mind or troubled, either by spirit or by word or by letter." (2 Thes. 2:2a)

============================

SIGNS IN THE HEAVENS & EARTH

============================

The Word tells us that there will be signs in the heavens and on the earth when His shakings come - so expect it to happen:

"And the stars of heaven fell to the earth, as a fig tree drops its late figs when it is shaken by a mighty wind." (Rev. 6:13)

"Immediately after the tribulation of those days the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light; the stars will fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken." (Mt. 24:29)
"The stars of heaven will fall, and the powers in the heavens will be shaken." (Mark 13:25)

"I will show wonders in heaven above And signs in the earth beneath: Blood and fire and vapor of smoke." (Acts 2:19)

TESTED BY FIRE

===============

One of my prayers when I go to minister is that there will be fruit that remains. I want to go where God wants me to go and do what He says do. I do not want to waste my time, because time is life, and I want to spend mine wisely. Truly, whatever we do will be tested:

"For everyone will be seasoned with fire, and every sacrifice will be seasoned with salt." (Mark 9:49)

"And even now the ax is laid to the root of the trees. Therefore every tree which does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire." (Matthew 3:10)

"Then the angel took the censer, filled it with fire from the altar, and threw it to the earth. And there were noises, thunderings, lightnings, and an earthquake." (Rev. 8:5)

GOD'S POWER REVEALED IN FIRE

When the fire of God comes, and we've been tried and tested, His Power - the fire of His Spirit - also comes!

"But you shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be witnesses to Me in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth." (Acts 1:8)

"For our gospel did not come to you in word only, but also in power..." (1 Thes. 1:5)

HIS EYES ARE LIKE FIRE

I heard someone say once that the hottest parts of a fire are the white and the blue parts. No wonder His eyes are described as being like flames of fire! -

"His head and hair were white like wool, as white as snow, and His eyes like a flame of fire." (Rev. :14)
"And to the angel of the church in Thyatira write, 'These things says the Son of God, who has eyes like a flame of fire, and His feet like fine brass. (Rev. 2:18)

"His eyes were like a flame of fire, and on His head were many crowns. He had a name written that no one knew except Himself." (Rev. 19:12)

HIS FIRE BRINGS CLEANSING & PURIFICATION

There is no amount of money that can pay for what happens in our lives when the fire of God comes and cleanses and purifies us! When He rids us of fear of man, nothing can hold us back! And nothing that man could hold against us matters, when we are right with HIM!:

"I counsel you to buy from Me gold refined in the fire, that you may be rich; and white garments, that you may be clothed, that the shame of your nakedness may not be revealed; and anoint your eyes with eye salve, that you may see." (Rev. 3:18)

"And you shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free." (John 8:32)

"But he who does the truth comes to the light, that his deeds may be clearly seen, that they have been done in God." (John 3:21)

"Jesus said to him, "I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through Me." (John 14:16)

"The Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees Him nor knows Him; but you know Him, for He dwells with you and will be in you." (John 14:17)

"However, when He, the Spirit of truth, has come, He will guide you into all truth; for He will not speak on His own authority, but whatever He hears He will speak; and He will tell you things to come." (John 16:13)

"Sanctify them by Your truth. Your word is truth." (John 17:17)

=====================================

THE GOOD NEWS: BLESSINGS SHAKEN OUT

=====================================

Also in these shakings, as we give of ourselves (not just money - that is easy), God will give back to us more than we can imagine! There is no loss in serving Him!:

"Give, and it will be given to you: good measure, pressed down, shaken together, and running over will be put into your bosom. For with the same measure that you use, it will be measured back to you." (Luke 6:38)

Fellow Ministers, I know that none of us at all begrudge this, but the truth is, many who normally support ministries have been diverting their support towards helping the hurricane victims. Therefore, this has been a "rough" season for most ministries financially. But I felt that the Lord said that He wants to remind us in this time that HE is our Jehovah Jireh, our Provider, and He CAN AND WILL provide for us too! Also, let's not forsake OUR giving in this time either! Let's practice what we preach, remembering that no PERSON or PEOPLE determines our finances. Only our God. And He WILL find and direct the funds to take care of us as well!

===============

===============

One of the exciting things that has happened to me through each "trial by fire" that I've gone through is that I am changed by them. I know it. I can feel it. I'm stronger, in the natural and spiritual sense. And that is His promise: "That the genuineness of your faith, being much more precious than gold that perishes, though it is tested by fire, may be found to praise, honor, and glory at the revelation of Jesus Christ." (1 Peter 1:7)

============================

THE MESSENGERS ARE SENT

============================

The Lord never leaves us alone in such times. Don't accept the lie that there is a "brass heaven." The opposite is true! He has sent forth His messengers to minister to and guide us:

"And when forty years had passed, an Angel of the Lord appeared to him in a flame of fire in a bush, in the wilderness of Mount Sinai." (Acts 7:30)

"And of the angels He says: "Who makes His angels spirits And His ministers a flame of fire." (Heb. 1:7)

========================

THE ENEMIES ARE REVEALED

========================

One thing that trial by fire does is to reveal our enemies! Oh mercy! Like a viper, they come forth to try to sting us all the more! But that's a good thing - for it reveals to us who our enemies are. And the Lord protects us and sends His vengeance upon them:

"But when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks and laid them on the fire, a viper came out because of the heat, and fastened on his hand." {Acts 28:3)

"But he shook off the creature into the fire and suffered no harm." (Acts 28:5)

"in flaming fire taking vengeance on those who do not know God, and on those who do not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ." (2 Th. 1:8)

In the process, our own hearts are tried, so it's a good idea to not stand in judgment against anyone else. "Therefore If your enemy is hungry, feed him; If he is thirsty, give him a drink; For in so doing you will heap coals of fire on his head." (Rom. 12:20) The cool part about it all is, if we handle situations right, even our enemies will be brought to the warmth of the Lord and repent and be won over and snatched from the enemy!

THE ENEMY & HIS WORKS DESTROYED BY FIRE

"They went up on the breadth of the earth and surrounded the camp of the saints and the beloved city. And fire came down from God out of heaven and devoured them." (Rev. 20:9)
"The devil, who deceived them, was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone where the beast and the false prophet are. And they will be tormented day and night forever and ever." (Rev. 20:10)

And whatever it is that we have wasted our time on will be removed:

"If anyone's work is burned, he will suffer loss; but he himself will be saved, yet so as through fire." (1 Cor. 3:15)

"each one's work will become clear; for the Day will declare it, because it will be revealed by fire; and the fire will test each one's work, of what sort it is." (1 Cor. 3:13)

"For our God is a consuming fire." (Heb. 12:29)

=====================

=====================

I'm not at all insinuating that anyone experiencing these things is horrible and under judgment. What I am saying is that, no matter what the reason for the fiery trials and shakings we are walking through, it is good to look for the "God" side of it and not "waste" them! I've often said to the Lord, "As long as I'm going through this, would you please use it for my good, and while the fires are hot and the shakings strong, take out WHATEVER may be there that needs to be gone!"

Time and time again as I've watched the news during the fires and other disasters, the survivors have said, "We can replace things. We are just thankful that our family got out alive!"

There is something about the tragedies I've personally faced that I know brings about clarification of personal values, and greater faith in God. There is a strength that comes that no one can take!

I see these things that are beginning to occur World-Wide as "birth pangs" that are awakening the Church as a whole and beginning to bring us towards that point of being the glorious Bride! - Truly, we are entering into the Church's finest hour!

So, since we are in the "Shake & Bake" process, let's ask the Lord to "shake out" and "bake out" whatever doesn't need to be there so that He will be able to say of us, "WELL DONE, good and faithful servant!" - - Pun intended! <smile>

============

I encourage you to read all of Isaiah 60, but I will close with this set of verses to encourage you. For, as we allow the shakings and fires of this time to cleanse and sanctify us, the harvest will come! Our loved ones will return to Him, finances will be restored, and the joy of the Lord will override anything the enemy can think of doing!:

(1) Arise, shine; For your light has come! And the glory of the Lord is risen upon you. (2) For behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, And deep darkness the people; But the Lord will arise over you, And His glory will be seen upon you. (3) The Gentiles shall come to your light, And kings to the brightness of your rising. (4) "Lift up your eyes all around, and see: They all gather together, they come to you; Your sons shall come from afar, And your daughters shall be nursed at your side. (5) Then you shall see and become radiant, And your heart shall swell with joy; Because the abundance of the sea shall be turned to you, The wealth of the Gentiles shall come to you." (Isaiah 60:1-5)

Tim Cook

UK

The angels will go about putting a mark on the forehead of those who grieve and mourn for what is going on in Zion ….. somewhere in the Bible smile

I waited before the awful, black and ominous Throne of my God. I was about 11 in the vision (He tells me) – so scared; so sad, lost and lonely – trembling, but I knew I had to be here. I was about to apologise that I had not been here for a while.

"And why so sad, Tim?" asked Jesus, as He scooped me up into His oh so Mighty Arms and whisked me off to a little mountain-top meadow of spring-time flowers near the roots of a glacier – somewhere in Switzerland I suppose. Absolutely beautiful.

"Why …. because I told you – I carry My Throne with Me everywhere – and I want to captivate you again with My Love and Joy …. You have been in the battle so long and carried so many intercessory burdens that you're beginning to lose these things – and your heart has been screaming this at you for quite a while, yes? …. of course ….. (because it is impossible to lie to Jesus in a vision – and useless to try.)"

Jesus was ….. 17. I love it when He does that. I could never ask for a more perfect older brother.

"I'm sorry Jesus – I'm sad about this business of same-sex marriages – many of us are sad and worried …. it's legal now of course – part of our pathetic and twisted constitution …. " For some reason my tears towards Christmas and the year's end were becoming more and more copious. "My heart is progressively downloaded into you, Tim – don't let that scare you. Ok so they've legalised gay marriages …. Listen. Do you think that this shocks or scares me? Do you think that I will backtrack on My promise to make your nation a Sanctuary because the so-called gatekeepers are defiling the city? Ha! You think that as Britain approaches Sodom and Gomorrah that I will rain down fire and sulphur upon you?"

I just lay on the grass and shook and wept. There was nothing I could say. And so Jesus took me in His arms and let me cry myself into some semblance of peace on His lap. Then He began to share a little more of His salvation plan with me …..

"Loved one …. believe Me when I say that My Holy Spirit will suppress the man of sin in your land until I catch you up into My bosom. Review your Sanctuary word – where we raced around Britain upon the White Stallion and created My force field of protection. I told you then that this was a Kingdom foundation that would never fall or fail yes? I told you then that the righteous would become more righteous and the sinners more so."

He stood and looked at me seriously – holding my hands. *"Stop capitalising me OK? It's wearing you out smile …. we both know that there is worship and respect there …. now listen …. I have enough righteous, son – I have enough righteous in the land to save your city! I have righteous and Christian families spread throughout your nation – and I am about to anoint them with a very* special blessing – it is my oil of unity and love – and it is these blessed couples – who are Christians and they love each other with my help – it is they who shall hold this country together through this time – just by being themselves together, and loving each other, and loving their children, and praying together. You are my righteous – you *are my safety net! Meaning my righteous ones. And if we don't have enough to sustain the net - then by jove we shall go and make some more until we do *encouraging smile

You are my gatekeepers. You are my kings and priests." And he spread his fingers and sent out a network of brilliant silver blue energy lines – that knit righteous heart to righteous heart, and righteous home to righteous home. And the very foundations of Britain were strengthened and upheld by these families and couples who had chosen purity and righteousness – these are they whom Heaven would deal with – not with the politicians – until such a time as they had earned the right again to govern.

I was about to write of the out runners – the intercessors with no partner who fought alone and in secret – the Nazarites – the isolated prayer warriors – being included in this network – but Jesus shushed me … and smiled …. I have special missions for these ones. They will patrol the perimeter of the Sanctuary and the hidden places of darkness with me – take on and defeat the gates and onslaughts of hell as and when I have need. And the Net will nourish and strengthen them. And they shall rescue and bless the Net. Perfect synchronicity of the Kingdom.

From your level the battlefield seems an absolute shambles and you feel your being driven back on every front. But if you could see my Heaven perspective you would see how wonderful and beautiful are my battle lines – and how much we treasure you and value you all."

And so you fight – and you box demons you can't see – and you fight for your kids – and you sigh and weep and tremble for the things you can't change in the land. And you email your worries to each other. And you get together to pray – in rooms or on the phone. And you don't see how I'm circulating my army all the time and seeing it all – and I grab a tear, I witness a fearful comment, I wait upon a little prayer from a worried heart until it falls into my hand …. And then I rejoice saying I shall use that, I will use that to strengthen and nourish my force field over Britain.

And I walk quietly from soldier to soldier – touching each beloved heart and shoulder – saying you are not alone my love and you will not fall my love and I shall garrison your faithful heart. Well done, blessed. Well done – you shall be lifted up. Amen. You will not fall again – Britain – you have fallen far enough from your glory days – only what needs to be shaken shall be. Try to trust this more than you do the news headlines. You will not fall, but I will raise you up into my arms."

Strange As It May Seem

Susan Cummings

Strange as it may seem, you are not failing in your pursuit of Me. Just because the walls of opposition have raised and have stood in full array against you, does not negate your progress. It actually reveals it. For nothing comes by chance or by accident, but I do all things on purpose. These trials have served to settle you and firmly root you in Me.

You need the opposition to bring you further into Me, and to show Me through the issues, so that others can see Me in them, as you deal with them. I teach you through the things you suffer and the things you learn. It is also the way others follow. For all of My People learn through each other. This is why you cannot stand alone, nor live apart from one another.

Each step builds upon the next, which is the foundation for the next, and the platform from which you will climb upwards. Without each step, you would not arise unto Me and expand in your understanding. Every situation has it's trial, it's good, and it's grace. Look at it through My eyes, and see My will for you. Embrace it and bring it into your heart, for within it, is my treasure to you.

Many want My treasures, but don't want the opposition that it takes to make the treasure. They are formed through much fire, pressure, and yielding to My hands. Not many stay upon My wheel and allow Me to turn it till I am finished, but it is always My Purpose to create a perfect work. You are My perfect work child.

Take every day as a gift from Me, and see it as a journey of transformation and perfection. I do nothing half way or with faultiness. It is those who look at themselves through their own eyes, that see their faultiness and their humanity. But when you look through My eyes, you will see My handiwork, and will rejoice. My Standards are much different than yours, and I have a higher purpose than you can fathom, and a greater purpose for your life than you can yet embrace. But trust Me to bring you to completion, and yield to My hands.

Everything has it's season and I am moving exactly where I want to in your life. I am moving through My Body, and showing My handiwork, as it comes forth out of you. Each of you will display Me, as I work through you. You are My great and strange work in the earth, and many will marvel at what I will do through each of you in the days to come.

Think it not strange that I am working behind the scenes. It is the greater works that are now being established within you, and when I am finished, they will come forth out of you. For I am working a great, and very deep work, that I alone will be glorified in, and seen through. So, rest in Me. I am moving.

Keep drawing near to Me, and stay your heart upon Me. Quiet yourself before Me, and allow Me to finalize My ministrations to you, and in you. For surely, what I have been forming within your life, will come forth in this season.

Samson's Death

The Victory Of The Church

Bill Somers

> Then three thousand men of Judah went to the top of the rock Etam, and said to Samson, Knowest thou not that the Philistines [are] rulers over us? Judges 15:11

Samson is often seen as a type of the church. [He can also be seen as a type of the Lord Jesus, the patterns are similar.] There are several points of correspondence that are usually mentioned as proof.

Samson had a supernatural birth,
The Spirit of the Lord was come upon him,
He did many exploits for the Lord,

He became corrupted,
He lost his great strength,
He became a captive to his enemies
He lost his vision,
He gradually regained his strength,
He called upon the Lord once again and
He was revived at the end.

And he judged Israel 20 years, speaking of the 2000 years that we call the 'church age'. So these points of comparison are taken to be a picture of the history of the church during the church age, with final revival coming at the end, before the Lord returns.

At this point writers usually gloss over the manner of his death and go on to some other topic.

In this article we'll look at his death as a continuation of the comparison to the church and see in it an allegory of the destiny of the church and her role in the Second Coming of Christ.

If we look at how Samson died we can see three main points.

A. Samson willingly laid down his life!
B. His first purpose was to bring destruction to the Philistines.
C. His second purpose was a consequence of the first, to free Israel from bondage. Note that these purposes combine mercy and judgment.

Lets look at the text.

> Judges 16
> 23 Then the lords of the Philistines gathered them together for to offer a great sacrifice unto Dagon their god, and to rejoice: for they said, Our god hath delivered Samson our enemy into our hand.
> 24 And when the people saw him, they praised their god: for they said, Our god hath delivered into our hands our enemy, and the destroyer of our country, which slew many of us.
> 25 And it came to pass, when their hearts were merry, that they said, Call for Samson, that he may make us sport. And they called for Samson out of the prison house; and he made them sport: and they set him between the pillars.
> 26 And Samson said unto the lad that held him by the hand, Suffer me that I may feel the pillars whereupon the house standeth, that I may lean upon them.

> 27 Now the house was full of men and women; and all the lords of the Philistines [were] there; and [there were] upon the roof about three thousand men and women, that beheld while Samson made sport.
> 28 And Samson called unto the LORD, and said, O Lord GOD, remember me, I pray thee, and strengthen me, I pray thee, only this once, O God, that I may be at once avenged of the Philistines for my two eyes.
> 29 And Samson took hold of the two middle pillars upon which the house stood, and on which it was borne up, of the one with his right hand, and of the other with his left.
> 30 And Samson said, Let me die with the Philistines. And he bowed himself with [all his] might; and the house fell upon the lords, and upon all the people that [were] therein. So the dead which he slew at his death were more than [they] which he slew in his life.
> 31 Then his brethren and all the house of his father came down, and took him, and brought [him] up, and buried him between Zorah and Eshtaol in the burying place of Manoah his father. And he judged Israel twenty years.

Now lets look at this text for comparisons to the end time church.

The Lords of the Philistines mentioned in verses 23, 27 and 30 are clear types of Demon Powers. The mention of many people on the roof, verse 27, speaks of heavenly places, another clue that this passage is about demonic princes.

> For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. (Ephesians 6:12)

And these are specifically the ones that keep Israel blinded.

> Then three thousand men of Judah went to the top of the rock Etam, and said to Samson, Knowest thou not that the Philistines [are] rulers over us? Judges 15:11

So here we have a portrait of wicked rulers in high places who are rulers over Israel. This is what makes up the veil over their hearts and minds, producing spiritual blindness.

The mention of the Philistine god and the people praising him, verses 23-24, speak of the worshippers of the Beast in Revelation

The situation in verses 23-25 has a parallel in the Book of Revelation.

> And they worshipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast: and they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like unto the beast? who is able to make war with him?
> And there was given unto him a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and power was given unto him to continue forty and two months
> And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name, and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heaven
> And it was given unto him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations
> And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world. (Revelation 13:4-8)

The Philistines are rejoicing that their enemy has been delivered into their hands. This has its parallel in revelation where it states in Revelation 13:7 that it was given unto him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them.

When they call for Samson out of the prison to make sport of him, it speaks of the great persecution to come against the end time church. Furthermore by their action of bringing him out and setting him between the pillars, they put Samson in the exact position where he can do the most damage to them. But Samson can only damage them if he is willing to lay down his life, which they never expected. But that is exactly what he does. And by his action achieves his greatest victory of all.

In our comparison, when the end time church comes under the persecution of the Beast, it will be in a place where it can do the most damage to Satan's kingdom.

> And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death. (Revelation 12:11)

By laying down our lives, willingly, we "give place to wrath". [Psalm 110 speaks of this willingness.] Thus opening the way for the Vengeance of the Lord, as it says in Romans 12:19

> Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord. Romans 12:19

Samson prays, verse 28, and calls upon the Lord for vengeance, just as the saints under the altar in Revelation.

> And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of them that were slain for the word of God, and for the testimony which they held
> And they cried with a loud voice, saying, How long, O Lord, holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth? (Revelation 6:9-10)

Gaining the Greatest Victory

In verse 30, we see that "the dead which he slew at his death were more than [they] which he slew in his life."

Thus his moment of greatest defeat was really his greatest victory. Samson died in victory.
Jesus' moment of greatest defeat, on the cross, was really his moment of greatest victory.
The destruction of the Church will be Her moment of greatest victory!

We have said that the Lords of the Philistines represent heavenly powers. Samson brought destruction to the Philistine rulers of his time.

Likewise the martyrdom of the church brings about judgment on the powers of heaven at the end of the age.

> Immediately after the tribulation of those days shall the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken: Matthew 24:29

Samson's second purpose was achieved because by the destruction of the Philistine power base, the people of Israel were set free.

When the church lays down its life, it's for the purpose of setting the people of Israel free. The fall of the powers of heaven is what is needed to remove the veil of spiritual blindness over Israel.

> Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren. [Here the brethren speaks of Israel.] (1 John 3:16)

If we look at Romans 12:1-2, we see it speaks of laying down our lives.

> I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service
> And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, > that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God. (Romans 12:1-2)

When the Lord uses the word 'therefore' it's there for a purpose. And the purpose for this is found a few verses back on Romans 11.

> And so all Israel shall be saved…. Rom 11:26

As the power of heaven fall, Israel shall see clearly her need to repent and call upon Messiah Jeshua to come and save them. This is what will make them cry out Baruch Ha Ba B'Shem Adonai (Blessed be Him who comes in the name of the Lord.) It is then that Jesus will come again to His people.

> In those days, and in that time, saith the LORD, the children of Israel shall come, they and the children of Judah together, going and weeping: they shall go, and seek the LORD their God. Jeremiah 50:4
> And I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplications: and they shall look upon me whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for him, as one mourneth for his only son, and shall be in bitterness for him, as one that is in bitterness for his firstborn. Zechariah 12:10

Verse 31 mentions that "Then his brethren and all the house of his father came down, and took him, and brought [him] up....".

This is a reference to the Second Coming of the Lord and the resurrection. His brethren and all the house of his father are Christ and all the saints. When Jesus comes for the Church it will be to resurrect her. Bringing Samson up and burying him with his fathers speaks of resurrecting the church and setting her in a place of honor. This happens right after her death. "Destroy this Temple and in three days I will raise it up." (John 2:19

The conclusion is that Samson knowingly and willingly laid down his life for the purpose of destroying his enemies and setting Israel free. That is exactly the pattern that Jesus followed to set his people free. That is the pattern that the Church is called to follow as we become conformed to the image of Christ.

Samson's Riddle Part Two:
The 'Rest of the Story'
by Bill Somers

> Q. Out of the eater came forth meat, out of the strong, came forth sweetness.
> A. What is sweeter than honey and what is stronger than a lion?

That is Samson's riddle. Did you notice that the answer is a question? And naturally a question calls for another answer. What is the answer to the answer? Now this is interesting, the answer to the answer is, so to speak, the ultimate answer! And The Ultimate Answer is Jesus Christ! For it is He who is sweeter than honey and He who is stronger than a lion!

In the first article on Samson's Riddle we found the following conclusions: [see Samson's Riddle by Bill Somers]
a. Samson is a type of the Lord Jesus
b. Samson's wife is a type of the Church
c. Samson's father is a type of God the Father
d. The Philistines are a type of the world
e. The honey is a type of the Word Of God Revealed In Depth, or Revelation Knowledge
f. The answer to the riddle is Jesus Christ
g. The act of giving the answer is a type of The Revelation of Jesus Christ!
This is the Word Of God Revealed In Depth
h. The act of Samson's wife telling her people the answer is a type of the Church revealing Jesus to the World. That is preaching the gospel to all the world and completing the great commission.
i. One of the main lessons is that the Church cannot effectively reveal Jesus to the World till she receives that revelation in depth herself! That is till Jesus reveals Himself to the Church. Then the world will see Jesus in the Church.

Now let's draw some conclusions from this allegory:

Looking at point G above, we understand that this speaks of Revival. That is Jesus coming to the Church and revealing Himself in awesome holiness and irresistible power is what we really mean by revival. Not lots of people getting converted. That comes next. Point H speaks of the harvest or ingathering that must follow revival.

Now the text tells us that this took place on the 7th day. Prophetically this means the 7th 1000 year period, in other words, the Millenium. Thus the revival and harvest will take place not before the Millenium but on and at the very beginning of the Millenium!

Now what else does the text tell us will happen at that time? What is the 'Rest of the Story'?

We just said that the revival and harvest take place at the beginning of the 7th millenium, not at the end of the 6th. Are there other elements here in Judges 14 and 15 that speak of other end time events?

If we look carefully, with spiritual eyes, there are several. I'm going to share what the Holy Spirit has allowed me to see so far. This includes:

> a recapitulation of the cycle of judgment, redemption and harvest;
> the outpouring of the spirit;
> further judgment on the world's economy;
> the final persecution of the Church;
> the redemption of the Jews;
> the final battle and return of the Lord.

Before going into all that, lets look at some loose ends from part one and their relation to the 'Rest of the Story'.

In part one to explain the meaning of the sweetness in the riddle, we said:

The honey, the sweetness is the word of God.

> Then said Jonathan, …: see, I pray you, how mine eyes have been enlightened, because I tasted a little of this honey. 1 Sam 14;:29

> And I took the little book out of the angel's hand, and ate it up; and it was in my mouth sweet as honey: …. Rev 10:10

In each case here we took a passage out of context to make a connection between the sweetness and the word of God and the understanding it brings. But in each case there was a down side; a 'Rest of the Story' that we did not go into.

For Jonathan, eating the honey brought him under a sentence of death! There was a price to pay.

> Then Saul said to Jonathan, Tell me what thou hast done. And Jonathan told him, and said, I did but taste a little honey with the end of the rod that was in mine hand, and, lo, I must die. 1 Sam 14:43

In the book of Revelation, when the prophet eats the book, there was a price to pay, a bitter result.

> And I took the little book out of the angel's hand, and ate it up; and it was in my mouth sweet as honey: and as soon as I had eaten it, my belly was bitter. Rev. 10:10

Now in our discussion of Samson's Riddle and him revealing it to his wife, the 'Rest of the Story', the downside is that, shortly after that, SHE DIES! What is this telling us? Is it a picture of the Church being caught up and away from the judgments? Is it a picture of the Church surviving through a period of judgments and caught away at the end? Or is it a picture of the Church persecuted and overcome by her enemies? The 'Rest of the Story' is that the Church must die. But what chess player would not sacrifice his queen to checkmate the enemy? [The Lord spoke this to me as I was writing this.]

Now let's look a some specifics:

> 16 And Samson's wife wept before him, and said, Thou dost but hate me, and lovest me not: thou hast put forth a riddle unto the children of my people, and hast not told it me. And he said unto her, Behold, I have not told it my father nor my mother, and shall I tell it thee?
> 17 And she wept before him the seven days, while their feast lasted: and it came to pass on the seventh day, that he told her, because she lay sore upon him: and she told the riddle to the children of her people.
> 18 And the men of the city said unto him on the seventh day before the sun went down, What is sweeter than honey? and what is stronger than a lion? And he said unto them, If ye had not plowed with my heifer, ye had not found out my riddle.
> 19 And the Spirit of the LORD came upon him, and he went down to Ashkelon, and slew thirty men of them, and took their spoil, and gave change of garments unto them which expounded the riddle. And his anger was kindled, and he went up to his father's house.
> 20 But Samson's wife was given to his companion, whom he had used as his friend. Judges 14:16-20

In verses 16 and 17, Samson's wife [the Church] weeps before him and pleads until he reveals the answer to the riddle. This illustrates the Church weeping in repentance before her Lord. She presses in till the great revelation comes and immediately reveals it to the world. It is a case of the cycle of judgment, redemption and harvest. Some judgments having brought the Church to her knees in the first place.

Verse 18 shows the reason for the Lord's anger against the enemies of the Church who have "plowed with his heifer". So, in verse 19, following this redemption, during this time of harvest, the Lord executes further judgments on those who have come against His Church. "The gates of hell shall not prevail." Verse 19 ends with the phrase 'he went up to his father's house'. This clearly speaks of the Lord's Visitation to the Church. But what about verse 20? In Young's translation it reads:

> and Samson's wife becometh his companion's, who is his friend.

Who was Samson's companion? I always had the impression that he worked alone! Who was this mysterious guy who shows up out of nowhere and is never heard from again? At any rate, for the purpose of our end time prophetic vision; if Samson is a type of Jesus, then his companion and friend must be the Holy Spirit. Therefore to say his wife became his companion is to say the Church becomes the possession of the Holy Spirit! The Church is then possessed by the Holy Spirit; much in the same way that the virgin Mary was overshadowed by the Holy Spirit in Luke 1:35. This is another way of saying what the Lord said at the end of verse 19. That is He comes to visit and to dwell in his Fathers house, the Church.

> This is the first statement of the judgment and redemption cycle. Now lets move on to Chapter 15.
> 1 But it came to pass within a while after, in the time of wheat harvest, that Samson visited his wife with a kid; and he said, I will go in to my wife into the chamber. But her father would not suffer him to go in.
> 2 And her father said, I verily thought that thou hadst utterly hated her; therefore I gave her to thy companion: is not her younger sister fairer than she? take her, I pray thee, instead of her.
> 3 And Samson said concerning them, Now shall I be more blameless than the Philistines, though I do them a > displeasure.

> 4 And Samson went and caught three hundred foxes, and took firebrands, and turned tail to tail, and put a firebrand in the midst between two tails.
> 5 And when he had set the brands on fire, he let them go into the standing corn of the Philistines, and burnt up both the shocks, and also the standing corn, with the vineyards and olives.
> 6 Then the Philistines said, Who hath done this? And they answered, Samson, the son in law of the Timnite, because he had taken his wife, and given her to his companion. And the Philistines came up, and burnt her and her father with fire.
> 7 And Samson said unto them, Though ye have done this, yet will I be avenged of you, and after that I will cease.
> 8 And he smote them hip and thigh with a great slaughter: and he went down and dwelt in the top of the rock Etam.
> Judges 15:1-8
> The cycle is partly restated here in Chapter 15. Verse 1 speaks of the Lord desiring to Visit his wife, his bride, the Church at wheat harvest. This is the time of Pentecost! Also in this verse the father causes a delay in the visitation. In verse two he says " I verily thought that thou hadst utterly hated her." This speaks of the judgment the Lord must bring against his Church first. [Judgment must needs begin at the house of God.] These judgments will be so severe that it will appear that the Lord had abandoned his Church but it will not be so. For the redemption comes quickly after. In a little wrath I hid my face from thee for a moment; but with everlasting kindness will I have mercy on thee, saith the LORD thy Redeemer. Isaiah 54:8

Psalm 79 shows this in two phases:
This is the Church interceding under judgment.

> 1 O God, the heathen are come into thine inheritance; thy holy temple have they defiled; they have laid Jerusalem on heaps.
> 2 The dead bodies of thy servants have they given to be meat unto the fowls of the heaven, the flesh of thy saints unto the beasts of the earth.
> 3 Their blood have they shed like water round about Jerusalem; and there was none to bury them.
> 4 We are become a reproach to our neighbours, a scorn and derision to them that are round about us.
> 5 How long, LORD? wilt thou be angry for ever? shall thy jealousy burn like fire?

And this is her warfare prayer calling on the Lord to judge his enemies.

> 6 Pour out thy wrath upon the heathen that have not known thee, and upon the kingdoms that have not called upon thy name.
> 7 For they have devoured Jacob, and laid waste his dwelling place.
> 8 O remember not against us former iniquities: let thy tender mercies speedily prevent us: for we are brought very low.
> 9 Help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of thy name: and deliver us, and purge away our sins, for thy name's sake.
> 10 Wherefore should the heathen say, Where is their God? let him be known among the heathen in our sight by the revenging of the blood of thy servants which is shed.
> 11 Let the sighing of the prisoner come before thee; according to the greatness of thy power preserve thou those that are appointed to die;*
> 12 And render unto our neighbours sevenfold into their bosom their reproach, wherewith they have reproached thee, O Lord.
> 13 So we thy people and sheep of thy pasture will give thee thanks for ever: we will shew forth thy praise to all generations.

Samson's next move [verse 4 and 5] is an illustration of the Lord answering the prayers of the Church above.

The Foxes
Samson went and caught 300 foxes. What do foxes stand for? First they are among the 'beasts of the earth' and Jesus and the second Adam is obeying God's commandment to Adam in Genesis 1:28, to subdue the beasts of the earth or earthly demonic powers. [See 'which of You Convicts Me of Sin?' By Bill Somers]

Secondly foxes speak specifically of demonic forces that come against the Church.

In Nehemiah, where the people are building the walls of Jerusalem, we see their enemies ridiculing them and their walls as weak enough for a fox to destroy. So a fox is a beast of the earth whose assignment is to attack the holy city, the Church.

> Now Tobiah the Ammonite was by him, and he said, Even that which they build, if a fox go up, he shall even break down their stone wall. Nehemiah 4:3

In the Song of Solomon, foxes are depicted attacking vines, and we know the bible commonly uses the vine or vineyard to speak of the Church.

> Take us the foxes, the little* foxes, that spoil the vines: for our vines have tender grapes.* Song of Solomon 2:15

Lamentations mentions foxes as part of the judgment on Jerusalem or Zion [the Church]

> Because of the mountain of Zion, which is desolate, the foxes walk upon it. Lamentations 5:18

In Matthew, Jesus mentions foxes and birds. These are the beasts of the earth and the fowls of the air. [Demonic Forces]. Because of their inroads into the Church, the holes and nests, the son of man is hindered from taking his place as the head. He cannot come to his rest and rest his head upon his body the Church till it is purged by judgment. The holes of the foxes are the enemies breaches in the wall. They are points where the hedge is broken down allowing the fox entrance to the vineyard. They are places where sin has opened a way for the enemy to come in. They are the Gates of Hell. The nests of the birds are spiritual strongholds of wrong thinking and false doctrine that fill the Church today.

> And Jesus saith unto him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head. Matthew 8:20

Later in Matthew, Jesus speaks of King Herod as 'that fox'. Recall that Herod was a leader in persecution of the Church, and suffered a terrible judgment for it in the book of Acts.

> And he said unto them, Go ye, and tell that fox, Behold, I cast out devils, and I do cures to day and to morrow, and the third day I shall be perfected.* Luke 13:32

Note also the use of the phrase 'third day' in that quote. This speaks of the resurrection on the third day, and of the coming perfection of the Church on the millennial third day. Reinforcing our understanding that these things take place during the millenium. [See 'The Third Day in Prophecy' by Bill Somers]

It is this perfection of the Church that results from the redemption. It is made possible by the subduing of the foxes. When the foxes holes are closed off, and the birds nests are eliminated, then the Son of Man will have that place to lay his head, a Church purified and holy, and dedicated only to serving him. A Church that is finally willing to die for Him.

Now back to Samson [verse 4,5], his use of the foxes was to destroy the Philistines crops. Their corn, their wine, their oil. Their entire economy was laid waste. From our end time perspective this speaks of world wide economic disaster, one of the judgments we expect during tribulation. So when the world falls apart, the Church will come together!

Now obviously [let's face it] verse 6 pictures the final persecution of the Church.

> And when they shall have finished their testimony, the beast that ascendeth out of the bottomless pit shall make war against them, and shall overcome them, and kill them. Revelation 11:7
> And it was given unto him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: …. . Revelation 13:7

Notice the Philistine reaction to these disasters:

> 6 Then the Philistines said, Who hath done this? And they answered, Samson, …."

It is like the world will realize that these judgments are acts of God, and take revenge against Christians out of frustration. But God says:

> Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto wrath: for it is written, Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord. Romans 12:19

[See 'The How and the Therefore' by Bill Somers]

In Joel there is a reference to the vine and the fig tree.

> He hath laid my vine waste, and barked my fig tree: …. Joel 1:7

As the vine is taken to mean the Church, the fig tree is often used to mean Israel.
And so we see that verses 7 and 8 picture the Lords final revenge against those who have destroyed his vineyard [the Church].
The next section looks at the end time finale with a focus on the Jews, the Men of Judah.
This shows the Lord's final revenge against those who have barked his fig tree [Israel].

> 9 Then the Philistines went up, and pitched in Judah, and spread themselves in Lehi.

> 10 And the men of Judah said, Why are ye come up against us? And they answered, To bind Samson are we come up, to do to him as he hath done to us.
> 11 Then three thousand men of Judah went to the top of the rock Etam, and said to Samson, Knowest thou not that the Philistines are rulers over us? what is this that thou hast done unto us? And he said unto them, As they did unto me, so have I done unto them. [See Joel 3:4]
> 12 And they said unto him, We are come down to bind thee, that we may deliver thee into the hand of the Philistines. And Samson said unto them, Swear unto me, that ye will not fall upon me yourselves.
> 13 And they spake unto him, saying, No; but we will bind thee fast, and deliver thee into their hand: but surely we will not kill thee. And they bound him with two new cords, and brought him up from the rock.
> 14 And when he came unto Lehi, the Philistines shouted against him: and the Spirit of the LORD came mightily upon him, and the cords that were upon his arms became as flax that was burnt with fire, and his bands loosed from off his hands.
> 15 And he found a new jawbone of an ass, and put forth his hand, and took it, and slew a thousand men therewith. Judges 15:9-15

Now to understand this point here, reread the passage and filter out any reference to binding Samson, these details are irrelevant in this case.

What this is saying is that there will come a time when the World [Philistines] will come against Israel [the men of Judah] to make war. They pitched and they spread themselves means they come ready to fight.

> Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision: for the day of the LORD is near in the valley of decision. Joel 3:14

At this time the Jews of Israel will Call Upon the Lord, [Samson up on the rock of Etam] who will come down from the rock [down from heaven] and fight their enemy for them! So this part of the Samson story is a picture of the Battle at Armageddon. When the Lord will save his people and destroy the remainder of His enemies.

> The LORD also shall roar out of Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem; and the heavens and the earth shall shake: but the LORD will be the hope of his people, and the strength of the children of Israel. Joel 3:6

> Judges 14:
> 1 ¶ And Samson went down to Timnath, and saw a woman in Timnath of the daughters of the Philistines.
> 2 And he came up, and told his father and his mother, and said, I have seen a woman in Timnath of the daughters of the Philistines: now therefore get her for me to wife.
> 3 Then his father and his mother said unto him, Is there never a woman among the daughters of thy brethren, or among all my people, that thou goest to take a wife of the uncircumcised Philistines? And Samson said unto his father, Get her for me; for she pleaseth me well.
> 4 But his father and his mother knew not that it was of the LORD, that he sought an occasion against the Philistines: for at that time the Philistines had dominion over Israel.
> 5- Then went Samson down, and his father and his mother, to Timnath, and came to the vineyards of Timnath: and, behold, a young lion roared against him.
> 6 And the Spirit of the LORD came mightily upon him, and he rent him as he would have rent a kid, and [he had] nothing in his hand: but he told not his father or his mother what he had done.
> 7 And he went down, and talked with the woman; and she pleased Samson well.
> 8 And after a time he returned to take her, and he turned aside to see the carcase of the lion: and, behold, [there was] a swarm of bees and honey in the carcase of the lion.
> 9 And he took thereof in his hands, and went on eating, and came to his father and mother, and he gave them, and they did eat: but he told not them that he had taken the honey out of the carcase of the lion.
> 10 So his father went down unto the woman: and Samson made there a feast; for so used the young men to do.
> 11 And it came to pass, when they saw him, that they brought thirty companions to be with him.
> 12 And Samson said unto them, I will now put forth a riddle unto you: if ye can certainly declare it me within the seven days of the feast, and find [it] out, then I will give you thirty sheets and thirty change of garments:
> 13 But if ye cannot declare [it] me, then shall ye give me thirty sheets and thirty change of garments. And they said unto him, Put forth thy riddle, that we may hear it.
> 14 And he said unto them, Out of the eater came forth meat, and out of the strong came forth sweetness. And they could not in three days expound the riddle.
> 15 And it came to pass on the seventh day, that they said unto Samson's wife, Entice thy husband, that he may declare unto us the riddle, lest we burn thee and thy father's house with fire: have ye called us to take that we have? [is it] not [so]?
> 16 And Samson's wife wept before him, and said, Thou dost but hate me, and lovest me not: thou hast put forth a riddle unto the children of my people, and hast not told [it] me. And he said unto her, Behold, I have not told [it] my father nor my mother, and shall I tell [it] thee?
> 17 And she wept before him the seven days, while their feast lasted: and it came to pass on the seventh day, that he told her, because she lay sore upon him: and she told the riddle to the children of her people.
> 18 And the men of the city said unto him on the seventh day before the sun went down, What [is] sweeter than honey? and what [is] stronger than a lion? And he said unto them, If ye had not plowed with my heifer, ye had not found out my riddle.
> 19 And the Spirit of the LORD came upon him, and he went down to Ashkelon, and slew thirty men of them, and took their spoil, and gave change of garments unto them which expounded the riddle. And his anger was kindled, and he went up to his father's house.

The Riddle speaks of the Word of God.
The lion is Jesus

> And one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not: behold, the Lion of the tribe of Juda, the Root of David, hath prevailed to open the book, and to loose the seven seals thereof. Rev. 5.5

The lion died; he died for us, ("I am he that liveth and was dead …." Rev 1:18)
Inside the carcase of the Lion was found the honey.
The honey, the sweetness is the word of God.

> Then said Jonathan, …: see, I pray you, how mine eyes have been enlightened, because I tasted a little of this honey. 1 Sam 14;:29

> And I took the little book out of the angel's hand, and ate it up; and it was in my mouth sweet as honey: …. Rev 10:10

The meat (food) speaks of the word. Hebrews. 5 in discussing the word of righteousness tells us that meat is for them that are of full age.
The bible says that hidden in Christ are all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.

> That their hearts might be comforted, being knit together in love, and unto all riches of the full assurance of understanding, to the acknowledgement of the mystery of God, and of the Father, and of Christ;
> In whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge*.* Colossians 2:2-3

So this sweet meat [food] hidden inside the lion speaks of the Word of God, but especially it speaks of deep revelation and rich understanding of the Word. Hidden treasures of Wisdom. It speaks of mature insight into the Word.

The Philistines Couldn't Possibly Know the Answer.
In this story there was no way the Philistines could know the answer. They had to be totally clueless at to what Samson was talking about.
This agrees with the idea that the Riddle speaks of the Word of God. The Philistines are a type of the world. The natural man cannot understand the Word of God

> But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned. 1Co 2:14

Samson is a Type of the Lord Jesus Christ
Just as Samson was dedicated to the Lord from birth, as a nazarite, Jesus was dedicated and separated to be the head of the church.
Samson is also a type of the resurrected Christ. Nothing could bind Him. Nothing could hold Him, not even death, hell and the grave.

His Wife is a Type of the Church

> Then went Samson down, and his father and his mother, to Timnath, and came to the vineyards of Timnath …. Judges 14:5

There are three clues in this verse. 1. Samson went down; this speaks of Jesus coming down from Heaven. 2. Timnath means portion. This says Jesus came down to get His portion or inheritance. [The World] 3. He came to the vineyards of Timnath; vineyards speak of the Church.

The Church is His Harlot Bride. Samson kept going after a harlotous, Gentile bride. JESUS has done the same. Jesus' bride, the Church in many ways has been just as harlotous as Israel ever was and yet Jesus will purify her for she pleaseth him..

> And Samson said unto his father, Get her for me; for she pleaseth me well. Judges 14:3

Samson's Wife Couldn't Possibly Know the Answer either.
Now here I have to be careful. We just said that the natural man cannot know spiritual things. [The Word of God.] But the Church, surely is different! We are made up of born again believers, we are spiritual people aren't we?

Well recall that we said knowing the answer to the riddle speaks of Mature Insight into the Word. It means a depth of revelation. Can we say that about today's Church? Rather look back again to Hebrews 5:12

> " For when for the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need that one teach you again which be the first principles of the oracles of God; and are become such as have need of milk, and not of strong meat."

Here we find a more accurate description of the state of the Church today. The strong meat is the answer to the riddle, but we are not ready!
Secondly it is impossible for us to know the answer because the Books are Sealed!

> But thou, O Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book, even to the time of the end: many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased.* Daniel 12;:4
> Bind up the testimony, seal the law among my disciples. Isaiah 8:16

Revealing the Answer on the Seventh Day is a type of End Time Revival
The seventh day speaks of the Millenium or the end times which we are now in.

Revealing the Answer is the Revelation of Jesus Christ

> And one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not: behold, the Lion of the tribe of Juda, the Root of David, hath prevailed to open the book, and to loose the seven seals thereof.* Rev. 5.5

Revealing the answer to the riddle is the same as opening the Book.
In the Book of revelation we see Jesus the Lion of the Tribe of Judah, opening the Book. In Judges 14:17 we see Samson revealing the answer to his wife. This speaks of nothing less than God Revealing Himself, because Jesus is the Word of God. And only God can reveal Himself. No man was found worthy to open the book. Man cannot comprehend God by his own efforts. God reveals Himself to man at the time of His choosing.
Notice also that the answer was not revealed to the wife until she wept before Him and pleaded for the answer. Doesn't this speak of deep repentance that we know must come to the Church?

The Lesson
So we see that Samson revealing the answer to the riddle to his wife is that same as Jesus revealing Himself to the Church! Notice what happens next!

> … and she told the riddle to the children of her people. Judges 14:17

As soon as she knew the answer, she turned around and told the other Philistines. Isn't this what the Church is required to do? To reveal Jesus to a lost and dying world, marked for judgment? So we see that when and only when we receive the Revelation of Jesus Christ will we really be able to impart that to the lost.

Stand Armed, Not Disarmed

Lanna Perry

21st July, 2005
Sydney Australia

My warriors, the enemy is coming against many of you at this time, and his agenda, is to unravel you. Bring death and destruction and undo all that I have done in you.

My church, I am calling you to be even more aware in these days. Hear my voice, and do not allow the evil one to disarm you. The only way he can disarm you is if you allow it.

I see he is coming against many of you in intense ways, but do not allow this to discourage you, but continue to stand firm. The enemy is kicking hard, and he is kicking in the areas of self worth and identity. The enemy is coming against many of you, by trying to make you doubt your worth in Me, and your identity in Me.

The enemy sees the importance of My children knowing who they are in Me. If he can attack you in these areas, when you are disarmed, or unaware you will often unravel into doubt, fear and lies about who you are in Me and who I am in you.
The enemy knows that the one way to distract My church is to attack their self worth and identity. If he can cause doubt and oppression in My children in these areas then everything unravels.
My church, I am calling each of you to be even more aware. When you have done all to stand, keep standing. Use your swords My children, not sticks. Do not use counterfeit items to combat the enemy, for they will not stop the attack. Use what I have given you, the Sword of the Spirit.

Many of you have felt like you are becoming unstuck and have not realised why. I am speaking to you now, that the reason is, is because you are entertaining the thoughts placed in your minds from the enemy.

Do not entertain these thoughts, but entertain thoughts of above and thoughts of Me. For the time that I am leading My church into very soon, each of you will need a firm foundation and heart conviction of who you are in Me.

For once you are standing stronger and stronger in who you are in Me, when the wind and the waves blow you will not be blown around, but standing firm in the revelation of who you are in Me.

A new move is upon the church. Bridges are being built that have never been built before, but great oppression has come to My church, and the only way to withstand is by standing in the conviction of who you are in Me, and who I AM.

Do not allow the enemy to disarm you. Be aware My church. Continually allow My Spirit to empower each of you to stand against the darts being thrown at you. For it is not by might, or by power, but by My Spirit, that you are given the strength to stand in your worth and identity in Me.

Many of you are still living in unbelief, no more, take on what I say about you, for what I say is the greatest truth that ever existed or will ever exist.

As you stand on my truth, strongholds will fall. If you are not standing in Me, in the confidence of who I am in you, then you are not standing in the power or authority I have given you in My Spirit.

The world and everyone in it, is screaming out to be loved, and be worth something. Feel worthwhile. You, My church have the answer, but you cannot pass on what you do not have.

Continue to soak in My presence, asking Me to continually bathe you in the revelation of who you are. For as I send out My church, a body of Mighty warriors who know who they are in Me, My Spirit will work such great wonders through that authority and confidence like you've never dreamed.

Rise up My precious church. Rise Up My Warriors. Open your eyes and see who you truly are.

Stand My church in the confidence of who you are in Me, but more importantly who I AM in you.

Seeds
Lanna Perry

19th July, 2005
Sydney, Australia

My precious and beautiful children, I have so many heavenly deposits that I am placing within your hearts as you continue to seek Me. As each of you continue to come to Me, and seek Me, and know Me, I am placing seeds of truth within your hearts, and seeds of My Kingdom. Seeds of revelations, seeds of encouragement, and seeds of My love. As you continue to come to Me and allow My living waters to flow through you, these seeds will grow and multiply and you will be known by your fruit.

I long to have each of you as well planted trees beside a stream, blossoming with much fruit from My Kingdom. Much harvest from that which I sow into you, and which you sow into the world for My Kingdom. I long to extend your roots so deep within Me, that you will receive a sweetness and richness from Me and My love that you have never tasted. Finer than the sweetest honey, shall be the enrichment you receive from Me.

I am saddened My children, to see the seeds that you are planting within each other. Many of you are not planting heavenly seeds within the hearts and lives of those around you. I have called each of you to love your neighbour as yourself and place others above yourselves. To continue to place value, love and encouragement upon those around you within My body.

I see a lot of death seeds being planted within My church. I continue to see death seeds being placed within the hearts and lives of My children, from one another.

My heart is for growth and life, not death. When you plant seeds of death, you are allowing the enemy to influence you and use you to tear down and quench that which I am doing in My church.

I am calling for My church to rise up and be planters of love and encouragement, not death.

I see poison running through My church. Seeds of control, manipulation, abuse, and slander are being planted within My church continually without repentance.

My heart of love is not being reflected within My church. I am about to do a new move, My Spirit will be poured out in greater ways, and I am going to bring signs and wonders into the marketplace and the world like never before.

Seeds of death, and seeds of destruction will hinder that work within My church if you continue to do this. I have chosen to give each of you free will, and I long to move greatly, and I will move as you rid yourselves of handing out seeds of death and destruction to one another.

Come out, come out of the darkness and into My Glorious light. Repent of the seeds you have been giving out and allow Me to continue to fill your hearts and hands with seeds of love and seeds from My Kingdom that will bring about much fruit and love in the lives of every believer around you as you hand them out in the power of My Spirit.

The seed of jealousy and manipulation is coming strongly against My church, from WITHIN. Do not be envious of one another but continue to seek Me, and love each other as I love the church. Not in your strength, but allow Me to show you how to love one another in My strength.

My Spirit is about to reach greater lengths and places that have not been reached before, but first you must rid your hearts and hands of these seeds that are NOT of Me.

I love each of you with an everlasting love. All that I deposit within you are seeds of love, and I never hand out seeds of death. My heart is to see you overflow.

Come, My church, continue to be My representatives to this world. Repent of the poison each of you have carried and deposited into one another through thoughts and actions.

Allow forgiveness to flow through My church. Do not quench or hinder My work any longer. I do not expect perfection, for only I the Lord your God can move in complete perfection. Although I call you now My church to leave complacency behind and to be holy as I am holy.

Time is drawing near. Revival and a great shaking is closer to you than you realise. Clean your hearts and your hands in My presence. Rid yourselves of these destructive ways.

Die to self, crucify the flesh continually, and walk in the Spirit. Walk in Me, handing out seeds of love and encouragement wherever your foot may tread. As you do this, watch Me honour your faithfulness and do great and mighty things among you.

As each of you walk in this way as I have called you, and consciously set aside these destructive seeds, you will see My church come together in a new and fresh way, like never before. You will see My church rise up, and do that which I have destined it to do. You will see all parts working together in unity. You will see the beauty of My heart within the church more than ever before. You must rid yourselves of these seeds, and poison one another no more.

Let the church of Mine, the church of Jesus Christ shine again. Let My church not be quenched any longer, listen to what My Spirit is saying, and let My waters wash over all destructiveness within My church, and bring about that which I have always desired. My church continually growing in worshipping in Spirit and in truth.

Storm A Prophetic Event

Michael H. Brown

Politicians Join Archbishop In Calling A Storm A Prophetic Event
[Posted from the well known Catholic WebSite www.SpiritDaily.com]

I don't get to see television very often, but from I understand a state senator from Alabama, Henry E. "Hank" Erwin Jr., was pilloried the other night in one of those programs where the name of the game is pillorying.

In this case it was for Senator Erwin's view that Hurricane Katrina was God's response to the "gambling casinos, sin, and wickedness" of the Gulf and the senator was attacked by both "left" and "right" for that "radical" viewpoint.

It is curious how frenetically the devil attacks notions of chastisement. Sin and wickedness? "It is the kind of behavior that ultimately brings the judgment of God," Senator Erwin had the nerve to say in a nation where even the churchgoers have forgotten what it says in the Bible.

In New York, a discussion among Protestant theologians led by Bill Moyers seemed to purvey the collective discernment that the hurricanes were no chastisement because -- said one participant -- the Lord would not have done so without warning.

Without warning? How many times have we received warnings! "Warnings year after year by godly evangelists and preachers went unheeded," wrote Senator Erwin for a column in a local paper. "So why were we surprised when finally the hand of judgment fell? Sadly, innocents suffered along with the guilty. Sin always brings suffering to good people as well as the bad. America has been moving away from God. We all need to embrace godliness and churchgoing and good, godly living, and we can get divine protection for that point. The Lord is sending appeals to us. As harsh as it may sound, those hurricanes do say that God is real, and we have to realize sin has consequences."

Meanwhile, back in New York, Moyers made the point that it's dangerous to "read the Bible as literally true," and this report comes at the same time that bishops in England, Wales, and Scotland reportedly advised their flocks not to take the Good Book as an historically accurate document, including the predictions of Revelation.

Fortunately, other Protestants, including Franklin Graham, son of Billy, have differed:

Shortly after the storm hit New Orleans, Graham said, “There's been Satanic worship in New Orleans. There's been sexual perversion. God is going to use that storm to bring a revival. God has a plan. God has a purpose.”

Such is also emphasized by Archbishop Philip M. Hannan, who led the New Orleans archdiocese for 23 years and is still such a visible figure that many refer to him as the "pope of New Orleans." He called the hurricane a "Divine chastisement" and urged Catholics to make sure that others -- especially children and grandchildren -- understood God was sending a message; only if we do, he said, will we correct what he called our nation's "low level" of morality.

Ah: no wonder the devil's frenzy!

The same view was expressed by New Orleans City Council President Oliver Thomas -- who said that "maybe God is going to cleanse us."

And then there is former Louisiana state senator, Judge Fritz Windhorst -- a solidly Marian lawyer who has a home near the New Orleans airport and had recently sold a vacation home in Gulfport -- which was destroyed during Katrina. "A lot of people are now talking about chastisement around here," he told me. "The ones who may have been laughing at the idea of an imminent one aren't laughing anymore. It's obvious."

Father Robert Guste, of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church in Kenner, said that the lewd homosexual festival, Southern Decadence, the rampant pornography and gambling and the brazenly blasphemous activities surrounding the annual Mardi Gras, a festival renowned for its mockeries of Christian symbols, may have suggested divine punishment, according to the Catholic website, Lifesite.net.

“Does this not invite Divine judgment?” Guste, 78, asked. When he was asked if New Orleans will ever be the same, he replied, “I hope not. I hope and pray it will be a better city.”

Indeed, those who have been hit or brushed by hurricanes seem to have more of a sense of such than others, although a recent poll by ABC (if we can believe secular polls) says that 23 percent, or about 68 million Americans, believe that the hurricanes were a "deliberate act of God's."

According to the poll, the percentage of Catholics believing that was just 15 percent, or 9.3 million (lower than the number of "non-religious" who believe it was a chastisement, and far lower than evangelicals!), although the percentage is almost surely significantly higher among actual church-going Catholics, who are now in the minority. We must remember than two-thirds of Catholics don't regularly attend Mass and that the majority want married priests and do not believe in the "real Presence" of the Eucharist.

There may also be questions about how the questions were posed. What would the response have been if the question was not whether God directly struck, but rather "allowed" the events to happen?

Is it God Who sends the "judgment" or the devil who actually causes mayhem when we distance ourselves from God and His umbrella of protection?

Whatever the metaphysics, of further interest was that the first thing we saw from Gulfport were the mangled and tossed casinos and the same was true in Biloxi and then in places like Lake Charles (in the aftermath of Rita). Curious too how polluted areas and oil platforms or rigs (at least 109) took hits. One well-known mystic, Sondra Abrahams, who resides in Lake Charles and has appeared on television with Archbishop Hannan, had a near-death experience many years ago during which she claims she was shown aspects of the future. She believes that the storms and other events will intensify, and warns particularly about California.

Sondra is interesting because during the 1970s, long before cloning, she was speaking of a vision in which she was shown what she described for a long time as "duplication." She too has mentioned the sin in afflicted areas. Let us note that the recent fires in California started in Chatsworth -- which is the very epicenter of the pornography business.

The fires did not spread as far as they could have and we must thank God for His patience, which, it seems, is now running out. Back to Louisiana, in Cameron Parish -- a spot where a statue of the Madonna has always stood against storms -- there is now devastation.

But if so, if storms are targeting the sin along the Gulf, and in the entire country, why did the French Quarter survive? Was God simply so merciful that He did not want that most precious part of New Orleans -- its cultural heart -- destroyed, or is He simply arranging another test?

No one can know such things. These are events for the entire nation. They are not done with worldly specificity. But perhaps we have inklings. "The tragedy of New Orleans is not the final one," another mystic, Josyp Terelya, of Ukraine, claims he was told by the Blessed Mother in September. "You will save America through fasting and prayer."

Terelya says that on visiting an alleged site of apparitions in Marmora, Ontario, on August 18, he had been given a prophecy of the storms, again by the Blessed Mother -- who referred to "my children of the new and holy America."

Many are those who claim prophetic words, visions, or dreams. How many can we believe? We try to sort through such things, in obedience to the Bible, which tells us not to discount prophecy, and what we hear often has to do with something fiery.

There are many warnings about the obvious places, such as California, Manhattan, and Long Island. Terelya sees an event that will turn New York into "purified" land dedicated to Mary. How much stock can we place in such prophecies? Have they not at least given us the pulse of what has already come? Do we not at least take from them a general sense of spiritual preparation?

"I have increased my daily 'hedge' prayers for home and family," says a reader named Pamela Foos of Seattle. "I have also felt a strong push to bless the home each day with Holy Water and blessed salt. In the last ten years I have had two very strong dreams, very vivid, very detailed, about chastisement coming. I remember them as if I had them last night. In each of the two dreams, during the chastisement that surrounded me and my family, I felt an interior peace and a 'bubble' of grace which clearly came from Jesus and Our Lady."

"It is still hard to believe that this has happened to New Orleans," writes a resident of the area, Cathryn Lang "It is like a bad dream. But, something really needed to be done! There were so many poor people, and maybe, now, they can start over and have a better life. And there were three or four murders every day. I hope that will stop now. I hope that city is smaller now. It is just too bad that Mardi Gras and the dancers in the French Quarter may come back. We need to pray that this doesn't happen."

Satan's Final Challenge

Bill Somers

Challenge 1

In the Book of Job we read of a case where Satan came before God and issued a challenge, and we see how God took that challenge and used everything Satan meant for evil and used it for good.

> Now there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan came also among them.
> And the LORD said unto Satan, Whence comest thou? Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it.
> And the LORD said unto Satan, Hast thou considered my servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil?
> Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, Doth Job fear God for nought?
> Hast not thou made an hedge about him, and about his house, and about all that he hath on every side? thou hast blessed the work of his hands, and his substance is increased in the land.
> But put forth thine hand now, and touch all that he hath, and he will curse thee to thy face.
> And the LORD said unto Satan, Behold, all that he hath is in thy power; only upon himself put not forth thine hand. So Satan went forth from the presence of the LORD. Job 1:6-12

Satan's challenge is this: If you allow me to take Job's property, he will curse you. When the Lord allows Satan what he asks for it shows once again that Satan is a liar because things do not work out as he says the will.

Look at Job's reaction! Instead of cursing God he worships God and says " ...the LORD gave, and the LORD hath taken away; blessed be the name of the LORD."

So The Lord accepted Satan's challenge and proved him wrong.

Challenge 2

Then Satan comes forth with another challenge. This challenge followed the exact pattern of the first one.

> Again there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan came also among them to present himself before the LORD.
> And the LORD said unto Satan, From whence comest thou? And Satan answered the LORD, and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it.
> And the LORD said unto Satan, Hast thou considered my servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil? and still he holdeth fast his integrity, although thou movedst me against him, to destroy him without cause.
> And Satan answered the LORD, and said, Skin for skin, yea, all that a man hath will he give for his life.
> But put forth thine hand now, and touch his bone and his flesh, and he will curse thee to thy face.
> And the LORD said unto Satan, Behold, he is in thine hand; but save his life. Job 2: 1-6

This time Satan's challenge is 'if you let me afflict Job with sickness, he will curse you. He even plants the suggestion to 'curse God' in Job's mind through his wife.

> Then said his wife unto him, Dost thou still retain thine integrity? curse God, and die.
> But he said unto her, Thou speakest as one of the foolish women speaketh. What? shall we receive good at the hand of God, and shall we not receive evil? In all this did not Job sin with his lips. Job 2:9-10

Once again Job's reaction makes a liar out of Satan.

We know how the story ends as we read through the 44 chapters of Job. Job goes through great turmoil and strife in his debates with his three friends, etc. Finally God Reveals Himself to Job! And Job realizes his sin, repents and is restored. So in the end God has made him an even more perfect servant and restored to him all things that the enemy had taken.

Challenge 3?
In the story of Job, our man Job is entirely unaware of Satan's challenges or what's at stake in them. All he knows is how to hold on to the confession of faith he has in the Lord.

Suppose Satan had come again a third time with another challenge that increased level of Job's trial. The scene might have gone something like this

> And the LORD said unto Satan, Hast thou considered my servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil? and still he holdeth fast his integrity, although thou movedst me against him, to destroy him without cause.
> And thou hast stricken him with all manner of boils.
> And Satan answered the LORD, and said, Boils come and boils go. Job still retaineth his life.
> But put forth thine hand now, and touch him with a sickness unto death, and he will curse thee to thy face.
> And the LORD said unto Satan, Behold, he is in thine hand; even to take his life.

This time, supposing Satan had escalated the challenge a third time, what would happen? I believe that Job would continue to hold fast to his confession of faith and make a liar out of Satan once again. Later on in the book Job says:

> Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him .... Job 13:15

And so Job would have glorified God by his death, still unaware of what was going on in the heavenly realms. When he came before the Lord for his judgment, God would have said, "Well done thou good and faithful servant, enter into the Joy of the Lord."

End Time Application
There is a lesson here that we could apply directly to the End Time Church. She is about to be afflicted by the Hordes of Hell as the Gates of Hell are opened and the enemy comes in like a flood. She will realize her sin, repent and be restored in a Glorious Revival. All things will be restored to her equipping her to bring in the great harvest of souls that God desires.

But then what?

Then we suppose there might be another meeting in heaven, and another conversation that would go something like this.

> Now there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan came also among them.
> And the LORD said unto Satan, Whence comest thou? Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it.
> And the LORD said unto Satan, Hast thou considered my End Time Apostolic Church that there is none like her in the earth, nor has there ever been any like her in all history, being conformed to the very image of my own son Jesus.
> That she is a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that she is become holy and without blemish.
> A perfect and an upright Church, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil?
> One that has obeyed my every command

> That has gone forth and preached my gospel, making disciples of all nations
>
> Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, Doth this so called church of yours fear God for nought?
> Hast not thou redeemed her from all her sin, purifying her in the fire of your judgment
> And made an hedge about her, and about her house, and about all that she hath on every side?
> thou hast blessed the work of her hands,
> and baptized her with the Holy Ghost and Fire, > Anointed her with rivers of oil, signs, wonders and miracles > and poured out your Spirit upon her without measure so that the harvest is increased in the land.
> Hast thou not raised up the standard of holiness to frustrate my entire army
> But I still have a stronghold left in your so called perfection of beauty!
> And the Lord answered "Say on"
> You know that I have "the power of death" and trough fear of death I hold all your precious saints in bondage. [See Hebrews 2:14-15]
> But put forth thine hand now, and touch this church of yours with persecution unto death, and she will deny thee and curse thee to thy face.
> And the LORD said unto Satan, Behold, she is in thine hand to do whatsoever thou wish. So Satan went forth from the presence of the LORD.

And the result of this we find in Revelation 13

> And it was given unto him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations. Rev 13:7

But we have one advantage over Job. We have read the book to the end and we know that Satan's Final Challenge is doomed to fail just like all the rest.

> And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death. Revelation 12:11

And though Satan is given power to overcome us, we know that we will overcome him the same way Jesus did when He defeated him at the cross.

> Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren. 1 John 3:16

Salvation and the Ministry of Reconciliation

David Weber

"Neither through the blood of goats and calves, but through His own blood, did He enter into the Most Holy Place, having obtained age-during redemption once and for all." (Hebrews 9:12)

"So Christ also, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, apart from a sin-offering, will appear a second time to those waiting for Him – to salvation! (Hebrews 9:28)

The book of Hebrews generally has suffered much misunderstanding in the church, and the notion that verse 28 supports the conventional concept of "The second coming of Christ," is a prime example of reading into a text unbiblical presuppositions. For this reason, I feel a pressing need at this time to draw a line of comparison between the above verses so that we might also be able to compare two atoning works of Christ; that which we call "reconciliation," and that which we call "salvation," for they are not the same. By doing this we might also be able to understand how all things (including all men) were reconciled (past tense) to the Father at Calvary (Colossians 1:20, Romans 5:10, 2 Corinthians 5:18-19), yet we see not all men saved ... yet.

Beloved, in the above two verses from Hebrews we should be able to see two distinct and separate works of Christ; reconciliation by His death (vs.12), and secondly, salvation by His life-giving Spirit (vs. 28). Jesus Christ came first in the likeness of sinful flesh and condemned sin in the flesh by tasting death for every man, then He comes again to all those who believe, as a life-giving Spirit, to infuse that believer with His Resurrection Life. It was the Father's good pleasure for His Son to be crucified, for in that work, ALL OF CREATION was reconciled to the Father, having made peace through the blood of the cross. Because of that work, and through our faith in Jesus Christ as the Savior of the world, we as believers are then given the ministry of reconciliation, that is; to let all men know that they HAVE BEEN RECONCILED to God through the blood of Jesus Christ, but in order for them to enter into, or even see the Kingdom of God, they must step into the PROCESS of salvation by faith; the process that will change and conform them into the image of the Son of God.

The two distinct and separate works of atonement (reconciliation and salvation) are also revealed to us in Old Testament picture type. Let us take a look at some of them as they are revealed to us in the book of Leviticus:

In Leviticus chapter 14 and chapter 16, we can find two passages of Scripture that embody the laws regarding the two works of Christ described above; this represented in the two birds used in the cleansing of a leper (a depiction of mortality), and the two goats used to fulfill the law on the Day of Atonement. In brief: the two birds depict the two stages by which mankind shall be cleansed of mortality. The first bird was killed to provide a blood covering for the second bird. In this we can see that the first bird's death (Christ's death on the cross) makes Life available to all men through reconciliation with the Father, while the second bird when released into the "field" (spiritual regeneration), INFUSES a believer with inherent immortality and the Life of Christ through the process of salvation.

The goats of Leviticus 16 reveal something similar, but they deal not with man's mortality because of sin, but rather with the sin itself. Again, as revealed also in Hebrews chapter 9, there are two stages in which the sin of man is eradicated. The first goat (Christ's death on the cross) covered our sin (provided a means for forgiveness – reconciliation), and the second goat (a living, sanctifying work of the Spirit) will remove sin from man until "salvation" is completed (glorification). Beloved, Christ's first "appearance" (in the Most Holy Place in heaven) covered our sin, and His second "appearance" (an intercessory and spiritual work) will remove it altogether.

In order for us to gain a clearer understanding of these atoning works, it is important for us to see "salvation" as a PROCESS rather than a moment that happened at an altar call somewhere. Beloved, you are not fully "saved" until you come to the measure of the stature which belongs to the fullness of Christ. This is why Paul exhorted the Philippian believers to work out their salvation with fear and trembling. The "altar call" (so to speak) was only an entrance (regeneration) into the fellowship of the Spirit; the time when the salvation/sanctification process that leads to resurrection Life and glorification BEGINS. It is only through God's provision by His first work of redemption and reconciliation that ANYONE can enter into the second work of salvation; a work in which men are actually shaped into vessels of righteousness.

Are you still with me here saints? If you can understand what I am saying today, you will better be able to understand God's Father heart for His creation, and if you study this in conjunction with the prophetic feasts of Israel, you will be able to see and understand that God has a perfect plan to bring ALL men to the knowledge of the Truth whereby they all will eventually be "saved."

Brethren, Jesus Christ is the Reconciler and Savior of all men! We may not see all men saved at this time, but they have been reconciled to God, and when God's plan of the ages comes to its full and complete end ... God will have His way ... and all men will be saved! The entire Bible declares it! (*For those of you who still might believe the unbiblical doctrine of "eternal torment," and have not had any teaching on the English mistranslations of the Hebrew word "olam" and its Greek equivalent "aion," please e-mail me and I'll be more than happy to send you some information).

It is also true today that many Christians (who consider themselves "saved") are not actually being infused with the resurrection Life and Power of Christ, for they never moved beyond the initial stage of salvation. Jesus said that "straight is the gate and narrow is the path that leads to Life, and few there be who find it!" This has a particular application for believers regarding the full salvation that shall be seen during the Age of Tabernacles! For this reason, I exhort you brethren, as Paul did the Philippian believers, to work out your salvation with fear and trembling, for when Christ is fully formed within a firstfruit remnant, all of creation (and an unbelieving portion of the church) shall witness firsthand, full salvation in a people; a salvation that is found in none other than Jesus Christ alone, and made available to all because of His redemptive work on Calvary!

"For if, when we were God's enemies, we were reconciled to Him through the death of His Son, how much more, having been reconciled, shall we be saved through His life!" (Romans 5:10)

Beloved, the gospel truth is that God was in Christ reconciling the world to Himself, even when they (and we) were still His enemies! Through the first atoning work of Christ, redemption and reconciliation was made available for all; meaning that God has made provision for all men to come into the second work of salvation, and all eventually will, but each in their own rank and order, and over the course of many ages. We need to let the world know that God is not angry at them, and that He is not threatening to torture and torment them "forever and ever." That is a gross misrepresentation of Who He is! That is not the GOOD NEWS at all! No! The good news is that all men have been reconciled to God at the cross, and that God looks upon His entire creation as a loving Father whose arms are ever stretched out to receive them to Himself. It is His kindness that leads men to repentance! ... He wants them to know Him through the Love of Christ, not as a monster who threatens them with horrendous torments and torture for all of eternity!! That is a pagan doctrine that infiltrated the church in the third and fourth centuries through faulty Latin Bible translations! Beloved, many people in the world are not rejecting God as much as they are rejecting the false doctrines of the "Christians" who misrepresent Him! Our Father has committed to us the word of reconciliation which is good news for everyone! Christian, go and tell the world the good news! Go and tell them the truth!

"Now all these things are from God, who reconciled us to Himself through Christ, and gave us the ministry of reconciliation, namely, that God was in Christ reconciling the world to Himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and He has committed to us the word of reconciliation."(2 Corinthians 5:18-19)

Beloved, go and tell them the truth.

Stand And War

Chuck Pierce

September 2, 2005

Dear Friends:

We must pray and intercede on behalf of those traumatized along the Gulf Coast areas. We are entering into a level of warfare in the earth that is beyond our present mindset and paradigm.

In these seven years of war, God has been preparing us for what is ahead. We are ending the fourth year and approaching the fifth year.

We need supernatural grace to deal with lawless structures in days ahead. I want to be real honest, when I wrote "The Future War of the Church" explaining the anti-Christ system and lawlessness, many criticized and scoffed at the concept of the level of warfare that we would be encountering in days ahead.

Please, please prepare yourself for these next three years. Use the prayer points below to begin to engage spiritual forces in ways that we have never understood in the past. The following prophetic word is from the revelation that came forth on August 12 in our FirstFruits Gathering built around covenant alignment.

Word Of The Lord That Came Forth On August 12, 2005

> To the United States of America ... "Know that today this nation is being realigned. Get ready, for refuge cities will begin to arise throughout this land. They will begin to rise up from state to state to state all along the East coast, all along the Gulf, and all along the West coast.
> "I am raising up refuge cities. Florida is resisting the development of My plan, but I will cause a strong remnant to arise in this state. I AM even beginning to train those in cities that will know how to move forward. Many of you have wondered: 'Why am I not involved here or there - why do I seem to be shelved?' I will begin to assign you to be a part of those groups that will aid My next move in the earth.
> "This will come because of great shakings, floods and disease structures that are forming. I AM assigning you now to spread My Good News. I AM developing ears to hear My grace. There is a shifting now of compassion and mercy, for I need My healers to be ready to be released throughout the land.
> "...To those in law enforcement and public authority, lawlessness is beginning to rise and escalate. Many of you who have prayed will become discouraged as you see statistics change.

> Lift up your heads. This is the beginning of dividing and exposing the real source of covenant breaking and violence that is seething in this land. I will give you strategies over how to defeat major lawless structures. These strategies are but temporary measures, so remain on alert from this day forward."

1. Ask God to teach you about lawlessness.
2. Ask the Lord to build a shield of faith around you.
3. Ask the Lord to have you be more responsive to prophecy. (The word to Baton Rouge in 2003 was "you will become a refuge city" [referenced in "Releasing the Prophetic Destiny of a Nation"]. In 2004, the word given in Baton Rouge was on purification coming to New Orleans. You can read this word here: http://www.elijahlist.com/words/display_word.html?ID=2459)
4. Don't lean on your own understanding. We are entering into a supernatural dimension.
5. Bind the accuser who is working in the earth realm to bring division in the midst of crisis.
6. Begin to set a blood line barrier at the 150 mile radius around the victimized area. How do you do that? You get up and decree by the Spirit of God that there is a supernatural shield set so that the enemy's plan cannot invade that barrier. Cry out for angelic forces to visit individuals that are crying out in these areas. Ask for angels to HELP in this structure of lawlessness that is operating in this part of the earth.
7. Pray for those that are serving as refuge cities – Houston, Baton Rouge, and others.
8. In the midst of trauma, always let God show you areas in our lives that can be purified. Bind condemnation and ask God to purify us where we have been weak in the past. In intercession, what you identify ... purify. Ask God to purify areas where we have allowed the enemy to take control.
9. Pray for supernatural, unexplained healings to start occurring in individuals.
10. Ask for the Holy Spirit to invade this situation.

Yes, this situation could be a result of the Gaza Strip crisis in Israel. Yes, this situation could be a result of the spiritistic decadence that goes on in New Orleans. Yes, this situation could be a result because of the slave entry through New Orleans. Yes, this situation could be a result of the gambling along the coast line. Yes, this could be because of the Circuit Court System in New Orleans taking its stand on behalf of abortion in the land. However, the issue right now is to let the Spirit of God rise up within you and for you begin to cry out in the midst of this situation in a way that you have never cried out before.

Job 22:30 says, "He will even deliver the one [for whom you intercede] who is not innocent; yes, he will be delivered through the cleanness of your hands." (AMP)

Once you have lived through severe trauma, you realize that pointing a finger is not necessary !!!

You actually realize that it is just the grace of God that any of us are not in these situations. Pray that the "spirit of man withstand this major wound and infirmity in this nation" (Prov 18:14).

THE HOLY SPIRIT IS THE ONLY RESTRAINER OF EVIL IN THE EARTH REALM

Here is another portion of the prophetic word that came forward in our August FirstFruits Gathering on covenant.

> To the CHURCH ... "I will reverse cessation thinking. Many have held onto a dead religion. Let go of old religious patters and embrace My resurrection and power. The wind of My power will begin to blow and it will not be able to be explained. There will be a desire for My Spirit. Those that do not repent of a religion that denies My Spirit in the earth will not embrace My covenant plan or people in the future. I have chosen Israel as the deciding factor in the earth. Those who do not acknowledge Israel's place in the earth will not understand the place that I have prepared for them in days ahead."

If there is one thing that we need to ask the Lord to forgive us for – it is the quenching and grieving of Holy Spirit in the earth.

We will attempt to make available a download of the chapter on LAWLESSNESS from The Future War of the Church. You can go to our website at www.glory-of-zion.org You can go to www.elijahlist.com to get "Prayers that Outwit the Enemy" and "The Future War of the Church".

Stumbling Blocks to Maturity

Bill Somers

> Ro 14:1 Him that is weak in the faith receive ye, but not to doubtful disputations.
> For any given topic in end time prophecy, there are 57 varieties of opinion. Heinz Law of Eschatology.

Introduction

Childish Things

Over the years, the Lord has shown me many things out of his word. I have written about the end times, revival, the kingdom, the church and the second coming in my other articles. Another topic that comes often is disputes and divisions in the church. We have an unending number of differences of opinion. In fact, it seems that whenever two Christians from different churches get together, one of the first things they do is to find something do disagree about. We have cases where there are a good number of scriptures that support either side of a question. And we have cases where a given scripture can be interpreted in two or more ways. Lack of maturity is what prevents God's people from agreeing on these issues and coming into 'unity of the faith.' How is this so?

Our first opening quote above refers to doubtful disputations. My paraphrase of it is, accept your brothers and sisters in the Lord who are weak in faith, or immature; but don't get into foolish arguments with them. These next two quotes reinforce that idea.

> 2Ti 2:22 Flee also youthful lusts: but follow righteousness, faith, charity, peace, with them that call on the Lord out of a pure heart.
> 23 But foolish and unlearned questions avoid, knowing that they do gender strifes.
> Tit 3:9 But avoid foolish questions, and genealogies, and contentions, and strivings about the law; for they are unprofitable and vain.

In other words, don't get yourself tangled up in stupid arguments with immature believers. As these quotes indicate, they are 'doubtful', 'unprofitable' 'unwise' and cause a lot of friction.

One way of expressing why you should avoid these arguments is simply that it's childish. As I said, the Lord has shown me many things about the end times. Occasionally, he would go over them and summarize them to me. The way this worked was like this. I would imagine myself sharing or speaking on these topics to an audience somewhere, and the Lord would be giving me the things to say to them. [Some refer to this as the anointing to preach.] As I was doing this one day, it occurred to me that in my discussion, I never touched on the subject of the Pre-Trib Rapture. And furthermore, that some listeners would think this unusual since it has been a really big issue for some time. What if, I thought, someone would bring up a question like this: 'But, sir, you are not even trying to disprove the pretrib rapture!' Well that's right; I never even consider it an option. But I asked the Lord, well Lord what do I say if someone asks me that? His answer really startled me! Or rather, as some might say, it blew me away! He said: When I became a man, I put away childish things.

Wow! How like him to cut through all the stuff and nonsense and get right to the heart of the matter! Now even after about 10 years, I'm still learning the full implications of what he spoke to me that evening. That's what this essay is about.

One of these implications is this. To a mature believer, the pre-trib teaching is absolute childish nonsense, period, end of discussion. What does this have to say about the level of maturity in the church today? Well for the most part it says there is no level of maturity in the church today. Some few individuals are approaching maturity, but for in general you're not going to find much maturity anywhere. [What maturity I might have myself is purely the Lord's doing and nothing I accomplished by my own efforts, I assure you.]

So it's the immature Christians that get caught up in foolish fussin', fuedin', and fightin'. The mature are to avoid all that. I have found my self in several cases submitted to men that had far greater experience, authority, and ministry credentials than mine. Yet in these situations I was often puzzled by why they could not see the things the Lord was revealing to me in the scriptures. Now I realize that it's simply that they were immature. Even those with many years in the ministry, that you would expect to be mature users of the Word, turned out to be immature. In many cases that was because of stumbling blocks in their lives.

I was looking to them as experts in the word, but it turned out that I was more expert than they were. And I was putting myself at a disadvantage by regarding them as superiors. It was realizing this, which lead to this article.

As we proceed, we are going to look at what maturity is; and how it is linked with faith and wisdom. Then we'll consider what common obstacles to it exist.

Part One
Maturity and Wisdom

Maturity is having the faith to acquire wisdom. The mature have faith and get wisdom. This is a matter of degree, not an either or situation. The mature have a degree of faith and have received a degree of wisdom.

Heb. 5: 12-14 is a key passage for understanding the notion of maturity.

> Heb. 5:12 For when for the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need that one teach you again which be the first principles of the oracles of God; and are become such as have need of milk, and not of strong meat.
> 13 For every one that useth milk is unskilful in the word of righteousness: for he is a babe.
> 14 But strong meat belongeth to them that are of full age, even those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil.

We see that those who have been in ministry and should be capable teachers are spoken of as those who need teaching. This is the condition of the church today. This passage contrasts the mature, those of full age, with the babes in terms of consuming meat or milk, in relation to the oracles of God. The word oracle is related to oration or speaking. So Hebrews here is talking about God speaking. As we get farther along, we will be able to see exactly what are the first principles of the oracles of God.

Now here is the context of the phrase the Lord spoke to me that I mentioned above.

> 1 Cor. 13: 8 Charity never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away.
> 9 For we know in part, and we prophesy in part.
> 10 But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away.
> 11 When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish things.
> 12 For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known.
> 13 And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity.

In general this whole passage speaks of a great transition. It's the transition from a child to a man; from the immature to the mature. We change from being those who know in part, and prophesy in part to those who know even as we are known. We go from seeing things very dimly, to seeing things quite plainly.

We start as babes in Christ, who are nourished by the milk of the word. We must mature to become like those of full age who are nourished by strong meat.

This passage from Ephesians 4 covers much of the same ideas. It speaks of the 5 fold ministry and its purpose, to help in the perfecting of the saints. That is another way of saying to help lead them out of the childish ways into maturity.

> Eph. 4:12 For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ:
> 13 Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ:
> 14 That we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive;
> 15 But speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ:

Notice how it talks about growing up and being children no longer; leaving behind childish things and childish ways. The children are pictured as being tossed about, and carried away with constantly changing doctrines and differing opinions. They are easy marks for trickery, craftiness and deception. They are contrasted with the mature that come into unity of the faith, and achieve a level of perfection as they grow up into a likeness of Christ.

Those teachers – you have 10,000 instructors in Christ – whom you notice are immature in the word are to be avoided, except in the very basics.

> Proverbs 14:7 Go from the presence of a foolish man, when thou perceivest not in him the lips of knowledge.

They are essentially and automatically disqualified as teachers or expositors of the word. They will of course have some truth and accuracy in what they have to share, but you will find it thoroughly mixed with error and man's opinion. This of course includes all Christian denominations and camps, to a greater or lesser degree. We should not be bothered to argue or dispute with them, as with any who are weak in faith. From God's point of view, the differences between denominations are often nothing more than children arguing on the playground that really have no idea what they are talking about. .

No Undecided Voters

A few weeks before the last presidential election here in America, I got into a discussion with a co-worker who supported the candidate I opposed. One thing he mentioned was very intriguing. Actually, all the polling data about the undecided voter was just a lot of bunk, he claimed. There are no undecided voters; the election will not be won by swaying the undecided voter, or by persuading those of the opposing party to switch their votes. The election will go to who ever gets out the vote. [I personally feel that the heavy rain all election evening here in Ohio is what swung the state into the Republican camp.]

The next interesting point he made was that people did not give the real or honest reason they vote one way or another. In this election, he felt, people were actually quite indifferent to the personality and character of John Kerry. And they really weren't moved by the candidate's stands on the issues. People were going to vote one way or the other because they either liked the incumbent Pres. Bush or because they hated him. And the issues were irrelevant, and the personality of his opponent, Kerry made no difference. Now they might give a great deal of reasons for voting one way or the other, but that meant nothing really. The fact was that most people have their minds made up and simple arguments would not persuade them. And that's because their minds were made up on an emotional basis. Nobody is going to admit that the real reason they vote the way they do is not based on sound logic. But for some it is a personal like or dislike, and for some, it may be simply party affiliation. Character and programs mattered not at all.

Reason Has A Limited Effect

Generalizing on this idea, it seems that reasoning and logic does not convince people to change their views. Ultimately their views and opinions are not entirely rational. Now reason can have a great influence in many cases, but where it meets resistance it will not carry the day. We know from the bible and from experience that there are great spiritual influences on the mind. And these are capable of controlling or conditioning the thinking of entire populations where they hold sway.

No matter what you say, some people are set in their views and cannot be swayed by any rational means. The real reasons for their attitudes may be will hidden behind a smokescreen of excuses and rationalizations.

This brings us back to avoiding foolish disputes. The immature Christian will get into foolish debates because they are still babes, feeding on the milk of the word. They are still weak in the faith. They will latch onto some theory, and nothing can budge them. Reasoning from the scriptures does not sway them, because their ideas or the ideas they have been taught, have become a stronghold in their thinking.

And what do we mean by weak in the faith? We are told that faith comes by hearing and hearing by the word of God. This can mean faith comes by hearing the word of God. Or in a more complex analysis, that faith is the ability to hear the word of God, and this hearing comes from ‘The Word of God’, that is Jesus. This said another way is that Jesus gives the ability to hear his word.

So what do we mean by hearing in this case? Spiritual hearing of course. When Jesus rebukes his critics in John 8 it says:

> John 8:43 Why do ye not understand my speech? even because ye cannot hear my word.

Here it’s not whether they can hear what he is saying to them. They could just holler 'Speak Up Louder' if that was the case. Their problem is they have no Spiritual ears to hear the meaning of Jesus’ words. The idea is restated in verse 47.

> John 8:47 He that is of God heareth God's words

This does not only apply to the ungodly, but to the immature Christian. When one comes to the lord, he can read the word and this is feeding on the milk. As you mature, you begin to hear the word as well. This is learning to feed on the meat, and it should always increase. So hearing is not just hearing with the ears, it is understanding. Likewise, seeing is not just seeing with the eyes, but understanding or comprehending.

The First Principle Of The Oracles Of God.

As we mentioned the word oracle refers to speech. So the oracles of God are what God is speaking. And the first principle is that you have to hear. It is repeated 7 times in the book of revelation.

> "He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches." (Revelation 2:7, 2:11, 2:17, 2:29, 3:6, 3:13, 3:22)

Skepticism

The hard core skeptic will refuse to accept that there is any spiritual side to life at all. He will always find or make up some natural explanation for anything that happens. To those whose world view allows for a spiritual dimension, and accept the existence of spirits, many events are obviously supernatural in cause. To the skeptic, it’s just coincidence. But coincidence is often exactly what God uses to emphasize things to those who have an ear to hear. [On Sep. 11, 2002 the numbers 9 1 1 came out in the New York State lottery; coincidence?]

The Limits Of Mans Reason

You can only go so far in teaching or explaining the bible. There comes a point where you have to let the student or the audience figure out things for themselves. The immature believer is not going to get it; the skeptic is not going to accept it. Only the Spirit of God will lead them to make the right conclusion.

The Divinity of Jesus

For example in Revelation, there is a description of God’s throne in heaven. It is said to be surrounded by the four beasts. Later you see where it says that in the midst of the throne, and in the midst of the four beasts there stood a lamb. A believer can read this and in a flash of insight, reach a conclusion that Jesus is God. For him, because the Spirit can quicken his insight, this can be a proof text. A skeptic can look at this same passage and just as easily say 'I don't see where this proves anything!'

Another passage used as a proof text is in John 20: 28 when doubting Thomas places his hand into Jesus' wounded side, and exclaims, My Lord and My God! To a believer this is a proof text of the Divinity of Jesus. To a skeptic or a member of a movement or cult that denies the Divinity of Jesus, it's no proof at all. They can easily claim that Thomas is just using a figure of speech. As someone who says "Jumpin' Jehosaphat!" or "Holy Smoke!" is merely expressing astonishment.

The idea here is that if someone doesn't want to accept a certain idea, or believe a certain doctrine, they will always be able to come up with an alternative explanation. If they have not been given any insight by the Spirit or they are hindered by one of the stumbling blocks the result is much the same. They will go off in the wrong direction.

Likewise the anti-rapture school will often go too far and reject any covenant promises with Israel as applying to natural Israel. This gets them into replacement theology, and dangerously close to anti-Semitism. It is a typical over-reaction to the excesses of dispensationalism. These thinkers will find themselves saying things like "The restoration of the State of Israel in 1948 has absolutely nothing to do with bible prophecy." Well, duh! How is anybody going to be taken seriously when they deny something as obvious as that? Man's logic in this case gets him to the point of denying the obvious.

No matter what you say, some people are set in their views and cannot be swayed by reason or scripture. The real reasons for their attitudes may be will hidden behind a smokescreen of excuses and rationalizations. Or you may just have a case of outright refusal to believe.

Once I had an opportunity to share a taped testimony of someone who God had raised from the dead. Marvin Ford suffered a fatal heart attack and was dead on the hospital bed for one half hour. In his testimony he describes his experience in heaven, and how he saw his pastor come to the hospital, and pray over his corpse. Then he was back in his body, alive again. My neighbor listened to this and refused to believe it. He argued, well that never could have happened because after being dead that long, his brain cells would be dead and he would just be a vegetable if he woke up again. Well DUH! What does it take? Did this guy ever stop to think? If God could bring someone's body back to life, wouldn't that include the brain cells? But it was no use debating him. No wonder Jesus said:

> Luke 16:31 And he said unto him, If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead.

So we are to avoid foolish disputes with those weak in the faith, because unless they can hear directly from God for themselves, nothing will convince them. They are may be swayed by some experience or jostled by a show of power, but mere discourse will have little effect.

Receiving Divine Revelation
How does knowledge come? Through man's wisdom or God's? Here is an important illustration from Matthew 16.

> Mt 16:13 When Jesus came into the coasts of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, Whom do men say that I the Son of man am?
> 14 And they said, Some say that thou art John the Baptist: some, Elias; and others, Jeremias, or one of the prophets.
> 15 He saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am?
> 16 And Simon Peter answered and said, Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God.
> 17 And Jesus answered and said unto him, Blessed art thou, Simon Barjona: for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father which is in heaven.

Let's take a look at what is going on here. First Jesus asks them, who do men say that I am? And they list several alternatives. These are like theories based on man's wisdom. Then he asks them: Who do you say that I am?

Then Peter, being given a typical multiple choice question on an exam, picks: None of the above. He is saying: none of the theories of men are right, and none of the wisdom of man carries any weight. You are Christ, the Son of the living God!

And then Jesus says [I'm amplifying his remarks] Blessed you are indeed! Blessed because flesh and blood has not revealed it to you. That is you didn't get it from studying the theories of other men, you didn't get it from reading the latest best seller, or the most profound scholarly commentaries. And you didn't figure it out all on your own. Yet you have this knowledge and that's because you got it directly from God in Heaven.
[And that's where any real knowledge must come from.]

The contrast between mature and immature is phrased as a comparison between the spiritual and the carnal, or fleshly in 1 Cor. 3

> 1Cr 3:1 And I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto spiritual, but as unto carnal, [even] as unto babes in Christ.
> 2 I have fed you with milk, and not with meat: for hitherto ye were not able [to bear it], neither yet now are ye able.

John 6 touches on this idea also.

> John 6:63 It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life.

The passage above mentions that the spoken words are life. This is also seen in the passages on Jesus' temptation.

> Matthew 4:4 But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.

People are set in their views and cannot be swayed by reason or scripture. But we see here that Divine Revelation, God's wisdom, can overcome and override all of that.

So we are to avoid foolish disputes with those weak in the faith, because unless they can hear directly from God for themselves, nothing will convince them. They are may be swayed by some experience or jostled by a show of power, but mere discourse will have little effect.

Wisdom of Man vs. the Power of God
Now if people are set in their views and cannot be swayed by reason what does it take to make a change? Consider these passages which compare the spoken word to the Power of the Spirit

> 1Co 2:1 And I, brethren, when I came to you, came not with excellency of speech or of wisdom, declaring unto you the testimony of God.
> 2 For I determined not to know any thing among you, save Jesus Christ, and him crucified.
> 3 And I was with you in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling.
> 4 And my speech and my preaching was not with enticing words of man's wisdom*, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power:*
> 5 That your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God*.*
>
> 1Co 4:15 For though ye have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers: for in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the gospel.
> 16 Wherefore I beseech you, be ye followers of me.
> 17 For this cause have I sent unto you Timotheus, who is my beloved son, and faithful in the Lord, who shall bring you into remembrance of my ways which be in Christ, as I teach every where in every church.
> 18 Now some are puffed up, as though I would not come to you.
> 19 But I will come to you shortly, if the Lord will, and will know, not the speech of them which are puffed up, but the power.

> 20 For the kingdom of God is not in word, but in power.

Consider how the Spirit is described here in John 14 as one who teaches and brings things into remembrance.

> Joh 14:26 But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you.

To provide an example of a more mature, in depth approach consider the following In the above passage from 1 Cor 4 a very similar description is given for Timotheus. This is a clue that the passage from 1 Cor 4 is allegorical. The speaker is Jesus, [not Paul] and Timotheus is used as a type of the Holy Spirit. It is Jesus who is saying be ye followers of me. The Holy Spirit is the one who is to teach and bring things into memory. And the mention of the coming to us and the nature of the Kingdom has end time implications. For now we have ten thousand instructors but where is the maturity? It's found in those who are followers; those who can hear.

Another Example

We mentioned that someone can always find an alternate explanation for a bible passage. People have used the bible to prove just about anything. And it's not just the bible; people can come up with reasons for just about anything. Man's capacity for self justification and self delusion seems unlimited.

Now the bible gives a very interesting example of exactly this process. In Psalms 26 you can find two sequential verses that tell you to do the exact opposites. And each one has a good reason given to justify it. [And the question may well be about foolish disputes.]

> Prov. 26:4 Answer not a fool according to his folly, lest thou also be like unto him.
> Prov. 26:5 Answer a fool according to his folly, lest he be wise in his own conceit.

The point here is with the letter of the law you can find a reason for just about anything. There are many issues of debate in the church where people on both sides of an issue can come up with scripture to prove their point. [Do we keep the Sabbath on Saturday or have worship service on Sunday, is one example that comes to mind.] Going with the letter of the law, we are just never going to reach agreement. Some of these questions can never be settled by arguing over the scripture. Proverbs 3 puts it another way.

> Prov. 3: 5 Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding.
> 6 In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.

When faced with a demand for proof by the scripture, you can talk till you are blue in the face and it won't make any difference, without the Spirit to open the ears of the listener. Depending on your own logic automatically means you are no longer trusting the Lord. But when you 'acknowledge him' you admit that you can't figure these things out on your own. He will lead the way, trust him enough to follow.

Is it any wonder that Jesus' would say:

> Mark 4:9 And he said unto them, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

Once again, reasoning and logic does not convince people to change their views. Someone who is holding a certain view point can always find alternate explanations or simply go into denial. They are leaning on their own understanding.

Existentialism

The famous existentialist philosopher, Jean Paul Sartre, based a lot of his arguments on a hypothetical moral dilemma. He proposed a situation in which a young man was torn between duty to his country and duty to his parents. Then he showed that Religion did not provide any answer to this dilemma. You could find strong reasons for both sides of the question and no way of convincingly answering it. Since religion has no answers, he rejected belief in God. [In logic, this is called a non sequitur or as we say nowadays, it does not compute.] The mature Christian will know that religion has no answers, God has the answers , and they are found in seeking him! Religion is just the dead letter of the law. Or it is a system of man made rules that promise salvation but can never deliver. It is a work of the flesh.

Mixed with Faith

Another way of expressing this is to look at the idea of the word mixed with faith.

> Heb 4:2 For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it.

This is saying the word needs to be mixed or received by faith. For those without faith, the word is of little or no benefit.

What is the word that is not mixed with faith? It's the plain word with no Spirit in it. It is natural, not supernatural; or flesh not spirit. The word mixed with faith is supernatural.

> Heb 11:6 But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

Let's look at this verse. He that comes to God must believe he is. The skeptic is not going to get very far studying the word. He will not be very able to hear the voice of one he thinks doesn't exist! [We believe he is because he says I AM!]

Next, we believe he is a rewarder of those who intensely seek him. How does he reward his seekers? One answer is for those who seek him, he gives of himself. Those who seek him, find … him. That is they find more of him. He reveals more and more of himself to you! And there is always more to be found. This is the Key of Knowledge and way to maturity.

Examples:
This passage speaks of seeking wisdom and finding it as you would find a hidden treasure.

> Pr 2:1 My son, if thou wilt receive my words, and hide my commandments with thee;
> 2 So that thou incline thine ear unto wisdom, and apply thine heart to understanding;
> 3 Yea, if thou criest after knowledge, and liftest up thy voice for understanding;
> 4 If thou seekest her as silver, and searchest for her as for hid treasures;
> 5 Then shalt thou understand the fear of the LORD, and find the knowledge of God.
> 6 For the LORD giveth wisdom: out of his mouth cometh knowledge and understanding.
> 7 He layeth up sound wisdom for the righteous: he is a buckler to them that walk uprightly.
> 8 He keepeth the paths of judgment, and preserveth the way of his saints.
> 9 Then shalt thou understand righteousness, and judgment, and equity; yea, every good path.

This next passage speaks of the gradual growth to maturity which comes from seeking Him.

> Isa 28:9 Whom shall he teach knowledge? and whom shall he make to understand doctrine? them that are weaned from the milk, and drawn from the breasts.
> 10 For precept must be upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little:

Now this passage speaks of the hidden treasures found in him, and contrasts it with the enticing words of men.

> Col 2:1 For I would that ye knew what great conflict I have for you, and for them at Laodicea, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh;
> 2 That their hearts might be comforted, being knit together in love, and unto all riches of the > full assurance of understanding, to the acknowledgement of the mystery of God, and of the Father, and of Christ;

> 3 In whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.
> 4 And this I say, lest any man should beguile you with enticing words.
> 5 For though I be absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, joying and beholding your order, and the stedfastness of your faith in Christ.

This passage speaks of knowing the Lord by receiving hidden riches, or to invert that, receiving the riches which is knowing the Lord.

> Isa 45:3 And I will give thee the treasures of darkness, and hidden riches of secret places, that thou mayest know that I, the LORD, which call thee by thy name, am the God of Israel.

Without faith it is impossible to please him. Romans 10 adds this:

> Ro 10:17 So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

And 1st Corinthians points out that:

> 1Co 2:14 But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.

John adds this:

> John 6:63 It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life.

All of this put together is very significant. Without the hearing of the word, it's impossible to understand the word. The hearing of the word is the second witness. The Spirit who gives illumination or sheds light on the word will do so to the extent that you are able to understand. So someone with more background knowledge or who already understands some parts of the bible is able to receive deeper revelation of any given passage. In this way each revelation can become the foundation or background of the next revelation. There are often multiple levels, multiple meanings and multiple lessons potentially to be found in the word. So the Spirit may reveal quite different things to different readers from the same bible verse.

Having the word 'mixed with faith' means hearing the voice of God. This is inherently a supernatural thing. The hearing of faith is what lets us understand the word. This sheds new light on the verse that says without faith it is impossible to please him. Well obviously, if you're not hearing what he says, you won't know what he wants you to do! We need the hearing of faith, then comes the obedience of faith. With these then, we may be able to please God.

Two Witnesses

We just mentioned that hearing the word is the second witness. Let's look at the idea of having 2 witnesses.

> De 17:6 At the mouth of two witnesses, or three witnesses, shall he that is worthy of death be put to death; but at the mouth of one witness he shall not be put to death.
>
> De 19:15 One witness shall not rise up against a man for any iniquity, or for any sin, in any sin that he sinneth: at the mouth of two witnesses, or at the mouth of three witnesses, shall the matter be established.
>
> Mt 18:16 But if he will not hear thee, then take with thee one or two more, that in the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established.
> 2Co 13:1 This is the third time I am coming to you. In the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established.

> John 8:17 It is also written in your law, that the testimony of two men is true.

Here we have a few verses relating to the idea that 2 or more witnesses are needed to prove something. In the Old Testament verses, they are witnesses in a case of a capital crime. The 2 witnesses are needed to establish the guilt of a guilty party when there is a death sentence possible.

In the case of the New Testament verses, capital punishment is not the issue; the principle is applied much more broadly. It covers any situation where positive proof is needed.

Early in my Christian walk, I was taught that these verses were the foundation of a principle of Bible Study. That is they are generalized. This means that in order to prove or establish a teaching or doctrine, you needed to find 2 verses of the bible that said roughly the same thing to support whatever you were trying to prove.

Well this made some sense, and nobody questioned it at the time. It was one of those things you were taught as a baby Christian and never gave much thought to. So what's the problem with it, you ask? Well, everyone gave this principle 'lip service' and that's all. It's one of those things that you can use for emphasis when you have 2 verses that support what you're trying to say. But when you don't have 2 verses, well shucks, 1 will do just fine. That is to say, everyone said they agreed with the 2 witness, 2 verse theory. But nobody actually applied it in any honest way. I have never heard any teaching challenged because the teacher failed to supply 2 verses to make his point. We all operate on the basis that if you can find it in the word of God, then that's enough proof. God only needs to say something once. After all the word is considered infallible and without error. So if God said something, even if only once, it's still something that God said, and has to be true. After all do we go through the bible and rip out every verse that doesn't have a backup somewhere else in the bible? Of course not! So what's wrong with this picture? Why does God say to establish every word by two witnesses? Is this meant to apply only to specific situations where witnesses are called to testify? Is it a mistake to apply this to the word of God itself? Does the Word of God need 2 witnesses before we believe it? Or rather does the Word of God require 2 witnesses before we can understand it? Putting that another way, can we believe, and thereby obey something we don't understand?

We find the 2 witness idea repeated several times in the bible, so it must be important; yet we're not sure how to apply it. The reason is we are looking at the matter in an entirely wrong way.

Just recently, I got some new revelation on the matter. We were in a discussion with a skeptical young man about some issues of the bible and faith. I had challenged him to puzzle out the events in John 8: 1-11 on the basis of some background info about the Pharisees, and some verses from the law of Moses. One of these was De 17:6 quoted above. His comment about it really opened my eyes to what the real issue was here. And I found it tied in perfectly with my thinking in preparing this essay.

What he said was: Moses is calling for 2 or three witnesses here. But the only witness that I have that this is really the word of God is Moses. Well, I had never thought about it that way! It's like we take it for granted that the words in the Bible are the words of God which the Holy Spirit spoke to the various authors, like Moses, which they then went and wrote down. So Moses is the witness. When we read the word of God at the hand of Moses, Moses is the witness that this is what God said. Even if we find 3, 4 or 5 verses that support one of our ideas, there is still only 1 witness! And that witness is Moses. So my friend says, here I am taking Moses word that this is what God said. But Moses is still just one witness!

So I explained to this young man how I understood the inspiration for the bible works. As I did so, the understanding came to me, even while I was talking, that the second witness has to be the Holy Spirit! Here is how I presented it.

The Bible says that 'all scripture is given by inspiration of God. '[i.e. the Holy Spirit.] Now this works two ways. Like in the case of Moses, the Lord said to him, take and write these words in a book. Well the Lord appears to Moses and tells him, or he speaks the words directly into his mind. And Moses writes down exactly what God says. He doesn't need to understand what God means by any of it. All he has to do is write it down exactly as given to him. That's the first way that scripture is given by the Spirit.

A witness is someone who gives testimony. A biblical writer is giving his testimony that he has written what God told him to write. If you think he is writing down his own thoughts, or doing it on his own initiative, you have missed it big time.

A testament is another word for testimony. So the bible, new and old, is just a series of testimonies. It's one witness, the Spirit is the second one!

The second way the Spirit gives scripture is by giving it to the reader! As the reader is reading in the bible, the Spirit will give him bits and pieces of it. He opens the understanding of the reader so that it makes sense. And if you're reading parts of the bible without the guidance of the Spirit, you just won't get it. Get it?

So in reading Moses or Matthew or any book of the Bible, the first witness is the bible itself. You're reading a long, confusing, vague and boring book that claims to be the word of God. That's your first witness, the book claims to be the word of God. Now along comes the Spirit and takes the long, confusing, vague and boring book, and brings it to life by showing you what things mean. That's your second witness. And with these 2 witnesses you can prove things. The written word by itself is just a dead letter. The letter kills but the Spirit Gives Life. So the letter plus the Spirit gives life. That's two witnesses. That's the word mixed with faith!

> 2 Corinthians 3:6 Who also hath made us able ministers of the new testament; not of the letter, but of the spirit: for the letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life.

So the implication of this is that without the Spirit, no word can be established. The Spirit is our proof, not man's wisdom. Any speaker or writer who is not inspired by the spirit is just presenting another theory. These theories are mostly man's logic and wisdom, even when there is some truth in them. Regardless of someone's experience, status or credentials, their theories are just so much 'foolish disputations'. It don't mean a thing if it ain't got the Spirit behind it.

Stringing Pearls and Connecting Dots

We said above that, when it comes to the bible in many cases, without the guidance of the Spirit, you just won't get it. The phrase 'get it' is especially suited here because it can be a lot like getting a joke. It requires something to click in, in your understanding for you to get a joke. In fact there is a joke on this very topic. For some people, it seems that they laugh 3 times at every joke. The first time the laugh is when you tell it. The second time they laugh is after you explain it. And the third time they laugh is a day or so later when they finally get it!

Apply this to bible study. You can read the verses and get a little bit. You can have some teacher explain them to you, and get a little more. But when the Holy Spirit gives you insight, they you really have a handle on things.

Now consider a children's dot-to-dot coloring book. You must connect the dots in the correct order before you can see the picture in order to color it. Connecting the dots is like stringing the pearls. I first heard the phrase 'stringing pearls' in a teaching of Zola Levitt. It was used in the time of Jesus to describe a common method of expounding upon the scriptures practiced in the Jewish Synagogues in Galilee and Judea. A speaker would hold forth on a theme of his choice and cite verses from different parts of the Law, the Prophets and the Psalms as part of his teaching. The scriptures are compared to pearls and the train of thought that connects them is a string joining the pearls. So pearls were understood to symbolize verses of Holy Scripture. The dots are like pearls. When they are strung together in the right order, you begin to see the picture clearly. So it takes some study to connect the dots, and then a flash of insight to recognize what the picture is.

Lining Up With The Word

We hear often that so and so's teachings do not line up with the word. Or that someone's vision, dream or prophecy does not agree with scripture. If it doesn't line up with the word, throw it out we are told. Most often this kind of talk comes from those who are basically immature in the word, and have little understanding of the deeper meanings in the word. In effect, they are saying that ‘such and such teaching or theory’ does not agree with my understanding of the word, so it must be wrong. So they want God to conform to them. In their pride, they never consider that there might something lacking in their understanding.

For example, we have many visions and prophesies about end time revival and harvest. The critics will throw these out, claiming that the bible makes no mention of end time revival and harvest. Now if these visions, etc, are correct, they constitute direct revelation by the Spirit. This is where the critic will jump in and come against the very idea of revelation knowledge. Critics will argue that God has nothing new to say; he said it all in his word; and the word must be sufficient. And they will maintain this without offering any scriptural proof.

What we need to be asking is whether the Spirit is giving any light on the scriptures that provide an interpretation which lines up with the prophecies. If you look in the scriptures you will find that that’s exactly how God operates. He will reveal something directly and then show it to you in the scriptures. This is two witnesses establishing a word. Here is a case in point from when Jesus meets the two disciples on the road after he has risen from the dead.

> Lu 24:25 Then he said unto them, O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken:
> 26 Ought not Christ to have suffered these things, and to enter into his glory?
> 27 And beginning at Moses and all the prophets, he expounded unto them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself.

First he tells them directly: Ought not Christ to have suffered these things, and to enter into his glory? Then he takes them into the bible and shows it to them in the written word. Many of the passages in Isaiah speak of a suffering servant, for example. But it’s not clear who they apply to. New Testament passages spell out the fact that they refer to Jesus. Here is a well known instance of such a clarification.

> Isa 53:5 But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed.

Now Peter, referring to Jesus, clears up the question of whose stripes we are talking about.

> 1Pe 2:24 Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed.

So when immature believers claim they don’t see something in the bible, the problem is not what is in the bible or not in the bible. The problem is in what they can see. It’s not a question of whether something or other is not in the bible; it’s just that they don’t see it! Or rather they don’t see it with spiritual eyes; they don’t understand it.

Part 2
The Stumbling Blocks

What is a Stumbling Block? It’s called stone of stumbling or rock of offense and it keeps you from walking the right path, or getting where you should be going. .

> Ro 14:13 Let us not therefore judge one another any more: but judge this rather, that no man put a stumblingblock or an occasion to fall in his brother's way.
> 1Co 1:23 But we preach Christ crucified, unto the Jews a stumblingblock, and unto the Greeks foolishness;
> Rom 9:33 As it is written, Behold, I lay in Sion a stumblingstone and rock of offence: and whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.

The stumbling blocks come in two groups, one a set of ideas, perhaps mental strongholds. The other is a set of attitudes. Any one of these can provide a major stumbling block keeping one from receiving revelation knowledge and moving on toward maturity.

Another interesting reference stumbling blocks is in Isaiah 57. Here it talks about the stumbling block being removed and mentions revival to come to those who are humble and contrite. [Those who have repented.] So stumbling blocks stand in the way of maturity, and of revival!

> Isa 57:14 And shall say, Cast ye up, cast ye up, prepare the way, take up the stumblingblock out of the way of my people.
> 15 For thus saith the high and lofty One that inhabiteth eternity, whose name is Holy; I dwell in the high and holy place, with him also that is of a contrite and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of the contrite ones.

Stumbling Blocks I
The Sacred Cows

The first group is a set of ideas or methods used to approach the study of the Word of God. I have called them The Sacred Cows of Bible Study, in one of my other articles, so I won’t go into detail here. Here they are:
Literalism
The literal interpretation of the bible.
Law of Context
The notion that context is all important to understanding the bible.
Historical Approach
The use of scholarly analysis to bring out the meaning of the bible.
Systematic Theology
The attempt to construct a comprehensive theory that explains the entire bible.

The Scholars and the Scholarly Approach

All of these ‘sacred cows’ are part and parcel of a scholarly approach to the Word. Fundamentally, this is a form of worldly thinking, and an attempt to achieve worldly acceptance of theology as an academic discipline. Now this should tell us right off the bat that there is something wrong with this picture. First, in this approach we are using the ways of the world to expound on the word of God, Second, we are seeking the approval of man in our efforts. It shouldn’t be too hard to find scripture that speaks against these ways. [Let that be your homework assignment.]

We need to see that this approach is automatically and inherently immature, period, end of discussion. It will not lead us into the depths of God’s word, but only into ‘foolish disputing’ and fruitless dead ends.

I recently picked up a copy of Introduction to Biblical Interpretation at a used book sale. It was published in 1993 by Word Inc. Three authors and an editor, all carrying the title Dr. and all from Denver Seminary produced this 500 some page scholarly tome. The back dust jacked carried glowing recommendations from luminaries at Gordon-Cromwell Seminary, University of Aberdeen, Fuller Theological Seminary, Asbury Theological Seminary, Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, and Trinity Western University. Are you impressed yet?

Now to see what these gentlemen really knew about biblical interpretation, I consulted the index of subjects at the back of the book. Typology is mentioned on only 4 pages, and considered in depth on two additional pages. Allegory is covered on only two pages. Symbols and symbolism were not even listed.

In their analysis of typology, it quickly became clear that they based everything on understanding what the ‘biblical authors’ intentions were. This shows a clear lack of faith in the divine inspiration of the bible. What were Moses’ intentions when the Lord told him to write his words in a book? If Moses had any sense at all, his intent would be to write the words of God in a book! So if you focus on Moses’ intentions, [or any other biblical author’s], you completely miss the idea. What were God’s intentions in speaking these words in the first place?

Since the meaning of biblical passages in not always precisely clear, to make an understatement, you have to ask the author to explain things to you. [We call this, in Christian jargon, inquiring of the Holy Spirit.] To put it bluntly, the bible is deliberately vague, confusing, and boring. [Try and find a preacher who will admit that.] You need the Spirit to reveal the meaning. The authors of this work clearly acknowledge this need, but they get it all backward. Their teaching is that while the Spirit is needed, correct interpretation relies more on careful study and analysis of the text. Their acknowledgement of the need for the Spirit is pure lip service. What you really need, according to the scholars, are dictionaries, commentaries, word studies, and social-historical research; and the proper methods to use them. Could this be a case of the blind leading the blind?

Now the bible is there for anyone to study, not just trained scholars. Religion would have the people depending on the clergy; the rabbi's, priests, and ministers; especially the theologians. But the bible tells us directly that wisdom and understanding come from the Lord, not from study. True we are told to study and meditate on the word, but also to seek the Lord for wisdom. The bible is a sealed book except to those who have ears to hear.

When I first got saved and came into a Christian church, it was a Pentecostal styled denomination called Full Gospel. [Oddly enough this denomination considered itself non-denominational.] One of the first things we were taught is that God is going to bring a great end time revival and harvest. This I later learned is a keystone of what is called Pentecostal Theology. We were shown various scriptures, references to the latter rain, etc, and taught how these were seen as pointing to such a harvest. Other denominations did not teach this at all. I had long been puzzled as to why some could see this and others couldn't.

Let's put it another way. Where some look in the bible and see end time revival and harvest others only see end time falling away, [apostasy] and judgment. Well as the skeptics argue, end time revival and harvest is just not there. That is unless the Spirit shows it to you, it's just not there. But once you receive it as divine revelation, then it becomes obvious. [A similar issue could be: Is the church the bride of Christ?]

All the scriptures that suggest revival and harvest mean nothing to the skeptic because he hasn't got ears to hear! As Faith comes by hearing, you can conclude that they simply are just weak in faith. They are not hearing from the Spirit in this area. And that's likely to be because of stumbling blocks or strongholds in their thinking. But we are to avoid 'foolish disputes' with our brothers who are weak in the faith. There is no point even arguing with them about some of these issues. Their understanding is darkened; to them the books of the bible are sealed.

Objective Or Subjective, The Limitations Of Science

One of the objections that scholars have to employing allegory in bible study has been the loss of objectivity. Allegory must be subjective, these scholars feel and thus can't be depended upon to come up with an interpretation everyone can agree on. This points to a fundamental assumption. This is the idea that we can draw conclusions from the Bible in just the same way that science reaches conclusions based on empirical observation and experiment. Once again this is to approach the word of God using the ways of the world. It's inherently immature.

In our day and age science is looked on as the ultimate achievement of man's mind. And the accomplishments of technology as a testament to man's greatness. So the scholarly approach goes the same direction because it seems to work in other areas.

Few people are aware and still fewer people point out that empirical science and its handmaid mathematical logic have encountered serious dead ends. In mathematics, the queen of the sciences we are limited by the incompleteness theorem, which underscores the limits of man's reason. Physics, the king of the sciences is even more seriously plagued by the uncertainty principle. This makes it clear that objective knowledge based on observation is always conditioned by the interaction between the event observed and the ones doing the observation. To put that more simply, the act of observing has an effect on the thing you are trying to observe, so you can never be sure of what is really happening. [See End Notes] Ultimately objectivity is a fiction, because the presence of the observer always has some influence on the phenomena being observed. [This is quite easy to see in the field of journalism of course.]

Intelligent Design

Since we're on the topic of science, these recent hearings on creationism vs. evolution are a real curious case. Is this a debate over the scientific merits of Darwin's theory, or is it really a debate on the existence of God. Come on, let's stop kidding around. If creationism or the theory of intelligent design makes more since than the theory of evolution, what does that prove? The existence of God, what else?

This question of the existence of God is not an academic exercise. Nor is it some abstract philosophical puzzle or exercise in objective scientific study. You can say that the question of some obscure fact may be relatively objective. For instance, you can say, OK so Mars has two moons, big deal, what's that got to do with me? Answer: nothing.

But if you say intelligent design is the only thing that really makes any since, so there must be a God. Big deal, what's that got to do with me? Answer: everything.

When it comes to God, it's no longer a matter of objective facts, it's extremely subjective because you are involved whether you want to be or not. And once you acknowledge God, the next question is what are you going to do about it. If creationism is right, and God exists, then there are rules that should govern my behavior. But if evolution is right, then I can do whatever I want. But then so can everyone else. That's the law of the jungle. The farther away you get from God's law, the closer you get to chaos.

God Is Revealing Himself, The Revelation Of Jesus Christ

When you realize that God is revealing himself to you as he reveals the depths of meaning in his word, the scholarly ways just become so much trivia. Now consider that God will reveal different, but not opposite things, to different people about the very same scripture. And consider that he will reveal different things about the same scriptures to the same person at different times. You can see that there are multiple meanings and levels in His Word.

I recall a preacher who preached two weeks every night on John 3:16. Each sermon was different! God showed him different things to preach on each day.

The demand for objectivity in bible interpretation is the search for the single correct meaning of a passage, based on a man made principle of interpretation. This has proven to be fruitless. Objective, independently verifiable truth is an element of worldly thinking. When it comes to the word of God, it just won't work. After all Jesus is the Word of God, and He says 'I am truth'. Discovering truth then means receiving the Revelation of Jesus Christ. And this is only by varying degrees, as he reveals himself to different individuals. Objectivity then becomes a myth, a distraction, an error. This requires a pretty radical adjustment in mans thinking. The mature, are in Christ and have the mind of Christ. They can make this kind of radical adjustment in their thinking. They become like him in their thinking. His thoughts are higher than mans. His ways are different.

Divine Revelation and Subjective Truth

Divine revelation is a supernatural thing. It should however, be the normal daily fare for the mature believer. The uncertainty principle throws out unbiased, objective, empirical knowledge, because at certain levels, the act of observation interferes with the subject being observed. There is interaction between observer and the subject at just about any level, and at the subatomic level the uncertainty is overwhelming.

Divine revelation on the other hand, only works when there is interaction. It requires interaction. It seeks interaction. The observer is you, the mature believer. The Subject is God, the creator of the universe. Since he has an infinite scope, only so much of Him can be observed at any one time. And what you observe is what he chooses to reveal of himself as you seek him. You can't even think of it in terms of observer and subject. It works entirely different than scientific method or any other worldly approach. This is genuine truth, subjective truth, and divine fellowship, friendship and worship.

Scholars and theologians study the word, like a biologist might study a specimen under a microscope. The biologist looks at a dead moth under a microscope. His observations can tell him a lot about the surface appearance of the moth, but little about the internal workings.

The immature believer, scholar or not, looks at the word and sees the dead letter. He can learn a lot about the surface meaning but little of the true depths of wisdom and knowledge. A mature believer is fellowshipping with the Spirit. He can sense the Lords presence. It’s just as if someone were standing next to him, placing a hand on his shoulder and whispering in his ear. The Spirit will call your attention to certain words and phrases; he will direct you to look up certain definitions, point you to important cross references, allow you to see new relationships and viewpoints, and put new ideas into your head. Most importantly, he will stir your curiosity for further study and increase your hunger for further insight. And that’s how wisdom comes, line upon line, precept on precept, here a little and there a little.

Stumbling Blocks II
Hindering Attitudes

The second group of stumbling blocks is a set of attitudes or practices that also can hold you back. I call them the hindering attitudes. They are as follows.

Scorn of Others
Skepticism and Unbelief
Quenching the Spirit
Despising Prophecy
Being Offended By The Supernatural
Idolatry In The Heart
Unwillingness To Obey

Let’s look at each of these in depth:

Scorn of Others

The scornful attitude is a byproduct of pride and a spirit of religion. Here is a selection of verses that speak to the issue.

> Ps 1:1 Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.
>
> Pr 1:22 How long, ye simple ones, will ye love simplicity? and the scorners delight in their scorning, and fools hate knowledge?
> Pr 3:34 Surely he scorneth the scorners: but he giveth grace unto the lowly.
>
> Pr 14:6 A scorner seeketh wisdom, and findeth it not: but knowledge is easy unto him that understandeth.
> Pr 22:10 Cast out the scorner, and contention shall go out; yea, strife and reproach shall cease.

Let’s look at the first one, from Psalm 1.

> Ps 1:1 Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.

This tells us among other things, that those who are not scornful will be blessed. To invert that, those who are scornful will miss being blessed. The phrase seat of the scornful speaks of authority. Often the scorners are in some position of authority where they pass on their scornful attitude to their flock. One of the blessings they will miss is wisdom, as Psalm 14 points out.

> Pr 14:6 A scorner seeketh wisdom, and findeth it not: but knowledge is easy unto him that understandeth.

It’s easy to figure out what the scripture is telling us here. Scorning becomes a stumbling block. It prevents you from getting wisdom and keeps you in the ranks of the immature. If you repent and humble yourself, things will change for the better.

Skepticism and Unbelief

This is a tendency to reject or disregard anything that God is doing which doesn’t fit into your theology. Some call it putting God in a box. Or it can be termed limiting God. It’s closely related to quenching the spirit and offense at the supernatural.

Quenching the Spirit

> 1Th 5:19 Quench not the Spirit.

This instruction is from 1 Thessalonians 5, where we are given a list of short commandments. It could also be called grieving the Spirit as mentioned in Eph 4.

> Eph 4:29 Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers.
> 30 And grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption.
> 31 Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice:
> 32 And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you.

What exactly is quenching the Spirit? Any attempt to control or limit what God can do in your meetings, or in your personal life is one case. Those who suppress emotional expression, worshipping in the spirit, or operation of the spiritual gifts quench the Spirit.

Quenching or grieving the Spirit is a stumbling block in that it involves rejection of the ministry of the Spirit. And that same ministry of the Spirit is what brings on maturity, so rejection will keep you in the ranks of the immature. Once you humble yourself and repent, The Spirit will be free to minister once again.

Despising Prophecy

Despising Prophecy is a special case of quenching the Spirit, we are told, again from 1 Thessalonians 5:

> 1Th 5:20 Despise not prophesyings.

And in Matthew we read:

> Mt 10:41 He that receiveth a prophet in the name of a prophet shall receive a prophet's reward; and he that receiveth a righteous man in the name of a righteous man shall receive a righteous man's reward.

This also is a stumbling block in that it involves rejection of the ministry of the Spirit. The prophet’s reward is the benefit of his ministry, and or the message he brings. And also the maturity that can come through his teachings to those who have ears to hear. If you want no part of that, don’t expect to approach maturity.

The Prophet’s Job

The prophet’s job is not to produce accurate predictions. It is not the job of a prophet to produce accurate predictions. Producing accurate predictions is not the job of a prophet. Can I say it another way?

His job is to obey the Lord, period, end of discussion. If that includes predictions, fine. But they are not judged on their accuracy, but on their obedience. That’s why he calls them, 'my servants, the prophets'.

They are to go where, do what, and speak exactly as he tells them. This is regardless of the outcome or any effect on their reputation. Man who looks on the outward appearance wants to judge based on accuracy, the Lord sees things differently.

Some time back we had a case of a young woman who prophesied a major seismic catastrophe to happen by a certain date. This did not occur as predicted. I consider it a warning that was heeded by enough intercessors to delay or avert the occurrence. Others considered it a case of false prophecy.

I pay little attention to what goes on over the Christian Internet, and no attention to the other Christian Media. All my material for posting comes to my inbox. Yet somehow it came to my notice that this woman was being pilloried on the Web as a false prophet. I thought to my self: Why are these people picking on this woman just because she missed a date? And the Lord answered me: Moses, in the law says such a one should be stoned, what sayest thou? [John 8:5}

And that was revelation to me. The first thing I realized is that the accuser of the brethren was in operation here. And second is that they were trying to judge her under the law. The letter kills but the Spirit gives life; what was the Spirit saying in this situation? The mature way to approach this is found in 1 Peter and Ephesians

> 1 Peter 4:8 And above all things have fervent charity among yourselves: for charity shall cover the multitude of sins.
> Eph 4:32 And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you.

Offence at the Supernatural
Once again, this is a special case of quenching the Spirit. In Luke 7, we read:

> Lu 7:23 And blessed is he, whosoever shall not be offended in me.

By inverting the reading of the passage, who is offended misses the blessing, which can often be further wisdom and maturity

Now this can include many types of supernatural happenings. Speaking in tongues and prophecy, expressive worship including gestures, exuberant behavior, wild dancing, people losing control of their bodies, people falling out under the power of the spirit, healings, and deliverance; visions, angelic visitations and others. I once had someone tell me that if someone next to them got a healing, they would get up and run out of church. That’s really going to keep them from progressing if they run away from what God is doing.

In the refreshing of the 90’s many were offended by the phenomenon of the laughter, the stage diving and other seeming silliness. Then there were the screams and shrieks of those getting delivered. Also there were animalistic actions of dog barking and lion roaring. Clearly they felt, these are demonic manifestations and outbursts. They claimed to discern, by some personal set of rules, that it was not from God. Well sure having demons scream and curse is not a manifestation of the Lord. But as you can read in the Gospels, many times these things happened when Jesus came on the scene. Here’s an example from Mark 5.

> Mark 5: 6 But when he saw Jesus afar off, he ran and worshipped him,
> 7 And cried with a loud voice, and said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of the most high God? I adjure thee by God, that thou torment me not.
> 8 For he said unto him, Come out of the man, thou unclean spirit.

They were showing forth demonic actions because Jesus was there and about to cast them out. So the demonic behavior, while not coming from God, was a response to the presence of God. And it is a response we should expect to see whenever God is present in a powerful way.

The screaming and carrying on is a response to God’s presence just as much as the worship and rejoicing. The reason it’s not normally found in our church services, is simply due to a lack of God’s presence, to any significant degree if not a complete and total lack of God at all in today’s church. If you look at the histories of the great revivals, when God poured out large measures of the Spirit, you will find many records of wild carrying on. It’s ‘normal’ when God is greatly present.

Sure the scoffers and discerners could tell there were demons present, but they missed the fact of the Lords presence, that was causing these demonic outbursts.

Being offended by the supernatural also includes hatred of, or attempts to suppress emotionalism, prophecy and worship, as we mentioned above. All of these indicate the presence of God in a meeting. Squelching or avoiding them amounts to quenching the Spirit. This is a sure way to keep people in an immature state, depending on their clergy for everything, instead of learning directly from the Lord. And it also keeps the clergy in an immature state. Again this is the blind leading blind.

Idolatry in the Heart

The following passages are quoted from an article Heart Idols by David Webber. I feel they express this idea far better than I could, so I’ll just quote them.

> “Because most Christians are not really embracing death to their self-life, heart idols (doctrinal and otherwise) are not being dealt with which then prevent them from hearing the voice of the Father clearly, or even worse, lead them into deception."
> I was engaged in a conversation with a local pastor recently in which the subject of “heart idols” came up. This brother said that he believed that people certainly do “make up their own minds about certain matters” and even embrace certain doctrines because of preconceived ideas; “hear what they want to hear” he said. And although there is some truth to that, I don’t believe that accurately describes what is really going on spiritually.
> If we take a look at some of the verses that I listed above, we should be able to see something that is not just a matter of people "making up their own minds" because of preconceived ideas or mindsets, but something much more shocking than that; that is; people can inquire of the Lord with a heart that is not pure (preconceived wishes or ideas – heart idols) and the Lord might just give them an answer that is according to the idol in their heart! Isn’t that shocking? I believe that this is a reason why so many people can read and study the scriptures and continually find support for their doctrinal beliefs that are completely wrong! It all has to do with hearts that are not completely yielded to the Spirit.
> There is tremendous doctrinal division and controversy over the meaning of passages of scripture in the body of Christ today, and the only way that this is ever going to change is for Christians to ask the Lord to bring total destruction and annihilation to everything that is carnal and earthy in their thinking. This can be a very painful process. Is that something that you are willing to pray for Christian? If it is ... then do it ... and embrace whatever God brings into your life to see this purpose accomplished in you.

So basically Idolatry in the Heart speaks of some area in our lives that’s not yielded to the Lord. It can be a doctrine, mindset or just a hobby or pursuit that distracts us from hearing God. And anything that keeps us from hearing God is a stumbling block to maturity.

Unwillingness To Obey

The previous topic, Idolatry in the Heart, is a special case of this one, unwillingness to obey. In any area where you are willing to obey what the Lord reveals to you, He will provide greater revelation. In any area you are not willing to obey, there will be a stumbling block, keeping you from gaining further wisdom and maturity. Let’s look at this section from John chapter 7.

> John 7:14 Now about the midst of the feast Jesus went up into the temple, and taught.
> 15 And the Jews marvelled, saying, How knoweth this man letters, having never learned?
> 16 Jesus answered them, and said, My doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me.
> 17 If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself.
> 18 He that speaketh of himself seeketh his own glory: but he that seeketh his glory that sent > him, the same is true, and no unrighteousness is in him.

In verse 14 you see Jesus teaching in the temple. Then in verse 15 some critics come along and saying in effect, how can he be teaching if he is not a trained scholar? The same critical attitude shows up in Acts 4 where the religious

> Acts 4:13 when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus.

In verse 16 and 17 he answers them. We can paraphrase his answer like this. This teaching didn't just come from a man, but from the God who sent me. Those who are willing to obey him, [do his will], will know that the teaching is from God and not just from a man.

The reason here being that God will provide the witness of the Spirit to those who are willing and obedient, and that's how they will know it's true.
Then in verse 18, he contrasts those who promote themselves with those who are dead to self and only seek the glory of God. When you are completely dead to self, you will do more than have truth, it says you will be true.

Summary
We have listed quite a few stumbling blocks, and gone into detail on some. We started by looking at why you should avoid foolish disputes. There we saw that it's pointless to debate the immature believer. This is because they are still babes feeding on the milk. The mature are those who feed on the meat. They can hear the Spirit by the hearing of Faith. This lets them receive divine revelation. Immaturity is associated with lack of faith and or lack of wisdom. Maturity speaks of the wisdom that comes by faith. The mature have the letter of the law and the Spirit. The letter is supposed to lead you to Christ.

Gal 3:24 24 Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith.

And if you are really seeking, the Spirit will bring life to the word.
The Key of Knowledge is to seek it, that is to seek the Lord. The stumbling blocks are things that keep you from going on to maturity. They can be ideas or methods like the sacred cows we mentioned. They can actually discourage you from seeking, or lead you into depending on some fruitless method based on worldly thinking. Other stumbling blocks can be one or more of a set of attitudes which hinder or prevent you from fellowship with the Spirit. Or they may quench or grieve the Spirit. This in turn stymies spiritual growth.

Maturity vs. Immaturity

The immature are Proud
The mature are Humble

The immature are Scornful
The mature are Understanding

The immature are Despise Prophecy
The mature desire to Prophecy

The immature sees Bible text as Literal
The mature sees Bible text as Allegorical

The immature sees Bible text as: Having 1 meaning only
The mature sees Bible text as having multiple meanings

The immature Treat the bible as a Law book
The mature Treat the bible as having many forms of expression.

The immature Studies the bible Depending on a method
The mature Studies the bible depending on the Spirit.

The immature sees bible text as the thoughts of the Writer of the book
The mature sees bible text as the Words of Jesus.

The immature are offended by supernatural phenomena
The mature are comfortable with supernatural phenomena.

The immature honors the sacred cows
The mature Partake of real meat.

The immature think God said it all in his Word
The mature knows that God still speaks today.

The immature applies parts of scripture to certain groups
The mature see that all scripture applies to us.

The immature claim that the Word is sufficient
The mature know that it must be mixed with faith and illuminated by the Spirit.

The immature expect that study will reveal all the secrets of the bible
The mature accept that some things remain concealed.

The immature are stiff necked and resistant
The mature are willing to obey lessons learned.

The immature study the bible to know the Law
The mature study the bible to know the Lord.

The immature are stuck in the old paradigm
The mature are moving into the new paradigm.

End Notes:

The Law Was Our Schoolmaster

> Gal 3:22 But the scripture hath concluded all under sin, that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe.
> 23 But before faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed.
> 24 Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith.
> 25 But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster.
> 26 For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.
> 27 For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ.
> 28 There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus.
> 29 And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise.

Gödel's Incompleteness Theorem

In 1931, the Czech-born mathematician Kurt Gödel demonstrated that within any given branch of mathematics, there would always be some propositions that couldn't be proven either true or false using the rules and axioms ... of that mathematical branch itself. You might be able to prove every conceivable statement about numbers within a system by going outside the system in order to come up with new rules and axioms, but by doing so you'll only create a larger system with its own unprovable statements. The implication is that all logical system of any complexity are, by definition, incomplete; each of them contains, at any given time, more true statements than it can possibly prove according to its own defining set of rules. Jones and Wilson, An Incomplete Education

Heisenberg Uncertainty Principle

According to the Heisenberg Uncertainty Principle the idea that you can measure things exactly breaks down. If a particle has momentum p and a position *x, y*ou would not be able to measure p and x precisely. There is an uncertainty associated with each measurement, which can never be eliminated, even in a perfect experiment! This is because whenever a measurement is made, the system is disturbed. (In order to know something is there, the observer has to bump into it.)

Stand - Be Confident

Lanna Perry

Sydney Australia, (age 24)

My precious children, do you not know what I have spoken to you? Have I not told each of you how much I love you and how many blessings you have in Me?

I am calling you to rise up and stand up in who I the Lord your God have called you to be. I am not against you, I am for you. I am calling you deeper in Me and I am calling each of you to rise up in who I say you are.

I see many of My children are putting their identity and trust in things of this world. Why do you do this? When I the Lord your God have given you all that you need.

I have given you My authority. I have given you My victory, I have given you My Spirit. My children, what blessings you are missing out on as you continue to place your self worth and identity in things of this world.

Do not do this. For I have called you My children. I have called you My princes and princesses. I have called you My handmaidens and I have called you My priests.

Now is the time for My body, My church to rise up and shine. Shine in the revelation of who you are in Me. This revelation will shine brighter than the noonday sun through you. For this world is quickly passing away and many are broken-hearted and need comforting. Many of this world need hope and a future and you My children can give this to them.

I am calling each of you to stand in who you are in Me. No more doubt, no more insecurities, no more worthlessness. Stand in Me. The enemy has taken too much from My children in this area.

So many of you are not living in the abundance to which I have called you, so many of you are living in lies, the lies from the enemy of who you are. Many of you are not living in faith, the faith that I have given you in My Word. The Word that tells you who you are in Me.

Many of you have allowed your self worth to be put in the things that pass away, and have focused on these things to bring you life. Have they brought you life and hope? Surely Not. It is only I the Lord your God who can bring you this life and this hope.

There are many of you holding onto things that are not of Me to fulfill the pain and emptiness inside. Even though you know Me, you are feeling empty. You are feeling worthless and are trying to fill the ache, the hole inside.

Only, I can fill this hole. Only I can fill you with My Spirit in a way that you have never known and you will rise up in the knowledge of who you are in Me.

For My Spirit cannot work through you freely as you believe the lies and doubts of the enemy. The enemy is running around placing lies in My children’s minds, and as you My children grab hold of these and believe them, you are allowing the evil one to have a foothold in your life, and this shuts me out of that area.

I the Lord your God, am now raising up My army. I am bringing many of My children forth. I am bringing many of my children into the frontline to prepare for what is to come.

My precious children, you must have confidence in Me, confidence in My Spirit. You will not stand and remain standing in the days of trial if you believe the lies of the enemy.

You are conquerors in Me. Those of you who are under attack, rise up. Those of you who are weary, know that I am your strength.

Use your sword My children. Use it. For I did not give you the sword to stay on the shelf. I have given you this Sword to use to bring down the lies of the enemy.

My Word never returns void. My Word is powerful and effective. My children rise up and use your sword.

Rise up and stand tall in all that the Lord your God says that you are. For who can argue with the Lord? Who can argue with what the Lord your God says about you?

There are hearts that are hurting, and My Words, only My Words alone can bring peace to your heart and fill the parts of you that need healing.

Oh My children, how I love each of you. As you continue to rise up and stand in Me, you will see the jewels of heaven fall down on you more and more revelations coming upon you, and more and more of My presence upon you.

The power in My presence is greater than anything. My children, take My Word and eat deeply. Eat deeply of My Word. Let My Words fill you to overflowing in revelation of who you are in Me.

I am bringing freedom to many of My children. I am bringing life and hope again to many of My children. I love you all so very much. Take the jewels of who you are in Me and stand on these.

Do not stand on the shaky ground of what people or the world says of you, stand in Me, in My Word and My revelations of who you are in Me. Stand on My Word.

My light will burst forth through each of you in ways you've never dreamed as you continue to stand in me, and stand in the revelation of who you are in Me.

No more doubts, no more lies. Rise up My children. Do not wait for someone to encourage you and tell you who you are in Me. Do not wait for the prophets to bring you a word, but stand on My Word.

For what do the prophets have that you do not have? They have learnt to listen and they have learnt to obey and they deliver My Words, My heart. My Words and My heart for you is contained in My Word My children.

Oh precious children of Mine, listen to My Words, stand in the truth of who you are and you will sparkle greater than the stars in the dark sky.

Freedom will come to you, healing will come to you, refreshment will come to you and the enemy will no longer be able to torment you, and have a hold over you in the area of your identity.

I am a loving Father and I love to caress My children. Remember My children, while you were yet sinners I died for you. Even then I thought you were beautiful, special enough to die for you. I look at you My children and I see beauty, I see hope and I see potential.

I see children who love to cuddle up in their Father's arms. I see children who love to hear their Father speak. I delight so much in you. You are the apples of My eyes.

You are My treasured possessions. You are above and not beneath, you are the head and not the tail.

You are saints in Me, you are heirs of heaven, you will reign with Me. These glorious truths My children will set you free, and take you deeper in Me.

Come, feast at My table and listen to the Words that I have for you. Let me speak to you personally about who you are in Me. Let Me pour My love over each of you and show you how much I love you.

Let go of the things you have squeezed and squeezed to get the life and fulfillment out of to make yourselves feel better about yourselves. Let go of those and take up the true Word, the one Word that can set you free.

Those who abuse you, those who curse you, those who criticize you, bless them. Bless them and bless them some more. Pray for them, and give them to Me, and I the Lord your God, the Great Judge will judge accordingly. Continue to show love to your abuser. Love them with healthy boundaries, love them as I have called you to love them. Show affection to those who trample on you, and show My forgiveness to all who speak badly of you and bring you down.

For every negative word spoken over each of you I speak a million positive words. For every one negative thought someone has against you, I have numerous good thoughts towards you, more than the grains of sand on the seashore. Do not listen anymore to your abusers. Listen to Me. Listen to what I the Lord your God have to say. Train your mind to be like Mine. Train your mind to only take on what it is that I say. Pray for My strength as you do this, and I the Lord your God will help you by the empowerment of My Spirit to transform your mind and heal your wounds.

I love you My children. Now is the time to be set free from the bondage you have been in and rise up and be prepared. Be trained in My army, be counted now, for the Lord your God is about to do a new thing.

Special Bulletin Hurricane Katrina

Rick Joyner

September 2, 2005
from: http://www.morningstarministries.org/

It is understandable that almost everyone in the U.S. is now very focused on the tragedy caused by Hurricane Katrina. It is a tragedy that will touch us all in many ways and will continue to unfold over the weeks and months ahead. Even so, the end result is that we are going to be much better and much stronger as a nation. The Gulf Coast region will also emerge better than ever, and stronger.

Even so, we were not prepared for this as a nation, and we do need to learn the lessons that this situation is going to teach us. As this plays out it will prove to have been even more deadly and devastating than almost anyone imagined, even though it is already perceived to be the worst natural disaster in our history. Even so, it could have been worse, and the end result will be to help us.

I have been asked often if anyone in our ministry or our prophetic friends foresaw Hurricane Katrina. The answer is "yes," as early as 1998. These prophecies included "New Orleans looking like an estuary," and great damage coming to Mobile and all parts in-between. As hard as this could be to imagine now, the end result of this storm will be to make even many of the Gulf Coast victims thankful for it in the end.

Over the next few years a great move of God will spread over that region, and many who have lost all of their possessions will gain something far better—eternal life. This storm is a sign of a great cleansing and very powerful move of God coming to that region which will affect the whole nation for good. We will also see it affecting us in more difficult ways for a time—especially economically. However, the region will be rebuilt and better than before, but much more than physically, it will be rebuilt spiritually. There is a great move of God to rebuild our nation spiritually as well.

Though there are many crucial lessons to be learned from this entire situation, it is not the time to get into them in any more depth. Now it is still a rescue situation, and we need to pray that this now be accomplished with Godspeed or many, many more could be lost.

One reason the situation has not been handled better is the spirit of confusion that has been released over that region. We know that we do not war against flesh and blood (see Ephesians 6:12), though we cannot expect the government and law enforcement agencies to understand this. There is a lot of witchcraft coming from New Orleans and it wants to cause as much death as possible. We need to pray for this spirit of confusion to be bound, and for great clarity and energy to be given to those who are managing and implementing the lifesaving efforts. Then we need to pray for great clarity and energy to rebuild that city and region. This is important for the whole nation.

The church needs to gear up to help in many ways. Churches are called sanctuaries, and we need to be that right now for these multitudes who have virtually lost everything they had. If every church just took one family, we could take care of all of the people. There are churches all over America with large Sunday School facilities that only get used one half a day a week. These can be quickly converted to shelters for families.

We are also at this time examining every way that we can use the facilities that we have at Heritage International Ministries to help those in need. We need to all be asking right now what we have that could help. Many things that we no longer use and will never use again, such as old clothes, tools, vehicles, or other resources can make a big difference in the lives of those who are our neighbors and are now in desperate need.

If you want to help, but do not know what to do, please consider joining us. We will be sending teams to the region to assist in the cleanup and rebuilding. Check this website for more information.

You may also make donations to MorningStar for the Katrina relief. One hundred percent of the donations designated for Hurricane Katrina relief will go to that effort. MorningStar does not keep a single cent for administration or our own costs. You can also donate materials such as trucks, buses, tools such as chain saws, power saws, building materials, and other items that can be used to help in this effort.

To make a credit card donation, donate online or call 1-800-542-0278 and say you want to make a donation for the Katrina Relief. You may also mail your donation (please mark them for Katrina Relief) to:

MorningStar Fellowship Church
9700 Regent Parkway
Fort Mill, South Carolina 29715

There is no question now that this will prove to be the worst natural disaster in our nation's history. We need to be in special prayer for all who are leading this relief effort and for the people who are affected that this will all be used for good, and for us to learn all of the lessons that we can from this situation so that we are far more prepared the next time.

Something Big Is Coming

Terry Suggs!

http://www.LiveInJesus.spreadtheword.com

I heard these words from the Holy Spirit.
The church, the called out ones, the born-again believers are about to receive the end-time endowment of power, wisdom and anointing. You will hear the words “This has never happened before” being spoken everywhere.
What we are about to see cannot be taught in the classroom. It will be achieved by, the Spirit of God and all the vessels that He chooses.

We can sense at this point in time that something major is about to manifest in this world. I feel it. I can sense it by the Holy Spirit. I believe that it will be simultaneous for everyone. Expressions like “on the brink” “on the edge” and “about to happen” are being used now.

God is preparing us to stand in the presence of His Glory. We can feel this inward change taking place in our spirit man. For brief moments during my prayer times the Lord allowed me to experience the greatness of His power, and His anointing and presence. I hope that this happens to everyone that is pursuing God. It will change them forever.
There will be a tangible and resident presence with us for the end time work of the Lord.

Born-again believers
When we were born-again we were literally placed in the kingdom of unlimited Faith, unlimited healing power, unlimited wisdom, unlimited deliverance power, unlimited supplies, unlimited ability and the unlimited prosperity of heaven.
We are seated at the right hand of God in Christ Jesus. In that realm of the kingdom of God, there are no limits.
It all emanates from Him in whom all fullness dwells.
We can walk in all authority, all power, all wisdom, all glory and all faith when we allow God to work out His perfect will in our lives. Communication through prayer and reading God’s word is the key.

Intercession
Prayers of intercession are praying with the leading of the Holy Spirit. He gives us what to pray about. He leads the prayer. He gives the specifics about what to pray, who to pray for and how to pray.

The Body of Christ, then and now.

Then.
Acts 4:31-37
And when they prayed, the place was shaken where they were assembled together. And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost. And they spoke the word of God with boldness.
And the multitude of them that believed was of one heart and of one soul. Neither said any of them that the things they owned were solely theirs. They shared everything. They had all things common.
And with great power gave the apostles witness of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus and great grace was upon them all. Neither was there any among them that lacked. For as much as were of possessors of lands or houses sold them and brought the prices of the things that were sold. And laid them down at the apostles feet, and distribution was made unto every man according as he had need.
And believers were the more added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women.

Now.
The prayers and preaching and witnessing have been replaced by:
Business man’s or woman’s meetings.
Denominationalism, sects, financial success seminars, rituals, ceremonies, programs that are substitutes for the power of God, board meetings, elections, campaigns, membership with strings attached, committees, and religious traditions started by carnal minded men.

These are smothering the true purpose of the body of Christ. The perfect will of God is not a part of any of this.

This is a very serious and critical time. Denominationalism issues are a big distraction. Divide and conquer has been the enemy's strategy in stopping the advancement of God's kingdom. These distractions are keeping the world from seeing the body of Christ operate in the power of the Holy Ghost. They only see the flesh of men on display. Being sidetracked into doctrinal issues is a distraction. Tearing each other down is not building the body of Christ.
The work will only get done by those led by the Holy Spirit and not by those led by something else.
Don't waste time with issues that have no salvation in them.
God Himself is exposing and uncovering the people that are not His.
Encourage and pray for everyone, whether they are in your denomination or not. Encourage and pray for those that are not born-again.
St. John 14:34-35
By this shall all men know that you are mine, that you love one another as I have loved you.
There is enough faith in one spirit filled Christian to get the multitudes healed.
One Christian has enough power in their life to get a nation to turn to God.
There is no limit to what one human life, that is sold out to God can accomplish.
Take this as a word from the Lord.

Open Heaven
Terry Suggs

At this time, there are no set boundaries on what we are trusting God to do in our lives. We can receive the dead raised back to life again. We can receive creative miracles. We can believe and receive the answers to our greatest needs. Our God has given us an open heaven. Nothing hinders our prayers. Only our minds cause us to magnify the problem, the illness, and the situation. In this time we are experiencing a refreshing, a renewal, and a revival.
We are experiencing great favor, great power, great compassion, great fear, great signs and wonders, and great grace. This is a time of great and mighty things.
God will not allow the believer to be put to shame at this time. If you are representing Him and bringing God into a situation, then the victory is guaranteed. God is confirming His word with signs following and with power. When you speak His word now there is power behind it to bring changes to the problem or the situation. It will happen when you speak the word in faith.
An open heaven means that there is nothing between us and our Lord to stop or constrain or restrain our answers to prayers. It means that we are aligned with God's will for our lives. This means that the presence will be stronger and more powerful than we have ever experienced it before. You see like God sees. You speak like God speaks. Nothing is impossible to you. There are no hinderances. Nothing can stop you except your negative thinking and seeing things in the natural.
God is not limited by anything in the natural. We limit our faith because of what we see and hear in the natural.
Remember this does not mean that you should go jump out of a high rise window, or step in front of a truck or train. Use wisdom please. Stay in the will and plan of God.
You can't lose. If God be for us, who can be against us. God overrides, overrules, over shadows, superrules, supercedes and exceeds every obstacle or hinderance or problem that is before us.
David ran to meet Goliath, because he was in the will of God. The anointing of the Holy Ghost is what destroys the yoke. The anointing was upon David.

This is a time of fullness, wholeness and completion.
Let us get into the fullness of God through the leading of the Holy Ghost and praying and fasting. The whole world is waiting for the manifestation of the Sons of God. We are to give this world a powerful witness.
Jesus is with you now and always. He will never leave you or forsake. There has never been a time like this in our human history. We set our on boundaries by the way we see things in the natural. Keep your eyes on the Lord and His promises. He is Faithful and True.
Jesus is our reward. He is Lord over all creation.

The Church is God’s Body on Earth
Terry Suggs

John 1:16
For out of His fullness (abundance) we have all received (all had a share and we were all supplied with) one grace after another and spiritual blessing upon spiritual blessing and even favor upon favor and gift (heaped) upon gift. Gifts are free as you know.

Romans 5:1,9-10
Therefore, since we are justified (acquitted, declared righteous, and given a right standing with God) through faith, let us (grasp the fact that we) have (the peace of reconciliation to hold and to enjoy) peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed One).
Therefore, since we are now justified (acquitted, made righteous, and brought into right relationship with God) by Christ’s blood, how much more (certain is it that) we shall be saved by Him from the indignation and wrath of God.
For if while we were enemies we were reconciled to God through the death of His Son, it is much more certain, now that we shall be saved (daily delivered from sin’s dominion) through His (resurrection) life.

Romans 4:19-25
He (Abraham) did not weaken in faith when he considered the utter impotence of his own body which was as good as dead because he was about a hundred years old, or (when he considered) the bareness of Sarah’s (deadened) womb.
No unbelief or distrust made him waver (doubtingly question) concerning the promise of God, but he grew strong and was empowered by faith as he gave praise and glory to God,
Fully satisfied and assured that God was able and mighty to keep His word and to do what He had promised.
All the promises in Christ are yes (a divine yes, backed up by God Himself) and Amen (so be it).
That is why his faith was credited to him as righteousness (right standing with God, Made to be right, or acquitted and positioned as righteous).
But they (The Words), It was credited to Him, were written not for his sake alone,
But (they were written) for our sakes too. (Righteousness, standing acceptance to God) will be granted and credited to us also who believe in (trust in, adhere to and rely on) God, Who raised Jesus our Lord from the dead,
Who was betrayed and put to death because of our misdeeds and was raised to secure our justification (our acquittal), making our balance and absolving us from all guilt before God). Christ Jesus met every requirement of the Law of God for us to make us the heirs with Him.

Hebrews 9:10-12
For (the ceremonies) deal only with clean and unclean meats and drinks and different washings, (mere) external rules and regulations for the body imposed to tide the worshippers over until the time of setting things straight (of reformation, of the complete new order when Christ, the Messiah, shall establish the reality of what these things foreshadow-a better Covenant).
But that appointed time came when Christ the Messiah appeared as a High Priest of the better things that have come and are to come. Then through the greater and more perfect tabernacle not made with human hands, that is, not a part of this material creation,
He went once for all into the (Holy of) Holies (of Heaven), not by virtue of the blood of goats and calves (by which to make reconciliation between God and man), but His own blood, (sinless blood) having found and secured a complete redemption (an everlasting release for us).

Romans 8:6
But as it now is, He (Christ) has acquired a (priestly) ministry which is as much superior and more excellent (than the old) as the covenant (the agreement, contract) of which He is the Mediator (the Arbiter, Agent) is superior and more excellent, because it is enacted and rests upon more important (sublimer, higher, and nobler) promises.

Colossians 3:9-17,23
For in Him the whole fullness of Deity (the Godhead) continues to dwell in bodily form (giving complete expression of the divine nature).
And you are in Him, made full and having come to fullness of life in Christ you too are filled with the Godhead-Father, Son, and Holy Ghost-and reach full spiritual stature. And He is the Head of all rule and authority (of every angelic principality and power).
In Him also you were circumcised with a circumcision not made with hands, but in a spiritual circumcision (performed by) Christ by stripping off the body of the flesh (the whole Corrupt, carnal nature with its passions and lusts).
Thus you were circumcised when you were buried with Him in your baptism, in which your were also raised with Him (to a new life) through (your) faith in the working of God (as displayed) when He raised Him up from the dead.
And your were dead in trespasses and in the uncircumcision of your flesh (your sensuality, your sinful carnal nature), God brought to life together with (Christ), having (freely) forgiven us all our transgressions.
Having cancelled and blotted out and wiped away the handwriting of the note (bond) with its legal decrees and demands which was in force and stood against us (hostile to us). This (note with its regulations, decrees, and demands) He set aside and cleared completely out of our way by nailing it to (His) cross.
God disarmed the principalities and powers that were ranged against us made a bold display and public example of them, in triumphing over them in Him and in it (the Cross).
Therefore let no one sit in judgment on you in matters of food and drink, or with regard to a feast day or a New Moon or a Sabbath. (You have been born anew with the image and likeness of Christ).
Such things are only the shadow of things that are to come, and they have only a symbolic value, But the reality (the substance, the solid fact of what is foreshadowed, the body of it) belongs to Christ.
Such (practices) have indeed the outward appearance (that popularity passes) for wisdom, in promoting self-imposed rigor of devotion and delight in self humiliation and severity of discipline of the body, but they are of no value in checking the indulgence of the flesh (the lower nature). (Instead, they do not honor God but serve only to indulge the flesh).

Ephesians 1:3,5
May blessing (praise, laudation, and eulogy) be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ (the Messiah) Who has blessed us in Christ (the Messiah) with every spiritual (given by the Holy Spirit) blessing in the heavenly realm!
For he foreordained us (destined us, planned in love for us) to be adopted (revealed) as His Own children through Jesus Christ, in accordance with the purpose of His will (because it pleased Him and was His kind intent).
God intends for everyone of His Adopted Children to have every attribute and spiritual gift that He gave to His only begotten Son Jesus.
He has given to us every right and privilege and gift to be His adopted Children.
He has made us a kind of being like Himself.

I Corinthians 6:17
But the person who is united to the Lord becomes one spirit with Him.

I Corinthians 15:49
And just as we have borne the image (of the man) of dust, so shall we and so let us also bear the image (of the Man) of heaven.

I John 3:9

No one born (begotten) of God (deliberately, knowingly, and habitually) practices sin, for God's nature abides in him (His principle of life, the divine sperm, remains permanently within him); and he cannot practice sinning because he is born (begotten) of God.

I John 1:5
There is no darkness (no evil, no deception, no hatred, no evil intent, no falsity) in Him at all. God is 100 % light (100% honest. Pure and righteous and loving).
We are children of the Light and we are the light of the world.
We are benefactors of a new covenant. The law of Moses is not a part of the new Covenant.
The Law of Moses was always about making sacrifices and offerings and doing something to be accepted by God.
The new covenant is established in Jesus' finished work. He met all the requirements and completed everything that God needed to bring us into right standing with Himself.

II Corinthians 4:13
Yet we have the same spirit of faith as he had who wrote, I have believed , and therefore have I spoken. We too believe and therefore we speak..

II Corinthians 4:17-18
For our light, momentary affliction (this slight distress of the passing hour) is ever more and more abundantly preparing and producing and achieving for us an everlasting weight of glory (beyond all measure, excessively surpassing all comparisons and all calculations, a vast and transcendent glory and blessedness never to cease!),
Since we consider and look not to the things that are seen but to the things that are unseen; for the things that are visible are temporal (brief and fleeting), but the things that are invisible are deathless and everlasting.

Matthew 10:7-10
And as you go, preach, saying, The kingdom of heaven is at hand!
Cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, drive out demons.
Freely (without pay) you have received, freely (without charge) give.
Take no gold nor silver (even) copper money in your purses (belts);
And do not take a provision bag or a wallet for a collection bag for your journey, nor two undergarments, nor sandals, nor staff; for the workman deserves his support (his living, his food).
Now that our sins have been wiped out, and blotted out, there is nothing between us and God to hinder us.
We are now in the family and have full rights and can come boldly to the throne of Grace.
Jesus said that we have authority over all the authority of the enemy.
And He said that nothing by any means shall harm you.
We have a new covenant in Jesus. The Law of Moses is not in the new covenant. We are now living by faith. We are in the dispensation of Grace.
Genesis means beginning. Genetic means the make up of those containing the gene. It is what is inherited or passed down in sequence. It means that there are traits that are passed down through each child from the parent. The way that genes are detected is mostly through the blood. Jesus blood is what has transformed our lives.
God has "re-gene-rated" our spirit man by His Own Spirit and nature.
Now our minds have to be renewed to match our position.

Mark 6
This chapter has the feeding of 5,000 men plus women and children with 5 loaves and 2 fish. It has the story of Jesus walking on the water. He also heals multitudes when they touched Him. He calmed the storm.
Jesus has given us this kind of authority and ability.

Mark 9:23
And Jesus said, (You say to me), If You can do anything? (Why), all things can be (are possible) to him who believes!

Mark 10:27
Jesus glanced around at them and said, With men (it is) impossible, but not with God; for all things are possible with God.
Greater is He that is in Us than he that is in the world.
I can do all things through Christ Who strengthens me.
If God be for us, who can be against us.

Luke 12:32
Do not be seized with alarm and struck with fear, little flock, for it is Your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom!

John 10:27
The sheep that are My Own hear and are listening to My voice; and I know them, and they follow Me.
And I give them eternal life, and they shall never lose it or perish throughout the ages. (To all eternity they shall never by any means be destroyed.) And no one is able to snatch them out of My hand.
My Father, Who has given them to Me, is greater and mightier than all (else); and no one is able to snatch (them) out of the Father's hand.
I and My Father are One. John 10:34-36

John 14:10-11
Jesus operated in the Father's authority. We operate in Jesus' authority.
John 16:13-15
But when He, the Spirit of Truth (the Truth-giving Spirit) comes, He will guide you into all the Truth (the whole, full Truth). For He will not speak His Own message (on His Own authority); but He will tell whatever He hears (from the Father; He will give the message that has been given to Him), And He will announce and declare to you the things that are to come (that will happen in the future).
He will honor and glorify Me, because He will take of (receive, draw upon) what is Mine and will reveal (declare, disclose, transmit) it to you.

John 17:22-23,26
I have given to them the glory and honor which You have given Me, that they may be one (even) as We are one;
I in them and You in Me, in order that they may become one and perfectly united, that the world may know and (definitely) recognize that You sent Me and that You have loved them (even) as You have loved Me, (The same Acceptance and favor and blessings that are bestowed upon Jesus are bestowed upon us).
I have made Your Name known to them and revealed Your Character and Your very Self, and I will continue to make (You) known, that the love which You have bestowed upon Me may be in them (felt in their hearts) and that I (Myself) may be in them.

John 20:21-23
Then Jesus said to them again, Peace to you! (Just) as the Father has sent Me forth, so I am sending you.
And having said this, He breathed on them and said to them, receive The Holy Spirit!
(Now having received the Holy Spirit, being led and directed by (Him) if you forgive the sins of anyone, they are forgiven; if you retain the sins of anyone, they are retained.
Jesus said to His followers that greater works than the works He did they would do,
Because after He multiplied Himself in them, this would become possible for each person.

II Corinthians 1:20
For as many as are the promises of God, they all find their Yes (answer) in Him (Christ). For this reason we also utter the Amen (so be it) to God through Him (in His Person and by His agency) to the glory of God.

Isaiah 51:6-8, 15-16
Lift up your eyes to the heavens, and look upon the earth beneath; for the heavens shall be dissolved and vanish away like smoke, and the earth shall wax old like a garment, and they that dwell therein shall die in like manner (like knats), But My salvation shall be forever, and My rightness and justice (and faithfully fulfilled promise) shall not be abolished.
Listen to Me, you who know rightness and justice and right standing with God, the people in whose heart is My Law and My instruction; fear not the reproach of men, neither be afraid nor dismayed at their revilings.
For (in comparison with the Lord they are so weak that things as insignificant as) the moth shall eat them up like a garment, and the worm shall eat them like wool. But My rightness and justice (and faithfully fulfilled promise) shall be forever, and My salvation to all generations. (In the Genes)
For I am the Lord your God, Who stirs up the sea so that its waves roar and Who by rebuke restrains it -the Lord of hosts is His Name.
And I have put My words in your mouth and have covered you with the shadow of My hand, that I may fix the (new) heavens as a tabernacle and lay the foundations of a new earth and say to Zion, You are My people.

Matthew 7:1-2,12
Do not judge and criticize and condemn others, so that you may not be judged and criticized and condemned yourselves.
For just as you judge and criticize and condemn others, you will be judged and criticized and condemned, and in accordance with the measure you (use to) deal out to others, it will be dealt out again to you.
So then, whatever you desire that others would do to and for you, even so do also to and for them, for this sums up the Law and the Prophets.
Matthew 5:33-48
Luke 1:37
For with God nothing is ever impossible and no word from God shall be without power or impossible of fulfillment.

Isaiah 52:6
Therefore My people shall know what My name is and what it means; therefore they shall know in that day that I Am He Who speaks; behold, I Am!
God’s word will not return empty.

Isaiah 61:1-4
The Spirit of The Lord God is upon Me, because the Lord has anointed and qualified me to preach the Gospel of good tidings to the meek, the poor, and afflicted; He has sent ME to bind up and heal the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the (physical and spiritual) captives and the opening of the prison and of the eyes to those who are bound.
To proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord (the year of His favor) and the day of vengeance of our God, to comfort all who mourn,
To grant consolation and joy to those who mourn in Zion - to give them an ornament (a garland or diadem) of beauty instead of ashes, the oil of joy instead of mourning, the garment (expressive) of praise instead of a heavy, burdened and failing spirit- that they may be called oaks of righteousness (loft, strong, and magnificent, distinguished for uprightness, justice, and right standing with God), the planting of the Lord, that He may be glorified.
And they shall rebuild the ancient ruins; they shall raise up the former desolations and renew the ruined cities, the devastations of many generations.
The Lord id working with the body of Christ to confirm His message of salvation and adoption as God’s children.

There is nothing between us. I have removed every sin and blotted them out so that you may come boldly to the throne of "Grace" (unmerited and unearned favor). Nothing is held back from you. (If God spared not His Own Son, how much more with Him shall He also freely give us all things). My love is intense and my compassion is intense. I have made an eternal covenant through the blood of My Own Son, so that you would have every right to whatever I have given to Him. (We are Heirs of God and Joint Heirs with Jesus). There is no greater love than the love I have shown. There is no greater or more intense compassion than the compassion I have. Preach and teach the good news (the gospel). Get out of the boat! Speak to the storm! Heal the sick so that some might believe. Have the Faith of God! Love has no boundaries!
As with Cain and Abel, Cain made a sacrifice, Abel made a covenant with blood. I have made and eternal covenant.
I recently had a brief vision of the Lord putting a white covering or table cloth on a table top where there was a big mess of spills and things scattered all over the table. The cloth was placed by Him over this mess. He looked at me and said, you've done nothing wrong.

Another recent dream that I had was about Jesus as a little boy possibly 13 years old. Another man was talking to Him franticly saying to the young Jesus, "If you say it, it will happen". He was directing Jesus to a sick child that was sitting on a chair slumped over as if he was weak and very sick and nearly unconscious. The man said the same thing over again to Jesus, "if you say it, it will happen." And then He said "If you say it the devil can't do hurt him. There was something hovering above them with red wings, I guess this was satan. Then Jesus turn towards the sick child, and placed His hand on the child's chest and said with a loud voice "Be Delivered! The child jerked his head immediately and looked as if he was cured of this illness instantly. Then I woke up and the Holy Spirit said, "you can do it too." I had this feeling in my arms flowing to my hands after I heard this.

Sealed In Favor
Trapped In Love and Mercy
Acts 13:39,41
So let it be clearly known and understood by you, brethren, that through this Man forgiveness and removal of sins is now proclaimed to you;
And that through Him everyone who believes (who acknowledges Jesus as his Savior and devotes himself to Him) is absolved (cleared and freed) from every charge from which he could not be justified and freed by the Law of Moses and given right standing with God.
You won’t believe it even when it is clearly told to you in fine details.

John 1:9-14
God condemned sin in the flesh of Jesus. It is not our body that has to fulfill the Law of God to be saved, because Jesus has already fulfilled the Law of God.
He sent His Word and healed them. Jesus was the Word made flesh. By His stripes we were healed.

Acts 17:24-29
The God who produced and formed the world and all things in it being Lord of Heaven and earth, does not dwell in handmade shrines.
Neither is He served by human hands, as though He lacked anything, for it is He Himself Who gives life and breath and all things to all people.
And He made from one (common origin, one source, one blood) all nations of men to settle on the face of the earth, having definitely determined (their) allotted periods of time and the fixed boundaries of their habitation (their settlements, lands, and abodes).

So that they should seek God, in the hope that they might feel after Him and find Him, although He is not far from each one of us.
For in Him we live and move and have our being; as even some of your (own) poets have said, For we are also His offspring.
Since then we are God’s offspring, we ought not to suppose that deity (the God-Head) is like gold or silver or stone, (of the nature of) a representation by human art and imagination, or anything constructed or invented.

Genesis 1:2627

God created man as a mirror image and likeness of Himself.
God said, Let Us (Father, Son, and Holy Spirit) make mankind in Our image, and after Our likeness, and let them have complete authority over the fish of the sea, the birds of the air, the (tame) beasts, and over all of the earth, and over everything that creeps upon the earth.
So God created man in His Own image, in the image and likeness of God He created him; male and female He created them.
And God blessed them and said to them, be fruitful, multiply, and fill the earth and subdue it (using all its vast resources in the service of God and man); and have dominion over the fish of the sea, the birds of the air, and over every living creature that moves upon the earth.
Adam did not have a natural Father.

John 1:12-14,17

But to as many as did receive and welcome Him, He gave authority (power, privilege, right) to become the children of god, that is, to those who believe in adhere to trust in, and rely on) His name.
Who owe their birth neither to bloods nor of the will of the flesh (that of physical impulse) nor to the will of man (that of a natural), but to God. (They are born of God).

And the Word (Christ) became flesh (human, incarnate) and tabernacled (fixed His tent of flesh, lived awhile) among us; and we (actually) saw His glory as an only begotten son receives from His father, full of grace (favor, loving-kindness) and truth.
John testified about Him and cried out, This was He of Whom I said, He Who comes after me has priority over me, for He was before me.
(He takes rank above me, for He existed before I did. He has advanced before me, because He is My chief).
For out of His fullness (abundance) we have all received (all had a share and we were all supplied with) one grace after another and spiritual blessing upon spiritual blessing and even favor upon favor and gift (heaped) upon gift.
For while the Law was given through Moses, grace (unearned, unmerited, undeserved favor and spiritual blessing) and truth came through Jesus Christ.

Ephesians 1:11-22

In Him we also were made (God’s) Heritage (portion) and we obtained an inheritance; for we had been foreordained (chosen and appointed beforehand) in accordance with His purpose, Whop works out everything in agreement with the counsel and design of His Own will.
So that we who first hoped in Christ (who first put our confidence in Him have been destined and appointed to) live for the praise of His glory!
In Him you also who have heard the Word of Truth, the glad tidings (Gospel) of your salvation, and have believed in and adhered to and relied on Him, were stamped with the seal of the long promised Holy Spirit.
That Spirit is the guarantee of our inheritance (the first fruits, the pledge and foretaste, the down payment on our heritage, in anticipation of its full redemption and our acquiring (complete) possession of it to the praise of His glory,
For this reason, because I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love toward the saints (the people of God),
I do not cease to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers.
For I always pray to the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, that He may grant you a spirit of wisdom and revelation (of insight into the mysteries and secrets) in the deep and intimate knowledge of Him,
By having the eyes of your heart flooded with light, so that you can know and understand the hope to which He has called you, and how rich is His glorious inheritance in the saints (His set-apart ones),
And so that you can know and understand what is the immeasurable and unlimited and surpassing greatness of His power in and for us who believe, as demonstrated in the working of His mighty strength,
Which He exerted in Christ when He raised Him from the dead and seated Him at His Own right hand in the heavenly places,
Far above all rule and authority and authority and power and dominion and every name that is named (above every title that can be conferred), not only in this age and in this world, but also in the age and the world which are to come.

And He has put all things under His feet and has appointed Him the universal and supreme Head of the church (a headship exercised throughout the church),
Which is His body, the fullness of Him Who fills all in all (for in that body lives the full measure of Him Who makes everything complete, and Who fills everything everywhere with Himself.

Ephesians 2:4-12
But God-so rich is He in His mercy! Because of and in order to satisfy the great and wonderful and intense love with which He loved us,

Even when we were dead (slain) by our own shortcomings and trespasses, He made us alive together in fellowship and in union with Christ Himself, the same new life with which He quickened Him, for it is by grace (His favor and mercy which you did not deserve) that you are saved (delivered from judgment and made partakers of Christ's salvation),
And He raised us up together with Him and made us sit down together (giving us joint seating with Him) in the heavenly sphere (by virtue of our being) in Christ Jesus (the messiah, the Anointed One).
He did this that He might clearly demonstrate through the ages to come the immeasurable (limitless, surpassing) riches of His free grace (His unmerited favor) in (His) kindness and goodness of heart toward us in Christ Jesus.
For it is by free grace (God's unmerited favor) that you are saved (delivered from judgment and made partakers of Christ's salvation, is not of yourselves (of your own doing, it came not through your own striving , but it is the gift of God;
Not because of works (not the fulfillment of the Law's demands), lest any man should boast. (It is not the result of what anyone can possibly do, so no one can pride himself in it or take glory to himself).
For we are God's Own handiwork (His workmanship), recreated in Christ Jesus, (born anew) that we may do those good works which God predestined (planned beforehand) for us (taking paths which He prepared ahead of time), that we should walk in them (living the good life which He prearranged and made ready for us to live).

Ephesians 3:4-6
When you read this you can understand my insight into the mystery of Christ.

This mystery was never disclosed to human beings in past generations as it has now been revealed to His Holy apostles (consecrated messengers) and prophets by the Holy Spirit.
Everything that comes from the Holy Spirit is perfect and complete and whole and in fullness. This seals of lives in Christ.
It is this that the Gentiles are now to be fellow heirs with the Jews, members of the same body and joint partakers (sharing) in the same divine promise in Christ through (their acceptance of) the glad tidings (the Gospel).
God chose the color of our suits or our skin and the places where we live.

Sealed In Him
John 1:3-4
All things were made and came into existence through Him; and without Him was not even one thing made that has come into being.
In Him was Life, and the Life was the Light of men.
II Corinthians 1:20
For as many as are the promises of God, they all find their Yes (answer) in Him (Christ). For this reason we also utter the Amen (so be it) to God through Him (in His Person and by His agency) to the glory of God
But it is God Who confirms and makes us steadfast and establishes us (in joint fellowship) with you in Christ, and has consecrated and anointed us (enduing us with the gifts of the Holy Spirit);
He has also appropriate and acknowledged us as His by putting His seal upon us and giving us His Holy Spirit in our hearts as the security deposit and guarantee (of the fulfillment of His promise).

I Corinthians 6:17, 18-19

But the person who is united to the Lord becomes one spirit with Him.

Do you not know that your body is the temple (the very sanctuary) of the Holy Spirit Who lives within you, Whom you have received
(as a Gift) from God? You are not your own.
You were bought with a price purchased with a preciousness and paid for, made His Own. So then, honor God and bring glory to Him in your body.

All In One (Jesus) were made righteous
II Corinthians 5:21
For our sake He made Christ (virtually) to be sin Who knew no sin, so that in and through Him we might become (endued with, viewed as being in, and examples of) the righteousness of God (what we ought to be, approved and acceptable and in right relationship with Him, by His goodness.

Ephesians 1:4-5, 10-11
Even as (in His love) He chose us (actually picked us out for Himself as His Own) in Christ before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy (consecrated and set apart for Him) and blameless in His sight, even above reproach, before Him in love.
For He foreordained us (destined us, planned in love for us) to be adopted (revealed) as His Own children through Jesus Christ, in accordance with the purpose of His will (because it pleased Him and was His kind intent.
He planned for the maturity of the times and the climax of the ages to unify all things and head them up and consummate them in Christ, (both) things in heaven and things on the earth.
In Him we also were made (God’s) Heritage (portion) and we obtained an inheritance; for we had been foreordained (chosen and appointed beforehand) in accordance with His purpose, Who works out everything in agreement with the counsel and design of His Own will..

Colossians 2:9-10
For in Him the whole fullness of Deity (the God-Head) continues to dwell in bodily form (giving complete expression of the divine nature).
And you are in Him, made full and having come to fullness of life (in Christ you too are filled with the God-Head-Father, Son and Holy Spirit-and reach full spiritual stature). And He is the Head of all rule and authority (of every angelic principality and power).

I Corinthians 12:27
Now you (collectively) are Christ’s body and individually you are members of it, each part severally and distinct (each with his own place and function).

Philippians 3:8-9
Yes furthermore, I count everything as loss compared to the possession of the priceless privilege (the overwhelming preciousness, the surpassing worth, and supreme advantage) of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord and of progressively becoming more deeply an intimately acquainted with Him (of perceiving and recognizing and understanding Him more fully and clearly). For His sake I have lost everything and consider it all to be mere rubbish (refuse, dregs), in order that I may win (gain) Christ (the Anointed One).
And that I may (actually) be found and known as in Him, not having any (self-achieved) righteousness that can be called my own, based on my obedience to the Law’s demands (ritualistic uprightness and supposed right standing with God thus acquired), but possessing that genuine righteousness which comes through faith in Christ (the Anointed one), the truly right standing with God which comes from God by saving faith.

I John 5:20
And we have seen and know positively that the Son of God has actually come to this world and has given us understanding and insight progressively to perceive recognize and come to know better and more clearly Him Who is true and we are in Him Who is true- in His Son Jesus Christ (the Messiah), This Man is the true God and Life eternal.

I Corinthians 1:30
But it is from Him that you have your life in Christ Jesus,
Whom God made our Wisdom from God, (revealed to us a knowledge of the divine plan of salvation previously hidden, manifesting itself as) our Righteousness (thus making us upright and putting us in right standing with God), and our Consecration (making us pure and holy), and our Redemption (providing our ransom from eternal penalty for sin).

Colossians 3:3-4
For as far as this world is concerned, you have died, and your new real life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ, Who is our life will appear with Him in the splendor of His glory.

I Corinthians 3:16
Do you not discern and understand that you (the whole church at Corinth are God’s temple (His sanctuary), and that God’s Spirit has His permanent dwelling in you (to be at home in you, collectively as a church also individually)?
The Word of God in the new testament mentions that we are In Him over 380 times.
If we can understand that we are already completely accepted in Christ and favored in Christ, then we will lose our sense of inferiority and weakness.
Now the Word of God says that to Whom you yield your body to obey, that is whose servant you will be. But remember, greater is He that is in you than He that is in the world.
Remember that you were purchased by God and you are not your own any longer. You are God’s property.
Romans 12:1
Present your bodies to God which is your reasonable service.
All that is in the world is the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes and the pride of life.
Satan cannot tempt you with what is already yours.
I Corinthians 3:22-23
All things are yours.
And you are Christ’s and Christ is God’s.
I Corinthians 3:1-3
Do not think as unspiritual men having the nature of the flesh, under control of ordinary impulses. Do not behave as unchanged men.
The Law of the Spirit of Life in Christ Jesus has set me free from the Law of sin and death.
I am sealed in favor forever. I am sealed in completeness, wholeness and fullness in Jesus Christ.
He whom the Son sets free is free indeed.
I am free from trying to be justified by my own actions and free from trying to get into favor by my good performance or good behavior.
I am accepted in the Beloved in Christ alone.
We are God’s temple through Christ Jesus.
Our victory is sealed by the finished work of Christ.
Our healing is sealed by the finished work of Christ.
Our blessings and gifts are sealed by the finished work of Christ.
Now let us renew our minds to match our position.

Philemon 6
And I pray that the participation in and sharing of you faith may produce and promote full recognition and appreciation and understanding and precise knowledge of every good thing that is ours in our identification with Christ Jesus and unto His glory.
Speak in faith like Jesus spoke and get the results that Jesus got.
When there was a demon being cast out of a man, He spoke to those attempting to cast it out saying, Paul I know and Jesus I know but who are you? In Christ, demons are subject to you. But, you have to know who you are.

Seeing Beauty in the Body of Christ

David Miller

The boy was horribly disfigured by birth defects. It was difficult to look at his misshapen face. His mother's heart had been broken repeatedly by the looks of horror and the unkind words. The host of the TV show asked her, "When you look at your son, what do you see?" Tears running down her face, she replied, "I see a beautiful boy." She was not blind to his defects, but defiantly chose to look past her son's deformity. She chose to see him with eyes of love.

In recent days I have heard harsh criticisms of the church. Many churches are horribly divided, hopelessly impotent and haplessly adrift. A retired pastor is angry at the church, seeing every modern innovation as aberrant and destructive. A young man, who claims to walk with Jesus, disdains the church as irrelevant, hypocritical, even silly.

My problem is that I have to agree with many of the criticisms. It is hard to argue that today's American church is not misshapen, deformed, and disfigured. The Body of Christ, destined to be His pure and radiant bride, is often weak and sick.

Look at the evidence. So many churches today are torn apart by divisive power struggles. A truly unified church is shamefully rare.

Too many Christians live in ignorance of the teachings of God's Word. Because the Bible is ignored, the church drifts on a raging sea of deception, a ship without rudder or anchor.

The Body of Christ is too often unclean, as well. Divorce is about as common in the church as it is in the lost world. There is little that distinguishes the lives of many of the redeemed from the lost world around us.

Many churches have lost sight of their purpose. We are called to be salt and light in a decaying, darkened world, to make disciples of those who live in it. But we often get distracted and the church of Jesus Christ becomes more a social club than an evangelistic army.

I haven't even mentioned materialism, racism, and other serious issues. There is no denying that the church of Jesus Christ gives its critics way too much ammunition.

But there is something the critics forget that we must not. No matter how disfigured the church of Jesus Christ is, it is still the church of Jesus Christ. It is His body, redeemed by His blood, built by His hands and upheld by His power. And Jesus looks on His church with the eyes of love. Yes, the church may be diseased and dysfunctional, but Jesus loves it -- with all His heart.

It is always too soon to give up on the church of Jesus Christ. It has weathered 2000 years of false teachers, hostile despots, internal carnality and waywardness. Jesus said, "On this rock I will build my church." He never changes his mind and he never fails in His purposes.

Jesus looks at us with eyes of love, as the mother above did. But there is a key difference. The mother loved her child but could do nothing about his condition. Jesus has all power. He works to purify the Body, strengthen it, heal it, empower it. He never quits, never tires of the work; He never abandons His sovereign purpose.

We are the body of Christ -- Christ's hands, His feet, His voice. For reasons that go beyond my understanding, God chose to work in this world through the church. We are His plan A. He has no plan B.

So, let us acknowledge that the church is not what it should be, or could be. But we must never disdain the church of the Living God. He loves His church. He will never give up on it. He sees the beautiful Bride it will one day be, regardless of the current state of affairs.

Let us ask God to give us the eyes of Christ as we look on His church. We may notice the faults, the disease, the dysfunction, but we must look beyond them with the eyes of faith. The glorious good news is that we are not defined by our past or even our present. We are defined by the destiny marked out for us by God.

For the church, that destiny is beautiful, radiant and pure. Can you see it? Can you see the beauty of the church, in spite of its deformity? It is too soon to give up on the church of Jesus Christ. Jesus is at work and will complete the job; he will make the church all He desires it to be.

In the imperfect present, let us never forget the glorious future of the radiant Bride of Christ!

Substance Behind The Symbol

Louise Switzer

Dear fellow Christians,
A few days ago I received the following e-mail that affected me differently that it would have in the past because of what the Lord has said we need to be focused on. Here is the e-mail with my comments following.

"Tomorrow, Grassfire will be at the National Press Club representing tens of thousands of citizens who are standing in support of the Ten Commandments. During this Grassfire sponsored event, we hope to be able to broadcast a strong message to the media and our elected leaders that the Ten Commandments and our rights to publicly acknowledge them are preserved and protected. As we prepare to leave for our nation's Capitol, we do so knowing that our constitutional right to publicly acknowledge God is in jeopardy! Unless the grassroots voice of America stands up, we are seriously in danger of losing this precious right to a relatively small group of radical secularists bent on removing God from the fabric of our nation!"

Although I am against the removal of anything that acknowledges God, I find it a bit ironic that Christians are making such a fuss over the removal of monuments bearing the inscription of the Ten Commandments, when the church long ago removed the Law from its life, claiming it had been abolished at the cross. In light of this, why is it important to get a "strong message" to the media and politicians of our society when we do not even acknowledge the place of God's Law in our own lives? Is this not just the same demanding of "rights" on the part of Christians as the world makes for what it considers its rights?

The best way to fight the removal of the Ten Commandments from the fabric of our nation is to embrace those Law's on an individual level. What we need to be protesting is the fact that the government of the traditional church has not acknowledged the New Covenant promise of God to put His Law in our minds and write them on our hearts. It is ultimately the organized church's removal of the Law that has come down to our political leaders and religious dissidents attempting erasure of any public symbol bearing the imprint of God's influence! The injustice here is the one of blaming unregenerate mankind who does not know God instead of pointing the finger of fault at Christians who have not exercised the power of God's Law to influence the unsaved by obeying the Law themselves. It is God who is allowing the removal of these treasured "symbols" in answer to our having already removed our obedience to them. This is no different than His allowing the Ark of the Covenant that carried the Ten Commandments to be taken away from Israel by her enemies because her heart had turned from keeping them.

The presence of things such as monuments engraved with the Ten Commandments may cause us to think we are a godly nation, but it is a deception because there is no substance behind the symbol. Its removal is to our benefit so we can face the reality of what we have become, and it is just another in a long line of warnings to those claiming to know God that judgment is to soon descend on our nation, just as it did on Israel for the same reasons—disregard for the Law of God. And the responsibility for this rests squarely on the shoulders of the church!

May we be found faithful and obedient to all of His word, which is His Law!

Shaking Coming To His Church

Orla Duane

09/18/05 13:50:43

Please hear the Spirit of the Lord in this and not me. I know what the spirit of fear feels and looks like, but I tell you it is with the Great Fear of the Lord that I write, and submit this to you. My whole body shakes, as I can feel His fire burning on my face and on my hands. Do not take this lightly. Please know I love you my friends and family worldwide. Although this intercession has been specifically for America, I sense a shaking coming to His church in the USA, and then spreading around the world?
Written Saturday 17th September 2005 - between 3-4 PM (GMT)

With weeping, wailing, groaning and the hand of God on my shoulder, I've got to write to you. I don't say any of this lightly but as I write I am hearing the devastation of God's wrath let lose over America. I can hear weeping of mothers multiplied many times over, for their dead children. If only you could hear the weeping, and wailing, "Rachel weeping for her children for they were no more," (Oh God I don't want to say any of this.) He is waiting on even ONE person to stand in the gap and to apologise and repent on behalf of the Body of Christ; but it has to be a man in "office;" then it will lessen His judgments. It's like Daniel repenting for the sins of the nation, even though he as an individual didn't commit those sins. It's a symbolic thing.

There are three angels with three bowls of judgment to be loosed over the Body of Christ - over those in "leadership" if they don't repent. (I'm sorry to have to say this, but this is only one of what I heard and this is mild. I am not released to speak of the others yet. And have blocked my ears after hearing the words spoken by God. This "language" is very mild. Please don't joke about this). The Father's wrath burns and He is about to erupt with a Great Shaking. The Three judgments, specifically for Christian Leaders if true repentance does not come are:
1) Hemorrhoids
2) Genital warts
3) Oral thrush

But it will be of an epidemic proportion, and traditional medicine will not cure the problems. It will even make the news, and it will become the "butt" joke around the world.

I can see those three angels with those bowls lifted high ready to be poured out; waiting for God's signal. I see one placed over the Southern West Coast, the second over the Northern West Coast and the third somewhere in the Southern Midwest? (from studying a map, I would say Springfield Missouri, Arkansas, Tennessee, Illinois - that general area) In my spirit I sense a SHAKING of some kind with those bowls, a natural Earthquake, or Volcanic eruption. I am still seeing those dates, 9/18, 9/19, 9/20 with more emphasis on 9/19 and 9/20?? I wonder does it mean 9/19 - time wise in America, but perhaps 9/20 Irish time??? That 1 Samuel 9: 18, 19, 20 has more meaning now. The HEART being REVEALED - as I've heard the Father's spewing anger of how His "lead men" have treated His Son's Body. Especially the "hidden/secret" sins (lust) of the heart.

Written Sunday 18th September 2005 5:42 PM (GMT)

He now shows me just why He burns with wrath, as I see the Father pick up a little girl around 7/8 years old. She is naked, with bruises and burn marks (like that of cigarette burns on her skin), in-fact her body looks grotesque, almost unrecognisable. Her face is deformed, all out of alignment. This little one looks like death, as if there is no hope of recovery of life, for her, as she is so bruised. I see the Father's overwhelming love for this child, and hear Him call her America, "My beautiful little girl. What have they done to you? What have they done? Why did they gang rape you and abuse you over, and over, and over again? My precious little girl. How could they? Look she is so bruised that she is frightened of ME, her FATHER. THIS IS WRONG. I WILL HAVE MY VENGEANCE ON THOSE WHO HAVE DONE THIS TO HER."

The Father's anger rages. I hear Him call His "leaders" to attention for He says, "This is what you have done, to MY daughter. In the spirit this is what your sinning has done. I entrusted you to mind and CARE for MY sheep, MY Son's Body, HIS Bride and Look? This is what I see, MY little Precious, Beautiful, Daughter America has been abused by YOU. THE PEOPLE I ENTRUSTED TO CARE AND MIND AND PROTECT HER. Oh, that's MY girl. LOOK at what YOU have done. LOOK."

I (Orla) cling to Jesus and I weep with Him, for now I can understand why the Father's rage is burning. He wants vengeance over what has taken place to His daughter America. And He is holding the leaders responsible. I see the love, tears and pain of THE FATHER over His little girl. He has her naked, bruised, deformed body wrapped in a silken, jeweled, blazing, white, light, filled blanket. I know it is no ordinary blanket; it is a very special blanket that He made, and now He tenderly wraps it around her, and He doesn't care that her weeping cuts and bruises are blood staining this blanket. He carries her as close to His chest as possible and whispers His love into her ear. But because she has been so abused she won't even open her hand to let HIM touch her, for so great has been the abuse and defilement that she has a distorted imagine of her TRUE FATHER.

Jesus says we must get some water, for her bruises to be cleansed and washed. I wonder where to go to find some water? I look at Jesus with tears in my eyes, as I don't know what to do? (I'm about 5 years old in this vision) He then whispers, "There is the water. Don't you see. It is your tears. That's what I need, I need yours and others tears to help wash and cleanse America." Now, a waterfall of tears come pouring out of my eyes for this little one. She looks so helpless. I want to tell her it will be alright, your safe now, your with Abba, and Jesus will make you Brand NEW. But I sense if I approach her, I will only scare her, for great has been the abuse. I kneel and let The Healer collect my tears; "take them Jesus, take them. I won't stop crying until you collect all the water you need."

I sense this is a final warning call: I have heard Jesus weeping for His "lead men" praying, groaning, interceding for them to repent for what they have done to His Body, His Bride, The Father's little girl. But like that dream, warning, and Ezekiel 22 reading that Mike Bickle received. I too sense Jesus, saying, "I looked for a man among them who would build up the wall and stand before me in the gap on behalf of the land so I would not have to destroy it, but I found none."

"At this moment, ISRAEL'S (America's) FUTURE IS IN YOUR HANDS." I Samuel 9:20 MSG

I have spent the past week, two weeks unable to leave my house, haven't watched TV, or read a paper. Had to leave my friends and family; couldn't even speak to them at times, for so great has been the spirit of intercession and His Holy fire burning deep within my belly. He has opened my mouth like a cork shooting up, I've even been scared of the holiness to the words I've uttered, as have those around me. He has then shut my mouth. I feel like Amos (Whose name means: burden-bearer) when God showed Him visions of His judgments, and then he (Amos) standing in the gap, praying that they wouldn't happen. This is what I've been doing. But He says, it's in your hands America ("lead men"). What will be your response?

As a side note: I've just heard that Sue Mitchell of Passion Ministers U.K. only last night in Cork City, spoke of Cork being like that champagne cork, bubbling up, ready to pop open. Definitely what I've been feeling.

I'm a nobody. And I see Jesus has sat me down and has just placed running shoes on my feet. I see the SERIOUSNESS on His face that this must be "delivered." I so don't want to "deliver" this, and I sense a hush in Heaven, to see what my response will be? I am reminded of Isaiah's call, "Send me Lord" and I know in my spirit some will not heed the warning. My heart breaks for I know what will fall on the children. The children will reap the sins of the fathers if they don't repent. "THIS IS WHAT SIN DOES." They are the words ringing in my ears over and over again. Oh, and what breaks HIS HEART the most, is that the children are the ones repenting for their parents, but will the parents???

I humbly and on bended knees in sheer brokenness, submit this to you.

I weep for you America - Be cleansed in His blood, I pray.

In Jesus' Love & MERCY,

P.S. For those who don't know me that well. I am usually extra quiet and prefer to be silent. Delivering this email is a very difficult thing to do. It is because of my love for Him; and in hope that this may prevent even one disaster from happening that I deliver... Just felt Him ask me to pray a release of His holiness and the very fragrance of Jesus over this. And to remind you of His Great love for "leaders" but they must repent.

Storm Clouds On Horizon

STORM CLOUDS GATHERING ON HORIZON

03/03/05

Recently while traveling across the beautiful green hills of Northern California towards the coast, I was taken in the Spirit to the San Francisco Bay area, and shown a coastline littered with ships lying broken upon the sandy shores; great military vessels, cruise ships, fishing boats and every manner of vessel, caught unaware by tsunami as great quakes rippled across the Pacific. Our message this winter to America was a call to prayer and repentance, for I believe that the 9.0 Sumatra quake was just a warning, not the big one; greater events are now approaching. Time has been bought for the North American Continent by the tears of the saints, sown upon the soil as apostolic and prophetic teams have been launched to guard the borders of the sea; yet the time bought with these tears is very limited. It is what we do with this time that will determine the destiny of many nations, islands and regions.

Looking across the Pacific I see storm clouds gathering on the horizon. Unless there is repentance, Indonesia has not seen the worst of what is yet to come. I am greatly concerned for the islands of the South Pacific. Who will walk the land, and sow tears of repentance and intercession for Australia, Indonesia, Malaysia, Polynesia and islands of the sea? Who will sow tears of intercession for the lost and dying souls in China, Taiwan, Japan, Russia, Alaska and the Aleutian Islands? The harvest is great, but workers are few. Before teams of revivalist can be sent in to reap the harvest, God's special forces must be sent in first to prepare the way; prophetic and apostolic teams commissioned for specific tasks, who will leave a region with an entirely different atmosphere than before they came. The anointing can calm seas, stabilize fault lines, cast out demonic principalities and powers, releasing the atmosphere of heaven in areas which have been captive to hell. The Pacific Ring of Fire is awakening, and warnings will continue to increase in size and magnitude, until the veil of darkness is finally rent over this tiny blue planet, and the great Awakening begins; judgment and revival are now both imminent as we draw closer to the return of our Lord Jesus Christ; yet, some of these judgments can be offset, redirected, averted or lessened in magnitude through prayer, intercession, divinely inspired actions, fasting and obedience to unction of the Holy Spirit.

40 Days Prayer, Fasting
Timothy Snodgrass

40 DAYS PRAYER, FASTING FOR THE PACIFIC
April 8 – May 18, 2005

We are calling a 40-day period of prayer and fasting for the Pacific Region, including the South Pacific (from Australia and the Antarctic to South America) and for the North Pacific (from China and SE Asia to the coast of North America). Although our greatest concern is the South Pacific, there are other areas of concern in the North Pacific as well, in which we foresee seismic events on the near horizon in the 8.0 and 9.0 realm.

The South Pacific is our chief focus, because the magnitude of the quake we foresee occurring in this region would be much greater than the December 26 Sumatra quake. According to Northwestern University seismologists, the 12/26 Sumatra quake was actually three times larger than originally estimated, or magnitude 9.3. The energy released in great quakes like this are extremely hard to measure, and often takes weeks before data from the epicenter can be accurately accessed. Prophetically, we have been warned of a greater quake in the South Pacific Region which would not only be larger in magnitude than the Sumatra quake, but send destructive waves across the Pacific as far away as Anchorage and Los Angeles. Although the window of time we foresee this quake occurring begins this spring, with sufficient prayer covering the event can be offset beyond 2006 or 2007, and the epicenter can be redirected away from the Antarctic to less dangerous area of the South Pacific, away from the ice cap. Needless to say, it is better that the epicenter of this quake is on land, instead of open sea.

Shortly after the Holy Spirit gave us the dates 4/8-5/18 for our 40 day period of prayer and fasting for the Pacific, data begin to emerge on the significance of these particular dates, and how it ties in to everything. On April 8th, a total solar eclipse will blacken the skies of the South Pacific, beginning just SE of New Zealand near the Antarctic, drawing a line all the way across the Pacific to South America. Forty days later, the fast will end on May 18th, the 25th anniversary of the eruption of Mt. Saint Helens. I don't believe that this is a coincidence. We seem to have a 40 day window of time to impact the course of many of these events in the Pacific region, but our time is quickly running out.

In preparing for our intercessory mission to the South Pacific this spring, we have never encountered so much opposition since Berlin during 1989. Although most of our partners are aware that our team arrived in Germany on the day the Berlin Wall fell in November, 1989, few are aware of the great opposition we faced on the journey from Sweden to Amsterdam during that time, and that I had been shot at and nearly lost my life before arriving in Germany. The opposition to our intercessory trip to the South Pacific trip has been enormous, making Germany, 1989 look almost like a picnic. Last week we were informed that one of our team members, Jocelyn Lane from Perth, Australia, was in a horrible car accident. It is really a miracle that she is still alive. The engine to her car was found in the front seat after she had a mild stroke and hit a tree, and she suffered severe injuries. She is still listed in critical condition in the Royal Perth Hospital. I would like to ask that as you begin to fast and pray for the South Pacific this spring, don't forget to pray for Jocelyn, for total healing and a 100% breakthrough and physical turnaround for this precious woman of God in Australia. We believe that as the veil of darkness is rent over the South Pacific region, thousands will be healed and delivered in Australia, New Zealand and the islands of the Pacific, and that the enemy will wish that he never touched a hair on Jocelyn's head. Not only will she be healed, but thousands of others will experience healing, salvation and deliverance from darkness across this region of the world.

Our South Pacific team is now down to three persons, and we continue to come under enormous attack and opposition as the deadline draws nearer. But at times when we are tempted to throw in the towel and cancel, I always look back on Germany. What if we had canceled Berlin in 1989? Did our small prophetic team really make a difference? I have often asked myself that question over the years. I really don't know the answer, except that prior to our arrival in Germany East Germany was communist, and on the day we arrived it became democratic. Just as the veil of darkness fell over Berlin, it can also fall over the South Pacific Region.

One week ago, we had funding for the trip, because of a commitment made by a new friend of the ministry to buy airline tickets and so forth, but this person has also come under attack, and we no longer have funding. During the upcoming 40 day fast for the Pacific, remember our small team in prayer for provision, covering safety and financial backing to complete the assignment in the South Pacific. In addition to airline tickets to New Zealand and Polynesia, the Antarctic segment of the journey is extremely tricky, whereas the polar winter is beginning to set in. The scientific outpost on Macquarie Island is closing for the season, and it is difficult to find an expedition to the area. Thus, for this particular segment of the journey we really need a charter jet to do a quick intercessory sweep of the region from New Zealand.

Interestingly, since we accurately prophesied the Indonesia quake and tsunami one-month prior to the event (in our November, 2004 report), the daily viewers of our website has jumped astronomically, and we are monitored daily by world governments, insurance companies (funny if you think about it), and every manner of organization; yet, funding for this ministry is still scarce (our website picks up perhaps one or two donations per month). Pray that some of these godly people in our government or military would cooperate with missions like this one, whereas we have military planes flying over the Antarctic every day. We have need of a ship or plane going to this region simply to pray for the area, and are all working together towards the same goal. (Without assistance of a ship or plane to the Antarctic, the cost of our mission to the South Pacific is estimated somewhere between $12,000 and $14,000.) During this 40 day fast, do not forget to pray for the military of the US, UK, Australia and other great nations who have ships scattered throughout in the Pacific, for I believe God is going to use them in a powerful and unique way in the immediate days ahead for the glory of God.

Blessings,
Timothy Snodgrass

"I long, yes, I faint with longing to enter the courts of the Lord. With my whole being, body and soul, I will shout joyfully to the living God." - Psalm 84:2

"Enter his gates with thanksgiving, go into his courts with praise. Give thanks to Him and bless His name" - Psalm 100:4

"I saw the Lord seated on a throne" - Isaiah 6:1

"For He raised us from the dead along with Christ, and we are seated with Him in the heavenly realms" - Ephesians 2:6

The doors are covered in gold. The shine so brightly that I can hardly look at them. I hold my breath knowing what awaits me inside. I look up and as high as I can see, I see the words inscripted on the doors.

EL SHADDAI, ALMIGHTY GOD!!!!

I open the doors, and as I do, I look around the room and I can see millions upon millions of coloured jewels, that cover the walls. As far as I can see there are jewels. It's like being in a disco, rays of all these beautiful colours unknown to the mind of man, are flashing around everywhere.

As I continue to look, I see them. Angels, millions upon millions of angels around the walls, all with their arms raised singing "Holy, Holy, Holy Is the Lamb", all singing in one accord, the music, the sound, like nothing I have ever seen.

I am still standing at the door frozen, admiring all these things that seem to be so real, while I am feeling this overwhelming feeling that "I'm home". I look at the other end of the room and there is a throne. The throne is the brightest emerald colour I have ever seen, yet it is transparent. I can see waters gushing through this throne, round and round and round inside this throne. It's so bright, I cannot see anything, but the throne.

Before the throne are men, a few rows of them all dressed in white, with gold crowns and then are bowing down before the throne singing "HOLY HOLY HOLY are you LORD".

The bowls of incense, from the prayers of the saints, being guarded and treasured closely by some of the angels.

I just want to run up to this throne. I look to the floor, and I see I'm in His courts. Big gold square tiles, as far as I can see. Such peace in this place, I've never dreamed.

I then see a chair off to the side of the room, and I slowly sneak over to this chair and take a seat, hoping to be able to see all that is going on. As I take my seat, I hear the words:

"That is not your seat. I have not called you to that seat". As I look up before Me is the King of Kings. Jesus!!!!!

He's wearing the most beautiful purple robe, and His crown shines so brightly, the gold and the jewels is like nothing I have ever seen. He takes me by the hand, and says, "Come, let me show you the seat I paid for you".

As we walk across the room, I am filled with a love I cannot describe, I feel so loved, and the excitement within me, is almost unbearable. My heart feels like it's going to beat right out of my chest.

The thoughts continue to run through my mind 'where is my seat, He's taking me further to the front, my seat can't be in the front row, surely not'. As He continues to lead me, I look to the angels and they are smiling with such delight, watching the King take me to my place.

We then walk past what I now realise are not just men, but elders. The elders worshipping. We pass them. Now I am thinking 'where are we going? there are no more seats left'.

Jesus then turns to me and says "Here is your seat" He is smiling greatly. I cannot believe it, because we are standing before His throne.

I say "but Lord, this is your throne, not my seat" and He says to me "You reign with me".

"You are seated with me"

"Come, take your seat"

He sits on the throne and motions for Me to come and sit with Him. I climb up on the throne, and snuggle into His chest. I can hardly believe I am sitting on the throne with Jesus.

He then begins to share with me, that He is saddened that many are not sitting with Him. Many are taking their seat in the back row (as I went too) and are not sitting in the place that I have called them too.

He kept speaking. "It's here, seated and reigning with Me, that I have called each of My children to be at. To listen to My heart and snuggle with Me. It's when they leave this seat, that they get themselves into trouble".

"In this seat, is where My children find confidence, fulfillment, direction, joy, peace, forgiveness, grace, and fueled passion. It's here as My children focus on Me alone, and hearing My heart, will they truly begin to live. My children, need to stop taking their seats in anxiety, depression, low self esteem, unbelief, fear, death, sin, hopelessness, worthlessness, doubt, and worry. It's time for My children to truly take their seat."

"Take this message My child, eat it, and take it to My church. The time has come for My church to rise up, and show the world they are seated with ME, the ALMIGHTY GOD, and NONE can remove them from My seat, My hands. They must choose today, where they sit, in the backrow, in seats not of Me, or the seat I have chosen for them".

Jesus then went onto cuddle Me, and speak beautiful words of love into My ears. There I sat, in the very throne-room of the Almighty, in His very courts, and truly did I know:

THIS IS MY HOME! THIS IS WHERE I AM MEANT TO BE! SEATED WITH JESUS!!!!!!!

Be Alert

23rd August, 2005
Sydney, Australia

I am warning my church to remain under My covering. I am warning each of you to not step out of the covering I have placed over you. Many of you are stepping out of My covering when you are not aligning yourself with My Word.

When you do not align yourself with My Word you are opening yourself up to much attack by the evil one. Remain in Me, and in My Word, connected to Me so that I may bring to you much fruit and life. Strength to stand and courage to endure.
Great attacks are coming against many of you and I have given you the strength in order to stand and fight, but if you are continually aligning yourselves with things other than Me, then you will be tossed around by the wind and the waves.

What you allow to be put before you, you will indeed reflect, and many of you are not placing My Words before you, but placing the world and all it's desires before you. I love each of you so much, and My thoughts towards you are numerous, like the sand on the seashore, I am always thinking of each of you, always longing to take you deeper, and provide what is best for each of you.

Many of you are not walking with your minds renewed. Many of you are continually allowing the world and its lusts and the enemy to control your minds. Why? Do you not want to be renewed and walk in the fullness of the manifestation of being given the mind of Christ?

Take your thoughts captive. Be aware of what is before you and do not move from under the covering of My Word. Do not give yourself to things not contained in the truth of My Word.

I am transforming My church. I am transforming My Bride to be ready for My return. For many events that are occurring in the world today are crucial for My return, and I long to see My bride shining brighter than the noon day sun.
You are My joy, My church. I delight in you and am bringing forth My army.

Walk in the joy of the covering of My Word, and delight in the continued renewal of your mind.

I am forewarning you My church, that a great attack from the enemy is about to arrive at your doors. One that will truly require My church to hear My voice, to hear Me clearly, and know to stand. Know to take thoughts captive and use the weapons that I have given to each of you.

An increase in warfare but not bigger than the authority and victory I have purchased for you at Calvary.

I am warning you now My church to listen to My Words. Come closer to Me than ever before, and as you do, these attacks that are about to come to the church will not shake you, but strengthen you as each of you continue to walk with Me.

Be aware that the enemy sees the transformation that I am bringing to My church, and will do all he can to stop this. For if he can disarm My children one by one, then the army weakens, so listen to My voice.

Prepare for this. Shake off the things of old, and things that are not eternal. Shake them off, and set your minds on the things of heavenly value, of eternal value. Do not waste your time with things of this earth. For you are not fighting against flesh and blood, but against principalities and powers.

You MUST be equipped church. Jezebel is rampant in My church today, and wants to control the minds of My children, and bring about bondage and great control. Stand against this, use My Word as your Sword, and allow your minds to be transformed.

For as your minds are transformed, not only will you see greater victory and freedom in your lives and church, you will be strengthened more and more to fight the battles that are coming your way. The enemy knows where to hit each of you, do not be ignorant, but rejoice in the truth, that I the Lord your God, have given you all you need to resist the devil, and stand in victory.

For, I will use this time of great attack to sift through My church. Those who truly hear My voice, and seek wholeheartedly will stand and not be moved, and those who do not, will waver.

See what is to come as a great blessing. See what is to come as a time of great strengthening knowing you will not be overcome My church, if you continue to walk in My Spirit, knowing My voice, and renewing your minds in Me.

This attack and shaking will be used for My Glory. Be ready, always alert, and know that I the Lord your God will use all things to bring about My Glory in your individual lives and My church corporately.

Parsley
Lanna Perry

Aug 26, 2005

This isn't a prophetic 'word' as such, but I am sending out this revelation, because I believe (a) it's funny, (b) it's encouraging, and (c) I felt God wanted me to share.

I have to tell you I am fascinated with my parsley. Yes parsley. I am growing my own parsley. I have it in a little pot and I water it everyday and I look after it. I keep my parsley in the kitchen and I look after it everyday.

Well tonight, I went out into the kitchen to make myself a cup of tea, and I always go over and check how it is going. I get so excited every time I see the parsley grow more and more. I get so excited every time I water it, and pull out any sticks out of the soil, hindering it's growth, and I just delight so much in watching it grow.

Without me, it cannot exist, because it's in the house and if I don't water it and look after it, it's not outside exposed to natural sunlight and rain, to be able to grow. So without me it dies.

The absolute delight I have in watching my parsley grow I cannot even tell you. I literally get so excited, because I am looking after it, and in a sense it feels like my creation, (even though in a lot of ways it isn't ;))

I am awe-struck. Here I am sitting here really excited and in awe as I watch the growth take place, and I love this parsley so much because it's mine. It belongs to Me.

Now, it hits my Spirit. Bang!!!!!!!!!!

Could this be how God feels towards me? Towards us?

I/we are the parsley. God delights in us so much. He gets so excited to watch us grow and depend on Him. Knowing without Him, we are nothing, and we cannot survive truly without Him. It needs sunlight, as we need SON-light.

As I excitedly go to check on my parsley everyday and water it, God eagerly waits for us to continue to come to Him, so He can pour His water of life into us, and bring growth to us.

In that place, God is able to get rid of all the 'sticks' and 'stones' in the soil that hinder our growth.

I just keep hearing the word 'excitement' in my spirit. God is so excited at watching us grow up in Him. That's amazing!!!!!!!!!!!!

God really delights in our growth, but even deeper than that, He really delights in us.

So, whatever I feel toward my parsley is almost nothing compared to what God feels about us?

As I stand over my parsley and feel like singing songs to it, and telling it how beautiful it is, because it is mine, that's how God feels about us.

Standing beside us, cheering us on.

"You are so beautiful, you are Mine"

"You are growing so beautifully, I am so excited at your growth and what you are to become"

Hear those words:

What you have become and are becoming and are to become!!!!!

Those words hit my Spirit like a tonne of bricks.

God is so excited about what I/we are going to become. The growth into who we are in Him. It's a daily process, day after day after day, walking deeper and deeper in the revelation of who we really are.

For there cannot come a day, where we stop growing in the revelation of our identity. God is SO SO SO excited about what we are to become. Walking in the complete manifestation of who we are in Him.

He delights SO much in what we are becoming, and delights in what we are to become.

Wow!!!!!

So God delights in what we are slowly becoming now, the growth that is taking place, no matter how slow, and He delights in the calling He has for us.

The calling He has for me, He's excited at what He is going to make "Lanna Perry" into. Not for my namesake, but for His Glory. He is EXCITED about what He is making each of YOU into, a gold pure shining vessel to shine forth and carry His Glory. Hallelujah!!!!!!!!

God delights in YOU and ME!!!!

Now as I stand over my parsley singing 'you're so cute, you're so beautiful, you keep growing, you are mine' I then hear the thunderous words from above:

"YOU ARE MINE. YOU ARE SO BEAUTIFUL. I DELIGHT IN WHO YOU ARE NOW, WHAT YOU ARE BECOMING AND WHO YOU ARE TO BECOME"

I pray this blesses you. May you step forward into the rest of your day, confidently knowing that God delights in YOU!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

All my love to you my friends,
Lanna Perry

SEEK ME

I can hear you knocking, dear one. I told you that you shall find Me if you seek Me. So why do you frown? Do you think I am lost? Smile, precious! I am not lost, but I do hide Myself. I draw your heart to earnestly seek Me with all your heart, so that you will know Me in all My ways. How I love to reveal My heart to those who are truly hungry for Me. Do not feel guilty about your tendency to nag until I answer. I am drawing you and developing within you the habit of searching for Me, so that you will learn to abide in Me, and not stray from My side. I know that once you "catch" Me, you will never let go!

Luke 11:9-13 NLT
"And so I tell you, keep on asking, and you will be given what you ask for. Keep on looking, and you will find. Keep on knocking, and the door will be opened. For everyone who asks, receives. Everyone who seeks, finds. And the door is opened to everyone who knocks. "You fathers--if your children ask for a fish, do you give them a snake instead? Or if they ask for an egg, do you give them a scorpion? Of course not! If you sinful people know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him."

INVITING OTHERS
I want to use you to knock on the doors of hearts. Learn to listen to My Spirit's drawing of warmth and compassion. Learn to listen to the cues from those who need My touch. Learn to listen to their boundaries for receiving. Learn to be sensitive to the timing of these special invitations. You will be blessing Me as well as them as I teach you how to knock on the hearts of men.

Prov 18:24 NKJV
A man who has friends must himself be friendly, but there is a friend who sticks closer than a brother.

Rev 3:20 NKJV
Behold, I stand at the door and knock . If anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and dine with him, and he with Me.

My DNA
Sandy Warner

Nov 18, 2005

MY DNA
You are on a journey, dear one, and I have marked out a map of your desires, needs and abilities. I have heard all your frets and concerns about missing My plan for your life. It is true, that I do give mankind freewill and I have called you to partner with Me. Your choices to follow Me and abide in Me do count. However, you also have My divine DNA encoded inside. When you surrendered your life to Me, you were re-birthed into My family and you are no longer a child of the world, but you belong to My family. I AM your Father. I have given you My code, deeply embedded into your spirit to know the way.

Yes, in the darkening world sometimes the way is not clear. However, I have placed My light inside of you to keenly know My quickened Words. Listen to the signs, and listen to your spirit shout YES when My Word marks exactly where you are. I use all your desires, needs and abilities for My glory. Simply walk with Me and we will journey together.

Ps 139:16-17 AMP
Your eyes saw my unformed substance, and in Your book all the days [of my life] were written before ever they took shape, when as yet there was none of them. How precious and weighty also are Your thoughts to me, O God! How vast is the sum of them! [Ps 40:5.]

Rom 8:29-30 AMP
For those whom He foreknew [of whom He was aware and loved beforehand], He also destined from the beginning [foreordaining them] to be molded into the image of His Son [and share inwardly His likeness], that He might become the firstborn among many brethren. And those whom He thus foreordained, He also called; and those whom He called, He also justified (acquitted, made righteous, putting them into right standing with Himself). And those whom He justified, He also glorified [raising them to a heavenly dignity and condition or state of being].

Colossians 3:17 NRS
And whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

Those On The Front Lines
Sandy Warner

Nov 17, 2005

THOSE ON THE FRONT LINES
I tenderly watch over those who walk on the front lines of breakthrough. Such courage you have and bravery, tenacity and willingness to keep going and not quit! You have faced such odds, big bumps in the road and so many dead ends. Yet you trust in Me to find your way through a jungle of circumstances. You juggle and toss one thing in the air while your hands diligently continue with another. On and on you press, and with resolve in your heart, you move forward. How precious is your faith! You are so dear and precious to Me. Thank you, dear ones, for all your sacrifices. Each sacrifice is multiplied for others who are walking in the paths that you have forged. Thank you.

2 Cor 11:23-29 NLT
I have worked harder, been put in jail more often, been whipped times without number, and faced death again and again. Five different times the Jews gave me thirty-nine lashes. Three times I was beaten with rods. Once I was stoned. Three times I was shipwrecked. Once I spent a whole night and a day adrift at sea. I have traveled many weary miles. I have faced danger from flooded rivers and from robbers. I have faced danger from my own people, the Jews, as well as from the Gentiles. I have faced danger in the cities, in the deserts, and on the stormy seas. And I have faced danger from men who claim to be Christians but are not. I have lived with weariness and pain and sleepless nights. Often I have been hungry and thirsty and have gone without food. Often I have shivered with cold, without enough clothing to keep me warm. Then, besides all this, I have the daily burden of how the churches are getting along. Who is weak without my feeling that weakness? Who is led astray, and I do not burn with anger?

Seeking Answers
Joni Ames?

> "If My people who are called by My name will humble themselves, and pray and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and heal their land." (I Chron. 7:14)

Dear Friends,

Many are asking for answers about what is going on in the Earth in this day and time, especially during times of disaster such as we are experiencing in this nation right now.

I keep having a "sinking feeling" that things in New Orleans are not over and that worse flooding is about to occur there - fearing that the whole place may fill up totally with water, or something! I've been transfixed by the news reports coming out of there and the other disaster areas, crying with and for the people! Not just my nephew Matthew, who is there right now, in a downtown hotel, because he has been working there as a chef, but for the thousands I do not know as well. Like most of us, I've been crying out for answers...but...

Truly, God is the only answer! Nationwide repentance needs to come forth before additional disasters occur!

On July 10th of this year, I sent a newsletter out to my group and said, "A couple weeks ago when the U.S. Supreme court in DC ruled against the Ten Commandments, I said to my son, "That (and the U.S. stating that Israel needs to give her land up) has just opened this country up to the kind of terrorism that no one can fight back at or stop. Severe Natural Disasters. Watch now for some of the worst natural disasters - including storms, earthquakes, fires, tornados and possibly even volcanoes - that this country has ever experienced."

The war we are involved in over in the Middle East is more than terrorism. It IS a Holy War. The Moslems are not afraid to say that! We (the USA) were formed as a Christian nation, and we must be willing to stand as strong in that conviction as the Moslems in the Middle East are of theirs. In other words, Mr. President, if you are listening, we need to unashamedly proclaim and dedicate this nation back to who is was formed for - our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Additionally:

We need to stand with and for Israel to KEEP her land, NOT give it up.

We need to agree with God regarding the fact that abortion is murder and turn over Roe vs. Wade. If we do not stand for the rights of unborn babies, why should God spare us?

We need to agree with God regarding the fact that homosexuality is sin and not allow same sex marriage.

I feel very strongly that our nation has been opened up to all kinds of terrorism, including "Natural Terrorism" - terrorism via "natural events" that occur as a direct result of our disobedience to Him.

The following are excerpts from articles on my newsletter site at: http://JoniAmes.InJesus.com which I feel were a foretelling of some of what we are experiencing in this nation at this time. Further details are on the "In Jesus" site at that address, but let's re-visit the following for some clarity:

From: Storms & Thoughts - Joni Ames
Sep 06, 2004

"This past year as I've been traveling, I've been telling people that I felt that the natural disasters that were about to occur would be very serious."

"I really do believe the Lord IS speaking through these storms, and the names. One thing the Lord had shown me before was He would come up through Alabama like a "zipper" and unzip the state of Alabama AND the midst of the Nation, a sign of the Lord freeing them up for His purposes."

"A few years ago, I had a prophetic experience in Mobile, AL, when I was supposed to drive over a bridge to Dauphin Island - I had to pull over! - I couldn't even drive over it! - It was as if I was INSIDE THE MIDST OF A HURRICANE THERE that was VERY destructive."

"A year later, I had a dream that there was a hurricane that was coming into Mobile, AL, but some people didn't believe it was coming. Some were having a hurricane party and mocking it. So, in the dream, I got out of the city and was watching TV from afar, and I saw the entire city of Mobile under water."

From: Joni Ames' Shepherd's Rod 2005 - Joni Ames
Oct 01, 2004
Last year the Lord spoke to me that "There are some "bad" things I sense, such as in increase regarding severe natural disasters - earthquakes, tsunamis, hurricanes, tornados, volcanos, etc., because the earth itself is groaning for the sons (i.e., male AND female) to take their rightful place (Romans 8). Additionally, the enemy is escalating as well."

(Excerpt from: "WHAT'S AHEAD FOR 2004 (Part 1 & 2)" - Joni Ames

I sense that this is a continuing word for the coming years as well.

Many have been looking for what the Lord was speaking through the recent barrage of storms, and truly there is a sensing among most that it has been the blowing of the winds of the judgment of the Lord. This is very true. But God's judgment IS merciful - it comes to expell the enemy. And He spoke even through the names of the hurricanes - Frances, meaning "freedom" and Charley, meaning "manly" were led on a path over areas where gay pride and fantasy have been saluted; Ivan, meaning "God is merciful" and Jeanne, meaning "God is gracious" both made circles in order to totally get to where they were sent.

I saw Florida as a big foot, at the base of the nation, and that the Lord was washing the feet of our nation, and then on up the Eastern Coast - Eastern Gate - of our Land, with His judgment, cleansing, mercy and grace, preparing her for what lay ahead. The judgment, mercy & grace of the Lord is entering our Eastern Gate.

Emergency Broadcast System
Several times recently, I have heard what sounded like an emergency broadcast siren, and have seen "flashes" of explosions, people running, and have heard the excited voices of news media members who are covering the activities crying, "The United States is under attack! Get to a place of safety! We are truly a nation at war!"

I also heard the "buzzer" that sounds over a radio or TV station when a weather warning is released, and felt that there will additionally be atmospheric emergencies this coming year as well, and that we need to be prepared to respond in the safest way possible. Often the Lord gives warning so that His People will move to safety before His Judgment falls. - Such as with Lot and his wife. If He calls you to do that, don't look back. It sure didn't help Lot's wife to do so.

I also sensed that the "weather warning siren" warns us of stormy times to come economically, and that there is a call to "downsize, simplify, and be wise" in the area of finances.

FROM: "IF We Do, He Will Heal Our LAND!"
- Joni Ames
Jan 27, 2005
After having several dreams about tsunami on our east AND west coast, recent dreams about volcanoes where lava was running down city streets, and visions and sensations of earthquakes, I was surprised when the Lord gave me a different type of open vision and the verse:

"If My people who are called by My name will humble themselves, and pray and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin and heal their LAND." I Chron. 7:14 - I saw the word LAND very big and bold.

I said, "Wow, Lord! Do you REALLY mean that you would heal our LAND? - LITERALLY?!" Then I saw, under ground, lava flowing into the cracks of huge earthquake faults, as if it was hot welding material, sealing up the cracks. When that release happened, it then calmed the volcanoes.

I said, "Lord, some may think I'm crazy if I say this!" So then He led me to read this.... "But if they had stood in My counsel, And had caused My people to hear My words, Then they would have turned them from their evil way And from the evil of their doings. " - Jer 23:22 - That would certainly be my prayer!

So, I don't care what others think - I'm trusting and believing in the Lord. And I'm believing that He was showing me that He actually could and would do what He said - IF we, as a nation, would publicly: (1) Humble ourselves and acknowledge Him, our need for Him, and our trust in Him, (2) Pray to Him, (3) Seek His Face (4) Turn from our wicked ways - meaning repent of and no longer do that which needs repented for.

I believe this is a time of grace - a "grace period" - when the Lord is saying that, as a nation, He is giving us a "space to repent" so that things like what we've seen happen overseas does not happen here. I believe the many hurricanes we had last year were a sign to us as well that our nation is being "blown upon" and called to repentance.

As a nation, some of those things I saw that we were to corporately pray for and repent of (turn from) in this time would be abortion, homosexuality, etc. - And individually, whatever that would also mean for each of us.

The Bible is clear that we all sin and fall short of the glory of God. So this is a call to all of us to participate in whatever way the Lord leads each of us to do so.

The Lord speaks to us as He spoke to Israel:

Jer. 3:19-22:
(19) "...How can I put you among the children and give you a pleasant land, a beautiful heritage of the hosts of the nations?"..... "You shall call Me, 'My Father' and not turn away from Me." (20) Surely, as a wife treacherously departs from her husband, So have you dealt treacherously with Me..." (21) A voice was heard on the desolate heights, Weeping and supplications of the children of Israel. For they have perverted their way; They have forgotten the Lord their God." (22) "Return, you back-sliding children, And I will heal your backslidings...."

Jer. 4:1-2:
(1) "IF you will return..." says the Lord, Return to ME, and IF you will put away your abominations out of My sight, Then you shall not be moved." (2) And you shall swear, 'The Lord lives,' In truth, in judgment, and in righteousness; The nations shall bless themselves in Him, And in Him they shall glory."

Luke 1:25 & 26: (25) "And there will be signs in the sun, in the moon, and in the stars; and on the earth distress of nations, with perplexity, the sea and the waves roaring; (26) men's hearts failing them from fear and the expectation of those things which are coming on the earth, for the powers of heaven will be shaken."

Luke 1:28 "Now when these things begin to happen, look up and lift up your heads, because your redemption draws near."

I believe the Lord has sounded the alarm to let us know that terror is coming forth in many forms in this day and time - through wars, terrorist attacks, grief, fear, economic shortages, diseases, weather, natural disasters, and through a variety of spiritual, emotional, and other distresses. Therefore, we need to be prepared NOW by recalling who He is, and therefore who we are in Him.

From: Re: The Storm, Where I Am, & Some Thoughts & Notes

"A couple weeks ago when the U.S. Supreme court in DC ruled against the Ten Commandments, I said to my son, "That (and the U.S. stating that Israel needs to give her land up) has just opened this country up to the kind of terrorism that no one can fight back at or stop. Severe Natural Disasters. Watch now for some the worst natural disasters - including storms, earthquakes, fires, tornados and possibly even volcanoes - that this country has ever experienced."

The GOOD NEWS? It's not too late! - Let us be found getting into the Word, prayer, and repentance in these days, and actively pursue the Lord in all our ways.

Self Deception

Robert I Holmes

What if I told you that you were suffering from a malady, a sickness, a disease of some kind. But it did not show signs, or remarkable symptoms to the sick person. Furthermore, those symptoms were readily visible to anyone else who looked. You'd feel a little queasy, as I did when I first learned the lesson contained in this article.

The issue of self deception is very difficult. People do not know they are suffering from it because they cannot see it in themselves. They are quick to diagnose someone else who is struggling to see clearly, but ourselves? Jesus called this the "log in the eye" syndrome.

Because we are all sons and daughters of Adam and Eve, we have within our human frame a hunger for the fruit they ate. We devour fruit born from the knowledge of good and evil. This fruit bears poor results in our lives. It creates a kind of myopia, a one-eyed-ness. We view the world in a certain way, that shifts values toward us, and blame away from us. "It was the woman you gave me," Adam says, turning the attention to Eve. "Hey, it was the snake!" she says.

We believe we are better than we really are, and others are worse than they really are. Bill Hybels says, "We judge ourselves by our intentions and others by their actions". So true.

An example from real life

Consider a husband and a wife lying in bed with the baby crying. They are both awake, yet both pretending to be asleep. Each one lies there, thinking of a good reason why they should not get up. "Doesn't she know I am tired?" the man says to himself. "I have worked hard all day, she's not even grateful. Lazy girl". She is thinking, "Doesn't he appreciate how much hard work motherhood is? I bet he doesn't think it is even real work! I'm tired, I deserve a break".

This simple example illustrates what the Arbinger Institute has come to call a "self betrayal" - when you do not follow through on your better instincts. As a results, we distort our view or paradigm of life to justify ourselves and condemn others. Anthropologists call it "demonising" others and "angelising" ourselves.

This is the fruit of knowing good and evil. We have knowledge, and we think that by it, we are improved. But we rarely stop to examine our assumptions. Not all knowledge is good knowledge. We think of ourselves as good, and others as evil. It justifies our treatment of them, for they are something less than human. We are starting, ever so gradually to "dehumanize" them.

We call this, self deception. In teams and groups it leads to group deception. This is how Hitler was able to justify destroying the Jews, by making them less than human. This is why the Evangelical Church in Germany let Nazi Imperialism evolve. In fact they called Hitler a messiah! This is why the Afrikaner church largely failed to confront Apartheid, and why the American church is content with capitalism. What we have is better (or best) so we think.

It belongs to me!

I was in a leadership meeting for a local church recently. Each member was asked to be honest about what they saw going on in the church and leadership. Consider this comment, made by one of the ladies there: "It's dysfunctional, but hey, at least it's MY dysfunctional!" Crazy as it sounds, we all laughed, because that's how we feel. "I know it's not working, but at least it belongs to me!" I can just hear Dr Phil McGraw looking into the camera and saying, "So how's that workin' for ya?".

Everyone around you knows it's not working, but they cannot help you. You will not acknowledge your "disease" because of fear, guilt, shame or hurt. Even those who give lip service to the fact that "we are all sinners", are rarely found to be repenting. They see the fault in others, but not themselves. Or if they do repent, they do not go on to bear the fruit of that repentance. Jesus said it's like, "The blind leading the blind" (Matt. 15:14).

Why do you want to stay deceived?

The truth is, you built the world you live in. So why would you complain about it? If you want change. change yourself. But most of us do not change. We cling to our dysfunction. Why would we cling to being "right" or better, when it just isn't working? The answer is simple, yet dreadful. We cling to "it's mine" because of a secondary payoff, or a second class gain.

Consider an example that happens in church after church, and business after business. A man is being raised up in leadership, and decides he will vie for control. The team do not think it's time, and ask him to wait. But the man says, "You don't recognise my gift, I am far better at this than the present leader". So off he goes, taking a handful of people with him. The man is choosing (in many cases) to be the captain of a tug-boat, instead of the second mate on a larger trading vessel. Why? Because of secondary gain. He is willing to suffer one kind of harm, for another kind of (second class) gain.

· Why do abused women stay with their husbands? · Why do children stay with their alcoholic mother? · Why does a sick person not get up for prayer, or to see a doctor?

Because there is a secondary gain.

You're willing to put up with the initial abuse, because of the secondary gain. Things like money, power, sex, finances, pride, prestige. what's the pay off for staying deceived? What's the pay off for leaving things as they are.? Consider the cost though, consider the damage being done to those around you, and to yourself.

An example

I had a friend who trained as a palliative care nurse. Her work involved looking after people who were dieing. Her father was very sick, dying of a disease that could not be cured. Eventually the insurance payments stopped, and her dad's life was threatened. So she built a hospital room in her house, and took care of him herself. This appears noble, and her motives were fine. But somewhere between this fine beginning and the day we met, her motives had changed.

Dad had become the object of her affection, but not because of his position as father. Not even because of his frailty. It turned out, the state paid her quite well to keep him that way. She had every reason to seclude her life and avoid church. It was so bad by the time I got in on the story that she defended her father against "witchcraft" and "speaking negatively" so he would not die. Meanwhile her calling in God was atrophied. The word of the Lord to her was, "Your father is going to die, prepare your heart to go out and minister in My name". Instead of embracing this call, she told us to leave!

The secondary gain was worth it (in her mind), and the cost of obedience was too high. Shortly though, God called her father home, and her little world fell apart. Her finances struggled. Her identity, held so long as primary care giver, was corroded. Her call in God needed a kick-start.

Seeing people as people

I mentioned before that we tend to demonise people, and angelise ourselves when we go ahead and justify our self-betrayals. (When we fail to live up to the expectation of our heart, we betray ourselves).

The answer lies in seeing people as they really are. As people! We need to face our circumstances as they really are, and unmask our choices for what they really hide. Let me ask you, · Do you see people, or objects? How would you know? · Do you know people's names? · Is there a response inside you which says "I need x from this person."?

My father worked on a Naval ship, which had 350 men serving on it. The Captain could remember every man's name, and even most of their wife's and children's names. That Captain went on to become an Admiral. Why? Because people mattered to him. Many people I talk to say, "I just cannot remember peoples names" as though it were a fault especial to themselves. Here's the wake up call. The University of California produced a study on the human brain, which concluded that the right brain could remember 1 million faces, and the left brain can code four pieces of information against those faces. So what's your excuse?

Getting out of the trap

You can escape self deception in four easy ways:

· The first key is to acknowledge the fact that we are deceived. · The second key is to see people as they really are · The third key is to find out what your secondary gain is · The fourth key is to ask those around you to help you

SENSITIVE WALK

My beloved one; as gentle and lowly as a doe or a buck… with the softest, most sensitive eyes. I have made you keenly impressionable to what I carry in the wind of My Spirit. You sense things far off, and have been tuned to this sensitivity.

It is very important now that when something comes to deter or intimidate you, that you hold back the urge to run. Do not dart out in front or make any sudden movements. Be still and watch. Sudden alarm is your call to hold back and find your footings in My peace. In quietness and confidence, your shield is raised and camouflage enveloped.

Walk the fine line I have placed before you. Let nothing deter you, let nothing deter you, let nothing deter you from the path I have prepared for you. You are on My path, I have placed My anointing within you and that anointing is keeping you, sustaining you and leading you in the right direction. Only pace yourself in the sensitivity to stop, slow down or move upon what I carry in the wind.

Hab 3:19 KJV
The LORD God is my strength, and he will make my feet like hinds' feet , and he will make me to walk upon mine high places.

YOUR WAY IS MARKED

I have heard your anxious worries over walking to the tune of My Spirit and walking with others of like minds. I know who and what has been missing in your life, dear one. I understand the pain. You have been sent like a pioneer into non-charted territory and few have walked this way. They have not recognized this great drive that is within you to see what is beyond the next valley. Come walk with Me. Your way is greatly protected and sheltered.

I have given you My Word which you have hidden in your heart. I have covered you and shaded you. Resist carrying too much weight, dear one, for such encumbers your way. Instead, travel light and easy and become so sensitive to My leading that I can lead you with My eye. Look up, change your focus, for it is faith that causes you to rise above all that encumbers you. You belong to Me, My love. I belong to you.

Fear not, for your prepared way has an impenetrable fence against the dogs or wolves who devour and bite. I am taking you cross country and bringing you along the path of laurels, the overcoming ones. Also, you need not fear deception from the wolves, for I have paved the trail before you. Your path is well marked with signs of My Word liberally sprinkled to your right and to your left. I have also sent others before you and they have given much in order to leave a trail trial of bread crumbs and seeds for you, My precious hungry birds.

And even as you have followed the signs and been faithful with what I have given you, you shall be promoted. I will send you into the market place to release My Words to those who are starving and, yes, they will listen. In the past they did not heed My Word and grew hungry while they walked in circles. You are My chosen generation who walked ahead of them. You shall walk out of the wilderness pioneering, leaning upon your Beloved. A great company travels with you and you shall never be alone again.

Song 8:5-7 NKJV
Who is this coming up from the wilderness, Leaning upon her beloved? I awakened you under the apple tree. There your mother brought you forth; There she who bore you brought you forth. Set me as a seal upon your heart, as a seal upon your arm; for love is as strong as death, jealousy as cruel as the grave; Its flames are flames of fire, a most vehement flame. Many waters cannot quench love, nor can the floods drown it. If a man would give for love all the wealth of his house, it would be utterly despised.

WOUNDED FAITH

What was My Word? What was absurd?
What did you hear? What did you fear?
What was assured? What was a lure?
What was real? What was surreal?

Sorting life is like cryptograms
Letters move around that are jammed.
Rubik's cubes are hard to solve
One affects another with resolve.

Sometimes it's people, sometimes it's words
Sometimes it's circumstances gone absurd.
Never ending circles up and down
Smiles and laughter turned to a frown.

Sometimes people are hard to fit
One is at peace, the other's in a snit.
Sometimes words make no sense
Until they are washed and recompensed.

No matter what is unsettled this day.
I weave My will in your life to stay.
I make order out of pure chaos
I take the gold and remove the dross.

Give Me your riddled rubik's cube.
Flowing formulas down the tube.
There is a way the pieces fit.
Release to Me and recommit.

My answer is simple, under your nose.
I make manifest and expose.
Lives are coded in DNA.
But passion from vision is here to stay.

Every choice has repercussions
Facing the truth can't be out run.
Independence, pride and control wont work.
Faith, humility and love don't shirk.

Confess, apologize, forgive a lot.
And I will reveal the answers you've sought.
Relationship must be a two way street.
Or all will go down in painful defeat.

Turn your Rubik's cubes round and round.
What was lost, will be found.
Talk to Me and talk to others.
Talk to your family, pray with your brothers.

As you talk and pray about what hasn't worked
Demonic strongholds fall from what did lurk.
The warps in your puzzle will become un-kinked.
Chains will fall and old patterns unlink.

It is not as hopeless as in times past.
From despairing patterns set in dyes cast.
Don't give up or quit or run away.
Talk and pray it out yet another day.

Before you know it, changes will appear
It's not as bad as in the past you feared.
One thing remains and is simple to solve.
My love never quits, My love resolves.

1 Cor 13:11-13 NKJV

When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child; but when I became a man, I put away childish things. For now we see in a mirror, dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part, but then I shall know just as I also am known. And now abide faith , hope, love, these three; but the greatest of these is love.

Katrina A Two Edged Sword

There have been many prophetic words regarding the Hurricane Katrina. I have no doubt about the connection between the US State Departments pressure on Israel to vacate (give away) Gaza. This I believe is one of the main reasons that Judgment has been released against the USA; however it is not the only reason.

I was in the USA for 4 weeks in August this year during which time there was an ominous sensing that the US was about to experience another hit, 9/11 was a wake up call but did we wake up?. One year ago when I was America the Lord clearly spoke to me that there had not been enough repentance by the churches (Christians) to avert further Judgment, and I urged the people to keep praying earnestly. It is not over yet. Prayer may have averted greater judgment, it could have been much worse that what New Orleans has experienced. Terrorism still looms as a threat to the Nations of the world especially the USA.

Whatever God does is always redemptive

The nature of God never changes, He is the I AM Mal 3:6 For I am the LORD, I change not; therefore ye sons of Jacob are not consumed….. God is love and that never changes, everything God does is from the motivation of Love. This must always be our anchor in times of judgment and tragedy. While we mourn the death and destruction that has occurred in New Orleans, we must also see a redemptive purpose in it.

We don't know how many Christians died in New Orleans, but I am very sure that good seed was planted for the resurrection of that City….. John 12:24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit….

We know that this city was a centre of witchcraft, occultism, and sexual depravity, We also know that God often uses a specific judgment to deal with more than one issue, killing to birds with one stone as it were. The city of New Orleans is dead, evacuated and cleansed as the water invaded the city, washing away the witchcraft and degradation before resurrecting a New City.

Note this passage of scripture:

> Revelation 16:17
> And the seventh angel poured out his vial into the air; and there came a great voice out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, It is done.
> 18
> And there were voices, and thunders, and lightnings; and there was a great earthquake, such > as was not since men were upon the earth, so mighty an earthquake, and so great.

> 19
> And the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell: and great Babylon came in remembrance before God, to give unto her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath.

This earthquake which is yet to happen, leveled all the cities of the world, why? Because God was about to build something far greater! When Jesus returns to set up His Millennium Kingdom in the earth, He first destroys the cities of the world, removing all that is decadent and polluted by sin, before He rebuilds a New World of peace and beauty. That earthquake will be redemptive.
The Sins of New Orleans came up as a stench before the Lord, this combined with the giving away of His land Joel 3:2 created a two fold grievous National iniquity, a catalyst for judgment which God graciously combined into Just one hit on the land.

It is not over yet for the USA, there will be more disasters as God begins to cleanse the Land, but we can rest assured that all this will be redemptive as God conditions cities and regions for great revival. Look up for your redemption draweth nigh: Great sweeping moves of God are coming.

America; God says to you

> Isaiah 30:18
> And therefore will the LORD wait, that he may be gracious unto you, and therefore will he be exalted, that he may have mercy upon you: for the LORD is a God of judgment: blessed are all they that wait for him.
> 19
> For the people shall dwell in Zion at Jerusalem: thou shalt weep no more: he will be very gracious unto thee at the voice of thy cry; when he shall hear it, he will answer thee.

God Bless you

Set A Watch

Robert I Holmes

God's judgments are in the earth today. He is auditing every ministry, every church, every leader, every heart, every motive.

In 2003 I was in Oklahoma City. I was taking a shower when the Angel of the Lord visited me. Quite without announcement, he lifted up a sword. He put the cold steel blade tip to my mouth, my heart and my feet. His words stay with me to this day:

· Set a watch over your mouth (Prov. 10:11, 31, 32) · Set a watch over your heart (Prov. 4:23) · Set a watch over your feet (Prov. 4:26)

I was recently speaking at a leadership conference (May 2005) in Canberra with Ray Djan from London. The word of the Lord came to me, reminding me of the Lord's instruction that day. He related it directly to leadership, and our treatment of leaders.

He showed me five relationships, mainly from the life of Moses and Joshua, unscoring personal conduct:

1. Korah and Moses (Num. 16:3). Korah was a leader in Israel. This was a leader who said, "Hey we're all holy, you have taken too much upon yourself" . He was actually quoting the Lord, who had said he was making a royal priesthood, a holy nation. True God wants a priesthood of all believers, but he also sets apart certain men and women as leaders, to go ahead. Korah was swallowed up by the earth. We must be careful, in our zeal for "brotherhood" and equality that we do not overlook the fact that God appoints leaders. We must especially not speak against those leaders!

2. Miriam and Moses (Num. 12:1). Miriam was related by blood to a leader. This was a person from the family, and familiar with the leader. She brought accusation against Moses over his Ethiopian wife. Once again she had "scriptural backing". God had spoken about unholy alliances with foreign nations. But she made a mistake, becoming the judge of her brother, instead of asking God to take care of it. Are we complaining about the personal choices of a leader? We do not know how much they pray, what they do in secret, what their life with God is like. Miriam became leprous - anathema to her people, outcast.

3. Moses and God (Deut. 32:51). God called Moses up the mountain, and told him he was being taken home because he had profaned the Lord before the people. God is dealing with His people, especially his leaders right now. He will call them home if they profane His name. Don't judge the leader yourself! God will be the judge, and if you are a Moses, take care of how you represent the Lord to the people. If he shouts, shout. If He whispers, whisper. If He runs, pursue Him. Is He tarries, wait. This goes hand in glove with the fact that your personal conduct is also being watched - your family, your marriage, your kids.

4. The people and Joshua (Josh 1:18). The people really endorsed Joshua as their leader, they wanted him to run forward. So much so, that they said, "We'll kill anyone who does not obey you". This is a good heart attitude, that we judge one another, and spur one another one, and avoid the Lord having to judge us. We must earnestly contend for the faith.

We often think that the restoration of five fold leadership will result in the Body coming to fullness and revival will break forth. But Paul placed unity of the Spirit before the five fold ministry. He said, "Make every effort to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace" (Eph. 4:3). Find unity in the Spirit and make every effort to walk in peace with your brother. The comes the five fold ministry, who work "until all of us come to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to maturity, to the measure of the full stature of Christ" (Eph. 4:13)

5. God and Joshua (Josh 3:7). God said to Joshua, "Be strong and courageous" . Leaders must edify themselves in the Lord, and trust in His calling. Many of our famous fathers are passing away. Moses is dead. Derek Prince is gone. John Wimber has passed into glory. It is time for the sons to rise up. They have been anointed for the work, Moses has passed on the mantle. God Himself will encourage the reticent leader to rise up and march forward.

Seven Times Chastised

Hollie Moody

(September 22, 2005)

In a vision, I saw a man standing alone with a long pole held in one of his hands. In his other hand, he held a trumpet. The man appeared to be standing upon rock; a firm foundation. The pole had a banner waving from the top of it.

The man took the pole, raised it up high in the air, then slammed it down into the ground upon which he was standing, anchoring the pole into the rock. He then began to blow the trumpet.

The man stayed where he was, upon the rock, with the pole grasped in one of his hands, and the trumpet in his other hand. I then saw young men approaching the man with the pole and the trumpet. The young men were converging upon the man with the pole and the trumpet from every direction. When they reached the man with the pole and the trumpet, they sat at his feet, and he began to speak to them. He was instructing them, exhorting them, admonishing them, encouraging them.

Towards the end of his speaking to the young men, he cried out loudly, "Love the truth! Contend for the faith!"

The young men arose back to their feet and departed from the man who was holding the pole and the trumpet. The young men returned in the same direction from which they had come.

Then, the vision ended. * Several days after experiencing this vision, the Spirit of the Lord spoke to me and said, "An island will be struck by an east wind."

A few days later, I felt the Spirit of the Lord exclaim to me three times, "Bring them home! Bring them home! Bring them home!" I felt very strongly that those to be brought home, were our troops in Iraq.

I sensed in my spirit that the vision and the two words spoken to me by the Spirit of the Lord were somehow connected, but I didn't know how they were. I began to pray and fast in regard to the vision and the two words from the Lord.

I sought counsel and advice from others. I will include their words here in regard to what an east wind represents/symbolizes. I will also include their names to give them recognition and honor for what they shared with me.

Rayford Strange www.ApostolicLibrary.com

Spiritually speaking, an East wind...the wind from the rising of the Sun, is from the Lord. The East wind has one affect upon the righteous for their benefit and quite the opposite effect upon the wicked. The three Hebrew children enjoyed themselves in the company of an angel while the nearness of the same environment caused the death of those that cast them into it. The East wind blew, separated the waters, effecting deliverance for the people of God, while it brought about the destruction of the army of Pharoah. The East wind blew away the locust into the sea effecting their destruction, which caused the preservation of the grain in the fields.

Maybe I can elaborate more on the East Wind later on, but in short, the East Wind, speaking spiritually, denotes love to the Lord and love toward the neighbor and all that is good. But, as I said above, among the wicked, the same wind has an opposite effect, denoting self love and love for the world. The East Wind speaks of dispersing all that is false (the locusts) and evil. In fact winds of whatever direction speak of spirits that move upon the (spiritual) land. Doctrines are spirits that move upon the spiritual landscape.

In the original language the same word is used for spirits as for winds. They flow in wave upon wave and activate kindred loves and delusions residing within a person. When these spirits are dispersed, the Word speaks of it being done by means of 'a wind', and in fact by 'an east wind'.

A parching East Wind is sent by the Lord off the hot dry desert into Caana to dry the fruit and wither the vine as a judgment upon (the church) Caana. An East wind will also wreck the ships of Tarshish, Psa 48:7. Ephraim feeding upon the wind, following after the East wind speaks of multiplying lies by the understanding. "To feed on wind" is "to multiply a lie;" "and to pursue the east wind" is "to multiply vastation." A state of vastation and temptation is also called "the day of the east wind" in Isa. 27:7, 8.

The East Wind (Verses and thoughts shared with me from: Matthew Burdette)

Gen 41:27 And the seven thin and ill favoured kine that came up after them [are] seven years; and the seven empty ears blasted with the east wind shall be seven years of famine.

Exodus 10:13 And Moses stretched forth his rod over the land of Egypt, and the LORD brought an east wind upon the land all that day, and all [that] night; [and] when it was morning, the east wind brought the locusts.

Job 27:19 The rich man shall lie down, but he shall not be gathered: he openeth his eyes, and he [is] not. Job 27:20 Terrors take hold on him as waters, a tempest stealeth him away in the night. Job 27:21 The east wind carrieth him away, and he departeth: and as a storm hurleth him out of his place. Job 27:22 For [God] shall cast upon him, and not spare: he would fain flee out of his hand.

Jer 18:17 I will scatter them as with an east wind before the enemy; I will shew them the back, and not the face, in the day of their calamity.

Jonah 4:8 And it came to pass, when the sun did arise, that God prepared a vehement east wind; and the sun beat upon the head of Jonah, that he fainted, and wished in himself to die, and said, [It is] better for me to die than to live.

Sis,As far as I understand it scripturally, the East Wind always refers to Gods judgment. I have to agree with Bro Strange that the East wind has a different effect on the saint than it does on the sinner. The East Wind upon a saint will cause him to seek God for greater grace. It will bring him to a humbled state before his God. Within the East Wind, he will find that he is not destroyed, but sustained in it. The East Wind upon the sinner will cause him to curse God, and blaspheme the Name of the Most High. We will see this more and more as times continue. The sinner will become more and more hardened to the promptings of God for repentance. Instead of judgment bringing him down to a humbled state, it will harden him more and more against God. This is shown in Rev ch 9 and ch 16.

* (A statement I received from a brother I know only as: "Essaias.")

The east wind was an "evil" because it blew out of the Arabian Desert, and was hot, dry, and blighting.

There is a lot of hot air blowing in the religious world these days, and it is dry as a bone and blighting the spirits of millions.

(I received the following from a brother called Michael Blume.) http://mikeblume.com http://thegodsearch.com

I saw a correlation between the FOUR WINDS in Matthew 24:31 and Zech 6.

Mat 24:31 And he shall send his angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

Quote: Zec 6:1-6 And I turned, and lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and, behold, there came four chariots out from between two mountains; and the mountains were mountains of brass. (2) In the first chariot were red horses; and in the second chariot black horses; (3) And in the third chariot white horses; and in the fourth chariot grisled and bay horses. (4) Then I answered and said unto the angel that talked with me, What are these, my lord? (5) And the angel answered and said unto me, These are the four spirits of the heavens, which go forth from standing before the Lord of all the earth. (6) The black horses which are therein go forth into the north country; and the white go forth after them; and the grisled go forth toward the south country.

A good marginal reference Bible will tell you the FOUR SPIRITS is the same thing as THE FOUR WINDS.

Quote: spirits: or, winds

And notice the four horses here are paralleling those of Rev 6. And if they are the FOUR WINDS, is it more than coincidental that after Rev 6 lists the four horses (winds) and the other seals, that Rev 7 says FOUR WINDS as well?

Quote: Rev 7:1 And after these things I saw four angels standing on the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, that the wind should not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree.

These explanations of the symbolic meaning of the "East Wind" helped to bring much clarity to my questions. Yet, I was still left wondering what the "island" was that had been spoken to me by the Spirit of the Lord. I went back and reread the entire post Bro. Rayford Strange had sent to me. And found my answer. He said:

"Here is an example of what you see:

Rom 1:20 For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made...

God speaks by things that are seen. We must learn to discern His language. Otherwise, we are without excuse. "

And there was my answer. The "island," is America.

At the end of Bro. Strange's letter to me, he shared the following (this was shared with me on September 13, 2005):

"Now, with that being said, the other night as I was praying and meditating, I saw a sword laid across America. The point of the sword reached beyond the West Coast. The blade laid across the landscape while the hilt was off the East Coast. I then heard these words, "America is appointed to the sword."

Let us pray for America, remembering to ask God to spare the righteous for whatever impending calamity that might be ahead of us." * As I continued to pray and fast about how all of this fit together, Leviticus 26 was laid on my heart.

Leviticus 26:18, 21, 23-24, 27-28 ~~ "{18} And if ye will not yet for all this hearken unto me, then I will punish you seven times more for your sins. {21} And if ye walk contrary unto me, and will not hearken unto me; I will bring seven times more plagues upon you according to your sins. {23} And if ye will not be reformed by me by these things, but will walk contrary unto me; {24} Then will I also walk contrary unto you, and will punish you yet seven times for your sins. {27} And if ye will not for all this hearken unto me, but walk contrary unto me; {28} Then I will walk contrary unto you also in fury; and I, even I, will chastise you seven times for your sins."

After receiving the burden of Leviticus 26, the Lord freely began to speak to me. His Spirit spoke to me of the logically steady progression of chastisements He has allowed to be sent against America. These chastisements have already fallen upon: areas of tourism and places/cities of witchcraft and demonic activity.

(Please note: When we read in the Word of God when God's chastisement and/or judgments fell upon certain cities/nations, the surrounding areas were also affected by this chastisement/judgment. Areas/cities surrounding areas of chastisement in America have also been affected by these chastisements.)

The Lord impressed upon my heart that the following areas/centers will also be coming under the chastisement of the Lord: oil and money, entertainment and homosexuality (area impressed upon my heart was: from Hollywood to San Francisco), education, religion, and the government. These equal seven areas of chastisement.

This brought back to my mind the vision of the man holding a pole in one hand and a trumpet in his other hand. The pole represents a standard, a criterion of excellence. A trumpet was used in the Word of God to signalize God's presence as well as prophetic events, to gather the nation together, and to alert against an enemy.

The Lord would have us to stand firm upon the Rock, which is Christ/Truth. God would have us to be a voice to those around us to warn of His impending chastisements and to turn the sinner from the error of his ways.

The Lord will have those who know Him to have peace in their hearts.

Psalm 29:11 ~~ "The Lord will give strength unto his people; the Lord will bless his people with peace."

John 14:27 ~~ "Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid."

There will be places/cities of refuge that the Lord will provide for the safety of those who hear His warnings and flee from the coming chastisements.

There was also a warning from the Lord given unto me for the prophets:

"They <the prophets> are giving little to no warnings to My people for they <the prophets> are lazy and undisciplined. If they <the prophets> will humble themselves, pray and seek My face, My voice will clearly be heard, and warning will be given in advance of an impending chastisement. I will hold them <the prophets> responsible for not giving warning in advance."

* Jer. 51:11-12, 27 ~~ "{11} Make bright the arrows; gather the shields: the Lord hath raised up the spirit of the kings of the Medes: for his device is against Babylon, to destroy it; because it is the vengeance of the Lord, the vengeance of his temple {12} Set up the standard upon the walls of Babylon, make the watch strong, set up the watchmen, prepare the ambushes: for the Lord hath both devised and done that which he spake against the inhabitants of Babylon. {27} Set ye up a standard in the land, blow the trumpet among the nations, prepare the nations against her, call together against her the kingdoms of Ar-a-rat, Min-ni, and Ash-che-naz; appoint a captain against her; cause the horses to come up as the rough caterpillars." * In Him, ~~ Hollie L. Come walk with Me, My beloved, for I want to talk to you face to face explaining to you what is upon My heart for this season of time. For I have a burden upon My heart that My people have not been able to bear up to this point, but I am willing to prepare hearts, to enlarge them to carry this capacity, to fill them to overflowing with My compassion. For My faith moves through the gift of compassion enabling mighty healings to take place.

Are you willing to bear down to birth forth healing in behalf of others who are struggling so? For this is the time and the hour where I will prepare My bride to do mighty works for I said you would do greater works that even I because I have gone to the Father. And you are My body and I have a mission to do through you in a mighty capacity, and that is why I need you to be whole, healthy, and of a sound mind, full of My joy which is your strength.

So if you are ready to stand in the gap in behalf of My mighty army of overcomers who have been held bound by many infirmities of the mind and body, reach out and touch the hem of My garment, and bear down and birth forth healings in the spirit realm. For these people need you to stand in the gap that they might be set free to do the work I've called them to do.

Yes, this is the time and the hour to travail and to worship at My feet, and I will stretch your capacity to receive My burden and My love. For I have a large heart for you, full of grace and truth, and I want to pour out upon you My fresh manna to be able to feed others that they may be made strong once again. For My body has not been fed the nutrients that they need and have been made sick by the complacency and deception of those in leadership. Many don't seek Me for My word for the hour to feed My sheep. Therefore, they are being led astray by every wind and doctrine.

My body is truly hungry for truth. But who will bow down at My feet to receive it? Yes, I AM looking to see My bride made whole once again walking in My light, casting down strongholds and every high tower built up by the enemy. Yes, this is the day to be made free and to rejoice. For only My truth will set you free!

Seek First The Righteousness Of God

Terry Suggs

The Word of God says that we are made righteous or put into right standing with God through Christ.
Galatians 3:26
For in Christ, you are all sons of God through faith.
Galatians 3:10-13
And all who depend on the Law (who are seeking to be justified by obedience to the Law of rituals are under a curse and doomed to disappointment and destruction, for it is written in the scriptures, Cursed (accursed, devoted to destruction, doomed to eternal punishment) be everyone who does not continue to abide (live and remain) by all the precepts an commands written in the Book of the Law an to practice them.
Now it is evident that no person is justified (declared righteous and brought into right standing with God) through the Law, for the Scripture says, The man in right standing with God (the just and the righteous) shall live by and out of faith and he who through and by faith is declared righteous and in right standing with God shall live.
But the law does not rest on faith (does not require faith, has nothing to do with faith), for it itself says, He who does them (the things prescribed by Law) shall live by them (not by faith).
Christ purchased our freedom (redeeming us) from the curse (doom) of the Law (and its condemnation) by Himself becoming a curse for us, for it is written, Cursed is everyone who hangs on a tree (is crucified)
Galatians 5:1
In this freedom Christ has made us free (and completely liberated us); stand fast then, and do not be hampered and held ensnared and submit again to a yoke of slavery (which you have once put off.
Ephesians 2:1-2, 5-9 18-19
And you (He made alive), when you were dead (slain) by (your) trespasses and sins, in which at one time you walked (habitually). You were following the course of this world (were under the sway of the tendency of this present age), following the prince of the power of the air. (You were obedient to and under the control of) the (demon) spirit that still constantly works in the sons of disobedience (the careless, the rebellious, and the unbelieving, who go against the purposes of God.
Even when we were dead (slain) by (our own) shortcomings and trespasses, He made us alive together in fellowship and in union with Christ, (He gave us the very life of Christ Himself, the same new life with which He quickened Him, for it is by grace (His favor and mercy which you did not deserve) that you are saved (delivered from judgment and made partakers of Christ's salvation).
And He raised us up together with Him and made us sit down together (giving us joint seating with Him) in the heavenly sphere (by virtue of our being) in Christ Jesus (the Messiah, the Anointed One).
He did this that He might clearly demonstrate through the ages to come the immeasurable (limitless, surpassing) riches of His free grace (His unmerited favor) in (His) kindness and goodness of heart toward us in Christ Jesus.

For it is by free grace (God's unmerited favor) that you are saved (delivered from judgment and made partakers of Christ's salvation through (your) faith. And this (salvation) is not of yourselves (of your own doing, it came not through your own striving, but it is the gift of God.
Not because of works (not the fulfillment of the Law's demands), lest any man should boast. (It is not the result of what anyone can possibly do, so no one can pride himself in it or take glory to himself).

For it is through Him that we both (whether far off or near) now we have an introduction (access) by one (Holy) Spirit to the Father (so that we are able to approach Him).
Therefore you are no longer outsiders (exiles, migrants, and aliens, excluded from the rights of citizens), but you now share citizenship with the saints (God's own people, consecrated and set apart for Himself); and you belong to God's (Own) household.
We are reconciled-
Rom. 5:8-10
But God shows and clearly proves His (Own) love for us by the fact that while were still sinners, Christ the Messiah, the Anointed One died for us.
Therefore, since we are now justified (acquitted, made righteous, ransomed, redeemed, and brought into right relationship with God) by Christ's blood, how much more (certain is it) that we shall be saved by Him from the indignation and wrath of God.
For if while we were enemies we were reconciled to God through the death of His Son, it is much more (certain), now that we are reconciled, that we shall be saved (daily delivered from sin's dominion) through His (resurrection) life.
Psalm 103:12
As far as the east is from the west, so far has He removed our transgressions from us.
II Corinthians 5:18-21
But all things are from God, Who through Jesus Christ reconciled us to Himself (received us into favor, brought us into harmony with Himself) and gave to us the ministry of reconciliation (that by word and deed we might aim to bring others into harmony with Him).
It was God (personally present) in Christ, reconciling and restoring the world to favor with Himself, not counting up and holding against (men) their trespasses (but canceling them) committing to us the message of reconciliation (of restoration to favor).
So we are Christ's ambassadors, God making His appeal as it were through us. We (as Christ's personal representatives) beg you for His sake to lay hold of the divine favor (now offered you) and be reconciled to God.
For our sake He made Christ (virtually) to be sin Who knew no sin, so that in and through Him we might become (endued with, viewed as being in, and examples of) the righteousness of God (what we ought to be, approved and acceptable and in right relationship with Him, by His goodness).

We are justified-
Romans 3:21-28
But now the righteousness of God has been revealed independently and altogether apart from the Law, although actually it is attested by the Law and the Prophets Namely, the righteousness of God which comes by believing with personal trust and confident reliance on Jesus Christ (the messiah). And it is meant for all who believe. For there is no distinction,
Since all have sinned and are falling short of the honor and glory which God bestows and receives.
All are justified and made upright and in right standing with God, freely and gratuitously by His grace (His unmerited favor and mercy), through the redemption which is provided in Christ Jesus,
Whom God put forward (before the eyes of all) as a mercy seat propitiation by His blood,the cleansing and life-giving sacrifice of atonement and reconciliation, to be received through faith. This was to show God's righteousness, because in His divine forbearance He has passed over and ignored former sins without punishment.
It was meant to demonstrate and prove at the present time (in the now season) that He Himself is righteous and that He justifies and accepts as righteous him who has true faith in Jesus.
Then what becomes of our pride and our boasting? It is excluded (banished, ruled out entirely). On what principle) of doing good deeds? No, but on the principle of faith.

For we hold that a man is justified and made upright by faith independent of and distinctly apart from good deeds (works of the Law). The observance of the Law has nothing to do with justification.

We are redeemed-

I Peter 1:18-19, 23

You must know (recognize) that you were redeemed (ransomed) from the useless (fruitless) way of living inherited by tradition from (your) forefathers, not with corruptible things such as silver or gold,
But you were purchased with the precious blood of Christ (the Messiah), like that of a sacrificial lamb without blemish or spot.
You have been re-gene-rated (born again), not from a mortal origin (seed, sperm), but from one that is immortal by the ever living and lasting Word Of God.

We are Ransomed-

I Timothy 2:5-6

For there is only one God, and only one Mediator between God and men, the Man Christ Jesus.
Who gave Himself as a ransom for all people, a fact that was attested to at the right and proper time.

We have been transferred out of the kingdom of darkness-

Colossians 1:13-14,22

The Father has delivered and drawn us to Himself out of the control and the dominion of darkness and has transferred us into the kingdom of the Son of His love.
In Whom we have our redemption through His blood, which means the forgiveness of our sins.
Yet now has Christ the Messiah reconciled you to God In the body of His flesh through death, In order to present you holy and faultless and irreproachable in His (the Father’s presence).

We are made righteous-

Romans 5:19

For if because of one man’s trespass (lapse, offense) death reigned through that one, much more surely will those who receive (God’s) overflowing grace (unmerited favor) and the free gift of righteousness (putting them into right standing with Himself) reign as Kings in life through the one Man Jesus Christ (the Messiah, the Anointed One).

We have all grace given to us

II Corinthians 9:8-9

And God is able to make all grace (every favor and earthly blessing) come to you in abundance, so that you may always and under all circumstances and whatever the need be self-sufficient (possessing enough to require no aid or support and furnished in abundance for every good work and charitable donation).
As it is written, He (the benevolent person) scatters abroad; He gives to the poor; His deeds of justice and goodness and kindness and benevolence will go on and endure forever!

We have power-

Luke 10:17-19, 23

The seventy returned with joy, saying, Lord, even the demons are subject to us in your name (authority)!
And He said to them, I beheld Satan falling like a lightning (flash) from heaven.
Behold! I have given you authority and power to trample upon serpents and scorpions, and physical and mental strength and ability over all the power that the enemy possesses; and nothing shall in any way harm you.
Blessed and happy to be envied are those whose eyes see what you see!

Acts 1:8

But you shall receive power (ability, efficiency, and might) when the Holy Spirit has come upon you, and you shall be my witnesses in Jerusalem and all Judea and Samaria
And to the ends (the very bounds) of the earth.

We are accepted-

Ephesians 1:6-7

So that we might be to the praise and the commendation of His glorious grace (favor and mercy), which He so freely bestowed on us in the Beloved.

In Him we have redemption (deliverance and salvation) through His blood, the remission (forgiveness) of our offenses (shortcomings and trespasses) in accordance with the riches and the generosity of His gracious favor.

Ephesians 2:8-9

For it is by free grace (God's unmerited favor) that you are saved delivered from judgment, and made partakers of Christ's Salvation through your faith. And this salvation is not of yourselves (of your own doing, it came not through your own striving, but it is the gift of God.

Not because of works (not the fulfillment of the Law's demands), lest any man should boast. (It is not the result of what anyone can possible do, so no one can pride himself in it or take glory to himself).

We have abundant life-

John 10:10

The thief comes only in order to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have and enjoy life, and have it in abundance (to the full, till it overflows.

Titus 3:3-7

For we also were once thoughtless and senseless, obstinate and disobedient, deluded and misled; (we too were once) slaves to all sorts of pleasures, wasting our days in malice and jealousy and envy, hateful (hated, detestable) and hating one another.

But when the goodness and loving kindness of God our Savior to man (as man) appeared,

He saved us, not because of any works of righteousness that we had done, but because of His Own pity and mercy, by t(the) cleansing (bath) of the new birth (regeneration) an renewing of the Holy Spirit, Which He poured out (so) richly upon us through Jesus Christ our Savior.

And He did it in order that we might be justified by His grace (by His favor, wholly undeserved), that we might be acknowledged and counted as conformed to the divine will in purpose, thought, and action), and that we might become heirs of eternal life according to our hope.

We are made holy-

Hebrews 10:10, 12, 14, 17

And in accordance with this will of God, we have been made holy (consecrated and sanctified) through the offering made once for all of the body of Jesus Christ (the Anointed One).

Whereas this One (Christ), after He had offered a single sacrifice for our sins (that shall avail) for all time, sat down at the right hand of God.

For by a single offering He has forever completely cleansed and perfected those who are consecrated and made holy.

He then goes on to say, and their sins and their lawbreaking I will remember no more.

We are made full-

John 1:16

For out of His fullness (abundance) we have all received (all had a share and we were al supplied with) one grace after another and spiritual blessing upon spiritual blessing and even favor upon favor and gift (heaped) upon gift.

Ephesians 2:22

In Him and in fellowship with one another you yourselves also are being built up into this structure with the rest, to form a fixed abode (dwelling place) of God in (by, through) the Spirit.

The Life of God in Us only comes through the Holy Spirit in our spirit. The Spirit is the only life we really have. The Spirit quickens the flesh.

Romans 8:9,11-12, 14

But you are not living the life of the flesh, you are living the life of the Spirit, if th Holy Spirit of God (really) dwells within you directs and controls you). But if anyone does not possess the Holy Spirit of Christ, he is none of His (he does not belong to Christ, is not truly a child of GOD.

And if the Spirit of Him Who raised up Jesus from the dead dwells in you, then He Who raised up Christ Jesus from the dead will also restore to life will also restore to life your mortal (short-lived, perishable) bodies through His Spirit Who dwells in you.

So then, brethren, we are debtors, but not to the flesh (we are not obligated to our carnal nature), to live (a life ruled by the standards set up by the dictates) of the flesh.

For all Who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God.

Ephesians 1:22-23

And He has put all things under His feet and has appointed Him the Universal and supreme Head of the church (a headship exercised through-out the church).

Which is His body, the fullness of Him Who fills all in all (for in that body lives the full measure of Him Who makes everything complete, and Who fills everything every where, with Himself.

Colossians 2:9

For in Him the whole fullness of Deity (the Godhead) continues to dwell in bodily form (giving complete expression of the divine nature).

And you are in Him, made full and having come to fullness of life (in Christ you too are filled with the God-Head-Father, Son and Holy Spirit- and reach full spiritual stature). And He is the Head of all rule and authority (of every angelic principality and power).

We are seated with Christ in heavenly places. We have been given joint seating as joint heirs with Him.

Colossians 3:1-4

If then you have been raised with Christ to a new life, thus sharing His resurrection from the dead, aim at and seek the rich and eternal treasures that are above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God.

And set your minds and keep them set on what is above the higher things not on the things that are on the earth.

For as far as this world is concerned you have died and your new real life is hidden with Christ in God,

When Christ, Who is our life, appears, then you also will appear with Him in (the splendor of His) glory.

Acts 17:28

For in Him we live move and have our being; as even some of your (own) poets have said, For we are also His offspring.

Galatians 2:20

I have been crucified with Christ (In Him I have shared His crucifixion); it is no longer I who live, but Christ (the Messiah) lives in me; and the life I now live in the body I live by faith in (by adherence to and reliance on and complete trust in) (the faithfulness of) the Son of God, Who loved me and gave Himself up for me.

We are made free-

Ephesians 2:8

For if is by free grace (God’s unmerited favor) that you are saved (delivered from judgment and made partakers of Christ’s salvation) through (your) faith. And this salvation is not of your own doing, it came not through you own striving0, but it is the gift of God…

Galatians 5:1, 13, 18

In this freedom Christ has made us free and completely liberated us; stand fast then, and do not be hampered and held ensnared and submit again to a yoke of slavery, which you have put off.

For you brethren were indeed called to freedom; only do not let your freedom be an incentive to your flesh and an opportunity or excuse (for selfishness), but through love you should serve one another.

But if you are guided (led) by the (Holy) Spirit, you are not subject to the Law.

II Corinthians 3:17-18

Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty (emancipation from bondage, freedom).

And all of us, as with unveiled faces, (because we) continued to behold (in the Word of God as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are constantly being transfigured into His very Own image in ever increasing splendor and from one degree of glory to another; (for this comes) from the Lord (Who is) the Spirit.

II Corinthians 4:4,7

For the god of this world has blinded the unbelievers minds that they should discern the truth, preventing them from seeing the illuminating light of the Gospel of the glory of Christ (the Messiah), Who is the Image and Likeness of God.

However, we possess this precious treasure (the divine Light of the Gospel) in frail, human vessels of earth that the grandeur and exceeding greatness of the power may be shown to be from God and not from ourselves.

I Peter 2:16

Live as free people, yet without employing your freedom as a pretext for wickedness; but live at all times as servant of God.

We have been made whole-

Isaiah 53:5

But He was wounded for our transgressions, He was bruised for our guilt and iniquities; the chastisement (needful to obtain) peace and well-being for us was upon Him, and with the stripes (that wounded) Him we are made whole.

Acts 9:33-34

There he found a man named Aeneas, who had been bedfast for eight years and was paralyzed.

And Peter said to Him, Aeneas, Jesus Christ (the Messiah) now makes you whole. Get up and make your bed! And immediately (Aeneas) stood up.

We are sealed by God-

II Corinthians 1:22

He has also appropriated and acknowledged us as His by putting His seal upon us and giving us His Holy Spirit in our hearts as the security deposit and guarantee of the fulfillment of His promise.

Ephesians 1:13

In Him you also who have heard the Word of Truth , the glad tidings (Gospel) of your salvation, and have believed in adhered to and relied on Him, were stamped with the seal of the long promised Holy Spirit.

Ephesians 4:30

And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God (do not offend or vex or sadden Him), by Whom you were sealed (marked, branded as God’s Own, secured) for the day of redemption (of final deliverance through Christ from evil and the consequences of sin).

We are one with Christ-

Philippians 2:13

For it is God Who is all the while effectually at work in you (energizing and creating in you the power and desire) both to will and to work for His good pleasure and satisfaction and delight.

I Corinthians 1:8-9

And He will establish you to the end (keep you steadfast, give you strength, and guarantee your vindication; He will be your warrant against all accusation or indictment so that you will be guiltless an irreproachable in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ (the Messiah).

God is faithful (reliable, trustworthy, and therefore ever true to His promise, and He can be depended on); by Him you were called into companionship and participation with His Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

I Corinthians 6:17

But the person who is united to the Lord becomes one spirit with Him.

Romans 8:16-17

The spirit Himself thus testifies together with our own spirit assuring us that we are children of God.

And if we are His children , then we are His heirs also; heirs of God and joint heirs with (fellow heirs) with Christ (sharing His inheritance with Him); only we must share His suffering if we are to share His glory.

We are thought of by God-

Psalms 139:16-18

Your eyes saw my unformed substance, and in Your book all the days of my life were written before ever they took shape, when as yet there was none of them.

How precious and weighty also are your thoughts to me, O God! How vast is the sum of them!

If I could count them, they would be more in number than the sand.

Philemon 6
And I pray that the participation in and sharing of your faith may produce and promote full recognition and appreciation and understanding and precise knowledge of every good thing that is ours in (our identification with) Christ Jesus (and unto His glory).
This is life in God Himself. This message is to show the life that we have is the very Spirit of Christ working in our spirit. Everything that comes into manifestation like healing, miracles, forth telling the future and any supernatural thing that happens is through the Holy Spirit in us. Jesus said My Words are Spirit and they are life.
There is much more but this is a brief look at who we are and what we have in Christ.
We are the light of the world.
Had the rulers of this world known that Jesus crucifixion would only multiply Him, they would not have crucified Him.
Isaiah 41:10-13
1 Corinthians 2:8, 10-114

Shout Grace

Francis Frangipane

We sing Amazing Grace, but I don't think we realize how amazing grace actually is. Grace is God's power, motivated by His mercy, working to fulfill His compassion.

We are saved by grace, but what culminates in a "day of salvation" experience is actually months and even years of God quietly, yet powerfully, working in our hearts. Recall: Jesus said, "No one can come to Me, unless the Father who sent Me draws him" (John 6:44a). Do you remember that drawing power? Before we knew God, divine power was working invisibly within our hearts, drawing and wooing us to Christ.

Yet let me take this miracle of grace further, for after Jesus spoke of the Father's drawing power, He then said, "and I will raise him up on the last day" (John 6:44b). This is the power and commitment of our Father's love: from the days of our sin and rebellion even to the days long after we die, grace continues working to unite our hearts with God's. From our utterly helpless beginnings to our utterly helpless end, from being dead in sin to being dead in the grave, grace carries us to the arms of God.

Unlocking the Power of Grace

"But God, being rich in mercy, because of His great love with which He loved us, even when we were dead in our transgressions, made us alive together with Christ (by grace you have been saved), and raised us up with Him, and seated us with Him in the heavenly places, in Christ Jesus, in order that, in the ages to come, He might show the surpassing riches of His grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus.

"For by grace you have been saved through faith; and that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God." Ephesians 2:4-8

Paul says that grace saved us "through faith." Faith unlocks the power of grace and releases it to function in our world -- and faith itself is another gift of God. The difference between both gifts is that the grace-gift must be activated by the faith-gift. We must believe that God is "rich in mercy." We must accept as true that God loves us with "great love." We must not doubt He atoned for "our transgressions." We must be confident we are "alive together with Christ."

Grace works through faith. Believing the words of grace unlocks the power of grace; the power of grace to fully transform us comes through faith. As it is written, "For of His fullness we have all received, and grace upon grace" (John 1:16). The true stride of a Christian's walk is "grace upon grace." The same grace that turned our hearts toward Christ continues to work in us, transforming even our sufferings and trials into virtue and power.

Are you in a battle? Are you struggling with finances, health, righteousness, or relationships? Your grace-miracle has already been created. But you must believe that not only has God created a grace-provision for you, but Christ is motivated by love and actually desires to show you favor.

You may feel like a loser, a sinner, a person others routinely reject -- and perhaps you are! The purpose of redemption was so that, in the ages to come, God might display through us "the surpassing riches of His grace." You may be poor in this world, but you can become rich in the transforming grace of God. Believe Him. A day will come in the future world of God when He will point to you and I, once fallen and depraved, filthy and isolated creatures, and display us before heaven and earth as radiant, transformed beings -- a glory to His workmanship and love. And it will come to pass because we believed in the grace of God to change us.

Who cares what other people think of you? God says He loves you! Indeed, His grace is working to set you free. God knows you have been struggling with desperate issues; that's one reason why He has inspired this message. His grace is reaching to you to deliver you. The means to your victory is not more prayer or more Bible study, but faith-activated grace. Of course, I strongly believe in both prayer and study, but the power to release each of us is a free gift of grace. Don't postpone your breakthrough. Believe that God's grace is here to release you!

What We Cannot Do On Our Own

We've been taught that grace is God's unmerited favor which, of course, it is. Yet unmerited favor is only one aspect of grace. In reality, grace is God's promise to do for us what we cannot do for ourselves.

The Bible says that "Abraham believed God, and it was reckoned to him as righteousness" (Romans 4:3). It doesn't mean that Abraham believed there was a God. No. Demons believe in one God and tremble! When Abraham "believed God" it meant that he believed what God had promised would come to pass. God promised to do for Abraham what Abraham and Sarah could not fulfill on their own. The Lord had promised Abraham he'd be a father of many nations. This is the glory of God's grace: it accomplishes what is otherwise impossible for us. You see, grace not only chooses me, saves me eternally, and blankets my life with mercy, but grace also works in me realities unattainable without divine help.

Consider Zechariah and the story about Zerubbabel, who was governor of Israel. The Jews had been held in Babylonian captivity for 70 years. Now, they were being restored to Jerusalem. It was Zerubbabel's task to oversee the restoration of the city. In the struggle of the battle, weariness settled on the governor. So, the Lord gave Zechariah a promise for Zerubbabel. He said,
"'Not by might nor by power, but by My Spirit,' says the Lord of hosts." Zechariah 4:6
God was saying, in effect, "You have labored, your enemies are many and they are strong, but this work I've set before you isn't about your abilities; it's about what I can do working through you." Likewise, our salvation isn't about our works or power. It's about believing in the Holy Spirit's power and the grace of God. Then the Lord gave Zerubbabel an important word. He said,
"What are you, O great mountain? Before Zerubbabel you will become a plain; and he will bring forth the top stone with shouts of 'Grace, grace to it!'" Zechariah 4:7
Zerubbabel had mountains in his life that were too much for him. He had a task that was beyond his abilities. Yet God promised His Spirit would help and, when it was done, multitudes would be shouting "Grace, grace!" at the finished work.

Listen, my friends, don't run from the mountains in your life, face them with faith -- and then shout "Grace, grace!" to them. Let God make your mountains into "a plain."

Let's not mutter an unbelieving whisper about grace, but shout it out loud. It doesn't say, "think about grace," but release your faith and shout "Grace, grace!" God's unmerited favor has been poured out upon you; now speak to that mountain of discouragement, sickness, or financial need -- GRACE, GRACE!

Blessed God, You have drawn me to Yourself and have sheltered my life in the impenetrable stronghold of Your grace. Forgive me for drifting back into trusting in my works or abilities. Lord, I believe in Your grace! I shout "Grace, grace!" to the mountains that stand before me! In Jesus' name!

Discerning the Shadows

by Bill Somers

Consider the following scene. There is a large room with several people seated in various places. A door to the outside is open and someone very important is approaching, about to enter through the door. He casts a shadow ahead of him that can be seen on the floor of the room. There are some that can see the shadow very clearly because of where they are sitting. Others can hear the voice and footsteps of the person when it's not too noisy in the room. Still others can sometimes get a glimpse of him in a mirror or through a window. Each of these people can tell something about the person coming and about how close he is to the door. The closer he gets, the more those in the room can tell about him. They are able to pass along some of their information to others in the room at times. Some can tell what they hear, some can tell what they see and some can tell what they have learned by studying the shadow. However communication is very poor due to disorder and conflict between the people inside. Some are expecting the arrival of the person, others will be extremely surprised. Once he enters the room their knowledge of him will begin to increase dramatically and soon will be far more complete and accurate.
This is a picture of the Church today. She is about to receive a visit from the Lord. His prophets know he is coming, in a spiritual sense first, others only look forward to His physical return, still others aren't expecting Him very soon, if at all.
This is not a visitation like past visitations. It is more than just a visit. He is coming to stay. He is not coming as a guest to spend a short time. He is coming as the Head of the church, to take up permanent residence. He is coming to take over.

His prophets know he is coming.
Those who can hear His voice and footsteps are those who prophesy the words he gives them.
Those who catch occasional glimpses of Him are those who relate their visions.
Those who see the outlines of His shadow are those who are prophetic teachers.
The shadows are the prophetic types and shadows found in the bible.
"Let no man judge you in meat or in drink or in respect of an holy day or of the new moon or of the sabbath which are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ." Col. 2:16 Note that the last clause of this verse could be translated 'and the body of Christ' So this verse speaks of things in the bible which are shadows of things to come and the body of Christ [the Church]
Their meaning is imparted to the prophet by revelation. So that to discern the shadows is to understand the bible and what it says about the return of the Lord.
The closer he gets, the more those in the room can tell about him. This means you can see His shadow more clearly. We know that 'the books [of the bible] are sealed till the time of the end'; so when their meaning is revealed we know the time of the end has come.

The Lord gave me this illustration of the people in the room to show how He speaks to His people. And so I would understand that I was one of those who discern the shadows.
That is there are three kinds of prophets, the hearers, the seers, and the teachers.
It wasn't till later that I found that this verse in Hosea says practically the same thing. "I have also spoken by the prophets, and I have multiplied visions, and used similitudes [types and shadows], by the ministry of the prophets." (Hosea 12:10)

Once He enters the room their knowledge will become far more complete and accurate.
"For we know in part, and we prophesy in part. But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away." (1 Corinthians 13:9-10)
This is the Revelation of Jesus Christ.

Safe Harbor

“I am your Safe Harbor in the storms of life! It is only IN ME, that you will be safe and secure. When Egypt was destroying the children of Israel, I raised up midwives who would not bow their knee to tyranny and it will be the same in this age ! The midwives are the prophets, and I will raise up prophets now, who will speak truth to he people, and who will DEFY the ungodly authority in the lands of the earth.

“Who will rise up for Me against the evil doers?” I have said in the past.
Who will advance the Kingdom despite opposition?
Indeed the wicked grow strong with plenty to feed them, but when the enemy comes in like a flood, the LORD will raise up a standard against him I’ve said ! I’ve told you that it is YOU that will be the standard ! It is YOU that I will cleanse and empower and use to bring down the kingdom of darkness arising in the earth. With each martyr that dies will I raise up thousands more who will believe !

Remember that I said, I did not come to bring peace but a SWORD.
Do not be ignorant My beloveds of the things that are coming on the earth.
I have had it all written down so study it and know that I am revealing. I am revealing the secrets of what has been written down for centuries. It is a time of release and a new age of REVELATION - A new age of LIGHT and REFORMATION ! I will increase My light within you and it will repel the darkness in others. It will repel those who are contrary to the gospel !
John 1:4-5 NKJV
4 In Him was life, and the life was the light of men. 5 And the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not comprehend it.

Darkness cannot comprehend LIGHT. The light shines in the darkness and illuminates what is hidden. Therefore many will reject the light that is in you, because they love the darkness rather than the light. Whereas many who seem unworthy and hopeless, will receive by the great grace I will pour out, deliverance enough to make an informed choice. I will pour out glory and bring healing and deliverance to the captives so that their eyes may be opened and their hearts changed from stone to flesh. THEN they will be able to receive truth, as the darkness has been eradicated.”

[I saw an arm on a handle that was turning a crank….like the old cars you had to crank up to get them going.]

Then He said, “I am going to remove all that would keep you from being able to be ‘revved up’ for ME. I will pour out the Spirit of Might and you will be empowered to reach out and to testify, to deliver and to heal ! I will use you to subdue the enemy in the lives of others and in cities and nations ! I will pour out My Spirit in ways you cannot conceive of even now ! Am I limited in how I can do anything ? AM I NOT GOD ALMIGHTY, the CREATOR of heaven and earth ? Surely nothing is impossible with Me.

I have something to tell you about your family, those who have resisted bowing their knee to Me, will soon be apprehended. Do not give up on them.
Do not give up on what seems impossible. Although many will not bend, many will bend to ME. And I know who they are. I will give you revelation and help you in prayer to be effective in how you pray for them if you just ask Me.
I know the deep seated doubts and fears. I know the rationalizations they have believed. And I will break down every argument. Walk in FAITH and CONFIDENCE that I am ABLE to do abundantly more than you can think or ask. WORSHIP ME in the beauty of holiness and WATCH what I will do !

I will move as you walk in FAITH without doubt ! Hold on to your confidence and do not allow doubt to take hold !

I also said " a little child shall lead them" and NOW there will be release to your children of dreams and visions, callings and a measure of revelation that has been unheard of in days past for I AM RESTORING all that the canker worm has eaten. I am RESTORING all that the palmer worm has stolen !
I WILL HAVE A GLORIOUS BRIDE ! Draw near to ME, and I will draw near to YOU !"

Matt 23:29-36 NKJV
29 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! Because you build the tombs of the prophets and adorn the monuments of the righteous, 30 and say, 'If we had lived in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets.'
31 "Therefore you are witnesses against yourselves that you are sons of those who murdered the prophets. 32 Fill up, then, the measure of your fathers' guilt. 33 Serpents, brood of vipers! How can you escape the condemnation of hell? 34 Therefore, indeed, I send you prophets, wise men, and scribes: some of them you will kill and crucify, and some of them you will scourge in your synagogues and persecute from city to city, 35 that on you may come all the righteous blood shed on the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel to the blood of Zechariah, son of Berechiah, whom you murdered between the temple and the altar.

Eph 2:19-22 NKJV Christ Our Cornerstone
Now, therefore, you are no longer strangers and foreigners, but fellow citizens with the saints and members of the household of God, 20 having been built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ Himself being the chief cornerstone, 21 in whom the whole building, being fitted together, grows into a holy temple in the Lord, 22 in whom you also are being built together for a dwelling place of God in the Spirit.

Shards Of Pottery

Judy Curmi

9-15-2005

A San Francisco, California federal court judge today ruled the US Pledge of Allegiance was illegal to say in public schools, because children were coerced into affirming "God". This evening I received the following message.

When you least expect it, then I will come. When you least expect it everything will utterly fall apart, stricken with a catastrophic terminal illness. Your planet is very ill, but few have paid attention. Mankind is also very ill, but few have noticed that either.

From the bottom to the top corruption reigns. The form still stands, but it is like a piece of rusted iron. All it will take is one more good hit and the structure will buckle and crumble. As a piece of rusted metal crumbles into little pieces, so will be the crumbling of the system that man has set up for buying, selling and bypassing me completely.

I warned you how I could take a piece of pottery and break it so that even the shards could not hold water. So it shall be again.

Isa. 30:8-15 Now go, write before them on a tablet, and note it on a scroll, that it may be for a time to come forever and ever; That this is a rebellious people, lying children, children who will not hear the word of the Lord; Who say to the seers, "Do not see," and to the prophets, "Do not prophesy to us right things; Speak to us smooth things, prophesy deceits. Get out of the way. Turn aside from the path. Cause the Holy One of Israel to cease from before us."

Therefore thus says the Holy One of Israel:

Because you despise this word, and trust in oppression and perversity, and rely on them, Therefore this iniquity shall be to you like a breach ready to fall, A bulge in a high wall whose breaking comes suddenly in an instant. And he shall break it like the breaking of a potter's vessel, which is broken in pieces; he shall not spare. So there shall not be found among its fragments a shard to take fire from the hearth or to take water from the cistern.

For thus says the Lord God, the Holy One of Israel: "In returning and rest you shall be saved; In quiet and confidence shall be your strength." But you would not. [NKJ]

You have spurned my Love and denounced my Name because it "offends" you. So be it. The fruit is wholly ripe. All of the pieces are in place for a shaking such as man has never seen before. You may denounce me, but you can not make me go away, because the Great I AM created YOU – not the other way around.

To my remnant I would say, Stand Firm. Stand tall. Do not be dissuaded by the sights and sounds around you. Do not be undone by the wailing, but persevere in seeking and following after me. I am about to expose my heart to you and you will be undone with love for me.

This is a Love I have offered to each and every person, but few have cared to acknowledge or even show an interest. They were too busy or had other interests that attracted and held their attention. That is – they had other gods that they preferred more than me.

WOE to mankind.

WOE to the sinful cities.

WOE to the rebellious nations.

You think you have been so clever as you raged and railed against me. You made up figures and other gods whom you could worship that pleased you more.

The End is the End. You are walking into it with eyes wide open, but acting like sleep walkers. This was by your choice, not mine.

My remnant: Get ready for the dawn. Get ready for the light. To the rest I say, Get ready for the darkness. You have pulled it around you like a cloak, but you will find that you are totally entangled by it and can not get out.

As a spider spins his web, so Satan has been spinning his plans for man’s total destruction. As dew drops on a spider’s web sparkle and entangle the prey, so has it been with you, Oh man. You will be as thoroughly entangled with your rebellion as a fly is caught in a spider’s web. No matter how much it buzzes or how much noise it makes, it can not get free.

The division of the light and the darkness has begun. The division of good and evil has begun and each will be clearly seen. Clearly – this is the time one needs to be on the winning team. Will you root for the "home team" or will you root for the kingdom of God?

As the earth shivers and quakes much evil will be expelled. Much more will be uncovered and brought to the light. Do not be deceived. Do not be dismayed. All is in perfect order for the triumphant return of my Son. The course has been set and all the actors are in their places. Did you know that the curtain has already gone up on the last act…or were you so busy that you even missed that?

Spiritual Hurricane Coming To Liverpool

Musa Opiyo

Nov 17, 2005

I simply heard the Lord say "A spiritual hurricane is going to hit Liverpool beginning 2006"

He then opened up a vision to me where he showed me Liverpool. I was not sure what time it was, all I can say was that it was in the dead of night. Everything was silent and nothing was moving, yet there was a something stirring in the heavenlies. There was a sense of anticipation in the air of something coming. There was a strong sense that the demonic principalities in and around Liverpool were growing restless because of this.

The Lord then said " I have issued an eviction order to all principalities, demonic powers and rulers of the high places. It's time to go!"

An Angel appeared in the sky flying over Liverpool and began blowing a shofar, first a long drawn out sound, followed by short bursts of it. I then saw demonic spirits in the form of bats taking to the sky trying to escape from something, but this was not fast enough to outrun the wind that was coming from the sea. Soon more hurricane type winds blew and rain followed. All over the city more bats and other dark creatures began to take to the sky and soon were caught up in the wind which began to blow them away. Then the winds and rain began to beat on some of the houses and structures and completely flatten them to the ground.

As this was happening, I noticed something strange. When the wind tore down some houses, I could see families inside them kneeling down and praying. The wind and rain did not seem to affect them, it was as if there was something protecting them from it.

ARISE AND SHINE

Then the Lord spoke..

"Arise, shine for My light has come, and My glory shall surely rise upon you. I have heard the prayers of My faithful people that have risen up to Me from this city. Yes, even the prayers of the little children have come up to Me in faith that I would change their schools. Have I not heard the prayers of these little ones? Have I not come to displace the enemy around you? Do not remain silent. Yes you will see a change and a shift in the spiritual atmosphere beginning 2006, yet do not remain complacent. Do not relent in your prayers and in your prophesy until the enemy is consumed. Did I not say that life and death is in the power of the tongue?

As My young people in Liverpool open their mouths, I am going to use them to prophesy spiritual renewal and awakening. Signs and wonders shall surely follow their words. I am going to equip My people with prophetic prayers of authority that will bring righteous alignment to the city. Arise and shine Liverpool. I am bringing you out of a place of insignificance. People will flock to you to see and take back with them the fire that I shall place in your midst. Arise out of your hiding and come to the dawn of a new day"

I then saw the praying families glowing with the glory of God, which radiated out from where they were and out into the whole of Liverpool

MERSEYSIDE SHALL BE KNOWN AS 'MERCY SIDE'

The Lord reminded me of how the family of Antony Walker, the recently murdered black teenager, on TV offered their forgiveness to his killers despite the trauma they experienced.

The Lord then said "What this family did is but a prophetic act of what a going to do not only in Liverpool, but in Merseyside". He then showed me a plane flying over the city and region with a banner attached to it which had Psalm 136:1 "For the Lord is good, and his mercy endures forever"

He then went on to say "Merseyside shall be known as Mercy Side. For there are many voices that have cried judgment upon this city, yes as it was in Abrahams day, I have found a faithful few who are willing to stand in the gap for the many. There is a special anointing of grace and mercy upon this region"

Blessings,
Musa Opiyo.

Shattered Dreams
Larry Crabb

Jan 20, 2005
What is the Real Christian Life really like? This is one of the best descriptions of the "real" Christian life, I've ever read. If you believe that Christianity is a ticket to the trouble free life . . . read no further.

God's goal for humans is different from ours. The author uses the Book of Ruth to make his point about God's goals. He asks, "What does it mean to hope in God as we continue to live in a world where good dreams shatter and God seems to do nothing about it?" The answer requires a change in the way we naturally look at life. It demands a revolution in our understanding of why we're alive at all - of why God keeps us living in this world for so long before He takes us to heaven. The problem sincere Christians have with God often comes down to a wrong understanding of what life is meant to provide.

God's Idea vs. Our Idea

God's idea is to move us through a cycle from happiness through despair to joy. Then, since joy is never fully settled, the cycle repeats itself. This happiness-to-despair cycle is familiar to every honest person who sincerely tries to follow this crazy, narrow, pothole-ridden path called the Christian life. But it's not our idea of life.

Our idea is that God will keep the good times rolling. When we signed onto the Christian life, that's what we thought was the deal. We do what we're told, and God stacks presents under the tree. But God knows that happy people do not live well. That's why happiness, the pleasant feelings that pleasant circumstances generate, must be taken away in order to be replaced by joy.

Enjoy- if that is the right word.

Shattered dreams are the prelude to joy. Always. What a tragedy when people deaden their souls to the pain that eliminates happiness and, as a result, they never discover their desire for God. Desperate people discover that desire. Happy people never do.

It comes down to this: God's best is available only to those who sacrifice, or who are willing to sacrifice, the merely good. If we are satisfied with good health, responsible children, enjoyable marriages, close friendships, interesting jobs, and successful ministries, we will never hunger for God's best. We will never worship. I've come to believe that only broken people truly worship. Unbroken people - happy folks who enjoy their blessings more than the Blesser, say thanks to God the way a shopper thanks a clerk.

When dreams shatter, we long to experience God's nearness in a way that dries our tears. Instead, deeper tears are released. "Tears have become my deepest form of worship," says Jim. A profound encounter with pain brings us to a choice. Either we change - or we sink. Either we accept that life is not all about us and how we feel and what happens here - or we push back the pain by settling for lesser goals. God is taking away good food to make us hungry for better fare.

Example: C.S. Lewis, after his wife died, found heaven's door shut. He discovered his desire for God, but not God Himself. It's at that point we either dismiss God, and live to satisfy all kinds of lesser desires - or we wait. If you're seeking God but having trouble finding Him, be encouraged that it bothers you. The more you're bothered by not finding Him, the more aware you're becoming of how badly you want Him.

God is always working to make His children aware of a dream that remains alive beneath the rubble of every shattered dream - a new dream that, when realized, will release a new song, sung with tears until God wipes the tears away and we will sing with nothing but joy.

We eventually become aware that, through all the events of our life (both the goods times and the bad), God is telling His story. It's a journey through shattered dreams into relationship with God - and solidly founded hope in Him. Regarding a widower named Jim: Shattered dreams did not harden his heart but rather opened a doorway into deeper recesses, where he discovered a desire for God that was stronger and more alive than any other desire. He misses his departed wife badly, but he wants God more.

The psalmists wailed. "Why are You so far from my groaning? I cry out and I hear nothing. How can I sing the songs of the Lord? How long, O Lord, before You deliver me from my distress? All is darkness! I cannot find You!" They were realistic, much more than we who worship a divine vending machine: insert correct spiritual change and God delivers.

Our generation has lost the concept of finding joy in unfulfilled desire. We no longer understand what it means to hope. Only by NOT revealing God to us, at least for awhile can the Spirit put us in touch with a desire that eventually displaces every other desire. In Naomi's life, God did not create a smooth path. Through the agony of shattered dreams, her soul was ripped open so she could discover her desire for God.

Life can be tough. It can be tough for sincere Christians who have walked faithfully with Christ for many years. It can be so tough that the best you can do is just hold on. The choice to abandon ourselves to Him is often most powerfully made when life has dragged us to the brink of blasphemy. Until we know how close we come to giving up on God ("Look what He allowed to happen in my life!"), we'll know little of what it means to give ourselves fully to Him.

It is when we are in pain that we cry out to God. And as we abandon ourselves, a confidence emerges, a sense of His Presence. I can't express it better than Iain Matthew, who writes:

That confidence is a presence that emerges from within, from behind, as if one entered a room and sat there on one's own; then, after some minutes, yes there is someone there, has always been, a silhouette becoming clear. It is a kind of companionship and inner strength which walks with the soul and gives her strength, a presence that is gentle, imperceptible, dark, which evaporates if one tries to describe it... but which sustains life."

Shattered dreams give us the chance to discover our desire for God and then to create space for Him (abandonment) and watch Him enter (confidence). As the process slowly unfolds, we become aware of God's desire for us!

On a truly spiritual journey, there are seasons when "doing great" requires that we feel awful. A healthy heart on a secular journey likes living here and feels good about how effectively their life is being lived. The spiritual journey is different. Doing great on a journey to God involves sensing an appetite that is never fully satisfied, a desire to be the kind of person no one is, a longing to be close to God no matter what happens.

My friend put it well when he said, "If God does so little about things that matter so much to me, I have no categories for understanding that He loves me." Everyone agrees: love implies a concern for another's burdens that translates into action. No action? No love! Praying can feel like furiously pressing the call nurse button dangling by your hospital bed. It's hard to think of an absent nurse as caring.

Revelation: it's more difficult for Christ to restrain Himself from making all our dreams come true than for us to watch them shatter. At our moment of worst pain, the pain of Jesus is worse. God is actually a restrained lover. Naomi tells Ruth:

"Boaz wants you more than you want him. He is withholding himself from you for a time at great personal cost. It is harder for him to keep his distance than it is for you to wait for him. Know this, that this man will move heaven and earth to find a lawful way to marry you. And that's what you want, a legal marriage that rests on an unshakeable foundation. You want nothing less. Wait, my daughter. The man will not rest until the matter is settled."

In the mystery of suffering, enter the deeper mystery of His restrained passion. As the mother holds her baby still so the doctor can deliver the needed injection, so your Lord is allowing you to suffer for reasons you do not know. Grief can only be embraced, never managed. When life kicks us in the stomach, we want someone to be with us as we are. We don't want someone trying to make us feel better. Such efforts, no matter how well-intended, create pressure that adds to our distress.

Without consciously realizing it, a pastor friend I know seems to want to be an agent of improvement rather than to just be with me in my pain.] Why is it so difficult to simply give ourselves to each other without yielding to the urge to give relief, to help, to try to make things better?

What We Do Instead

It seems we are devoting our best efforts to one central goal: making this life work better so we can feel better. But the assumption behind our resolve is a delusion. We assume life is supposed to work in ways that make us feel the way we want to feel. We further assume that, if there is a God, His job is to do what we cannot do to make life work as we want - to keep us relatively happy until we reach heaven. But that's not God's goal - His goal is an intimate relationship of Perfect Love that can provide us with joy.

Hardships should compel me to abandon myself to God for the good things I cannot see. It's hard to hear, but God is not committed to supporting our ministries, to preventing our divorces, to preserving our health, to straightening out our kids, to providing a livable home, to ending famine, to protecting us from agonizing problems that feel like death.

We cannot count on God to prevent us from experiencing things like that. We can count on Him to give us the hope to keep us going in spite of how much pain plagues us.

Our misery drives us, not to seek, God, but to feel better - not to please Him, but to use him. Only shattered dreams reveal that attitude and create a brokenness that helps us hate it enough to give it up.

The way of the flesh = something bad happens, and I ask God for help. I am resolved to feel better. I do whatever I can to make at least a few dreams come true.

The way of the Spirit = something bad happens, and I hurt, I feel unhappy. I long to feel good. But I trust God. His pleasure matters more than mine. Making Him feel good is a higher priority than making me feel good. Inevitably, through this, I discover joy.

When dreams shatter, when God does nothing, we either REBEL in some form or we TRY to become spiritual enough to experience some spiritual fruit such as peace and joy. Either we sin - or we strive. The former is do-able but stupid; the latter is impossible. Feeding an infant, I see he wants a full stomach. That is important, and it will feel good when the baby does eat, but, someday, filling his soul will be a far deeper passion. Many people die having never discovered the food that could fill their stomach. They live their entire lives trying hard to be satisfied with shallow pleasures while their mouths silently scream for delights they were designed to enjoy.

I do hope for the infant - that he will be healthy, do well in school, have lots of friends, marry a nice girl, lead his family into meaningful involvements with the people of God. But those are all second-order hopes. My first-order hope is that he will encounter God.

The good news is not that God will make life easier. It is that He will make life better. Our goal is to draw close to Him, to glorify God, to make Him look good to any who watch.

Without trials, only spoiled brats would enter heaven, which would make heaven into hell. I fear that millions of Christians have never made the discovery that mere happiness is no different from the happiness of circumstantially well-off pagans and that they, therefore, blissfully continue to drink watery grape juice when fine wine is available.

Naomi could envision nothing higher for the two women than circumstance-dependent happiness: marriage, children, a nice house, what every culture rightly calls a good life - and the likelihood of their achieving happiness if they left her.

Tragedies in lives are God's doing. Perhaps they are discipline for wrong choices, or maybe they come for some other reason, but they are always God's doing. He could prevent them. He doesn't. No one feels lonelier than a depressed person at a party. When someone tells you he is so excited about all that God is doing, it's hard to admit you're irritated over what God is not doing. We set a limit on mourning. At some point, we insist on victory.

If we're to find hope when everything we've lived for is taken away, we must rescue Paul's teaching that "all things work together for good" from the pile of biblical mantras uttered by pious folks when they want to deaden pain.

I beg God to deliver me from Calvary-denying sermons which leave people feeling scolded and pressured and falsely hopeful because biblical principals are presented as formulas for making life work. I plead protection from church services where we do the Spirit's work for Him with contrived worship and emotional provocation and endless programs that substitute for community. I ask God to never again let me preach an Eden-denying message where psychological insights replace biblical wisdom in a misguided effort to repair emotional damage when the real problem is a serpent-inspired determination to experience life without God.

The function of pain is to carry us into the inner recesses of our being that want God. We need to let soul-pain do its work by experiencing it fully. We need God. He is all we need. But until we realize that fact, we experience lesser "wants" as "needs" and devote our energy to satisfying our wants. That defines addiction.

We will not find the power to resist addiction's pull toward lesser desires until we discover a more powerful desire that we long to fulfill a desire the Spirit creates within our hearts when the Father forgives us. We must discover our desire for God - otherwise, we will not battle against addiction. The branch must draw life from the vine or it withers and dies. Therefore, welcome shattered dreams. If you want to know God, welcome shattered dreams. When storms rage, that is when we stay anchored in Christ.

Many Christians long to experience God in ways that empower them to relate lovingly and live morally, but it never really happens. So they continue in their addictions, privately feeling ashamed, weak, and frustrated. For others, things go well. They feel pretty good. The wonderful truth that God is faithful means to them that He will keep their lives moving along pleasantly. When their path hits a bump, they pray and things get better. They know God can do something, and He does.

Why does God seem to provide so well for the pleasantly committed and to withdraw from the seriously committed? It's enough to make us seek for lukewarmness. But it is truly settling for less. Our deepest desire is for a kind of life only mercy makes possible, a life only grace provides. It is for life from God, life with God, life for God. And we have it. We've had it from the day Christ took our sins.

Few find Him because He is hidden. An honest look will reveal the rubble of our efforts to make life work without God. Our construction projects have created a false self that we hope will "stay together" through life. This rubble of dust and stone hides the Presence.

If we're to encounter Him within us, we must, like Jesus, become indignant over what we've done. We must dig through, not around, what keeps us from Him. The process is what spiritual people call brokenness and repentance.

What We Need To Do

An encounter with God is possible now, in this life, and it actually gives us pleasure that exceeds all other pleasures. We need to learn ways to approach God, ways to put ourselves in a position to experience the encounter He longs to provide. Martin Luther once said, "Oh! God's grace and goodness is so great! But without great assaults and trials, it cannot be understood!" Yet we present Christianity as little more than a means of escaping hell. Christianity is about going to heaven, but that's not the center of Christ's kindness. The exact center is the opportunity to enjoy God, to be more satisfied with Him than with anyone or anything else.

Friends of mine have a teenage daughter using drugs and sleeping with her boyfriend. Could they really believe that knowing God will bring them more pleasure than seeing their daughter straighten out? The question is: does knowing God REALLY provide the pleasure for which our souls were designed?

Listen to the testimony of Augustine, who came to a point where he was most bothered not by his immoral acts but by his powerlessness to change. He knew what was right, but he couldn't do it. He was crushed by his inability to do what God required. Freedom came when he identified that he needed to enjoy God more than sex. He encountered God and was transformed. It was not teaching, exhortation, or a healing that empowered him to get right. It was an encounter with God more pleasant than sex.

The cure for every form of slavery and addiction is worship - not the dull worship of rote routine or the shallow worship of contrived excitement, but worship that creates deep pleasure in the One who receives it and the one who gives it. Only a thrilling, soul-pleasuring encounter with God that generates more pleasure than sin will free us from our addiction to that sin.

More than ever in my lifetime, people are hungry for God, for spiritual renewal, for deep satisfaction of the soul. This presents more danger than ever before of managing our search and discovering a spirituality without Christ.

Spiritual activities can become maneuvers designed to make something happen. But true abandonment, giving ourselves to God in utter dependence, pleads only mercy. It allows no room for control. It includes no claim on God that obligates Him to do anything. Only suffering has the power to bring us to this point.

Satan's masterpiece is not the prostitute or skid-row bum. It is the self-sufficient person who has made life comfortable, who is adjusting well to the world and truly likes living here, a person who dreams of no better place to live, who longs only to be a little better - and a little better off - than he already is.

Christianity is not primarily about getting saved out of hell and into heaven. It is not primarily about living a certain way that creates fewer problems and makes us feel better. It is about knowing Jesus as the most wonderful person there is, the very best friend anyone could ever have. It is about glorifying God by enjoying Him more than any other source of pleasure.

I am praying for a revolution in the church that forges a new way. With our new appetite, our new power, I see a community of broken people united, not by their problems, but by their hunger for God. We need to put ourselves in a position to receive His sovereign joy, to experience the pleasure of His company.

It is when we, arrogant people, realize that what we really deserve is eternal misery, that we tremble before Him and discover grace. We encounter the depths of God's kindness and love, a kindness and love we find nowhere else. We fall to our knees and worship Christ as our Lord and Savior and as our truest friend, really our only true friend. We know we don't deserve a hug, no matter how badly we're hurting, but we get an eternal one anyway. That's the grace that takes our breath away.

We expect the lightning to strike us, to sizzle us until we're burned up. It never comes. We look up. We see Jesus. He is screaming, hanging on a cross. The lightning has just struck Him.

We enter into the community of broken, forgiven people who are hungry for all of God they can get. Nothing stands in our way - not shame, not the fear of revealing too much, not a desire to be well-thought-of.

With abandon, we seek God -- alone, and in the company of like-minded others. We are startled when we discover that our interior worlds are changing - that we actually WANT to obey God. We find ourselves caring less about our own reputations than about God's. We become spiritual people, dreaming the dream of knowing Christ better.

And we welcome shattered dreams, embracing them as friends. We enter pain and discover that arrogant spirit saying, "I don't deserve this." We tremble in unholiness before a holy God and discover how passionately we want to have a good relationship with Him. But we learn slowly. More dreams must shatter before we experience our deepest joy -- a journey through shattered dreams to the exquisite joy of encountering Christ.

Shifting

Like when an earthquake hits the earth and the plates in the core of the earth move, so are the plates in the core of My Kingdom shifting. By My Spirit I am bringing about a shifting, a change in this world, through the work of My Kingdom.
My precious children, I am sending you into new areas and new dimensions of My Spirit and My Kingdom that you have never been into before. I am sending you into these places with My Spirit to do the work that I have called each of you to do.

I am bringing about a fresh shift of creativity to My Kingdom. Many of you will begin to see a greater sense of creativity being released from your hands, from your mouths, from your hearts, from your life, as I am releasing a new sense of creativity over this world through My Kingdom. A creativity that does not belong to the world, but belongs to Me. As the world sees this new release of creativity many will begin to become unsettled with their present circumstances. I love every person in this world, and I am continually moving more and more to bring all of My creation into My Kingdom.

I am paving new paths. I am paving paths into places that have not yet been touched. I am paving the way now. I am bringing some things to a close, and I am moving quickly in many areas. Many of you will be sent onto these new paths. Yes, test the spirits, but know that I am moving, and taking My children into new places, and areas that they have not been before.

I am calling My children to raise the bar in their levels of faith. With Me paving the way for these new areas, dimensions, and creativity you will need greater faith.

Greater faith to believe for miracles and the shift that is taking place. You are now being called to walk in greater faith in preparation for what I am doing, My friends.
Many of you have been wondering, when, where, how will I be sent out. My children, listen to Me. The gifts I have given you will make room for you. You do not have to run around searching.

I am beginning to create positions and titles for My children that have never existed before. I am in the process of bringing this about, so do not worry My children. I know many of you have itchy feet and are tired of being hidden, but I am now creating the perfect positions for each of you. Places and positions will begin to appear out of what seems ‘nowhere, but they are coming out of My hand.
I am now revealing My people, that I have had in the secret place for a long time now. They are slowly being sent to the surface. Many will think they are too radical, not of Me, too heavenly minded, but that is not truth.

Truth is, is that they are the ones that have chosen to come deeper in Me than ever before, and have sacrificed their time, their efforts, and their money, their desires to be with Me. Truly abandoned to Me.

Now I am rewarding them, by sending them out into the world, with everything sorted for them. They will raise up many of My people that have still not seen a depth of intimacy with Me. I am continually searching the earth, looking for those who are willing to lay everything down to Me. So come.
The shifting is well in progress. The plates are moving. Everything is coming into position. I am informing My prophets now of what is to come, to bring encouragement to each of you, to know, that I love you all so much, and you are My friends, and long to share My heart with you. So listen, be prepared and know, that a mighty fresh work of the Spirit is about to be seen.

When we face UP to the Glory of God, we find ourselves face down in worship - Matt Redman

Worship Weapon

13th April 2005

My children, the battle has intensified. Many of you are facing intense attack. The enemy is bringing great attack against many of you, because I am bringing about a great move in your lives very soon, and the enemy is petrified.
As the shifting is taking place in the Spirit, the enemy is getting roused, and He is bringing hard attack upon you My children, but you My warriors are victorious. No matter how hard, or how fierce the attack, you are victorious.

I see many of you riding the attacks. Riding up and riding down with the attacks and that is not what I have called you to do. Allowing these attacks to give you a good beating. I have called you to stand firm in Me, and not be swayed by attacks.

I have given you a great weapon – Worship. How much time are you spending with Me just in worship? Not asking Me for anything, but worshipping Me? This is the weapon to break all the attacks of the enemy. Through worshipping Me and speaking out My Word, the enemy must flee.

Do not cry out to Me to stop the attack, for I have given you the weapons to break the attacks. Yes, it gets tiring, but I am training each of you. I am training your hands for war, and your fingers for battle, but you will not learn or be trained if you do not adhere to My calls to you.
Worshipping Me breaks off the chains, and breaks off the oppression.

When you worship Me, your eyes are not on the attack, are not on the evil one attacking you, but on Me. That's where they should always be.

Stop focusing on the attacks, and focus on Me. Focus on My beauty. On My character, who I am, and the victory you have in Me. No matter how fierce things get, you are never unarmed. You are never in the midst of battle without weapons.

Worship is the weapon I have given you.

Am I not worthy of all glory, and praise? Am I not worthy to be continually worshipped?

I am rising up My church, My warriors, in worship. I am calling out to you My church, you want to know Me more, then worship Me.

Love on Me. Bless Me, My children. I love to give to you, and I will always continue to give to you, but love on Me. I desire your worship, and I love your worship. It is such a beautiful sacrifice to Me.

Stop asking, and just behold My Glory. I want each of you to stop asking for the moment now, and behold My Glory. Worship Me. Fight your battles with worship.

My Spirit will be released in greater ways as you worship Me. I will move and answer your requests, but FIRST you must worship Me. I am not a vending machine. I am God.
Worship Me. As you focus on Me, and worship Me, all else will be given unto you.
Yes, the battle has increased and is fierce, but how much does the battle matter, when you worship Me and are beholding My Glory?

Rise Up My Worshippers. Rise Up. Worship Me, for I am worthy.

Seeking His Kingdom

Ephraim Frank

Shalom Fellow Israelite,
9/12a/5765 Feb 18, 2005

It seems that last week's letter raised a few questions. The first of which is perhaps the most controversial of all and the most mysterious: Who is Melchizedec, or is it just one of many titles of YHVH Elohim? The meaning of the word comes from two Hebrew words, melech (king) and tzedec (justice or righteousness), and I think that you would agree that Yah is the only one that has that nature and at the same time holds such a position. The second question was the use of the word "order" (in Hebrews 5:10 and Psalm 110:4). The Hebrew word "divra", does not mean "succession", but "in the manner of", or the "likeness of" Melchizedec. I wanted to clarify this, as the translation in some bibles is incorrect. In Psalm 110 it says, "according to my word, Melchizedec"; eaning that YHVH has sworn that David would be "like" a Melchizedec, since he sat temporarily on YHVH's throne in and over the House of Jacob.

As I wrote last week, our first priority, according to Yeshua, is to "seek first the Kingdom of YHVH Elohim and His righteousness". Obviously the King of that Kingdom is YHVH Elohim. And without racking our brain too much, it may be deducted that if the Kingdom is righteous and just, so is its King. Under the guidance of the Spirit of Holiness, the apostle Paul says that the nature of the Kingdom of YHVH is "tzedec - righteousness (justice), shalom (peace) and simcha (joy)". Thus YHVH Elohim is Melech Tzedec, Melech Shalom and Melech Simcha. The Kingdom is a kingdom of "justice" and "righteousness", or put another way, of "law and order". It is not a kingdom of chaos.

The Psalmist asks: "Who is this King of glory? YHVH strong and mighty, YHVH mighty in battle… Who is this King of glory? YHVH Zevaot, He is the King of glory" (Psa 24:7-10).

In this Psalm we see another title ascribed to YHVH Elohim. It is clear that He is the Melech Hakavod, King of Glory. In the writings of the book of Revelation we see this King sitting on His heavenly throne with a scroll in His hand (ref. Rev 4:1-11; 5:1). When the portal into these heavenly places was open, for John to go in, he saw this throne and the One sitting upon it. Who was the One sitting upon the throne with twenty-four elders sitting on thrones around Him? Out of this throne came light, which was like lighting and thunder. Around the throne there were four creatures: one like a lion, another like a calf, another with a face like a man and finally one like an eagle. Similar scenes were viewed or envisioned by other prophets of the past, like Moses on Mount Sinai, Ezekiel and Daniel (Ex 19:16; Ez 1:10; Dan 7:9). The many similarities in these prophets' experiences indicate that they all saw the same throne and King. Since John was in the spirit, one might venture to say that he was having a spiritual experience in the Kingdom of Heaven, the same Kingdom which Yeshua mentions in His prayer: "Our Father… Your (YHVH Elohim) kingdom come, Your will be done on earth as it is in heaven" (Matt 6:10).

Some may argue that the King sitting on the throne with the scroll in His hand was Yeshua. But if it were Yeshua, who then is the Lion of the tribe of Judah that looks like a lamb, who comes and takes the scroll out of the hand of the One sitting on the throne (ref Rev 5: 5-7)? Yeshua did not come to take over the Kingdom of heaven that belonged to His Father, but the Father, after His Son overcame or prevailed, proving himself worthy, gave Him the inheritance that was written and designated on the scroll. Yeshua knew why he was here, and because of that reason he had great joy; so much so that He endured the cross. He proved himself faithful to the will of His Father even unto death, thus He was able to sit down at the right hand of His Father and take up a ruling position over His Father's Kingdom on earth. He was also found worthy to take on all the titles that were His Father's, like Malchi-Tzedec and Melech Ha kavod, Sar Shalom, Eternal Father, Wonderful [or Marvelous] Counselor. Moreover, He also qualified to take the scroll and begin to reign from this heavenly position over the House of Jacob. His authority would be made manifest and seen on earth at the opening of each of the seven seals. Remember how He spoke to the storm while in the boat with His disciples? This was only a foretaste of His power and authority in order to establish His Father's Kingdom on earth. This is why when no one could be found in heaven, earth or under the earth worthy to open the scroll, one of the elders exclaimed: "Do not weep. Behold, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has prevailed to open the scroll and to loose its seven seals" (ref. Rev 5:5)!

The Father's plan, even from the foundation of the world, was to establish on, or restore His Kingdom to earth. But why was it so important that Yeshua be in the Abrahamic family, specifically of the tribe of Judah and the Root of David? Why could He have not been from just any people group? What does the throne of David have to do with the establishment of the Kingdom of YHVH on earth? The angel Gabriel, coming from the presence of YHVH, announced to Miriam that the Spirit of Holiness conceived the baby in her womb, and that she was to call Him Yeshua (or Yah'shua). The messenger said that this child would be great and that He would be called the Son of the Highest, and YHVH Elohim would give to Him the throne of His father David and that He would reign over the house of Jacob forever, and that His kingdom would have no end (ref Luke 1:31-33).

No question about it, YHVH's Kingdom here on earth is directly connected to the House of Jacob (meaning all twelve tribes)! As mentioned before, there are statutes, ordinances and laws that govern the order of His Kingdom. This divine order (meaning law and order) is laid out in the Torah of Moses and in the books of the prophets. YHVH will not deviate from His word that He established through Moses, or any other of His prophets. Each of the seals that are on the scroll contains the prophetic Word of the Father, "for the testimony of Yeshua is the spirit of prophecy" (Rev 19:10).

Yeshua came to establish and fulfill all that has been spoken. Not only that which pertained to His first appearance, nor now in His present form (that is in His corporate body), but also in His future appearance. There is a progressive revelation happening and we must be prepared for each successive appearance. This is the reason for the exhortation to "seek first His kingdom and His righteousness", as the Father has bequeathed the entire earthly inheritance to His son Yeshua. We, the redeemed remnant, must devote ourselves to His authority, His righteousness, His peace and His joy. We are His servants, that is, servants of righteousness. He will see to it that we pass through trials and testings that are necessary to prove ourselves worthy to inherit that which has been reserved in heaven for us (ref 1 Pet 1:4). Our walk here on earth in many ways is no different than Yeshua's was. When Yeshua found Himself in the likeness of humanity, He made himself of no reputation and took upon Himself the form of a servant, "humbled himself and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross. Wherefore YHVH Elohim also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name" (Phil. 2:8-9). Yeshua also demonstrated His servant's heart when He wrapped himself in a towel and washed the disciples' feet, and then took the ultimate step and laid down His life.

We, who have received His life, have His nature. "But", and I mean a big "but" we must learn what the Spirit is saying to the seven churches (Rev 2:1 – 3:22), as our heavenly inheritance is contingent upon one word - "overcoming".

Have a rest-filled Shabbat,
Ephraim

Shout Restore

My child, look around you this day because those very things that you see in the natural in this new season are also going to take place in the spiritual. For have I not said; the spiritual did not come first, but the natural, and after that the spiritual (1 Corinthians 15:46)? In the days ahead you will step into a new season and you will be experiencing a falling back. This falling back will be in your natural time, but just as in the days of Hezekiah who in his sickness turned his face toward the wall and prayed unto Me for his own health, I say to you today that I am bringing again the shadow of the degrees, which is gone down in the sun dial of Ahaz, ten degrees backward (Isaiah 38:8).

In this new season of your life you will feel as though I have again commanded the sun to stand still just as I spoke through My servant Joshua so long ago so that I can work on your behalf. However, I come to you this day asking that you open your heart to Me so that I can begin a process of great restoration in your life. Do not allow unforgiveness to keep you closed off or disconnected from your brothers and sisters in Christ. For it is only in pureness of heart, humility and forgiveness that I am able to do mighty things in your midst.

Restore, Restore, Restore and again I say Restore. For I am truly able to restore even that which once was. Just like an older house, vintage car or even a fine piece of furniture, in order to restore there must be a starting place. There must be a place of beginning and yet through time, weather and trials things began to change and in some cases even get broken. You have said; â€œBut Lord, my life is such a mess, it is all broken before me. I can no longer see goodness ahead and it so hard to believe that anything good can come of it all.â€ But I say to you this day My child that there is nothing that is beyond repair when placed in My hands. For even in the hands of the potter was the vessel broken and yet I took that vessel and formed it again as I saw was best (Jeremiah 18:4).

I took what was already there, what was marred and broken and reformed it into a beautiful vessel and I am doing so again to make you a great vessel of honor. I ask you My child; is there anything that is too difficult for Me? Do not look back at what you perceive was destruction, but look with me ahead to what I can take and turn around for your good. For I do work all things together for your good My child and I can use even the worst of circumstances if you place them in My hands. Leave your broken heart, life, situations and circumstances in My hands and I will restore the years that the locust hath eaten, the cankerworm, and the caterpillar, and the palmerworm has stolen (Joel 2:25).

My child, shout to the North, the South, the East and the West this day for I am a God of restoration and My Word does not come back void.

Shout Restore in your finances

Shout Restore for your family

Shout Restore even in your friendships

Shout Restore for everything that you believe in the natural has been torn down or broken and I will begin a work even now in the spirit that will manifest in the days ahead. Yes even in the new season that is coming upon you as you hearken unto My voice and take the steps toward fulfilling this word that I am sending to you this day.

First My child you must be able to look back in love and forgiveness. For it is only in the pure of heart and the humble that I can do great and mighty things. Finally My child YOU MUST BELIEVE that I am not a man that I should lie, but your Father in Heaven who keeps His promises from generation to generation. All things are possible with Me and through Me. So dear one, take the steps this day to place those broken pieces in My hands and Shout Restore as you go about your daily life. For I say to you this day that within ten days you will begin to see that which I am working in the spirit for you. Even in the days ahead it will begin to manifest as you Shout Restore!

Dearest Friends in Jesus,

This letter is very personal as it is my heart, but at the same time I know it's also for many in the body of Christ who are experiencing something very similar to what I am conveying in this article. Whether it's a "word from God", or "instruction in righteousness", or just a little "tea and comfort" to let you know you are NOT alone, I pray the Lord may have His work in your own heart through what I am sharing with you here.

I have been experiencing spiritual hunger "pangs" as never before. I looked up the word "pangs" in my concordance, and it's always associated with a woman in travail when used in the Word.

I came to the conclusion that this is the right word to use rather than "pains" . I feel a deep spiritual anguish that I desperately need to meet God in a special way, and see the Lord afresh through a spiritual birthing of that which has been seeded into my life. That which has come through the anointing and spirit of true prophecy and the ingrafting of an incorruptible seed born from above, needs to find it's fullness of expression. I feel truly that as far as my inner spiritual yearnings, I am no different than those who were desirous to receive some answers from Jesus regarding their longing for Him, whom He went onto to compare to a woman who is experiencing the pain and sorrow of childbirth:

19Now Jesus knew that they were desirous to ask him, and said unto them, Do ye enquire among yourselves of that I said, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me?
20Verily, verily, I say unto you, That ye shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice: and ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy.
21A woman when she is in travail hath sorrow, because her hour is come: but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world.
22And ye now therefore have sorrow: but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from you. John 16:19-22.

There is an intense spiritual hunger that literally causes an inward pain. It is so pronounced in a sense of an inner groaning that if I were free to give expression to it, the tears could flow profusely just as somewhat of a "vent". However, it is not always necessary for it to be expressed in this way, and when Paul spoke to the Romans of "groanings that cannot be uttered" (Romans 8), I think it may have been the Spirit's way of telling us that this is just a little portion of the "prayer without ceasing" that can be wrought by one of His own who may find themselves in circumstances where others simply would not understand (like in the workplace, or in a classroom).

So, within the deepest recesses of our person, we can sense a gurgling of those waters of desire for Him, and for spiritual life to come forth, which is as the cry of the Spirit having it's perfect will and way within. Others may never perceive what is happening within your spirit, except the Lord causes them to be on the same circuit of such testimony of His workings and dealings within the life. It's the place where the soul begins to find true conversion because the law of God can have it's fullest work where the fire and hunger of desire rises up to meet it with all encouragement that only the fully surrendered heart can achieve. (Read Psalm 19)

The following scriptures in Jeremiah and Isaiah give a portrayal of the feelings of the anguish of true spiritual hunger, and I hesitated to cite them because they speak of warfare, and what does childbirth and a desire to see the mighty Christ come forth have to do with the subject of warfare?

Everything because the carnal mind is at emnity with God. To be spiritually minded is life and peace, and to be carnally minded is death. The flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and there is always a dragon ready to devour the manchild as soon as it's born. (Read Romans 8, Galatians 5, and Revelation 12)

Paul is truly representative of our "Father of spirits", when with an impregnated sense of groaning in the words, he declared to the Galatians that he "travailed in birth until the Christ be formed in you." The Holy Spirit within us exacts this very same travailing upon our souls. And again, in the full context of Galatians 4, how can we miss the presence of warfare? Warfare between flesh and spirit. Warfare between captivity and liberty. Warfare between the son of promise and the offspring of bondage.
19My bowels, my bowels! I am pained at my very heart; my heart maketh a noise in me; I cannot hold my peace, because thou hast heard, O my soul, the sound of the trumpet, the alarm of war. Jeremiah 4:19.

If you read this in the context of the whole 4th chapter of Jeremiah, you'll see it's replete with illumination for those who see deeper into the Word with a desire to return to Him in a way that would expedite the presentation of His glory, even as the midwife might give exclamation of joy at the presenting of the crown of a newborn baby's head. There are scriptures about returning to the Lord with the whole heart, breaking up the fallow ground, not sowing among thorns, circumcising the heart, being washed from wickedness---all things encouraged to cause His glory to be seen among the nations.

And then there are those who wailed in lament to Isaiah as King Hezekiah and his feeble armies were mocked by the King of Assyria. I actually feel like the spacing of centuries between myself and King Hezekiah, and Eliakim, and Shebna, and the elders of the priests is shrunk by reason of identification with the feeling of knowing what it's like to fear that the "children are come to birth", and what if there is not "strength to bring forth"? What a horrible dilemma to come to the point of delivery, and then NOT have the "strength to bring forth". Such strong words: trouble, rebuke, and even "blasphemy"!! What a horrible condition to be in, to come to birth and then NOT have "strength" to "bring forth".

1And it came to pass, when king Hezekiah heard it, that he rent his clothes, and covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of the LORD.
2And he sent Eliakim, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests covered with sackcloth, unto Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz.
3And they said unto him, Thus saith Hezekiah, This day is a day of trouble, and of rebuke, and of blasphemy: for the children are come to the birth, and there is not strength to bring forth. Isaiah 37:1-3

The one thing that causes a woman to endure the ordeal and agony of the grueling pain of childbirth is the knowledge that a child will come forth in due time. If a woman had word before time that no matter how she might struggle to bring a new baby into the world by doing her own part in working with the contractions meant to propel the child along the birth canal, what a sense of futility would ensue! That woman would either give up in hopeless despair, or determine to find out what she must do to correct the situation, so that the baby can be born.

When I saw in the Word that the problem is there is not "strength" to bring forth, I passionately set myself to have a better understanding of this "strength". Some scriptures immediately came to mind about "strength". The joy of the Lord is our "strength". In quietness and confidence shall be your "strength". But the word for "strength" in this passage of scripture in Isaiah means "to be firm". In other words, it's the strength of endurance, and sticking with it, and not vacillating, and not giving up!! You simply need to SEE IT THROUGH until you SEE THE LORD in the fullness of His glory in the situation!!

If there is a word to the Body of Christ, and especially those who have been in spiritual warfare contending against the flesh and all that would prevent the presentation of the manchild with the intensity of intercession akin to the agonizing travail of a woman, the word of the Lord is to STAND, ENDURE, SEE IT THROUGH!! What is the "manchild"?? It is when Jesus comes forth in manifested fullness in and through our lives, and it happens both personally as well as corporately. The day came when Mary was able to rejoice that Jesus had been born, Immanuel, God with us. Thou shalt call His Name, Jesus, for He shall save His people from their sins.

Now, this same Jesus is about to come forth through His people, and upon Mt Zion shall also be saviours, (with a little "s") but operating in that same power of the Spirit, Christ within, the Hope of Glory!!!. (Obadiah, Colossians 1:27, Romans 8:11)

Beloved, you need to decide if it's worth the price you may be required to pay to see Him come forth not only in your situation, but in personal communion that He desires to have with you, and that will cause you to become the "womb of glory" for the nations.

Just what is your "spiritual hunger" all about?? Is it about ascending into the hill of the Lord?? Is it about dwelling in the house of the Lord forever where you can behold His beauty and enquire in His temple ?? (Ref Psalm 15, 24, and 27)

Search the scriptures, and find what you need to do to come into that place. Do you believe you will get there by simply effecting moodful spiritual drama? Do you think it will happen by merely dimming the lights, burning candles, putting on dreamy spiritual "mood music", and relaxing in a state of repose and claiming you do have His presence because you have created a religious mood, a religious atmosphere??

Beloved, there is nothing wrong with those things, but if they are not on the proper foundation, they are nothing but empty religious exercise, and probably bringing about the wrong spirit. What is the right foundation for the presence of the Lord? What truly gets you into His presence?
What will cause you personally to be a habitation for His glory? Who will abide in His tabernacle, and dwell in His Holy Hill? Let the scriptures speak for themselves. Not a word about burning candles, turning down the lights, or putting on dreamy, instrumental religious music on the cd player!!

1 LORD, who shall abide in thy tabernacle? who shall dwell in thy holy hill?
2 He that walketh uprightly, and worketh righteousness, and speaketh the truth in his heart.
3 He that backbiteth not with his tongue, nor doeth evil to his neighbour, nor taketh up a reproach against his neighbour.
4 In whose eyes a vile person is contemned; but he honoureth them that fear the LORD. He that sweareth to his own hurt, and changeth not.
5 He that putteth not out his money to usury, nor taketh reward against the innocent. He that doeth these things shall never be moved.
Psalm 15, All.

I want a hunger that presses into God enough that as much as I am willing to wait quietly in a room in His presence, and declare that I am "soaking", I am also equally desirous to bring the flesh into subjection to His Word, and His will and His instruction in righteousness to do the things that are going to cause Him to want to come near to me. There are my way of doing things, and there is God's way of doing things. It's a piece of cake to burn a candle, and to turn down the lights, and play religious music and sit quietly in a chair. But it's not always so easy to "walk uprightly, work righteousness, speak truth in my heart, guard my tongue from backbiting, keep from entering into the "herd mentality" against a neighbor (that is "taking up a reproach"), or separate from vile person. It's not so easy to speak the truth when it might personally hurt me. But THESE are the things that God promises will get me into His presence!!! Am I hungry enough for God that I'm going to keep careful watch over my "checklist" of what God likes???

In closing, if you've got a true spiritual hunger that is desirous to be in the presence of the Lord, desirous to see true prophecy come to pass, desirous to see the manifestation of the manchild, then begin to perceive that very desire as the true intercession of the Spirit that WILL cause these things to come to birth, and hold fast to your hunger for God!! Let your hunger be according to the absence of complete fulfillment as found in the following scripture so that your capacity for more of God can increase.

15 The horseleach hath two daughters, crying, Give, give. There are three things that are never satisfied, yea, four things say not, It is enough:
16The grave; and the barren womb; the earth that is not filled with water; and the fire that saith not, It is enough. Proverbs 30:15, and 16.

Just when you feel you cannot be more hungry for God, think about how that bloodsucker, the horseleach, never ceases to crave the taste of blood. Think about how the grave is never satisfied, and a day doesn't go by that it is not looking to receive yet another lifeless form into it's arms. Think about how the earth drinks in the rain, and yet always has an appetite for more as the rivers run into the seas, and how a fire will devour all in it's path, and yet never needs to loosen the belt because it's tummy is full. Think about the anguish of an unfulfilled barren woman, desiring to hold a baby close to her breast. Let your hunger for God develop so that it's not eclipsed by any of these illustrations of desperate hunger so portrayed by the writer of Proverbs.

It will be seen in the heart of God as TRUE INTERCESSION, and then you will BRING FORTH!! Your spiritual hunger will be converted in the courts of heaven, and in the heart of God as the purest of prayer, and He will hear you, and you will be satisfied!

For He satisfieth the longing soul, and filleth the hungry soul with goodness. Psalm 107: 9

Trapped In Love and Mercy Acts 13:39,41

> So let it be clearly known and understood by you, brethren, that through this Man forgiveness and removal of sins is now proclaimed to you; And that through Him everyone who believes (who acknowledges Jesus as his Savior and devotes himself to Him) is absolved (cleared and freed) from every charge from which he could not be justified and freed by the Law of Moses and given right standing with God. You won't believe it even when it is clearly told to you in fine details. John 1:9-14

God condemned sin in the flesh of Jesus. It is not our body that has to fulfill the Law of God to be saved, because Jesus has already fulfilled the Law of God.

He sent His Word and healed them. Jesus was the Word made flesh. By His stripes we were healed.

Acts 17:24-29

The God who produced and formed the world and all things in it being Lord of Heaven and earth, does not dwell in handmade shrines.

Neither is He served by human hands, as though He lacked anything, for it is He Himself Who gives life and breath and all things to all people.

And He made from one (common origin, one source, one blood) all nations of men to settle on the face of the earth, having definitely determined (their) allotted periods of time and the fixed boundaries of their habitation (their settlements, lands, and abodes).

So that they should seek God, in the hope that they might feel after Him and find Him, although He is not far from each one of us.

For in Him we live and move and have our being; as even some of your (own) poets have said, For we are also His offspring.

Since then we are God's offspring, we ought not to suppose that deity (the God-Head) is like gold or silver or stone, (of the nature of) a representation by human art and imagination, or anything constructed or invented.

Genesis 1:2627

God created man as a mirror image and likeness of Himself.

God said, Let Us (Father, Son, and Holy Spirit) make mankind in Our image, and after Our likeness, and let them have complete authority over the fish of the sea, the birds of the air, the (tame) beasts, and over all of the earth, and over everything that creeps upon the earth.

So God created man in His Own image, in the image and likeness of God He created him; male and female He created them.

And God blessed them and said to them, be fruitful, multiply, and fill the earth and subdue it (using all its vast resources in the service of God and man); and have dominion over the fish of the sea, the birds of the air, and over every living creature that moves upon the earth.

Adam did not have a natural Father.

John 1:12-14,17

But to as many as did receive and welcome Him, He gave authority (power, privilege, right) to become the children of god, that is, to those who believe in adhere to trust in, and rely on) His name.

Who owe their birth neither to bloods nor of the will of the flesh (that of physical impulse) nor to the will of man (that of a natural), but to God. (They are born of God).

And the Word (Christ) became flesh (human, incarnate) and tabernacled (fixed His tent of flesh, lived awhile) among us; and we (actually) saw His glory as an only begotten son receives from His father, full of grace (favor, loving-kindness) and truth.

John testified about Him and cried out, This was He of Whom I said, He Who comes after me has priority over me, for He was before me.

(He takes rank above me, for He existed before I did. He has advanced before me, because He is My chief).

For out of His fullness (abundance) we have all received (all had a share and we were all supplied with) one grace after another and spiritual blessing upon spiritual blessing and even favor upon favor and gift (heaped) upon gift.

For while the Law was given through Moses, grace (unearned, unmerited, undeserved favor and spiritual blessing) and truth came through Jesus Christ.

Ephesians 1:11-22

In Him we also were made (God’s) Heritage (portion) and we obtained an inheritance; for we had been foreordained (chosen and appointed beforehand) in accordance with His purpose, Whop works out everything in agreement with the counsel and design of His Own will.

So that we who first hoped in Christ (who first put our confidence in Him have been destined and appointed to) live for the praise of His glory!

In Him you also who have heard the Word of Truth, the glad tidings (Gospel) of your salvation, and have believed in and adhered to and relied on Him, were stamped with the seal of the long promised Holy Spirit.

That Spirit is the guarantee of our inheritance (the first fruits, the pledge and foretaste, the down payment on our heritage, in anticipation of its full redemption and our acquiring (complete) possession of it to the praise of His glory,

For this reason, because I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love toward the saints (the people of God),

I do not cease to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers.

For I always pray to the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, that He may grant you a spirit of wisdom and revelation (of insight into the mysteries and secrets) in the deep and intimate knowledge of Him,

By having the eyes of your heart flooded with light, so that you can know and understand the hope to which He has called you, and how rich is His glorious inheritance in the saints (His set-apart ones),

And so that you can know and understand what is the immeasurable and unlimited and surpassing greatness of His power in and for us who believe, as demonstrated in the working of His mighty strength,

Which He exerted in Christ when He raised Him from the dead and seated Him at His Own right hand in the heavenly places,

Far above all rule and authority and authority and power and dominion and every name that is named (above every title that can be conferred), not only in this age and in this world, but also in the age and the world which are to come.

And He has put all things under His feet and has appointed Him the universal and supreme Head of the church (a headship exercised throughout the church),

Which is His body, the fullness of Him Who fills all in all (for in that body lives the full measure of Him Who makes everything complete, and Who fills everything everywhere with Himself.

Ephesians 2:4-12

But God-so rich is He in His mercy! Because of and in order to satisfy the great and wonderful and intense love with which He loved us,

Even when we were dead (slain) by our own shortcomings and trespasses, He made us alive together in fellowship and in union with Christ Himself, the same new life with which He quickened Him, for it is by grace (His favor and mercy which you did not deserve) that you are saved (delivered from judgment and made partakers of Christ's salvation),

And He raised us up together with Him and made us sit down together (giving us joint seating with Him) in the heavenly sphere (by virtue of our being) in Christ Jesus (the messiah, the Anointed One).

He did this that He might clearly demonstrate through the ages to come the immeasurable (limitless, surpassing) riches of His free grace (His unmerited favor) in (His) kindness and goodness of heart toward us in Christ Jesus.

For it is by free grace (God's unmerited favor) that you are saved (delivered from judgment and made partakers of Christ's salvation, is not of yourselves (of your own doing, it came not through your own striving , but it is the gift of God;

Not because of works (not the fulfillment of the Law's demands), lest any man should boast. (It is not the result of what anyone can possibly do, so no one can pride himself in it or take glory to himself).

For we are God's Own handiwork (His workmanship), recreated in Christ Jesus, (born anew) that we may do those good works which God predestined (planned beforehand) for us (taking paths which He prepared ahead of time), that we should walk in them (living the good life which He prearranged and made ready for us to live).

Ephesians 3:4-6

When you read this you can understand my insight into the mystery of Christ.

This mystery was never disclosed to human beings in past generations as it has now been revealed to His Holy apostles (consecrated messengers) and prophets by the Holy Spirit.

Everything that comes from the Holy Spirit is perfect and complete and whole and in fullness. This seals of lives in Christ.

It is this that the Gentiles are now to be fellow heirs with the Jews, members of the same body and joint partakers (sharing) in the same divine promise in Christ through (their acceptance of) the glad tidings (the Gospel).

God chose the color of our suits or our skin and the places where we live.

Sealed In Him

John 1:3-4

All things were made and came into existence through Him; and without Him was not even one thing made that has come into being.

In Him was Life, and the Life was the Light of men.

II Corinthians 1:20

For as many as are the promises of God, they all find their Yes (answer) in Him (Christ). For this reason we also utter the Amen (so be it) to God through Him (in His Person and by His agency) to the glory of God

But it is God Who confirms and makes us steadfast and establishes us (in joint fellowship) with you in Christ, and has consecrated and anointed us (enduing us with the gifts of the Holy Spirit);

He has also appropriate and acknowledged us as His by putting His seal upon us and giving us His Holy Spirit in our hearts as the security deposit and guarantee (of the fulfillment of His promise).

I Corinthians 6:17, 18-19

But the person who is united to the Lord becomes one spirit with Him.

Do you not know that your body is the temple (the very sanctuary) of the Holy Spirit Who lives within you, Whom you have received

(as a Gift) from God? You are not your own.

You were bought with a price purchased with a preciousness and paid for, made His Own. So then, honor God and bring glory to Him in your body.

All In One (Jesus) were made righteous

II Corinthians 5:21

For our sake He made Christ (virtually) to be sin Who knew no sin, so that in and through Him we might become (endued with, viewed as being in, and examples of) the righteousness of God (what we ought to be, approved and acceptable and in right relationship with Him, by His goodness.

Ephesians 1:4-5, 10-11

Even as (in His love) He chose us (actually picked us out for Himself as His Own) in Christ before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy (consecrated and set apart for Him) and blameless in

His sight, even above reproach, before Him in love.

For He foreordained us (destined us, planned in love for us) to be adopted (revealed) as His Own children through Jesus Christ, in accordance with the purpose of His will (because it pleased Him and was His kind intent.

He planned for the maturity of the times and the climax of the ages to unify all things and head them up and consummate them in Christ, (both) things in heaven and things on the earth.

In Him we also were made (God's) Heritage (portion) and we obtained an inheritance; for we had been foreordained (chosen and appointed beforehand) in accordance with His purpose, Who works out everything in agreement with the counsel and design of His Own will..

Colossians 2:9-10

For in Him the whole fullness of Deity (the God-Head) continues to dwell in bodily form (giving complete expression of the divine nature).

And you are in Him, made full and having come to fullness of life (in Christ you too are filled with the God-Head-Father, Son and Holy Spirit-and reach full spiritual stature). And He is the Head of all rule and authority (of every angelic principality and power).

I Corinthians 12:27

Now you (collectively) are Christ's body and individually you are members of it, each part severally and distinct (each with his own place and function).

Philippians 3:8-9

Yes furthermore, I count everything as loss compared to the possession of the priceless privilege (the overwhelming preciousness, the surpassing worth, and supreme advantage) of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord and of progressively becoming more deeply an intimately acquainted with Him (of perceiving and recognizing and understanding Him more fully and clearly). For His sake I have lost everything and consider it all to be mere rubbish (refuse, dregs), in order that I may win (gain) Christ (the Anointed One).

And that I may (actually) be found and known as in Him, not having any (self-achieved) righteousness that can be called my own, based on my obedience to the Law's demands (ritualistic uprightness and supposed right standing with God thus acquired), but possessing that genuine righteousness which comes through faith in Christ (the Anointed one), the truly right standing with God which comes from God by saving faith.

I John 5:20

And we have seen and know positively that the Son of God has actually come to this world and has given us understanding and insight progressively to perceive recognize and come to know better and more clearly Him Who is true and we are in Him Who is true- in His Son Jesus Christ (the Messiah), This Man is the true God and Life eternal.

I Corinthians 1:30

But it is from Him that you have your life in Christ Jesus,

Whom God made our Wisdom from God, (revealed to us a knowledge of the divine plan of salvation previously hidden, manifesting itself as) our Righteousness (thus making us upright and putting us in right standing with God), and our Consecration (making us pure and holy), and our Redemption (providing our ransom from eternal penalty for sin).

Colossians 3:3-4

For as far as this world is concerned, you have died, and your new real life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ, Who is our life will appear with Him in the splendor of His glory.

I Corinthians 3:16

Do you not discern and understand that you (the whole church at Corinth are God's temple (His sanctuary), and that God's Spirit has His permanent dwelling in you (to be at home in you, collectively as a church also individually)?

The Word of God in the new testament mentions that we are In Him over 380 times.

If we can understand that we are already completely accepted in Christ and favored in Christ, then we will lose our sense of inferiority and weakness.

Now the Word of God says that to Whom you yield your body to obey, that is whose servant you will be. But remember, greater is He that is in you than He that is in the world.

Remember that you were purchased by God and you are not your own any longer. You are God's property.

Romans 12:1

Present your bodies to God which is your reasonable service.

All that is in the world is the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes and the pride of life.

Satan cannot tempt you with what is already yours.

I Corinthians 3:22-23

All things are yours.

And you are Christ's and Christ is God's.

I Corinthians 3:1-3

Do not think as unspiritual men having the nature of the flesh, under control of ordinary impulses. Do not behave as unchanged men.

The Law of the Spirit of Life in Christ Jesus has set me free from the Law of sin and death.

I am sealed in favor forever. I am sealed in completeness, wholeness and fullness in Jesus Christ.

He whom the Son sets free is free indeed.

I am free from trying to be justified by my own actions and free from trying to get into favor by my good performance or good behavior.

I am accepted in the Beloved in Christ alone.

We are God’s temple through Christ Jesus.

Our victory is sealed by the finished work of Christ.

Our healing is sealed by the finished work of Christ.

Our blessings and gifts are sealed by the finished work of Christ.

Now let us renew our minds to match our position.

Philemon 6

And I pray that the participation in and sharing of you faith may produce and promote full recognition and appreciation and understanding and precise knowledge of every good thing that is ours in our identification with Christ Jesus and unto His glory.

Speak in faith like Jesus spoke and get the results that Jesus got.

Signature Of God

Timothy Snodgrass

Signature of God on 40-Day Fast, April 8 – May 18, 2005

Today, on April 8th, 2005, we have begun our 40-day fast for the South Pacific, and for inhabitants of the Pacific coastal regions from Alaska to Argentina, and from New Zealand to the Aleutian Islands. If you happen to be reading this report on a later date, and have not yet joined us on the fast, we encourage you to do so at whatever level you are physically able. Many will be doing a limited Daniel Fast (fruits & vegetables; no breads, meats or pleasure foods), but however you fast, remember to pray fervently for the people of the Pacific coastlands; for revival, mercy, and spiritual awakening.

If you have any doubts as to the validity of the timing of this fast, or are not sure if it was called by God or man, then look closely at the dates, published months in advance (April 8 - May 18). Every major prophetic warning is followed by major signs, which have the signature of God, easy to recognize if you examine the pattern of events. Pope John Paul II was born during an eclipse on May 18, 1920 (look at the date: May 18). Only God knew in advance that Pope John Paul would be buried in Rome 84 years later, during a total solar eclipse on April 8, 2005, the beginning of the 40-day fast. Think about that for a minute: On the very day this 40-fast was called months in advance, not only did skies darken across the South Pacific from a total eclipse, but flags were lowered around the world at half-stance from the death of John Paul II. This 40-day fast will end on John Paul's birthday, May 18 (Washington residents will of course recognize that date as being the anniversary of the eruption of Mt. Saint Helens). If you look closely at this pattern of events, you can only come to one conclusion: the signature of God on the fast is clearly evident, and the warning for the South Pacific is chillingly valid and time-sensitive.

One month prior to the great December 26 Sumatra quake, we forewarned of the Great Indonesia Quake and tsunami in our 11/11/04 report. Now we are warning of greater seismic events to follow in 2005, unless their prayer, fasting and repentance for the sake of the inhabitants of the coastlands. Indonesia would be impacted tremendously, and tsunami would make the 33-foot waves from the 12/26/04 quake look small in comparison. Short of angelic intervention, the epicenter of the quake will be SE of the 9.3 Sumatra quake, putting at risk New Zealand, Australia, Polynesia, Malaysia and the Philippines. Tsunami height would decrease as the wave traveled across the Pacific, but still remain significant as far away as Los Angeles and Anchorage. This warning is given for the purpose of averting the magnitude and timing event, for the sake of the inhabitants of the coasts. We pray that this cataclysm never takes place. Keep in mind, great quakes are inevitable before Christ returns; however, we believe that this specific event is not inevitable or written in stone. If you examine prophetic warnings given for this event, and warnings given for Indonesia's great December quake on 11/11/04, you will see some major differences. No call to prayer and fasting was given for Indonesia, and the 11/11/04 warning was given in the context of a progressive judgment. But in the case of this warning for the South Pacific, there appears to be an opportunity for repentance and grace. Only angelic intervention can relieve the tectonic pressures building in the South Pacific region, which is nearing the point of a cataclysmic conclusion. If you happen to live near the Pacific coastal regions, be encouraged: prayer can move mountains! Will you join us during this time of prayer and fasting for the Pacific? South Pacific Mission

We have extended our hands to seven nations in the South Pacific, and only one nation has responded: Fiji. The church in Fiji has treated us like royalty, and will be joining us in prayer and fasting for revival, mercy, and for a manifestation of a tidal wave of the glory of the Lord in the South Pacific region, instead of tsunami of judgment. We have not received any response from Australia, New Zealand or other South Pacific nations. As a matter of spiritual protocol, we will not enter into a nation unless at least one gatekeeper opens the door, giving a platform to the messenger to speak the word he has been given for their nation. Otherwise, traveling across the world would be fruitless; although the prayers and intercession of the messenger and team would be heard, and judgment possibly averted, still, sometimes a nation needs judgment before they can enter into revival and spiritual inheritance. In November, 1989, we traveled to Berlin to intercede for East Germany, and as many of you are aware, on the day our team arrived in Germany from Sweden the Berlin Wall fell. But there was no spiritual fruit. We were not received by the church in Germany. Our pillows were back-packs as we slept in cold train stations, not having the money for rooms; our offerings were bullets, as drunk passerby's shot at us; our music was loud police whistles, as guards and police officers chased those who shot at us. Since 1989, we have changed much of our protocol. We will not enter into a nation unless at least one spiritual gatekeeper invites us. For the release of spiritual fruits and freedoms is much more important than political freedoms; it is more important than national peace and stability; whereas what good is seismic, political or financial stability, when the souls of a nation are in darkness.

South Pacific Intercessory Trip

We have extended our hands to seven nations in the South Pacific, and only one nation has responded: Fiji. The church in Fiji has treated us like royalty, and will be joining us in prayer and fasting for revival, mercy, and for a manifestation of a tidal wave of the glory of the Lord in the South Pacific region, instead of tsunami of judgment. We have not received any response from Australia, New Zealand or other South Pacific nations. As a matter of spiritual protocol, we will not enter into a nation unless at least one gatekeeper opens the door, giving a platform to the messenger to speak the word he has been given for their nation. Otherwise, traveling across the world would be fruitless; although the prayers and intercession of the messenger and team would be heard, and judgment possibly averted, still, sometimes a nation needs judgment before they can enter into revival and spiritual inheritance. MISSION TO FIJI

The segments of our intercessory journey to Australia and New Zealand are now pending in the balance, and we are now concentrating most of our efforts on Fiji in Polynesia. I will be flying to Fiji from Manila shortly after our 40-day fast. Our Ascension Day mission to New Zealand has been canceled; however, Australia and New Zealand may be revived later. We have strong words for these nations, but are waiting for a gatekeeper to prepare the way. We are very excited about our mission to Fiji, and expecting great things to be released in the islands of the sea, as God prepares his army and end time revivalist to ignite the Pacific Rim with his glory; we are about to see the release of an unprecedented healing movement so vast, so far reaching, that like a tsunami, nothing can stop it, and it will turn the world up-side-down with the glory of God.

Signs of Evidence

Arlette Pollard

Revelation 16:10-11

Was it the absence of evidence
That caused her to reply
With an attitude of indifference
To the words he prophesied.
She proclaimed all things
Had remained the same
Men still breathed, lived and died,
Families moved on, songs were sung
Soldiers fought, and women cried.
If there was any salvation
Unto eternal life
Then she asked him where was the evidence
That would change the direction of time.

Yet she would often remember
The words he spoke years ago
As they walked down by the river's edge
Talking of a love to her unknown.
How he tried to help her visualize
God's love that inspired his heart toward hope
Found in the message of the risen King
The One, he claimed to have personally known
How God's Holy Spirit
Moved like a river
Upon the parched shoreline of his weary soul
Bringing healing and deliverance
From condemnations unmerciful hold.

So today, as the girl wandered
Down the street of life's design
She wondered if she had seen signs of evidence
In the life of the man with gentle eyes
Who had taken time to share with her
Even though she mocked him while walking by his side
Extending gifts of mercy
Rarely given to the girl who never apologized
For her reckless acts of self abandonment
That wrecked havoc in many lives.
Maybe it was the way he spoke,
That made her stop and think about the time
How today might be a good day
To lift her voice on high
Asking God if He is really there
To make Himself known within her life.

> "And the fifth angel poured out his vial upon the seat of the beast; and his kingdom was full of darkness; and they gnawed their tongues for pain, and blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores, and repented not of their deeds." Revelation 16:10-11

> "Shall the throne of iniquity have fellowship with thee, which frameth mischief by a law? They gather themselves together against the soul of the righteous, and condemn the innocent blood. But the Lord is my defense; and my God is the rock of my refuge. And he shall bring upon them their own iniquity, and shall cut them off in their own wickedness; yea, the Lord our God shall cut them off." Psalm 94:20-23

"Thus saith the Lord, The heaven is my throne, and the earth is my footstool" (Isaiah 66:1). When the word "heaven" is spoken, thoughts of space that surround the earth, in which the sun, moon, and stars appear, comes to mind. Those who acknowledge that the heavens are God's throne are able to look up into the sky and appreciate that the Lord's power and authority has brought to pass that which the eye can see. They are able to appreciate that creation was not a random activity that introduced matter, space and time, but that "the invisible things of him [God] from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made" (Romans 1:20). They are able to appreciate that creation is a reality purposely ordained of God.

Those who have comprehension that the heavens contain God's throne, are able to understand how the power behind God's throne, is non other than God Himself. It is God, the creator of heaven and earth, who has taken the invisible things of Himself, and made visible, manifestations of His goodness, which is able to be experienced of mankind, according to the good pleasure of His will. Because it is God whose presence fills the heavens, it can be said that all of creation displays the glory of God. And if a man should quiet his soul and seek the Lord, he may appreciate, that from God's throne that fills the heavens, can be heard the resonating sound of God's profound love, for God is love. ("He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love." 1 John 4:8)

> "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved." John 3:16-17

God's abundant love has continued throughout the ages to be exhibited within the heavens. God, who is love, cannot deny Himself, and so He who is love, continues to exhibit His personality throughout the heavens declaring to mankind a message of great worth. In accord with His nature, God purposed from the foundation of the world to send His only begotten Son to the earth, not to keep men in the grip of condemnation's cruel bondage, but to bestow upon mankind riches of great worth. God sent to the earth His beloved Son, so that mankind would personally be able to experience God's love "shed abroad in our [their] hearts." (Romans 5:5)

Through faith in Jesus Christ, God redeems mankind from the Adamic nature, which has caused men/women to stand under the heavens that exhibit the glory of God, yet not appreciate the beauty and loving kindness of the Lord. Though God's love is in evidence in all of creation, while a person walks in unbelief, they will remain in a domain of denial. It is through seeking after Jesus Christ in sincere faith, that a person is rewarded with the infilling of God's Holy Spirit, who is equipped to open the eyes of the (spiritually) blind, so they are able to see and appreciate the glory of God that surrounds them. Through the infilling of the Holy Spirit the partakers will, through personal experience, begin to understand the mysteries that are theirs in Christ.

> "Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God." Hebrews 12:2

Jesus Christ, after offering up His life "to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself" (Hebrews 9:26) ascended on high, to sit at the right hand of the throne of God. Jesus Christ who was with God in the beginning, would, after fulfilling the purposes of the Father, take His rightful place within the heavens beside the Father. The power and authority behind the throne, which supports the intent and purposes of God's beloved Son, Jesus Christ, is God. From the throne of God, judgment unto righteousness has been obtained through the sacrifice of God’s beloved Son, Jesus Christ.

It is God, the creator of heaven and earth, who ordained, from the foundation of the world, a way for each man/woman to come boldly before His throne of grace, and to obtain mercy in their time of need, through faith in Jesus Christ. Because of what Jesus Christ accomplished through His obedience to the Father, a way was made possible for each person to enter into the holiest of places, so they can look upon and behold the glory of God for themselves (Hebrews 10:19-22). Because of Christ, they are able to be filled of God’s Spirit, so that their minds are renewed by the goodness of God, which will cause them to walk having spiritual discernment, able to see and appreciate the glory of God that surrounds them.
